Gracie Hasn't Heard About The C. I. O.

Gracie has taken a serious turn of mind here of late. She is attempting to analyze the world's ills by making a profound study of the labor situation.

When the teacher of her history class asked "Who is John L. Lewis?" in a recent current events discussion, Gracie responded: "Why everyone knows he's president of the American Federation of Labor!"

Does Illinois Lead In Education?

Is Illinois actually progressive in education? Illinois is reputed to be one of the leading states in the field of education. But what standard is to be used to judge that reputed leadership?—The size of the state university?—Or the ability of the state educational system to meet the needs of its people?

The latter standard may not appear so prominent to citizens outside this state, but to the citizens of Southern Illinois it is vital. When one considers the fact that it is geographically and usually financially impossible to secure either a B. S. or A. B. degree in Southern Illinois, one cannot help but view our supposed leadership in education very skeptically.

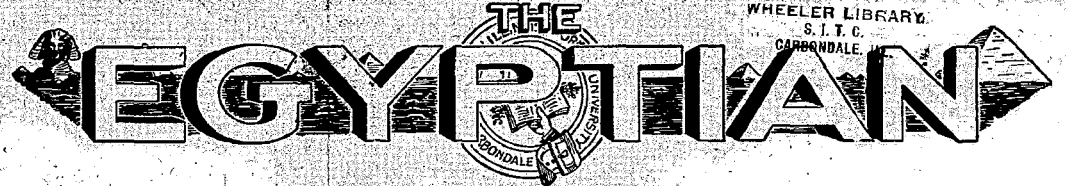

The State of Kentucky has long since recognized the fact that all of its citizens do not live within one hundred miles of its state university (which is located at Lexington). It is impossible to secure an A. B. degree within 40 miles of Paducah (Murray State Teachers College).

It is impossible to obtain an A. B. degree within 200 miles of Cairo (at a state university) and neither is any available within 100 miles of DuQuoin.

Is Illinois leading in education? Is Illinois meeting the educational needs of its people?

TOMMY TRIGG TO PLAY JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

Famous Excursion Band At Annual Event Here Next Week, May 14

The prominent President Steamer Orchestra has been engaged to furnish the music for the Junior-Senior Prom, Saturday, May 14th. The Steamers are best described as an all-star group of rhythm makers. The personnel includes musicians who have played with well known popular bands in various sections of the country. Trigg, himself, known in musical circles as "Hot Lips," has been widely featured as an expert trumpeter, and is also noted for his swing style singing. The Steamers have been featured the past three seasons on the President's sailing out of both St. Louis and New Orleans. The band is so popular in both ports that they have been engaged again this coming season. At present the band is playing spring proms in noted colleges throughout the South.

Finances, decoration, ticket and advertising committees are cooperating to the best of their ability in a day's time to make this prom the most successful of recent years.

Ticket sales are rapidly mounting, and the dead line for the purchase of $2.00 tickets is drawing near. For this reason the juniors and seniors are urged to purchase their tickets as soon as possible.

MID-SPRING STUDENTS SWELL SCHOOL TOTAL TO NEARLY 1700

228, Mostly Teachers Enrolled As Second Week Starts

At noon last Tuesday, 228 students had registered for the mid-spring term. This is probably about the number which will remain in school during the session, because while a few will drop out, others will register, keeping the number to well above the 200 mark. The registration of these students, most of whom are teachers from the surrounding territory, swells the enrollment of the college to almost 1700.

