House Passes Engineering Bill 109-44

In the Illinois House of Representatives Tuesday, the bill to allow SIU to grant engineering degrees was passed with a margin of 20 votes. The bill now faces the Senate, with a much tougher fight expected.

Senator R. G. Christenberry of Murphysboro has moved that the bill go to a second reading in the Senate without reference to a committee. The bill would then go the third reading, or final action stage.

The House vote was 109 to 44 in favor of the bill.

An identical bill is at passage stage in the Senate, but may be allowed to stay there while an attempt is made to move the House bill to the Senate for vote.

Strong opposition to the bill is expected to come in the Senate from Everett R. Peters of St. Joseph, who traditionally backs bills favoring the University of Illinois. A Senate vote on the bill may not be taken for a week or more.

Opposition in the House bill was expressed by Representative Robert McCarthy of Lincoln, who said the bill would encourage SIU's "empire building."

Representative Clyde Choate of Anna said industries in the south end of the state are underdeveloped in employing engineers. If young men from the area could be trained in engineering, he added, this need could be met.

DR. RAMP ATTENDS KANSAS CITY MEETING

Dr. Wayne Ram, Training Industrial Teacher, Trainer in the Industrial Education Department, was one of the Illinois delegates to the national conference in trade and industrial education in Kansas City recently. The school over the last week came from forty-six states and two territories for the purpose of assisting the trade and industrial division of the U. S. Office of Education in establishing objectives for the coming ten year period.

9 Chautauqua Buildings Set For Classes

Nine Chautauqua buildings will be taken over by the University this summer for office and classroom space, according to the Office of Student Affairs.

While no one now living in the buildings will be moved, certain buildings can be required for use by the school after housing begins July 1.

Dr. George G. Hand, SIU vice president, said the movements would be made with the convenience of the different students involved in mind.

For buildings which are needed by July 1, and up to an additional five by the first of September. The structures involved are 4, 5, 6, 13, 14, 15, 21, 22 and 23.

For those personnel who remain in school after the buildings are taken over for administrative purposes, the belongings will be moved into other Chautauqua residences.

For those graduating in June, the residences being taken over must be vacated by noon, June 22, so there will be space for the families moving out of the buildings needed by July 1.

In a letter sent to Chautauqua residents, Director of Housing William Rogge said, "Believe us when we say we deeply regret it is less to our total housing capacity. All possible alternatives to this loss were examined together with other members of the University community."

"This solution, however, was finally agreed upon as the best way to meet many conflicting demands for space. In a sense, 'no one is happy,' but each party concerned has part of this needs met."

Rogge said although no assurance can be given the housing office will attempt to make it possible for the area not to be closed out any faster than the termination of the resident's education.

Officials Foil Suicide Attempt

An SIU student attempted suicide Friday night, May 8, but his attempt was foiled by University officials. The student took an overdose of sleeping pills, and was found at a Carbondale hotel about 3 a. m. Saturday.

The student was taken to a hospital in Carbondale, and was being held until his parents arrive.

The person left a three-page note to his roommate, telling that he was going to "end his life because of various disappointments." He was last seen riding a bicycle towards the reservoir.

University officials searched the reservoir area for hours with no trace of either bicycle or rider. The bicycle was found early Saturday morning outside a hotel, and the student had registered in his own name.

He was conscious, and hospital officials said the effect of the sleeping pills was not enough to cause damage. He reportedly took about 10 pills.

This Weekend Campus Themes Outdoors

Outdoor living will be the theme of the SIU campus this week-end as the First Annual Family Outdoor Living Show is presented here.

Featuring some 50 commercial and educational exhibits in McAndrew Stadium, the show begins today and will run through Sunday. It is jointly sponsored by Southern Illinois, Inc., Southern Illinois Recreation Coordinating Council and SIU.

Purpose of the show is to encourage wholesome family outdoor living and to promote the recreational and scenic attractions of Southern Illinois.

In addition to the McAndrew exhibits, the show features special demonstrations and entertainments. The exhibits will be open from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. today and tomorrow, and from 12 noon to 9 p. m. Sunday. There is no admission charge.

Tonight's events will begin tonight at 8:30. With Dan Bode as master of ceremonies, the AFROTC Singing Squadron will present a program at McAndrew Stadium. There will also be an exhibit on the life and times of Earl Buechler, St. Louis tennis professional, will conduct a tennis clinic and demonstrations at the University Tennis Courts from 10 a. m. tomorrow.

From 10:30 to 11:40 a. m. tomorrow, three C-119 Flying Boxcars from Scott Air Base, Peru, Ind., will fly over the campus. This was arranged by the AFROTC at Southern Illinois.

