Adds New Vehicle Rules

Freshmen From Carbondale
Can't Drive Family Car

All freshmen and sophomore SIU students who reside permanently in Carbondale are now required to register their family car with the University.

Assistant Dean Elwyn E. Zimmerman announced the new regulation along with another change and a warning to students parking in the Thompson Point area.

The rule, which will now require undergraduates living in Carbondale to register their family cars, has five clauses:

"All students must register their family cars with the parking section, Office of Student Affairs. At the present time no decals will be issued to the vehicles.

"These vehicles are to be used by the students for family purposes only. Examples of family purposes are errands for the family and going to church.

"Students are not to drive on campus or to and from campus (Exception: A student may drive the family car for any purpose if accompanied by a parent.)

"Family vehicles are not to be used for social purposes except during holidays and vacation periods.

"Motor Vehicle Regulation VII-A) Those regulations shall go into effect each quarter at 8 a. m. on the first day of classes and shall remain in effect until 5 p. m. on the last day of examination.

A change to give students in the Thompson Point area more parking space was made by the Vehicle and Safety Committee. The committee unanimously approved a recommendation that all University parking permits be honored on the highway just east of the Thompson Point area. This will include resident permits, physically handicapped permits, faculty and student registration and parking permits.

Misunderstood Regulations
Zimmerman, regarding the congested parking facilities at Thompson Point, said, "There has been considerable misunderstanding of the parking regulations as they apply to the area. It is felt that clarification of these will help to minimize traffic violations in this area."

No student may park in the circular parking lot at the end of Thompson Point Drive at any time. The three spaces marked "visitor" are for non-university personnel only.

The six spaces marked "counselor" are for Thompson Point Resident Counselors only.

The remaining spaces in the circular parking lot are reserved for the day faculty only and after 5 p. m. for faculty and non-university personnel only.

Smoking Stopped In Library Main Stairwell
Officials of Morris Library to day announced that because of increased use of basement reading rooms it has become necessary to eliminate smoking facilities in the main stairwell.

Officials said that congestion created by persons taking smoking breaks interferes with traffic to and from reading rooms.

Smoking privileges will be continued in the Browning Room and the Study Lounge on the first floor, but those areas are intended for quiet study and reading not for visiting, according to officials.

A "smoking room" is planned for the second floor when that area is completed. "Until such a time as we can ask the Stopped In Library users in limiting their smoking breaks to north or south entrance vestibules."

Barbara Larkin, Benton sophomore, smiles as she thinks of the AFROTC Military Ball, Jan. 23. Miss Larkin, who is in the College of Liberal Arts

Exchange Students Report

Southern In Germany

(The following is the first of a series of articles from two SIU exchange students in Hamburg university, Germany. SIU students in Germany are Joe Harris, graduate assistant in philosophy here last year, and Jean Williams, an undergraduate student at SIU.)

(Attending Southern from Germany are Reiner Rutenbeck, graduate assistant in German, and Fredrick Schlegel, Stipend holder.)

It's wonderful to experience that "foreign student" feeling. This is the first thing we would like to say.

As for other things, the lectures began here on Nov. 3, but a description of events up to this point begins about the 25th of October when we participated in a student trip to Luxembourg.

The new Kollegiate, as we are called where we room, were invited to go to a group on a practically all-expense paid trip through Holland to Brussels, Belgium and then via Brussels to Luxembourg, the capital city of the tiny country having the same name.

In Brugge and Luxembourg we attended lectures and seminars (in German) pertaining to the work of the several agencies which are bringing about increased cooperation.

Our orientation course contained an interesting note explaining some of the university protocol in Germany, especially in the manner in which students are supposed to address one another.

In France, Spain, and Italy it is customary for all students to address one another with the familiar form of "you" (German: du) whereas in Germany the students use the polite form (Sie) except in speaking with the closest of their friends. In connection with "Sie" one must say "Herr so-and-so" or "Frau so-and-so."

One begins to use the "du" form before he has become well acquainted with another student. He is thought to be an address. But if, on the other hand, one addresses his close friends with "Sie," he is considered reserved and ungracious.

Hence a person must be somewhat of a master of human relationships in order to know when to use each form.

