President Roscoe Pulliam left Friday afternoon, February 21, to attend the conference and assume the duties of his new position as ex-officio consultant to the Department of Superintendent's Educational Policies Commission.

At the third conference session held Monday afternoon, President Pulliam participated in a debate, taking the affirmative side of the question, "Should the Schools Teach Attitudes and Standards?"

After concluding the question with President Van Landin of the Northwestern Missouri Teachers College, in the course of the debate President Pulliam stated: "Not to undertake to teach values, attitudes, ideals is to reduce education to empty formalism."

LOUIS ADAMIC, LABOR AUTHORITY, TO GIVE ADDRESS HERE MARCH 19

Author and Adventurer Brought Here Under Auspices of A. A. U. W.

Louis Adamic, one of the most colorful of modern writers and regarded as an expert on "labor" in America, will speak in Shroyck Auditorium at 8 o'clock on the evening of March 19.

Born in 1892 in what is now Jugoslavia and came to America at the age of 14, Louis Adamic has lived a picturesque life in a startling variety of occupations.

Upon his arrival in America, young Adamic became the assistant to a miller on a Slovenian newspaper in the Province of New Jersey, six miles from the United States entry into the World War.

Engaged in Many Activities After his army discharge, he drifted over hills and foreign countries, becoming a railway porter, a construction engineer, a seaman, a restaurateur, a factory worker, a mill hand, a reporter, and a dock-worker.

His first book, "The Native's Return," describes that visit and was accepted by the Book-of-the-Month Club.

FOUR S. I. T. C. DEBATE TEAMS TO ENTER STATE TOURNAMENT

Four Women and Four Men To Compete Next Week-end

MEET TO BE HELD AT OLD NORMAL

Two Newcomers To Southern Ranks In Debut

Four teams representing the S. I. T. C. Debate club will take part in the Illinois Collegiate Debate Association tournament at Normal Friday and Saturday of next week.

The membership on teams was definitely stilled last week when tryouts were held. The women will debate the question, "Resolved, that the United States should cooperate in the enforcement of sanctions provided for in the Covenant of the League."

In the men's division the Pl Kappa Debate question, "Resolved, that Congress should be empowered to override by a two-thirds majority decision of the Supreme Court declarations made by Congress unconstitutional," will be used.

Two faculty members will accompany the teams to Normal and act as judges in the tournament. Dr. Charles D. Tenney, coach of the teams, will fill one of these positions.

The debaters were accompanied by Dr. Tenney, who also took a team to Smithfield last Thursday. There William Browning and Allen Buchanan took the negative side of the latter question.

AVON PLAYERS TO COME AS AN ENTERTAINMENT SERIES NUMBER

Southern Company To Give 'Hamlet' And 'Romeo and Juliet'

The Avon Shakespearean players, under the direction of Joseph Selman, will present two plays in Shroyck Auditorium on March 17 as the first number of an Entertainment Series in the spring term.

The school council committee that chooses the attractions selected the first day of the spring term as the best possible date since many classes do not begin their regular work until the following day.

"Romeo and Juliet" will be given as the afternoon performance and "Hamlet" as the evening attraction, both with Robert Selman and Maria Klyte in the leading roles.

Leading Man Praised by Critics Robert Selman, born in a theatrical family, has given most of his life to the theatre, and has been one of the leading critics here considered him the outstanding Hamlet of the day.

As the S. I. T. C. custom, every letter will be offered to those men receiving their first and their last college letters in the case sport.

In discussing the play, J. C. Brown, head of the English department at Peach High School, Atlanta, Georgia, said: "The Avon players present their performances so admirably that those in the audience who imagined they cared little for Shakespearean drama, find themselves thoroughly enjoying it."

Spring Term Entertainment Attractive

The program of entertainment for the Spring term includes the first of four excellent numbers, beginning with the Shakespearean plays the first day of the term, and the Louis Adamic lecture on Thursday of the same week, and continuing with a performance by Carolyn Goyne in the Shroyck Auditorium on Friday.

CORRESPONDENTS WITH TURKISH PRESIDENT

(By Associated Collegiate Press) ROCHESTER, N. Y. Y. Lewis Schindler, a University of Rochester junior, is a great and good friend by correspondence of Ghazi Mustafa Kemal Pasha Atatürk.

And in case you don't know who Mr. Atatürk is, he's the president of the Republic of Turkey, and he's been bombarding Schindler with pamphlets, magazines and books about Turkey ever since Schindler sent a request to President Atatürk for material for a thesis he is writing on Turkey.

One of the real eye-openers Schindler received was a bound copy of a speech the president had delivered on international affairs—a speech that required five days for complete delivery. Schindler, of which covers 72 printed pages. And Turkey's minister of the exterior sent him a letter which closed thus: "I think you need more

MOVIEING AROUND

WITH RADIO NOTES

By Anthony Venegoni and Virginia Cummins

How anyone can say that the movies are cheap after having seen "The Life of Louis Pasteur" is beyond me. Undoubtedly in the past, the movies have put out some rather awful things, but after all, the movies are comparatively young and must, necessarily, go through the "wild west stage" in the last few years. They have been emerging from this adolescent period, slowly but surely. "The Ten Commandments," "The Birth of a Nation," "The Big Parade," and other movies have been called into the cinematic progress. Last year's "The Informer," and the more recent "Tale of Two Cities" have certainly eliminated a lot of what might have been objectionable hereafter.

