National ISA Crowns Pat Marlow Sweetheart

Pat Marlow, sophomore from Herrin, was named Sweetheart of the National Independent Student Association at the national convention in Lawrence, Kansas Friday. Pat was crowned Sweetheart at the Coronation Ball, the main highlight of the convention:

★ AT THE BALL, Pat appeared as one of the seven finalists of the contest who were chosen from candidates representing colleges and universities throughout the United States. Judge for the contest was John Powers, founder of the well-known Powers Model agency.

Besides being named Sweetheart, Pat received a three-foot trophy and two dozen red roses. Also, all of her expenses for the trip were paid.

NEWS of Pat's new title came to Southern by way of a telegram sent by Bob McCabe, president of the ISA here at Southern. The telegram said, "Pat won, hurray!"

Pat first entered the Sweetheart contest when she was named as the Sweetheart of the ISA organization here at Southern at the ISA formal dance held last term.

Pat, a brunette, is five feet four inches tall. She is majoring in elementary education.

Schwinn, Sloan Win Honors at Speech Contest

Doris Schwinn, senior from Du Quoin, and Tom Sloan, senior from West Frankfort, received high ratings at the inter-state Pi Kappa Delta national forensic convention at Oklahoma A. and M. college, March 26-30.

Miss Schwinn copped top honors in the women's division of original oratory with a superior rating, while Sloan received an excellent in men's original oratory.

THE WOMEN'S debate team of JoAnn Eblen and Carolyn Reed won five of eight debate rounds, and the team of Tom Sloan and Carroll Boyles won three of eight rounds in men's debate.

A. J. Croft, instructor in speech and debate director, accompanied the SIU group to the convention, at which more than 50 colleges and universities were represented.

Brooker To Speak at Audio-Visual Aids Meet

Floyde E. Brooker, chief of Visual Aids to Education, US Office of Education, Washington, D. C., will be guest speaker at the annual Audio-Visual Aids conference at SIU Little Theatre tomorrow.

Topic of Brooker's address, which will be given at a 12:15 p.m. luncheon at University Drugs, will be "The Role of Communication in the Defense Program."

More than 75 Southern Illinois high school and grade school administrators, superintendents, and audio-visual aids directors are expected to attend, according to Donald A. Inghl, Southern's audio-visual aids director.

Summer School Election

Tomorrow from 8 a.m. until 4 p.m. students may vote on the type of summer school they prefer. Polls will be located in the crosshalls of Old Main. Preferences of the students will be considered in setting up the schedule for summer term.

Emphasis Week To Begin With Assembly

School will be dismissed for one hour Thursday at 11 a.m. for an all school assembly which will be the launching program for Religious Emphasis Week.

Student representatives from the Student Christian Foundation will give talks at the assembly, and the cappella choir under the direction of F. V. Wakeland will present several selections. Students from the Baptist Foundation, the Newman club, and Gamma Delta, a Lutheran organization, will also speak.

Religious Emphasis Week will be observed from April 9 to April 13. Programs for events to be observed during the week will be distributed at the assembly Thursday.

Little Theatre To Give Children's Play on April 19

"Indian Captive," third in the year's series of children's plays sponsored by the AAUW, will be presented at Shryock auditorium Thursday, April 19, at 2 p.m. by SIU's Little Theatre group.

There will be a short Little Theatre meeting today, April 4, at 7:00 at the Speech House. All those members interested in committee work for "The Indian Captive," should attend this meeting.

The play, written by Charlotte Chorpenning, is based on a true happening, and is the story of a little white girl who is captured by the Seneca Indians to take the place of the old queen's son, who was killed in battle.

STUDENT DIRECTOR of the play is Virda Sill, junior from Carbondale. Lawrence Voss, lecturer in speech, is technical director.

A combined cast of University school children and SIU students includes the following: University school—Sylvia Ann Reed, Dee Alexander, David Brown, Jackie Carter, and Jane Pugh; SIU—Elaine Allen, Don Fearheiley, Dave Alverson, and JoAnn Eblen. The play will also be presented at Herrin and Harrisburg.

Governor Slashes Budget Request Made by Southern

Southern Illinois University's program of area services received a possible knock-out blow Wednesday from Gov. Adlai Stevenson.

