Southern Illinois University Carbondale, Illinois
Volume 45 Saturday, May 2, 1964 Number 136

A total of 355 students will be honored for academic achievement at the annual Scholastic Honors Day Convocation at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in Shryock Auditorium.
In addition, there will be 150 special awards to students, many of these for high grades.
To be recognized for scholastic achievement, a freshman or sophomore student must have averaged 4.5 and juniors and seniors must have maintained averages of at least 4.25.

Honors Day speaker will be Thomas Cassidy, assistant professor of English, who was voted most popular professor by the student body in 1962 and who was chosen for the great teacher award by the SIU Alumni Association the same year.
Cassidy's subject will be "Honors, Tradition and Style."
Frank Adams, chairman of the Convocations Committee, said a reception will be held in the Roman Room of the University Center for the honored students, their parents, friends, and faculty members after the program.

This is the first time that the program will be in the evening.
In previous years it was held at 10 a.m. in McAndrew Stadium at which time scholastic honor groups recognized outstanding members and new pledges and Sphinx Club, activities honorary, tapped its new members.

Council Okays Mobile Booth

A mobile polling booth will tour the campus during next Wednesday's all-campus election.

The Student Council approved the use of the booth after considerable discussion at its Thursday night meeting.

This is not the first time a mobile booth has been used. Elizabeth Mullins, coordinator of student activities, pointed out that earlier attempts to use the booth had not been successful because the driver couldn't find a good time to catch off-campus students.

However, it was used with considerable success in last Wednesday's Off-Campus Presidents' Council election. Roger Hanson, newly elected president of the Off-Campus Council, told the Student Council.

Several Senators argued unsuccessfully that it was a "campus election and should be kept on the campus."

In other action, the council voted to study a proposal to charge a student admission fee to all SIU athletic events. The proposal came as an amendment to the council's approval of the university athletic program for 1964-65.

The council also gave approval to an interim constitution for the new Associated Student Governments of the United States of America. SIU students were instrumental in starting the organization last month in St. Louis. It also appropriated $350 for use by Ken Boden, SIU student, elected vice president of the new group.

Spring Festival to Stage Campus Pageantry; Midway, Beauty Contests to Highlight Event

SIU's 1964 Spring Festival--"Wonderful World of Fiction"--highlights activities next weekend on campus.

It is a combination of events ranging from a carnival midway to beauty contests.

The final day will be Mom's

Day, and all students are invited to ask their mothers to participate.

Because of the construction on Thompson Point Field, this year's Spring Festival midway will be staged at a new location. It is at an open field south of the road leading to the Lake-on-the-Campus bathhouse, and near the geodesic dome. An electrical power system will be extended to serve the area.

The festival formally ushers in spring on the SIU campus, and the midway will feature shows, booths and concessions. Campus groups will furnish entertainment during the two days of midway entertainment on Friday and Saturday.

Spring Festival will open at 10 a.m. Thursday with a convocation assembly at McAndrew Stadium. President Delyte W. Morris will speak, and the most popular faculty member will be announced.

At 8 p.m. Thursday, the Aquettes will present a show at the University School pool.

The midway will be opened at 6 p.m. Friday and continue until midnight. At 7 p.m., the Miss Southern talent contest will be conducted in Shryock Auditorium.

Nine Categories to Include Art, Music and Sculpture

SIU's students, faculty and staff will display their creative talents today and Sunday in the third Gallery of Creativity program.

Student Bus in Red More Than $1,000

The Student Bus Service went $1,534.25 in the red during the winter quarter, according to Dick Moore, student body president.

In a quarter report, covering the period January 2 through March 17, Moore said the bus service earned only $1,572.70. It costs $3,106.95 to operate during that period. About 15,727 persons used the service during the winter quarter.

Actually the picture isn't as bleak as the figures might indicate. During the fall quarter, the bus service lost $2,045.07.

The bus service has operated at a loss since it began in the fall quarter of the 1960-61 school year. Total loss over the period is $13,221.30, according to the report.

The bus service's best term has been the winter term of 1961-62, when it lost only $375.74.

