Information On Midwestern Folk Drama Contest Here

Information folders concerning the Midwestern Folk Drama Contest have been received by Miss Julia Jonah of the English Department.

The contest, which is being sponsored by the Cape Girardeau Teachers' College, is open to college students of twenty-eight states, including Illinois, and also amateur playwrights not affiliated with any college.

Quoting from a previous issue of the Egyptian, "the plays must be original folk plays. Folk drama, as defined for this contest, includes not only the primitive, simple people of isolated communities, but also the submerged tenth of human life, wherever it may be found."

"The intercollegiate division is itself divided into two sections, with one for one-act comedies, and one for serious plays. A presentation contest for each division is to be conducted. Only one play will be selected in any section from any person, and the plays entered must be unpublished."

LITTLE THEATER WILL PRESENT PLAY AT MARION

Members of the Little Theater will present the play "Dust of the Road" at the Marion Township High School at chapel Thursday.

The cast includes Edward Mitchell, Glenn Pulkinson, Frank Elders, and Ann Langdon.

It will be remembered that this same play was presented here last year in a new dramatic sketch of the Marion Township High School.

Thursday evening new members of the society will entertain the older ones with a party which is to be held at 7:30 in the Zetetic hall.

There will be no more meetings until after the Christmas holidays.

Plan for Sound Picture Project, Amplifying System Addition Here

Tentative plans are now under way to provide the auditorium, not only with an amplifying system, but also with a moving picture projector, complete with sound equipment.

Local authorities feel sure that the state will grant the requisition for the purchase. Since the auditorium already has a projection room, the installing of the apparatus should not be difficult.

TENTH ANNUAL INTRAMURAL COURT LEAGUE BEING FORMED

Leland P. Lingle Arranging Annual Tournament

PLAY IN TWO DIVISIONS

Freshmen and Upper-Classmen in Separate Sections

Plans are underway for the formation of the tenth annual S. I. T. C. intramural basketball league, according to Leland P. Lingle of the athletic department, who has conducted the tournament each year.

It is expected that play in the upper-class division may be started before the Christmas holidays, or at least immediately after.

The freshmen will enter teams representative of the twenty-five freshman groups. Organization of the freshmen divisions will be held up until after the freshmen group meeting next Friday.

The play will be in two separate tournaments, with either one or two leagues in each division, depending on the number of teams entered.

However, it is certain that there will be a complete round-robin schedule in every league, and play is definitely set for each Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday night during the winter term.

Teams must be formed according to the following specifications: Ten men must be listed. There must be one man listed as manager, who shall handle all the "business" of the team.

A few independent fives are already being organized, including the 1936 winners, the Sons of Kong team.

The winners were pictured in the Oval and the names were located on the intramural plaque, purchased last year for the gymnasium and containing the team lists of all intramural sport winners.

Museum Rehabilitation Continues With Work On Mounted Specimens

"When you have a live model to use while stuffing a specimen, you can stand the criticism of onlookers when they remark that the specimen does not look natural."

The work of cleaning the old mounted specimens is practically finished and those not worth cleaning are being discarded.

In such a manner the skin collection has been greatly enlarged and new specimens are listed.

Another activity which might appear even more disappointing to those who dislike hard work, is the accurate survey being made by the taking of an inventory.

By the end of the week we plan to have most of the present specimens classified, corrected and rechecked so that we know definitely just what we are doing.

PLANS NOW NEED ONLY APPROVAL OF ARCHITECT

Construction Of Girls' Athletic Field Included In Plan

Approval by the State Teachers' College Board has been granted to the stadium plan prepared by S. I. T. C., and the plans need only final sanction of the state architect's office.

The proposed stadium will seat 6,000 people and will be of permanent nature, being built of concrete.

The stadium will include the moving of 10,000 yards of dirt in order to construct an athletic field for girls.

The stadium, the girls' field and the present boys' fields will be at the disposal of the whole of Southern Illinois, for community and regional events.

The annual plan for the stadium as outlined by WPA authorities provides for a Federal grant of $62,465.80 and leaves the state the remainder, or $15,369.18 to pay. The total cost of the project is $77,834.98.

It is hoped that the $15,369.18 will be raised among the alumni and friends of the school. To further this end, county committees and organizations have been formed under the direction of Captain William McDowell.

The project will require 1938 man months to complete, of which 186 man months will be taken from federal relief rolls.

