18 Join Rare Blood Club

Eighteen persons possessing rare types of blood have volunteered as blood donors in case of an emergency.

The 18—including faculty, Civil Service and students—answered a plea by the Egyptian to make their blood available in case of an emergency.

The first person to volunteer was Robert Pechous, who rang the Egyptian minutes after the Feb. 14 issue hit campus. Pechous, a junior from Berwyn, possesses the most rare of blood types—AB negative.

Pechous, who is enrolled in the College of Education, said he recently was a donor for an infant in St. Louis who needed more than 30 pints of blood.

Another possessor of AB negative blood who volunteered to donate is Dick Moldroski, a member of the art department faculty.

Robert Hutchinson, journalism major from Metropolis, Bill O'Brien, a member of the recreation and outdoor education department faculty; Stan Chesnek, and Mike Blackburn have O negative blood, the type which is considered a universal donor.

Three Civil Service employees have volunteered their A negative blood in case of emergency; Betty Williams, Business Office; Mrs. Viola Musgrave, Housing Office and Thomas Bingman, Printing Service.

Also possessing A negative blood are Don Dial, graduate assistant in geology and Carrol Kleinschmidt, senior majoring in mathematics.

Those with B negative are Beatrice Stegeman, a member of the English faculty; James Schoenwetter, graduate assistant in anthropology and Leonard Theodor, sophomore in psychology from East Meadow, N.Y.

Other persons in the campus community are urged to call the Egyptian, Ext. 266, and volunteer to help a friend in case of an emergency. Lists will be given to the University Police, the Office of Student Affairs and the Health Service and the two Carbondale hospitals will be notified.

Holt To MC Variety Show

KMOX's 'Man of a thousand voices'—Bob Holt

'Man of a Thousand Voices' Here For March Spectacular

Bob Holt, "man of a thousand voices" on KMOX, St. Louis, will be master of ceremonies for the 14th annual Theta Xi Variety Show next weekend, March 3-4.

Rehearsals are in full swing for the winter talent show sponsored by the social fraternity. The Friday and Saturday night shows will begin at 8 p.m. in Shryock Auditorium.

Tickets are on sale in the Student Union for $1 each, with all seats reserved. The show is produced and directed by students and is made up of student talent.

Seventeen acts—nine group and eight individual—will entertain what is expected to be two capacity houses. The Service to Southern Award, presented annually to a man and woman senior for outstanding contributions to Southern, will be made during the Friday night intermission.

The first annual Leo Kaplan Memorial Scholarship will be presented at intermission Saturday night.

Holt, who is the "weather bird" on KMOX, was master of ceremonies for Hawaii's "50th State Celebration" in Honolulu in 1958. The versatile radio man also was co-emcee for the St. Louis Globe-Democrat's 1958 fashion show; for the St. Louis "Downtown Musical" and was master of ceremonies for the 1959 Baseball Writers of America dinner.

Holt, a native St. Louisian who was master of ceremonies for more than 500 different shows while serving with the U.S. Army in Korea and Japan, impersonated all the famed voices of Charles Dickens' immortal, "A Christmas Carol," during a special KMOX presentation in 1959.

The first half of the show will be rehearsed with full costume and scenery Tuesday, the second half will rehearse Wednesday and the complete show will go through its paces the eve of the show, Thursday night.

First, second and third-place trophies will be presented in group competition, and first and second-place trophies in individual competition. The trophies are on display in the Student Union.

CORRECTION

Southern's No. 1 debate team won 17 matches and lost four in a recent tour which included matches at Dartmouth and Northwestern Universities. It was erroneously reported in Tuesday's Egyptian that the debaters compiled a 7-4 record.

Organ Concert Featured Sunday

The second annual American Guild of Organists Concert will feature student soloists in music for organ, chorus and orchestra at 4 p.m. Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church at University Avenue and Elm Street.

Phillip Olsson will conduct members of the Southern Illinois Symphony in Handel's "Concerto II in B-flat," for organ and orchestra. Wesley K. Morgan will conduct Gabriel Faure's "Requiem."

Featured soloists are: James McEvers, organ; Millicent Ledbetter, soprano; Joseph Thomas, baritone. Choral parts will be sung by the Chancel Choir of the First Presbyterian Church.

The program, presented by the department of music in cooperation with the AGO, will offer convocation credit for attendance.

Art Exhibit At Dowdell

Student artists will have their day at Dowdell Halls tonight.