One way to solve the dilemma, though it is too cautious, is to continue to say "Sie" until the German friend invites you to "duzen" him.

"Well," Lefler said calmly, "we had several of our expert shooters in various positions, and one of the boys shot the convict before anything happened."

"The life never got monotonous, but I'm happy to be here in a little safer atmosphere," he grinned.

"I've been shot at twice," the father of two daughters grinned. "I'm averaging 500 a year."

"The first time it was a Williamson County deputy sheriff that

Dance, Stage Show Open To All;
Tickets Go On Sale For Event

"Wings Over Southern" will be the theme for the 1959 annual AFROTC Military Ball, Jan. 23. The formal dance, which will feature the Jimmy Dorsey band under the direction of Lee Castle, will begin at 9 p. m. at the Carbondale Armory.

Carole Chambliss, co-chairman of the planning committee, emphasized that all students are eligible to attend the dance, despite rumors that the occasion is for AFROTC personnel only.

Miss Chambliss stated that the dance is "strictly formal," and that men are expected to wear dark tuxedos, the only requirement for entrance.

Tickets for the dance and concert went on sale Thursday at Wheeler Hall, Student Union and Thompson Point. Dances for the AFROTC are $1.50 each for reserved seats, and $1.25 each for general admission.

Tickets for the dance are $3 per couple.

The concert, which begins at 7:30 p. m. at Shrock Auditorium, will feature the Dorsey band. Following the stage show, the group will move to the Armory for the ensuing dance.

Official cuff links are now on sale at Wheeler Hall, Student Union and Thompson Point for $1 per pair. Black bow ties are also being sold at the same place for $1 each.

The Armory will be decorated in accordance with the theme of "Wings Over Southern." A large silver wing will back the stage against a light blue backdrop. The huge wing will "hover over" the Dorsey band, and the Queen's throne will be in the center of the stage.

A fine ceiling will be installed consisting of a light blue color with white streamers. The traditional large rotating mirrored ball will ornament the center of the ceiling. Silver stars and fluffy, white clouds will accentuate the taste of the event.

Queen Revealed
The identity of the 1959 queen will be acknowledged when the five finalists march to the stage from the rear of the Armory during the concert. The identity will be kept secret until this time, and the queen will be the last of the five girls to emerge from the door.

The Singing Squadron will entertain during the coronation and an Honor Guard will salute the queen and her court as they appear. Col. Alexander R. MacMillan, head of the AFROTC, will crown either Barbara Larkin, Joan Rank, Helen Smith, Carol Rischke or Mary Ruth Newlin Queen.

The department will vote for the queen at Shrock Auditorium Tuesday, Jan. 13.

Student Development

Repels Fish

An SIU zoology graduate student has found an effective way to repel fish.

This may not sound like a world-shaking event to some, but to lots of fishermen and researchers it's more than routine.

Bob Summerfelt of Nobsco, Wis., a research assistant in SIU's Fish Research Laboratory, came up with the answer after testing more than 40 chemicals at many different depths over a two-year time. A quick sniff of Summerfelt's smelling mixture, a small fish start backing off to cleaner pastures.

This is significant because fish are becoming more and more sensitive to poisons and irritants, the very things which send other animals head, ing full-time in the opposite direction.

Tried Irritant
Summerfelt tried formalin — a severe human irritant — at 1,000 parts per million, and it did not irritate the green sunfish he used for the tests. Sodium arsenite bothered them very little, and stench, he found, was equally ineffective.

(Although he will not reveal what chemical secret he has come up with, Summerfelt says exhaustive tests under controlled laboratory conditions show it effective at half a part to a million parts of water.)

Twice that according to the zoology major, will be sufficient to repel most freshwater fish. He has not tried his repellent on sharks, but plans on making tests in the near future.

Variety Of Uses
Summerfelt sees a variety of useful applications for his method, especially in management, rearing waters will kill fish that are not sensitive enough to swim away from the source of pollution. Mixing it in the water at the outfall might save them, according to Summerfelt.

"Another disadvantage Summerfelt has found has probably already occurred to the sports-minded reader, who has tried so-called 'it's his attractants' and found them wanting. Why not repel fish instead, forcing them to move to a waiting bait across the bay?

