Easter Egg Time Again

Graduating Students Must Have Forms Complete by May 4

Students have until May 4 to file formal application for graduation in the Records Section of the Registrar's Office. No applications will be accepted less than five weeks before the June 7 commencement date.

To apply, students must secure and complete application forms from the Registrar's Office.

Upon completing the forms, students are required to pay a $17 graduation fee at the Bursar's Office. Candidates for the Ph.D. degree must pay an additional $30 fee for microfilming. An additional $5 fee is assessed if the dissertation is to be copyrighted.

Students attending under certain scholarships do not pay the fee but must file an application. If students have any questions concerning fee payment, they may check with the Registrar's Office.

Students must also be measured for cap and gown at the University Book Store. If a student is not in residence this term, he may order his cap and gown by writing the bookstore, giving his name, height, weight, head size and name of the degree to be conferred.

Students completing an approved teacher education program and wishing to apply for an Illinois state teaching certificate must request an application of entitlement at the Dean of the College of Education.

24,500 Reservists Receive Orders for Active Duty

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford on Thursday called up 24,500 reservists, 10,000 of whom will go to Vietnam under the first announced reserve mobilization for the war.

It will bring the authorized U.S. manpower ceiling there to 549,500, but Clifford said the South Vietnamese Army is being geared to take over the major part of the fighting.

At the same time the new defense chief indicated clearly the administration is watching the implications of its partial halt to the bombing of North Vietnam as well as the possibilities of a full cessation.

The reserve call-up affects 88 Army, Navy and Air Force Reserve and Guard units in 34 states. The men are being notified immediately to report to duty within 30 days for up to 24 months' service.

The Army is calling 20,000 men in 76 Guard and Reserve outfits.

The Navy is calling 1,000 in two Reserve units which will rotate between the United States and Southeast Asia.

The Air Force is mustering 3,500 in 10 Air National Guard and Air Force Reserve units.

Aside from this "no decision has been made at this time as to whether additional reserve forces will be called," Clifford declared in his first formal news conference since succeeding Robert S. McNamara six weeks ago.

"The President has made an offer to Hanoi to start a planned program of de-escalation."

About 10 days ago defense officials said an over-all call-up of 60,000 to 65,000 might be in order in coming months, mainly to bolster the nation's home-based strategic reserve pool.

Salukis May Play Game In St. Louis' Busch Stadium

Student support for a proposal to play one of the 1968 home football games in St. Louis rather than Carbondale is being sought by Donald Boydston, director of athletics.

Boydston explained that HELP, Inc., a St. Louis civic development organization, has asked SIU to be the home team in a charity game against Southwest Missouri State at Busch Memorial Stadium Nov. 23.

Boydston said the move would require the elimination of a game already scheduled against Southwest Missouri at Carbondale.

Announcement of the proposal was made by Boydston at Wednesday night's meeting of the Student Senate.

He indicated that the game would have a good deal of promotional value for SIU, with the team and the Marching Salukis appearing.

He told the senators that St. Louis merchants have already promised to furnish discounts to students shopping in the city game day.

Community Helps Area Family Get 'New' House

Through the efforts of residents of Carbondale and five nearby communities, an indigent Murphysboro family received a four-room home Thursday.

The house, previously owned by SIU, was taken off the state property control section's list of buildings to be demolished. Thus the project started as community residents and businessmen assisted the family in purchasing the house and moving it to Murphysboro.

After the house was dropped from jacks to a house-moving trailer, it was hauled seven miles to its present site in Murphysboro.

Mrs. Sallee Kirk, wife of Frank Kirk, Carbondale city councilman and advisor to the resident at SIU, initiated the rescue operation for the Knights. She found out about a house that SIU had scheduled for demolition in a campus improvement program.

A Carbondale firm agreed to move it at cost ($900), the Job Corps Center contributed re-location labor and residents of Murphysboro, Carbondale and other communities provided money to pay the mover.

An identical operation is underway to benefit a second family. Mrs. Kirk described this family as one "at the most fundamental level of poverty." The house which has been moved was on SIU's property rolls and was one of more than 200 temporary buildings at SIU.

Understanding Between Races

The warning of the National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders that only massive spending and a marked change in the racial attitudes of whites could prevent the split of our nation into two societies—one black and one white—seems to have recently been affirmed with the outbreak of violence and looting in cities across the nation.

Stating that white racism is essentially responsible for the explosive mixture that has been accumulating in the nation's cities since the end of World War II, the report contends that the national administrations have been trying since that time to reduce the barriers that keep the Negro separate and unequal from White America. Army and school desegregation are cited as examples.