The displays, covering nine categories, will be open to the public from 7:30 p.m. to midnight today and from 1 to 9 p.m. Sunday in the University Center Ballroom.

In addition, the Interpreter's Theater will give special performances at 9 p.m. today and at 2:30 and 8 p.m. Marjorie Lawrence and members of her Opera Workshop will present a special musical program at 7 p.m. Sunday.

Ribbons will be given to the best entries in each of the following categories: art, applied art and design (handicrafts, interior design), photography, graphic arts, sculpture, pottery, engineering design and architecture, musical composition and creative writing.

Judging the entries will be Burnett H. Shryock and Lawrence Bernstein, art; Helen Evans, Mino Jo Bennett and Rose Padgett, applied art and design; William Horrell and Walter Craig, photography; and Howard Grosowsky and Herbert Roan, graphic arts.

Also, Milton Sullivan and Ben Watkins, sculpture; William Stewart and Brent Kingston, pottery; Julian Lauchner and John Pollack, engineering design and architecture; Peter Spurbuck and Warren Van Bronkhorst, musical composition, and Archibald McLeod, Richard Hopkins and Robert Partlow, creative writing.

An Activity Office spokesman said that persons who have entered must bring their display or object to the University Center Ballroom between 1 and 4 p.m. today.

Concert Will Be a Product Of Many Years' Research

Culminating years of research, translation and editing by music Prof. Carol MacClintock, SIU, some of the works of Giaches de Wert will be performed on a program of the SIU Choir and Chamber Choir at 4 p.m., Sunday in Shryock Auditorium.

The program, conducted by Robert Kingsbury, will also include works by Lassus Morley and Brahms. Larry Sledge, a junior majoring in music, will conduct his own composition, "Sing and Be Joyful." William Wakeland will be solist and Janet Cox will accompany at the piano.

The music of Giaches de Wert has been translated from the original manuscripts and edited by Prof. MacClintock. This research is being printed in eighteen volumes by the American Musicological Society.

Giaches de Wert (1535-1596), born in Flanders, came to Italy as a young boy. From 1565 until his death, he was in charge of all court music for the Duke of Mantua and the ducal church of Santa Barbara. He is now considered one of the great composers of that age, renowned in Italy for his virtuoso technique and skill as a contrapuntist, and for the expressive and dramatic qualities of his music.

SIU Woman Gymnasts Face Stiff Test Against All-Stars

The Southern Illinois Women's Gymnastics Club of Carbondale faces its stiffest test in recent weeks tonight when it meets the Midwest All-Stars in Chicago.

Coach Herb Vogel's team, which is training for this month's AAU gymnastics championships, will face the best women gymnasts in the Midwest. The Southern Illinois squad handily defeated a similar Midwest all-star team earlier this year.

Vogel mainly will rely on the talents of reliable performers like Dale McClements, Gail Daly and Judy Dunham in tonight's meet.

Miss McClements, who captured the all-around and balanced beam events in a recent Central AAU, is considered to be one of the finest women gymnasts in the nation. Miss Daly and Miss Dunham also won titles in the Central meet and are expected strong title contenders in tonight's contest.

Lentz Is 'Nightclub' For Saturday Dance

Rounding out Vogel's lineup for the Chicago event are Donna Schnaezer, Irene Hayworth and Janis Dunham.

Lentz Hall will be converted into a nightclub from 9 to 12:30 Saturday night for Baldwin Hall's semiformal spring dance. The theme for the dance is "Bunny Hutch."

Each couple entering the nightclub will be presented a key with the name of the girl and her date. The key will be put on a bulletin board so everyone will know who has arrived.

Chairman of the dance is Joanne Friedrich. Chaperones for the dance are Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, resident counselors for Baldwin Hall, and Mr. and Mrs. Wyman Edwin Fischer, resident counselors of Kellogg Hall.

U.S. Ponders Soviet Motive in Rap at 'Bad Press'

Compiled From Associated Press

WASHINGTON - U.S. officials are intrigued by evidence that the Soviet Union now would like this country to give her a hand in Moscow's struggle with Red China.