That is the reason Summerfelt refuses to reveal his secret. "This isn't a recreational gimmick," he said, "and in inexperienced hands it could be a little dangerous."

Schedule Contest For Vocal Groups
A barbershop quartet and vocal group contest will be held at Shrock Auditorium Jan. 16, the Student Union announced today.

The event, which is sponsored by the Student Union, will be free. Tryouts for the contest will be held Jan. 13 at the University School Auditorium at 7:30 p. m.

Separate trophies will be given for each category.

Each entry must consist of either a barbershop quartet, four persons, or a small group, three to seven persons, and will be required to sing two songs.

All entry blanks must be returned to the Student Union no later than noon, Jan. 14, and each organization can submit as many entry blanks as they wish.

Any organization which is not present at tryouts will be disqualified.

The judges will base their decision on stage presentation and quality of performance.

PROBLEM SOLVER

William Bloss, research assistant at the new SIU Computing center, checks out electronic computer that is the heart of the system. The $250,000 medium-speed digital computer will simplify complex problems in such fields as chemistry, physics, mathematics and other scientific research areas. The machine, only portions of which are shown, is being rented under special agreement from International Business Machines.

Parking Fines
Reach $2,279
In Fall Term

Did anybody say the parking situation is improving at SIU? According to a report released by the Office of Student Affairs, $2,279 was assessed to Southern students during the fall quarter.

Only a little more than half of fines have been paid thus far, according to Dan Elwyn E. Zimmerman. There were 24 students who were assessed fines without tickets.

Zimmerman said the fines without tickets were given those students who failed to register automobiles or were caught with illegal possession of cars.

To date, $1,232 has been paid by students for the fall quarter. Only a bit less than that, $1,047, still remains unpaid. Zimmerman stated that the unpaid fines had been voided for various reasons, but the large percentage is still owed.

Campus police issued 860 tickets to students during the three-month period. Of this total, 388 of the tickets have been paid, while 279 remain unpaid. The remaining number, 193, are still pending.

The 860 tickets were issued to 656 students, and one hapless SIU scholar received 10. One ticket was issued to 521 students, 2 to 98, 3 to 21, 4 to 10, 5 to 3, 6 to 1, and 9 to 1.

Zimmerman had no explanation for the large amount of tickets which were issued to Southern students. He said, "That $2,000 worth of tickets lay a lot of bricks in the new Student Union."

Family Housing Forms Ready
Housing Director William Rogge said applications are now being accepted for the small family housing which is scheduled to open this fall.

The area, named "Southern Hills," will house 128 families. Rogge said no policy has been approved concerning rates, contracts or eligibility of residents.

Application blanks may be obtained at the Housing Office. There is no immediate deadline for submission.

RILEY SPENDS VACATION IN DURANGO, MEXICO
Dr. Carroll L. Riley, assistant professor of anthropology, spent the Christmas holidays in Durango, Mexico, checking on field research which he conducted in the area last summer to further his research on native medical and health practices among isolated Indian tribes. He will return to his campus duties before Jan. 10.

DR. LEE EDITS EDUCATION MAGAZINE
Dr. J. Murray Lee, chairman of the education department, is editor of the December issue of "The Review of Educational Research," a publication of the American Educational Research Association.

Student Teachers
Of Next Year
Will Meet

A meeting for students who expect to do student teaching during the school year 1959-1960 will be held in Furr Auditorium at 10 a. m. on Jan. 14-15.

Dr. Charles D. Neal will meet with students to explain the student teaching program, answer questions pertaining to it. Students will make preliminary applications for next year.

Students whose last names begin with A through L are requested to come to the meeting Wednesday and students whose last names begin with M through Z are asked to come to the meeting Thursday. If a student has a schedule conflict he is requested to report on the alternate day.

Discusses Fate Of Crossing
The fate of the Walnut street crossing was the item of business before the Illinois Commerce Commission which met at Springfield Wednesday, Jan. 7.

Carbondale Mayor John I. Wright, a member of the SIU history department, led the group of city officials to the hearing at the State Capitol Building.

This city is withholding a statement pending a decision by the Commission.

At present, only Main and Oak streets have crossing gates. In recent decisions of the ICC, Grand, College and Jackson streets were earmarked for gates.