An exhibition designed to bring art closer to the people, featuring work done by students of the Carbondale campus, will be presented at 8 tonight at the men's temporary housing area.

The exhibition is being held at Dowdell, a spokesman said, in order to correct some "misconceptions that are rampant about the way we live there."

The committee spokesman said a reception, including refreshments, will accompany the exhibition.

METHODIST MINISTER SPEAKS AT RALLY

Bishop Edwin Voight of the Methodist Church, Illinois Area, will speak at a district missionary rally in the First Methodist Church in Carbondale at 7:30 p.m. March 6.

Bishop Voight has just returned from an extended missionary trip to India where he had the opportunity of viewing the missionary work of the Methodist church.

The rally is open to the public.

Lawrence Featured In Movie

"See you at the movies tonight."

That's what any of Marjorie Lawrence's voice students can say to their famous instructor Tuesday and Wednesday.

The dramatic soprano, now a research professor of music at Southern and director of the Opera Workshop, is the subject of "Interrupted Melody," Hollywood film starring Eleanor Parker and Glenn Ford, showing at the Varsity Theatre Feb. 28 and March 1.

Stricken with polio at the height of her fabulous career, this dramatic and inspiring story of her return to fame is based on the book of the same title, an autobiography.

Bork Gets Recognition For Article

An article tracing the development of Mexico in the 50 years since the Mexican Revolution has won for a faculty member a cash prize and certificate of merit.

Dr. Albert W. Bork, director of SIU's Latin American Institute, has received word of his article, "Mexico—1960," has been named the year's top story in "Arizona Quarterly." Bork received a certificate from A. F. Gugenheimer, editor of the University of Arizona publication, and a $50 cash award.

Bork's essay, marking the 50th anniversary of the Mexican Revolution, treats the current political, economic, social and esthetic state of Mexico.

50-cents admission.

An informal showing of contemporary costumes of Asia and the Middle East depicting progression through various dynasties will be today's offering in the final week of the Fine Arts Festival.

SIU Asian students will present the show at 8 p.m. in the Home Economics Lounge. Refreshments will be served.

Tired Of Walking? 'Take' Bus

Many things have been stolen at SIU during the years—typewriters, beds and air conditioners to name a few—but a Decatur freshman pulled the prize last Thursday. He stole a bus.

Charles Thimens has been temporarily suspended after admitting taking a SIU bus from the Southern Acres campus about 2:30 a.m. Thursday. He told officials he drove it to a tavern in Colp and in the process sideswiped an auto and ran into a tree stump.

Thimens then hitchhiked back to the Southern Acres campus.

Tom Leffler SIU security officer and Karl Malzhan, superintendent of buildings and grounds on the Southern Acres campus, worked for 20 hours before they learned the bus swapper's identity.

Only minor damage was "suffered" by the bus. Damage to the auto was estimated at $100.

Thimens reportedly told officials he "didn't know why" he took the bus.

Help! Third Election For Woman Senator

Students who failed to vote in the first and second elections to select a new off-campus women's senator will get a reprieve next week. They're going to try again Tuesday.

The first election to replace Joanne Hutchcraft, who resigned about a month ago, was declared invalid because of a breakdown in the supply of volunteers to run the poll. A second election held Monday also was declared invalid by the election committee. The reason? Lack of voters.

So a third try to get enough legal votes will be held Tuesday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. in the Student Union club room. Only off-campus women are eligible to vote and a student ID-card or fee statement card must be presented.

"It is the responsibility of the off-campus women to get out and vote," says an election

Editor's Opinions

Campus Police Restricted

The editorial concerning excessive driving speeds on Thompson Point drive uncovered at least one problem which has previously been either overlooked or unknown: the University Police Department is seriously undermanned.

In order to properly discourage speeding on Thompson Point drive, two squad cars are needed. This means a car must be taken off another assignment.

Most of us think the department has at least enough staff to provide adequate service. When an occasion arises, however, when another patrolman is needed in a specific area, it means an area must be sacrificed.

Two patrolmen tied up two squad cars tracking down 60 persons who were exceeding the 20 mile an hour speed limit on Thompson drive during the first two days of the enforcement campaign. This type of safety measure could be assured in more cases if more patrolmen were made available. An organization cannot perform ultra-superior work with an undermanned staff—especially when some members of the department are inadequate, which is true in some cases here.

It is urged that the University make available at least two more positions to the University Police, to insure that adequate protection will be available for an expanding campus and an increasing enrollment.