A number of classes have been opened especially for the newly registered students. Those with the largest number enrolled are: Art (Continued on Page Four)

Agencies and Teaching Positions During the last few weeks a large number of seniors have been joining teachers agencies. The seniors want a job and the agency wants a percentage. That part is fair enough, but is it really necessary to join a teacher's agency in order to get a job? According to the report in the National Survey made by Deffenbaugh and Zeigel, fifty-seven per cent of all teachers in the systems studied were discovered through voluntary individual applications; and, approximately thirteen per cent received jobs through commercial teachers agencies. Does this indicate that the teacher's agency is the best means of getting a job? Don't fool yourselves, seniors. The agency may get you a job and take it out of your first year's salary, but think it over carefully before you sign a contract. This is what happened to one graduating senior. He was persuaded to join an agency with the idea that he would immediately be told of two or three good jobs. Instead, he was given a blanket list of about fifty vacancies. It would be practically impossible for him to find a job on his own initiative without having to pay part of his salary to the agency. The agency list covered all of the jobs within a radius of two hundred miles. It is of no use for him to try to find a job himself, unless he would be fortunate enough to find one not included in the agency list. If the agency has a number of people wanting jobs in one locality it would be almost impossible to not include some of the same vacancies on all the lists. This means that you still have plenty of competition, and your chances for getting the job are no better. The teachers agency business is a racket. School men throughout the country are refusing to cooperate with them. Most good school men have prospects for future vacancies months in advance. They rely on the agency only in an emergency. The college placement bureau should be able to get you a job without taking part of your salary. Is it worth five or ten per cent of your salary for a list of vacancies that will probably be filled before you can inquire about them? Don't sign any contract unless you understand all of its obligations thoroughly. —S. M.

NEWS VIEWS With or without offense To friends or foes, I sketch your world Exactly as it goes. —Byron. The National Progressives are bound to be a thorn in the sides of Farley, Roosevelt, et al. Although feigning to be uninterested by the announcement, Congressional leaders will doubtlessly be moved to action. The outcome of the 1940 election will depend on the economic condition of the country at that time and the Democrats will have to work hard to save their faces and to save the skin of their party which has degenerated into an agency for dispensing political postage. The New Dealers talk glibly about being the apostles of Jefferson and Jackson. Big talk that another political substitute. Principles make nice ball for votes. Once in office the important thing is to stay there, regardless of the means. In addition La Follette will have to back the combined forces of both of the traditional two parties which are being organized all the way from smallest district in the national committee. However, La Follette has begun his campaign in plenty of time to perfect a satisfactory organization by 1940. Whatever he lacks in political machinery will be offset by the big name and the way from which he appeals to the voters on his proposed list of the platform.

Music Queen to be Crowned at Festival Here May 19; Twenty-Five Bands Will Participate in Dedication of Stadium

Parade, Chorges, and Folk Dances Included In Full-Day Program of Colorful Events

By MERRIAM BOWDEN

The nineteenth of May promises to be an all important day in the history of the spring term. Not only is there to be a great festival of music, but the dedication ceremonies for the stadium will be conducted. All must be organizations of importance in the college will be represented. In this festival there will be no contests of any sort, merely a display of fine musical organizations.

Twenty-four high school bands have agreed to perform, as well as our own band. Thus far, no orchestras other than S. I. N. U. are included in the festival. There will be from 12 to 15 choruses represented. These organizations will form a mass unit, as a big feature of the occasion.

One of the many highlights of the day will be the crowning of the music queen. A parade in her honor will be conducted about 10:30 or 11:00 in the morning.

The main events, other than that

COLLEGE PRESS CONFERENCE AT WHEATON TODAY

Noted Journalists To Participate In Three-Day Program

Student delegates from colleges all over the state will assemble at Wheaton College, Wheaton, Illinois, May 5, 6, and 7 for the annual convention of the Illinois College Press Association, while the Wheaton Record plays host.

Speakers will include leaders in the various fields of both college and professional newspaper work. Among them will be Curtis MacDonnell, editor of the National Almanac and Yearbook; Charles E. Flynn, of the U. of I. School of Journalism; J. A. Lyons of the Margaret Miner Typewriter Corporation.

With an active membership of 30 colleges, the I. C. P. A. represents the educational institutions of the state. Besides the annual spring convention the group has a fall discussion meeting each year at Urbana where current problems of the collegiate editors are threshed out.

