Polls Open Today For Three-Fold Election

Students are going to the polls today to elect members for next year's Student Council and to elect a chairman for next year's Homecoming celebration.

A third thing that is being determined today at the polls is the acceptance of the newly revised Student Council constitution. The constitution must be passed by a majority of the students voting before it can go into effect. The revised constitution was printed in the last issue of the Egyptian.

Polls are located in front of Old Main, but in case of rain, they will be moved to the cross-halls of Old Main.

Junior names appearing on the ballots for senior Student Council representatives are: Wilma Beadle, Sigma Sigma sorority; Loretta Bolen, ISA candidate; Earl Doughty, ISA candidate; Ed Durling, Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity; Freda Gower, ISA candidate; Jim Schmulbach, Sigma Pi fraternity; Barbara Von Behren, Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority; and Al Warnecke, ISA candidate.

Candidates who were nominated in last Tuesday's elections for next year's sophomore class Student Council representatives are: Carolyn Bernhard, ISA candidate; Italo Bozarth, ISA candidate; Julie Geddes, Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority; Louis Hoover, Theta Xi pledge; Pat Markland, Pi Kappa Sigma sorority; Dexter Peak, ISA candidate; Joe Rushing, Sigma Sigma Sorority; and Louis Wilson, ISA candidate.

STUDENTS who were re-nominated for Student Council positions after serving on this year's Council are Wilma Beadle, Barbara Von Behren, Carolyn Bernhard, Joan Davis, Jerry Fear, and Jo Rushing.

Other students who received a sufficient number of nominating votes but who were declared ineligible for other reasons are Tim Bowers, Dorothy Edmonds, Duane Frey, Danny White, and Richard Wilson.

Alpha Phi Omega Wins First Place For Midway Stand

The APO fraternity, service organization on campus, was winner of the plaque for having the most successful concession stand on the Midway Saturday afternoon. Presentation of the plaque was made by Don Shelton, master of ceremonies, at the Spring Festival dance Saturday night. Charles Wilby, president of the organization, received the award.

The winging concession was a snowball stand. The group made 30 dollars—the largest amount made by any group—during the afternoon.

Other concession stands and their sponsors were: balloon shaving contest, Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity; "Throw A Ball," Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity; "Ring Round a Tosies," Pi Kappa Sigma sorority; "Pull A String," Girls' Rally.

DART THROWING contest, Student Council; "Esquire Girls," Sigma Sigma Sorority; "Shoot the Basket," Sigma Pi fraternity; "Fish for Fun," Johnson Hall; "Ring a Duck," Newman Club.

"Pot Luck," Pottery club; "Tony's Place," Anthony Hall; "Dunk A Girl," ISA; "Hit the Clown," Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority; and coke stand, Pi Delta Epsilon fraternity.

One of the most unique concessions on the Midway was the fire escape slide operated by the Theta Xi fraternity.

Elect SIU Students To Honorary Society

William Durham, a junior from Harrisburg, and James DeLap, a senior from Carbondale, have been elected to the Liberal Arts and Science Honor society. The society consists of faculty members who belong to Phi Beta Kappa, a national honor society. Newly elected officers of the society for the coming year are: Charles Willard, president; George Braacewell, vice-president; Edith Krappé, secretary; and Maude Stewart, treasurer.

Faye Keller, a Southern coed from Carbondale, was named Miss Southern of 1952 at the annual Spring Festival dance Saturday night. Faye received the Miss Southern trophy from President Delyte W. Present Ten Acts At Wharf Club

Ten acts were presented as floor show entertainment for the Wharf Club, the first night club theme to be held as a part of Spring Festival activities.

Hal Haviard's band was featured at the Wharf Club show. Silhouettes of Dixie Land band members were placed around the walls, and a bar for soft drinks was located at the north end of the gymnasium. Waves and fishnets decorated the front of the bandstand with a backdrop of a waterfront shanty in the background.

The first portion of the floor show consisted of five acts. They were: Chi Deltones singing the "Hawaiian War Chant," "High and Dry," and "Sin," Shirley Colaw, "Can't Help Lovin' That Man" and "I Won't Cry Anymore."

JOE THOMAS, "Ol' Man River" and "Because," Wilma Beadle and Marilyn Watson, "Sailors' Hornpipe," a dance; and Emil Kass and Ray Siville, a tumbling act.

The five remaining acts in the second portion of the floor show consisted of a solo by Barbara Buford entitled "St. Louis Blues," a dance, "Donkey Serenade," by Carol Elam and Mary Jo Zumer; solo, "Again," by Dick Ashmore, and another solo, "Blue Moon" by Stryilda Hundley.

The closing act was a "Mr. Salsuki" contest by the Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

Faye was preceded to the stage by her four attendants, all runners-up in the Miss Southern contest. They were: Helen Nance, junior from Carbondale; Carolyn Collier, junior from Marion; Linda Casper, freshman from Cobden; and Ida Mae Schellhardt, freshman from Valmeyer.

