Southerners Take First Place in Speech Festival

Southern speech students won five first places and nine seconds and thirds, a total of 14 at the two-day Egyptian speech festival held on the campus last Friday and Saturday. Lake Forest College with four firsts and nine placings, a total of 13, was runner-up in the event.

First place winner for Southern in the various events were Lewis Hammack, Sparta, both in the men's dramatic reading and in the junior mixed extemporaneous speaking event, and Eileen Graden, Granite City, in the senior women's extemporaneous speaking. Ralph Lane, Eldorado, and Charles Weber, Cairo, were undefeated in the experienced men's debate, and Richard Whelan, Carbondale, ranked superior in the group discussion event.

Charlotte Wagener, Herrin, won second place in the women's dramatic reading, while George Seifert, Du Quoin, won second in the men's dramatic reading. In the junior mixed extemporaneous speaking John Rendleman, Anna won second place. Third place winners for Southern were Rosemary Woolard, Energy, in the women's original oratory event and Carl Wimberty, Granite City, in the senior men's extemporaneous speaking event.

The speech judges for the festival were local faculty members and townspeople and the visiting coaches.

Colleges of Illinois and neighboring states who participated in the Egyptian speech festival were Greenville College, Eureka College, Principia College, Lake Forest College, Eastern Illinois State Teachers College, Illinois State Normal University, St. Louis University, Southwest Missouri State College, Webster-Graves College, Rockhurst College, Murray State Teachers College, and Southwest Missouri State University.

46 GRADUATE WILL STUDY IN ENGLAND THIS SUMMER

Miss Helen Mataya, former editor of the Egyptian, now doing graduate study at a fellow in the government department at the University of Minnesota, is one of 46 students chosen to go abroad this summer to study at first hand the political, economic, cultural, religious, and educational conditions of post-war Europe.

Miss Mataya, whose home is in Herrin, graduated from Southern in 1946. She will be one of ten students to go to England and will ten more will go to France, ten to Spain, and ten to Sweden. These students will also help to interpret America to those abroad.

Selection of the students to make the trip were made from more than 170 applications and were based on scholarship, linguistic background, nature of the problem proposed for individual study, and an active interest in international affairs.

Each student will be required to write a comprehensive report on his activities when he returns to the United States.

Wooded Area Being Cleared of Ticks; Will Be Landgraded

Ticks were the original reason for beginning the clearance of the wooded lot back of the cafeteria, according to Dr. William Neal Phelps, acting director of the physical plant.

Besides cutting trees and underbrush and building a walk, the department's plans call for extending the parking area and building a flower garden, he stated.

Dr. Marie Hinrichs, University physician, is the main person back of the movement, Dr. Phelps said. Students living in the Chautauque area pass through the lot, which is infested with ticks, on their way to the campus.

Although there is no definite proof, there is little doubt that the four or five cases of tick fever here a few years ago were caused by the insects infesting the wooded lot.

The lot will be sprayed this spring with a solution prescribed by the state health department. "We think we will eradicate all ticks," asserted Dr. Phelps.

According to the physical plant director, all trees with branches overhanging the walk are to be cut. A chat walk will be built on the north side of the lot, while a strip 15 feet wide will be cleared on the south side. Whenever the weather allows, workers are clearing away the cans, ashes, and weeds behind the cafeteria and will fill the low places with dirt. A flower garden will be placed there and will provide blossoms for the cafeteria tables.

The plan is progressing on suggestions made by Dr. Hinrichs and members of the state health department.

NO EGYPTIAN DURING EXAMINATION WEEK

Final examinations for the current winter term will begin at 8 a. m. next Tuesday, March 11, and will continue until Friday, March 14. At the completion of the examinations at 4 p. m. Friday afternoon, spring vacation will begin for students and faculty of Southern. Registration for the spring term will be Monday and Tuesday, March 24-25.

The Egyptian will not be printed during examination week; publication will be resumed the first week of the spring term.

Art Works From Four Schools On Display In Little Gallery

Four universities, including Southern, are represented by 20 works of art now appearing in the standing exhibit in both size and variety of subject matter. Seven, ten oils, one drawing, one advertisement layout, and one piece of sculpture comprise the display.

Among the most prominent are Chattanooga's "Birds," Ohio Wesleyan's "A Study of a Wild Flower," and Phillips' "Studio Scene." This exhibit will last until March 24.

IEA SPRING MEETING ON CAMPUS MARCH 28

The Southern Division of the Illinois Education Association will hold its annual spring meeting on Southern's campus Friday, March 28, according to an announcement made this week by the University President's office.

EXPECT ORELISKS BY MIDDLE OF MAY

The 1947 Orelisks are expected to be ready for distribution about the middle of May, according to an announcement made yesterday by Woodrow (Chuck) Rust, sophomore from Cairo, who is editor of this year's book.

All pictures have been sent to the engravers and as soon as the cuts are made, the printers can begin printing the books, a process which will require two months.