The blow came when the governor slashed 5.9 millions from a total SIU budget of 14.1 millions already approved by the budgetary commission. The latter figure was the amount remaining after the commission had cut one million from the 10.6 million asked by SIU for operational expenses in 1951-53, plus a capital expenditures budget reduced to 4.5 million.

UNIVERSITY OFFICIALS volunteered to further reduce their asking to 13.8 millions. This had been considered as a minimum operation and building amount with which it would be possible to build a library and to continue special programs being offered to train skilled workmen and others needed to meet present critical demands in Southern Illinois in connection with the defense program.

President D. W. Morris said, "The reduction of this budget is so far beyond any reduction considered possible by the SIU administration and board of trustees that it is impossible to realize its total impact until detailed studies can be made."

MORRIS SAID the governor's cut probably would:

1. Necessitate a reduction in staff.
2. Cut back operating budgets of "old line" departments.
3. Bring to a virtual standstill the operation of the Vocational Technical Institute.
4. Eliminate nurses training.
5. Curtail drastically the agricultural program being developed in response to demands of Southern Illinois farmers.
6. Wipe out a recently-launched program of special area services.

Objections Overruled?

Some faculty members and students have objected to a patent medicine advertisement which recently appeared in the Egyptian. It is claimed that this type of advertising is the very lowest form of advertising.

These persons advocate that such advertising be prohibited from the Egyptian's columns in the future, even if subscription rates have to be raised. (Egyptian subscription money comes from activity ticket fees.)

THOSE OF US who read the Egyptian (assuming that someone does) are either fairly well educated, or we are in the process of becoming educated. We have been, or are being, indoctrinated with courses designed to teach us to think for ourselves. If we remain so gullible as to accept everything we read—then what's an education for? (Never use a preposition to end a sentence with—see, we are educated.)

People throughout the nation are enjoying the testimonials of this patent medicine. Many persons are feeling better today because this medicine fills a need, organic or mental. Others get a big laugh from the advertisements. Perhaps we are being educated away from a sense of humor.

ALREADY WE ARE a purged group. We are protected from cigarette advertising, liquor advertising, and night club advertising, and except for brief interludes, the Egyptian strives for the ultimate in genteel good taste.

The St. Louis Globe Democrat accepts this advertising which is objected to by readers of the Egyptian. But then of course, some readers of the Globe might be influenced by the ads.

The only valid criticism we can see of this patent medicine advertising is that the advertiser may not be getting his money's worth. But if the advertiser doesn't mind wasting his money, we'd like to exercise our judgment and our sense of humor.

The Time Is Now

Tomorrow, students at Southern will have a chance to express their opinions as to what type of a summer term they would prefer.

This election should be of special interest to those who are planning to attend school here this coming summer, since the administration has stated that student preference will definitely be considered in setting up the schedule for the summer term.

In the election, which is being held by the Student Council, such questions as how many weeks a summer term should last and at what times classes should be held will be asked.

SUMMER SCHOOL has been in session for an eight-week period for the past few years. If some think that the period allotted is too long (or too short), that 7:30 a.m. is too early in the morning for class, or, conversely, that all classes should be held in the morning, tomorrow is the time to say so—not this summer when one would much rather be in swimming than in a 2 o'clock class.

"A Separate Person," short story written by Dr. Henry Wilson, associate professor of English at Southern, has been listed as one of the most distinctive short stories of 1950 in Martha Foley's 1950 edition of "The Best American Short Stories."

"A Separate Person" gives a detailed description of a soldier's day aboard a crowded troop ship. Parts of the story are based on Wilson's actual experiences on a troop ship returning to the United States from India during World War II. Wilson was a sergeant in the Air Force at that time.

Southern Plans To Establish Loan and Scholarship Funds for Student Nurses

Civic and social clubs of Southern Illinois are being invited by Southern Illinois University to participate in establishing scholarships and loan funds for young women interested in studying nursing.

A three-year course in nursing will be offered at SIU beginning in September, designed to increase the supply of nurses in this area and to help meet possible mobilization demands.

MANY POTENTIAL nurses, particularly in Southern Illinois, cannot possibly achieve their goals without additional funds. As President D. W. Morris points out, "In order that Southern may contribute most effectively in the training of nurses, there must be some assurance of financial assistance to a number of young women anxious to enroll but unable to pay their way in full."