Buddy Morrow and his RCA Victor dance orchestra was featured as the band. They presented a concert in Shryock auditorium prior to the dance. Frankie Lester was the featured vocalist with Morrow's band.

THEME OF THE dance was astrological. Grey drapes complemented by a black backdrop with the sign of the Zodiac serving as the background for the band stand. Three-dimensional astrological symbols in modern art were suspended from the ceiling. Lou Steinberg and Aileen Anderson were in charge of the decorations.

The presentation of the Miss Southern Court was made by Don Shelton, general vice-chairman of the Festival.

Lloyd Bitzer served as master of ceremonies at the Miss Southern contest which was held Saturday afternoon on the stairs of Shryock auditorium. Miss Southern candidates were judged in formals and bathing suits at the contest.

Today Is The Day

As we said in the last issue of the Egyptian and as we want to make clear again in this edition, this is indeed a red letter day in the history of this year's activities here at Southern.

Now is the time when the students are selected who will be heading up student government and student activities throughout the coming school year. Each and every student who possesses an activity card may vote in the elections today, and by rights each and every student should take advantage of this opportunity.

In any election there should be more students voting than have ever turned out at the polls in the history of SIU. But in today's election, we want to stress this point even further.

Not only are the persons being elected who will carry out student government next year, but also today all students may vote on the newly revised Student Council constitution—the one document which defines the procedures, duties, and authority of the student government.

IT IS OUR BELIEF that a constitution revision could be an important milestone in the improvement of student government here at Southern, and unless there is proper vote to show that the constitution is accepted or not accepted by the student body, that milestone can be lost.

In the last issue of the Egyptian, the entire revised constitution was printed so that students may consider the pros and cons before voting on the revision. It is our hope that students will vote on this constitution honestly and intelligently—by voting intelligently we mean knowing what one is voting for.

We also believe this principle of knowing what one is voting for should carry through into the voting for candidates. Before voting for someone just because you were instructed to do so, we suggest that you find out something about the person and consider their qualifications.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

The primary purpose of this letter is to inform the student body of the existence of a student wage committee on campus.

A questionnaire has been submitted to the various organized houses, and from the results of this we believe we express the attitudes of the entire student body when we claim that a wage structure resting upon the foundation of a higher minimum living wage than now exists definitely must be instituted.

In paying less than is adequate to ensure employees an independent living in conformity with reasonable standards of well being the institution subjugates the employee to a dangerous minimum standard of living. The university realizes, we are sure, that a continuously higher standard of living is an almost absolute feature of a progressing civilization.

Thus, we feel that the emphasis on the minimum living wage is certainly justified on the ground that the level of the minimum wage will affect the relative position of all other student occupations on campus.

It is for this purpose then that we have resolved ourselves to get the facts and figures to substantiate our claim and present them to the proper authorities on behalf of the students.

Any comment or ideas on this subject would be greatly appreciated. Thank you,

Joseph P. Harding

Girls Redecorate Recreation Room

by Gwen Applegate

With a shoestring budget, but with many helping hands, the girls at Anthony Hall have completely redecorated their recreation room into a liveable, attractive room, that has a definite modernistic touch.

The girls started out with less than five dollars, but built up their resources to 25 dollars, and with this, completely remodeled one room and a small study alcove.

The grey concrete floor of the basement room was washed down with a hose several times. The girls searched for three hours for a drain, and before finding one found themselves knee-deep in water and wading around in high boots. After the drain was located, the floor was washed another eight times.

Two of the walls and a portion of another, which were formerly a pale green, have been painted Dutch-blue. The third wall and portion of the fourth are white, and the ceiling is a paler blue.

NO NEW FURNITURE was bought, but the old was repainted and some cut down. The old brown furniture has been painted a flat ebony, with the exception of the piano, which is painted in a bright white.

Red and white candy-striped curtains, which were made by the girls, red leather upholstery on several chairs, a couch, and ashtrays made out of nail kegs, complete the accessories in this newly decorated room.

Work on this project was begun a little less than a month ago, and many of the girls have worked diligently several nights a week and over the weekends, in order to get the room finished in a short time.

Since the redecoration, the room has been christened the "Blue Room" which is a far cry from the "wreck" room, as it was formerly known.

Trackmen Stage Rally, Upset Normal 66-65

Excerpts from last week's Egyptian:

"Coach Leland (Doc) Lingle's men will be after their fourth straight victory and you can't blame them for trying." (We don't. They did.)

"But you can score it as a major upset if the Salukis finish in front in this one." (You can. They did.)

Illinois Normal came here Saturday with three straight wins and what has been called its best dual meet team. But when the meet was over, Southern was in front by one point.

Phil Coleman started things off by winning the mile and after seven events were over, the Salukis held on to a 33-30 lead. Then the Redbirds caught up and began pulling away to what looked like a comfortable, if not lopsided, margin.

With one event left, the mile-relay, Normal held a four point lead. Southern's decisive victory in that race pushed the Salukis ahead by one point, 66-65, and gave them their fourth straight victory. It was the last home meet.