This year's annual will be bound in a white, grained cover, upon which a drawing of an obelisk and the year 1947 will be embossed in maroon.

Theme of the 1947 year book will be the University's buildings. The entire faculty will be pictured in the book with a page dedicated to the memory of the late Dr. Thaddeus Kellogg, former associate professor of English, who died this winter.

Student pictures for all classes will be of the same size, and on each page there will be a candid shot chosen from those contributed by the students earlier this winter.

15 AWARDED MUSIC SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships for band, orchestra, chorus, and applied music have been awarded to 15 students of the music department. These scholarships are given on the basis of an audition before all members of the music faculty.

Students receiving scholarships for the spring term are Lorraine Carrington, applied and chorus; Alice Newhouse, chorus; Virginia Sikkel, orchestra; Carolyn Reithold, band and orchestra; Naomi Kuehner, orchestra; and Naomi Ada Cover, band; Bobbie Ingram, chorus; Bridgett Giesey, orchestra; Georgia Gher, orchestra; Lois Price, chorus; Roberta Wheeler, applied and chorus; Mamie Sills, band and orchestra; Roberts Brink, band; Mary Elizabeth Frederick, chorus; and Doris Ivy, band.

Robert Steffes Sells Article To Magazine

An article entitled, "Renew That Ribbon," written by Robert A. Steffes, instructor in journalism and typewriting, will soon appear in the magazine, "The Office," trade journal for the office equipment industry.

Mr. Steffes' article deals with the manufacture of typewriter ribbons, how to choose them, and how to take care of them.

"Renew That Ribbon" is only one of many free lance articles and short stories written by Mr. Steffes.

Cain and Seymour In Washington, D.C. For Kappa Phi Meet

Kappa Phi, national honorary educational fraternity, has sent two Carbondale students, Virgil L. Seymour of Ellis Grove and Ted Cain of Eldorado, to the annual convention at Washington, D.C.

Seymour and Cain left for the trip Wednesday morning and will remain in Washington until Sunday.

TENNEY REVIEWS BOOK FOR WOMEN'S CLUB

Dr. Charles D. Tenney, professor of English and philosophy and administrative assistant to the president, reviewed John Steinbeck's "The Wayward Bus" at a meeting last Monday of the Carbondale Women's Club, which met at the home of Mrs. W. A. Furr, 110 So. Poplar St.

WILLIAM PRIMROSE, VIOLIST, FEATURED IN THIRD COMMUNITY CONCERT SERIES

William Primrose, the man who has popularized the viola as a concert instrument, will be featured here March 24. This concert will be the third in a series sponsored by the Carbondale Community Concert Association. The violist will appear in Shryock auditorium at 8 p. m. on the first day of registration for the spring term.

Born in Glasgow, Primrose began his career on the violin and made his first public appearance playing in the Mendelssohn Violin Concerto at the age of 10. He later changed to the viola when it was discovered that he had a special aptitude for the instrument.

Primrose played with the London String Quartet from 1930-35, and when the group disbanded, he returned to London for his debut as solo violist under Sir Thomas Beecham. In 1937 he joined the NBC Symphony orchestra as solo violist under Toscanini. In 1942 Primrose left the orchestra to devote all his time to solo work. The following season he made a coast-to-coast tour of the United States, making three appearances with the Philadelphia orchestra.

English To Work With Naval Personnel For Two Weeks

Robert W. English, assistant professor of industrial education, will don the navy uniform again tomorrow for service during the next two weeks. He will return to the campus for the spring term.

At the request of the director of training of the U. S. navy department, Mr. English will return to temporary active duty in the bureau of naval personnel at Washington, D. C.

"Because of my military and civilian experience in the field of training and instructor training, your services are desired by this activity to assist with the development of naval reserve curricula and plans for naval reserve instructor training," stated the letter from the bureau personnel.

Kesner Compositions Reach Publication

Dr. Maurice Kesner, chairman of the music department, has had seven of his new compositions in a book published recently by Gamble Hinez company of Chicago.

Dr. Kesner had originally been commissioned by the company to compose two pieces for the viola, but on completion of the first two, he was immediately asked to compose five more. Titles of the seven numbers are "Americana," "Evening Campfire (By the Lake)," and "Shadow Picture."

Dr. Kesner is a member of the American Society of Composers and Publishers and has had his compositions listed in the catalogues of every major publishing house in the United States. He also has published compositions in Belgium, Holland, and Germany.

He is now writing a book on music written to Goethe's "Faust."

Southern Husband and Wife Team Given Spread In National Magazine

Two graduates of Southern, a husband-and-wife team received a full page spread in a recent issue of the "New York Post Week-End" magazine for their work at the Henry Street Settlement's theatre school.

They are Edward Mitchell, formerly of Carbondale, and his wife, the former Kate Burkhardt of Benton.

Their first production, Arthur Laurents' "Honey of the Brave," played eight instead of the originally scheduled five nights. Mitchell designed the stage sets and directed the play, and Mrs. Mitchell handled the box office for the performance.

