AMPLIFICATION SYSTEM AT LAST It was with gratification that we heard the announcement concerning the imminent installation of an amplification system in Shryock Auditorium.

The amplification system (the exact type to be installed has not yet been definitely determined) will be a decided aid in the appreciation of entertainments to be heard in the Auditorium from now on.

Several complaints have been heard about inability to hear some of the entertainment numbers presented here this year. Especially was Mark Sullivan, a low-voiced speaker, a victim of the lack of amplification facilities in the Auditorium.

NEW REGISTRATION SYSTEM UNSATISFACTORY

The new plan of registration, given its first trial this term, seems to fall far short of correcting the evils which it sought to eradicate. At the various divisions in the registration process, the plan rather created larger and more frequent crowds.

crowding at any place. However, for some reason, possibly because of the complexity and difficulty of explaining the new system, the crowds were not decreased but increased and congestion was more noticeable than ever.

FOR AMERICAN OLYMPIC PARTICIPATION

With the formal certification of American athletes to the German Olympic games, the A. A. U. in their stormy three-day session which ended Sunday night, the dispute which has raged through the national amateur body and the sport-followers of the country at large is brought to at least a practical culmination.

Led by the Columbia Spectator, a block of college papers have openly declared against U. S. participation because the Germans have barred Jewish athletes from competition. Their stand is taken as a sort of sports boycott on the German dictatorship for racial discrimination in the field of international athletic competition.

It is with this latter viewpoint that the Egyptian takes its stand. With all the incomprehensible mess of world politics, it seems to us that international sport should take this measure as an example or warning—and stay out of such a melee. This can best be done by the entrance of all nations into the Olympic games, in spirit of good sportsmanship and friendly rivalry.

And on the practical side—if the Germans want or rather if their dictator wants—to suffer a class of athletes, let their team suffer. It doubtless will. Some of the Fatherland's best trackmen are of Hebrew extraction. It is evident that the Hitler policy on the matter is not consistent, as one of the finest women sprinters of the world and certain Olympic point-winner, who is a German Jewess, has been exterminated from the ban and is now practicing for competition next summer.

CROSS FIRE AT CAMERA CLUB

The American Institute of Public Opinion, now conducting some of the most representative polls of American public opinion, bears out the statement recently made by Mark Sullivan that Governor Alf Landon of Kansas is the most talked of candidate for the Republican presidential nomination.

According to the Institute's poll of Republicans, Landon was favored by 33 percent of the G. O. P. voters, followed rather closely by William B. Borah, United States Senator from Idaho. Borah polled 26 per cent of the Republican votes to lead Herbert Hoover, ex-president and theoretical head of the Republican organization.

More or less support was evinced for Colonel Frank Knox, publisher of the Chicago Daily News; Ogden Mills, secretary of the treasury under President Hoover; Arthur Vandenberg, liberal senator from Michigan; and U. S. Senator L. J. (Hell-Raising Dick) Dickinson, agrarian crusader from Iowa.

This is the second poll made of Republican voters by the Institute and the changes shown are rather interesting. Since the first poll, taken last March, Landon has increased his vote 10 times and Knox 5 times.

Borah has improved his position slightly. Hoover voters have decreased somewhat, while Young's and supporters remain about the same. In the region including Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, and Michigan, Governor Landon is the leading candidate with Senator Borah running second.

Evidence of the constant friction between the national government and the United States Chamber of Commerce is shown in the statement by the Chamber that a poll of its members showed 'strong disapproval' of recent legislation in Washington and reiterates the active resistance of business men to an increasing governmental encroachment into fields rightfully occupied by private business enterprises.

FIFTY COUPLES ATTEND DELTA SIG FORMAL

Vice Genovese's ten-piece orchestra played Friday night for the Delta Sigma Epsilon winter formal which was held in the new gymnasium. Approximately fifty couples attended. The formal was a great dance planned by a committee composed of Betty Barry, chairman, Mrs. Helen Wolfshager, Sue Crain, and Betty Hoek. On the black backdrop behind the orchestra hung a large facsimile of the sorority crest, and each end of the gymnasium was decorated with replicas of the sorority cornucopia. Sorority colors of green and cream were used. At the intermission, a tap and a two dance were given.

Dean and Mrs. E. C. Lentz, Dean and Mrs. G. D. Wham, Dean Lucy K. Woody, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. McIntosh, and Barnett Shryock chaperoned.