This seems to be what the Russians are aiming at with their lecture to the American press Thursday about printing Red Chinese charges against Soviet communism.

Beneath the surface, however, the

with the Red Chinese is an indication of how far Premier Khrushchev and his advisers think the situation has gone.

Pravda published an article Thursday criticizing U.S. newspapers for printing what the paper called "rude, gross, anti-Soviet inventions" of the Chinese. It said one effect is to perpetuate the "myth about the aggressive nature of the Soviet."

The Pravda article implied that the U.S. press publishes only Chinese charges. It ignored the extensive coverage by American newspapers, radio and television of both sides of the dispute that has changed the shape of the Communist world.

U.S. experts said the Soviet purpose in Thursday's article was not clearly developed but that it had been brought out in a Moscow English language broadcast to North America 12 days ago.

This developed two themes: that Soviet Communists are working for world peace and deserve U.S. support for their efforts, and that the Soviets do not like the views of "such men as Sen. Barry Goldwater and members of the John Birch Society."

"When this country developed nuclear weapons," said the broadcast, "China asked for some. The Soviet Union refused. It believed such weapons should not be diffused."

Then came the point of argument. Boiled down it is this: If Russia refused nuclear weapons to Red China the United States should be willing to refuse them to West Germany. This is a specific Soviet argument against the U.S.-backed proposal for a NATO nuclear missile fleet that would include West Germany.

Shoemaker, Chicago's American THE CHICKEN HAS PROMISED TO COOPERATE

Soviets actually appear to be trying to use their dispute with the Red Chinese in an effort to wring concessions from the United States in fields of disarmament, nuclear arms for NATO, or the future of Germany and Berlin.

The fact that the Soviet would suggest a greater community of interest with the United States than

Wallace Aims for Another Victory in Yankee Territory

That unreconstructed Rebel from Alabama, Gov. George C. Wallace, is nearing the day of decision in his second raid of the year into the Yankee Midwest.

Tuesday is primary election day in Indiana. Wallace is aiming at another victory for "states rights" and a protest vote against "ever-encroaching Federal power."

Wallace got 25 per cent of the vote in the recent Wisconsin primary. The meaning of his surprising showing was widely debated, but it indicated some degree of dissatisfaction with the current civil rights bill and other policies of the Democratic administration.

Gov. Matthew E. Welsh of Indiana is running against the Alabama segregationist. The word is that a vote for Welsh is a vote for President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Nobody is making any serious predictions about a definite winning margin.

Wallace says he would consider it a victory if he got more than 600 votes. Welsh says that Wallace could make it a close race, considering various debilitating factors.

It is apparent that both candidates are purposely exaggerating these prognostications.

Welsh is not the popular hero of the Indiana electorate.

DeGaulle Withdrawal

France took another step this week in a long series of actions which have threatened the stability of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, when it was announced that French naval officers will be withdrawn from the alliance.

The move was greeted by U. S. State Department officials as not very important in itself, since the French have already withdrawn their naval units from potential NATO control. Officials said the basic commitments of France to the defense of the West as set down in the treaty are unimpaired.

Both the Kennedy and Johnson administrations have discounted the effect of a series of such moves by France on the unity and strength of the Atlantic alliance. But some officials are beginning to question these "soft-pedal" treatments as harmful, because they pretend a degree of unity and cooperation which in fact doesn't exist.

French President Charles de Gaulle has been progressively withdrawing French fleet units from NATO control as part of his independent military policy.

The French have aroused some consternation in West Germany, where it is feared that de Gaulle may have decided to pull out both of his divisions from the command of Supreme Headquarters at the Allied Powers.

Tougher U.S. Policy In Viet Nam War?

SAIGON, Viet Nam - Recent changes in two top staff positions of the American military force in South Viet Nam have been interpreted here as indicators of a new and tougher United States policy in this war-racked Southeast Asian nation.

U. S. Government sources emphasized the changes were merely part of an administrative streamlining of the Military Assistance Command. Still, notice was taken that the moves followed quickly a statement by President Johnson that there would be "stepped up activity" against the Communist guerrillas.

