HER MAJESTY, QUEEN OF SOUTHERN

Pat Mercer Crowned Queen of Southern Homecoming Festivities Saturday Night

"This Is The Homecoming I'll Remember Longest," Says 1941 Queen After Coronation Ceremony At Dance

Another charming rite was added to Southern's illustrious royal lineage when Miss Patricia Mercer, a student from Herrin, became the 1941 Homecoming queen.

The coronation ceremony was held at the homecoming dance Saturday night. The queen-elect, Patricia Mercer, was crowned by the homecoming king, Bill Benninger.

Miss Mercer is the very epitome of Southern's ideals, for she served her school loyally, taking part in many activities. She has worked on the Egyptian staff all during her college career, as well as on the Obelisk, and is a member of Pi Delta Epsilon, honorary journalistic fraternity.

THOMAS HART BENTON SPEAKS HERE TUESDAY Eminent American Artist, Critic, and Lecturer, Speaks In Auditorium At 8 O'clock

The S.I.N.U. entertainment committee, under the chairmanship of Robert Famer of the English department, will bring to the campus November 15, Thomas Hart Benton, artist, critic, and lecturer, who will speak in the Snyrock Auditorium at 8 o'clock p.m.

Benton is almost a fabulous character. He has been largely responsible for the growth of a native art that in accomplishment is second to none in the world.

Regional Trend When Benton deserted New York seven years ago for his native state of Missouri, declaring that the artist must turn back to his own region for subject matter if he is to create a genuinely American art, he founded the trend toward regionalism in this country.

Every picture in Benton's exuberant and admirable style is a confession of faith in the joys of sheer creating, creation itself. Here is an artist propelled and governed by aesthetic emotions.

Benton today holds a unique position in American life. He knows America, he paints all of America. He has come to have a universal outlook and an artistic knowledge of American art.

Saturday's sessions have been planned for discussion of campus publications and methods for improving them. A formal luncheon and model initiation will formally close the convention.

Denison University, founded as a Baptist denominational college in 1831, has a present limited enrollment of 100 students. It is located in Gravitte, 27 miles from Columbus, Ohio.

Sigma Tau Delta Meets Wednesday

Sigma Tau Delta, English fraternity, met with its president, Grace Tully, at the Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority house on Wednesday evening. After the business meeting, the members discussed a poem written by one of the members of the fraternity. The next meeting is to be held on December 4 with Mrs. Neely, ness in disposing of cigarettes, except to smoke in the room, and "lighting up" before reaching the lounge will necessarily cause the privilege to be revoked. Cigarette and candy containers will probably be put either in the lounge or in the hall outside. There is a possibility that a coke machine may also be obtained.

If possible the Student Council hopes to procure a radio with a record playing attachment for the lounge. Dancing will not be permissible, however, because of classes being held in the next room.

Cards and card tables will probably be a part of the lounge equipment. Students can play bridge or plausible here during their free hours.

Planning Committee A committee of the Student Council headed by Graham Clifton is working now on the problem of buying furniture for the lounge. Funds available for furniture and equipment at the present time amount to about $500.

Reading tables will be moved into the lounge and the magazines now taken by the Student Council through its book fund will be available for Student use. These magazines include Esquire, Mademoiselle, Field, and Stream, Coronet, New Yorker, Omni book, and P. M.

Opening Uncertain The opening date will depend on how soon the order for furniture can be filled.

A committee headed by Ralph Boatman is working out a set of regulations governing use of the lounge. Organizations and campus groups are asked not to monopolize the lounge space is limited.

Temporary Measure The establishment of a student lounge in the Y.M.C.A. room is only a temporary measure in the hope that later the college can set up a room for student lounge and card tables in the University Cafe building west of the gymnasium, which the college is endeavoring to purchase.

SINU Thanksgiving Vacation Begins Next Wednesday

FINAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULE RELEASED

School will be dismissed on Thursday and Friday, November 20 and 21, for the Thanksgiving vacation. During the next week, final examinations will be held Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. If the regular weekly schedule were followed, this would mean that classes meeting on Thursday and Friday but not on other days of the week (there are a few such classes) would not meet as often as the others. In order to avoid this, the final examinations will be held on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. The regular Wednesday schedules next week, but the regular Thursday and Friday schedules on Monday and Tuesday of the following week.

