Advertising awards were won by Gary Clark and Frances Hamp. Gary is the president of the Journalism Students Association and is a senior at SIU. Frances is the present news editor for the Egyptian and is a junior.

The Editors' Opinions Construction Booms

Trucks here, tools there, and workers everywhere!

A stranger passing the SIU campus would probably think a city is being built. Change the "city" to "University" and he would be right.

With the recent warm weather the hum of building activity is in full swing. The campus takes on a new appearance almost daily as more construction equipment is moved into the various places.

Students must feel they are being crowded off the campus. Today a long stream of big red trucks filled up Grand Avenue from University to Illinois.

But this sort of crowding will never be seriously minded by students. Small inconveniences are easily endured when it is possible to see the University growing by leaps and bounds.

Work on the Home Economics Building is progressing rapidly. Judging from the aforementioned line of trucks and the materials being moved into the area it appears the building will soon move out of the dream stage and become a reality.

Perhaps a few students are wondering what the fence around the lot on the West side of Parkinson stands for — besides being an obstruction to walk around. An auditorium is being built on the lot — and workmen are also "swarming" over the place.

Other construction jobs are also on the move. Spring appears to be bringing the building plans of SIU into action. While work went on through the winter, it seems almost slow when compared with the present pace.

The work is good to see. It makes one feel good. SIU is on the move.

BEHIND THE NEWS

By Joe Blivett

Comments on the column title ranged from "You certainly are behind with the news" to "Sure glad you aren't using a picture."

Others were curious about the meaning of the title. "What did it mean? Did I mean the column would only attempt to explain what goes on behind the news in the paper?"

In answer to the last question (I refuse to incriminate myself with the others)—it has to be no.

The reason is simple. To be limited to this one field would not be good. For the reader or for me. It would rule out the use of many subjects—such as discussing the squirrels in Thompson Point woods for instance.

At times the column will be used to explain some of the reasons and thoughts which are behind the use of various features by the Egyptian. This will not be an attempt to debate the various pros and cons—simply our reasons for feeling the material is important enough to print.

In line with the thought of what goes behind various aspects of the news is the use of two new features in the Egyptian.

Starting with this issue a feature entitled "Campus Hall Of Fame" is being run.

It will give recognition to a different student everytime. The basis for selecting the individual for each feature will be as fair and objective as we can make it. The Egyptian staff will vote on outstanding students and thus the decision will not be the opinion of one person.

Present plans call for the "Campus Hall of Fame" to be run once a week, or every other issue.

One thought about the selection of students. They will NOT be chosen purely on a basis of being in the "lime light" in campus activities. Many, many students are doing good work on various activities which are behind-the-scenes. They too will be in the Hall of Fame.

In the near future another regular feature will be started. It will also be about students at SIU—with one difference. The only requirement is for the person to be a student.

In a college paper the students are "news." Their likes and dislikes—their views and tastes—this is news.

The method of selecting the student for this feature will be impartial. The reporter will not know the student before writing the story.

These features are about students and for students. Let us know if you like it—or should it be scrapped?

A thought along a different line but still in keeping with what goes behind the news is the basis for printing a story. How is it done? Do we print a story as a "personal favor" or is it selected on the basis of its news value.

The answer can be only one thing—any paper which makes a honest attempt to print the news fairly and impartially will not let friendships be a deciding factor.

This is very hard for the general public to understand. Mr. Jones has a story which he believes should be printed. Perhaps the story is about himself or some special interest. In any case Mr. Jones feels since he knows Mr. Smith, the ace reporter on the Eagle News, his story should be printed.

This is not to deny that many stories on many newspapers ARE printed because of personal friendships—or obligations. But it shouldn't be done. Every paper has an obligation to the public to print the news on an impartial basis.

A college paper like the same obligation. People who perhaps understand why a large city newspaper should print news on an impartial basis do not always agree with the same policy in regards to a college paper. They feel this is a "horse of a different color"—that a campus paper should condescend to print stories on a personal basis.

The Egyptian staff does not feel this way. We will strive to judge stories simply on the basis of their news value to the students and the University.

Well, that is just a few of the thoughts which are behind

Class Officer New Duties

The freshman, sophomore, and junior class officers have formed a new class officer program which will go into effect this year.

The program will provide a permanent set of duties for all officers for the future.

The Junior Class will be in charge of Scholastic Honors Day with the Junior Class president serving as chairman.

The Sophomore and Freshman classes will handle Spring and Fall elections. The Sophomore president will serve as chairman for spring elections, and Freshman for the following Fall.

All officers will be free to accept appointments to be made by the Student Council for chair Council committees.