Joe Dill Editor

"Kind of makes you wonder, doesn't it?"

Thought for the day: The five most important words—"I am proud of you"; the three most important—"If you please . . ."; the two most important—"Thank you"; the least important—"I . . ."

The latest escapade on campus occurred last week at Southern Acres when an enterprising student allegedly decided to drive a University bus from VTI to the Glass Bar in Colp.

The usual disciplinary action will probably be taken against the student. Let's hope the administration takes into consideration, however, the routine of leaving keys in the ignition of buses overnight. Though this in no way justifies the act, it certainly makes surreptitious driving more handy.

A surprising number of persons called the office Tuesday, offering to donate blood to a lady who underwent surgery Wednesday. More than 25 called the office and scores of others called Holden Hospital.

The lady asked us to sincerely thank all those who offered aid. And we add a note of thanks to those who so generously and so quickly answered our call.

The Misinterpreted Cartoon

No, we weren't poking fun at the bus system.

A cartoon in Tuesday's Egyptian has apparently been misinterpreted by several people, through an oversight on our part.

The cartoon portrayed two people inside a bus, with the caption, "Well, they can't expect us to walk all the way out there."

Some people apparently thought we were taking a jab at the Greeks, who are practically the only students keeping the bus system alive. This is far from the truth. First, we have suggested strongly that the bus system be given a full quarter's trial, rather than a month; second, the cartoon was meant to depict the incident at VTI in which a student admitted driving an SIU bus from Southern Acres to the Glass Bar in Colp.

There was only one problem: the story concerning the incident at VTI was inadvertently left out of Tuesday's paper because of space difficulties. The cartoon thus had little meaning.

For those who interpreted the cartoon as a sarcasm in any way regarding the bus system, they are assured that we have nothing but the best regards and hopes for Southern's only mode of transportation.

Writer Didn't Investigate

Dear editor:

The article, "Nicaragua Schools Listen to Student Gripes, Professor Says," was the consequence of an interview made by one of the youthful Egyptian reporters with Dr. Morton, and not an article published by the latter professor.

The reporter put together what he thought were the highlights of his interview and thus the above mentioned article was written.

Dr. Morton is most certainly aware of what are called the "basic causes" of resentment between the United States and the Latin American countries. If you would have had the foresight to attend his lecture on "Our Time Limit in Nicaragua" Feb. 9, as one of your fellow Panamanians did, you would have heard your questions answered and it would thus have been unnecessary for you to submit this article to our University newspaper.

Sincerely, George Maier

We're pulling a slightly clandestine act this week by printing a picture of our favorite society editor, Mickey Sparks, who is walking the plank tomorrow night.

Mickey, pictured at right, will be married to Dale "Gus" Klaus, a staff photographer, in Wood River. Mickey, a junior, has been on the staff for three years.

"Gus," a veteran of the U.S. Navy, is a freshman majoring in business. The native of Highland was released from the Navy shortly after a plane in which he was a radioman crashed in the Pacific: He was the lone survivor.

If those Chinese signs say what somebody told Gus they say, he doesn't like it.

Gus sez buses might not be taken if the keys weren't left in them overnight.

Gus sez the narrow-mindedness portrayed in "Wingless Victory" reminded him very much of southern Illinois.

Likes Editorial, Wants More

Dear Editor:

I want to congratulate you on the editorial, "Don't Base SIU on Numbers." A large percentage of some of my classes are students who have been dropped by other universities because of low scholarship and their presence in the class is a hindrance to the progress of the good student.

Let us have more editorials on emphasis on quality, rather than quantity, as the measure of an educational institution.

hour classes which meet during the second period (7:35-9 or 9:15 p.m.) on Tuesday and/or Thursday—6 p.m. For classes which meet only on Thursday night, examinations will start when the class sessions normally start.

General Information

Examinations for three, four and five-credit hour classes will begin at the hours scheduled and will run two hours. Examinations for one and two-credit hour classes will begin two hours and ten minutes later and will run for one hour.

For example, a 9 a.m. class carrying four hours of credit will have its examination from 7:50-9:50 a.m. on Tuesday, March 14. A 9 a.m. class carrying two hours of credit will have its examination from 10-11 a.m.

A student who finds he has more than three examinations on one day may petition, and a student who has two examinations at one time should petition his academic dean for approval to take an examination during the make-up period on the last day.