Student nurses will spend 36 weeks on the SIU campus before being assigned to hospitals. The nature of the nursing program makes it impossible for them to work part time. Minimum expenses for the first year will be $598.50 for each person enrolled.

WHILE STUDENTS are assigned to hospitals for practice, most of the cost of room and board will be provided in exchange for their services. However, they will have personal and incidental expenses such as registration fees, fees for membership in student organizations, and travel expenses.

A scholarship of $500, payable at the beginning of the school year, will help a student meet most expenses for the first year. A scholarship of $1000, with $500 payable at the beginning of the first year, will make it possible for the student to pay the first year's expenses and also have a small monthly allowance while training in hospitals. Smaller amounts would be used to assist young women who have some funds available but still need help.

Military Programs Began in 1878

Air Force uniforms may soon be as popular at the Southern Illinois University campus as they were during World War II when Air Corps cadets attended classes.

The uniforms certainly would be more "G. I." than the gray military apparel that students bought from their father's tailors and wore during Southern's first military program back in 1878.

University officials have applied for establishment of an Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps here. If the application is approved, the AFROTC unit will become the third military program on the campus in the 76-year history of the school.

IN 1878, ACCORDING to E. G. Lentz, University historian and former dean of men, a U. S. Army captain inspected Southern and found it "eminently fitted" for a student military program. The Army started things rolling by supplying 200 breach-loading rifles, 100 sabres, two pieces of artillery and caissons and a field signaling outfit.

West Point graduate officers were detailed by the War Department as commandants and instructors. Each officer served here three years.

Perhaps the most unusual feature of Southern's first military program was the choice of gray uniforms for the students at a time when the war between the states was still a contested issue. This was doubly unusual because Southern Illinois had supplied, proportionately more men to the Union cause than had the northern part of the state.

THE PROGRAM was entirely voluntary and efforts of the West Pointers to recruit all male students fell short of their objective. Like some of the reluctant students, members of the teaching faculty, too, were not in complete agreement with the program. Their arguments were not recorded but the college board, meeting during commencement week, 1882, resolved that the school would brook "no interference on the part of any teacher" in the regulations and direction of the military department.

As the program died, educators everywhere were beginning to take up the cry against "militarism in the schools."

No uniforms, gray or otherwise, have been seen on the Southern Illinois campus since that era except during the last war. Air Corps men were billeted in campus dorms and nearby homes while they received instruction in the academic part of their cadet training.

COLBY TO GIVE TALK

Dr. Charles C. Colby, visiting lecturer in geography, will give the second talk in his series on "Crisis in the World Order" in Shryock auditorium at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow. The topic for tomorrow night will be "Crisis in American Foreign Policy."

Librarian Originates New Cataloging Plan

A new cataloging plan has been originated by Harry Dewey, assistant director of SIU library.

Making new library books quickly available to the public, Dewey's plan involves the coding of books so that they can be withdrawn from the library before they have been completely processed.

In the article in the Jan. 15 issue of the Library Journal, Leo Fisher, Wittenberg College librarian, says, "We are indebted to Harry Dewey for providing the missing link in our chain of thought, for in his article on pre-cataloging in college and research libraries, he described the system of fast temporary cataloging and the advantages of the control file. We are making our books accessible to our patrons within a matter of hours after their receipt."

HEALTH SERVICE TO GIVE TYPHOID IMMUNIZATIONS

The first of a series of typhoid immunizations will be offered to the student body, faculty members, and employees at the health service tomorrow and Thursday, April 4 and 5. Hours are 9 to 11:30 a.m. and to 4:30 p.m. Smallpox vaccinations will also be given at that time.

The KDA Variety Show will make off-campus appearances on April 12 and 19. All participants are asked to rehearse their acts in preparation for the show.

Rules Listed for

Dropping Courses

During the second, third, and fourth weeks of a term a student may drop courses by approval, which will be given only if the student shows valid and acceptable reasons for doing so according to the academic deans.

Dropping a required course rather than an elective course usually will not be permitted.

To obtain official approval, the student must secure on a program change card the signatures of each instructor concerned, his adviser, the personnel dean, and last of all, the dean of his college.

