No Southern

Accidents

Reported

A total of 425 persons had been killed in accidents over the nation by midnight Saturday, 17 in Illinois. However, there were no SIU deaths and there were no reported accidents involving Southern personnel as of Sunday evening.

Normal weekend traffic, plagued by scattered snow and icy highways in the Midwest, pushed the highway toll to 301 persons. A total of 39 persons died in fires and 85 by miscellaneous causes.

Snow, heavy in the Chicago area, posed a threat for motorists on northern highways. Six persons in Illinois died in fires and one died in a miscellaneous accident.

Theatre Group Offers Mental Health Plays

The SIU theatre department has announced that at least two American Theatre Wing plays will be available for presentation before civic, religious and educational groups throughout Southern Illinois.

The program, under the direction of David Brookbank of the SIU theatre department, is in conjunction with the Mental Health Service of the State Department of Public Welfare.

"Tomorrow is a Day" is available until May of 1960. Nora Sterling's "Return to Thine Own House" will also be available in February. Each play features six student actors.

The play is given at no charge to southern Illinois civic groups.

The series of plays, made available annually by the SIU theatre department, deals with mental health problems.

PLANS BEGIN

FOR MILITARY BALL

The Military Ball, sponsored annually by the AFROTC department, has been scheduled for the first weekend in February.

The queen candidates will be announced shortly. Last year, Barbara Larkin was queen and the Jimmie Dorsey Orchestra provided the music.

Big Ain't It?

Some cars are very fast, like Jaguars. Others are very small, like Volkswagens. A few, like Cadillacs, are even very luxurious. But Southern's 1958 Buick Limousine has a distinction of its own.

It is very, very long. It measures 24 feet from bumper to bumper.

Used mainly to transport Southern's basketball and gymnastics squads when they are "on the road," the limousine has eight rows, seats 12 and has a horsepower of 54.45, according to Harry Gallatin, Southern's basketball coach.

Although the athletic department has been the most consistent user of the car since it was acquired by the University in 1948, the limousine may be used by any department.

The name "Lame Duck" was given the car by its passengers soon after it was put into service. There were difficulties with the air suspension system in a few of those days. The name grew, and the car is equipped with one of the many unscheduled safety belts, which, because of difficulties with air suspension system is used primarily for out-of-town trips.

Biggest trouble, says coach Harry Gallatin, is getting the blamed thing parked.

'Contemporary American Arts' Theme For Fine Arts Festival

"Contemporary American Arts" is the theme for the fifth annual Festival of Fine Arts, which begins at SIU Jan. 31 and runs for three weeks.

Among the program scheduled at the festival are the appearances of two jazz groups, the J. Johnson Quintet and the Sal Salvador Quartet. According to Festival chairman Steven Barwick, the Johnson Quintet will play at a concert Feb. 15 in Shrock Auditorium, and the Salvador Quartet will play a one-hour concert for the Feb. 4 Freshman Convocation.

Johnson is one of the leading modern jazz trombonists and his group is ranked among the top eastern units attempting to extend the range of jazz in experimental form. Salvador, formerly played guitar with the Stan Kenton orchestra.

Other attractions scheduled for the festival are the Eastman String Quartet, the Mercer Cunningham Dance Group, the Edgar Players drama group, the Oxford String Quartet and a special Illinois Composers Symposium with Ingolf Dahl, University of California composer, as special guests.

"LUM" SPEAKS AT SIU ENGINEER MEET

Chester H. Lauck, better known as "Lum" of the popular radio and movie team, "Lum and Abner," spoke at the second annual campus dinner meeting for the Paducah subsection of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers at SIU recently.

Accompanists for the Squad were Sue Ann Sunday of Clay City and Ellen Dick of Bethany. The Squad Commander is Horace Marshall of Red Bud.

The blue-uniformed Singing Squadron is conducted by Don Canedy, director of the SIU marching band. The unit sing-throughout southern Illinois and has appeared on several radio and television programs in addition to regular campus assignments. All singers are members of Southern's AFROTC unit, seventh largest in the nation.

Morris Presents Talks In Cuba

President and Mrs. Delvye W. Morris left Southern yesterday to attend the Cuban Educational Conference in Havana, Cuba.

They are in Washington, D. C. They are briefing on the conference. They will then fly to Cuba where President Morris will present two addresses tomorrow and Thursday. Morris was invited by the State Department to attend the conference on educational reform conducted by the Ministry of Education of Cuba.

According to Morris, the topic of his speech will be U. S. Education and the Relationship Between Education and our growth as a Nation.

In his proposed speech, Morris points out that the American people realize the need of teaching foreign languages, but as yet progress is not too far along, but is moving.

"The vast world changes in our generation are causing a re-appraisal of many things in our country. They have caused us, as they are causing you, to re-appraise, re-evaluate and reorient public education," Morris explains in his planned speech.

He continues to say that education in the United States is great because it is based on democratic principles and the desire for universal free education and the will to achieve it.

Grown Stronger

"That our nation is not a perfect nation is due to the fact that our educational system has not been perfect," Morris explains.