Harvard ave. will be closed along with Hickory, according to the Commission rulings. This leaves only Walnut street in question.

SIU Prof. Killed
Since the death of Henry Wilson, SIU English professor, last spring at the Grand ave. crossing, several Carbondale groups and the SIU Student Council have recommended immediate action for crossing gates or barriers for Illinois Central tracks.

Originally, the ICC recommended closing the Walnut crossing, but findings and recommendations of the Leckner report, a state highway sponsored traffic survey, and public opinion in Carbondale prompted an appeal by the city to the Commission.

For the crossings approved for Grand, College and Jackson streets, the Illinois State Crossing Protective Fund and the Illinois Central Railroad will pay the bill for installing and maintenance.

The ICC had ordered the Walnut crossing closed but a petition by Carbondale businessmen called for a re-hearing. The Commission then gave the city the choice of either closing the crossing or installing signals which would cost Carbondale $35,000 for installation and $1,000 per year for maintenance.

The disposition of other crossings was based upon reports from highway traffic counts and the ICC.

New Campus Police Advisor

Lefler Wants To Help Students--Not Snoop

"I'm here to help the students—to protect property and people's rights—not to snoop," said Thomas L. Lefler, the new Security Officer at SIU.

Lefler, 34-year-old ex-state patrolman, was hired by the University last week after a series of crimes on campus.

The handsome, greying Lefler, smiled as he told of some of his experiences during a 10-year service with the state police. A Mr. Vernon native, Lefler went to college at Illinois State Normal and Northwestern.

"I'm very happy at Southern, and I certainly have no regrets about retiring from the police force," the amiable Lefler smiled. "My wife was the deciding factor."

The Navy veteran will act as advisor to the campus police force until a more definite title is indicated by the University. Lefler is currently investigating the crimes that occurred last fall.

Changes In Force
"There will probably be some changes in the campus police force," Lefler said. "There will be a training school beginning the first of March for southern Illinois police, and the force at SIU will attend. The school will be conducted by the University, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the State Attorney."

Lefler was in charge of District 13, which included the southern 17 counties in Illinois for the past two years. He had at his command 101 men and over 60 squad cars. His men averaged over 1500 arrests per month.

Lefler was an instructor at the State Police Training Academy at Springfield for two years. During his service with the State Police, he was involved in cases concerning gambling, gaming, counterfeiting, prostitution, kidnapping, bank robberies and chasing motorists.

"I've been shot at twice," the father of two daughters grinned. "I'm averaging 500 a year."

"The first time it was a Williamson County deputy sheriff that shot at me," he laughed. "I was losing a guy and the sheriff didn't see me—but suddenly I heard and almost felt four bullets whiz right over my head. I then hit the dirt!"

"The second time was a little closer, as an inmate person shot me in the left arm."

Lefler said the biggest scare of his career came in 1953 when a riot broke out at the Menard State Prison. Convicts were holding seven guards prisoner.

"The life never got monotonous, but I'm happy to be here in a little safer atmosphere," he grinned.

"Well," Lefler said calmly, "we had several of our expert shooters in various positions, and one of the boys shot the convict before anything happened."

The Editors' Opinions

Union Needs More Card Tables

Several students, especially commuters, are complaining about the improper utilization of Student Union facilities for card playing.

Only five tables in the section, between the TV lounge and the desk, are provided for card playing. Many more tables are needed for a student body of 7,000 to 8,000.

Although the situation will be remedied when the Student Center is built, the lack of space is unpleasant to a greater degree than is necessary at the present.

Many commuters and other students point out that the only thing they get from their activities fees is student Union privileges.

Seems should be taken now to see that the facilities available are put to best use. We suggest that the space be allocated according to the desires of students; no space should be wasted.

We suggest these changes: The TV lounge is used very seldom during the hours from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., and it often has open space day and night. At least two or three tables could be placed in this area for card playing.

The snack bar and is crowded only during certain hours, such as 10 a.m. and noon. During other hours, certain tables could be set aside for card playing.

Times when the Union, conference room is not being used for business, the room could be used for recreation, including card playing.