AFTER THE FOURTH week, a student may drop courses only in case of unusual conditions beyond his control. This rule does not apply to students who are leaving school to enter military service.

Within the first week of the term, a student may add or drop courses by obtaining proper approval, which is ordinarily given automatically. No grade will be given, and the drop will be indicated on the student's record by the letter W.

Kahmann Korner with Jim Kahmann

It's been a long time since the last Korner, with Uncle Sam breathing down our neck for a brief moment (two weeks to be exact) and it seems a lot of water has rolled under the sports' bridge since we devoted any time to sports. So here are a few of our opinions concerning the numerous spring sport projects now under way at Southern.

BASEBALL

Abe Martin's diamond crew seems to be headed for a successful season. As yet, we don't know just how good the baseball team is, but with five victories in seven starts, it looks as though they're going to be tough to beat this year.

Headed by a star-studded pitching staff that includes veterans Darrell Thompson and Reid Martin, and promising newcomer Wayne Grandcolas, Southern's hurlers are the best in many years. Bub Burns is also a good pitcher when he isn't in the outfield, and Bill Schimpf can throw a few curves himself.

The hitting caliber of the team has also picked up. Captain Joe Jones, a .429 hitter last year, seems destined for another fine season, and catcher Milt Weisbecker and shortstop Art Menendez have started to hit better.

TRACK

Our sympathies are with Doc Lingle this spring with his track team, which has been manhandled by grades, the service, and graduation. Bob Nickolaus, ace prep, high-jumper from Centralia, who won a letter in basketball this winter, is ineligible for his favorite sport, track. Nickolaus, who can also run the hurdles and broad-jump like a veteran, is a big man in the point column, and won't be replaced. Red White, another pretty fair high-jumper is also out after the winter's battle with the textbooks.

But luckily, Lingle still has the Big 3 on his side. Captain Phil Coleman, Joe McLafferty, and Ray Palmer will give Southern three of the finest distance runners in the conference. All of these men have held all-time Southern records at one time or another, and Coleman holds one and McLafferty two at the present time.

TENNIS

This is another sport which has been jolted by graduation. Only returning lettermen are Co-captains Jack Norman and Bob Barnhart, Homer Winter and Stan Cooper are two promising racket men, but here, too, there isn't enough depth to provide good competition. Norman and Barnhart will both have to improve immensely if the tennis crew is win many matches.

GOLF

Golf is about in the same boat. Jim Wilson, captain of the '51 team, is the only returning letterman back from last year's team. Newcomers to the squad are Jim Walker, Larry Wachtel, Bill Nichols, and Bob Henley. Unless these men already have a goodly amount of experience, and unless they progress rapidly, things will be plenty tough.

Aside from baseball, that doesn't sound too favorable, does it? Well, actually, it isn't. Southern is going to take it on the chin many times before June, so let's face it. At least we can hope for a good building program which won't be interrupted by calls to the service next fall. Let's hope all the athletes can pass General Hershey's I. Q. tests and give us some good teams next year.

Martin Hurls Southern To 8-6 Baseball Win

By Don Duffy

Southern's baseball squad won their fifth game in seven starts last Saturday when they rallied in the tenth inning for an 8-6 victory over the Arkansas State Indians. By beating the Indians, the ball club won honors as being the first Southern team to triumph over an Arkansas team this past season.

REID MARTIN, who relieved Wayne Grandcolas in the seventh inning and pitched shut-out ball, received credit for the win. Martin also led the way at the plate by being the only Southern player to collect two hits. The tricky pitcher banged out a long double and a single in three trips.

The Indians jumped off to an early lead, and Southern trailed 6-0 after six innings of play. The Maroons then came back with three in the seventh, three in the ninth to tie the game, then two in the tenth to break it up.

home now for a game with Harris Teachers April 6.

Coaches Give Talks At Sports Clinic

Two leading coaches, George Bresnahan and James Smilgoff, gave many helpful pointers to track and baseball men in this area Friday, during the third annual spring sports clinic here at Southern.

Bresnahan, a former Olympic track coach, divided his talks into the different track events including the dashes, the distance runs and both high and low hurdling. Bresnahan used several ace SIU track men to help him illustrate many points.

