Broadway Stage Designer to Speak On Settings for Professional Theater

Howard Bay, prize-winning Broadway stage designer, will speak on scene design for the professional and college theater at 2 p.m. Sunday in University Center Ballroom "C". Bay, whose Sunday talk is free to the public, won the Antoinette Perry Award for best sets of the 1959-60 Broadway season. He has designed sets for such hits as "Come Back, Little Sheba,"

"Finian's Rainbow," and "Carmen Jones."

A 1939-40 Guggenheim Fellow, Bay first came into prominence with the federal theater of the 1930's. He has served as president of United Scenic Artists of America, and board member of the National Society for Interior Decorators.

Currently visiting designer-lecturer at Ohio University, Bay also has had experience as a director. He has served as visiting lecturer at several universities in the United States.

His appearance at Southern is connected with the third annual Intercollegiate Scenic Design Competition and Exhibition, for which he is one of the judges.

The event is sponsored by the SIU theater department.

Board to Study Housing Rates

The SIU Board of Trustees will be presented the annual recommendation for rates for campus housing, according to J. Albin Yokie, coordinator of housing.

He declined to comment on a report circulating in the Thompson Point area that rents there may be increased.

Yokie said all SIU housing rates are reviewed annually for their relationship to cost. He said a new rate structure for all housing has been incorporated into this year's annual review.

The housing rates are currently in the president's office for study prior to presentation to the board, Yokie said. He expressed the hope that the board would consider the recommendation at its meeting next week.

He declined to comment on any generalities of the effects of the review, until the board has had an opportunity to consider it.

Alternate Selected In Beauty Contest

Linda Laswell, a sophomore from Henderson, Ky., has been chosen to represent SIU in the Miss Illinois contest at Aurora.

She will replace Joan Yale, winner of the Miss Southern contest. Miss Yale will be touring the Caribbean area with a troupe of SIU singers and dancers at that time.

Laurie Brown, who placed second to Miss Yale, declined to represent SIU in the state contest because she already has plans to work this summer at Little Grass.

Miss Laswell, who placed third in the Miss Southern contest, was named by the Student Council to represent SIU.

Student Council Okays $377,800 Allocation, Boosts Athletics but Slashes Egyptian Fund

Student Council approved a $377,800 activity fee allocation at its Thursday evening meeting.

Highlighting the evening's discussion were amendments by David Davis to boost the athletics funds from $87,000 to $91,255 and to trim the Daily Egyptian fund from $33,000 to $30,000.

Davis also proposed to slash funds for orchestra, from $7,500 to $6,800; student welfare, from $40,555 to $40,000; and student government, from $14,000 to $12,000.

(A complete breakdown of the activity fee allocation will be published Tuesday.)

Council voted to hold the Daily Egyptian's appropriation in escrow until Dr. Howard R. Long, Egyptian fiscal sponsor, meets with the Student Rights committee for "consideration and clarification" of some committee questions about the Egyptian operation.

Elected in run-off elections Wednesday were John Henry, Thompson Point senator, and Robert Wenc, out in town senator, according to Fred Rauch, elections commissioner.

Voting totals were: at Thompson Point, Henry 163, Maria Grana 71, other 18, total 252; out in town, Wenc 74, Jay Holmes 32, Brian McCauley 27, other 12, total 145.

James E. Bell, elected as married student senator, plans to be seated after all. Bell plans to be graduated, but will return to school as a graduate student.

Delegates to SIU's Mock Political Convention move today to the heart of the issue--nomination of candidates for the SIU version of the Republican national ticket. The convention opened Friday night with the preliminaries and the platform debate.

Today, the delegates will tackle the main business of the convention, the actual nomination of the party cand-

SIU Gets $113,463 For Psych Study

The U.S. Public Health Service has awarded Southern $113,463 to support training programs in general and clinical psychology during the coming year.

David Ehrenfreund, chairman of the SIU psychology department, said the funds are from continuing grants made earlier for four-year periods. Part of the money is earmarked for fellowships for students in graduate study.

Funds awarded, to be used during the 12 months beginning July 1, include $70,511 for support of the general psychology program and $42,952 for support of Southern's program in clinical psychology.

Southern's psychology department numbers approximately 60 graduate students in its enrollment, including both master's degree and doctoral candidates.

Judicial Board nominees submitted by Student Body President Dick Moore are Irvin Rhodes, Ken Meeker, Dan Heldman, and Richard Gragg.

The Constitution was accepted up to and including Section Nine, Article One.

In other action, Council appropriated $49 for a dinner Saturday for old and new members. Dick Williams, a political science major at Oberlin College, will discuss "Student Government Theory."