Now, Paul Muni's "The Life of Louis Pasteur" is the masterpiece. Muni's characterization of the beloved French scientist, Pasteur, is his best, and he has done good work—bordering toward "Black Fury." He radiates kindness, generosity, and goodness just as Pasteur did. Though French in background and atmosphere, the picture leaves nothing to be desired, except possibly, a few more episodes of his life.

"If You Could Only Cook!" Sounds like a student in search of a roommate here at S. T. C. But, no—it's the title of a new comedy picture which starred Herbert (Pittie) Marshall and Jean Arthur. The picture is rather dumb, but enjoyable—nothing better is in the offering.

RADIO NOTES
It will be very interesting to watch the development of the Affiliated Broadcasting Company, just issued a charter by the State of Illinois, being at the head of Samuel Insull, former czar of Broadway. Mr. Insull is president of the $200,000 organization, but he has not a dollar invested in the venture, according to the attorney, Floyd E. Thompson.

Negotiations are still going on with stations in Illinois, Indiana, and Wisconsin to join the new network and several have already signed while others have shown considerable interest. The stations joining with the firm in a mostly small power, to be 50 to 100 watts, and it is said that the charges of some of the stations range as low as twelve dollars for fifteen minutes. It has been estimated that the telephone lines connecting the fifteen stations in the network would cost approximately $100 a week.

The St. Louis Cardinals have opened a series of broadcasts entitled "The Story of Baseball" on Station KMOX on Friday. The series presents a dramatized version of the history of the national pastime and features France Luas, nationally known sports announcer, and commentator in broadcasts of historic happenings in the sport.

ANONYMOUS PLAY WINS LITTLE THEATRE MELODRAMA CONTEST

"Pudemonium Reigns" was selected the first melodrama contest, "Whiteed by the Little Theatre Judges as Rosie" by Frances Noel, was given the winner of the melodrama contest sponsored by the organization. The author of the three-act play is not known. There were two other entries in the contest.

The first prize of $10 will be given to the winner of the melodrama contest. Members of Little Theatre will Anna Miller, and Allan Sager. The present "Pudemonium Reigns" on judges recommended that Edith Huddell. There will be two shows each night with specialties between acts.

In this melodrama which has a cast of eight, there is a courtship scene that has to do with love, love, love. The Shakespearean stage setting by Jay Friolillo. Two years ago the winning play of the Little Theatre will hold a short courtship scene in the vicinity of the Little Theatre in the spring term instead of a regular meeting because of the lectures by Louis Adams. However, regular meetings will be resumed the following week.

STADIUM FUND DONATION FROM PLAY UNDECIDED

Since the final financial reports on the production, "The Bishop Bishopheaves," are still incomplete, Little Theatre has not yet definitely decided its contribution to the stadium fund. However, after the bills incurred in the presentation of the play have been paid, the remainder of the $44.50 comprising the gate receipts will be donated to the fund.

The response of the audience in indicated that the production merited a better attendance of the student body. The courtesy of the acting of the cast and the efficiency of the work of the stage crew combined to make the play successful.

In constructing the settings, the designers planned a new kind of background, erected to form a backdrop at the top of the setting. Spectacular lighting was also featured. The regenuity of Robert Chalmers was well displayed in the setting for the first act. Keeping well within his budget, Mr. Chalmers produced a play room setting which elicited admiration from all who saw it. The setting for the second and third acts, designed and executed by Karl Baum, represented a room in the bishop's home and was also very effective. This was the largest setting ever constructed for an S. T. C. stage. Some of its unusual features included the cathedral window adjacent and the drawing room and the entrance to the academy.

PAN-HEL PLANS STUNT NIGHT

The Panhellenic Association is planning a stunt night, the proceeds of which are to be added to the stadium fund. The date is set for the first part of April, and it will be held in the Shroyok Auditorium. Ten organizations on the campus will be asked to contribute fifteen or twenty minute stunts. Those organizations to be asked are Kappa Delta Alpha, Chi Delta Chi Club, Little Theatre, Delta Literary Society, Secrete Literary Society, the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the Women's Athletic Association, and Anthony Hall.

It will be in daily contact with her; they will be able to hear at first hand what progress she is making and how life goes on among the thousands of people on board. From the radio room to crew's nest, the microphone will convey an impression of the varied activities of passengers and crew.

Baby Chicks Sent To State Farm

One thousand baby chicks will soon arrive at the State farm to be raised to delicious fliers. R. E. Muckelroy, head of the department of Agriculture here, reports. The chicks will probably arrive this week and preparations for their arrival have been completed.

The chicks will first be placed in two brooder boxes which have just been built. The largest is twenty by thirty feet in dimensions, and the other is only twelve by fourteen feet. Heaters, feeders, etc. have been installed and the chicks are all that are lacking. A large thirty by forty laying house has also just been completed.

Some of the brooders will be of a larger breed and will be capitalized and raised for eating purposes. Of these, Mr. Muckelroy says that they attain an average weight of thirteen or fourteen pounds and are almost as delicious as turkey. Those chickens not capitalized will be placed in the laying house.

Anthony Hall will receive the coupons to use as brooder and fliers. The hall will also receive the eggs publicly would "make martyrs," ordered his release. Mr. Marcantonio is one of the backers of the Workers' Alliance, national organization of the unemployed, that is now preparing for its national convention of April 14 to 17. The aim introduced the Workers' Rights Amendment to the Constitution, giving Congress the power to legislate for the common good. This bill was written by the late Morris Hillquit, prominent labor attorney, and on its introduction in Congress last year was supported by six state federations of labor and numerous national and international unions and farm organizations.