The long-delayed civil rights bill, which was passed in Congress this week, further reduces racial barriers and should serve as a memorial to the late Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King. It was King's belief that legislation in the areas of employment, housing and education was necessary to solve racial injustice, an injustice that long has plagued Black Americans.

With the Congressional action on the bill, with its vital open housing section, some White Americans will probably say that the marchers should be satisfied because they got what they want.

But an understanding between races must be achieved before the most massive spending can be effective. And a good place to begin in gaining this understanding would be the reading of Gov. Otto Kerner's report. This report negates false stereotypes of lawless rioters, arsonists and good-for-nothings on welfare. It lets individuals ponder what they would do under similar conditions.

Warning System Not Faulty

At 8:15 p.m. on Wednesday, April 3, a tornado apparently passed over Carbondale. Anyone who took the time to tour Reed's Station area northeast of Carbondale will attest to this fact.

Carbondale and SIU did not have sufficient evidence to justify the sounding of the Warning Siren at the University for this particular storm.

In checking the U.S. Weather teletype in the Civil Defense office for the time period of 5:45 to 10 p.m. for April 3, there was no information concerning a tornado warning for our area. The Illinois Highway Police did alert the area and SIU concerning the possible severe thunderstorms. The SIU Security Office did not receive information to be relayed to the Action Central Committee.

The tornado warning for East Jackson, Williamson and Franklin Counties that was issued was issued after the tornado struck east of Carbondale.

After the severe thunderstorm watch was received at SIU at approximately 8:15 p.m., the U.S. Weather Bureau, Cairo, was called by telephone. The weather bureau at Cairo confirmed the weather bulletin which had come from the Illinois Highway Police.

Southern Illinois University depends upon U.S. Weather to furnish us information about possible severe weather. Through the years, we have had excellent cooperation and most reliable information from the U.S. Weather Bureau.

Tornadoes start somewhere and it appears that this particular storm dropped from the sky just east of Carbondale. It is not possible for anyone to predict just where such a storm will begin. We attempt to point out this particular problem in the SIU Civil Defense and Storm Warning Plan on pages 16 and 17.

Certainly, our problem is much easier when tornadoes occur during daylight hours or when the tornado is observed on the ground and reliably reported to us. This was not the case on Wednesday, April 3.

The SIU Warning System was tested on March 13 and on April 2. It will be sounded on the first Tuesday of each month at 10:30 a.m. as is provided by Illinois Law. The siren can be heard outside the buildings over the entire campus. It is not as satisfactory as had been anticipated, however, the present system of alerting will be increased in the near future.

Our Warning System is good. It is handled by human beings capable of making mistakes and who depend upon others for information during such adverse times.

The students, faculty and staff can rest assured that the siren will be sounded to give warning when we have evidence to justify such use. We do not intend to use this warning device without sufficient cause.

Frank Bridges, Coordinator Civil Defense and Storm Warning

Letters Welcome

It is the policy of the Daily Egyptian to encourage free discussion of current problems and issues. Members of the University Community are invited to participate with members of the news staff and students enrolled in journalism courses in contributing items for this page with the understanding that acceptance for publication will depend upon the limitations of space and the apparent timeliness and relevance of the material. Letters must be signed, preferably typed and should be no longer than 250 words. Contributors should respect the generally accepted standards of good taste and the rights of others and are urged to make their points in terms of issues rather than personalities. It is the responsibility of the Egyptian to select the material to be used. Contributors also should include address and phone number with a letter so that the identity of the author can be verified.

Letters

'I Have a Dream'

To the Daily Egyptian:

On August 28, 1963, the Reverend Martin Luther King delivered an address in Washington, D.C., to the thousands who were gathered to demonstrate for Negro rights. The following is an excerpt from that speech:

"I have a dream that one day on the red hills of Georgia, the sons of former slaves and the sons of former slave-owners will be able to sit down together at the table of brotherhood. I have a dream that even the state of Mississippi, a state sweltering with the heat of oppression, will be transformed into an oasis of freedom and justice. I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will be judged not by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character."

Was that too much to ask? I think not.

Christ Deserves Respect, Too

To the Daily Egyptian:

Earlier this week this bulletin from President Delyte Morris went to the faculty and staff of SIU:

"On Monday, April 8, Southern Illinois University will suspend its activities between the hours of 10 and 11 a.m. in memory of Dr. Martin Luther King . . ."

This was a thoughtful and appropriate expression of respect by President Morris.

However, I am sure that Dr. King would have preferred that students not neglect possible educational advancement opportunities at that time. I feel that none of the people of Carbondale regret the time given to them to pay respects and embed in their minds the memory of this sad occasion.