Other entertainment will be presented by SIU students. Houston square-dance call Gene McMullen will conduct the Southern Illinois Square Dance at the Men's Gym at 7:30 p. m. An admission price of $1 per couple will be charged for this event.

Indian dances will be presented at McAndrew Stadium at 8:30 p. m., featuring entertainment by SIU students, repeats of the archery and casting demonstrations and the Indian dances and singing by the Delta Zeta Choral Group.

ROUTE JOBS AVAILABLE FOR SUMMER

The SIU Student Work Office has announced that there are some route jobs available for college men during the summer months.

Interested students should leave their names, addresses and telephone numbers at the Student Employment Office, according to Assistant Director Roland Keene.

Students Apply For Homecoming Committees

Students may now apply for Homecoming committees at the Student Union and Office of Homecoming Chairman Mary Kay Sharkey.

The applications may be picked up at the Activities Development Office at the Student Union. The theme of the 1959 Homecoming and the Steering Committee is slated for announcement within the next two weeks.

Ron Davis Gets Ugly Man Award

Ron Davis, sponsored by Sigma Kappa Sorority, was named winner of the Ugly Man Award on Campus contest Saturday.

The winner was announced by Dave Oving of Alpha Phi Omega, featuring entertainment on the Spring Festival Midway Saturday afternoon.

Davis was given a fountain pen set and an APO key, while the sponsoring sorority was presented with a trophy.

Ugly Man selections were voted by the student body on the basis on one penny for one vote. Votes were cast in the Student Union and at Thompson Point for the past two weeks.

There were seven entries in contest.

Money collected in the voting will be used by APO for scholarship awards to junior or senior students. Last year's voting paid for two such scholarships.

Davis is a junior education major from Cicero.

Sharkey Is Homecoming Chairman; Hunt, Puntney, Easterday Class Presidents

By Clarence Pratt
Staff Reporter

With 1,377 votes cast, Bob Hardwick was elected student body president in Tuesday's all-campus elections. The vice-presidency went to Linda Mueller, and Mary Kay Sharkey was elected Homecoming Chairman.

Positions of class presidents went to Bob Hunt, Suzanne Puntney and Susan Easterday—presidents of the senior, junior and sophomore classes, respectively.

Senators elected were Janet Bleem, George Bricker, Floyd Courtwright, George Folkers, Kay Francis, Melinda Hayer, Mike Hemphill, Chowdry Rafiq Kahn, Jerry Lynn, Phil Morris, Bill Owen, Phyllis Phelps and Charles Wilmsom.

Thompson Point, where 524 votes were cast, is entitled to an additional senator under the constitution. The constitution allows any area with over 500 votes in an election to have an additional senator. A special election for the second senator will be held soon, according to Bill Berry, present Student Body President.

Voting By Area
Voting by area is as follows (figures taken from valid votes for the Student Body President): Woody Hall, 134; fraternities and sororities, 274; students from foreign lands and graduate students, 28; Thompson Point, 504; out-in-town and commuters, 140; off-campus organized men and off-campus organized women, 64; temporary men's residence halls, including Chautauqua co-ops, 118; family housing and Southern Acres residence halls, 86.

Bob Hardwick, elected student body president in Tuesday's all-campus elections, picked up support heavily by fraternities and sororities and Thompson Point, as well as by students from foreign lands, graduate students and off-campus organized men and women.

SIU Zoning Bill Draws Opposition

A bill introduced in the Illinois State Legislature which would give SIU the authority to zone a large area around the University campus has drawn strong opposition from Jackson County and the City of Carbondale.

The proposed legislation would create a "Southern Illinois University Educational District" including an area from about Cherry street in Carbondale to Boskydel road south of the campus, and from about Country Club road west of Carbondale to the Giant City black-top on the east.

The bill would give SIU the power to govern buildings within this area, and to gradually eliminate existing "incompatible" buildings when they are "destroyed or damaged in major part."

President Morris told a group of city and county officials Tuesday he would recommend to SIU's Board of Trustees that the bill be withdrawn if local government authorities would give assurance they will do the zoning.

Sharkey Speaks At Broadcasters Meeting Here

Sam Sharkey, executive news director for the National Broadcasting Company, will be the keynote speaker at a spring meeting of the Illinois News Broadcasters Assn., Saturday and Sunday at SIU.

More than 100 radio station managers and news directors are expected to attend the meeting, which carries the theme, "Backgrounding the News." Sessions for the Associated Press Broadcasters Assn. and United Press International Broadcasters also are scheduled.