Since Wheaton is close enough to Chicago to enable contact with the metropolitan newspapers, the group this year has planned trips for delegates taking them through the Chicago Herald and Examiner and the Chicago Daily Tribune. They are also providing a tour through the Chicago edition of the National Broadcasting Company and attending at a program over radio station WGN.

Mr. MacDonnell, former editor of the Evanston News Index, is a strong crusader for uncensored news in the public press. He also believes that the editorial page has lost its influence upon popular thinking and that it has become an unnecessary tradition.

Two speakers from the Chicago newspapers will speak upon present and future trends in sports and feature writing. In contrast to the metropolitan view of the professional field, the editor of a small town daily will present his view of journalism.

A separate program has been planned for the business staff members who come as delegates. W. A. Williams, National Advertising Service; E. A. Cordule, College public relations expert, and E. W. Hill of the John and Ollier Engraving Company in Chicago will discuss their attractions on the business docket.

Last year the convention was held at Normal under the auspices of Illinois State Normal University. In former years the convocation has been held in various cities in southern and central Illinois. This will be the first time that the group has met at Wheaton.

RELIGION AND SOCIAL STRUGGLES THEME OF BARNES TALK

Dr. Sherman Barnes of the history department spoke before the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday evening of last week on the topic of the "Religion and Social Struggles of Today."

Dr. Barnes considered the church and social upheavals which have recently occurred in Russia, Spain, and Germany.

"It is my opinion," said Dr. Barnes, "that today the church in Spain and Russia is paying the penalty for its indifference and neglect of the social problems in those two countries. In these countries, however, there is still freedom of worship but the church has lost its financial support from the state."

"In Germany the Nazi leader, Hitler, has sought to make the national government the religion of the masses and persecutions there have sought to teach the people to reverence Fascism."

McIntosh To Aid In Organization of Chorus

Mr. D. S. McIntosh, head of the music department, will go to Mount Carmel Wednesday to assist in the organization of a Wabash County Chorus.

Among the members of the I. C. P. A. are the Vidette, Illinois State Normal University, Normal, Illinois; Illinois Rambler, Illinois College, Jacksonville, Illinois; Northern Illinois, Northern Illinois Teachers College, DeKalb, Illinois; The Villanovian, Villanova, Pennsylvania; Illinois; Wheaton Record, Wheaton College, Wheaton, Illinois; The Egyptian, Southern Illinois Normal University, Carbondale, Illinois; North Park College News, North Park College, Chicago, Illinois; The Scanner, LaSalle Park, Illinois; Junior College, LaSalle Park, Illinois.

LENS and SHUTTER

How? Reader, gentle or otherwise. Yours is the joyous beater of glass. You're in the picture. President Pulliam has okayed the construction of a photographic darkroom on the campus. The location has not yet been determined, however.

The darkroom will be available to members of the Foto club, to those who wish to practice the fundamentals of developing and printing; and to those camera addicts not otherwise classified.

For the present, equipment will be furnished by the amateurs who use printed from miniature cameras. Prints are or copied from photographs. Classes or organizations interested in this type of instruction would find a department convenient in that the necessity of ordering film strips would be eliminated, and that first hand information concerning what they portray would be present.

Lantern slides are very expensive if bought commercially, but may be made at low cost. Any type of picture from photomicrographs to copies of printed pages may be transferred to the glass. Slides are invaluable in lecture courses.

Publicity pictures for newspapers and magazines, illustrations for articles and pictures for the Obelisk and the Egyptian may be taken under supervision. True, the on-the-spot cameraman may catch scenes which are top-hole or which cannot be re-enacted, but planned pictures are decidedly better for these purposes.

Possibility of a Photographic Department

It seems to me that the present time is as good as any to approach this subject.

There are many activities about this campus worthy of being recorded by the most vivid and eloquent of means. Pictorial records and teaching aids may be made economically, and employment be provided for deserving camera fans. Several members of the camera club have the ability to do this type of work.