But let me ask you this President Morris: If we can have time to ponder about this tragedy, should we forget about the death of Christ, the savior of all races by attending

Letter Reversing Bigotry

To the Daily Egyptian:

Despite the urgings of my particular sense of what appropriately constitutes a memorial service, I shall not question the propriety of some of the remarks made in the SIU Arena on Monday in respect to the late Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Style is relegated to individual taste; therefore, it is the content of Mr. Lenzi's and Mr. Thomas' remarks that I now react to.

At the ceremony, I was told that I am a white man and, as a white man, I am guilty of the heinous crimes committed against the American Negro, past and present. For these crimes, I must pay, perhaps with my life (among the "ten dead white men" for every "dead nigger"), but assuredly with the universal stigma of "racism" and "bigotry" being stamped upon every man who happens to be white.

The privileges of a comfortable middle-class existence and the virtual isolation from the Black community have denied me an authentic sense of the plight of the poor and the Negro in our society. But, despite these circumstances, I feel that I can empathize, I can identify, I can promote the ideals and the changes hailed by Dr. King and his fellow-travelers. And, I am not alone.

What bothers me most at this time is the increasing tendency to make universal judgements, to reverse the bigotry, which, in any direction or form, is tragically demoralizing. Because of my obvious whiteness, no matter how blind to color may be my own heart, I am told that I am hateful and oppressive.

Where does this lead me? Am I to waste my energies on defensiveness, on pleas for forgiveness, on a turnaround of servitude? If perhaps no longer needed, am I now no longer wanted to join the quest for Dr. King's dream? Or, has his dream of "black boys and girls . . . and white boys and girls . . . together" been abandoned in favor of a nightmare of spite and revenge? Where do I stand (or am I doomed to fall) in this new odyssey?

Larry S. Beyna

classes all day this Friday (Good Friday)? What about the respects that you and I owe Him?

It is against my religious principles and religious convictions, as well as my better judgement to dig ditches, attend classes, build buildings, or anything of this nature on Good Friday.

But here I am, a student at SIU, compelled to attend classes on this day. An engineering major can not afford to take a day or even an afternoon off if the President of this University says that classes will meet for the benefit of those who do not appreciate or maybe do not realize what Easter means. I know there are many others who feel like I do about this. Should we riot?

Who do we have to thank for everything good we have? Is it John Lennon, Martin Luther King or Jesus Christ?

Hanoi-- A Hard Nut to Crack

By Antero Pietila

Hope for peace now seems to be one common, although still a relatively small, denominator between Washington and Hanoi. But there is also another thing they share. As eagerly as they may wish negotiations for their own reasons and in their own terms, both are facing considerable problems once the talks begin, and even before.

Peking promptly warned Hanoi not to conduct any negotiations and repeated its harangue against "the U.S.-Soviet plot." But even if it has welcomed aid regardless of the source, Hanoi has not forgotten the menace China has traditionally caused to Indochina.

Certainly there is a division to "hawks" and "doves" within the Hanoi alliance with the National Liberation Front, certainly the tough ideological line of Peking has its advocates there, too. But as so often before in history, war and external danger have kept Hanoi unified without visible major factions. And what's more important, Hanoi has retained independence from Peking although the allurements of closer ties may have been considerable from time to time.

Political Tension

Of the political tension between Saigon and Washington, we are aware. It is nothing new if one only remembers the distrust that was quite openly voiced in Saigon before and during the Honolulu Conference. Today that distrust deriving from fear of American "sellout" to the communists is only much stronger.

But at the same time the possibility is easily overlooked that Hanoi perhaps struggles with the very same problem. National Liberation Front, Vietcong's political arm, has so often been synonymized as some kind of euphemism for the Hanoi regime that it has been only too easy to forget that it cannot be considered as a Northern puppet only.

It must be remembered that Hanoi was first openly hostile toward NLF when this new organization in 1958 began fighting the Ngo Dinh Diem government of South Vietnam. The clandestine NLF radio station then was accused by Hanoi of "using their broadcasts to distort Marxist-Leninist theories" and its "vildest slander and distortion of the truth" was constantly attacked.

Of course, NLF eventually harbored to Hanoi's favor. Yet American scholars George McTurman Kahin and John W. Lewis maintain in their "The United States in Vietnam" that the insurrection is Southern-rooted and arose at Southern-initiative in response in Southern demands.

Kahin and Lewis write, "The Liberation Front gave political articulation and leadership to the widespread reaction against the harshness and heavyhandedness of Diem's government. It gained drive under the stimulus of Southern Vietminh veterans who felt betrayed by the Geneva Conference and abandoned by Hanoi.