Special features of the meeting will be the presentation of a "Man of the Year" award to an outstanding Illinois citizen and a bus tour of scenic attractions in the Carbondale area.

Before joining NBC in 1955, Sharkey was foreign editor of the Philadelphia Inquirer and for ten years headed the national news desk of the New York Times. It was Sharkey who set up NBC's transceiver network for covering the 1956 election.

1958-59 Council Leaves

With the results of Tuesday's campus elections, the 1958-59 Student Council will relinquish their duties to the newly elected Council. The outgoing campus government group has experienced a year of control. This year has meant progress for the Council and for the students whom they represent.

Taking office last May, the Council let their coat for the year. The agenda included campus parking, making the new student government efficient, increase of student culture on campus and stimulating academic achievement. During the year, the members seriously considered these problems along with many others which arose. Some aspects were successfully solved, while others were improved but not cured.

The members sponsored several cultural and academic events on campus and urged student to attend the programs. A special vote of thanks goes to Bill Berry, retiring student body president. Berry has probably done more than any one other individual to set up the present efficient government from "scratch".

The Council has become more of a governing body within the last year. They have worked on the problems faced by the students. They have

The new Council has a job on their hands, and the best of luck to them in the coming year. They are starting on a good foundation. . . . may they complete the building.

Hold Peace Forever

The voting booths were present. The loyal students were sitting at the registration tables in the dreary weather. The elections had hit the campus. But where were the voters?

on not stopping at the convenient polling places.

There are 6,782 students on campus, but only 1,377 took time out to cast ballots in Tuesday's election. What happened to the other 5,405 non-voters? The situation brings to the surface a good question of the reasons why students did not vote. The answers are a little hard to find to the question.

One thing seems apparent. In the next year if there are any complaints about the campus government and its actions, there will be only 1,377 students who have any right to voice these complaints. The remaining non-voting population should go by the old cliché of "speak now or forever hold your peace."

It is merely a case of severe apathy when such a small percentage of eligible voters participate in elections. Or is there a bigger, better reason . . . such as absolute neglect

Whatever may have been the reason for individuals not voting this year, may they accept their privilege and duty next year. May the lines at the ballot boxes be as long as the line in the Student Union at 10 a. m.

Ordibehest

Ordibehest, meaning heavenly month, is a term for the wonderful month of May. With balmy breezes and green trees, the fifth month comes into full bloom.

The sweet smell of flowers floats over the air and welcomes admirers to gather near to enjoy the charm and beauty of delicate blossoms.

The sun shines, emitting a warmth and friendship between nature and man. The moon spills forth its magic in the evening as its contribution to the enjoyment of those on earth. The cool, gentle waves of the lake beckon to its visitors and it is difficult to resist its charms.

Yes, May is the mystic month of memories and marvelous motivations. It promises much to the lonely traveler along woody paths. But to the poor student it offers exams and term papers.

Pre-Registration Ends June 5

Sectioning Center-Supervisor Marion B. Treese has called attention to the fact that the present pre-registration period for SIU students will end June 5. ## Movie Reviews

'Sound and The Fury' Superbly Acted; 'Mating Game' A Bore, Says Christine

By Bill Christine
Movie Reviewer

For the most part, 20th Century-Fox has filmed just about everything Audrey Hepburn could do. The actress' latest role in "The Sound and The Fury" is a four-letter word here and there has been delayed to keep the censors smiling and the ending is pure Hollywood then Faulkner. In some ways the film is more provocative than the novel. Producer Jerry Wald and Director Martin Ritt have gone Faulkner one better when they put an alcoholic, a psychopath, an idiot and a sadist under one roof. Faulkner's book omitted the alcoholic, but what's a movie now, adverbs without at least one noun?

all human beings, regardless of the prevalent bias. Moreover, they can't give one valid reason why the Comptons shouldn't recover the house money of dying on the vine. It's too late for all of the rest. Benji, after trying to strangle Quentin, is committed to an asylum; Caddy discovers that she can't be a mother to her wayward daughter; Howard never tries to fight his way out of the bottle; and the mother of Jason and Howard, piqued because of the neglect she receives as a senile old woman, isolates herself from the rest of the family when Caddy returns.

pressario, said: "The only reason for the cackback in movies is that we will make pictures for the sake of making pictures any more."

The film would be a close parallel to Poe's "The Fall of the House of Usher," except that it lacks a certain under roof. Faulkner's book omitted the alcoholic, but what's a movie now, adverbs without at least one noun?