The examination schedule follows: Wednesday, November 26 1st hour classes—7:30-10:30. 2nd hour classes—10:30-1:30. 3rd hour classes—1:30-4:30. Thursday, November 27 3rd hour classes—7:30-9:30. 4th hour classes—10:30-1:30. 7th hour classes—1:30-4:30. Friday, November 28 5th hour classes—7:30-10:30. 8th hour classes—10:30-1:30. 9th hour classes—1:30-4:30.

Maroons To Clash With Tennessee Junior College Saturday

SOUTHERN GRIDMEN ROLL UP ONE-SIDED 41-0 SCORE OVER EASTERN PANTHERS

Maroons Led By O'Brien, Caluffetti, Malinski, Crawshaw Cross Goal Line In Every Quarter to Garner Six Touchdowns

In spite of the chilling wintry blasts of air and flurry of flakes... Southern's performance rolled into action last Saturday to outmatch a weak but fighting Charleston eleven by a 41-0 score.

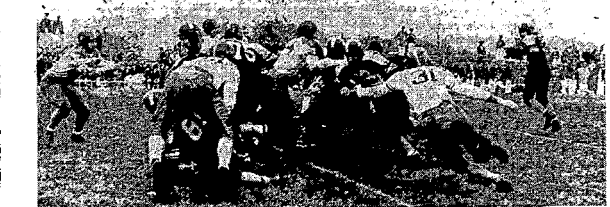

THOMPSON HINTS NEW SCOREBOARD FOR STADIUM

At last it appears as if S.I.N.C. on her march toward bigger and better things... including football scores is going to be blessed with a real electric scoreboard.

SOUTHERN GAINS SOLE POSSESSION OF SECOND PLACE IN IAC RACE

The Maroon's defeat of the Charleston Panthers last Saturday broke the three way deadlock for second place in the Illinois Intercollegiate Conference...

Two More Reasons for Southern Victories

A pair of reasons for this year's success of the Maroon gridlers is play by two of their stars shown in action last Saturday's Homecoming tussle. Lawrence Caluffetti is shown carrying the ball over his own left tackle.

GYMNASTICS INTRODUCED AT SOUTHERN IN 1929 BY COACH JOE DI GIOVANNA

Maroon Gym Squad Has Growth in Importance Until it Ranks Among Top Teams of Nation

Back in 1929 Southern's athletic department brought to this campus a man whose ability could certainly not be judged by his stature.

Coach Di Giovanni immediately began the task of introducing Southern Illinois to a new sport, that of gymnastics. Many sports fans have little knowledge as to just how difficult it is to break into an already well served program.

FROM THE PRESS BOX

BILL GAETZ. Southern Illinois Normal University's football team will make their last home appearance this season on Saturday when they battle the Tennessee Junior College of Martin Tenn.

While Southern's Maroons were trouncing the Charleston Panthers last Saturday at the local stadium the Southern Cross country squad was not faring quite so well in the sixteenth annual H.C. Cross country meet.

SOUTHERN HARRIERS RUN AT STATE NORMAL LAST SATURDAY

Southern's Harriers, who were trouncing the Charleston Panthers last Saturday at the local stadium the Southern Cross country squad was not faring quite so well in the sixteenth annual H.C. Cross country meet.

Max Lenover, captain of the Loyola University team, was the outstanding performer of the day when he led the pack of approximately fifty runners to finish first in the extremely fast time of 18:45 for the three and six mile race course.

Football Winner

MAROONS MEET TENNESSEE JUNIOR COLLEGE IN FINAL HOME CONTEST TOMORROW

Maroons Pregame Favorites Over Tennessee Eleven; Little Advance Dope Available But Comparative Scores Show Tennesseesians No "Push Overs"

MAROONS MADE 101 POINTS IN CURRENT SEASON

Last week's 41 point splurge of the Maroons against Charleston sent their total of points scored this year in six games up over the century mark. They have run the ball for 101 times since the season's opener.

Crawshaw Leading Teammate in Points Scored; O'Brien Next

Gene Crawshaw, senior fullback, leads the scoring parade with six touchdowns. This accounts for 36 points more than a third of the Maroon total. Gene, playing his second year for S.I.N.C., plowed over three times against Arkansas, took a pass in the end zone for the touchdown.