The area south of the Obelisk in the Student Union is usually almost vacant. Yet, students are not permitted to play cards there. If there is a reason why students are not allowed to use this area, the students, should be given the reason. Otherwise, the space should be put to use.

We feel that if these suggestions are followed, card playing and other recreation can take place to a greater extent than they are now.

Letter To Editor

NEEDS SLEEP

As a foreign visitor in this country, I have always wondered if the American boys—or more specifically college students—ever need sleep at all.

My experience living next door to a group of college students is that they are up until 4 a.m. in the morning, almost every day and scarcely after dawn they are up again. I have come to know this way of stay-up at midnight of these boys through their incessant activities in their rooms, which invariably made a lot of noise, persistent and intolerable.

I don't know whether it's the around-the-clock radio and television programs that hold them up (because I can unfailingly hear them tuned in around the clock), or because they simply want to carry on their endless bickering or wisecracking.

Still I am perplexed by the endless walking and pacing in their room with so heavy steps that they crack and clatter, making me feel like the whole earth is quaking.

I'm an ordinary man who needs sleep at night and in sleep I need quiet and non-disturbance. What I can't understand is whether my neighbors ever need the same at all. Is that because they are brought up with dairy products that they can get away without sleep at night?

In my perplexity tried to drink more milk myself to see if I can save more hours of the day by not having to sleep of many hours as I do now. But I failed in my attempt to acquire

Many Visited Home

Students Enjoy Vacation; Glad To Be Back

How did SIU students spend the Christmas vacation? Nine of ten students questioned spent Christmas at home, while the other one visited relatives.

Zoology graduate student Blair Joestlyn, from Randolph, Neb., indicated that most of his days were spent "in the sack."

"I met a lot of people that had graduated and gone right to work, but none that I envy," he said. "I'd see them standing around the poolroom taking over the crops, not knowing up from down."

The "shades" of some students were slightly altered by the vacation period.

Judy Conrad, freshman from Marion, indicated she didn't gain much weight during the holidays. "At [well]," smiled the education major, "maybe a pound or two."

NINA GAINED Nina Davidson, freshman English major from Carter Mills, admitted gaining about five pounds while junior George Tompkins, business education major from Morris City, and Murphysboro native Sandra Greer, majoring in English, both said they gained about seven pounds on Mom's good home cooking.

One graduate student in government, Clifford Johnson of Cairo, said that he usually is less during the holidays. "Just because the food fills me up," he said.

Don Wallace, freshman business major from Granite City, said, "I met one fellow that had graduated a year ahead of me," when asked if he envied friends who were working.

behind the news

By JOE BLEWETT

With the new year starting off there is one logical question: What lies ahead in 1959?

A few prophets will claim to know all that will happen during the coming year. We don't belong to this group.

A few prophets will claim to belong in the category of "sure bets," however. Even a person who picked the Braves to win the Series could forecast them.

One safe prediction is that the majority of the recently made resolutions will not last the month of January. It seems the sincerest of declarations have a way of succumbing to the ravages and temptations of old Father Time.

For SIU the year of 1959 promises to be a truly memorable one. The tremendous growth and expansion will continue with more and more recognition

Athletics Feature

First Campus Calendar Of Year

Athletics feature the first 1959 Campus Calendar, as the Salukis take the University of Illinois in gymnastics and Western Illinois in basketball, both at home.

TODAY SIU grapples with the University of Indiana in a gymnastic meet at the gymnasium at 6:30 p.m.

"Betrayed" will be the feature movie of the Movie Hour at Furr Auditorium at 6:30 p.m.

A University "Y" dance will be held at the Eaves at 7 p.m. The Arab Student Organization meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. at the Library Lounge.

WAA basketball will be held in the women's gymnasium at 4 p.m.

SATURDAY The Salukis play their second home game of the season, starting at 8 p.m., against Western Illinois in an IAC game. The Junior Varsity game begins at 6:30.

Employment testing will be given in Rooms 41 and 43 at University School at 8 a.m.

The guidance test battery for freshmen and transfer students will be given at 1 p.m. at Furr Auditorium.

"Magnificent Obsession" will be shown at Furr Auditorium at 6:30 p.m.

SUNDAY The SIU concert band will present a program at 4 p.m. at Shryock Auditorium.