WINTER TERM ENROLLMENT STANDS AT 1422

Later Figures Expected To Raise This Total

At the end of the first week of registration for the winter term, enrollment figures stood at the last check-off Monday morning at 1422. Compared with the figures of the 1934 winter term, 29 less students have registered this year than last. However, Miss Marjorie Shank, Registrar, stated Friday that she expects the figure to be approximately the same as those of 1934 at the end of the week.

Of this list, the freshman class has the largest number registered, having a membership of 567. Second in numbers is the sophomore class with an enrollment of 561. At present, the junior class has 295 members, the senior class 143, and the non-classified group 16.

The new system of registration, devised by Miss Shank and J. H. Schroeder, was first put to test when registration began last Monday morning. Of the new features incorporated in this plan, the outstanding one permitted participation in registration before paying Business Office fees.

Tenth Annual Intramural League Formed

The schedule last year comprised more than 150 games played, not including championship contests. Winners this year will also have their names put on the intramural plaque, and it is possible that awards will be made. This is up to the players.

All players interested in entering the league should watch for chapel announcements, notices on the athletic bulletin board in the gymnasium, or Egyptian accounts of the league formation.

DR. O. B. YOUNG TALKS ON 'LENSES' AT CAMERA CLUB

The Camera club met last Monday in the Zoology recitation room. Dr. O. B. Young discussed 'Lenses,' telling of various kinds of lenses and their use in photography.

The Camera club was organized some time ago by a group of students and townspersons who were interested in amateur photography. Mrs. J. P. Street is the leader of the group.

Although the club meets regularly the first Monday of each month, the next meeting will be held the second Monday in January, because of the holidays. Definite announcement will appear in the school calendar at a later date.

The club welcomes anyone interested in the field of photography.

It is planned to announce that it is planning an entire air fleet for the same general purpose as the starting China Clipper.

The depression may have cut many laborers' wages but it has not noticeably affected the managing directors of great corporations. Rather to the contrary is the evidence shown by reports of salaries paid in 1929, 1932, and 1934.

The results show that salaries have almost uniformly raised or held their own since 1932, with only a few corporations showing lower salaries since that year.

'Tops' now among the high salaries reported is that of Thomas J. Watson, president of the International Business Machines Company. Mr. Watson earned the meager sum of $365,358 in total compensation during 1934. Numerous other companies reported executives receiving compensation in excess of $100,000.

However, the $365,358 paid to Mr. Watson divides in size when compared to the $1,635,753 paid to Eugene G. Grace, president of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, in 1929. That sum still retains the record of being the most compensation paid to any business official during a single year.

These sums seem rather surprising when one considers that only twenty years ago the average yearly wage of the steel workers in the South Bethlehem plant was less than $600 per year.

BOOK REVIEW

By ANTHONY VENEGONI

"High Cost of Culture" by Constance Casady, American Mercury, October, 1932.

In a recent issue of American Mercury, Florence Casady, the young American author of "Even In Laughter" which was published last spring, has written an article dealing with one of the effects of the depression. She calls her article "The High Cost of Culture."

Quite evidently Miss Casady is a lady of means, for the things with which she would have us believe her very familiar belong to that upper layer of society. Naturally, her point of view is that of the moneyed aristocrat.

Miss Casady's problem in "The High Cost of Culture" is that of the rich and cultured family, which, because of the depression, is forced to give up its Park Avenue home and to move into a slightly less fashionable section of the city among the bourgeois. That, however, is not all of the problem. With the change of residence, comes a change of friends, contacts, and interests.

Her "moneyed" father, and mother with their expensively acquired tastes and culture do not suffer, for the truly educated can easily orient himself, but the children are left with no money for culture and no place to acquire it, for the Bronx is scarcely a place in which culture is found.

With such a situation, what are Mr. and Mrs. Ex-Park Avenue to do with Junior? Is he to be allowed to mix with the common laids and lassies who, according to Miss Casady, have only one week, and who have only interests in movies, jazz, and sex? Or is he to be protected? Shall papa and mamma take sissy and say: "Sonny, you can play with the laborer's son, but remember, you are better than he. His tastes, habits, interests, and clothes are funny. They're all wrong." The latter, says Miss Casady, is the real thing to do. Shield the dear one against the "big bad wolf," the common class.