"After the withdrawal of their troops to the North these Southern Vietminh were left with no effective means for enforcing the political terms of the armistice—either the conducting of the elections or protection against reprisal. They were denied the promised opportunity to reassert their political ascendancy through elections and then savagely persecuted for their past political affiliations.

"Not surprisingly, they lost patience with the communist North and finally took matters into their own hands. Hanoi, despite its reluctance, was then obliged to sanction the Southerners' action or risk forfeiting all chance of influence over the course of events in South Vietnam."

This opinion can be contested as has been done in documents published by Washington. These documents also said that the war in Vietnam is not a civil war but an external aggression thus underrating the popular support of NLF in the South. If it really aims at some kind of political compromise solution in Vietnam, Washington must, however, accept the existence of NLF

Shanks, Buffalo Evening News

as a separate political unit that in one form or other has the right to political activity in the South without being constantly branded as Hanoi's agent. And as it now appears, it is ready to do this. If we subscribe to the interpretation of NLF's historical background in the form Kahin and Lewis give it and also believe NLF still today has a will of its own that not always is identical with Hanoi's plans, we must sense that this may still cause much trouble to Hanoi and Washington.

Hanoi Against NLF

What may be good to Hanoi may not be agreeable to NLF. This kind of a situation then would be parallel to that now existing between Washington and Saigon when the Thieu-Ky regime fears a sellout. It is NLF and Saigon that have something concrete at stake, Hanoi and Washington are after all, outsiders.

Long ago some knowledgeable French pointed out the seeds of heterogeneity within the Hanoi alliance. Not all of those seeds are political: there has been an unending controversy between the indigenous Southerners and Northerners that has not always been confined to within the NLF.

It is interesting that Saigon is split by the very same problem of regionalism as Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky, for instance, is Northerner and Catholic in a Southern and predominantly Buddhist country.

Despite the immense air power the United States has in Vietnam it has proved to be less effective than was expected, simply because an agricultural society like that of North Vietnam cannot be bombed to its knees without heavy civilian toll, so heavy indeed that it would not be politically possible.

It has also become clear that the number of American troops in combat duty in South Vietnam will never be sufficiently large to reach the ten-to-one ratio required to defeat a guerrilla force. And despite an accusation this week by a Saigon newspaper that "American strategy in war and peace continues to be hopelessly irrelevant" the indigenous South Vietnamese war effort has remained hopeless itself.

Now after the Tet offensive Washington has driven the Thieu-Ky government into action. Of course it was nice of President Thieu to announce that he is considering a national mobilization if the communist action still continues in the fall but why was this not done before? And the basic phlegmatism is still there with crash programs that begin with fanfare and end as sole tokenism. It is in this situation that President Thieu rejected the possibility of a coalition government and assured that his government is going to continue fighting.

To round up the political tragicomedy of the Saigon regime he boasted this week that should Americans discontinue their help to his government, "South Vietnam will find new allies."

Negotiations Difficult

If there will be any negotiations coming they will be most difficult. Hanoi is very sensitive and stubborn at the same time as its insistence on Phnom Penh as a location for talks shows. In 1952, at the Geneva Conference it got much less than it thought it was entitled to. Ho knows he is alone. Wrote Bernard Fall in "Last Reflections on a War."

"As Ho looks at the world, his trust (in Stalin, in China, in the French in 1946, and in the Geneva participants of 1954) has always been betrayed. And when it became clear that the reunification elections which were to take place in 1956 were not going to be held, the callous non-support by both Red China and Russia must have been an eye-opener to him as to how much trust he could place in his closest allies once their most essential interests were not involved in an issue which, nevertheless, involved an essential Vietnamese interest."

Students Display Science Projects

An estimated 266 science projects by area high schools will be on display at SIU Saturday.

The Southern District of the Illinois Junior Academy of Science will sponsor an exhibit of scientific experiments and projects as part of its all-day annual fair at SIU. It will be open to the public from 1 to 4 p.m. in the University School Gymnasium.

Eugene McCarthy Campaign Center Opens Saturday

The grand opening of the Southern Illinois McCarthy For President Committee headquarters, 209 E. Main, Carbondale, will be held Saturday from 1 to 4 p.m.

The public will have an opportunity to meet candidates for the 21st Congressional district delegation to the Democratic National Convention.

They are George McClure, and Bob Hunter. Also attending will be the alternate candidates, Eugina Handler and Robert Griffin. They will be pledged to Sen. Eugene McCarthy.

The committee, formed in Carbondale about a month ago, hopes all persons interested in working for Sen. Eugene McCarthy's nomination will stop by the Headquarters Saturday and volunteer their time. Refreshments will be served.