The University Pool will open at 1 p.m. for co-ed swimming.

of this progress being accorded the University.

In spite of those who cry over fanatic demands the drive for a college branch in the Madison and St. Clair counties will show progress. The active support of those in that area proves recognition of the need for increased educational opportunities.

Southern's student population will increase at the same rapid rate as in the past few years. This rate of increase will be even more amazing when contrasted with the standstill of other major colleges.

SIU will continue to exert a tremendous educational influence. With increased facilities this influence will be felt in an ever expanding area.

With the continued surge of advancement in '59 more progress will be made toward removing outdated restrictions which hamper both the University and the surrounding area.

Human nature from the campus viewpoint will not change in 1959. The top subject of conversation in the Student Union will still be the latest girl or boy friend.

Chief concern among the boys will continue to be that date for Saturday night and for the girls the vital question of whether that phone will ring.

Exams will still rank high on the unpopularity lists. Holidays will continue to be viewed with glee.

The world picture is one area where very few predictions are ventured by the most knowing experts. Even the most optimistic person, however, cannot see an end to the bickering. Man's progress in so many areas unfortunately does not include those of world relations.

But we all hope the year of '59 will be the best ever.

Resident Fellow

Positions Open

Applications for resident fellow positions are now being accepted by the Housing Office.

Director of Housing William Rogge said that all positions are open for all areas of housing.

Resident fellows are given "room, board, and tuition free for the academic year," Rogge said.

Candidates must be a senior or graduate student, with not less than a 3.3 overall average. They must also possess "good leadership characteristics," according to Rogge.

Feb. 14 is the deadline for submission of the applications at the Housing Office.

Rogge emphasized that incumbents may re-apply for resident fellow positions if they are eligible.

THE DATING SEASON

I have recently returned from a tour of 950,000 American colleges where I made a survey of undergraduate dating customs and sold Zorro whips. I have tabulated my findings and I am now prepared to tell you the simple secret of successful dating.

The simple secret is simply this: A date is successful when the man knows how to treat the girl.

And how does this girl like to be treated? If you want to know, read and remember these four cardinal rules of dating:

1. A girl likes to be treated with respect.

When you call for your girl, do not drive up in front of the sorority house and yell, "Hey, fat lady!" Get out of your car. Walk respectfully to the door. Knock respectfully. When your girl comes out, tug your forelock and say respectfully, "Good evening, Your Honor." Then offer her a Marlboro, for what greater respect can you show your girl than to offer Marlboro with its "better makin'", fine flavor and new improved filter? It will indicate immediately that you respect her taste, respect her discernment, respect her intelligence. So, good buddies, before going out on a date, always remember to buy some Marlboros, now available in soft pack or flip-top box at your friendly vending machine.

2. A girl likes a good listener.

Do not monopolize the conversation. Let her talk while you listen attentively. Make sure, however, that she herself is not a good listener. I recollect a date I had once with a coed named Greenlee Sigafos, a lovely girl, but unfortunately a listener, not a talker. I too was a listener so we just sat all night long, each with his hand cupped over his ear, straining to catch a word, not talking hour after hour until finally a policeman came by and arrested us both for vagrancy. I did a year and a day. She got by with a suspended sentence because she was the sole support of her aged housemother.

3. A girl likes to be taken to nice places.

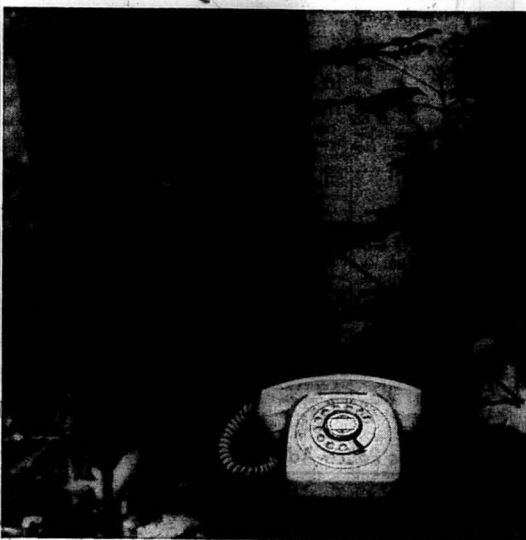

By "nice" places I do not mean expensive places. A girl does not demand luxury. All she asks is a place that is pleasant and gracious. The Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, for example. Or Mount Rushmore. Or the Taj Mahal. Or the Bureau of Weights and Measures. Find places like these to take your girl. In no circumstances must you take her to an oil-cracking plant.