Morris will also take a series of slides of Southern to show to the conference group. He also will show the film of Southern titled "The People's University."

The conference will revolve around the philosophy of a national system of education at the elementary and high school level. The United States participation will also offer the opportunity to identify the American interest in educational reform and the democratic direction of the United States educational system.

Students will be provided with "An Evening In Roma" at the Student Union Friday.

The evening will include a spaghetti dinner, dancing and entertainment from 6:30 to 11 p. m. The dinner, which costs $1 per plate, will last from 6:30 to 8 p. m. and the rest of the time will be used for dancing and entertainment.

Tickets are now on sale in the Student Union. The spaghetti meal will consist of salad, garlic bread and coffee, tea or sodas, in addition to the main portion.

Other evening taking place Friday night are an ice skating party at the Murphyboro Skating Rink. Transportation will leave the Union at 6:30 p. m. and will return about 10 p. m. Transportation will be free.

Dancing lessons will be given in the Union from 7-9 p. m. with Don Monako and Barbara Mezo teaching. Five o'clock hour of lessons is free. Chacha-chacha and jitterbug will be two of the dances taught.

Bowling will be held at the Congress Lanes Friday evening but tickets must be purchased in advance at the Student Union. The tickets will be good for Friday only.

Other activities for the weekend, which will be published in more detail Friday, are the weekend Movie Hour, Bridge Night at the Union, two shows of "Bus Stop" by the Southern Players, the Thompson Point Sno-Ball Dance and the WAA Volleyball Clinic and physical education day.

Prison Group Calls Comedy 'Convincing'; Curtain At 8

The Southern Players' "Bus Stop" was a hit with the inmates of the Illinois State Penitentiary at Menard. "Obviously responsive to the audience reaction, the actors put over their roles in an unrestrained, altogether convincing performance," said a review in the Nov. 20 Menard Times.

The players touring group presented "Bus Stop" to an audience of more than 800 at the Menard Prison Oct. 30 at part of their road trip which included 24 performances. It was the third annual appearance of the group there.

The Menard paper called Ken Swafford "completely believable" in the role of Bo, and said the same for Janice Wilson, who played Cherie. "Veteran actor James Lash played perfectly the part of Dr. Lyman," the review went on, who "refuses to take advantage of the innocence of Elma, the waitress, played by Janet Schnur."

Effective In Roles

Roger Long as Carl, the bus driver, and Ruby Ballentine as race, grass-wood owner of the diner, were effective in their roles," the critic said, adding that "Richard Gibson evoked excellent audience reaction with his portrayal of Virge, Bo's laconic friend, and Jack Fitzgerald was well-cast as Will, the man 'everybody in town likes—even if he is the sheriff.'"

The Players open on campus with the William Inge comedy "Bus Stop" at 8 p. m. Friday. Curtain time is 8 p. m. in the Southern Playhouse.

Nightly performances will be presented through Saturday, Dec. 12, with the exception of Monday.

The popular romantic comedy is the story of a group of bus passengers stranded in a small Kansas town by a blizzard. Bo Decker is a Montana rodeo champion who has fallen in love with Cherie, a night club singer, and is forcibly taking her home to "marry up with her."

Adding go the story are Carl, the bus driver, who becomes involved with Grace, owner of the diner, and sophisticated Dr. Lyman, who becomes involved with Elma, the young waitress. Supporting the cast are Will, the sheriff, and Virge, Bo's cowboy buddy.

1955 Broadway Hit

"Bus Stop" ran on Broadway in 1955. Inge was also author of "Picnic" and "Dark at the Top of the Stairs." The show girl who is abducted by the boisterous Bo, was portrayed by Marilyn Monroe in the movie production and by Kim Stanley on Broadway.

The plot centers around Bo, the backwoods rancher, and his trip into Kansas City for a rodeo. Bo, who is not quite aware of the significance of women, is awestruck by Cherie, the night club dancer, and vows that he will take her back home with him.

Cherie has one terrible time trying to shake Bo, as the persevering cowboy even trumps into her bedroom the day after he meets her to awaken her. The hilarity runs the gamut from the beginning, but there are several points of seriousness, especially the ending and Bo's re-evaluation of himself.

Other members of the cast are Roger Long—Carl, the bus driver; Jack Fitzgerald—Will, the sheriff; Janet Schnur—waitress at the cafe; Ruby Ballentine—race, proprietor of the restaurant.

Newsman Gives Rare Book To Library

A bound volume of the Morning Times, the Philippine resistance paper during World War II, has been donated to Morris Library by Mason Rossiter Smith, former SIU visiting professor of journalism.

Smith, former national president of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity, was given two bound volumes of the paper by the Philippine publisher. The only other bound volume of the paper in the United States is in the New York Public Library.

The newspaper was printed during the darkest hours of the Philippine resistance to the Japanese by a small group of journalists who hid typewriters in caves. They ground out the daily newspaper on a foot-powered, hand-fed press, in spite of Japanese attacks on the area.

Japanese troops killed the carrier boys in an effort to eradicate the paper, but the Philippine journalists managed to hide in the mountains. "Editorial offices" of the Morning Times were in a cave in the mountains of Cagayan de Baril.