Photographic departments have been created by various schools throughout the United States. Highly satisfactory results have been reported. A number of our faculty members realize the advantages of a

The principles which are enunciated are the same as those to which our generation after generation of Americans have rendered lip service. Had they been followed earlier in our history, we would not have discovered that we are rushing headlong into a blind alley.
Under the practical leadership of the Wisconsin La Follette, the National Progressives are bound to exert a powerful influence upon American politics of the future. It will be their great contribution to advance the political education of the American voter by fearlessly presenting a platform of genuine principles. Will it be that their great service will be the reorganization and the purging of existing parties or will it be that they will bring a new government which reflects the progressive spirit of the nation?
This alone can answer their question. College students who are reading the pamphlet should be at the next party to which they are invited.

FULKERSON ARTICLE ON THE PROSPECTS OF 1938 GRADUATES PUBLISHED IN ILLINOIS TEACHER

Table with 4 columns: 1935, 1936, 1937, 1938. Rows include teaching positions, other positions, married, women, total, and degrees.

It is interesting to note that the number of graduates in 1938 is expected to be about the same as in 1937. The investigation goes further, however, and considers what the graduate has to offer in the way of preparation.

When a accident, he hears a beautiful girl over the radio, and his previous weakness leads him to invite the owner of the voice to his master's apartment, the Prince, of course, having just departed for a dinner engagement.

The situation becomes complicated when the Prince, Harry Kille, returns unexpectedly to find his valet masquerading as the Prince's 'valet.' He suspects the Prince's valet, and in a fit of pique, he orders the valet to be dismissed. He orders the valet to be dismissed, and in a fit of pique, he orders the valet to be dismissed.

U. HIGH ENTRY RUNS FOURTH IN WEST FRANKFORT RELAY

Hunting without the services of Haeney, star half miler, the U. High relay team which last week stalked the Madley record at the Herlin Relays, ran fourth. The winning time was considerably slower than the record hung up last week by the local squad.

Bright feature of the event was the fast last-mile run by U. High's Tom Anderson. Anderson made the mile in 2:15, which is an excellent time, and ran the mile in the excellent time of 4 minutes and 47 seconds. Only two better times have been recorded this year by high school milers. Due to the muddy track and the cold night air at West Frankfort, it is not unlikely that Anderson will better that time in the District meet.

"Red" Thompson, "Elocopy" Scooter and "Dog Ears" Mervell have become a problem which acquires much psychological analysis. First they were into one thing and then another. Suspense is too great for such individuals. They turn on each other—clambering to their feet they tear up furniture, throw chairs, send forth tremendous clamorous thunderings.

MAROONS SWAMP SOUTHERN WINS MURRAY SQUAD OVER MURRAY ON LOCAL TRACK

Captain Struss Sets New Record for One-Curve 440

Scoring more points than ever before in the history of the school, the Southern track and field squad romped over Murray, Kentucky Teachers by a score of 110 1/2 to 19 1/2, last Saturday. The locals took first place in every event excepting the Discus, having 14 out of a possible 17 first places, and scored grand slams in six events.

High jumping two men, was Captain Charles Struss' sensational record breaking run of the 440 yard dash around one curve, lowering the ten-year old record set by Oils McMahon in 1928, from 1:07.7 to 50.1. Struss also captured an undepicted first place in the 220 yard sprint, as well as running anchor-man for the winning mile relay team.

Gaduskas, Murray's Discus man, was the outstanding competitor for Murray in the field. His throw of 133' 6 1/2" was about as good as any that local fans are likely to see this season, being some ten feet further than Southern's best man can toss.

Southern's best man in the field was Herbert Van Hoorbecke, local Pole Vault, and Broad Jumper. Hoorbecke tied for first in his specialty, the Pole Vault, and made the best broad jump of the day with a leap of 24' 2 1/2".

High scoring honors again went to Garth Hinkley, who is leading the scoring race, having now a total of 670-40 points, adding fourteen points to his last week's total of fifty-eight.