Provision for such a make-up examination period does not mean that a student may decide to miss his scheduled examination time and make it up during this period. Only a student whose petition has been approved by his academic dean may use this make-up period.

A student who must miss a final examination may not take an examination before the time scheduled for the class examination. In the event a student misses a final examination and is not involved in a situation covered in the preceding paragraph, a "W" followed by the tentative grade with a "12" indicating the number of weeks attended, should be recorded on the grade report by the instructor.

A "W" grade must be completed within one year of the end of the quarter involved or it will remain as an incomplete grade.

Because some students who attend night classes may be unable to attend the examination period scheduled for the daytime, each department involved should arrange special examination periods for such students.

This problem involves those night students who are fully employed during the day and who are taking night courses because it is the only time they are able to do so.

Texas is empowered by Congress to divide itself into five separate states if it chooses.

Loren Gergens briefs two of his salesmen on new telephone services for business customers.

"I DIDN'T WANT TO BE STOCKPILED"

When Loren Gergens was working for his B.S. degree in Business Administration at the University of Denver, he had definite ideas about the kind of job he wanted to land. He was determined to profit from the experience of several of his friends who had accepted promising jobs only to find themselves in "manpower pools"—waiting to be pulled into a responsible position. "I didn't want to be stockpiled," Loren says. "That's no way to start."

As a senior, Loren talked to twelve companies and joined The Mountain States Telephone & Telegraph Company, an associated company of the Bell Telephone System.

From his first day challenges were thrown at him thick and fast. First, he supervised a group of service representatives who handle the communications needs of telephone customers. Then he served as manager of several telephone business offices. In these jobs Loren had to prove himself on the firing line, make right decisions and carry them through. He knew his next jump depended on only one man—Loren Gergens.

In July, 1960, he was made Sales Manager in Boulder, Colorado.

"I'm on the ground floor of a newly created telephone marketing organization. And I can tell you things are going to move fast!" Loren says. "It's rough at times, but hard work is fun when you know you're going somewhere—in a business where there's somewhere to go."

If you're interested in a job in which you can be your own prime mover—a job in which you're given a chance to show what you can do, right from the start—you'll want to visit your Placement Office for literature and additional information.

"Our number one aim is to have in all management jobs the most vital, intelligent, positive and imaginative men we can possibly find."

Illinois Gymnasts Here Tomorrow

Side Horse Key Event

Fred Orlofsky
Southern's 1960 Olympic gymnast

The battle for state and possibly national supremacy in gymnastics takes place tomorrow night in the SIU Men's Gym when Southern, with Olympian Fred Orlofsky, meet the University of Illinois. Meet time is 7:30 p.m.

Southern lost to Illinois earlier this season in Champaign, 67.5-44.5. At that time the Salukis were competing without Orlofsky who had gone to Penn State to join the U.S. Olympic team in an international meet against the Russians.

Pond's Record Outstanding
Illinois, coached by Charlie Pond, has won 11 straight Big Ten titles, four NCAA championships and has never finished lower than third in the NCAA meet. The Illini are 8-1 for the season with wins over Minnesota, Southern, Wisconsin, Iowa, Ohio State, Michigan State and Indiana. The lone loss was to Michigan's Wolverines, 62.5-49.5.

The Salukis, 8-3 for the campaign, have beaten Eastern Illinois twice and have scored single wins over Central Michigan, Minnesota, Ball State, Illinois State, Western Illinois and Navy Pier. SIU has lost to Michigan and Michigan State in addition to the Mighty Illini.

Side Horse Showdown
Tomorrow night's meet is expected to go right down to the wire with the lead changing hands from one event to the next. Illinois boasts one of the strongest side horse teams in the country. Southern also sports a potent side horse squad.

"This event (side horse) may be the key to the outcome of the entire meet," declared Saluki Coach Bill Meade. Illinois' three horsemen are Capt. Bill Lawler, Ray Hadley and Mike Aufrecht. Meade can counter with such stars as Bill Simms, Bob Kies, Bruno Klaus and Orlofsky.

Hadley, Holmes Lead Illini
Hadley copped last year's NCAA free exercise crown and the Big Ten's all-around title. The Illini roster also sports two-time National AAU and last year's Pan-American Games tumbling champ Hal Holmes.

Illinois lost stalwarts Pat Bird and Al Barasch at the end of the first semester but it picked up five Navy Pier transfers to more than take up the slack.