Smith said it became an honor with the Philippine carriers to post the paper on the town square and to send a copy to the Bishop of the Cagayan.

Smith became acquainted with the paper and the men who braved Japanese fire to run it during the time he served as a United States Information Service consultant.

Editors' Opinions

Heed Warnings!

In Illinois, more than 20 per cent of the traffic fatalities occur in the last two months of the year. Of the 1,886 traffic fatalities in this state last year, 398 occurred in November and December.

November is now past. December is still ahead of us. With the coming of December, we also have the hazards of icy roads and poor visibility. We know these factors, yet so many drivers fail to heed warnings. When that fatal moment arrives, it is too late to say "I know better."

Traveling at 20 miles an hour with regular tires, it will take 195 feet to stop on glare ice. On loosely packed snow it takes 60 feet. Take heed, drivers, you just can't beat the statistics ... but you can be careful and miss being a statistic. To beat slick roads, get the "feel" of the road when you first start out ... before you get into heavy traffic. When you other vehicles are near, try your brakes a few times to find out how slippery the road is. Remember, once you start skidding you might just skid out of this world.

If your better judgment tells you not to step in front of a moving train, or gulp down a poisonous drink ... then why shouldn't the same judgment keep you from driving carelessly?

You are aware that driving conditions are less favorable during the winter. It is up to you to protect yourself and others. Drive carefully.

Questions Posed!

In another column on this page is printed a letter from a student concerning the recent inquiry into racial segregation and discrimination by Carbondale merchants. The letter raises as many questions as it leaves as many holes for searching as it does in pointing out any definite idea.

The plea has always been for "tact" and gradual education in relation to civil rights. This plea, however, has some value. Things cannot be changed overnight. Merit must be earned. People were attempting to coerce others who would not stand still for absolute demands and orders.

If we are to live in a n d maintain a peaceful coexistence in our country there is going to be tact, understanding and gradual change. The Little Rock incident is an example of what happens when people become emotional instead of realistic.

The letter writer asks if it would be wise to publicize the names of these offending merchants. So far the supposed discrimination leaders of Carbondale have been referred to as "some offending merchants." The Student Council, the Carbondale Council and the letter writer do not name these merchants ... they just call them "some merchants."

True, it is not right to deny one service or goods because of his color or race. But is it any more right to condemn the Carbondale merchants as a whole for this practice without investigating to find the guilty ones and separating them from the innocent ones? Is it right to

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

Voice Box

Writer Asks For Action

Dear Editor: It was interesting to note in your lead article of the October 27th issue that the problem of segregation and discrimination by Carbondale merchants has provoked some comment by student leaders. However, it is even more interesting to consider the reply made by Mr. Carl Birkholz.

His plea for "tact" and gradual education is the same time-tested and evasive answer that has been used for years to still the demand for civil rights. It is entirely understandable that Mr. Birkholz cannot afford to antagonize these offending merchants members of the same Chamber of Commerce of which he is the elected president.

I do not wish to substitute rudeness for tact, or rashness for gradual education, but the interested students have the means with which to correct this evil, and should have, in this newspaper, the tool with which to project their will.

Would it be rude to publicize the names of these offending merchants? Would it be rash to suggest to the students that they could impress upon the merchants, possibly by withholding their patronage, their desire to see this undemocratic situation corrected? I think that the prospect of continued profits would go far in mitigating any rudeness that any of these merchants would feel. I further think that these merchants would overlook the rashness of an egalitarian student body in order to insure continued sales.

And we should pose the question, "how rude is it to deny one service or goods because of his color or race?" Mr. Birkholz is like so many of us: he believes in progress ... but just not now.

Marine Officer Selection Team Here This Week

Captain H. E. Cottrell, Marine Corps officer selection officer, will visit the SIU Placement Office and Student Union today through Friday. Interested students are urged to contact the Placement Office.

Capt. Cottrell will interview students who are interested in obtaining commission in the U. S. Marine Corps after graduation. The Marines offer the platoon leaders class and platoon leaders class in aviation for underclassmen who have and maintain a "C" average.

Members attend two six-week summer training periods at Marine Corps schools, Quantico, Va., between academic years. They have no on-campus training and are commissioned upon graduation as either aviators or ground officers.

Aviation officers have four and one-half years and ground officers have three years of active duty obligation after being commissioned. This program allows students to complete college and gives the student who enrolls early in his college career the advantage of receiving more pay when commissioned.

Wesley Group Presents 'Christ In The Concrete City' Play

"Christ in the Concrete City," a one-act play by Philip Turner, will be presented by the Wesley Foundation Thursday at 8 p. m.

The play is built around the rejection of God by man, with emphasis on the relationship of Christ to the men of old and the men of today.

A Wesley Foundation spokesman said, "The play demonstrates the deplorable situation of today and presents a hope of tomorrow. It is frank, brutal, powerful and almost frightening."

The plot of "Christ in the Concrete City" shows the superficiality, hard-heartedness and self-concern of man. Viewers will witness the crucifixion of Christ.