Southern won seven of the 15 events. The top performance was turned in by Harold White who leaped 6'2½" to win the high jump and went 21'3¼" to take second in the broad jump. The results:

Mile: Coleman, Gregory, Swift (N) 4:29.7.

100: C. Smith (N), Lawler, Murphy, 10.0.

High hurdles: D. Smith (N), Wildy, Repman (N), 16.5.

880: Finnell (N), Gregory, Delia, 2:00.3.

440: Cherry, Bierman, Garnett (N), 52.0.

Low hurdles: Lawler, Wilson, Repman (N) 25.4.

Two mile: Coleman, Swift (N), Hampton (N), 10:06.4.

220: C. Smith (N), Cherry, West 22.5.

Shot: Edwards (N), Swearingner (N), Schroeder (N), 43'11½".

Discus: Swearingner (N), Eudeick-

is (N), Edwards, 138'5".

Javelin: Eudeickis (N), Carlile, Edwards (N), 175'5".

High jump: White, tie among Repman, Anderson, Marler (all N), 6'2½".

Polevault: Clark, Gray (N), Payne (N), 12'.

Broad jump: Marler (N), White, Anderson (N) 21'4¾".

Mile relay: Southern (Cherry, Delia, Bierman, Gregory), 3:32.3.

The Salukis have four more meets left on their schedule. May 9 they travel to Charleston for a contest with Eastern Illinois. May 17 they will be in St. Louis to face Washington University. The IAC meet is scheduled May 23-24 at Ypsilanti, Mich., and the NALB district playoffs will be held May 30-31 at Macomb.

DICK GREGORY, St. Louis freshman, crosses the finish line in the mile relay to give the Salukis an upset victory over Illinois Normal here last Saturday. Southern trailed 65-61 with the mile relay the only event remaining. The Saluki team of Cherry, Delia, Bierman, and Gregory clipped it off in 3:32.3 to gain a sensational 66-65 victory. This was the fourth straight dual meet victory for Coach Lingle's team.

Golf Crew Faces Evansville Friday

Next match for Coach Lynn Holder's crew will be this Friday on the Jackson County Country club course. Evansville College will invade Carbondale for that match. Earlier this year Evansville whipped SIU in Evansville. Though in that match Southern's Chuck Newkirk was low-man with a 78, Evansville rode to victory on mainly the strength of its two let-terms Russell James and Bill Herrel who both shot in the seventies.

The Southern golf team dropped a 13½-4½ match to St. Louis University last Tuesday afternoon in St. Louis. It was the fifth loss of the season for the Salukis against two wins.

In last week's St. Louis match, Southern's low man was Jack Shanks who fired a 77. His opponent shot a 75, however, and two other Billikins scored in the seventies. Therein came Southern's defeat. Only Henley could win a match for Southern as St. Louis captured three individual matches and both low-ball matches.

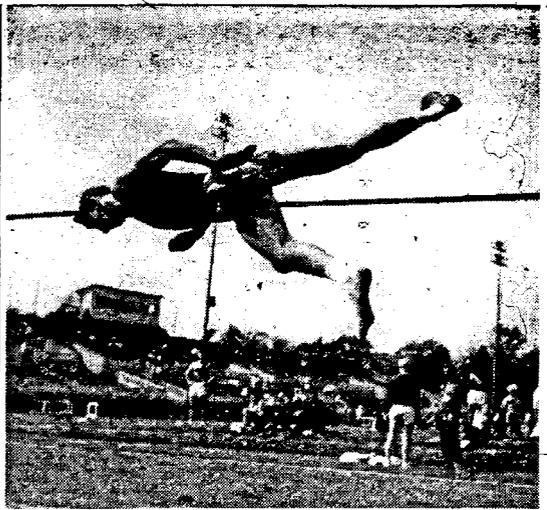

SIU Wins Two From Arkansas

Southern's baseballers did their bit for the Spring Festival by taking two victories over Arkansas State. They won the Friday afternoon tilt, 17-6 and whipped the Indians again Saturday morning, 14-3.

Coach Glenn (Abe) Martin's Salukis jump into the IAC race this Friday when they play an afternoon-night doubleheader at Illinois Normal. SIU tops the league standings so far with a 4-0 record.

Southern's two victories over Arkansas ran the season's record to 11 wins and only three losses. Ronnie Hagler stretched his pitching record to 4-1 Friday with a six-hit performance and Wayne Grandcolas posted his fifth win against no defeats Saturday by scattering seven Arkansas hits, all of them singles. Hagler fanned 12 batters and Grandcolas, nine.

In the Friday encounter the Salukis batted almost .500 as they swatted 17 hits in 35 times at bat. Included were home runs by Bob Ems and Larry Burns. Big hits in Saturday's game were triples by Ed Coleman and Jack Chor.

HAROLD (RED) WHITE, Cairo sophomore, clears the high jump bar in last Saturday's track meet with Illinois Normal. White placed first in the event with a mark of 6'2½". He also placed second in the broad jump by leaping 21'3¼". The trackmen have four more meets remaining, all on the road, before traveling to Ypsilanti, May 23-24, for the IAC meet.