4. A girl likes a man to be well-informed.

Come prepared with a few interesting facts that you can drop casually into the conversation. Like this: "Did you know, Snooklepus, that when cattle, sheep, camels, goats, antelope, and other members of the cud-chewing family get up, they always get up hind legs first?" Or this: "Are you aware, Hotlips, that corn grows faster at night?" Or this: "By the way, Lovelashed, Oslo did not become the capital of Norway till July 11, 1924."

If you can slip enough of these nuggets into the conversation before dinner, your date will grow too fond to eat. Some men save up to a half-million dollars a year this way.

To the list of things girls like, add Philip Morris Cigarettes, Girls, men—anybody, in fact, likes mild, natural Philip Morris, co-sponsors with Marlboro of this column.

Our roots go deep in the growing areas served by America's second largest telephone system

America is building big out where the grass roots grow.

New industries, new businesses, and new homes are springing up where there's no telephone. And these are the areas where General Telephone is a citizen of long standing.

From a small beginning, Gen Tel has grown with the countryside. Today our 1,745 exchanges in 30 states provide modern service for 3,359,000 telephone users. Our lines carry 119 million conversations each week. And we're adding 750 new phones every day.

It takes a pair of seven-league boots to keep up with the growing communities in Gen Tel territory. That's why Gen Tel is investing almost $200 million this year in the new facilities required to meet the ever-increasing demand for more and better telephone service.

America's big promise is in Gen Tel territory. And Gen Tel is doing its part to meet it.

Cagers Win Consolation Title In Quincy Tourney; Face Western Illinois In Crucial Contest Tomorrow

By Ron Jacober Sports Editor

Santa Claus managed to stuff only three victories into Harry Gallatin's sock over the holidays as the Saluki cagers split six games over the yuletide season.

There were a few bright spots though, but the Salukis have won their troubles. Without a doubt the biggest win over the holidays was the thrilling 94-92 win over the Leathernecks of Western Illinois on Western's home boards. Seymour Bryson's brilliant 40-point performance in the Quincy Holiday Tournament was also quite a Christmas present for Saluki fans.

National Champ

The Southerners drew Tennessee A&I in the first round of the Quincy tourney. Tennessee has been the small college national champion for the past two years and could very likely repeat again this year. The Salukis dropped the contest 108-87, but went on to win the consolation championship by defeating Rockhurst and Hamilton.

Charlie Vaughn, sharpshooting freshman from Tamm, continued to pour in the points over the holidays as he netted 155 markers in six games for a 25.6 average. Seymour Bryson netted 115 for a 19.1 average.

There is a short summary of the six games during vacation.

NORMAL 81, SIU 88

After the Salukis racked up an early lead they fell behind and trailed at half time 37-22. Charlie Vaughn, held to six points in the first half, pumped home 25 in the second half to finish with 31.

SIU 94, WESTERN 82

Tom McGreal, 6-6 sophomore from Rantoul, came through in true Saluki form as he pumped home two free throws after the game was over to give Southern a rare victory over Western, the defending conference champs for the past seven years. Southern led by eight points for four minutes to go in the game when Saluki captain Seymour Bryson fouled out. Grady McCollum, Leatherneck center, then hit on four shots in a row to tie the game at 92-92.

Gene Velloff, giving Southern badly needed shooting, pumped in 12 markers in the first half and 14 in the second half to lead the dogs with 26. Vaughn had 21 and Bryson 20. Grady McCollum led Western with 24 and Jack Millan had 22.

TENNESSEE A & I 108, SIU 87

The Tennessee scored, national champs for the past two years, give the ambitious Salukis a good lesson on how the first break should be executed. Tennessee ran to a 57-46 halftime lead and then totally poured it on in the second half. Mid-way in the second half, the Salukis trailed 91-69. All-American Dick Barnett was high scorer in the contest with 31 markers. Charlie Vaughn again led Southern with 28. Tennessee later won the tourney by smothering Western Illinois 114-54.