Besides lacking an understanding of the middle class, Miss Casady, it seems to me, is at times unkind. She seems to think that culture can be acquired only when it is profited by the dollar sign, or by a condition of social and intellectual snobbery. Intellect, or no intellect, good taste or bad taste, culture or no culture, teaching children to laugh at a less fortunate group is far from being broadminded. Miss Casady, to her credit, disapproves of racial prejudice, but she advocates an intellectual and social snobbery which seems to neutralize her one good point.

Russian-Born Wife of Illinois College President Defends Native Land and Soviet Customs

Mrs. J. C. Jaquith Compares The Present Day Russia With Pre-War Monarchy; Says Russian Women Have Equal Rights

By VIRGINIA SPILLER

Mrs. J. C. Jaquith spoke to the A. & U. W. on Tuesday, December 3, discussing the topic of Russian folk-lore. Previous to her arrival in the United States in 1920 she was Maria Nikolaevna Harina, daughter of a Russian nobleman, a native of the Ukraine.

In her present position as wife of the president of Illinois College at Jacksonville has given her new contacts, but apparently it has not lessened her interest in her native country.

Before leaving Wednesday morning, Mrs. Jaquith came out for a look at the S. I. T. C. campus, and between expressions of surprise at the spaciousness of the buildings in comparison with those at Jacksonville and explanations that she was weary of all reporters, "because they put such surprising statements into my mouth," she yet found time to comment on the Russia of today and the Russia that used to be.

"Russia today is not yet up to its pre-war level," she said. "There used to be great wealth and great poverty in Russia; now, perhaps, the great wealth is gone—There was the War, then civil war and the famine years. The Soviets had to start from scratch; they have done wonders. But I object to the statement that there were no roads, no rail-roads, no electric lights, no modern conveniences in Russia before! There were! Much of it was destroyed and had to be rebuilt; many new things have come in—things we discovered here too since that time!"

Apparently she has discovered other mistaken ideas about Russia. Among them is our idea of the typical Russian being very dark. "Look at me," she said, her quick, intense manner of speech giving almost brusque, "I am the typical Russian! Most of our people are Slavs." Mrs. Jaquith is tall, fair-skinned, with clear blue eyes and very light brown hair.

In answer to a question as to the present status of women in Russia she said, "Women in Russia now have equal rights—actually have them! You don't have equal rights here! It was only possible through the Revolution, in wiping out the old and putting in the new. Russian women worked in the fields beside their men before the Revolution, but now all professions and occupations are open to them, even heavy industry."

Mrs. Jaquith feels that those who visit Russia would get much more out of it if they had at least a smattering of the Russian language. Contrary to popular opinion, Russian, she says, is not harder to learn than any other language. "Yes," she concluded enthusiastically, "you must go to Russia!"

Modern Problems Club Will Give Chapel Program Friday

The Modern Problems Club will present the regular chapel program Friday morning. The theme of the program is Anti-militarism, a very much discussed topic of the day.

The program will consist of a prayer written by Mark Twain, and the following:

Club Selections—John Stanfield.
Poetry Selections—Virginia Spiller.
Poem, "The Radical"—Evelyn Miller.

Original musical composition to this poem—Betty Jones.
Talk on Anti-militarism—John Stanfield.

Dale Hill Re-Elected Ag Club President

Dale Hill, last-term president of the Agriculture club, was re-elected for this quarter at the meeting held in Professor Warner's room Friday night. The other officers elected were: Walter Knecht, vice-president, and Sue Sneed, secretary and treasurer.

A committee of five was appointed to make arrangements for the annual Agriculture club banquet. Those appointed are Paul Ebbing, John Scherrer, Laura Norton, Theima Craig, and Dale Hill.

The program Friday consisted of speeches given by Robert Merril and Loren Hardy.

Brother of Dean Lentz Dies in Montana

Judge Theodore Lentz, Montana state district judge and brother of the S. I. T. C. Dean of Men, E. G. Lentz, died suddenly at his home in Missoula, Montana, Friday. Dean Lentz received a wire concerning his brother's death Friday night.

Judge Lentz was widely known in southern Illinois, having been a student at the old S. I. K. U. in 1891, and having served as principal and musical director of several school systems of this district. He later was principal of schools in Indiana and Montana cities.

Most frowned on were two rare specs: the collegiate type and the cigar-smoker.