This is a pretty platform plank unit. "The Mating Game" comes along and causes the campaign to turn turtle. Dashed in the dialogue for this situation-comedy face are smatterings of honest-to-god humor. The rest of the show would have even been hilarious had the jokes been accompanied by 10 cents worth of continuity. For two cents, M-M tried to give an all-day lollipop. What it actually gets is about five minutes of time or another in the past.

The Comptons are a well-known Jackson, Tenn., family. They steadily have been heading toward oblivion for years, and the two most recent generations have grown so tired of themselves that none of them can really see any sense in burdening Jason with any more Compton money.

At face value, the cast is promising. Debbie Reynolds, Tony Randall, Paul Douglas and Fred Clark all have been jocular at one time or another in the past. Miss Reynolds, for instance, had her inning in "Tammy and the Bachelor." Randall was a barrel of monkeys in "Will Success Spoil Rock Hunter?" Douglas couldn't have been better while serving at the butt of Judy Holiday's barbs in "Solid Gold Cadillac," and Clark was his own Legree set in "Auntie Mame." Put them all together, however, and they spell bother.

The latest Comptons are a thoroughly depressing lot. Caddy is a harlot, who deserted her illegitimate daughter the day after her birth and who returns to Jackson after a 16-year absence. Daughter Quentin has developed into a love-struck streetwalker. Jason is Quentin's uncle and ward. He is so authoritarian in his efforts to keep the girl away from the primrose path that he has made her his bitter enemy. Daughter Lark is a neurotic simpleton. Howard is the gin-and-tonic habitual.

The story revolves around the Larkins, a family which has lived on the banks for 150 years and doesn't know income tax from a contagious disease. What's more Papa Larkin (Douglas) wouldn't recognize a W-2 form on a bet. "We've never had any $600 around here at one time," he says to the internal revenue investigator (Randall). That's the plot a nutshell. To give the movie some zest, Daughter Larkin (Miss Reynolds) sets her sights on the government man, and they wind up in a haystack, just like on the billboard.

Fraternities Win Vaudeville First Prizes

Theta Xi fraternity and the Sigma Pi quartet were the winners in the Spring Festival Vaudeville Show Friday night.

Theta Xi won the first place trophy in the group acts division with a takeoff on the story of Cinderella, while the quartet won the top trophy in the individual acts division.

The only saving grace about the Larkins, a family which has lived on the banks for 150 years and doesn't know income tax from a contagious disease. What's more Papa Larkin (Douglas) wouldn't recognize a W-2 form on a bet. "We've never had any $600 around here at one time," he says to the internal revenue investigator (Randall). ## Cheers For Issue—Likes Girls

Dear Editor, Three cheers for your latest issue! I was much pleased to see in it a display of twenty-five of our bright co-eds who are competing for the Miss Southern title. It is a shame that only one of them is to be elected.

Voice Box

side whether to continue the bathing suit style displays or to replace them with some other styles. After all the aim of these displays should be to exhibit one's beauty to its maximum.

The progress of our university has been quite impressive in the last few years. One of the ways of determining this progress is to count the number of our fashion parades and beauty contests.

There are some of my colleagues who are disturbed by the fact that the EGYPTIAN does more to publicize these beauty contests than it does to publicize academic activities. I think that their criticism is unfair. If a girl in a bathing suit riding a lawn pole attracts the attention of two hundred and fifty students, surely she should have five times as much publicity as the lecture by a distinguished professor who attracts only fifty neurotic students.

I sincerely believe that there is room for some more. I wish the campus coed organizations would get into the matter and give top priority to the suggestion of having a competition for Miss Home Economics 101.

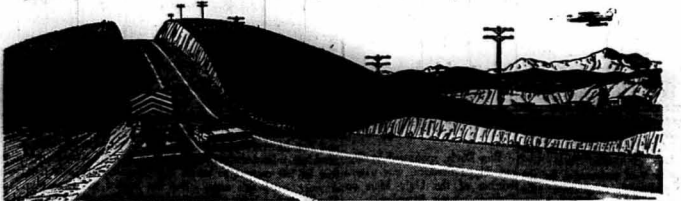

One of the good results of the publicity you have often given to the girls in bathing suits has been the virtual elimination of picture postcard peddlers. And if a thing of beauty is a joy forever, it is no reason why the faculty members should not be asked to display in front of their desks clipping from your last issue. ## Civil Service Gives Tests For Positions

The U. S. Civil Service Commission has announced examinations for Museum Aids, Actuaries, and Operations Research Analysts for positions throughout the U. S.

Please allow me to make a few suggestions to your readers. I think the President and the Board of Trustees of this university should be petitioned to give an urgent thought to the establishment of a permanent beauty display hall.