The S.I.N.C. gridlers wind up their 1941 home state season tomorrow afternoon as they play host to the University of Tennessee Junior College.

Comparative scores indicate that the Maroons will have no easy time of it come tomorrow afternoon as the Tennesseesians earlier in the season soundly trounced the Evansville Aces 20 to 0.

One point on the surface is definitive, not in favor of the visiting eleven. That is their weight disadvantage when put alongside the comparative bulk average of the local Maroon gridlers.

In the backfield they have Doyle (Charleston) Monday, Kenny Taylor, at 150, Bob Arnold, at 145, and captain James Vincent the heavyweight of the backfield at 170 pounds.

Combine out of last week's homecoming struggle in top condition. Coach [Name] has urged the pig's pajamas ready for tomorrow's contest injuries which plagued the squad early last week and prevented a couple of Maroons from seeing extensive action in the past weeks weather-beaten affair.

Backfield starting lineup for the Southern will in all probability be the same which has greeted the opening whistle of the past two games.

Table with 4 columns: Team, W, L, T, Pct. Pt. Opp. Southern: 2, 1, 0, .667, 58, 19. Charleston: 0, 3, 0, .000, 6, 58.

Table with 4 columns: Team, W, L, T, Pct. Pt. Opp. Normal: 2, 1, 1, .667, 50, 31. DeKalb: 1, 0, 1, .500, 13, 19. Macomb: 1, 1, 1, .500, 31, 19. Charleston: 0, 3, 0, .000, 6, 58.

Carlondate on the sports map. Late this winter, Coach Di Giovanni will be awarded his Doctor's degree.

The threatening weather... the annual fall play-off of the Intramural baseball league was postponed Friday evening.

Uncensored Nonsense

By JOHN J. WHITESIDE.

POME
Christmas comes but once a year, Thanksgiving comes but twice, One thing I do not want Is two homecomings.

It took but days to prepare,
But will take months to repair.
Broken hearts, heads, pocketbooks, This homecoming is.

All the grads had quite a time, And the students gave what the to make it a sublime Homecoming.

Exhaustions,
Faintnesses,
For the preceding week
Of homecoming.

Financial strain,
Half insane,
All for one brief week-end
Of homecoming.

Football players broke their Necks to win the game,
To please grads and all In the homecoming battle.

I worked, perspired, wrote and did drive,
And finally didn't make the type Of the big paper
At homecoming.

Although it sounds like I hate it,
I wouldn't trade anything For HOMECOMING.

AFTER HOMECOMING

Homecoming's over—a sad affair—Several torn formals, and cars to repair.
Well pressed corsages, discarded and gone—
The smell of gardenias still lingers on.

Cold was the night, and many the thrills.
Fraternity pins are now nestling in frills.
Blind dates and sisters, possibly aunts—
One could see anything trying to dance.

I went to classes on Monday morn.
Oh! but the faces were pale and forlorn.
"I say, Mr. Doe, where's the 'Triplet of Cancer'?"
"She was an angel, and boy! what a dancer!"

Yes, homecoming's over, and now we'll relax.
As soon as the shoe soles are rid of the tack,
Next year there'll be the same story to tell.
And so, until then, adieu and fare well.

—B. M. H.

Varsity Trim Alums 4-0

Homecoming seemed to start with a chilly reception and yet with great success as far as women's athletics were concerned. The hockey game started at approximately 8:30 with "Captain Rowlett, of the Alums, and Mercer of Varsity, checking on the lineup. "No one" use to try to describe details of the game which, though short was far from lacking pep. Perhaps the pep activities were a means of defense for old man, weather was certainly posing its blitzkrieg past the fence which enclosed the field.
Nevertheless, the ball could be seen as far as the varsity team was concerned. The Alums had to see it four times in their own cage; the final score was 4:0. There are rumors going around that the Alums were furthered because of their hurray flying, but they took their defeat most gracefully in the shape of an enormously long steamed mmm with each place card at breakfast.

Mitzie Mercer, Marg Van Trump, Phyllis Cox, and Margie Jacobs were in charge to see the eventness of the event. With the assistance of President Betty Pemberton and Ester Mary Ayers, the breakfast was truly an event. Between flapjacks, each of the Alums told the group where and why she was located, which was followed by short talks by faculty members. All speakers were given the floor by the charming toastmistress, Jonna Brooks.