Mock Convention Climaxes Today

Delegates to the mock convention will vote today for president and vice president.

Caucuses and general politicking were preliminary to the showdown battles on the floor starting this morning. Nominations and balloting for the presidential candidate of the GOP were scheduled to start at 8:45 a.m. today.

After the top spot on the ticket is filled, the convention will nominate and vote for a ments, said Edward V. Miles Jr., professor of economics, will receive an award for 45 years of service at Southern.

Others to receive service awards from the Board of Trustees include:

Dilla Hall, associate professor of mathematics, 40 years.

Florence D. Denny, associate professor of health education; Edith S. Krappe, associate professor of English; Madeleine M. Smith, associate professor of foreign languages; and Otis B. Young, professor of physics, all 35 years.

E. Louise Bach, supervisor of English at University School, 30 years.

Dorothy R. Davies, chairman of the Women's Physical Education Department; Winifred Burns, assistant professor of English; Jesse W. Harris, professor of English; Willis E. Malone, professor of elementary education; William M. Marberry, assistant professor of botany; Wilbur C. McDaniel, professor of mathematics; and Elizabeth Stone, associate director of libraries, all 25 years.

In addition, a special Service to Southern Award will be given to John W. Allen, who joined the SIU Museum staff in 1942 and who, although now retired, continues to write a newspaper column, "It Happened in Southern Illinois," which is distributed by the Information Service.

Degrees will be conferred on more than 1,800 students at the commencement program. Margaret Mead, noted anthropologist and author, will give the commencement address.

The program will begin at 7:30 p.m.

ROTC Musicians To Perform Today

The ROTC Band, Honor Guard and Singing Squadron will perform today at the Litchfield, Ill., fund raising program.

running mate for the candidate for the presidency.

The Mock Political Convention is patterned after the national party conventions which will be held this summer in this presidential election year. The SIU model is based on the Republican, because of the number of rival candidates and the general expectation that President Lyndon B. Johnson will be the nominee of the Democrats.

Trumpeter to Give Recital in Shryock

A graduate recital will be presented by Fred Berry, trumpet, at 8 p.m. Monday in Shryock Auditorium.

He will be assisted by Sally Aubuchon, piano; George Hussey, oboe; David Harris, oboe; and Lawrence Intravaia, bassoon.

Forty fine arts students from SIU spent the day at the brewery recently. They participated in an "Artists' Day at a Brewery" program at Plant Ten of the Falstaff Brewing Corp. in St. Louis.

The students spent the day sketching scenes around the plant. The results of their work there will be judged Monday on an exhibition on the SIU campus, and cash awards will be provided for first, second and third place entries.

The brewery tour was part of a project sponsored by Brewers Digest, a national industry trade magazine.

Bernard O. Erf of Chicago, editor and publisher of the magazine, was one of the principal speakers at the program. Others were Robert F. Hutchinson, vice-president of public relations for the company, and Daniel A. Beffa, the firm's St. Louis plants general manager.

Accompanying the students were Milton F. Sullivan, associate professor, and Robert Hunter, instructor, of the SIU School of Fine Arts. Erf said the program is designed to encourage "a better understanding between art and industry."

News in Perspective

U.S., Russian Prestige at Stake in Southeast Asia

Compiled From Associated Press

By Jack Harrison

The present Communist offensive in Southeast Asia seems to be an attempt by Red China to embarrass and discredit both the United States and Russia.

The U.S. reputation is on the line in Viet Nam and Russia's reputation faces a test in Laos.

Russia, Great Britain and the United States are co-guarantors of Laotian neutrality, under the 1962 treaty made possible by an agreement between President Kennedy and Premier Khrushchev.

But Russia's influence in Southeast Asia has waned as the Chinese-Soviet ideological split has widened. Her nearness makes Red China the kingpin in affairs of old Indochina.

A Communist drive in Laos the past several weeks has been coupled with stepped-up activity by the Viet Cong against American-adviced South Vietnamese troops.

In the third ex-Indochina state, Cambodia, Prince Sihanouk's neutralist government has been hostile toward the U.S. and apparently is edging toward Red China.

The political experts see a pattern in the increase of hostilities throughout Southeast Asia.

Red China would like to gain victories, or at least make significant advances, in both Laos and Viet Nam before trying to bring the

Le Pelley, Christian Science Monitor 'YANKEE, GO HOME, BUT I'LL TELL YOU WHEN'

U.S. to the conference table to discuss political solutions.