College News

ILLINOIS

"Hell Week" at the University of Illinois seems to be meeting a lot of serious opposition. Not only is it opposed by the various pledges to the Greek organizations, but by doctors, school officials, and even fraternal presidents.

Quoting from the "Daily Illini", Dr. David C. Hill, head of the University health service, says: "Hell Week is one of the most damnable customs ever perpetrated upon a student."

Thomas G. Hermann of the psychology department thinks that "Hell Week" causes hard feelings between fraternity brothers which is never wiped out.

MAROONS TO MEET OLSEN'S SWEDS, ILLINOIS COLLEGE, THIS WEEK-END

Swedes Here Friday, Illinois College Plays Saturday

OLSEN TO START FIVE GIANTS

New Men Will Probably See Action for Maroons

When the Maroons play the Olsen's Swedes here Friday night in their first encounter of the season, they will meet a team whose shortest man is six feet in height...

The Olsen team has won over 1700 games in the last 15 years. In the 1933-1934 season they won 112 and lost 14 games and last year they won 115 and lost 17 games.

The Maroon squad is working hard in preparation for the Swede game. Several new men have been showing a rapid improvement in the past two weeks...

Parsons and Fulton at Forward

The probable starting lineup for Southern is as follows: Parsons and Fulton, forward; Demster, center; and Emery, guard.

Captain Louis Lasiter Leads Vengeance Seeking Blueboys

In their third game this week and the second conference contest of the season, the Southern team will encounter the Illinois Blueboys on the floor Saturday night.

Parsons and Fulton at Forward

The probable starting lineup for Southern is as follows: Parsons and Fulton, forward; Demster, center; and Emery, guard.

NEW MEMBERS SWELL GYM TEAM ROSTER TO 36

This Number Largest In History of S. I. T. C. Gym Squad

With the termination of the football season, the gym team has increased its enrollment as well as its strength.

The squad in general has shown a great improvement. Those individuals who have shown the most advancement are Hicks, Black, Johnson, Beymer, Deason and Guinay.

Hicks is working on a stunt which was shown in a picture of Olympic gymnastics at the Gen. Thomas a few weeks ago. It is a series of alternating back-hand springs and back-tucks.

Ragland has been out of practice for the last two weeks, suffering from a sprained ankle. Other minor injuries at the Gen. Thomas hand injuries have somewhat handicapped the team.

Tennis Squad In First Indoor Practice Tonight

The first winter practice for members of the S. I. T. C. tennis squad will be held tonight at 7 o'clock in the men's gymnasium.

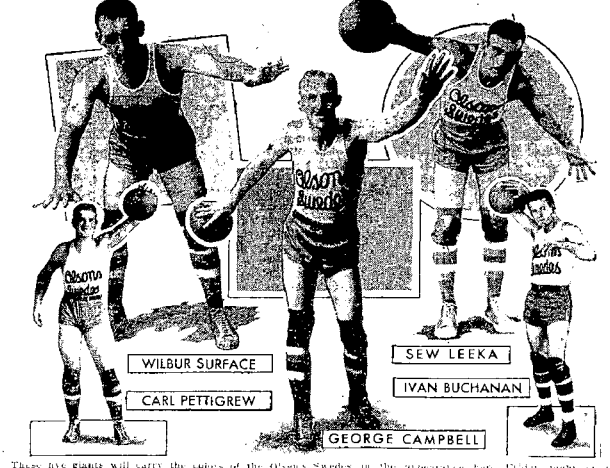

FOOTBALL LETTERMEN

The eighteen Southern football lettermen and coaches William McAndrew and Lehnard P. Lohr were honored at a luncheon yesterday at the Baptist Church Annex.

Recently declared ineligible. The two other returning lettermen are Cecil and Virgil Fletcher, former members of the Southern team.

Since the new three-second rule since the testing of a center within the free throw circle, Lasiter's value as a point guard will be somewhat impaired.

Five Of Olsen's Terrible Swedes

These five giants will carry the colors of the Olsen's Swedes in the appearance here Friday night of the famous independent team. The Olsen representatives have compiled an amazing record of victories in their fifteen-year campaign.

MONMOUTH AND MILLIKIN TIE FOR I. C. C. TITLE

Millikin and Monmouth emerged from the Illinois Intercollegiate Conference football race as co-champions by virtue of wins in their final hoop encounters.