In their theatre school, Mitchell trains the adults, of whom nearly 100 are enrolled, while Mrs. Mitchell works with children.

The two met while they were students at Southern. Both played in the University's Little Theatre and received their early theatrical instruction from Mrs. Julia Neely of the English faculty, who was director of the Little Theatre. They married when they were seniors.

After graduation, Mitchell work-

Glenn Terry Receives Assistantship Next Fall At Wisconsin U.

Glenn Terry, senior of Murphysboro, has been awarded a graduate assistantship in the chemistry department of the University of Wisconsin.

The assistantship which will begin in September of this year will carry a stipend of $1,600 and in addition will provide tuition, laboratory fees, and breakage fees.

He will work as a part time assistant while carrying on graduate study two-thirds time.

EXTENSION COURSE ENROLLMENT AT 976

Enrollment in Southern's extension service for the winter-spring term is 974 students, an all-time high in extension enrollment for this time of year, according to Raymond H. Dey, director of extension and placement services.

The current enrollment is almost 100 above that during the fall term, thus reversing the usual trend of a lower winter enrollment due to bad travel conditions.

Through its extension program, Dey declared, Southern is making every effort to help alleviate the critical shortage of teachers, particularly elementary teachers, in this area. Six of the 22 courses currently offered deal directly with the elementary field, and many of the others are courses of value to the elementary teacher.

The extension service operates its program on a semester basis instead of quarterly in order to meet the demand from the inservice teachers for courses offering four quarters of credit.

There are 19 extension centers the winter-spring term with the highest number of students enrolled in Johnson City. The course, "Curriculum" taught there by Willis Malone of the department of education, has a total enrollment of 125 students.

Due to the size of the class two additional instructors, J. W. Dilworth, assistant professor of rural education, and Jean Fligor, instructor, rural training school, were sent out.

Other extension centers include the following centers: Anna, 51; Cairo, 47; Centerville, 25; Chicago, 47; Collinsville, 33; Christianah, 58; East St. Louis, 61; Edwardsville, 66; Harrisburg, 75; Johnston City, 128; Marissa, 28; Mounds, 58; Mt. Vernon, 50; Nashville, 40; Pinckneyville, 49; Salem, 15; Shawneetown, 40; Waterloo, 43; Murphysboro, 34.

Re-arrange Counters In Campus Bookstore

New arrangement of the counters in the bookstore in order to conserve space and issue books more efficiently has been made this week, according to Carl Troback, manager of the bookstore.

Persons may enter the bookstore through the inside entrance only since a counter has been placed in front of the doors to the outside.

If this plan is not successful, the old arrangement will be restored, stated Mr. Troback.

Day To Speak Over Station WCNT

Raymond F. Dey, director of extension and placement services will make an address over radio station WCNT at Centralia today.

Title of Dey's address is "The Present Critical Teacher Situation and How It Affects Our Children."

Dr. Chester F. Lay, president of the University, will speak over the same station on March 13. His address will be "The Future of Education in Illinois: A Series of Programs sponsored by the Southwestern Division of the Illinois Education Association."

Approve Lease On 38 Buildings At Crab Orchard

Southern received approval this week from the Veterans Affairs Administration for a five-year lease of 38 buildings on Crab Orchard Lake.

The buildings will be made into 104 two-bedroom apartments for married veterans and their families and dormitories for 300 single veterans.

Also included in the transaction is the transfer of 160 acres of land which will be used for agricultural purposes, 150 single beds with mattresses and pillows, 110 chests of drawers, 140 chairs, 200 blankets and 20 sheets.

There will be no charge to the University except for the cost of closing the transaction and for converting the living quarters.

Work which was started months ago by the Federal Housing Authority is now in completion on the buildings into apartment dormitories.

The apartment buildings, three, four, or five units each, heated by steam from the Crab Orchard heating plant.

The furnished buildings will be rented at rates similar to those of similar apartment buildings. Heat, electricity and telephone utilities will be provided monthly rent.

The area is a well established business firm in the area.

Five Professors Attend Meeting In Anna-Jonesboro

Five members of the College of Education were in Anna-Jonesboro last Monday to attend a meeting of the county superintendents and the principals of the Union county schools. Purpose of the meeting was to discuss problems in reorganization of school, particularly the problem of legislation needed now for the reorganization of the schools.

Those attending from Southern were Dr. Howard Bosley, associate professor of education, George Bracewell, director of rural education, J. W. Dilworth, assistant professor of rural education, Dr. Earl R. Hall, assistant professor, and Dr. Victor Randolph, associate professor of education.

CARRINGTON WILL PRESENT RECITAL

Lorraine Carrington, soprano, will be presented by the Southern music department in a recital on Wednesday, March 26 at 8 p. m. in the Little Theatre. She will be accompanied by Dr. Terence Keiser, who will be in the position as instructor of pedagogy at Western and will be a member of the faculty of the department of music at Southern.

Open House Sunday At Chautauque

Open house will be held at Chautauque House on Sunday, March 9, from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Apartment buildings will be shown by the group of people. There are 41 apartments in all, most of them occupied.