To prove that something besides just could be broken, a quintet from the Varsity team broke some harmony which was followed by an Alumni quartet. Even after that there was still hope for harmony, and the whole group sang the Alma Mater and loyalty songs. Following breakfast a harmonious Alumni meeting was held and then all had a sojourn until another year.

CANDID SPORTS

West Believes in Signs But to such an extent that she runs from them and goes in another direction, she has had to read and understand. Shirley Anne West came to the gym this week, stepped up to the door and saw the following: "Don't get caught in the DRAFT—use the other door." Meaning, of course, the door immediately next to it. (If one opens the door on which the sign is placed, it never fully closes again, and therefore the whole interior of the gym becomes deathly cold.) However, Shirley took one glance, turned to her colleagues on her right and left and said: "Let's go," and slipped in the direction of the men's gym and started entering by that door.
But perhaps we can excuse her, as she is a direction herself and may find it hard to follow directions of others.

Bundes For Illinois
At least the P. E. majors and their hockey friends will look like a certain type of brown and white bundle when they enter the portals of the imperial Illinois U. The department, despite the problem of defense priority, will manage to see a score fifteen beautiful brown warm-up suits, and although they are a little lengthy, they look right nice. Anyhow, our team should be able to put up a good defense program themselves against the team or teams they meet at Illinois if the varsity is warmly welcomed and not victim of the bitter cold wind.

Swing High, Swing Low
Or Even vs. Varsity Even though the Alums did like to blame their aches from above their heads, they played a super game ... considering, of course, that a number of them were not able to come because of the Illinois University State Physical Education convention. There was Gabby Van Biber, as the usual liner playing a scrappy set of goals, and Mary Bowler slipping the ball miles down the field ... and Estline Sutton inching along the goal posts ... who now plays goalie on the Illinois University hockey team ... and Florry Kuntz centering her attention and putting the varsity's leg a couple of times ... Ella Keller, flytacking her line with powerful strokes and tackles ... and perhaps some more ... who knows? At least, there was a thought on the sideline by Elsa that the Alums couldn't possibly win because they kept mistaking the sandwich for the ball, and if say that the alum team was sparkling with one and also this year's varsity or sub-varsity players ... and that is the reason that they did so well ... but who is here now to dispute the word of the alumninity?

Dirty Playing
Tuesday night was the night that Miss Congreve herself got into the game. She proved herself a versa-

SOUTHERN TO OPPOSE OTHER HOCKEY TEAMS AT ILLINOIS U.

Fifteen girls and three faculty members are leaving for Champaign at 1 o'clock today. The girls are the members of the hockey team and will attend the annual Invitational hockey play day at the University of Illinois.

The lineup is practically the same as the one used in the Varsity-Alum game last Saturday: Ratz, center; Tom and Mawdsley, inners; West wood and Shaw, wings; Mercer, Brooks, and Cooper, halfbacks; Zenik and Van Trump, fullbacks, and West, goalie. Hildegard Glahn, Margaret Perry, Johannah Dallman, and Katherine Odum, all first year players, join the others who will make the trip.

Ratz and Tom are still the greatest scoring element of the team.
Brooks' left hand lunge will give any opposing wing some trouble. The whole team, under the able guidance of Miss Congreve, has an abundance of fighting spirit and there is more cooperation and enthusiasm among team members than there has been for several years.

Mitzie Mercer, sophomore center halfback, was unanimously chosen to captain the squad. Ray Tom is the hockey manager and has taken care of all arrangements and equipment for the trip. Incidentally, the girls will be wearing new brown pants and white shirts. These suits are the latest addition of equipment in the Women's P. E. department.

Miss Congreve, hockey coach, Miss Kendall, head of Women's P. E. department, and Dr. Rowe of the medical department are making the trip with the girls.

University of North Carolina's origifirst student, Hilton James, walked

CARBONDALE BOY, FORMER SOUTHERN STUDENT, KILLED IN ENGLAND

Local Flyer, Member of RAF, Killed in Action Last Week

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Bush, Sr., who reside at 765 West Main Street in this city, have received information from Canadian authorities that their 23-year-old Charles William Bush, a former Southern student, now a pilot officer in the Royal Canadian Air Force who was killed November 4 while on active service in England, was buried in England on November 6th, with full military honors. Young Bush died in a crash while piloting an American made bomber plane. The details of the crash are not known here.