A look at each individual event shows that the Illini have the edge in tumbling with Holmes, but the Salukis are strong favorites on the still rings with Orlofsky, Ed Foster and Fred Tierina. Orlofsky's bad wrist will keep him from competing on the parallel bars so the two teams should be even in that event.

Southern Has Depth
The two teams are also equal on the trampoline. Free exercise should go to Illinois' Hadley but Southern's depth may make the difference. SIU is stronger on the high bar than is Hadley. The last event to look at is the side horse, and as was mentioned earlier, this is where the meet will probably be decided; both teams are strong on the side horse.

Judges for the 7:30 p.m. meet are former Illinois greats Pat Bird and Jon Culbertson, ex-Saluki Ed Hillyard of Carmi and Temple University graduate Bill Forr.

Meade's Saluki gymnasts won the Midwest Open in Chicago last December and thus were victorious over such teams as Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Michigan State and Minnesota. Southern and Illinois split two meets last year and will battle one another once again this year in April. Champaign, the home of the Fighting Illini, is the scene of this year's NCAA meet April 7-8.

Southern Meets Wesleyan Tomorrow

Southern's Saluki cagers close out the regular season tomorrow night in Owensboro, Ky. against the Kentucky Wesleyan Panthers. Game time for the contest is 8 p.m.

The Salukis defeated the Panthers here earlier in the season, 92-78. Southern is currently ranked third in the nation and the host Kentuckians are tabbed as the No. 10 quintet in small college circles.

SIU enters the game as a four-point underdog because of the home court advantage. The Panthers are led by All-American candidate Gary Auten, a pesky 5-8 guard, who cuts the nets at a 20-point plus average per game.

Wesleyan accomplished a feat this year in beating such round-ball specialists as Evansville College twice in one season. Two of its six setbacks have been close calls to potent Louisville. The Panthers have also handed Southeast Missouri State College one of its two losses.

Southern will be shooting for its 21st win of the season against four setbacks. SIU Coach Harry Gallatin is expected to go with the same lineup that he has employed throughout most of the campaign. Charlie Vaughn and Harold Bardo will start at the guard slots, Tom McGreal will handle the pivot duties, and Randy McClary and Capt. Don Hepler will start at the forward positions.

WSIU, Southern's FM radio voice, will broadcast the game direct from the Owensboro Sportscenter. Sportscaster Bob

Wrestlers Face Okla. Sooners

Coach Jim Wilkinson and his Southern Illinois matmen invade the University of Oklahoma campus tonight to battle the defending NCAA champions. This will mark the first meeting between the two schools.

The Sooners' hopes this season rest on Dale Lewis, NCAA and Big Eight heavyweight champion who carried a 20-1 record through last season. Lewis, among other honors, holds a heavyweight gold medal in the 1958 Pan-American Games at Chicago.

Other lettermen returning this year include Duwane Miller, Big Eight 123-pound champion in 1959 and Ray Johnson a 157-pound grappler.

Through grades, the Sooners have lost such standouts as George Goodner, NCAA 191-pound champ; David Campbell, NCAA runnerup at 177; Tony Macias, fourth in the NCAA at 123 pounds last year; Gerald Whitfield, 130 and 137 pounds undefeated; Jerry Tanner, a 115-pounder; and Jay Gregg, a letter winner in the 157-pound class.

Although losses have been heavy through scholastic ineligibility, some of the slack has been taken up by Wally Curtis, a 115-pound sophomore; Billy Carter, 137-pound sophomore who was National AAU champion (Olympic style) after graduating from high school; and 191-pound Von Henry.

Oklahoma's record for the 1961 season stands at 10-2-1. The two losses came to the hands of a powerful Oklahoma State, the only squad to defeat the Salukis this year.

Top Track Talent

Were you wondering how Southern could afford to send its AAU Saluki Track Club to Los Angeles and New York twice for indoor track classics? One trip to the West Coast cost $1,300.

An inquiry into the source of expense money for these coast-to-coast jaunts revealed that the sponsors and organizers of the indoor games pay the bills. Selection of the field for these meets is based on talent. So the caliber of Coach Lew Hartzog's thinclads apparently warrants such recognition.

Hartzog's trackmen, the mile relay team of Sonny Hoeker, Jim Dupree and brothers Don and Dave Styron, were slated for a return trip to Madison Square Garden this weekend. The trip has been cancelled due to the airline strikes.

What is next on the track club's busy schedule? Hartzog has indicated that he will enter the Chicago Daily News Games and the Cincinnati Knights of Columbus Meet.