Student Awarded Fulbright Grant

Ruth Marie Craig, an SIU graduate assistant in Spanish, has been awarded a Fulbright Grant for study abroad.

Miss Craig was informed by Julian L. Nugent Jr., director of the Office of Inter-American Programs of the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, that she has received a grant for 12 months of study at Catholic University, Lima, Peru.

The grant includes international travel, maintenance, allowance for books and tuition, and authorized travel within Peru. Also included in the grant is a provision for attendance at an orientation program in Washington, D.C. from June 23 to 29. The arrival date in Peru is set at August 1.

William E. Nickel, SIU associate professor of physics and Southern District co-chairman, said the exhibits will be judged in the morning by a group of 25 senior faculty members and 25 graduate students representing 14 different academic fields at the fair.

Nickel said the 40 best projects will be selected for showing at the Academy's state-wide fair at the University of Illinois sometime in May.

In the afternoon, the young scientists will elect a slate of officers and see a series of science films at Furr Auditorium in University School.

James R. Keith, president of the Illinois Junior Academy of Science, will present awards and certificates acknowledging the participation of all entries. The best project will receive a scholarship award from SIU.

U.S. Balks at Proposed Meeting Site

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States balked Thursday at a North Vietnamese proposal for meetings in Warsaw, saying it prefers a neutral site rather than the capital of Communist Poland.

The White House complained, too, about what it portrayed as Red efforts to score propaganda points in the jockeying over where to hold peace-talk preliminaries.

And it invited Hanoi to respond instead to an earlier U.S. proposition to get discussions going in a non aligned locale such as Burma, India, Indonesia or Laos.

Warsaw was not finally ruled out but the United States obviously will try hard for another site.

Presidential press secretary George Christian set forth the current U.S. stance after the official Soviet news agency Tass first disclosed North Vietnam's newest site offer.

The failure of the opposing sides to agree on a location so far, more than a week after they publicly announced a readiness to talk, foreshadowed even greater difficulties for any real negotiations on ending the Southeast Asia conflict.

Christian said the U.S. government received a diplomatic message from Hanoi proposing Warsaw as the meeting place only after it had first read the item in a Tass dispatch.

"On serious matters of this kind it is important to conduct talks in a neutral atmosphere fair to both sides."

Rights Bill Signed Into Law by LBJ

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson signed into law the civil rights and open housing bill Thursday in a White House ceremony exactly one week after the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. touched off looting and rioting in slums across the land.

"Now with this bill, the voice of justice speaks again," Johnson told scores of civil rights leaders, government officials, and members of Congress who crowded the East Room for the ceremony.

The bill, on which the House completed Congressional action Wednesday, makes it a federal crime to interfere with anyone trying to exercise his civil rights.

When fully effective in 1970 it will outlaw discrimination in the sale and rental of 80 per cent of the nation's housing units.

The applause that greeted the President and Mrs. Johnson as they entered the East Room was loud, enthusiastic and sustained.

There was another outburst of applause when Johnson declared the whole nation was outraged by the violence visited on civil rights advocates and by the slaying of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

FBI Silent on Rumors About King's Slaying

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—The FBI maintained a steadfast silence Thursday in the face of queries, rumors and reports about the gun and the bullet which killed Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. here a week ago.

It refused comment on whether:

--Ballistics tests matched the bullet with a rifle found near the scene.

--Firearms dealers in Birmingham, Ala., had been questioned about sales of Remington rifles.

Both reports have been published, but the FBI says they did not originate with its agents.

Shortly after King's assassination one week ago, police found a 30-06 rifle with a telescopic sight one block away.

Guy Canipe, owner of an amusement company, told newsmen he saw a man drop a package in front of his store and drive away in a white automobile. He said he did not see the man's face. "I looked down and saw the barrel of a gun sticking out of a package," he said.

The New York Post reported Thursday that the fatal bullet was so badly deformed on impact that the FBI was having difficulty determining if it was fired from the rifle Canipe saw discarded.

Dug-in Enemy Repels Three U.S. Army Attacks

SAIGON (AP) — With the rest of South Vietnam quiet, U.S. air cavalrymen battled vainly Thursday to reoccupy the Khe Sanh outpost at Lang Vei, where they marched in unopposed the day before.

Three companies of the U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division had retired to a bivouac near Lang Vei Wednesday night, possibly because they found the Special Forces camp a charnel house of unburied bodies from the fierce fighting there in February.

When the cavalrymen came back in the morning as part of a sweep to drive the North Vietnamese back across the border, they ran into a storm of machine gun and rifle fire.