The reputations of the two new leaders definitely are in line with Johnson's "get tough" policy in the United States' massive military commitment in the struggle against the Viet Cong.

Scheduled to take over on Aug. 1 from Gen. Paul D. Harkins are commander of American forces in South Viet Nam is his deputy, Lt. Gen. William C. Westmoreland.

Westmoreland, 50, served as Harkins' deputy for the last three months. He brings a distinguished record from West Point, World War II and Korea. In 1956, at the age of 42, he became the youngest major general in the Army.

On his latest promotion, there was general agreement here, as one United States official put it privately, that "things will be entirely different when Westmoreland takes over."

In a change scheduled to take place May 9, Maj. Gen. Richard G. Stilwell was named earlier to be next chief of staff of the American Military Assistance Command here.

In a change scheduled to take place May 9, Maj. Gen. Richard G. Stilwell was named earlier to be next chief of staff of the American Military Assistance Command here.

As head of the operations staff, Stilwell has gained a reputation as one of the most dynamic and energetic general officers in the Advisory Command. He has worked closely with Westmoreland, and is believed to have more close contacts with Vietnamese officers than any other American general on the staff.

The two officers are inheriting a military situation in which the apparently superior in using small guerrilla units. The Viet Cong is showing increasing boldness in large unit operations.

Crockett, Washington Star FORGING ANOTHER LINK

himself after this term, and he has been the object of considerable ill will as a result of the two per cent sales tax which he pushed through after a long hassle with the Republican legislature.

Organized labor was strongly opposed to the tax, but labor leaders say the unions favor Welsh as opposed to Wallace.

Nevertheless, industrial workers are expected to provide most of the votes for Wallace. The blue-collar class has more to fear from Negroes--in job competition, housing and status--and therefore has some sympathy with segregation.

When in Alabama, Wallace vows that integration shall never come. But in Indiana, he shrewdly avoids mentioning that The Problem of segregation even exists.

He has unkind words for nobody. He praises his opponent, Gov. Welsh, and declines to comment on Welsh's civil rights stand. Wallace says he's not running against Welsh but only against "further centralized Federal power."

Wallace's Indiana campaign has been aided by a full purse, supposedly bolstered by the John Birch Society. His campaign has blanketed the state through frequent television speeches.

But Wallace hasn't caught the opposition napping, as perhaps he did in Wisconsin. Indiana Democrats have launched a full-scale campaign in an earnest effort to repel the spirited raider from Alabama.

Kansas Trackmen Are Here To Fight Rejuvenated Salukis

Big Eight champion Kansas calls on Southern's track team tonight at 7 p.m. in McAndrew Stadium for what could prove to be an interesting dual meet.

The Salukis are just about getting back on their feet after practically their whole contingent was whipped out one way or another.

Brian Turner seems ready to go, Cary Fendrich is sound after a pulled muscle and Jim Dupree will compete.

Saluki Golfers in 3-Way Meet

Southern's once-defeated golf team hopes to regain its winning ways Monday when it challenges Washington University and the St. Louis Billikins in a triangular meet in St. Louis.

SIU's Salukis, 4-1 in dual match competition this season, saw its four match winning streak end Wednesday as Big Ten foe, Wisconsin, defeated Southern 19-11 at Madison, Wis.

By losing Wednesday, Coach Lynn Holder's Salukis became the first Saluki team to lose a contest this spring. Southern's baseball and tennis teams remain undefeated.

In addition to the Salukis team defeat, previously undefeated star John Krueger lost his first dual match in seven outings this season. The Bloomington senior shot a disappointing 11 over par 83 and was defeated by Badger Burch Schlicht who fired a neat two under par 70 for the 18 holes.

On the brighter side, veterans Gene Carello, Gerry Kirby and Al Kruse and sophomore Tom Muhleman posted victories for the Salukis.

By winning their matches, Kruse and Kirby both added their unblemished season records to 4-0. Carello is 5-1 in dual match competition while Muhleman is 2-0.

The loss to Wisconsin was marked by a number of high scores and was the poorest over-all effort recorded by the Saluki golfers this season.