In the statement made by President Roscoe Pulliam before the Teachers' College Board, he outlined the two benefits resulting from the stadium. He said, "In the first place, the college will be providing to Works Progress Administration a worthwhile opportunity to do a piece of permanent construction work which will have high value to the college and to the general public of Southern Illinois."

In the second place, the college will be securing a $17,000 fund for an expenditure from state funds of only a few thousand dollars."

Pulliam to Speak At Commerce Club

President Roscoe Pulliam will speak on the future of commercial education at the Commerce club tomorrow night. The meeting will be at 7 o'clock in the Socratic Hall.

Dr. J. R. Purdy will give a piano solo which will be one of his first public appearances on the campus.

FOR AMERICAN OLYMPIC PARTICIPATION

AMPLIFICATION SYSTEM AT LAST

It was with gratification that we heard the announcement concerning the imminent installation of an amplification system in Shryock Auditorium.

Several complaints have been heard about inability to hear some of the entertainment numbers presented here this year. Especially the Mark Sullivan, a low-voiced speaker, a victim of the lack of amplification facilities in the Auditorium.

THE QUESTION OF THE WEEK

What do you think of the fact that the question of the week was not before the English office waiting to be registered?

Answer—They were Senators who were confused by the efficiency of the new registration system.

Before we start the Spring term, we humbly suggest that someone start a "Shora or Book" club. It could be conducted something like the old Prosperity Club.

Some two or three decades ago, Frank Merrill, aka 'Terrible Thirties', was a member of the Kappa Phi Kappa Publications, formed a rather unique "pop club."

REFLECTIONS

By Frank Samuel.

It's something very funny, Pathos and gloom, and duty. To see a teacher. Calm a student down. Expressions on those faces—From hair to their Shoe-laces blushing redder than your lipstick in this town.

But pathetic more's the Condition, when the teacher's Sole ambition is just To make the class think He's the staff. When constructive criticism Turns bluntly to Sarcasm—then is when His class gets just Enough.

And though they must Retain it, for they Dare not explain it. The class is thinking, "What a sap he is!" To think that College teaching Amounts to just "Self-repeating" that Friendship matters nothing—What a mis!

Some teachers like To joke-sarcasically They poke their Volney, aged gags so Dry and frayed, and Then they laugh and Rave, until they're Sick of the whole. "Students" laugh along "To aid a grade."

But you don't have to "Lyn, don't even move your 'Chin, if I joke is Not so funny as they think. Just sit right there And stare, clear your Mind, and drop your Chair, and the 'omposure of the Joker—watch it sink!

NEW REGISTRATION SYSTEM UNSATISFACTORY

The new plan of registration, given its first trial this term, seems to fall far short of correcting the various evils it sought to eradicate. The principal objection to the plan is that it has caused the largest jam to be at the business office. This caused unnecessary standing in line and possibly unnecessary haste by the business office force.

Virginia Spiller Chosen As Vice President, Juanita Lee Sec-Treas.

Evelyn Miller, senator, was elected president of the S. I. T. C. Debate club for the winter quarter at a meeting of the club Monday night in the Zetetic hall.

Virginia Spiller, also a senator, was named as vice president, and Juanita Lee as secretary-treasurer. The latter office will be for the duration of the year, but the vice president will be for the winter term only.

The Debate club also decided at the Monday meeting to have regular weekly gatherings to discuss the current debate question. These meetings will be held every Thursday afternoon, beginning tomorrow.

Tentative plans for the season have been made by the club. Tryouts will probably be held at intervals throughout the year in order to keep the ranking list up to date and give those who improve in debating ability an opportunity to work upward.

The opponents definitely scheduled at present are Evansville, there, early in January; Cape Girardeau, here, January 16; Cape Girardeau, here, January 17; McKendree, there, February 14; Shortell, there, February 14. Plans have been made for debates with St. Louis University and other colleges, all of which have not been definitely stated as yet.

The Phi Kappa Delta national college question will be debated at each instance. The question is: Resolved: That Congress should have the power to override by a two-thirds majority decisions of the Supreme Court during laws passed by Congress unconstitutional.

CROSS FIRE AT CAMERA CLUB

The American Institute of Public Opinion, now conducting some of the most representative polls of American public opinion, bears out the statement recently made by Mark Sullivan that Governor Alf Landon of Kansas is the most talked of candidate for the Republican presidential nomination.