No Sweat

Coach Jim Wilkinson has lost many front line performers on this year's Saluki wrestling squad but not all his losses can be attributed to scholastic problems. Wilkinson's charges have experienced more muscle problems of stiffness, pulls and bruises this year than in any other year.

Last year's taste of winter was more severe but not as long as this year's cold days. Southern's grappling forces practice every day in the quonset hut east of the gym. The temperature dipped below 40 in the hut throughout the entire cold spell.

The wrestlers have been unable to work up a sweat during practice sessions and therefore they have been unable to loosen their muscles, thus the numerous injuries that have sidelined such Saluki grapplers as heavyweight Houston Antwine.

Granted the wrestlers aren't large in number but some physical education classes are held there too. An enclosed corridor from the gym to the hut would be worthwhile and most certainly healthier than having to run outside in all kinds of weather from the gym to get to the hut.

WSIU is the radio voice of Southern. It is located at 91.9 on the FM dial.

Intramural Basketball Finals Tomorrow

By Dennis Herbert
Sports Reporter

Tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 the climax of the 1960-61 men's intramural basketball season will be reached with the all school championship game. The game will pair the two division champions who have moved successfully through the playoff tournament.

Leading the pack into the playoff games are the Southern Acres' Ridge Runners, which successfully swept the MRH division with a 6-0 record. The runners have been averaging 90 points a game. Other strong entries which hope to dethrone the Ridge Runners include Kappa Alpha Psi and the Dowell Cowboys.

To reach the final all-school playoffs, each team must win its classification tournament. The three classifications include Off-Campus, Fraternity, and MRH. Then the three winners will draw lots to determine the final pairings.

In the drawings for the first round Wesley Foundation (6-0), Troops A (7-0) and Doyle II (7-0) drew byes. In other action the Untouchables (7-1) meet the Bats (7-0). The second round pits Wesley Foundation against Troops A and Doyle II will play the winner of the only first round contest.

In the fraternity league, Kappa Alpha Psi will attempt to repeat as champions when they duel Sigma Pi. Pairings for the Men's Residence Hall's playoffs were not available at press time.

Saluki Cagers In Cape NCAA Regional Playoffs

Southern has been assigned to the Southwest regional of the NCAA college division basketball tournament at Cape Girardeau, Mo., March 10-11. The announcement was made yesterday morning by Harvey Chrouser, Wheaton College's athletic director and chairman of the regional tournaments.

The Saluki cagers will be favored to win the four-team elimination tourney and advance to the Evansville, Ind. finals March 16-18. Other teams selected for the Cape playoffs are the host Cape State Indians, Trinity College of San Antonio, Texas and a fourth team to be selected Monday afternoon.

Drawings for the tournament will be made at the same time the fourth team is added to the field.

Alpha Keglers Increase Lead

The league-leading Alphas, behind Morris Barefield's 477 series, swept four points from the Chemistry Department keggers Monday night to move within two points of clinching the second half championship.

The faltering chemists, the Monday night SIU Indee Bowling League first half champions, were led by Roger Beyler's 459.

In other action Doyle Dorm vacated the cellar by taking three points from second place Val Halla. Doyle won the series point by eking out a 2548 to 2536 victory. Doyle's Larry Baker was high man for the night with a sparkling 506, three-line total.

Brandon Dorm edged the American Chemical Society, 2502-2471 to collect three points. Don Burnett paced Brandon with a 488 series while Jerry Robine led the ACS with 441.

Newman Club swept four points from Bailey Hall who had its worst night of the year. Newman easily won the series 2391-2288. Dave Sheeks of Bailey and Bob Richter of Newman were high with 482 and 442, respectively.

The standings:

Team	W	L	Pts
Alphas	14	7	20
Val Halla	10	8	13
ACS	10	8	13
Newman Club	8	13	12
Jolli Rogers	9.5	8.5	11.5

Kudo's Research May Stop Those Pesky Mosquitoes

The shoeing, swatting, and spraying of mosquitoes may be a thing of the past in coming years, thanks to the research of Dr. Richard Kudo, visiting zoology professor.

In his laboratory, Dr. Kudo told of the research he plans to continue with the $118,000 National Institute of Health grant he was recently awarded.

Dr. Kudo, born in Japan, taught at the University of Illinois for 36 years and is one of the world's foremost protozoologists. He is a specialist in protozoan parasites and is considered a leading authority on the so-called "giant amoeba."