Members of the play cast are Benita Black of Salem, Illinois; Wendell Luke, Massachusetts; Dan Wanders, North Lake, Illinois; Duane Boden, Alpha; Wendell Luke, Massachusetts; and Dan Wanders, North Lake. Special music for the play will be supplied by Martha Botsch, Carmi, and Ester Thomson, Mt. Vernon. Jerry Meyer, Carbonade, will be in charge of lighting.

Music Groups Have Concert Here Sunday

The Southern Illinois Oratorio Society, the SIU Choir and selected singers from area high school choirs will take part in the annual Christmas oratorio concert here Sunday.

The traditional public program will begin at 3 p. m. in Shrock Auditorium.

George Frederick Handel's "Dettingen Te Deum," conducted by many choral musicians, will be his top oratorio achievement, will be the major work on this year's program. Singing solo roles will be Catherine Akos, former Boston Symphony Orchestra and Bucharest Opera Mezzo-soprano; Dr. Carol Cook, MacClintock, and William Taylor, voice instructors at SIU, and Larry Henaut, Mo., who will be the first SIU student singer ever featured in the concert.

Other events on the program were an address by Dr. Howard Hanson of the Eastman School of Music, on "Music in the Atomic Age," and a group of administrative workshops in which the problems facing various types of schools were discussed.

On Friday afternoon, the 250 delegates were guests of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra at a concert in Ford Auditorium.

Book Fair Opens Here

"It's always Book time" is the theme of the Seventh Annual Childrens Book Fair this week at the SIU Museum. The Fair is sponsored by the Carbonade branch of the American Assn. of University Women.

In keeping with the theme, story hours have been scheduled, featuring Rebecca Baker. Miss Baker will conduct the story-telling sessions at 10 a. m. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday for preschool age children. School-age children's story hour will be 4 p. m. on the same days.

A special story hour for children of all ages will be conducted Saturday at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m.

Mrs. Carrol Riley, co-author of the children's book "Dinosaur Harvest", has been invited to read passages from the book at some of the story hours.

SIU Hunts For Econ Placement

Two SIU professors attending a Jacksonville, Fla., meeting recently attempted to find a person to fill the recently-endowed Vandevier Chair of Economics, according to Dean Henry J. Rehn of the School of Business.

Dr. Clark Allen, professor of economics, and Dr. Robert G. Layer, chairman of the economics department, attended a meeting of the Southern Economics Assn.

The Vandevier Chair was established by the SIU Board of Trustees at the request of W. W. Vandevier, an alumnus of Southern whose gift of 5,000 shares of Ashland Oil and Refining Co. stock will finance the program.

Vandevier, a member of the SIU Foundation Board of Directors and past president of the SIU Alumni Assn., was graduated from Southern in 1909. He is an Ashland executive.

In presenting the oil stock, which now has a value of more than $440,000, Vandevier requested the right to designate a future use for the fund. He proposed the Vandevier Chair to the SIU Trustees in a letter Aug. 9, 1959.

"The occupant of such Chair shall be known as the 'Vandevier professor of economics'."

Dr. Johnson turns another elegant phrase:

Sir, if it hasn't got it there, it hasn't got it!

Old Dr. Sam has done it again—brought his dictionary up to date in terms of modern Winston usage.

Winston (win'ston), n. A cigarette with Filter-Blend on one end and a wise man on the other.

Taste (tast), n. What decorators argue about and Winston smokers enjoy.

Filter-Blend (fil'ter-blend), n. A happy marriage of art and science. Light, mild, flavorful tobaccos are artfully selected, then scientifically processed for filter smoking.

Slogan (slo'gan), n. (e.g., Winston tastes good like a cigarette should). A statement of disputed grammar but unquestioned fact.

Front (frant), n. (used in conjunction with the preposition "up"). The section of a filter cigarette where if it hasn't got it, it hasn't got it. Also, the section that counts, the section where exclusive Filter-Blend is to be found.

Boswell (bōs'well), Nickname for a guy who is always hanging around to eadge Winstons from you.

"There is nothing which has yet been contrived by man by which so much happiness is produced . . ."

Sore Hands Write 1,045 Auto Tickets

The Campus Police have worn blisters on their writing fingers since school began in September.

Since the latter part of September, 1,045 automobile violation tickets have been written. Five students have paid $50 fines for illegal possession of autos and two persons have paid $25 fines for falsifying records.

Of the 1,045 tickets issued this quarter, 334 have been written to faculty members, the rest to students and visitors.

A member of the parking section in the Office of Student Affairs said the total number of fines assessed is running slightly below the same time last year.

Mexico Issues Spanish Books By Boyd Carter

Two Spanish language literary books by Dr. Boyd Carter, SIU professor of romance languages, are being published in Mexico within a three month period.

One, "Revisitas literarias de Hispanoamerica" (Literary Reviews of Hispanic America), is the first attempt at a general history of Spanish American literary periodicals and the role of newspapers in providing outlets for literary work. Prof. Carter says it also contains previously inaccessible data on periodicals and newspapers which will be useful to librarians, journalists and scholars. A bibliographical section will interest writers and researchers. The book was published in Mexico recently by Studium.