According to the Institute's poll of Republicans, Landon was favored by 33 percent of the G. O. P. voters, followed rather closely by William E. Borah, United States Senator from Idaho. Borah polled 26 per cent of the Republican votes to lead Herbert Hoover, ex-president and theoretical head of the Republican organization, and Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., son of the famous Teddy, each of whom was preferred by 12 percent of the Republicans.

More or less support was evinced for Colonel Frank Knox, publisher of the Chicago Daily News; Ogden Mills, secretary of the treasury under President Hoover; Arthur Vandenberg, liberal senator from Michigan; and U. S. Senator L. J. (Holl) Ransdell, Dickinson, agrarian crusader during laws passed by Congress unconstitutional.

This is the second poll made of Republican voters by the Institute and the changes shown are rather interesting. Since the first poll, taken last March, Landon has increased his vote 10 times and Hoover 9 times. Borah has improved his position slightly, Hoover voters have decreased somewhat, while Young Teddy's supporters remain about the same.

In the region including Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, and Michigan, Governor Landon is the leading candidate with Senator Borah running second.

Evidence of the constant friction between the national government and the United States Chamber of Commerce is shown in the statement by the Chamber that a poll of its members showed 'strong disapproval' of recent legislation in Washington and reiterates the active 'resistance' of business men to an increasing government encroachment into fields rightfully occupied by private business enterprises.

A hopeful sign amidst the armament race and the building of bombing planes is the recent trans-Pacific flight of the China Clipper from Alameda, California, to Manila, Philippine Islands. DR. O. B. YOUNG TALKS ON 'LENSES' AT CAMERA CLUB

The Camera club met last Monday in the Zoology recitation room. Dr. O. B. Young discussed 'Lenses,' telling of various kinds of lenses and their use in photography.

The Camera club was organized some time ago by a group of students and townspeople who were interested in amateur photography. Mrs. J. P. Street is the leader of the group.

Although the club meets regularly the first Monday of each month, the next meeting will be held the second Monday in January, because of the holidays. Definite announcement will appear in the school calendar at a later date.

The club welcomes anyone interested in the field of photography.

flight to announce that it is planning an entire air fleet for the same general purpose as the startling China Clipper.

The depression may have cut many laborers' wages but it has not noticeably affected the managing directors of great corporations. Rather, the reported executives receiving reports of salaries paid in 1933, 1932, and 1934.

The results show that salaries have almost unanimously raised or held their own since 1932, with only a few corporations showing lower salaries since that year.

'Tops' now among the high salaries reported is that of Thomas J. Watson, president of the International Business Machine Company. Mr. Watson earned the meager sum of $365,358 in total compensation during 1934. Numerous other companies reported executives receiving compensation in excess of $100,000.

However, the $365,358 paid to Mr. Watson dwindles in size when compared to the $1,635,753 paid to Eugene C. Grace, president of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, in 1933. That sum will remain in the record of being the most compensation paid to any business official during a single year.

These sums seem rather surprising when one considers that only twenty years ago the average yearly wage of the steel workers in the South Bethlehem plant was less than $500 per year.

FIFTY COUPLES ATTEND DELTA SIG FORMAL

Vince Gonovore's ten-piece orchestra played Friday night for the Delta Sigma Epsilon, winter formal which was held in the new gymnasium. Approximately fifty couples attended.

The formal was a great dance planned by a committee composed of Betty Beyer, chairman, Mrs. Helen Wolfenbarger, Sue Crain, and Betty Vick. On the black backdrop behind the orchestra hung a large facsimile of the sorority crest, and each end of the gymnasium was decorated with replicas of the sorority crest. Sorrowful colors of green and cream were used. At the intermission, a tap and a toe dance were given.

Dean and Mrs. D. G. Lentz, Dean and Mrs. G. D. Wham, Dean Lucy K. Woody, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. McIntosh, and Burnett Shryock chaperoned.

SENIOR SKETCHES

Robert Courtney is so well known on the campus that he needs no introduction. He is 'Bob' or 'Shadow' to a large percentage of the student body, even though many of those students do not know that he is a senior, or what his official capacity is on the campus. He is just 'one of the boys' in the cafe, the gym, the business office, always friendly and affable.

This is Mr. Courtney's second year as athletics manager and he is a member of the I. Club. What he lacks in stature Mr. Courtney makes up in alertness and ability.

Grace Hall is one of the less spectacular seniors who, nevertheless, has done worthwhile work in various capacities on the college campus. She is outstanding for her musical ability. She has played in the orchestra since she entered school and has done much special work along musical lines, particularly in the Socratic Literary Society.