HOTTEST LOOKING, HOTTEST SAVING.

HOTTEST SELLING OF THE LEADING LOW-PRICED 3

What we mean—this new Chevy's whipped up a one-car heat wave. Its fresh style caught on right away, of course. But—whether you prefer a V8 or 6—where Chevrolet really leaves the other cars in the shade is out on the road. A pair of Chevy's came in one-two in their class in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run. And the winning average was 23.88 m.p.g.

Why not drop down to your knees and see for yourself why Chevy's this year's hottest selling car?

James Hsiung Talks

American Journalists Sensationalize, Says Chinese Journalist, SIU Student

By Larry Meyer Staff Reporter

"It seems that American journalists want to sensationalize news to make them headlines..."

is unwilling to talk, the journalist told him that there was talk that he was in Formosa to persecute Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek to give up Quemoy..."

CHINESE WRITER

James Hsiung, president of the Chinese Students organization on campus, takes time from his duties as graduate assistant in journalism to pose for a picture.

Hsiung came to the United States last summer; previously he had written for the China News.

Eisenhower Calmly Accepts Possible Khrushchev Visit

(Washington) A possible visit by Premier Nikita Khrushchev to the U. S. this summer has been calmly accepted by the Eisenhower administration.

There is some prospect that Khrushchev will ask to be allowed to open the Soviet Exposition in the New York Coliseum on June 30.

Officials are talking a hot war whether to combine the Premier's visit with a summit conference in some American city.

(Baltimore) A Capital Viscount turboprop airliner, carrying 27 passengers and four crewmembers, exploded in the skies over Maryland last Tuesday.

Civil engineers board investigators announced that the plane was blown apart by a tremendous explosion. The exact cause of the explosion was not known.

(Geneva) The Geneva top-level foreign ministers meeting has had its ups and downs this week.

(Washington) Gen. Nathan Twining, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, underwent surgery Tuesday.

(Washington) A Pentagon spokesman said that the specimen would be further examined by the Walter Reed Hospital staff.

Reunited at Weisbaden, Germany, are Col. Alexander R. MacMillan, past AFROTC commander at Southern, and three officers who formerly served under him in SIU's AFROTC detachment.

Hsiung obtained a B.A. degree in English literature from National Taiwan University. He worked for the Broadcasting Corp. of China and the China News before coming to America last May as a guest of the State Department.

Hsiung, who speaks English fluently, reported that the way to get someone from people who are unwilling to talk is to make them mad. He interviewed Richard Nixon soon after the Vice President got off a plane in Formosa in 1955.

Hsiung said that the Communist ranks second only to Japan in foreign exports, and self-sufficiency.

Two Pioneer students will receive honorary degrees by SIU at June commencement exercises.

Chiung Kai-Shieh has a definite place in China's history. To the Chinese, he is undoubtedly a great leader. He led China to unifying and expelling alien aggression.

Hsiung reported that Chiang Kai-Shieh is still in Formosa. He said that he was in Formosa to persecute Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek to give up Quemoy.

It irritates people in Formosa to see U. S. aid given to communists who are taking a neutralist stand and who receive aid from both sides.

His latest dom construction will comprise the main area at the American National Exhibition in Moscow beginning July 25.

SIU Purchases 'Facts On Film' For Library

"Facts on Film," a documentary collection about the effects of desegregation on education, has been purchased by Morris Library's education division.

The collection, compiled by the Southern Education Reporting Service, consists of 150,000 items on 400 100-foot reels of microfilm.

Propaganda pamphlets, leaflets and newsletters, as well as objective writings, are included. Important public addresses in which advocates of segregation or desegregation have spoken are included.

Initial purchases of "Facts on Film," besides SIU, include the Civil Rights Commission, Cornell University, Dartmouth College, Memphis State University and Louisiana State University.

The film collection, which included four rolls of index as well as the text material, will be supplemented annually until 1961, at least.

Design Meet Set For SIU May 22-23

Design students and their teachers from 10 midwestern universities and art centers will gather at SIU next weekend for the regional spring meeting of the Industrial Design Education Association.

Overall discussion theme for the conference will be "Design Educators' Limited or Complex?"

As last year, pre-distribution cards will be given out to speed up distribution.

An Obelisk staff member will be in the Student Union starting May 19 to give pre-distribution cards to students who come in and get their names checked off the IBM list.

10 Delegates Go To National Residence Meet

Ten delegates from SIU recently attended the Association of College and University Residence Halls National Conference at the University of Missouri.