Dr. Carl Troback, manager of the bookstore, will be in charge of the open house. Mrs. Clarence Brink and Mrs. Arthur Brink will be in charge of the Chautauque house.

LORRAINE CARRINGTON
will be assisted by Betty Mitchell, pianist, who is a former student of Southern and now attending Northwestern University at Evanston.

200 Attend Wharton Recital On Monday

A violin recital by Wharton, including a performance by the Chautauque House, will be held on Monday, March 10, at 8 p. m. in the Little Theatre. The program will include "Dove Song" from "Le Nozze di Figaro" by W. A. Mozart, and "Auf dem Wasen zu Singen," "Gretchen am Spinnrade" and "Helden-Rosen" from G. Schubert.

Miss Mitchell will complete the program by playing "Je dis que rein ne m'e pouvanz" from Carmen by Bizet, "They Call Me Mimmi" from La Boheme by G. Puccini, "Who is asleep" from G. Puccini, "Who is asleep" from G. Puccini, and "Chinese Impressions" by Kathleen Lockhart Manning.

'CLUB SEES HOCKEY GAME IN ST. LOUIS

The "I" club, hockey organization, traveled to St. Louis last Sunday night to see the St. Louis Flyers hockey team play the St. Louis Hawks hockey team. The game was held at the Hill Brewery, and the Hawks won 2-0. The "I" club members will see the game.

So the Story Goes... CURTIS HISE and CLETTIS HISE. UNFINISHED BUSINESS SAYS TRIBUNE. It seems that the House of Representatives has a little unfinished business in regard to the Pearl Harbor liability.

What Do You Want? by Jim Dodd. Plans have been developing since Christmas vacation here at Southern toward the renewal of the annual junior class dance and for an all-school carnival under the sponsorship of the Student Council in cooperation with the faculty.

One by one Southern is throwing off its institutions and traditions which have marked her as a college and not a university. She made a big step in the right direction last week as the Advisory Council, acting upon President Lay's recommendation, abolished the compulsory student assembly.

by Bill Hixler. It isn't happen to be smoking a cigarette and reading this book. It isn't happen to be smoking a cigarette and reading this book. It isn't happen to be smoking a cigarette and reading this book.

THE EGG AND US. For many years three stone eggs have been resting in their nest at the northeast. The Tribune is asking for is not an investigation for the interests of the American people, but an investigation in which a Republican regime in Washington can see the entire blame for the Pearl Harbor attack upon the Democratic administration of the late Franklin Roosevelt.

However, this week, the idea developed among a group of students that the two events be combined, each to complement the other.

MORE ABOUT THE MILE OR MORE. Report that mile or more has been seen mingling with the bettors around the two dollar window recently, clutching a handful of "soft" money and begging for hot tips on the bangtails, in its squeaky voice.

Looking Elsewhere... by John Fulkerson. READING SHELLEY by moonlight sounds like a comparatively innocent occupation to us; but evidently the Portland, Ore. police force thinks it is a sign of dangerous radicalism.

It Doesn't Either Splint by Red Krantz. Can't possibly understand why but ever since last week's Egyptian came out even my best friends have been looking at me, nodding easily and muttering, "It does too."

This may appear to be nothing more than a second Homecoming! Although alike in purpose and in many features, there are several possibilities to develop a spring carnival along lines not emphasized at Homecoming.

National MOM headquarters, becoming interested, has decided to investigate. They've sented four local "boys" supporters Jim McDonald, Gus Paris of the historic department, and Cleve McDonald, looking puzzled.

NOW THAT ILLINOIS Senator Brooks has introduced a resolution in congress to designate the week of April thirteenth as National Courtesy week, it seems that the only "wee" we lack is a Be-Considerate-to-Students week.

STUDENT COUNCIL MINUTES. The regular meeting of the Student Council was held on Monday, February 25, 1947, at 8:00 p.m. in the room of the Student Council.

It is to differentiate between Homecoming and the proposed spring carnival that we suggest that a carnival king, or a king and queen both, be chosen rather than a queen alone as is done at Homecoming.

Here's luck, "Burdmen," don't forget that pack of cards you promised us.

HONESTY MAY PROVE to be the best policy, after all at Moonmouth, that is, a newly instituted Upper Class Court tried three fellow students accused of cheating on an examination.

STUDENT COUNCIL MINUTES. The regular meeting of the Student Council was held on Monday, February 25, 1947, at 8:00 p.m. in the room of the Student Council.

To the juniors and to the Student Council, don't buck heads with each other on this event. Your dance and your carnival are scheduled for April 12. This date is firm, and you will have only three weeks next term to prepare.

What is wrong with the present system of book service? It is not the fault of the library staff, it works fine and gives the best service it can under the present system. The system is at fault.

FINAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULE. Winter 1946-47. TUESDAY, MARCH 11. 8 o'clock classes 8, 12 o'clock classes 11, 2 o'clock classes 12.