Miss Hall is well liked by her classmates and during the past term has given further evidence of her versatility by gaining the approval of her entire practice class of Carverville high school students as well as of her supervisory teacher.

WINTER TERM ENROLLMENT STANDS AT 1422

Later Figures Expected To Raise This Total

At the end of the first week of registration for the winter term, enrollment figures stood at the last check-up Monday morning at 1422. Compared with the figures of the 1934 winter term, 29 less students have registered this year than last. However, Miss Marjorie Shank, Registrar, stated Friday that she expects the figures to be approximately the same as those of 1934 at the end of the week.

Of this list, the freshman class has the largest number registered, having a membership of 557. Second in numbers is the sophomore class with an enrollment of 501. At present, the junior class has 305 members, the senior class 148, and the unclassified group 16.

The new system of registration, devised by Miss Shank and J. H. Schroeder, was first put to test when registration began last Monday morning. Of the new features incorporated in this plan, the outstanding one permitted participation in registration before paying Business Office fees.

Tenth Annual Intramural League Formed

The schedule last year comprised more than 150 games played, not including championship contests. Winners this year will also have their names put on the intramural plaque, and it is possible that awards will be made. This is up to the players.

All players interested in entering the league should watch for chapel announcements, notices incorporated in this plan, the outstanding one permitted participation in registration before paying Business Office fees.

BOOK REVIEW

By ANTHONY VENEONI
"High Cost of Culture" by Constance Cassidy, American Mercury, October, 1935.
In a recent issue of American Mercury, Florence Cassidy, the young American author of "Even in Laughter" which was published last spring, has written an article dealing with one of the effects of the depression. She calls her article "The High Cost of Culture."

layer of society. Naturally, her point of view is that of the moneyed aristocrat.
Miss Cassidy's problem in "The High Cost of Culture" is that of the rich and cultured family, which, because of the depression, is forced to give up its Park Avenue home and to take one in a slightly less fashionable section of the city among the bourgeois. That, however, is not all of the problem. With the change of residence, comes a change of friends, contacts, and interests.
The "moneyed" father and mother with their expensively acquired tastes and culture do not suffer, for the truly educated can easily orient himself, but the children are left with no money for culture and no place to acquire it, for the Bronx is scarcely a place in which culture is found.

With such a situation, what are Mr. and Mrs. Cassidy to do with Junior? Is he to be allowed to mix with the common lads and lassies who, according to Miss Cassidy, bathe only once a week, and whose only interests are movies, jazz, and sex? Or is he to be protected? Shall she and her husband take spongy and say "Sonny, you can play with the laborer's son, but remember, you are better than he. His tastes, habits, interests, and clothes are funny. They're all wrong." The latter, says Miss Cassidy, is the real thing to do. She is not to be taken in by the "big bad wolf," the common class.

Besides lacking an understanding of the middle class, Miss Cassidy, it seems to me, is at times unfair. She seems to think that culture can be acquired only when it is prefixed by the dollar sign, or by a condition of social and intellectual snobbery. Intellect, or no intellect, good taste, or bad taste, culture, or no culture, teaching children to laugh at, a less fortunate group is far from being broad-minded. Miss Cassidy, to her credit, disapproves of racial prejudice, but she advocates an intellectual and social snobbery which seems to neutralize her one good point.

Quite evidently Miss Cassidy is a lady of means, for the things with which she would have to last spring very familiar belong to that upper class.

Russian-Born Wife of Illinois College President Defends Native Land and Soviet Customs

Mrs. J. C. Jaquith Compares The Present Day Russia With Pre-War Monarchy; Says Russian Women Have Equal Rights

By VIRGINIA SPILLER

Mrs. J. C. Jaquith spoke to the A. A. U. W. on Tuesday, December 3, discussing the topic of Russian folk-lore. Previous to her arrival in the United States in 1926 she was Maria Nikolaevna Marina, daughter of a Russian nobleman, a native of the Ukraine. Her present position as wife of the president of Illinois College at Jacksonville has given her new contacts, but apparently it has not lessened her interest in her native country.

Before leaving Wednesday morning, Mrs. Jaquith came out for a look at the S. I. T. C. campus, and between expressions of surprise at the spaciousness of the buildings in comparison with those at Jacksonville and explanations that she was leary of all reporters, "because they put such surprising statements into my mouth," she at last found time to comment on the Russia of today and the Russia that used to be.