Records, other than the one that Captain Struss shattered, were not changed in the track bigg left from the preceding night's rain.

INTRAMURAL INNINGS

At the end of the third week of league play, only the Spirit's and the Monkeys have clean slates. The Lone Star Rangers and the Cubs, were defeated on Tuesday by the Spirit's and Orioles respectively. The Orioles pulled a starting upset by whipping the Cubs, 7-2. Whipped by the Spirit's in their last previous contest, the Orioles showed a complete reversal of form, hitting hard and being hit hard. Stanley Veach, the chief culprit, of the Ranger's defeat was lax defense behind pitcher Husbly, and the robust attack of the Spirit's. Johnny Genuos was the big noise for the champions with two lone homers.

GYM TEAM COMPLETES YEAR OF TUMBLING BEFORE STUDENT BODY

Features On Program This Year, Including Still Exercises on Rings, and Hand-to-Hand Balancing

More than 900 people attended the third annual Home Exhibition of the S. I. N. U. Gym Team at the Shyock Auditorium last Wednesday night. This exhibition concluded a successful 1937-38 season for the team under the direction of Coach Vincent Di Giovanni. Since January 15, they have given fifteen exhibitions and have participated in two triangular meets.

The exhibition opened with the entire Southern team, arranged in three semi-circular pyramids. The tumbling began with two-man barrel rolls and the three-man barrel roll, by Hicks, Green, and Harrison. This was followed by two trios doing a leading dip. Hicks with the aid of Stump did a high back flip. Next Hicks and Paul executed a series of forward handsprings, backward hand springs, and backward flips without touching the mat with their hands.

A new feature on the program was the team's hand balancing by Davis, Phil, Higgins, and Stump. First Davis and Stump performed a vertical balance. The last balancing pair, two straight lines of three pairs of arms. The tumbling continued with several members of the squad diving over the members kneeling on the mat. When the number was increased to nine and the group was directed by Hinkley. This was followed by a tumbling pyramid which collapsed as the

TWO TEAMS TIED FOR FIRST PLACE IN I. M. BASEBALL

Spirits of 76 and Monkeys Win 3 and Lose 3 to Hold Lead

When the new five-player rule was put into effect prior to the start of the spring intramural baseball season, Coach Vincent Di Giovanni, who expected that the league would be better balanced than in previous seasons when one or two teams always managed to monopolize the college's playing talent. As a matter of fact, most of the league's ten teams, exclusive of the four representing organizations, have been strengthened by the draft system but not enough to prevent the Monkeys and the Spirits of '76 from going into a tie for first place, each with three victories and no defeats, after two days of playing in the season's third week. These two teams led for first place throughout the 1937 season before the Spirits won the championship game.

A three-way tie was expected after Tuesday's games, but the Orioles, with Stanley Veach on the mound, pushed the Cubs into the defeat column for the first time by winning 7 to 2. The Lone Star Rangers, who occupied first place along with the Cubs, Spirits and Monkeys at night Tuesday's games, were beaten the same afternoon by the Spirits, 5 to 14, for their first set-back in three games.

Veach, a brother to Gerald Veach, former Southern athlete, now a professional pitcher, held the Cub's batters to three hits in winning his first start. A home run by Carter, center, two singles by K. Eubanks, and a single and triple by Howard Hicks buttressed the Oriole victory. Arthur Townes, getting two singles, paced the Cub hitters.

A new bright star—John Genuos—shone brightly in the Spirit's lineup. The honor student, from Brighton hit two home runs, both of which were vital drives far into the left field of the east diamond. In addition to Genuos, Otis McMahon, Kenneth Van Lente, J. F. Vaughn, and Clarence Cramer all came through with two hits. For the Rangers, Church Husbly and Arthur Press were the most effective, each collecting two singles, one of their big's being a round-tripper.