Some critics of the Johnson administration's Vietnamese policy say that two realistic alternatives are available:

1. Attacking Communist supply bases outside of South Viet Nam in order to win the war.

2. Admitting the impossibility of winning the guerrilla war and negotiating for a truce of "neutrality."

The U.S. has been taking a middle position, maintaining that the war in South Viet Nam can be won without carrying the battle to the North.

President Johnson has asked Congress for $125 million to boost the war effort. This amount is piled on top of $550 million a year that we already are pouring into the campaign. More than 16,000 U.S. troops are acting as advisers to the Vietnamese.

But we are not winning the war, and in fact have been losing ground. The U.S. is in hot water with the Southeast Asian problem. But our arch-enemy, the Soviet Union, is doing some sweating, too.

Trade With Reds

WASHINGTON -- American exporters can still trade with communist nations, but they had a close call Wednesday, when the House by one vote rejected a Republican proposal that sought to stop all agricultural trade with the communists.

The proposal, which lost 187 to 186, was an amendment to the annual agricultural appropriation bill. After turning thumbs down on the amendment, the House agreed on a $5.2 billion appropriation for the farm bill.

Had the agreement passed, it would have called for the end of all subsidies on farm products sold to Communist countries, U.S. exporters were favored by the outcome, because they need the subsidy in order to sell government-

Williams, Detroit Free Press -NOW TO SEE WHO SALUTES IT! supported commodities in the world market without a loss.

Subsidies paid to exporters of farm goods make up the difference between what the exporter has to pay for the American commodities and the price he gets when he sells them abroad. If an exporter didn't get the subsidy, he would be unable to carry on trading these farm goods.

The communist trade curb was put to the test in a final roll call vote, with five Republicans joining 182 Democrats to account for the defeat. Thirty Democrats and 156 Republicans supported the proposal.

Goldwater Steps Up California Campaign

LOS ANGELES -- Two of Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater's aides denounced Nelson A. Rockefeller in strong terms Thursday after disclosing that Goldwater will hit the California campaign trail much harder than originally planned.

They announced also that about 20 GOP congressmen will fly in Monday for a one-day swing through the state on behalf of Goldwater.

Goldwater and Rockefeller are the sole contestants in California's June 2 Republican presidential primary. At stake are 86 convention votes. In Fresno, Calif., Gov. Rockefeller hammered away at Goldwater and indicated his attacks are beginning to sway voters from his opponent in California's presidential primary.

He avoided any outright prediction of victory, but said he saw evidence that he is attracting some Goldwater diehards to his side.

In a speech at the University of the Pacific in Stockton, he said Goldwater's positions on foreign affairs would be "a blueprint for defeat and disaster."

Main Provisions of Rights Bill, Now in 11th Week of Debate

WASHINGTON - The House-passed civil rights bill, under Senate debate now for 11 weeks, would greatly increase the federal government's power to act against racial discrimination.

The chief legal weapon would be expanded authority for the attorney general to seek federal court injunctions. Also, under certain circumstances funds could be cut off from federal aid programs.

In the face of unrelenting opposition to the bill by Southern senators, Democratic and Republican leaders have agreed with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy on a package of amendments they hope will clear the way for passage. But so far the Senate has not adopted a single amendment.

Here is a brief rundown of the principal features of the bill as it now stands:

Voting rights-to prevent discrimination in registration, uniform standards would be required, immaterial errors would not count, and a 6th grade education would create a presumption of literacy. Injunction suits by the attorney general, authorized by the 1957 Civil Rights Act could be heard by a three-judge court. Applies only to federal elections.

Public accommodations-Establishments offering food, lodging and entertainment must serve all persons without discrimination because of race, color, religion or national origin. Gasoline stations also are covered, but not small, owner-occupied rooming houses. Attorney General could bring injunction suits to enforce.

Long, Minneapolis Tribune

Schools-Attorney general would be authorized to file public school desegregation suits. Federal financial and technical aid also is provided to assist schools in transition to desegregation.

Public facilities-suits to desegregate public parks, playgrounds, swimming pools and similar facilities could be brought by the attorney general. He would be authorized to intervene in behalf of the government in any suit brought by an individual claiming denial of equal protection of the laws.

Federal grants-Federal agencies would be required to draw up regulations under which funds would be cut off from any federal aid program administered in a discriminatory manner by state or local officials. Regulations would be subject to presidential approval, and before a funds cut-off a hearing would be required and Congress would have to be notified 30 days before action was taken. Appeals to the courts are provided.

Employment-In the hiring, firing, promotion and job referral of workers, discrimination by employers, labor unions and employment agencies would be prohibited. A federal agency could bring enforcement suits if efforts to obtain voluntary compliance failed. Applies to employers with 25 or more employees when fully effective.