Seventeen colleges and universities from all over the U.S. participated in the conference. Among these were the University of Utah, Colorado University, Kansas State, University of Nebraska, Oklahoma State, Iowa State, Missouri School of Mines, Stephens College and Vanderbilt.

SIU was selected as the next conference site. A design submitted by the Southern delegates was selected for the ACURH national insignia.

"At the conference, the delegates participated in group discussions concerning problems on the residence halls. Among the guests were the Southern delegates from the University of Missouri, Stephens College and Christian College. A sign given by the group from Southern was a highlight of the meeting.

Attending from SIU were Sheila Bush, Carolyn Carson, Mary

At Other Colleges

With the enrollment of its first class of juniors last September, NORTH PARK COLLEGE, in Chicago, is expanding from a junior to a senior liberal arts college.

Starting with the June, 1960, graduation the college will grant five degrees: Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Music, Bachelor of Music Education, Bachelor of Science, and Bachelor of Science in Nursing. The curriculum emphasizes general education.

A new freshman English course has been inaugurated at the UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE under the direction of the Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. This experiment is in lieu of the days when the University was so crowded.

Jane Edwards, Carol Fanizco, Linda McDaniel, Mike Hemphill, Al Kallipinski, John Astrenik, Art Payne and Tom Tefel.

Sheila Bush was elected vice-president of ACURH for the coming year and will be responsible for planning the convention to be held here next year.

Mike Hemphill was elected Southern's corresponding secretary for ACURH.

Summer Tours To Europe Through NSA

Reinhard Rutenbeck, SIU representative of the National Student Association's travel department, has announced that students may plan European summer tours through the NSA. Arrangements will be made through the New York Office in cooperation with the European National Union of Students.

Study tours to Europe during the summer months allow travel through most European countries according to Rutenbeck, at comparably cheaper rates.

Quality of the tours is also better, he said, because they are guided by European students. The tours last from 50 to 60 days, by bus, train, plane or hired cars.

Interested students should contact Rutenbeck for more details.

LEE'S BOOK NAMED AMONG NATION'S BEST

A book co-authored by J. Murray Lee, chairman of the elementary education department at SIU, has been named one of the nation's 31 outstanding books in education published during 1958.

SIU ARTISTS

Begins Today

Private Press Publications Exhibit At Morris Library

An exhibit of private press publications will be shown at Morris Library, beginning today, in honor of the Golden Anniversary of the Trivillon Private Press, Herrin.

The exhibition, sponsored by Morris Library and the SIU journalism department, features work from private presses in England and the United States. At least 50 volumes from Illinois presses, including that of the 'Trovilleans', will be shown.

Countrie Housewives Garden [617] is one.

Four specially bound Trovillon books and a selection of representative titles of other Trovillon publications will also be on view.

"The New World Journalist," published by the Modlin and Long Hornstone Press will be an example of Illinois private press works exhibited.

There will be publications from nine other Illinois private presses including the Pony Barn Press, the Black Cat Press, the Press of the Waygoose Society and the Sangamon Press.

"The Case and Trial of John Peter Zenger" from the "Oldtime Comments on Journalism" series, printed by Mont's Press of the Crippled Turtle, will be included in the exhibit.

Ten other American private presses outside Illinois will have works on view. One of these will be the press of Thomas Bird Mosher, printing from 1897 to 1923. Other American presses represented will include The Grabhorn Press, the Oriole Press, the Private Press of the Indiana Kid and the Stratford Press.

LIGHT UP AND LIVE IT UP! 3 great cigarettes offer you 627 chances to win! So pick your pack—save the six wrappers—and get going! It's crossword puzzle fun and real smoking pleasure all the way!

ENTER OFTEN—HAVE FUN—AND WIN! But think carefully! This puzzle is not as easy as it looks. At first the DOWN and ACROSS clues may appear simple. There may appear to be more than one "right" answer. For example, the clue might read: "Many a coed will be given her best date's P-N-'N' Either 'I' (PIN) or 'E' (PEN) would seem to fit. But only one answer is apt and logical as decided by the judging staff, and therefore correct. Read the rules carefully. ENTER AS OFTEN AS YOU WISH. Good luck!

