SOCRATS PRESENT "NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH"

Large Audience Enjoys Annual Production of the Socratic Literary Society at Auditorium Monday Night

It was a happy, laughing, well-pleased audience that left the auditorium Monday night after seeing the comedy, "Nothing But the Truth," presented by the Socratic Society. Critics were expressing themselves freely as to the artistry of the players. The consensus of opinion seemed to be that the play was a success from the standpoint of the theatrical expert and the box office manager.

Bain Hunsaker seemed to be an expert at telling the truth but he failed miserably to reconcile his friends until he could lie again. He seemed at last to be convinced that "there are certain necessary business lies."

Pauletta Jansen as Gwen played her part especially well. Elsie Huxel displayed an unusual amount of musical ability and a keen sense of color scheme. The Bishop, in the person of Clarence Samford, was a raving money-gatherer who outwitted even the hard old business man, E. M. Ralston, as played by Ed Zeiler. Maude Ethel Geary played the aristocratic Mrs. Ralston perfectly. The two flappers, Mabel and Sabel, were easily seen in Vera Pick and Maude Hood. "Chuck" Goforth and Ed Williams played well as Dick Donnelly and Van Dusen, the partners of Ralston, and Geneva Crawshaw made a very fine maid.

The high points of the play were: The making of the bet in the first act. To see the confidence of Van Dusen, Dick and Ralston, as offset by the nervous condition of Bob made when the grouchiest grouch break out in a hearty laugh. In the second act the plight of the Bishop upon finding that he was swindled was most humorous and when he broke out in "Ichabod, Ichabod, thy glory has departed," there wasn't a sober face in the house. In the third act, the nervous condition of Bob as he was being forced to tell the bet while the clock is nearing 4 o'clock, and then

Many Members of the Largest Graduating Class in the History of the S. I. N. U. Are Already Placed for Next Year

The past year has established a new record in every phase of the life of the institution. The first session of the summer term enrolled 316 more than were ever registered in the first session of the summer term. The second half of the summer quarter went 120 beyond the preceding year's registration. The fall term surpassed previous fall enrollments by nearly 100. This lead was maintained throughout the winter and increased to 150 for the spring term, and nearly 200 for the mid-spring term. The enrollments for the several sessions of the year are as follows:

First half of summer quarter.....	1160
Second half of summer quarter.....	346
Fall term	974
Winter term	940
Spring term	1034
Mid-spring term	1432

In all of these statements, of course, the children in the practice school are omitted.

The most spectacular gain, however, is in the graduating class. Last year the school established what was considered a wonderful record, graduating 150; but the present year we are sending out from Junior and Senior College 226. Of this great number more than three-fourths have already secured very desirable positions. Of those who have not secured positions a number have refused attractive offers and others have excellent places under consideration.

The school has received the largest appropriation for current expenses that it has ever had, an increase of nearly $34,000 for the biennium. At this writing it seems reasonably certain that we are to get an appropriation of $150,000 for a new gymnasium.

Perhaps the best feature of the whole situation is the increasing respect of the school men of the state for the work of the institution, as shown in the increasing demand for our graduates. It may interest our friends to know that fourteen of the present class will next year teach in a single Chicago suburban city.

"DADDY LONG-LEGS" PLEASED EVERYONE

Zetetic Society, in Their Forty-eighth Annual Spring Entertainment, Presents One of Best Plays Ever Given at the S. I. N. U.

The presentation of "Daddy Long-Legs" by the Zetetic Society in the auditorium last night was a grand success. Although class work was finished on Saturday, two days earlier than had been planned, the attendance at the play was not affected in the least, for a majority of the students staid over and were fully repaid for doing so. Many townspeople availed themselves of the opportunity and the largest crowd that has been in the auditorium this year was present.

Everyone will agree that "Daddy Long-Legs" is one of the best plays ever produced. The delightful story makes the play such that one who has never read the story can hardly wait for the next act to see what is going to happen, and those who have read it are even more anxious. The Zetetic Society should feel proud of those who made the play a success. The cast worked hard and faithfully to make it so. Those who saw the play can picture it better than words can describe.

Who can ever forget the charming manner of Ethel Parr, who took the part of Judy. No one could help but pity Judy for she let the "cat out of the bag" a thousand times per day but she could always smooth things over easily. She was an excellent orphan—even if a little impertinent and proved to be an admirer of her guardian, Mr. Pendleton. Her charming manner won the admiration of all.