"Russia today is not yet up to its pre-war level," she said. "There used to be great wealth and great poverty in Russia; now, perhaps, the great wealth is gone—there was the War, then civil war and the famine years. The Soviet had to start from scratch; they have done wonders. But I object to the statement that there were no roads, no rail-roads, no electric lights, no modern conveniences in Russia before! There were! Much of it was destroyed and had to be rebuilt; many new things have come in—things which have improved here so since that time!"

Apparently she has discovered subtle or mistaken ideas about Russia. Among them is our idea of the typical Russian being very dark. "Look at me," she said, her quick, intense manner of speech growing almost humorous. "I am the typical Russian! Because of my people are Slavs." Mrs. Jaquith is tall, fair-skinned, with clear blue eyes and very light brown hair.

In answer to a question as to the present status of women in Russia she said, "Women in Russia now have equal rights—actually have them! You don't have equal rights here! It was only possible through the Revolution, in wiping out the old and putting in the new. Russian women worked in the fields beside their men before the Revolution, but now all professions and occupations are open to them, even heavy industry."

Mrs. Jaquith feels that those who visit Russia would get much more out of it if they had at least a smattering of the Russian language. Contrary to popular opinion, Russian she says, is no harder to learn than any other language. "Yes," she concluded enthusiastically, "you must go to Russia!"

Mrs. Jaquith compares the present day Russia with pre-war monarchy, and says Russian women have equal rights.

ILLINOIS
"Hell Week" at the University of Illinois seems to be meeting a lot of serious opposition. Not only is it opposed by the various pledges to the Greek organizations, but by doctors, school officials, and even fraternity presidents.

Quoting from the "Daily Illini", Dr. David C. Hill, head of the University health service, says: "Hell Week is one of the most damnable customs ever perpetrated upon a student."

Thomas G. Hermanns of the psychology department thinks that "Hell Week" causes hard feelings between fraternity brothers which is never wiped out.

The program of the Volunteer's convention will be divided into three parts: Speaking from the platform, interviews between delegates and speakers, and informal entertainment. 31 C. C. COLLEGES PLACE 2 MEN EACH ON ALLSTAR TEAM

Morawski Gains First Team Selection At Tackle

Three Illinois College Conference teams shared six places on the conference all-star football team as selected by International News Service with the advice of a number of coaches in the conference. DeKalb, McKendree, and Monmouth were the teams placing two men each on the first eleven, with single men representing Millikin, Augustana, Illinois College, Illinois Wesleyan, and Southern Teachers.

Reino Nori, DeKalb quarterback and field general, was selected as the most valuable man to his team after a battle of ballouts with Ken Wilson of McKendree and Tom Whelan of Monmouth. Nori was given the left halfback position on the mythical conference team. The backfield was nearly unanimously selected as Wilson and Whelan were placed at right halfback and fullback respectively. Benson of Illinois Wesleyan was the only backfield man who faced stiff competition as he barely beat out Steve Leach of Millikin for the quarterback post.

Bill Morawski of Southern was among the standout linemen listed by conference coaches, as were Barnes of Monmouth and Blackburn of McKendree. Blackburn and Morawski were placed at tackles, flanked by Girchis of Millikin and Barnes at the end positions. The guards selected were Larson of Augustana and Mungler of Illinois College, while Bill Howard of DeKalb was awarded the center's job after close competition from Lesnick of Old Normal. Mungler is the only holdover from last year's International All-Star team, although Morawski was selected on the Associated Press team last fall.

Emery and Keyes Get Honorable Mention

Russell Emery, center, and Buster Keyes, fullback of Southern, were given honorable mention and were serving as substitutes for second team berths. The second team saw Augustana, Knox, and Old Normal place two men each as North Central, McKendree, Carthage, Millikin, and Illinois College each placed one representative.

Twenty-five players were also given the honorable mention rating, including sixteen linemen and nine backfield men. North Central led this list, with three men listed. Of the forty-seven men placed in some team or honorable mention, McKendree and Augustana had the most men placed with five each. Three schools, Lake Forest, Eureka, and Wheaton, failed to place any men on any list, while Charleston, Bradley, and Elmhurst placed only one each.

Wailing Wall

Conducted By Virginia Spilner

To the Editor of the Wailing Wall: It seems that with all the display of oratorical writing, brilliant journalism, and "big words," that this column has been voicing the past few weeks—that some of these fine scholars would turn their attention to something that would have an ultimate end!