For the God of the School by Rod Krantz. About a year ago while the ship we were on was tied up in Pearl Harbor, for lack of something better to read we were scanning the Honolulu Advertiser.

This is How to Do It by Evan A. Rader. Have you stood at the library book counter and waited from five to 15 minutes to get a book? Hundreds of students do that every day; the counter always seems crowded.

Smoother 'Paths to Knowledge' by Bob McDevon. "Sailing, sailing, over the bowing main." This title would be very much in vogue with the students of either University or Illinois avenue.

More help is needed in the library. The staff is overworked. For that matter, we need a new library. But, with these greater needs are taken care of, we need a better book-service system, which will eliminate unnecessary waiting of time and energy.

REGISTRATION SCHEDULE. TUESDAY, MARCH 25. 8 o'clock classes 8, 12 o'clock classes 11, 2 o'clock classes 12.

However, the whole situation depends on the city government. With the election coming up soon, this seems like a good time to apply some of the so-called "power politics" and get something that would benefit the city in more ways than one.

Under the present system if you want a book from the second or third floor, the librarian has to walk up and down flights of stairs to get the book, then tend to the administrative checking in order to deliver it.

Lingle, Assistant Coach At Southern, Has Long Record Of Winning Teams

By Bill Welch
A coach who has led successful track and cross country teams for a decade, served as a first lieutenant in the Illinois reserve militia during world war two, and loves to cook—that is head track coach, Leland F. Lingle.

After graduation from Cobden high school, he entered the two-year education college at Southern Illinois Normal University in 1920.

After completion of the regular studies, he became assistant coach of the Sikeston, Mo., high school. He coached all sports there for four years. In three years he had led the Sikeston team to several basketball championships. He is also coach of the Sikeston team in football and two in track.

He returned to Southern in 1926 where he became known as "Doc" and has carried that nickname throughout his career. In 1927 he received a bachelor of education degree at Southern and joined the faculty, but after one year, entered the University of Illinois for graduate work. Later, he transferred to the University of Iowa, where he received the master of arts degree in 1931.

He accepted the position of head track and cross country coach and assistant football coach in 1932, and has held these posts since.

Southern's track and cross country teams have won 11 Illinois intercollegiate athletic conference championships in 20 years under his direction.

LELAND F. LINGLE

Lingle is past president of the Illinois Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, has been president of the Egyptian Boy Scouts council for the past two years, and a member of the Carbondale park board.

In addition to his coaching duties at Southern, he likes to hunt and fish. In the evening he likes to listen to the radio. He admits being an avid cook—and adds that he likes to eat all that he prepares.

After six years of service with the Illinois reserve militia, third battalion, Carbondale armory, as officer-in-charge of plans and training, he will be deactivated and separated from service next week.

The Lingles have one daughter, Dorothy Anne, 6, now attending the Allyn training school.

Religious Activities Review

By Marilyn Stewart

STUDENT CHRISTIAN FOUNDATION

An open house party was held at the Foundation last night. Rev. Douglas MacNaughton gave a short talk on "Summer Opportunities" and singing games were played.

The cell group of the S.C.F. met last Tuesday evening to form another cell. These cells are groups of students who are concerned about the state of religion in their personal lives and meet each week to discuss personal problems.

BAPTIST FOUNDATION

Approximately 100 people attended the Baptist Foundation play, "These Things Shall Be," last Friday night. The play, under the direction of Ruby Geyman, starred Kenneth Crosdin, Clifford Sims, Helen Dick, Taylor Neely, Betty Nell Davis, Jesse Rea, and Russell Akers.

Youth Revival teams will meet at the Baptist Foundation Friday, March 14. The 76 members of the teams will receive instructions, and an impenetrable service will be given before they go out to the various churches where they will conduct revivals during the spring vacation.

NEWMAN CLUB

The Newman club will hold a Palm Sunday communion breakfast, and the Newman club choir will sing in Palm Sunday church services.

CHRISTIAN YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

Students of Southern are again invited to attend both weekly meetings of the Christian Youth Fellowship of the Christian church.

The mid-week meetings, consisting of recreational and a program hour, are held each Wednesday in the church at 7:30 p. m.

The Sunday evening services, consisting of a supper, special speaker, and devotional program, begin each Sunday evening at 6 p. m.

BOOKSTORE NOTICE

All books, locks, drawing equipment, etc., must be returned to the bookstore before 4 p. m. Friday, March 14. Those failing to do so will be subject to a fine.

Beginning today, all students, faculty members, and others will please use the inside entrance of the book store.

WIN AND INTEREST FRIENDS FOR $30; CANDID PHOTOGRAPHY IS IDEAL

By Lloyd Schafer

When a hobby is pleasing in nature, versatile in scope, easily used and carried anywhere, capable of winning and holding friends, and of value in recalling happy bygone days, that is really the hobby! Such is a perfect description of candid photography.

Everyone is interested in seeing unposed photographs of their friends in various moods and action on all occasions—a visible proof of happy memories. Why not win and hold your friends with such a hobby? Want to get a peek through the candid lens and see how it is used?