RULES—PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

- The College Puzzle Contest is open to college students and college faculty members except employees and their immediate families of Liggett & Myers and its advertising agencies.
- Fill in all missing letters... print clearly. Use of obsolete, archaic, variant or foreign words prohibited. After you have completed the puzzle, send it along with six empty package wrappers of the same brand from L&M, Chesterfield or Oasis cigarettes (or one reasonable hand-drawn facsimile of a complete package wrapper of any one of the three brands) to: Liggett & Myers, P. O. Box 271, New York 46, N. Y. Enter as often as you wish, but be sure to enclose six package wrappers (or a facsimile) with each entry. Illegible entries will not be considered.
- Entries must be postmarked by midnight, Friday, May 29, 1959 and received by midnight, Friday, June 5, 1959.
- Entries will be judged by the Bruce-Richards Corporation, an independent judging organization, on the basis of logic and aptness of thought of solutions. In the event of ties, contestants will be required to complete 15 favorite or less of the following statement: "My favorite cigarette is (check one) L&M (or Oasis) because..." Entries will be judged on originality, aptness of thought and interest by the Bruce-Richards Corporation. Duplicate prizes will be awarded in event of final ties. Illegible entries will not be considered. By entering all entrants agree that the decision of the judges shall be final and binding.
- Solutions must be the original work of the contestants submitting them. All entries become the property of Liggett & Myers and none will be returned.
- Winners will be notified by mail as soon as possible after completion of the contest.
- This contest is subject to all Federal, State and local laws and regulations.

Saluks Could Wrap Up Conference Baseball Title This Weekend With Series Sweep Over Huskies

Southern's baseball team kept their heads on base this weekend, they could wrap up their second-straight IAC baseball crown at Northern Illinois.

Southern, out in front by a margin with a 10-2 conference record, could end all hopes of Eastern Illinois and Central Michigan with a sweep of the three game series. Actually two out of three would all but put the ribbon on the title.

If Abe Martin's boys would win three they would also tie the record for the most games won by a Southern team during a regular season. In 1952 a Martin coached team won 1 while losing five.

Martin will probably go with his top three hurlers in the vital series. Larry Tucker leads the trio with a brilliant 6-0 record. Jim Woods and Harry Gurley will probably get the nod in the other two tilts although Martin could elect to go with Roger McKnight on Charles Sutton (5-0).

Tucker is shaping up as probably one of the finest freshmen prospects in Southern's history. "Tuck" has allowed only four earned runs in 49 innings of pitching.

Dick Dillinger has again taken over the batting lead. The lanky first-baseman is pounding the ball at a .353 clip after 27 games. Roger Boyan, leading the team in total hits, is close behind Dillinger with a .350 mark. J. W. Sanders follows with .341.

Fred Loeschem (.337) is leading the Salukis in RBI's, home runs and extra base hits. Fred has banged out 8 home runs to open the door to 31 runs

Golfers Meet St. Louis U.

St. Louis University will be coach Lynn Holder's golfers find an opponent of the year tomorrow as they close their most successful season in history.

The Salukis have carded 13 victories in 16 outings for the best year since Coach Lynn Holder organized the sport in 1947. Included in the wins is the 12-8 decision over the Billikens earlier in the year.

Robert Boyan is second in RBI's with 25. Northern is having a mediocre year. The Huskies are 11-12 for the season and 7-7 in the IAC. Last season Northern finished with a 5-12 mark in conference for a sixth place finish.

Joe Plaskas lead the Huskies at the plate with 11 sizzling .488 average. Jim Dreger follows with .368. George Evans and Bob Boyd rounds out the .300-

After the Northern series, SIU closes out its home season, against Evansville College in a single game next Tuesday. Next weekend they wrap up the IAC slate with three games against Eastern Illinois.

Netters Meet Bears

SIU's tennis team romped over Eastern Illinois last Tuesday at Charleston, 9-0 to push their season mark to 10-2 with two dual meets remaining on the schedule.

Tomorrow Southern closes out their home schedule against Washington University of St. Louis in a 1:30 match.

The Saluki netters are just one victory away from tying their all-time high for number of meets-won in a single season. In 1939 SIU won 11 as they went undefeated.

In the Eastern meet, the Salukis won every match, except the number four singles, in straight sets. Marvin Cohen had to go three sets to win his match.

The Washington University Tucker leads the Saluki staff with a 6-0 record.

Deadlines End For Intramural Championships

Still going to participate in the Intramural track and swimming championships? The Intramural office urges all interested students to "get entry blanks for the meets into the Intramural office in the Men's Gym as soon as possible.

In the track championships, all the field events will be completed on the afternoon of May 23. The track prelims will be run the morning of May 23. In case of rain, the events will be held on June 6. The complete regulations and procedures were printed in the May 8 edition of the Egyptian.

The deadline for entries into the championships is May 19 at 4 p.m.