The other book, "En torno a Gutierrez Najera y las letras mexicanas del siglo XIX" (Gutierrez Najera and Mexican Letters of the Nineteenth Century), concerns this writer of the last century whose importance to Mexican letters may be compared to Poe's significance to American literature. The book will be issued this month in Mexico by Bosas. It is Carter's second book on Najera.

department involved will have to arrange special examination periods for such students. This problem involves those night students who are fully employed and cannot attend night courses because it is the only time they are able to attend for the daytime, each do so.

Improvement Of Off-Campus Housing Sought

A move to revise and improve off-campus housing policy and to determine future policies was made by the off-campus housing office recently.

Questionnaires were mailed to about 700 off-campus housing units concerning such items as the number of rooms in the house.

number of actual renters, capacity of the house, householders' name, address and phone number.

Margaret Coury, supervisor of off-campus housing, said that basement rooms are now open for inspection to be approved by the off-campus housing office. Previously, the office did not inspect basement rooms. Mrs. Anita Kuo, assistant supervisor of off-campus housing, will direct a visitation program to the off-campus houses this month.

LUCKY STRIKE presents Dear Dr. Frood:

DR. FROOD'S MORAL OF THE MONTH:
Make the most of your college days. (The nights will probably haunt you the rest of your life.)

Dear Dr. Frood: Is it all right to study with the TV on?
Distracted

Dear Distracted: Better not. You might miss some of the story.

Dear Dr. Frood: The Dean is trying to force me to go to classes. I think this is unfair because last season I scored 16 touchdowns, intercepted 18 passes and kicked 22 field goals in 23 attempts. What should I do?
Letter Man

Dear Letter Man: I fail to see how going to classes will help. Better practice your kicking.

Dear Dr. Frood: I am a very plain girl and I don't have much personality. All I want is a man who will love me. Why can't I find one?
Sad

Dear Sad: You're too particular.

Dear Dr. Frood: I want to get married, but I don't like children. What shall I do?
Surly

Dear Surly: Marry an adult.

Dear Plump, Tired: Keep worrying.

Dear Dr. Frood: How can I keep people from borrowing my Luckies?
Pestered

Dear Pestered: Put them in a Braad X pack.

DR. FROOD ON HOW TO BE A BEATNIK

I've drawn up instructions for becoming a Beatnik. Let your hair grow until your hearing is noticeably impaired. When beard covers your face, discard it. Keep your shoes and socks in effigy. Sell your sink for scrap. Stock your room with cigarettes—because you won't be allowed on the street any more. (Better make 'em Luckies and enjoy your isolation!)

COLLEGE STUDENTS SMOKE MORE LUCKIES THAN ANY OTHER REGULAR!

When it comes to choosing their regular smoke, college students head right for fine tobacco. Result: Lucky Strike tops every other regular sold. Lucky's taste beats all the rest because L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco.

Tankmen Open Winter Sports With Dual Meet At Indiana Univ.

Twelve outstanding tankmen will lead the attack today as the Saluki tankmen open their schedule and the SIU winter sports show against the University of Indiana at Bloomington, Ind.

Captain Ralph Casey's IAC champs will be led by Captain Norbert Rumpel, American breaststroke champion. Rumpel is a sophomore from Schweinfurt, Germany.

Other top-notch vets returning to face one of the toughest schedules in history are: Bill Busch, breaststroke, Ron Ballatore, backstroke; Warren Dick, freestyle; Clyde Epperson, freestyle; Jim Fountain, freestyle; Bob Steele, backstroke; Vern Wilhelm, freestyle; and Ron Deady, medley.

The Saluki swimmers complete by dominating the conference championships last winter as they broke every existing record. The dogs tallied 156 points in the meet. The next closest was Western Illinois with 68 points.

Casey's squad will also get plenty of help from a number of freshmen strokes and transfer Paul Wachendorf, who had to sit out last season. Tops among the freshmen are Ray Padovan, Jesse Ellis, John Fishback and Larry Assmusen.

The Salukis will have to do some hard swimming. Casey remarked earlier, if they want to better last season's marks of 6-2 in dual competition, first in the Central AAU and seventh at the National AAU.

Following the Indiana meet, the dogs will swim in the Chicago University Relays in Chicago.

Flamer Seventh

Harriers Finish Fifth In NIAA

Southern's IAC cross country champs finished fifth in the national NIAA cross country run at the University of Omaha last weekend.

A total of 30 teams took part in the national run which was won by Emporia of Kansas. Emporia finished with a total of 62 points. Other top ten finishers were Nebraska State 66, Howard Payne of Texas 80, South Dakota State 92, SIU 140, Duquesne University, 170, Ft. Hays of Kansas 174, Wisconsin State 182, Indiana State 200, St. Michaels College 276, Minnesota Duluth Branch 291 and Omaha U. 322.

John Flamer, Illinois state champ, finished seventh to lead the Salukis. Other SIU finishers were Don Hequembourg 32nd, Alan Celso 42nd, Lee King 43rd, Carl Meier 47th and Fred Arnold 62nd.