The equipment need not be expensive; an investment of only $30 will take care of it. An Argus 35 mm. candid camera complete with an f.4.5 lens speeds up to two-hundredth of a second, and an automatic exposure counting dial will do wonders.

A small tripod will also help in unusual shots. Two color filters may come in handy: the yellow K2 filter for cloud effects and the K2 filter for cutting sun glare and correcting colors.

Black and white films may be had in 16 or 35 exposure rolls in unusual types. Two color films may come in handy: the yellow K2 filter for cloud effects and the K2 filter for cutting sun glare and correcting colors.

$400 Contributed To WSSF Campaign

A total of $400 has been turned over to the World Student Federation committee.

All solicitors for the WSSF are asked to please turn in their solicitation boxes as soon as possible. A final count of the amount collected on this campus can not be completed until this is done, Rev. MacNaughton stated.

Kai Shek Hall presented an informal house meeting over W.C.F. Wednesday afternoon in the regular Campus Chatter broadcast. Eight members of the house participated in the program.

Barbara To Attend Geography Teachers Meeting in Chicago

Planning the annual three day program of National Council of Geography Teachers association, which will be held next December, will be the purpose of the N.C.G.T., meeting which Dr. Thomas F. Barton, chairman of the geography department at Southern, will attend at Northwestern University, Evanston, March 22-23.

As first vice president of the N.C.G.T. Dr. Barton will be responsible for arrangements and day of the meeting which will be held in Charlottesville, Va.

and is generally in every activity. She is five feet, eight inches tall, has brown eyes, light brown hair, and loves to cook. Her activities on campus reads like a "Who's Who" of Southern.

Barbara is a physical education major and a music minor. On campus she is a member of Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority, acting as corresponding secretary, Delta Phi Kappa, Women's Athletic Association, Girls' Rally, and the Sphinx club.

In addition Barbara is co-recreational director, a drum majorette with the band, and a member of the orchestra. She was a member of the Homecoming Queen's court in '46-'47 and is listed in "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities."

She amazes her contemporaries by still having leisure time with all of her activities and swears that she has never burned the midnight oil to meet deadlines in her studies. Barbara doesn't waste her time in the summer either since in the past years she has acted as counselor in girl scout camps, church camps, and took part in the Egyptian Music camp.

Last summer she was life guard at Crab Orchard lake, and one summer she did some modeling. She journeyed to the east coast last year in order to enter the Red Cross national aquatic school. Being an excellent swimmer, she took part in a water ballet, which the school presented. (Her ambition is to be a swimming instructor in a university.) After attending the school, she toured Canada, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Iowa. She is a sports fan extraordi-

Agriculture Dept. Elected To American Guernsey Cattle Club

Southern's agriculture department has been elected to membership in the American Guernsey Cattle club, according to Conrad White, assistant professor of agriculture. A herd of registered Guernseys is owned by the University.

The American Guernsey Cattle club is a national organization of more than 30,000 breeders of purebred Guernseys. It records the registrations of the purebred cattle which trace to the Island of Guernsey, the original home of the breed, in the English channel. It also supervises tests of production and marketing of Guernsey milk.

"The biggest thrill I ever had was seeing Southern win the Kansas City management last year," she says.

There is no uncertainty about Barbara because her likes and dislikes are very definite. "Stardust" is her favorite song and always will be, she says; Ingrid Bergman is her favorite actress and Gary Cooper her favorite actor.

She loves to play all types of sports and claims no particular favorite, likes to read, go on "play days" with the women's basketball team.

Her ideal teacher is Dorothy Davis, associate professor of physical education for women, who is chairman of the department. She likes a man who takes things as they come, has a sense of humor, and is a sports fan, "because I do," she says.

Her biggest thrill was when Quentin Stinson, basketball center for the Maroons from Eldorado, handed her the ball used in the championship game which netted Southern a national title last year in Kansas City.

"I wish everyone could go to Kansas City for the tourney this year," she says. "I wish I was that kind of a girl she is."

Martha Is One Of Several Operas Directed By McIntosh At Southern

by Dale Kittles

There is such a thing as over-doing a good thing. But there are also good things that are not done enough. One of these came in 1932 in the form of the opera, "Martha," written by Frederick Van Rawn, which was presented in Shyock auditorium under the direction of David S. McIntosh, associate professor of music at Southern.

One wonders why such success as "Martha" is not repeated from time to time so that students,

'Low and Slow Boys' Hopes To Train Pilots And Decrease Flying Rates

By Fred O. Criminger

"The reason for the development of the 'Low and Slow Boys' club for students, is to increase the number of pilots in order to lower flying rates and charges," stated Marion Thornberry, president of the club. Similar movements are in progress throughout the U. S.

"The purpose of our club, as outlined in our adopted charter is to train these individuals who are interested in the art of flying," explained Thornberry, a sophomore from Christopher. He got the idea from "Rocky" People of Carbondale, the only non-student member of the club who acts as supervisor and made the club possible in the first place.