Under other sections of the bill, the life of the federal Civil Rights Commission would be extended for four years and its powers enlarged and a community relations service would be established to assist local communities in settling racial disputes.

Salukis Capture 87 of 114 Events; '63-64 Year Best in SIU Annals

By Alan Goldfarb

Southern's football and track teams were the only squads to have losing records as Carmen Piccone finished his last season at SIU with a 4-5 record. Coach Lew Hartzog was hardest hit with injuries as he lost the nucleus of his track team that was considered one of the best in the country. SIU's track team finished their dual record with a 1-5 mark.

The breakdown by quarters finds the spring quarter most successful as SIU baseball, tennis and track teams compiled a phenomenal 46-8 record for a .852 percentage.

Winter quarter squads turned in a 37-14 mark for a .726 percentage. Football was the only fall sport. They finished 4-5 for a .444 mark.

The Salukis didn't play too many "patsies" during the year with many major colleges on all of the schedules. Such teams as Tulsa, Bowling Green, Louisville and Toledo in football; Oklahoma State, Toledo, Louisville, Indiana and Ohio University in basketball.

Minnesota, Michigan State, Colorado, Denver and Iowa in gymnastics; Indiana, Cincinnati, Iowa State in swimming; Iowa State, Ohio University and Oklahoma State in wrestling.

Kansas, Western Michigan, Notre Dame and Purdue in track; Tulsa, Houston and St. Louis University in baseball; Northwestern, Iowa, Cincinnati, Tulsa and Notre Dame in Tennis and St. Louis University, Missouri, Notre Dame and Tulsa in golf.

Southern's athletic teams are gaining a major college status and in an unofficial poll Southern might be considered in the top ten in the country in its all-around sports program.

Senior Bowls 698 To Topple Record

Arnold Siudut, a senior majoring in marketing, bowled a 698 series on games of 221, 241 and 236 in the Intramural Bowling League last Thursday. His strike spree set an all time record for the league.

Siudut had previously bowled 762 in a three-game practice series and a 289 in his highest single game at the University Center.

Near-Record Times Are Set In Annual Intramural Meet

No new records were set in the intramural track and field meet last Saturday but a number of near-record times were scored.

Jim Lee took the 100-yard dash with a time of 10.3 seconds, just shy of the meet record of 10 flat. Ron Ewert was second in the event followed by Mario Solis.

Lee also took the 220 with a time of 24.3 seconds followed by Ted Petras and Jerry Neison.

Bob Gergen's time of 54.5 seconds in the 440 gave him first place over Bill Carel and Ben Burton. Gergen's time was only .3 second below the record.

Fred Monroe won the 880 ahead of Bill Carel and Jack Sauper with a time of 2:12.7 minutes.

The 120-yard low hurdles were won by Randy Goin with a time of 15.8 seconds, followed by Howard Marrs and Jack Keller.

The Washington Square Senators took the 880-yard relay, with Phi Kappa Tau second and the Galloping Gimps third.

Larry Wolfe took the shot put with a toss of 50 feet, 1 inch over Jack Holder and Dennis McCabe.

Jim Lee won his third blue ribbon of the day in the broad jump as he leaped 22 feet. He was followed by Jack Keller and John Roush.

Randy Goin won his second blue ribbon in the high jump with 5 feet, 11 inches. Jack Keller was second and Ron Baker third.

Cartoonist Mike Siporin proved he could do more than draw. He won first place in the softball throw with a toss of 266 feet, 8 inches. He was followed by Dennis McCabe and Ron Guagenti.

Phi Kappa Tau took the team trophy by scoring 37 points, followed by Galloping Gimps, 27; Animals, 22 1/2; Washington Square Senators, 19 1/2; Fubar Track Club, 6; and Go Club 5 points.

Laos Asks for Help From Western Allies

VIENTIANE, Laos -- Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma announced Friday "we are going to ask aid from France, the United States and Britain--both military and economic--for the defense of the country's unity."

The neutralist coalition chieftain, whose neutralist army has been swept from the Plaine des Jarres by the pro-Communist Pathet Lao, told The Associated Press, "We are now in the process of establishing our needs."

U.S. jets already are flying reconnaissance missions over territory held by the Pathet Lao trying to pinpoint military concentrations and movements.

Washington sources said these unarmed, high-flying craft started work Thursday at Souvanna's request. The premier declined comment on them.

All foreign military forces were supposed to withdraw from Laos under the 14-nation Geneva agreements of 1962, which guaranteed this landlocked Southeast Asian kingdom independence and neutrality. But the accords provide the government can bring in limited quantities of war material for defense.