Will Compete in 11th Teachers College Meet at Normal

Coach Roland P. Lingle and his Southern trackmen will leave for this weekend with the intention of capturing their eighth championship when they compete in the Eleventh Annual State Teachers College meet at Normal Saturday. The other participants are Northern Teachers of Decatur, Western Teachers of Milledgeville, Eastern Teachers of Charleston, and the host team.

Judges both from the advance reports on the aggregations on their showings this year and from the fact that the Southern, defending champions, were placed first in 1937 and second and third by 8 points in the '37 battle, these three schools should again prove tops and close contenders for the crown.

The results of last year's meet shows that Coach Lingle will be defending champions in 6 of the 16 events. Besides a group of men who placed again in 1937, the following were placed in the finishing Saturday. Leading this list or standouts is Eugene Payton who has led the individual winners for the past three times. Payton returns to defend his supremacy in the 100 yard dash, the 220 yard dash, and the 220 yard low hurdles. However, in only one event, the 100 yard dash, has he as yet this year equaled his winning time in the '37 meet. This most likely on the other hand may be attributed to the fact that in most races this season he has not really been pushed by his opponents.

The three other returning champs on Coach Lingle's roster are Morton Wiley, Allen Sutton, and Jack Wilson. Wiley topped the finishers in the 129 high hurdles to win in 15.7. Both the second and third position runners in that event have graduated, but Magill of Normal, who placed fifth in the Southern hurdle, tooms in their place.

Sutton defends his runner in the 800 which he won last season 7:10.1. Al Smith of Normal, runner in the 100 in '37, will again be entered and will probably be one of the chief contenders. Parsons and Prazer, however, have both showed up well for the Maroons in their competition this year's season and teamed with Allen Wiley round out a dependable trio in the half mile.

Wilson, the fourth member of the squad who won last year and is available again, returns to compete in the broad jump, won in '37 with a mark of 21 ft. 1 1/2 inches. Teaming up with Wiley Saturday will be Hoorbecke who has been in excellent performance this season. Though he will not be defending a championship, Captain Charles Struss is rated as one of the stars of this year's meet and is ranked as one of the possible record breakers. In the previous first place in the 440 yard dash by a record. The winning time was 50.6, a step, and was made by Helm of Dekalb, then a senior. Hinkley stands out from any other runner from Southern who may smash a record. Against other several weeks ago he cleared the bar at 6 ft. 1 inch in the high jump, only one foot lower than the meet record. Though space limits the listing of other potential pit collectors for Southern, beyond men Hinkley and Deason, Hoorbecke, Broad Jumper, and Deason and North, weight-jump, may come through with valuable performances.

While Southern has been watching her own track, the Hawks have been heralding Charles Dechel as the star of the coming battle. Dechel won the high jump with a leap of 6 ft. 2 inches, a record breaking height. However, this year Dechel has already stamped himself as one of the outstanding jumpers in the state with a vertical jump of 44 inches and a high jump of 6 ft. 6 inches. In the anchor Tech Relay and at the Chicago relay Dechel's defeated with nationally recognized stars as Dave Allbritton and Corchell Johnson, co-holders of the women's record of 6 ft. 9 1/2 inches, and Mel Walker, holder of the 4-4-4.

By CHARLES SOUTH... To-day the track and field team leaves for Bloomington, there to enter the State Teachers Colleges Track Meet. What possibilities our men have may be gathered from the fact that Southern has won seven of the last ten Teachers Meets. So, if we judge purely from past performance, Southern should be the odds-on favorite to win the meet; however, in this, or any other Teachers College, the underdog is so rapid that it is with some misgivings that any sports writer opens himself up by making an unqualified prognostication. On the other hand, Southern has been runner-up two times in the last three seasons, the only blunder being the loss to Cape Girardeau early this spring, which was effectively offset when we defeated them on the return engagement.

Bearing all these things in mind, we hesitate to say too boldly that Southern will win, but we do say that Southern has an excellent chance of again capturing the meet, and that our Captain Charles Struss will win the quarter mile. (Don't let me down, Charlie!)