A series of department awards are being initiated and will go into effect this year. These activities, representing the Music, Physical Education girls, and Speech Departments, will be given on the basis of participation in department extra-curricular activities. The recipients will be chosen by the various department staffs and will receive the award at the Activities Honors Day in May.

The officers have written to other colleges and universities obtaining information on their class officer program. They have also been working with the Student Council in setting up this program which will not be permanent.

MARY ANN EDWARDS

Campus Hall Of Fame

The first entry into the Hall of Fame is pretty, brown-eyed Mary Ann Edwards.

A finance major from Elmhurst, Mary Ann is probably best known by students for her position as President of the Student Council. But she has participated in many other activities in addition.

A member of Delta Zeta Sorority for four years, she is the second Vice-President and Rush Chairman at present. Other honors accorded her as a member of the sorority are too numerous to list in entirety.

A few of the more outstanding ones are: Junior and Senior Representative to Panhellenic Council and Inter-Greek Week, Pan-Hellenic Council Leland Award Steering Committee, Inter-Greek Council Political Actions Chairman, Co-Chairman of Pan-Hellenic Workshop and Greek Week.

She is the Secretary - Treasurer of the Sphinx Club.

Mary Ann was a Junior Representative to the Student Council before being elected the President in her senior year.

Mary Ann has her likes and dislikes of Southern. She likes its homelike atmosphere and the students that attend Southern; she likes its faculty and its beautiful new buildings. On the dislike side, she doesn't like the "Red Tape" at Southern.

Mary Ann gave this reply when asked what changes she would make if the job of President of SIU were given to her "tomorrow."

"Nothing except paint the outside of the Business Barracks in pretty multi-colors. They need a little personality.

Her philosophy of life? "Smile and speak to everyone. Make Others welcome."

Mary Ann will graduate this quarter. Southern will miss her.

W-2 forms belonging to students are still at the Personnel Office. Students are urged to pick them up immediately.

If the cards are not picked up then they will be mailed out, but it is hoped this will not be necessary.

Can Or Pick Peas

Wisconsin Area Offers Cash For Needy Students

(Editor's Note: Last week we cited jobs for students which were available in the New York camps. Today's job listing is concerned with the Midwest).

Did you ever stare at that long line of cans on the shelf of your local supermarket and wonder where all those cotton-pickin' peas came from?

The answer, believe it or not, is Wisconsin. And this is where any money-hungry pea-picking student can get his pockets filled with green cash (and not peas) in a hurry.

Frank C. Adams, assistant director of the Student Work Office, said that any student interested in getting a job in either the canneries or in the fields should come to his office to fill out the proposal cards needed for employment.

The filling out of the cards (Illinois Employment Office and Student Employment) is necessary before the student can be interviewed by the employers. Representatives of the various Wisconsin companies will be on campus in the future.

Adams said that students who wished to work in these jobs should fill out their applications now.

The Wisconsin pea-picking and canner work involves long hours (at a fairly good wage) and the company generally provides a free room for the student.

Since there is no place to go, the student cannot be tempted to spend his hard-earned cash.

If you need the dough, like fresh air, and are willing to do some hard work, the jobs are open.

'Seven Last Words' Of Jesus At Mt. Calvary

By Charles Luckett
Man is God's most divine creation and was created to have dominion over all other animals on earth. He was created perfect in his Maker's sight.
When God made the world, the fish, the fowl, the sea and all that moves about the face of the earth, God replied, "That's Good." Yet when he made man from his own image out of the materials that are found in the ground, God replied, "That is Very Good."

Free Lance Writer Perks Up J-Students

Anne West, who has beat the drum for Tom Mix and weathered a tour through 500 beehives during her fascinating free-lance writing career, told the Journalism Students Assn. about the tricks of the trade last Monday in the Library Auditorium. She brought her Monday morning smile, flashed a pleasant hello and didn't bore anybody. There wasn't a soul asleep at the finish.
She graduated from SIU and was associate editor of the Egyptian while she was on campus. Miss West now lives at a log cabin near Carterville where she does most of her writing.

Festival Art Exhibit Begins

The world of the Paris cafes and tracks of 50 years ago came to life in Allyn Gallery last Sunday with the opening of the special exhibit of Toulouse-Lautrec paintings and lithographs.
A large and appreciative crowd jammed the main corridor of the Gallery following the official opening of the Fine Arts Festival in Shroyck Auditorium to admire the colorful work of the French artist.