This "Horse-Play" of the Independents versus the Greeks should be enough to make the young men and young women of our institution see just how silly their argument is. It looks to me as if it is a fight between those who think they have not and those who think they have. There isn't anything new in that sort of talk. It is the same stuff which every demagogue has used since universal suffrage became established. It is the most appeal of the "outs" trying to get in, of the half-baked radicals who want to make trouble, of the cheap breast beaters, who think that it is the sure-fire way to get votes.

But this is not the text of my "Wailing."

I can't understand how a group of students, who call themselves scholars, can get aroused over such a petty thing when there are such obvious matters that are confronting them.

And the first, and most obvious at the present time, is the matter of SIDEWALKS.

First, let me ask a question—What would the city of Carbondale be without the students who, directly or indirectly, keep up the groceries, the bakers, the clothiers, and every other store, as far as that is concerned; they patronize the Gem theatre more than any other group of people; they cater to the cafes and eating places nearly all persons; they buy all kinds of milk from the local dairies as the citizens of this city; property and all kinds of real-estate is kept at "top-notch" prices only at the expense of the students—a house or dwelling selling for four or five times as much as it would bring in any of the neighboring towns. Rent is outrageously high—most property giving a return to its owner of fifty to seventy-five dollars a month besides furnishing his family a home, all of which amounts to about one hundred dollars. Where else in Southern Illinois are average homes rendering a rent-income of one hundred dollars per month?

By paying this outlandish rent, the students are indirectly paying a major portion of the taxes of this city.

EGYPTIAN CHORAL CLUB CONCERT WELL RECEIVED

'O! Man River' and Other Presentations Enjoyed

The Egyptian Choral Club presented a concert of varied numbers last Thursday night in Shryock Auditorium, and a fair sized audience enjoyed such selections as "O! Man River" (Male chorus); "Soldier's Chorus" from "The Pirates of Penzance"; "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee"; and "The Heavens are Telling" from "The Creation."

Frank L. Trobaugh, of West Frankfort, was the conductor, and Mrs. Genell Willmoth, accompanist. Miss Helen Kelley, soprano, Howard J. Willmoth, tenor, and Harvey Full, bass, sang leading solo parts. The encore to "Shortnin' Bread" was a popular favorite, "Home on the Range." The most unique number was "Hosopul Pomulil."

During the intermission a tree will offering of $24 was received.

The Choral Club was organized in March, 1933 by Mr. Trobaugh, who bought the music and directed the chorus. During its short career, the club has become very prominent, winning first prize in the 1934 Chicago-Musical Festival, and placing second in the 1935 contest at Chicago. It also broadcast over the N.B.C. network last August.

The Choral Club is composed of persons in almost every profession from the committee of this part of the state. This chorus represents the talent from Beaton, Du Quoin, Equality, Ewing, Harrisburg, Herrin, Johnston City, Marion, Roylston, Thompsonville, and West Frankfort.

There are about 1400 students enrolled in this college—each spends, at the least, $5.00 per week. Can you see what an enormous sum this amounts to? Something over $7,000.00 per week or about $30,000.00 per month—the equivalent of $1000 every day! It is estimated that for every dollar this city collects in taxes, sixty cents is paid by the students of this college.

If the city council had the right attitude, it seems that even for the sake of beautifying the city, they would desire good SIDEWALKS. There is not one bit of exaggeration in the statement that our grandfathers and grandmothers trod (if falling down and then regaining your feet can be called "trodding") these same, uneven, slippery, worn-out and worn down bricks!

The college and its members do their part toward supporting the churches of this city—Some of the most outstanding members being college professors and students. Faculty members believe in and support most of the clubs and civic organizations of this city.

The college students are the freest spenders in this town. It is, then, pretty hard for our parents, who have already paid sidewalk taxes back in our home towns, to continue to pay Carbondale's running expenses and taxes and have their sons and daughters realize no benefit from this tax money.

The officials are not wholly blind-able for this formidable negligence, however. The people who elude them are indirectly responsible—in landlord, your landlord, and all the rest of the "tax-free" lords of the city. The mere imposition of a tax for the building of SIDEWALKS, saves them to death, but they never blink an eye when they "soak" us three prices for rent!

If we really want SIDEWALKS, we can have them—talk to your property owner, talk to your neighbors, talk to your room mates, talk to the voters, talk to your city officials, and talk to the city council—ask SIDEWALKS to everyone all the time!

Respectfully submitted,
VERNON HICKS.