Thornberry had learned to fly on this mastering out pay when he was discharged from service, and when Peebles presented the idea of forming a club on this campus to him, he immediately became interested.

Peebles volunteered to buy seven shares in the club if eight other members were decided to meet the rest. Finally on February 7,

Squibblings

While working on the February 21 issue of the Egyptian, one of the galley proofs for the editorial page came back to us marked with the guide line, "Student Bill of Frights." That one almost went through!

We have heard this institution and its various parts called by almost every name conceivable, but here is a new one for the library. During the recent speech festival here, one of the instructors received notice that one of her classes would meet in the curriculum laboratory in the basement of the library. However, this was abbreviated as "Cur. Lab." and the instructor thought that it stood for "dog house."

A suggestion to girls' rooming houses—a "gossip room" for women residents—this writer is bored with listening to all the latest dirt while attempting to catch up on 11 week's work in the library.

Did you ever notice the expression on the concrete bench near the broadwalk? In winter it looks forlorn as the very devil—in spring and fall it has an inviting smile for all.

Dr. Welch's botany class went on a field trip to St. Louis last Tuesday. Gossip-mongers said that, on the sly the class got an eye-full of the notorious "Dancing Girl." But it was learned that "she" was an ovoid.

At last we have discovered the perfect method of detecting an Egyptian reporter. Check all suspects for bruised marks about the head and shoulders. The graders in the Egyptian office hang rather low.

The only complaint that we have to make regarding the abandonment of the student assembly is that the move came after three of the four classes had progressed far enough to be excused from the assemblies anyway.

It's better to even the faculty members at Southern are not safe with all this snow on the ground. Latest evidence, Dean Shuman ducking into the Main building and a shower of snow balls thrown by a grade school pupil.

One might call school-room wall literature creative writing. It does create more work for the janitor.

During their last two meetings the Chi Deltae had had six accidents. They recently won the scholastic plaque for the third consecutive time. This makes a total of seven accidents.

If all the steps in Old Main were laid end to end—think how high the English office would be.

Bulbott In Charge of Repair Service

Many people working in the offices on the campus do not know how to have their typewriters repaired or how to contact the repair service, according to Van A. Bulbott, assistant professor of business, who is in charge of the office machines' service.

When a typewriter is out of order, contact Mr. Bulbott, giving its location, make of the typewriter, serial number, and its probable reason for not working. Report the typewriter as soon after the first of April as possible for repair.

On behalf of the freshman class February 28 has been designated V-F Day (victory for the freshmen) in memory of the abolishment of student assembly. Groups of freshmen celebrated last Friday, while upperclassmen mourned and groaned. No longer will they be able to join their buddies in a coke-fest at Carter's at 10 a. m. since classes will be scheduled that hour customarily set aside for the assembly.

CASSELL DISCUSSES SOIL CONSERVATION

Question Box for Vets

Q. Is it ever desirable for me to contact the Chicago office directly?
 A. No. Not until you have seen the officials at the Guidance Center. Due to great accumulation of mail at Chicago, answers will probably be delayed. In most cases the matter can be handled much more efficiently and quickly by going through the local office. (Wolfe)

Q. Is it possible for parents to claim dependency for a veteran who is attending school?
 A. Yes. Providing the parent contributes over one-half of the G. I.'s taxable income and the taxable income does not exceed $600 for the year. Benefits received under Public Law 346 or G. I. are not taxable income. (Gale)

Q. How much trouble would it be for me to change my major field or course of study?
 A. A change of major field or course can be made easily provided you are in good standing. Your training officer will give you the required help and information. (Langdon)

Q. Is it possible for a veteran to use some of his G. I. subsistence money for college work beyond the master's degree?
 A. Yes. Any veteran who successfully completes a course of training may take any other course of training which he desires so long as he has eligibility time left. (Hickey)

PRESENT ART EXHIBITION IN LITTLE GALLERY IS REPRESENTATIVE OF COLLEGE PAINTINGS

by Ben F. Watkins, Associate professor of art

Paintings and drawings from four universities, Chattanooga, Phillips, Ohio Wesleyan and Southern, make-up the exhibit now in the Little Gallery.

The work is representative of painting being done in typical college art departments. In general the young painters indicate a mature and serious approach to painting. Certain of the pictures would hold their own in company with far more experienced artists' work.

The beginning painter's time is usually consumed with the problems of technique, the mechanics of painting. Consequently, his interpretation of a subject is often superficial or obvious. He lacks depth of feeling and subtlety in the use of the elements of composition. The present exhibition contains notable exceptions to this tendency.

The "Birds" from Chattanooga is particularly sensitive in color and is vigorous if obvious in design. It has a paint quality much admired by experienced painters and the added virtue of restraint makes it an outstanding picture.

Paintings from Chattanooga far rich in paint quality and vital subject matter are "The Barn Dance," and the "Circus."