The top five individual finishers:

- O'Ridan, Idaho State
- Whitely, Emporia
- Eggleston, North Dakota State
- Brings, South Dakota
- Wirta, Emporia

The Salukis earned the right to make the appearance in the meet by winning the IAC conference title and the Illinois Invitational.

Following the Indiana meet, the Salukis will meet Central Illinois in Chicago.

Harriers Finish Fifth In NIAA

Intercollegiate Cross Country Assn. championships.

Southern compiled a 4-1 record in dual meets during the fall.

Frosh Cagers Open Slate This Week

By Tom McNamara Sports Reporter

Basketball is rapidly approaching and the SIU freshman basketball team does not seem aware of this fact for it has looked sluggish and slow.

"It takes time for boys right out of high school, to move into a new system and do a satisfactory job," commented Lubeck.

Only Sure of Two

"Harold Hood and Ted McAllister are the only two boys that I am sure, will start the opening game at Murray State Dec. 3. The other positions are up for grabs," commented Lubeck.

Frank Lender and Jim Keller are battling it out for the starting berth at center. Lender is a slim 6'8" boy from Riverdale, who can hit the jump shot effectively from around the free throw circle. Keller, on the other hand, is a big 6'5", 200-pound center from Jacksonville, and can hit hook shots with both hands effectively.

Leroy Newton and McAllister will probably open the season as guards for Lubeck's freshman. McAllister is a good ball handler and a fine outcourt shooter from St. Louis and Newton is a 5'6" guard from Hurst-Bush. Like McAllister, Newton can hit from out front with authority. Between these two boys they will keep opponents from using an zone defense because of their ability to hit from out front.

Others Vieing

Other boys vieing for the starting guard positions are Warren Barry, Dick Birds and S. M. Hughes. Hughes has been hampered by injuries and will not be able to play until the first of the year.

"Ed Spila will probably be the starting forward along with Harold Hood. Spila is 6'5", hails from Chicago and weighs 207.

Preston Vanderford is beginning to round into shape and will give Spila a battle for the other forward position. He hails from St. Louis and is a scrappy, hustling ball player.

Other boys running for starting forward positions are Jack Keller, Dennis Guot and Don Kasauki. Guot is slow in coming around because he just finished the football season. Keller is a 6'5", forward from Kellor

WSRV

Carries Cage Games

Live coverage of Southern's 27 home and away basketball games will be provided again this season by WSRV-FM (91.5 m.), the SIU campus radio station.

Sportscaster Bill Moore, senior from Milwaukee, Wis., will handle the play-by-play. In addition to broadcast by WSRV, two southern Illinois community stations also will carry the games. Station WKRO, Cairo, will bring the games live, and WCIL, Carbondale, will tape the games for re-broadcast one day later.

The Salukis of Coach Harry Gallatin enter their season Dec. 7 at Quincy College. Their first home game is Jan. 4 against Kentucky Wesleyan.

and can hit the corner shot with authority. Kasauki, 6'4", from St. Louis, may develop into a fine ball player as the season gets underway.

This years jayvee team will have plenty of height and determination and will cause some team trouble. They will be green at first, but with game experience may develop into a fine ball club.

Coach Lubeck commented, "I am sure that these boys will have a 500 season if not better because of their desire and ability."

After opening the season at Murray State, they travel to Evansville, Ind., and then tangle with the St. Louis Billikens Dec. 10.

Other tough teams on their schedule are Western Illinois and McKendree College. The freshman team will participate in the junior varsity basketball tournament at Farmington, Mo. February 3-6.

Lubeck comes to SIU from West Frankfort where he was assistant basketball coach for a year and then eight years as head coach of the Redbirds. He took three teams to the "Sweet Sixteen" in Champaign. Coach Lubeck's other duties at SIU are head of the athletic work program and instructor of physical education classes.

Roster

The freshman roster is: Warren Barry, 6'2", West Frankfort; Dick Birds, 6'1", St. Louis; Dennis Guot, 6'2", St. Louis; Harold Hood, 6'4", West Frankfort; Sam Hughes, 5'11", Carmi; Don Kasauki, 6'4", Stanton; Jack Keller, 6'5", Carrollton; Frank Lender, 6'8", Riverdale; Jim Keller, 6'5", Jacksonville; Ted McAllister, 5'11", St. Louis; Leroy Newton, 5'6", Hurst-Bush; Ed Spila, 6'5", Chicago; Preston Vanderford, 6'2", St. Louis.

Schedule

The freshmen schedule is: Dec. 3, at Murray State; Dec. 5, at Evansville; Dec. 10, at St. Louis University; Dec. 12, at South Air Force Base; Jan. 4, Evansville; Jan. 6, at Southeast Missouri; Jan. 14, Eastern Illinois; Jan. 18, Murray State; Jan. 22, Scott Air Force Base; Jan. 23, Western Illinois; Feb. 3-6, Junior Varsity Basketball Tournament at Farmington, Missouri; Feb. 9, at McKendree College; Feb. 12, McKendree College; Feb. 19, Southeast Missouri; Feb. 20, St. Louis University; Feb. 23, at Western Illinois.