They found at least a company of North Vietnamese, possibly 80 men, had occupied the trenches and ruined bunkers of Lang Vei during the night.

The cavalrymen pulled back, and U.S. artillery and planes blasted the camp that had been left in ruins when North Vietnamese tanks and troops over-ran it Feb. 7. At least five North Vietnamese were seen to run from the bunkers of Lang Vei to the safety of a ridge to the west. But three times the troopers tried to storm the camp between artillery barrages. Each time they were thrown back.

Casualties on both sides were not estimated, but Capt. Douglas Verdier, commanding the cavalry company, said: "We killed a lot of them, I know." Verdier thought the North Vietnamese stand at Lang Vei was to cover the retreat of the enemy's 325th Division.

Violence Continues

K.C. Tightens Curfew

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Officials tightened curfew regulations Thursday but decided against calling in more National Guard troops as Kansas City waited a possible third straight night of racial violence.

Police reported wounding one man on the Negro East Side, but the day otherwise was calm.

Mayor Irlus W. Davis imposed a third consecutive curfew from 7 p.m. until 6 a.m.

Sales of guns, ammunition and gasoline in containers were halted and liquor stores, taverns and service stations closed at 5 p.m. Similar curfews were adopted in the suburbs.

Missouri Gov. Warren E. Hearnes conferred with the mayor and said the nearly

Riots May Cost $45 Million Bill

NEW YORK (AP)—Civil disorders since the assassination of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. may cost insurance companies $45 million or more.

The American Insurance Association and the General Adjustment Bureau said Thursday the estimate was "up to date as of Wednesday" and was "conservatively estimated."

3,000 Guardsmen could handle the situation.

Over 1,000 Kansas National Guardsmen are on alert in adjacent Kansas City, Kan.

Hearnes said the Missouri Guard has about 1,300 other men it could call to reinforce 940 policemen and 200 highway patrolmen.

The governor defended Kansas City police from criticism by Negro leaders and some white clergymen that police touched off the trouble by using tear gas too readily.

Clashes began Tuesday when police used tear gas to break up a crowd of youths who marched on City Hall on the day of funeral for Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Tuition to Be Paid

Study-Seminar Scheduled in Germany

The Departments of Government and Foreign Languages are cooperating to present a summer of study abroad in German government, according to H. A. Hartwig, professor of foreign language.

The program will run from June 17 to Aug. 27 with all participants receiving tuition scholarships.

The three courses being offered are Government 454 for eight hours credit; German 201 for nine hours credit; and German 304 for 12 hours credit.

The government and German classes will share quarters in a villa on the banks of the Rhine River, Hartwig said.

Hartwig emphasized that students enrolled in the German government course do not have to know German. Classes will hear lectures in English only. Officials of the West German government will be guest lecturers, but they will also speak in English.

Weekends and two weeks at the end of the course period will be free for individual exploration in Europe, Hartwig said.

Hartwig will instruct the courses in German, while Orville Alexander, professor of government, will instruct the government class.

Additional information concerning the study abroad may be obtained by contacting Alexander or Hartwig. Students are encouraged to make application for the trip by April 15.

Hartwig will show slides of Germany with comments about the summer study group at 7:30 p.m. April 22 in Room 101, Lawson.

Seniors Can Apply for Career Exam

Agencies of the Illinois state government are seeking SIU seniors who are interested in taking the Illinois Professional Career Entry Examination April 20, Placement Services has announced.

John McQuown, representing the Illinois Department of Geology Lecture Set for Monday

Set for Monday

Francis G. Stehli, chairman of the Department of Geology at Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio, will discuss exploration techniques of interest in the petroleum industry at a meeting arranged by the SIU Department of Geology Monday. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. in Room 166, Agricultural Building.

Stehli, sponsored by the American Association of Petroleum Geologists, will lecture on "Paleoecological Reconstruction of Depositional Environments—Some Techniques of Possible Petroleum Interests."

Personnel, will be available at the Placement Services office, 511 South Graham, College Square, Building B, to interview and counsel interested students.

Students completing the examination will be placed on job lists for each position in which they qualify. Job areas exist in a wide range of educational fields, including biological sciences, business administration, conservation, engineering and social sciences.

Students should make appointments with McQuown through the Placement Services office and make arrangements through Tom Oliver, Testing Services, to take the exam.

Students Will Discuss Jr. College Transfer

Five SIU upperclassmen will discuss what it's like to transfer from junior to senior college in a panel discussion scheduled during the annual Junior College Guest Day April 19.