The United States pulled out its contingents which had U.S. Plans Action On Hoffa Funds

WASHINGTON -- The government said Friday it will go into court to force the Teamsters Union to open its books for an investigation of funds spent to defend Teamsters President James R. Hoffa in his long series of criminal trials.

The union has refused to answer administrative subpoenas issued by the Labor Department under the 1959 Landrum-Griffin labor-management reporting and disclosure law.

President Visits Michigan, Mixes Politics, Philosophy

ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- President Johnson marked the end of his first six months in office Friday by making a flying visit to Michigan and mixing politics and philosophy.

Johnson flew to Ann Arbor to address commencement exercises of the University of Michigan. But first he stopped at nearby Detroit Metropolitan Airport, and smiling at 25,000 noisy well-wishers, said:

"My first thought is to sing and old song--'Will You Love Me in November as You Do in May?'"

The President's trip bore a nonpolitical label. He was accompanied in the state by a number of Republicans, including Gov. George Romney.

When Johnson introduced Romney to the crowd at the airport, where he changed from jet transport to a helicopter, the governor drew a round of applause. Romney grinned and waved, and Johnson seemed to beam.

Johnson said Detroit and its people are the hope of America--"You put America on wheels--you got the American economy on the move."

Johnson was accompanied by Michigan's two Democratic senators, Patrick V. McNamara and Philip A. Hart, and trained and advised government troops in the 1959-61 civil war.

There never has been any proof that foreign Communists--specifically combat and supply units of Communist North Viet Nam--quit the country.

Souvanna charged that North Vietnamese took part with Pathet Lao battalions in the offensive that drove the neutralists from the Plaine des Jarres in the north-central highlands last weekend.

Raids on Cuba Unspectacular, But Mobilization Costs Castro

WASHINGTON--Skirmishes aimed at eventual overthrow of Fidel Castro have begun and the dictator of Cuba appears to be in trouble within his island fortress. But his regime is in no imminent danger of toppling.

The anti-Castro raids have not been spectacular affairs to this point. They were not intended to be. Still, the promised attacks on Cuba by various exile groups have not attained the proportions many had hoped for.

But for the Communist prime minister, the proclaimed war of the anti-Castro forces comes at a peculiarly bad time. The economy of the Soviet satellite regime in Cuba is in distress. Prolonged application of Communist policies has perhaps driven more Cubans than ever before to hate their government. And Castro continues losing friends in Latin America.

So far as is known, the pledge of Manuel Ray, one exile leader, to be fighting on Cuba soil by May 20 was not accomplished, if Ray meant attacks on Castro's defense forces, or dynamiting military objectives, or widespread sabotage.

12 of the state's congressmen. Next to Johnson, the crowd gave its biggest applause to former Gov. G. Mennen Williams, now assistant secretary of state for African affairs.

The university audience estimated at 85,000 heard Johnson call on the nation to "move upward to the great society."

Bruce Shanks, Buffalo Evening News

There are many, however, who think Ray may be inside Cuba now, preparing for events to come, even though the May 20 anniversary date of Cuban independence from Spain has passed without any spectacular news.

Ray's group says merely the new war of independence in Cuba has begun and asserts it is satisfied with the progress made so far, especially in the area of psychological warfare.

Another exile leader said in Miami that the Castro regime already has suffered two severe blows.

The new threat has kept his defense forces mobilized, involved enormous expense in transportation, housing and rations, and perhaps made many soldiers weary of the whole thing.

Baptists Oppose Prayer Amendment

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J.-- Representatives of 12 million Baptists voted Friday against changing the constitutional amendment involved in the dispute over school prayers.

Both the giant Southern Baptist Convention and the American Baptist Convention, the Northern group, opposed any steps aimed at providing for religious services in schools.

Messengers to the Southern convention debated a proposal affirming "the historic rights of our schools to engage voluntarily on a nonsectarian basis in prayer, in Bible reading and other devotional exercises."

This was ruled out in favor of a statement affirming the right of schools to full academic freedom.

U.S. Reconnaissance Plane Hit by Ground Fire in Laos

WASHINGTON -- A U.S. Navy reconnaissance plane, taking low-level photographs of embattled Laos, was hit by Pathet Lao ground fire but made it back to its carrier in the South China Sea, it was learned Friday.

The pilot of the RF8 Crusader was not hurt and the plane was not seriously damaged, the Associated Press was told.

The U.S. reconnaissance operation, being conducted at the request of the Laotian government, reportedly is covering all areas invested by the pro-Communist Pathet Lao.