Northern Teachers of DeKalb and Illinois College of Jacksonville ended the season just below the co-leaders with five wins and one loss each.

9 I. C. C. Colleges Sanction Frosh Rule At Informal Meeting

An informal adoption of the freshman rule for athletic competition in football and basketball was consummated by nine colleges of the Illinois College Conference at a meeting held at Peoria Saturday, November 30.

SPORTS SLANTS

Reino Nori, winner of the Illinois College Conference football scoring title, may have some claim to national recognition in point making.

Jim Winn, Illinois College basketball and baseball star of the past four years, will play professional ball with the Cleveland club of the class B Piedmont League next summer.

FOOTBALL SQUAD ENTERTAINED AT ANNUAL BANQUET

Chris Masters, of the University Cafe, and the college athletic department, entertained members of the 1935 S. I. T. C. football squad and their guests at the annual football banquet last Wednesday night at the Cafe.

Robert Courtney, athletic manager, acted as toastmaster, and the program included talks by Captain William McAndrew, head coach, Dean Whann, Leon E. G. Leitz, dean of college men, assistant coach Lehnard P. Lohr, the host, Mr. Masters, Dr. R. L. Beyer, and the senior squadmen.

Dean Whann and Dean Leitz gave interesting, informal talks, encouraging and congratulating the players and telling amusing jokes. Co-captains Bill Morawski, all-conference tackle, and Russell Emery led the players in their final hour to their football public with short addresses.

The S. I. T. C. cagers invaded Shurtleff College to emerge victorious, 40-16, in the season's inaugural basketball game last Saturday night.

Every member of the traveling squad was given an opportunity to play. Bud Leitz, freshman from Centralia, turned in the most promising performance, accounting for six points while subbing for Parsons.

President Pulliam's Inaugural Address in 'School and Society'

President Roscoe Pulliam's inaugural speech, "The Teacher's College in the Modern World," has been published in the latest issue, November 30, of the "School and Society," the prominent educational journal of the country. President Pulliam's speech was the key article of the journal, for it was given the place of prominence, the first article in the magazine. The speech was reprinted exactly as President Pulliam gave it on the day of his inauguration, October 7, 1935.

In the same issue of the Journal is a report made by Dr. Leslie L. Chalm of Washington State College on the relative ability of the various states to support their educational institutions. Dr. Chalm is an alumnus of S. L. T. C. He was graduated from the Junior College in 1921, and eight years later, in 1929, he received his Bachelor of Education degree from this college. Since then he has obtained a Masters and a Doctors degree. He is at present teaching in Washington State College.

31 C. C. COLLEGES PLACE 2 MEN EACH ON ALLSTAR TEAM

Morawski Gains First Team Selection At Tackle

Three Illinois College Conference teams shared six places on the conference all-star football team as selected by International News Service with the advice of a number of coaches at the conference. DeKalb, McKendree and Monmouth were the teams placing two men each on the first eleven, with single men representing Millikin, Augustana, Illinois College, Illinois Wesleyan, and Southern Wesleyan.

Bill Morawski, tackle, quarterback and field kicker, was selected as the most valuable man on his team after a battle of ballots with Ken Wilson of McKendree and Tom Whelan of Monmouth. Nori was given the left halfback position on the mythical conference team. The halfback was nearly unanimously selected as Wilson and Whelan were placed at right halfback and fullback respectively. Benson of Illinois Wesleyan was the only backfield man who faced stiff competition at the tackle post. Steve Louch of Millikin led the quarterback post.

Bill Morawski of Southern was among the standout linemen listed by conference coaches, as were Barnes of Monmouth and Blackburn of McKendree. Blackburn and Morawski were placed at tackle, flanked by Grits of Millikin and Barnes at the end positions. The guards selected were Larson of Augustana and Mungler of Illinois College, while Bill Howard of DeKalb was awarded the center's job after close competition from Lesauk of Old Normal. Mungler is the only holdover from last year's International All-Star team, although Morawski was selected on the Associated Press team last fall.

Wailing Wall

Conducted by Virginia Spiller

To the Editor of the Wailing Wall: It seems that with all the display of oratorical writing, brilliant journalism, and "big words" that this column has been voicing the past few weeks, that some of these fine scholars would turn their attention to something that would have an ultimate end!