Khrushchev Warns U.S. on Cuba Flights

MOSCOW -- Premier Khrushchev said Friday continued U.S. violations of Cuban air space "can have disastrous consequences."

"This will be a disaster, first and foremost, for those who carry through a policy of provocations and aggressions against Cuba," he told a Kremlin reception for guests at Moscow's big May Day rally.

Khrushchev launched into the touchy subject of Cuba at the Kremlin reception by describing as a "wicked fabrication" reports he said

U.S. to Continue Air Surveillance

WASHINGTON--The United States has restated, in the face of warnings from Moscow, its policy of continuing reconnaissance flights over Cuba.

State Department press officer Richard J. Phillips declared at a Friday news conference he could repeat what he had said on April 20.

At that time he declared the overflights were a substitute for the firsthand or "on-site" inspection of the removal of Soviet nuclear rockets from Cuba in October 1962.

At the Pentagon, Arthur J. Vestner, assistant defense secretary, said aerial surveillance of Cuba "continues exactly as in the past."

were circulating that there was some sort of U.S.-Soviet understanding on U.S. reconnaissance flights over Cuba.

The premier declared "there never has been such an understanding, nor can there be," Tass, the Soviet news agency, reported. He said he firmly supports Castro.

The United States has contended reconnaissance was agreed upon during the 1962 crisis over Soviet missiles in Cuba as the only way to check on the withdrawal of the missiles. Castro had refused to permit checks on the spot.

After saying that air intrusions into Cuban airspace can have disastrous consequences, Khrushchev declared:

"We would like to warn once again those who are playing with fire to make them understand that by subverting the principles of peaceful co-existence, displaying disrespect for other countries, they could draw the world into the abyss of another world war, inflict serious harm to the peoples of their countries."

Methodists at Worldwide Gathering Vote To Integrate In-Church Racial Divisions

PITTSBURGH -- Delegates to the worldwide Methodist General Conference voted acceptance Friday of a voluntary racial integration program for the church.

The more than 900 delegates approved the proposal by an overwhelming margin. It calls for merger of white and Negro church subdivisions on a strictly voluntary basis.

In effect, the church's all-Negro Central Jurisdiction,

Ike's Ex-Aide Helping Lodge

WASHINGTON -- A former aide of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's has joined the inner circle of Henry Cabot Lodge supporters and is whipping up speech material for when-and-if--the ambassador formally enters the race for the Republican presidential nomination.

Retired Army Maj. Gen. C. T. Lanham, who served Eisenhower as a press officer in Europe, is described as pinpointing potential issues and drafting position papers in the event Lodge resigns as envoy to South Viet Nam and begins campaigning.

When will Lodge be available?

"When we need him we'll have him; right now we don't need him," said a Lodge campaigner. "He's doing fine without campaigning."

Warheads 'Packed'

WASHINGTON--The United States is developing long-range "shotgun" missiles, according to the Washington Post.

The new system is to put several smaller warheads in the nose cone of ICBMs.

The paper said one of its advantages is to increase the missiles' ability to penetrate to the target through enemy defense systems.

Bewildered Bantam Whelps 'Whooper'

LAFAYETTE, La.--A little bantam hen is the bewildered foster mother of a rare bird--the world's 40th whooping crane.

The fledgling burst out of his half-pound egg at the state's Wildlife Research substation here Wednesday and was reported in good condition.

The bantam who sat on the egg, "mothering" it until it hatched, is a Japanese silkie weighing one pound. The incubation period of whooping crane eggs is about 30 days.

The true mother of the newest whooping crane is Josephine, one of seven at the New Orleans Zoo.

sion on Interjurisdictional Relations. Debate opened Thursday and continued into the night. Under the program, Negro church members would be absorbed into the five white jurisdictions, which are set up along geographical lines.

The program, officially called "a plan of action," would not necessarily mix Negro and white congregations during the next four years. However, the wording of the plan clearly indicates this is the church's ultimate aim.

The 375,000 Negro members live mainly in the area of the Southeast Jurisdiction.