Last Saturday saw Southern's outdoor squad outlining the Murray Kentucky Teachers... With all due respect to the faculty, our men were not at any time worried about the outcome of the meet, which as you know, wound up with Southern on the sunny side of a score of 110 1/2 to 19 1/2. The slow track did not hurt brother Struss from turning in the usual performance of winning a mile and low in weight all at once. One arbitrary rule, promulgated by Chester and Lester Pyrell of Normal, which was to be observed by all teams, was that no team should have more than one player on the same team who had won a championship in the previous year. This rule was observed by all teams, and Southern was the only team to have a player who had won a championship in the previous year. This rule was observed by all teams, and Southern was the only team to have a player who had won a championship in the previous year.

MILES ATTENDS FINANCIAL MEETING

Edward W. Miles, Business Manager, attended a committee meeting of the Financial Advisory Service of the American Council on Education in Chicago last Friday. While there he conferred with the committee concerning the manual of business procedure which is in waiting for the teachers' colleges of the U. S. under their direction.

Leap-frogging from eighth place among the scoring acts into fifth place, Van Hoorebeke was "showing the boys how" last week. Hoorebeke is a vaulter who was kept out last year because of a bad appendix, but who is showing commendable form this year. He is waiting for his shot at the broad-jumping title. May be he the first field man for Southern to break a record this season.

The pomeloed horse was then brought up on the stage and Hicks, Davis, Belcher, and Covington performed on it. The tiger leaping act by the whole team followed. With the horse elevated and six men stacked on top of it, Groves cleared them in the final leap.

One of the most impressive parts of the program was the living platform posed under a blue spot light by May, Cade, and McGuire. The statures posed were the Discus Thrower, the Diving Gull, the Plunger, the Tumbler, the Fighting Gladiator, Michael Angelo, the Wrestler, Boxer, Fencer, the Reluctant Gladiator, Combat, and Progress.

The finale included six men, each standing with a man upright on his shoulders, while the rest of the team tumbled in front of them.

During the exhibition Captain Harold Black entertained the crowd with his clown act. When the curtains opened for the Gladiator Combat in the Living Statuary, there was Black in his clown outfit holding a bow. Another time, Black came on the stage tugging on a long rope with the help of Green. Black went off the stage pulling the rope and when the end of it was reached, Black came on stage holding it.

Before the exhibition started, the college band, conducted by Wendell Margrave, played a thirty-minute concert of band music by John Philip Sousa, K. L. Ping, E. DeLamater, and Charles Gounod. Also at the intermission, the band added atmosphere to the occasion by playing "The Daring Young Man on the Flying Trapeze." During the exhibition, the background was added by Paul Mosely at the piano.

BUSINESS MEN PROMISE AID TO JUNE PAGEANT

Northwest Pageant To Be Enacted June 9; Beyer Makes Plans

Cooperation of the Business Men's Association of Carbondale has been promised in the presentation of the Northwestern Pageant which is to be enacted at the new stadium of S. I. N. U. on June 9.

At the present time committees are being formed to perfect plans for the pageant. Dr. E. L. Beyer of the college faculty is to be in charge of the entire program. The heads of the committees are as follows: Stadium Committee, Captain William McAndrew; Music Committee, Wendell Margrave; Transportation Committee, Irvin Feilhaber; Facility Committee, William Walker; Usener, At Narouse.

Carlisle McAndrew and Mr. A. D. Rubaker, as leaders of the Business Men's Association, have promised their assistance in urging the city government to cooperate, perhaps even to the extent of proclaiming June 9 Pioneer Day. On this day the local pioneers may be honored as well as the pioneers who settled the rest of the Northwestern Territory, with possibly a memorial service to Carbondale pioneers.

Representative business men of the town have seemed very interested in the presentation of the pageant. They have decided to form committees to work with college committees and to give advice and dignified publicity to the whole program. A good deal of decorating will probably be done to suggest the covered wagons which crossed the plains and hills of Southern Illinois one hundred and fifty years ago, performing an act which will this year be celebrated by eight colorful episodes at the Northwest Pageant.