Dilla Hall, who took the part of Jervis Pendleton, or Daddy Long-Legs Himself, seemed to fit in the part well. Some one wondered if his sickness really made him as cross as he was in the fourth act. Most of his classmates were surprised for they didn't know that he could make love as well as he did.

Most of the townspeople remember him as the professor in the "Cameo Girl" given at the Barth last year.

Following the custom set by the student council several years ago, honor letters were given this year. The letters are awarded for two purposes, scholarship and student activities. To obtain a "N" for scholarship a student must make 90 or above in every study. For the activity letter a student must not only show an excellent work on the campus but must have made a creditable record for the class room.

It is an honor to win one of the letters for only forty-two were awarded this year. There have been about twenty-five hundred different students enrolled during the year.

Scholarship letter students are: Mildred Anderson, Glenn Ayre, Frank Dwyer, William Felts, Dilla Hall, Agnes Lentz, Kelly Loy, Berna Hiller, Edith Morgan, Ethel Parr, A. L. Shelton, Herman Sparr, Cletus Ward Martin Broadway and I. W. Shelton.

MISS RUE GIVEN PRESENT

The Zetetic Society presented Miss Rue with a present in the form of a string of pearls at the chapel exercises last Thursday. This presentation of a gift to some member of the faculty for their work with campus activities is an annual custom of the society.

With the number of activities that Miss Rue has been engaged in and the amount of work that she has done in each, we are sure she justly deserves this honor. The gift is not given for the work done for the sorority but for that which is for the betterment of the school as a whole.

May each one of the pearls give her some thought of the school during her sojourn in Europe.

TRAINING SCHOOL

OPERETTA A SUCCESS

For beauty, and display of talent, few events of commencement compare with the delightful entertainment given by the training school on last Thursday evening. It marked the closing of the training school with pupils from the third grade through the junior high school taking part in "The Stolen Flower Queen," an operetta.

Mrs. Julia Chastaine, acting head of the music department, trained and directed the operetta assisted by critic teachers, Misses Entsminger, Clark, Dearmont and Mitchell. More than 150 took part in the play which was enthusiastically commended by the large audience. No feature of the operetta was so striking as the butterfly choruses, as was the Indian Faye, Snowflake, Autumn Leaf, Fairy Weed, Japanese and Boy Scout.

SENIOR PARTY

The seniors of S. I. N. U. met on June 13 at Anthony hall for a last "get together" party. The evening was spent in just being sociable and writing in the Obelisks. Art Browne '18 rendered a few solos, and Raymond Colyer '18 gave a chalk talk. Everyone enjoyed the social hour and the opportunity to be with their classmates again.

FACULTY CHANGES

(Western Courier, Macomb.)

Miss Bell, who has been the capable eighth grade critic the past year, has resigned and accepted the position of teacher of history in the Milton, Iowa, High School, so that she may be at home with her mother.

Miss Bell was critic teacher here in the Junior High during 1919-20-21.

NEW HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS

(Taken from the Thebes Flashlight.)

Miss Serbian and Miss Birney are to leave the High School at the end of this year. The former leaves to attend school and the latter—well, she is going to get married. To take their places the Board of Education has employed Miss Elizabeth Weir of Carbondale and Prof. Corem Waller of Carbondale. While we hate to part with the old, we welcome the new. Here's hoping they can't hear and that they are blind in at least one eye.

"NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH"

the joy that breaks over him as the clock strikes 4, alone was worth the price of a ticket. The bet was won, he lies and does it beautifully, and all ends in joy and happiness, even Ethel's song being applauded.

Many times, will the audience think of the funny lines and position of the actors and it will always bring to them a hearty laugh. More cannot be said than that. A successful play indeed, and a pleased audience.

"DADDY LONG-LEGS"

No one will forget those little orphans in their blue checked gingham, or the matron and trustees of the John Grier home. Then there were the college girls and their messy study room, and that aristocratic lady who worshipped her ancestors.

James McBride (Van Brown) was proud of his mustache.

Mrs. Semple was a kind old nurse and the butler was so faithful to see that Mr. Pendleton always took his medicine at the proper time.

"Daddy Long-Legs" was a grand success.