This "Horse-Play" of the Independents versus the Greeks should be enough to make the young men and young women of our institution see just how silly their argument is. Looks to me as if it is a fight between those who think they have not and those who think they have. There isn't anything new in that sort of talk. It is the same stuff which every druggist has used since universal suffrage became established. It is the stock appeal of the "outs" trying to get in, of the half-baked radicals who want to make quibbles, of the cheap breast beaters, who think that is the sure-fire way to get votes.

But this is not the text of my "Wailing."

I can't understand how a group of students, who call themselves scholars, can get aroused over such a petty thing when there are such obvious matters that are confronting them.

And the first and most obvious at the present time is the matter of SIDEWALKS.

First I will ask a question—What would the city of Carbondale be without the students who, directly or indirectly, keep up the grocers, the bankers, the clothiers, and every other store, as far as the city is concerned; they patronize the Gem more than any other group of people; they cater to the cafes and eating places nearly 100 percent; they buy as much milk from the local dairies as the city of this city; property and all kinds of real estate is held at "top-notch" prices only at the expense of the students—a house or dwelling selling for four or five times as much as it would bring in any of the neighboring towns. Rent is outrageously high—most property giving a return to its owner of fifty to seventy-five dollars a month besides furnishing his family a home, all of which amounts to about one hundred dollars. Where else in Southern Illinois are average homes rendering a rent-income of one hundred dollars per month?

By paying this outlandish rent, the students are indirectly paying a major portion of the taxes of this city.

EGYPTIAN CHORAL CLUB CONCERT WELL RECEIVED

'O! Man River' and Other Presentations Enjoyed

The Egyptian Choral Club presented a concert of varied numbers last Thursday night in Shryock Auditorium, and a fair sized audience enjoyed such selections as "O! Man River" (Male Chorus), "Soldier's Chorus" (Male Chorus), "Paeus" (Male Chorus), "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee," and "The Heavens are Telling" from "The Creation."

Frank L. Trobaugh, of West Frankfort, was the conductor, and Mrs. Geneva Wilcox, occupant, Miss Mariah Kelley, soprano, Howard J. Wilcox, tenor, and Harvey Yull, bass, sang leading solo parts. The encore to "Shorty's Bread" was a popular favorite. "Home on the Range" was the most unique number was "Hoopold Pantini."

During the intermission a free will offering of $34 was received.

The Choral Club was organized in March, 1933 by Mr. Trobaugh, who bought the music and directed the chorus. During short career, the club has become very prominent, winning first place in the 1934 Chicago Music Festival, and placing second in the 1935 contest at Chicago.

The Choral Club is composed of persons in almost every profession from the communities of this part of the state. This chorus represents the talent from Benton, Du Quoin, Equality, Evans, Harrisburg, Harris, Johnston City, Marion, Raytown, Thompsonville, and West Frankfort.

There are about 1400 students enrolled in this college—each spends, at the least, $5.00 per week. Can you see what an enormous sum this amounts to? Something over $7,000.00 per week or about $38,000.00 per month—the equivalent of $1000 every day! It is estimated that for every dollar this city collects in taxes, sixty cents is paid by the students of this college.

If the city council had the right attitude it seems that even for the sake of beautifying the city, they would raise road SIDEWALKS. There is not one bit of cooperation in the statement that our grandfathers and grandmothers trod off tilling down and then regaining yourself can be called "rodding"!) these same unclean, slippery, worn-out and worn down bricks!

The college and its members do their part toward supporting the churches of this city. Some of the most outstanding members being college professors and students. Fifty members belong to and support most of the clubs and civic organizations of this city.

The college students are the great spenders in this town. It is, then, pretty hard for our parents, who have already paid sidewalk taxes back in our home towns, to continue to pay Carbondale's running expenses and taxes and have their sons and daughters realize no benefit from this tax money.

The officials are not wholly blame-able for this formidable negligence, however. The people who elect them are indirectly responsible—my landlord, your landlord, and all the rest of the "tax-free" lords of the city. The mere mention of a tax for the building of SIDEWALKS, scares them to death, but they never blink an eye when they "soak" us three prices for rent!

If we really want SIDEWALKS, we can have them—talk to your property owner, talk to your neighborhood, talk to your room mate, talk to the voters, talk to your city officials, and talk to the city council—talk SIDEWALKS to everyone all the time!

Respectfully submitted, VERNON HICKS