Because of space restrictions, the complete rules & regulations for the swimming events are not complete in the May 8 edition. The following are the complete swimming regulations and procedures:

1. Preliminaries will be held at 4 p. m., Friday, May 22, if necessary. Finals will be held at 7 p. m. on the same day. Any finalists failing to report will be scratched.
2. No contestant may enter more than two events, including diving and a relay. All contestants must qualify in the time trials, except divers. Only five finalists will be chosen. Divers must appear in person and get their ear caps and dives fixed on the diving sheet.
3. The pool will be available for practice from 1:30 p. m. to 5 p. m. on Saturdays and Sundays.
4. The starting commands for all races will be (1) "Take Your Marks" and (2) a gun shot.
5. In the 50 yard breaststroke race all swimmers must use a "frog kick", an underwater recovery of the arms, and a simultaneous symmetrical pull. Some part of the body must be on top of the water at all times, except for one pull and one kick at the start and on the turn. At the turn and finish, the wall must be touched with both hands simultaneously.
6. In the backstroke, no swimmer may turn on his face at any time during the race except when in contact with the wall at the turn and the finish. At the turn and finish, the wall must be touched with at least one hand.
7. In diving, each contestant must do three dives. These may

Southern could wrap up their second straight baseball title with a sweep of the Northern series this weekend.

Eastern Illinois did what most everyone hoped they would do last weekend—lose two out of three to Central Michigan.

After bombing the Chaps 18-4 on Friday, the Panthers fell apart and dropped both ends of the twin-bill on Saturday.

The dogs now lead the league with a 10-2 mark. Eastern is still second, but now the Panthers have an 8-7 record. A quick glance at the league looks like this:

W	L	PCT.
Southern	10	2	.833
Eastern Ill.	8	7	.533
Northern	7	7	.500
Western Ill.	6	6	.500

are by three listed in the NCAA or AAU Rule Book. These books in double check with Ralph Casey, SIU swimming coach, at the pool.

8. The events and their order are as follows: 1. 50 yard breaststroke; 2. 100 yard free style; 5. diving; and 6. 200 yard freestyle relay.

Might Get Hit But...

By Ron Jacober Sports Editor

Southern has six games remaining in conference play. This weekend they will be at Northern Illinois for a three-game series and the following weekend close out the season at Eastern Illinois.

If Southern should sweep; the three game series against Northern, they could wrap it up. If the Salukis would win two of three in both of the series, they would win it. No one could possibly tie them, because four wins would give them a 14-4 record. At the present time, the least number of games lost by any other team is five (Central Michigan).

It is conceivable that Central could still tie Southern if the Salukis lost three of the six games. Central is now 4-5, but if they won all nine of their remaining games they would finish at 13-5 which would be good enough to tie SIU if the Salukis won only three of their remaining six games.

Needless to say, this is highly improbable.

Do You Think for Yourself? (THIS QUIZ IS THE TIP-OFF!)

1. Do you think that men who look you straight in the eye when they talk are (A) to be trusted? (B) nearsighted? (C) washing your reaction?  A  B  C
2. Of three men who have asked her for a date, should a girl pick (A) the one with a big car and money? (B) the one who makes lots of jokes, but is broke? (C) the one who helped her study for an exam?  A  B  C
3. Mountaineers say they climb a mountain "because it's there." Does this strike you as (A) logical? (B) indicative of an inferiority complex? (C) a symbol of man's drive to conquer nature?  A  B  C
4. If you were offered a million dollars to be the first man to fly to the moon, would you (A) leap at the chance? (B) take the money and hire someone else to go? (C) find out why the job paid so much?  A  B  C
5. Do you think the maxim "A penny saved is a penny earned" is (A) an excuse for miserliness? (B) a thrifty precept more people should follow? (C) a disastrous economic policy?  A  B  C
6. Do you believe that the expression "Every cloud has a silver lining" is (A) sticky sentimentality? (B) optimism with a poetic license? (C) faulty meteorology?  A  B  C
7. Do you think that helping other people at all times will (A) give you a lot of fun? (B) win you a lot of friends? (C) get you into a lot of trouble?  A  B  C
8. Do you think the primary purpose of parking meters is to (A) stop all-day parking? (B) raise money? (C) make people leave their cars at home?  A  B  C
9. In choosing a filter cigarette, would you (A) depend most (A) on the claims you read and hear? (B) on satisfying yourself that you're getting the right filtration and taste? (C) on the recommendations of your friends?  A  B  C

When you think for yourself... you depend on judgment, not chance, in your choice of cigarettes. That is why men and women who think for themselves usually smoke Viceroy. They know that only Viceroy has a thinking man's filter and a smoking man's taste.

*If you have checked (C) on three out of the first four questions, and (B) on four out of the last five... you certainly think for yourself!