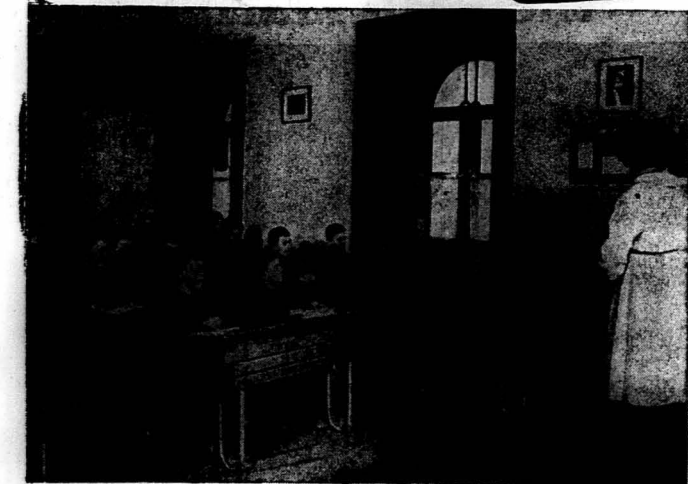

Sacrifices Its Necessity

Man had thrown himself beyond the border of God's mercy. A sacrifice was now the only method for the gap between God and man to become filled.
While in heaven, the Son of God agreed to leave his heavenly home to come to this world to die for man's sins and to give man his salvation. The time was set and the people had chosen by this through prophets chosen by God.
The Son of God entered the world as a baby wrapped in swaddling clothes and found resting in a stable. Thereafter, he increased in wisdom, stature, and in favor with God and man.

Pilate Washes Hands

Pilate's desire to have nothing to do with the fate of Jesus, caused him to wash his hands publicly as an act of being free of the punishment of Jesus.
The soldiers placed a crown of thorns on His head and put a purple robe on Him and said, "Hail, King of the Jews!" The angry crowd began beating him with their hands.
Pilate was displeased with this action and came forward and told them that he had sent Jesus back to them because he had found no fault in Him.

SDX Calendar Pin-Ups On Sale

Beauty in a condensed form can be obtained through the purchase of the Sigma Delta Chi's 1958 pin-up calendars which are on sale at the Obelisk office in the Student Union.
Sigma Delta Chi members want students that they should buy their calendars now because only "9 beautiful months" remain.
Joann Norzuk, sophomore speech major from East St. Louis, is charming as the month of April.
Louis Crim, Mound City graduate student, graces the cover of the calendar.
The Sigma Delta Chi members will go also to each organized house to sell the remaining one thousand calendars, which cost fifty cents.

High School Kids Will Visit Campus For Home Ec Day

A large number of high school students will visit the campus to attend SIU's annual high school Home Economics Day, April 12.
Dr. Ellen Quigley, dean of the School of Home Economics, and President Delyte Morris will welcome the visitors after their 9:30 a. m. registration in Shroyck Auditorium.
Following this, Dr. Helen Evans, chief academic adviser in home economics, will speak on "Careers in Home Economics."
For entertainment for the guests, a skit, "Life of a College Freshman," will be presented by SIU freshman students in home economics. Also, the 60-voice AFROT Singing Squadron will present a musical program.
Following lunch tours of the campus and conferences will begin at 12:30 p. m.
A style show at 1:30 p. m. in Shroyck Auditorium, followed by a tea at 2:30 p. m. in Woody Hall conclude the day's activities.

Tennis Squad Dumps Vanderbilt In Opener; Host Bradley and Bowling Green Today

SIU's tennis squad opened up their regular season in excellent fashion last weekend as they dumped Vanderbilt University, 6-2.

Coach Dick Lefevre's squad hosts Bradley and Bowling Green in a triangular meet today. They will host Bradley in a dual meet tomorrow on the SIU courts. Match Time 1 p. m.

Jim Jarrett, John Taylor and Doyle Glass again played key roles in the victory as they have in most of the exhibition matches on the squads spring tour.

The results: Bill Katz V, beat Jerry Budzdek S, 6-0, 6-1.

Jim Jarrett S, beat Ted Duncan V, 1-6, 6-4, 6-3.

Doyle Glass S, beat Maril Jacobs V, 6-2, 8-10, 7-5.

Ronnie Spevak V, beat Jerry Green S.

Jim Shanklin S, beat David Lux V, 4-6, 8-6, 6-4.

Glass-Jarrett S, beat Katz-Duncan V, 6-3, 6-3.

Taylor-Budzdek S, beat Young-Spevak V, 6-1, default.

Gruen-Shanklin S, led Lux-Johnson V 8-6, when their match was called by darkness.

Hitting Good

'Abe' Martin Confident In Saluki Baseball Squad

"The team looks real good," said a very confident "Abe" Martin as he looked out over a sun-kissed field at his sweating athletes.

"Yes we should do real good," boasted Martin.