McINTOSH, MARGRAVE IN JOHNSTON CITY MUSIC FESTIVAL

D. McNeill, Sydney Hirona and Charles Waterman; Cubs, Taft Baker and Charles Wohlfing; Monkeys, James West and W. W. Robinson; The Cat Peltis and U. High were not eligible for the selections while some teams waived their right to mid-strip players, which accounts for the unequal division. The Lone Star Rangers and the Spirit of '76 stood pat on the present rosters.

Wally Jansky, No. 1 wonder of the Fitness Woods, executed one of the best Frank McGriff-like lessons ever seen. In Monday's PLAY Jazz pitched his team to a 4-1 victory and hit a circuit clout far into the tennis courts with the bases full, thus accounting for all but one of his team's five tallies. At the present writing, Jansky is batting .409 with a homer and single out of two official trips.

Stanley Veach, new addition to the Oriole's pitching staff, is the brother of Gerald Veach, who was in school the fall and winter terms and is now playing professional ball with Antulua of the Alabama-Florida League.

In defeating the Cubs Tuesday, the Oriole executed two rapid-fire double plays to squelch promising Cub rallies. Eubanks and Hicks bit hard for the winners while Underwood, Oriole shortstop, played a fine defensive game.

In their 11-9 victory over the State Farm last Wednesday, the Cubs scored two runs in every inning except the fifth when they got one. Dillow, State Farm pitcher, banged out a home run and two singles for his losers. Vincent DiGiovanna made his initial appearance of the season for the Cubs in this contest.

Annual Play Day Represented Here By 18 High Schools

One hundred and twenty-five high school girls from Southern Illinois attended the Annual Play Day here last Saturday. The event was one of the most successful that has ever been sponsored by the physical education major classes.

The girls registered at 9 o'clock and were assigned to squads, each squad having a W. A. A. leader who directed the members throughout the day. Short speeches of welcome were made by Miss Marion Byrum, Miss Francis Etheridge, and Dean E. G. Lentz. The individual events took place in the morning and the group activities in the afternoon. A loud speaker was installed near the gymnasium to time and direct the team sports.

Luncheon at Anthony Hall followed the noon theme of Play Day. Miniature cowboys and cowgirls served as place cards, and strings of paper cut-out representations of Coach William McAndrew were an honor guest and spoke a few words to the girls.

After the luncheon the afternoon game squads met in the girls' gymnasium where each group represented presented a stunt. The physical education sponsors acted as judges and awarded the prize for the best stunt to the McLeansboro group. The climax of the day was the presentation of the individual and team awards by Marion Byrum.

showed plenty of batting power in last week's games. The Monkey's set a season record against the Athletics with 13 runs in the first inning. The Monks pounded 29 hits in 2 1/2 innings. Against the Rangers, the Spirit's collected 13 safeties, including 2 homers and 3 triples.

After the trip the members of the U. High class will be treated to supper at the historic Holiday House in Cairo.

WOMEN ATHLETES TO HAVE INTRAMURAL BASEBALL TOURNAMENT

During the remaining four weeks of the term the faculty of the women's physical education department plan to conduct an intramural baseball tournament for women similar to the basketball tournament which was held last term. Twenty-four teams from the freshman P. E. classes will compete in a combination elimination and round robin tournament. Probably the winning freshman team will play a team composed of the minors. As yet none of the games have been played.

STUDENT OPINE

Dear Editor:

In order to avoid any misunderstanding on the part of the student body and faculty, we wish to make it clear that the letter which appeared in your Student Opine column on April 15, pertaining to lack of facilities in the Women's Physical Education Department, did not come officially from the W. A. A.

We realize that the Women's Athletics Department is working under a handicap; however, during the past two years the Men's Athletic Department has permitted us to use the old football field as an archery range, and we feel confident that as soon as they are in a position to do so they will again allow us this and other privileges.
