Vets and Faculty Organize A 'New City' at Housing Project

Dr. W. J. T. Tutor, associate professor of history at Southern Illinois University, will lead a group of Southern Illinois faculty in the planning and development of a new city near Carbondale. The project is designed to provide affordable housing for faculty members.

There must be some kind of change in the current situation of federal education, or else there will be no federal education at all.' This was the statement of Dr. James C. Clark, president of Southern Illinois University, at the opening of the Southern Illinois University Faculty Senate meeting on Monday.

The Senate met to discuss a variety of issues, including the budget and the future of the university.

In the discussion period which preceded the business meeting, several members of the faculty expressed concern over the federal government's reduction of funding for higher education. They felt that this reduction would have a serious impact on the quality of education at SIU.

Dr. Clark spoke about the university's budget, which has been reduced by 10% this year. He said that the university is doing its best to manage the budget, but it is difficult to do so without some kind of change in the federal education program.

There was much discussion about the future of the university. Some faculty members feel that the university should be closed, while others believe that it should be expanded. Dr. Clark said that the university is working on a plan to expand, but it is not clear how much funding will be available for this purpose.

There was also discussion about the quality of education at SIU. Some faculty members feel that the quality of education is declining, while others believe that it is still good. Dr. Clark said that the university is working hard to improve the quality of education, but it is a difficult task.

In conclusion, Dr. Clark said that the university is doing its best to manage the budget and to improve the quality of education. He said that the university is open to suggestions about how to improve the situation, but it is important to remember that the university is a private institution and that it is not possible to make major changes without the cooperation of the faculty and the students.

Remember that Face

"A story is told of the sons of an Eastern college who used to say to the fruited trees..."

"Look at the person on your right and then look at the person on your left. Remember..."

Four years later, when the time came to break up the dormitory, only 10 percent of the original members were left. The situation is just about the same here in the southern question, except that there are 20 people to the other 15 percent.

Two probably will not start to the universities, will like the life, and after the first few terms find out that it isn't what they thought. Others will drop out because the grind is too rough, or because of financial difficulties. There will be more who will transfer out to other schools at the end of the first year.

These claims only a small percentage of the freshmen of any class. The last part of the mortality rate is due to the individual students themselves. University studies are not easy for anyone, much less for the average student."

Is Social Club the Solution?

Well, another weekend is coming down on us. For those who live in those shooting distance of Carolina because we mean the real home, and to the students who are in the surrounding towns, it is time to get out and enjoy ourselfs.

That being said, we will take a look at how to get out and enjoy ourselfs on a budget. For those who belong to Social Club, they can enjoy the benefits of being a member of Social Club.

President Morris, in discussing future plans for S. I. L. has made mention of a Social Club event that will be held on the weekend of February 15th. It is made clear that it will be some time in the future that our university will become a reality. When that time comes, we will celebrate the occasion with a bang!

The problem of the day will have been solved, however, in a sense, because Social Club is a place where students can meet and socialize. It is a place for students who are interested in making new friends and learning about foreign cultures.

Some of us enjoy the library at our university, but others prefer the convenience of Social Club. There are events planned for both types of students.

At Social Club, there are activities planned for everyone. Whether you are interested in reading a good book or you prefer to socialize with others, you will find something to enjoy.

In conclusion, Social Club is a great place to meet new people and to have fun. It is a great way to socialize and to learn about new cultures.

Whither the Vote?

The campus is beginning to calm down now, but the air has been ringing with campaigns for the various elections of students. Square's election has been hardly important enough to warrant any attention for more than a few months.

However, in many states it is very important. In many states there was not a campaign speeded by advertising. In many states it is a fairly small scale example of all elections, from national on down to the local, where more people are concerned.

For those who are interested in politics, we recommend the following sources:

1. The New York Times
2. The Wall Street Journal
3. The Daily News

We hope that you will be informed on the issues and that you will make a decision based on the information you have received.

Allen Recreates S. Illinois Life in Realistic Museum Displays

The museum is located on the campus of Southern Illinois University, in Carbondale, Illinois. The museum is open to the public, and it is free to enter.

The museum has a collection of artifacts from the history of the United States. It is located in a beautiful building, and it is a great place to spend an afternoon.

The exhibits in the museum are well presented, and they are easy to understand. They are arranged in a logical order, and there are many signs explaining the history of the artifacts.

If you are interested in history, then you should visit the museum. It is a great place to learn about the past, and it is a great way to spend an afternoon.

Toward Better Secretaries

Secretaries, does your boss have a habit of giving you a lot of work to do? Here are a few tips that will help you get things done.

1. Set priorities: Make a list of all the tasks that need to be done, and then prioritize them based on their importance.
2. Break large tasks into smaller ones: If you have a large task to complete, break it down into smaller tasks.
3. Set deadlines: Set a deadline for each task, and make sure to stick to it.

By following these tips, you will be able to get your work done more efficiently and effectively.

This Air Age

There are many changes happening in the aviation industry. With the development of new technologies, the air age is rapidly changing.

One of the most significant changes is the development of new aircraft. New Designs are being developed, and they are more fuel efficient and safer than ever before.

Another significant change is the development of new airports. New airports are being built, and they are more efficient and more functional than ever before.

With these changes, the air age is rapidly changing, and it is a great time to be a part of this exciting industry.

Crippled Maroons Lose to Northern 25-7 at Dekalb

After its 22-0 lead in the first half, the Maroons really had trouble with the Northern Illinois Huskies, as the Maroons were outscored 16-5 in the second half. The game was played Saturday afternoon at the Athletic Field of the University of Illinois.

Fortune's Corner

There was a big game in the basketball season as the two top teams in the Big Ten conference were playing for the championship. The game was played at the Assembly Hall in Urbana. The Illini were leading 17-16 at the half, but the Buckeyes came back and won the game 46-43. It was an exciting match, and the fans were on the edge of their seats throughout the game.

Sunny Days for Maroons

The Maroons are leading the league in pitching, with a record of 15-3. They have lost only one game in the last five weeks, and they are looking forward to their next game against the Fighting Irish.

If you grew up in the 1940s, chances are you remember the Gingersnaps. They were a popular band in the United States during the 1940s and 1950s, and they had many hits, including "Mambo No. 5" and "Let's Dance." The Gingersnaps were known for their upbeat music and dance routines, and they were a favorite of many children and teenagers.

WELCOME ALUMN

It's Your Move

Perhaps the most important part, and certainly the most anxiously awaited part of the homecoming activities, was the crowning of the queen. Senior football captain John Farm bore the crown on Queen Emma Douglas' head.

1895 Football Was Joined By Crowd

Because a young, energetic graduate of Northwestern University became the first to graduate from football and to start in Carbondale, firing up the fans in 1895.

During this young man, Robert Henderson of Chicago, launched the first attempt to convince the fans that football was not only a game but a respectable sport. Dick Hayes, the coach at Carbondale, was convinced of the value of football and wanted to see it grow.

Kemper pushed this first player and will use him at a crucial position in the first year of play. The championship was disputed for three years in Fairflield. On Oct. 3, 1895, the Capelans defeated the Fairfield team 1 to 0.

Whenever the Carbondale team played in a home game, many of the players rode in horse-drawn wagons which added to the excitement of the game.

The field upon which the Carbondale team played was named the old campus in the northeast part of the city.

With the exception of the players on the field, the spectators who felt the game was the same as a game in the 1890s.