"Abe" put his squad through a stiff workout Wednesday afternoon in preparation for the season's opener yesterday afternoon at Quincy College. The workout included intensive infield and outfield drills and a little slugging practice as the athletes seemed to be enjoying the beautiful weather just as much as the rest of the SIU student body that is loafing around the campus.

As a preview to this up and coming season, the Salukis posted a 4-4 record on their spring tour through the south.

On the trip, many of Martin's athletes were what could be classified as outstanding.

Buddy Velasco, senior outfielder from Christopher, paced the Salukis in the slugging department by connecting for 14 hits in 32 trips to the platter for a sizzling 438 mark.

Other top sluggers for SIU were Fred Loeskan, outfielder from St. Louis, 385 (5 hits in 13 trips); Rich Dupo, 360 (9 hits in 25 trips); and J. W. Sanderson, catcher, 357 (10 for 28), and Dillinger hit 360 (9 for 25).

Other regulars on the trip hit fairly good also. "Itchy" Jones, a shortstop for Herrin, started off fast but his bat cooled off as he finished the exhibition series hitting .280. Ken Monschein, second baseman, hit .228. Rocky Bridges couldn't get his big bat going as he hit only .233. The Salukis hit three round-trippers on the tour, with Dillinger, Bayan and Velasco doing the honors.

John Gilmore was the standout hurler on the trip as he hurled a total of 22 innings and although allowing 11 runs and 23 hits he walked only two men. He posted a 2-1 record. Gerald Thomas also sparked as he posted a 2-0 mark.

After yesterday's encounter with Quincy, The Salukis travel to Austin Peay State College tomorrow afternoon, returning home for a clash with St. Louis University Monday afternoon at 3:30 p. m.

Forty-seven athletes at SIU will receive varsity awards for participation in 1958 winter sports, according to Athletic Director Donald Boydston.

Basketball and gymnastics head the list with thirteen awards each. Twelve letters will be awarded in swimming and nine in wrestling.

Seymour Bryson, junior from Quincy, has been named as the second team center on the IAC conference all-star selections.

The new University of Illinois field house will seat approximately 18,000 people as compared to the 7,000 that Huff Gym now holds.

TAKE YOUR MARKS, Get set, go! shouts "Doc" Lingle, SIU track coach as he starts off three of his best sprint men. From left are Ron Helberg, Jerry Cuender and Carver Shannon. All three men may be capable of running the 100 yd. dash in less than 10 seconds.

Gymnasts Go To Central AAU

Coach Bill Meade and seven of his top gymnasts will journey to Chicago this weekend to take part in the Central AAU Senior Championships.

Saluki gymnasts making the trip are: Bob Hauser, tumbling; Roger Council, trampolining; Bob Foster and Ed Foster, rings; John Ottavelli, side horse; Don Leas, all-around; and Jack Wiley, tumbling and tramp.

The meet will be held at New Trier High School in Chicago on Saturday afternoon.

George Susce, Boston Red Sox pitcher, has an 18-14 record for three seasons in the American League. He has beaten the New York Yankees three times and they have yet to beat him.

Bermuda shorts, which some brave souls have been wearing all during the blustery winter season, have really made a comeback again this season.

Whether they be solid colored or bright and gay plaid, the shorts will be the essential in every girl's wardrobe this year.

How About Blouses?

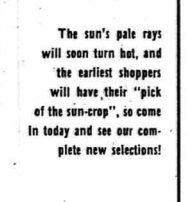

Pretty blouses will probably become a usual sight around campus now, since they are cooling off, yet offer an effect of comfort even on breezy days.

TELEVISION

SIU has entered the movie world with a film "The People's University," which will be televised Sunday at 2:30 p.m. on station KFSV-TV, Cape Girardeau.

OUR FUN SHOP IS OPEN

Sticklers!

WHAT IS A MAN WHO BLOWS SMOKE RINGS? (SEE PARAGRAPH BELOW)

SMOKE RINGS come in all shapes and sizes. Like 4-sided smoke rings for squares. Sturdy smoke rings for windy days. Even invisible smoke rings for people who aren't ostentatious. As any competent smoke ringer (Vapor Shaper in Stickles!) will tell you, the best way to start one is to light up a Lucky. It's best mostly because a Lucky tastes best. A Lucky gives you naturally light, wonderfully good-tasting tobacco, toasted to taste even better. Why settle for less? You'll say a light smoke's the right smoke for you!

DON'T JUST STAND THERE... STICKLE! MAKE $25

Sticklers are simple riddles with two-word rhyming answers. Both words must have the same number of syllables. (No drawings, please!) We'll shell out $25 for all we use—and for hundreds that never see print. So send stacks of 'em with your name, address, college and how to help you. Lucky, Box 67A, Mount Vernon, New York.