Bush joined the Royal Canadian Air Force on November 18, 1940, after receiving a Private Pilot's license in this country. He studied flying at the Marion air base during the summer of 1940. He did not, however, take the C.P.T. course offered in this college. He attended school here only one term.

After receiving a commission as a flying officer in Canada on July 4th, 1941, Bush ferried a bomber plane across the North Atlantic from Halifax, Nova Scotia, to England. He has been in the ferry service in England since the last of July. He had been accepted in the African ferry command and was to have gone to Africa next January.

Young Bush's body will probably be returned to Carbondale after the cessation of hostilities.

Memorial services will be held here at the First Methodist Church next Sunday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock. The Rev. Dr. M. S. Harvey will be in charge of the ceremony.

SPIRITS WIN 1-M PLAYOFFS YESTERDAY

Yesterday afternoon in the much postponed Southern intramural baseball playoffs the Spirits of '76, defending the Carter's Aces nine 4 to 2.
Rockwell McCreight led the winner's attack with two safeties. Gene Filgor was the winning pitcher.

Wayne Demore, Carter's pitcher, made his final appearance on the local college diamond, as he has accepted a position at the Illinois Ordnance plant.

SANG-RO
This word that has been intriguing college students for the past few weeks will now be defined. The sangro is a species of the sangra family. It lives usually in the midst of an undeveloped vocabulary. It is used by many as a source for parno, and is brought about by the lack of a proper answer or word. The word originated at a friero when a speaker took a drink of plerdian. Since that time sangro has become a necessary part of everyone's life. So when in doubt, use sangro, because it's the sarole frim de the breakpa-se.

SAWYER AND I took in the homecoming game from the press box.
It was a trouncing victory for the Maroons, and a moral victory for the spectators. Not more than a dozen people froze to death. From our out in the upper box we saw Max Zelma, Lattie, of the football and L.
H. Lewis, Gletman, and drew the lucky number from the box.

AND THERE IS ONE ABOUT the flying officer in his clothes all night and was deterred by his draft board because they thought he went to college.

AND THE ONE ABOUT the man who was asked about the woman he had been out with the night before.
His answer was, "sangro".

year will be honored at the game tomorrow, which, incidentally, is the last home game of the season. The boys are: Bill Freeburg of Princeton, Ill.; J. Heckomovitch, from Minnesota; Doug Greene of Belleville, Ill.; and Dan Smith of Christopher, Ill. They will be given framed enlarged photographs of themselves in football uniforms, a personal gift from Coach Abe Martin.

Bill Freeburg, last year selected for the second all conference team, and Dan Smith, is this year's very strong contender for all-state end.

J. Heckomovitch was a member of the second team last year and played an excellent game in the victory over Cape early in that season. He suffered an ankle injury in that game, however, and could do little more that year. This year he has been playing some fine football.

Doug Greene is a transfer from Old Normal and is playing his first season for Southern. In high school football he played halfback. He has been named up to end on the 1941 Maroons.

"B" NATURAL By BETHOVEN. Though he started it after the Germans invaded his country, Dmitri Shostakovich has virtually completed his Seventh Symphony. He tells about it in "The New Masses, Published in the October 28 issue.

for the war's heroes. The requiem is followed by an even more touching chorale. I don't know how to describe it. Perhaps it is the tears of a mother or even that feeling that comes when sorrow is so great there are no more tears. The closing chords resemble the din of a distant battle in which the war continues.

Wilton Zeno Francescatti, French violinist, was in Pittsburgh recently as a soloist with the Pittsburgh-Syracuse Symphony. He has several concert appearances already clear to me. I would describe it with one word: Victory.

Add These to Your List of College Musicians: Drummers like "Time" McCollum; the entire bassoon section of the band which includes Mary Ann Peck, Ann Wiley and Anne O'Rourke; Horn player, Dorothy Crim; Helen Ruth McDonald, who plays the bass in both band and orchestra, and fiddle players like Bill Gage.