Attracts Record Crowds

Movie Fans Like Sex, Violence

By David M. Phillips

What made "The Graduate" and "Bonnie and Clyde" so popular as movies? It was sex and violence, according to Tony Luckenbach, manager of the Varsity Theatre.

"The Graduate" was perfectly tailored for the college student, Luckenbach remarked. Young people could identify with the young man just leaving college, he said.

"The Graduate" ran six weeks at the Varsity according to Luckenbach and it was responsible for "the most fantastic attendance and longest run in the history of Carbondale," he continued, "Repeat attendance" was responsible for the six-week stint Luckenbach said. "One couple stopped me one night to tell me that this was their eighth time to see it," he remarked.

Where "The Graduate" left off in sex, "Bonnie and Clyde" picked up in violence. "Violence starts with fairy stories" Luckenbach said. It ran three weeks. Last Wednesday would definitely be the last day, he remarked earlier. "Bonnie and Clyde" ran well on a second run basis for two weeks, according to Luckenbach.

The violence played a big part in bringing people in, and the fad of the old clothes and background music was also a factor, he remarked. The original opinion of the critics was not favorable, but they later reversed themselves and this also encouraged people to see the picture, he said.

Luckenbach emphasized that violence is not really a bad thing today. People can release their aggressions in the theatre, without becoming dangerous to anyone else, he said. "Bonnie and Clyde" proved that "those who live by the sword shall perish by the sword," Luckenbach said. "Sex and violence are tremendous drawing cards," he concluded. They will "outdraw non-sex and non-violence every time."

"Thoroughly Modern Millie" will follow "Bonnie and Clyde" Luckenbach added. This will provide a break in the violence he said, noting that "In Cold Blood" will follow "Thoroughly Modern Millie."

"You merchandise what the public asks for," Luckenbach said. Sex and violence is it.

Fan Support to Decide Future of Tournament

The future of SIU's Governor's Baseball Tournament may depend on the attendance at this weekend's affair.

The two-day tournament, scheduled to get underway at 10 a.m. Friday, could be dropped in the future if the fans' support is not sufficient.

"The tournament is an expensive part of our (baseball) budget," Coach Joe Lutz said. "We want to continue having the tournament, and would also like to expand with more clubs, providing the students like this type of affair."

The tourney will feature SIU, Air Force Academy, Concordia College of Nebraska and Moorhead State of Minnesota.

Lutz expects Air Force to be the chief obstacle to Southern's gaining a second straight championship.

Air Force lost to Arizona State in last year's NCAA regional. Arizona State went on to become the national champion. This year, the Academy has split a double-header with ASU. SIU, in comparison, split four games with ASU.

Lutz expects the Air Force-Southern game at 1:30 p.m. Friday to be the toughest one of the tourney for SIU.

Concordia has the nucleus of a fine ball club, with several players back from last year, and Lutz rates the Nebraska team as the darkhorse.

Moorhead finishes in the first division of its conference last year, and the team has most of its players back.

In addition to the Air Force-Southern game, the rest of Friday's schedule is Moorhead vs. Concordia, 10 a.m., and Air Force vs. Moorhead 20 minutes after the AFA-SIU game is completed.

Saturday's slate shows SIU vs. Moorhead at 10 a.m., Air Force vs. Concordia at 1 p.m. and SIU vs. Concordia 20 minutes after that contest.

The pitching rotation for SIU in the tournament will see Bob Ash in Friday's game, John Susce in the Saturday morning contest and possibly Skip Pitlock in the afternoon game.

Pitlock has been out the past three weeks with a tender arm, and Lutz is hoping the junior lefthander will be ready.

"The pitching staff will receive a shot in the arm when he returns," Lutz said. "When he is back in top form, he should be doing better than his record now indicates."

Pitlock has a 1-1 record with an earned run average of 5.50 per game. He has given up 21 walks in 18 innings.

SIU Woman's Golf Team Schedules WRA Tryouts

Women interested in participating in WRA golf should attend an orientation meeting at 3 p.m. Friday in the Women's Gym, according to Coach Charlotte West.

Miss West has scheduled four big tests for the team. On May 3 and 4 the team will travel to Normal (Ill.) for the fifth Invitational Golf Meet. Universities from the Midwest have received invitations. SIU is the defending champion.

Other meets on the agenda are: a dual meet at Western Illinois on May 11, the Midwest Intercollegiate at Michigan State on May 18, and an invitational meet here on May 25.

Six girls boast chances for the team. Dot Germain, a junior transfer from Monticello College, leads the list as a low-to-high 70 hitter. Others are: Paula Smith, Belleville, Lynn Hastie, Carterville; Cherie Smith, Graylake; Becky Daron, Robinson; and Janet Mercer, Carmi.