Fisheries Research Lab

'Fishy' Construction Goin' On

A chain of fish ponds is under construction by SIU to spur studies of some of the outstanding puzzles of fishing and fish management, according to Dr. William Lewis, director of the Cooperative Fisheries Research Laboratory.

The ponds are being built near the Carbondale city reservoir dam through an agreement with the city. When completed next year, the site will include 16 ponds averaging one-tenth of an acre in size, and a laboratory. The ponds' water supply will be valve-controlled.

Lewis said the pond system will make possible a number of critical research studies that could neither be duplicated nor well enough controlled on area lakes.

One example is a study of natural cross-breeding among various species of sunfish. Hybridizing is a common occurrence in area waters and in many cases results in new species superior to either of the parents. For instance, a laboratory-perfected cross between bluegill and redear sunfish is stocked in many Indiana ponds and lakes. Lewis said the study will attempt to perfect large-scale cross-breeding as an effective management tool.

Fish Food

Another project will explore the age-old mystery of what kinds of food fish like best. A recent study by Lewis and Gerald Canning, University of Illinois, has shown a few popular theories by showing that bass have very little taste for crayfish; when golden shiners or green sunfish are available they will go for them 15 or 30 times as readily, Lewis said.

In fact, bass show more preference for tadpoles and certain frogs than for crayfish. The pond system will permit a full-scale comparison of the parts played by availability, vulnerability and palatability in the feeding habits of fish, mostly bass.

Still another phenomenon that has long puzzled fishermen and management experts alike is how fish eggs are transported from one spot to another, resulting in mysterious fish populations in all kinds of unlikely places. Lewis said some of the ponds will be screened in (to keep out turtles, frogs and birds) and otherwise controlled to examine population stability.

Uniform Conditions

A major benefit of the pond system will be to provide researchers with an homogeneous population of test fish, uniform in health and genetic background. Handling fish in the laboratory is tough and go most of the time and merely the chlorine content of tap water can eat and how they go about the business of feeding to survive," Lewis said. "We know, for instance, that a bass has to work very hard to catch a bluegill. It's like the relationship between a cougar and a deer. Most people think a bass can knock off a bluegill anytime he gets hungry; actually he may work two days to catch it."

In the past few years, we've found out a lot about what fish eat and how they go about the business of feeding to survive," Lewis said. "We know, for instance, that a bass has to work very hard to catch a bluegill. It's like the relationship between a cougar and a deer. Most people think a bass can knock off a bluegill anytime he gets hungry; actually he may work two days to catch it."

Jolli Rodgers Increase Lead

The Jolli Rodgers, leaders of the Intercollegiate Bowling League, increased their margin with a three-one decision from defending champions Newman Club No. 2 on consistent team shooting, topped by Larry Thies' 436. Ben Caryl's 505 went to waste for the victims.

The runner-up Chemistry Quinets was pulled back two games from the pace by losing three-one to the Alpha's. Only with a 12-pin victory in the nightcap did the Chemistry department avenge a sweep, 1-0, from second place. The Alpha's attack with 508 followed by Archie Bradford's 468. Roger Bevier tallied 485 to top the victims efforts.

Club 400 continued its strong comeback by downing Newman Club No. 1 three-one, which earned Newman, 1-2, for second place. Silvanus Jim Hastings and Bill Coates collaborated efforts of 497 and 471 for the winners. American Chemical Society reaped the only sweep of the season, routing Illinois Ave. Mens Residence Hall to round out the action for the night.

Grapplers Fight For Position

The running battle for starting spots on SIU's wrestling team is in its final week as Coach Jim Wilkinson shakes down his huge 35-man squad for an opening lineup.

The Salukis, defending Interstate Conference champions, will begin a 13-match schedule Saturday by defending their Illinois Invitational title at Champaign. Next week, Dec. 12, they seek their 23rd dual victory in a row.

Wilkinson's tough crew hasn't been beaten in a dual match since 1957 and has posted 9-0 records the past two years. The outlook for a third undefeated year is dim, however, with Oklahoma State University looming Jan. 18. The Cowboys, a perennial wrestling power, won the NCAA title last year.

In the group of 10 returning lettermen, Wilkinson can count on four Interstate Conference champions, two runners-up and one third-place winner.

Heading the list of returnees are Co-Captains Jim Bledsoe, IAC 123-pound champ, and Herman Ayres, second in the 167-pound division.

Other conference champions back are "Deke" Edwards, 130; Dick Frickerberger, 137, and Jack Cider, 147.

Brown, Walker Named To All-Star Squad

SIU grid captain Willie Brown and halfback Clarence Walker have been named to the NAIA All-District 20 (Illinois) first team.

Three repeaters from last year and the IAC conference dominated the selections chosen by the district coaches.

Alan Eck, Northern Illinois end, Willie Brown, SIU guard and Tom Dean, North Central center are all repeaters from last year's All-District team.

Following is the 1959 All-District team:

End—Alan Eck, Northern Illinois University and Chuck Davis, Millikin University.