SIU 81, ROCKHURST 77

Captain Seymour Bryson put on quite a show for the home folks as he tipped the nets for 40 points, a new SIU record. The old record of 37 points was set by Gb Kurtz against Central Michigan on Feb. 10, 1935. The Salukis had little trouble with Rockhurst, the 5th highest scorer in the nation, Wesleyan still had little trouble with the erratic Salukis. The Panthers jumped off to a 4-2 lead with two minutes gone and were never headed. Six-foot ten-inch Norbert Punal led the balanced attack with 15 points.

Southern hit only 28 shots in 90 attempts from the field for a poor .310 percentage. Charlie Vaughn didn't get a point for the first 16 minutes of the game, but wound up as high scorer with 28. Seymour Bryson having one of the worst nights of his career, finished with 4 for 18 from the field and two free throws for 10 points.

Meet Tonight

Gymnasts Spend Holidays In Florida; Face Indiana Tonight

The Saluki gymnasts, attempting to escape the wintry, damp blasts of Southern Illinois, spent nine days of the Christmas holidays in "sunny" Florida.

The gymnasts, preparing for the up and coming amateur scheduled—the roughest in SIU history attended the National Gymnastic Clinic at Sarasota Florida.

Southern, a squad that won six while losing three last year, opens its dual meet season tonight against Indiana at 7:30 p.m.

About 1000 of the top gymnasts in the country attended the clinic tagged by Bill Meade, head Saluki coach, as "very fine."

Meade also stated that he was pleased with the work of the SIU athletes. "Leonard Kalikian and Jack Wiley finished third and fourth in tumbling," said Meade surprisingly, "that was better than any other college gymnasts at Gene Velloff, hitting sharply from out court, had 12 of Southern's first 18 points and finished with 19.

Western Tomorrow

Gallatin's horses faced Indiana State last night in an effort to start a big winning streak. Tomorrow night the Salukis cagers face Western Illinois in the AAC conference dual. Western has won the crown for the past seven years.

In the preliminary game, which begins at 4 for 18 from the field, the Saluki pups and the Mt. Vernon Jr. College.

Charlie Hittin' At 24.7 Clip

Charlie Vaughn, one of the top freshmen in SIU history, is currently leading Southern's basketball squad with a 24.7 average for the first 10 games. Vaughn is ranked 17th in the nation in scoring with 247 points.

Southern captain and center Seymour Bryson, the only starting senior on the squad, is behind Vaughn with 177 points. Gene Velloff, the Saluki outpunch in the past few games is third with 109 points.

A CAMPUS-TO-CAREER CASE HISTORY

Pete McCullough (center) discusses requirements for new telephone equipment with Traffic and Plant Managers.

Success story—with a moral to it

Robert G. "Pete" McCullough got his Bachelor of Arts degree from Columbia in June, 1953. In September, he took a job selling for a manufacturing firm. He was hurriedly trained—and, after 23,000 miles on the road, decided he wasn't fully using his capabilities.

He resigned and contacted his college Placement Office. Interviews with a host of firms followed. Pete chose the New York Telephone Company.

That was April, 1954. He spent the next 13 months training—getting basic experience as installer, repairman, frameman, staff assistant, etc. He was then appointed Service Foreman.

In January, 1957, he moved over to the business side of the company. In May, 1957, he became a supervisor. In January, 1958, he managed a business office serving 25,000 customers, with 42 people reporting to him.

In October, 1958, Pete was promoted again—to District Commercial Manager. Reporting to him now are two business office managers, nine supervisors and 54 service representatives and clerical personnel. There are 64,000 customers in the territory he heads up.

That's Pete's story—up to now. Future promotions depend on him. Opportunities are practically unlimited in the Bell Telephone Companies for Pete and many young men like him.

Moral: The most capable of men need good training and honest promotion opportunities to move ahead as they should. Shop carefully for your career. And be sure to talk to the Bell interviewer when he visits your campus.

Pete is active in civic affairs. Here as chairman of a Boy Scout fund drive, he confers with R. A. McCaffrey, Branch Manager for the First National City Bank of New York.