Miss Germain, Paula Smith and Miss Hastie will represent Southern in the National Intercollegiate Golf Tournament at Duke University, June 16-22.

SIU Tennis Team Schedules Two Meets This Weekend

SIU will face its two toughest tennis foes of the season this weekend when the netmen take on Indiana at 2 p.m. today and Oklahoma City at 2 p.m. Saturday.

"These will be by far the better matches of the season," Coach Dick LeFevre said. Indiana was the team that kept SIU from having an undefeated season last year, and Oklahoma City nearly beat SIU for the OGU Invitational title at Oklahoma City last week.

Indiana is led by Canadian Dave Brown. He is the Hoosiers' top man and is a tough opponent, according to LeFevre.

OCU is paced by Colin Robinson, twice voted the tennis player of the year in Oklahoma; Brian Wilkinson, an Australian, and Karl Coombes, Aussie Junior Champion in 1966.

SIU's lineup remains the same, with Jose Villarete in the number one spot, followed by Mike Sprengelmeyer, Fritz Gildemeister, Macky Dominguez, Johnny Yang and Jay Maggiore.

Southern will debut its new master scoreboard which totals team and individual scores. "Competition against these teams (Indiana and OCU) is bound to improve our play," LeFevre said.

Bond's Grand Slam Helps SIU Win, 14-3

SIU had its hitting clothes on for the third straight day as Southern easily handed Wisconsin State its second setback of the season, 14-3, Thursday at the SIU Field.

In two previous games, SIU had scored 23 runs and had gotten 24 hits.

The Salukis were sparked by Jerry Bond, who drove in five runs, four on a inside-the-park, grand-slam home run in the sixth inning. Bond's other RBI came when he was hit by a pitch with the bases loaded in the fourth.

Other hitting stars for Southern were Terry Brumfield and Jerry Smith, both with three hits apiece. Brumfield and Smith each banged out two singles and a double.

In all, the Salukis garnered 12 hits in pushing their season's record to 12-10 going into the Governor's Tournament which starts today at the SIU Field.

SIU never trailed in the contest, moving out to a 2-0 lead in the second inning on a walk to Barry O'Sullivan, a single by Brumfield followed by a throwing error by Pointers' catcher which allowed O'Sullivan and Brumfield to advance to third and second respectively.

A passed ball then produced the first Saluki run and with Brumfield now on third, an error on the WSC shortstop allowed the SIU second baseman to score.

Southern followed with two runs in the fourth, four in sixth on Bond's grand slam home run, and three each in the seventh and eighth innings. One of the runs in the seventh was driven in by Skip Pitlock, who returned to the SIU lineup after a three-week absence with a tender arm.

Pitlock responded with a triple and then went in to pitch the last two innings for SIU in place of Jerry Paetzhold, who pitched the first seven innings, giving up four hits and no runs.

Pitlock walked the first five batters he faced in the ninth inning to account for two State runs and a double play produced WSC's final tally.

Paetzhold got credit for the victory, pushing his record to 3-2 on the season. He struck out three and walked two in the seven innings he pitched.

SIU will open defense on its Governor's Tournament trophy at 1:30 p.m. today against the Air Force Academy.

Thinclads Prepared For Relays

The SIU mile relay team, Southern's top entry on the major relays circuit this season, will receive a change in positions for the upcoming Oklahoma Relays Saturday.

All Americans Ross MacKenzie and Chuck Benson are doing more than their share to put the relay team on top. However, Coach Lew Hartzog believes the team can do better and is now searching for a replacement on the relay team for the Oklahoma Relays.

In the opening meet in the Arkansas Relays, Hartzog wasn't upset with a third place by the relay team. The team turned in a 3:14.1 over a relatively slow track. Their third place finish failed to qualify them for the finals.

Hartzog is concerned with the first two legs of the relay team and will be spending most of his time this week looking for replacements. Hartzog will start Willy Richardson for the first quarter mile along with Benson and MacKenzie running third and fourth. The second spot will be determined from the best performances from Bill Buzard, Herman Gary and Bobby Morrow during practice this week. Hartzog will not determine the second position until Friday.

According to Hartzog, MacKenzie and Benson are doing an excellent job this year with the relay team. MacKenzie turned in a :46.9 time at Texas while Benson's time was :47.2.

Other SIU top entries in the Oklahoma meet will include unbeaten javelin thrower Dan Tindall, a freshman, who has been throwing the javelin 230-235 feet in practice, Mitch Livingston, top high jumper for SIU, clearing 6'10 1/2" in practice Monday and John Vernon at the triple jump.