Tackles—Don Eppler, Illinois Wesleyan and Dale Berman, Northern Illinois.

Guards—Willie Brown, Southern and Bill Zavadil, Western Illinois University.

German Club Hears Mueller

At the Nov. 23 meeting of the "Deutsche" or German Club, which was held in the Home Economics building, Ernest Mueller spoke to the group about German and American education in comparison. Prior to this talk a business meeting was held.

In the business meeting the new constitution was given to the present members of the club in order to discuss and to give their opinion about the new paper.

Mueller is a law student from Hamburg, Germany, and studied government at Southern as a graduate student. In his talk, Mueller gave a picture of the university system in West Germany, in the Soviet Zone and showed the differences between these and the system of the United States.

He also pointed out the differences between West Germany and Soviet Zone schools. In West Germany the 26 universities are completely free from any political influence. In the Soviet Zone the universities are controlled by the SED, the Communist Party. The students too are under control of the Communist government in East Germany.

Mueller told about the fraternities at West German universities. He gave the text of some German student songs to the members and played some records with the student songs.

DINNER DANCERS

A large crowd turned out for the first dinner-dance of academic year at the Anthony Hall Eaves Nov. 21. The Glenn Daum band provided music following the meal and patrons were entertained by several students. The supper club was sponsored by the Student Union and more of the same are planned for the future.

J-CHRISTMAS PARTY PLANS IN MAKING

Plans have been partially completed for the 2nd Annual Journalism Christmas Party, set this year for Dec. 11. Theme for the annual party is "Christmas in Four Lands."

A local combo is being scheduled for the dance, which will last from 8-10 p. m. at the Journalism Barracks. Santa Claus will distribute gifts to journalists, faculty, special guests, dates and wives. Skits by the various organizations will be held from 10-11:30 p. m.

The barracks will be decorated in keeping with the theme, which symbolizes students from four different countries majoring in journalism here. Mike Nixon and Joe Dill are co-chairmen for the event.

SIGMA DELTA CHI'S DISCUSS MEETING

Members of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic fraternity, met Nov. 23 for a report of the national convention in Indianapolis, Nov. 11-14.

President Ron Jacober gave a report of the convention, which included a one and one-half hour address by Vice President of the United States Richard M. Nixon. Some of the top newsmen in the country were present.

Four pledges attended the meeting and plans were made for initiation the first of the year. Pledges present were Joe Gage, Joe Bryant, Lon Eubanks and John Zacharian.

The fraternity also set April 2-3 as the date for the regional Sigma Delta Chi undergraduate conference. Southern's undergraduate chapter will host the meeting this year. Guest chapters from colleges and universities in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Missouri and Kentucky will be on campus for the annual event.

PLEDGINGS HELD BY DELTA ZETA

Delta Zeta sorority held pledging ceremonies at the chapter house Nov. 5 for Deanne Schunk, Nikki Allen, Nancy Smith and Foreen Perrino. Another pledging was held after the regular meeting Monday night. Those pledged then are Vicki Adcock, Jennifer West, Pat Kendt, Joyce Hill and Joyce Ketenhoj.

The chapter is planning a visit to the Best Haven, home for elderly men and women, in December. The sorority members will bring place cards to the residents and sing Christmas carols as part of their philanthropic program.

Nightingale was a soloist recently at the First Methodist Church in Carbondale. June is a music major.

Jennifer West, Gay McGowan and Sharon Long are participating in a one-act play which Miss McGowan is producing and directing at the Southern Playhouse.

INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION CLUB HEARS SPEAKER

Dr. John Pollock of the industrial education department discussed education and life in general in Nicaragua to the members of the Industrial Education Club at a meeting Nov. 17. The meeting was held in the Studio Theater at University School.

Dr. Pollock served for three years in Nicaragua under the U. S. Government Point Four program, and showed slides which he took in the country.

Refreshments were served to the 50 members present, according to Kenneth S. Hanson, secretary of the club.

WE HAVE ROMAN HOLIDAY PARTY

Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity was host for Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority at a "Roman Holiday" party held recently. Those attending dressed in the style of ancient days and the Tele house was decorated in the theme.

Both pledge classes gave skits for the party.

The fraternity beat Delta Zeta sorority in bowling Sunday by winning three games.

PLANT INDUSTRIES CLUB SEES MOVIE

"Dynamic Careers in Agriculture" was the title of a movie seen by members of the Plant Industries Club Tuesday evening. At the same meeting Ed

Nancy Smith, one of the new pledges, was initiated into Beta fraternity.

JOHNSON'S CO-OP HOLDS INITIATION

An initiation party was held for freshmen and newcomers at Johnson's Co-op before Thanksgiving vacation. After the initiation, the upperclassmen were hosts to the honored guests.

A recent housemeeting, the residents agreed to take part in the Christmas sing on Dec. 11, which is to be held on the back lawn of Woody Hall during Plans were also made and discussed for Prize Week to be held the week before final exams. Each girl does a good deed for the girl whose name she draws every day of that week. The house Christmas party will be held Dec. 10, when everyone will find out who has been her prize for the week.