Species Found

parasites which infect various types of mosquitoes. He has, in fact, discovered so many parasites that a genus—Kudoa—is named after him.

Heavy infection from the microsporidian parasite can be fatal to the mosquito larvae by feeding from the stored fat of the host, he found, and causes the body to turn chalky white and become deformed. Closer observation showed that the parasite causes the nuclei in the host cells to become greatly enlarged.

The parasitic spores, less than 1/100 of a millimeter in length and spindle-shaped, could possibly be mixed with water or some other media for ease of spraying to control mosquitoes, according to Dr. Kudo. "But those things have to be worked out for the best medium," he said.

First In U.S.

Dr. Kudo, the first person in the United States to work with mosquitoes infected by microsporidia, said that at the time of his findings no one paid any attention to them because of the introduction of DDT and other chemicals for control.

Now, however, people are beginning to realize the bad effects of some insecticides and are interested in Kudo's work.

At a conference in Washington, D.C. last February at the Armed Forces Institute of Pathology, a great deal of interest was shown among conferencees on this group of parasites as a potential control measure of mosquitoes.

In addition to finding a way to control mosquitoes with microsporidia, Dr. Kudo hopes to learn more about the parasite itself.

There are still many mysteries about this tiny protozoan creature. Why the long hair-like filament, how long is the life cycle, and how many species of microsporidia actually occur in mosquitoes are just a few of the many basic questions that Dr. Kudo hopes to answer.

These walking signs were seen on campus recently, advertising the wares of Carbondale merchants. The sign-bearers are pledges of Alpha Delta Sigma, national advertising fraternity, who a few days later became active. Carrying the "sandwich

Cheerleader Applications Available

Talent is needed on the sidelines next fall.

Tryouts for this talent—namely cheerleaders and tumblers—will be held early next quarter, but applications will be available Monday at the Student Union information desk for those students who wish to try out for 1961-62 varsity cheerleaders corps.

Gail Miller, a current cheerleader and New Student Week chairman, said applicants will be screened and auditions will then be conducted. Deadline for submitting applications is the last day of final exams, March 18.

SIU's annual Photo Fair is set for the week of April 23 this year. The contest is sponsored by the department of printing and photography.

The contest this year will have two areas, one for weekly and daily newspapers, the other for individuals, said Dr. John Mercer, chairman of the sponsoring department.

Awards will be given the best weekly and daily newspaper on photo-journalism. First, second, third and honorable mentions will be awarded in the individual print competition.

The winning pictures in each division will be displayed in the library for two weeks.

Entries are being accepted now and entry forms may be obtained from the department of printing and photography, Mercer said.

"We have entries from area people mainly, but we have gotten some from Virginia and even the West Coast," Mercer said.

Speaker for the opening day of the Photo Fair will be Wilbert Garrett, assistant illustration editor for "National Geographic Magazine." A coffee hour will be held after Garrett's speech.

Elections, Parties Keep Greeks Busy

Ballots were cast at the ALPHA GAMMA DELTA sorority house and Linda Taylor was elected president. The sisters chose Sandy Kihlmire as first vice president and Sandy Irmis as second VP.

Other election winners include Mary Lou Whitelock, recording secretary; Brenda Scalet, corresponding secretary; Judy Valente, treasurer; Kay Chase, house manager; Jean Olsen, activities chairman and Phyllis Racina, altruistic chairman.

The new officers will be installed next term. An officer workshop will be held until then.

The sisters of SIGMA KAPPA have been busy lately, party-wise. A slumber party was held with the Alpha Gams Friday night and an exchange themed "The Untouchables" with the Tekes Sunday evening at the Sig Kap house.

A new pledge, Karen Rambeau, has been added to the Sig Kap pledge class.

PHI SIGMA KAPPA has also "adopted" some pledges. They are Gordon Cummings, Bill Munnion, Hank Harper and John Logan.

More election returns—the TEKE winter pledge class has elected Wayne Barber, president and Doug Proctor, vice president. Jim Wattleworth will scribe as secretary and Steve Wilson, treasurer, will keep a close eye on the pledge class' finances. Don Kerr, social chairman, will be busy arranging parties for the pledges.

Tekes Jerry Ferguson, Don Funkhouser, Tom Weth, John Drew and Tom Mowatt are hard at work on Greek Week committees.

TX Fred Davis is serving on a committee for the Greek Week festivities.