Smilgoff, head baseball coach at Taft high school in Chicago, divided his series of lectures and demonstrations into various phases of the game, including baserunning, bunting, pitching and training techniques.

The clinic was under the direction of Southern's veteran track coach, Leland P. "Doc" Lingle.

Women's P. E. Starts Volleyball Tournaments

A round robin class tournament in volleyball is well under way in the women's physical education department. The first game was held Thursday between the freshmen and juniors. Sophomores and seniors met in the second game of the tournament. Yesterday games were seniors vs. juniors and freshmen vs. sophomores. Tomorrow, sophomores will play the juniors and the freshmen will play the seniors.

HOUSE TOURNAMENTS in volleyball will begin Monday. The following rules are to be observed by house teams desiring to play in the tournament: (1) Two practices are required for any organization having more than one team (2) Names and addresses of all players must be turned in to the office by April 9. (3) No player may play on more than one team (4) Junior and senior majors in physical education will act as coaches and may not play on a team. (5) Each house must provide a scorer and a timer for each game in which it participates.

Women's Gym Available For Sunday Recreation

Beginning Sunday, April 8, the women's gym will be open on Sundays from 2 p.m. until 5 p.m. Equipment will be available for tennis, badminton, shuffleboard, table tennis, and bowling. Students and faculty members are invited to use the gym for Sunday afternoon entertainment.

Western Normal Holds Sports Day for Women

Several girls from the women's physical education department at Southern attended a Sports Day at Western State Teachers' College at Macomb Friday.

Coach Lingle Releases SIU Track Schedule

Track Coach Leland (Doc) Lingle has released the tentative track schedule for this season. The schedule calls for seven dual meets, a triangular event, and the annual conference meet.

For the first time in Southern's history there will be two night track meets this year.

The schedule is as follows:

April 7—Western at Carbondale.

April 10—Southeast Missouri at Cape Girardeau.

April 21—Rolla School of Mines at Rolla, Mo.

April 28—Eastern at Carbondale, night.

May 2—Southeast Missouri at Carbondale, night.

May 5—Illinois Normal at Normal.

May 12—Washington University at St. Louis.

May 19—Triangular meet at Eastern, Charleston (tentative).

May 25-26—I.I.A.C. meet at Eastern.

WITH NINE potential point makers unavailable due to ineligibility or the navy's call, and only 30 candidates beating the cinders, Leland "Doc" Lingle, track coach at Southern Illinois University here for 24 years, says it is the worst prospect for a good season that he has had in 15 years.

The "unavailables", mostly promising freshmen who were stars in high school. There were 90 candidates at this time a year ago.

Whatever the problems of depth may be in the sprints, jumps, and field events, Lingle has a warm glow when he looks at his trio of captain Phil Coleman and Joe McLafferty of Carbondale, and Ray Palmer, Belleville. They have been breaking each other's records for the past years and have possibilities of new marks. They are three of 14 lettermen left for the 1951 team.

In Coleman's first meet race for Southern he broke a 17-year-old school record in the two-mile event. Coleman now holds the school two-mile record at 10:00.5, a mark set in a meet at Washington University, St. Louis, last spring as he clipped 1.3 seconds from a mark set earlier last year by his teammate, Ray Palmer, now a senior.

FOR COACH LINGLE McLafferty won the individual Illinois In-cross - country championship in 1974 and 1948. Last fall Coleman, McLafferty and Palmer finished one, two and three in the Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference cross-country meet at Michigan North Central. Last year, with Coleman and Palmer furnishing strength in the two-mile, McLafferty was shifted to the mile and half-mile. He set records in both events, with 4:30 in the mile and 1:59 in the half.

Weller, Laura Hammond, Pat Colligan, Marie Kern, Georgia Bramlet, Merlene Riva, Marilyn Margenthaler, Doris Baldrige, Roberta Lands, Eleanor Miller, Juanette Harris, Anna Mae Hays, Jackie Uhrich, Connie Conatser, Minnie Neal, Joan Galbreath.

Palmer won the conference two-mile in 1949 with 10:04. He and McLafferty are seniors.

Coach Lingle has one other record holder in Jim Alexander of Herrin, a junior who set a new school record as a freshman with a leap of 23 feet 7½ inches in the broad jump. He also is a hurdler.