Ohio Wesleyan University offers a variety of techniques which is indicative of a wide-awake group of students. The two outstanding pictures of this group are exact opposites in subject and execution.

The composition with two figures is rather free in brush work and employs cool and warm contrasts of color to achieve a dramatic picture. A study of a wild flower in a cavern is poetic in conception and owes its intriguing quality to the attention paid to detail and atmosphere effect.

Phillips University is represented with five oils of rather unusual quality. But there is indication of talent and accomplishment. Perhaps the most popular painting in this group is a study of studio props. This painting is outstanding

Overflow From Egyptian Files

Back in April, 1932, The Sphinx questioned "Did George Montgomery join the birds" are saunas, and if they navy to get away from the college girls. Now we don't know what this is all about, but we would take an awfully obnoxious college girl to drive one of our college men to join the navy.

It was reported in a 1932 Egyptian that when two men showed up to take one co-ed to the Sophomore Row, she promptly fainted. We wish we had the presence of mind to employ the use of a good old-fashioned faint at times.

We thought the Delta Sig front porch was a comparative new topic of conversation, but evidently it's traditional; for in 1932 the Egyptian complained, "B is admitted by both Delta Sigs and boy friends of the same that the most distressing fault of the Delta Sigs is the spooze seating arrangement on the front porch" which should prove conclusively that people have been human for years now.

Another 1932 Egyptian tells of a college miss who explains that she has a three track mind, but the tracks run in circles. It's our sage observation that the young lady must have been trying to carry 18 hours.

The Sphinx questioned "Did George Montgomery join the birds" are saunas, and if they navy to get away from the college girls. Now we don't know what this is all about, but we would take an awfully obnoxious college girl to drive one of our college men to join the navy.

Those of you who can't see how you're going to get in two, or three hours of Carter-time, and free afternoons will find the 1934 Egyptian encouraging. It developed a schedule like this:

8:00 Let
9:00 Take
10:00 Future
11:00 Care
1:00 Of
3:00 Itself

A 1936 Egyptian headline reads "STAFF MEMBER INTERVIEWS THREE, FIVE-POOZE SEATING ARRANGEMENT ON THE FRONT PORCH" now that's getting publicity the hard way! However, we'd like to feature a story like that—all those who have expectations of getting a five-point, please sign their names on the upper left hand corner of the next "For Rent" sign they see and mail it to us, our sage observation that the young lady must have been trying to carry 18 hours.

And that's thirty.

Utility Is Keynote of Apartments At Ordnance Plant Housing Project

by Bill Price

Are you a veteran? Are you a student at Southern? Are you hunting for an apartment? If you answer yes to these questions, the Illinois Ordnance plant housing project at Crab Orchard lake is made for you.

Some months ago the Federal Public Housing Authority started construction of apartments, in cooperation with Southern, at the former site of the ordnance plant administration building. When completed, the building will have 68 three, four, or five room apartments. These rooms consist of a kitchen, a living room, and one, two, or three bedrooms, according to the size of the apartment.

This writer visited the project and found that despite some initial skepticism regarding the conveniences and livability of the homes, the FPAA is constructing ideal living quarters for married persons. The living rooms are large and well designed. The kitchens are furnished with an electric stove, twin-well sinks, ice refrigerator, and numerous electric outlets for kitchen appliances.

The apartments surround a court yard that can be made into an ideal playground for children and also into a pleasant place to spend those warm August evenings when townpeople are slowly melting in their shoes.

One doubt was quickly dispelled when the problem of services (milk, cleaning, laundry, etc.) was solved. Firms in surrounding cities have already inaugurated services of the above items to a group of 16 houses that are on the property.

Another doubt was cleared up when we found that all heat for the winter was obtained from a central heating plant. The man of the house will not have to get up on those cold winter mornings and fix the furnace. These married couples will always have steady, clean, steam heat.

The first week of the month will not see the mailman bringing those "blue letters," the monthly utility bills. All utilities will be furnished with the monthly rent. The rent of the apartments will be comparable to rent in towns close to the Southern campus.

but persons living in these new apartments will have the advantage of new construction, new furniture (furnished), central heating, plus pleasant surroundings in which to live.

The only drawback is the problem of transportation, as the site is located approximately 12 miles from Carbondale. This is a minor problem in reality, for many students who now live in town have their own cars, and a "share the ride" system could easily be inaugurated.

If you are a student veteran who needs an apartment, we suggest you investigate the possibilities of the ordnance plant housing project. This can be done by contacting Van A. Buboltz, supervisor of veterans' housing at Southern.

Applications for residence at Crab Orchard are first now being taken in the office of Mrs. Mabel Pulliam, chairman of student housing. Approximately 20 veterans have made application thus far.

'Education Time' Features Shake

Shelby Shake, assistant professor of University high school, will conduct a round table discussion on the "Education Time" radio broadcast today.

The topic for discussion will be "Industrial Education in Elementary Schools." Points that will be brought out are what girls and boys are doing at the Allyn training school, and also what all children can do and make with their hands.

Frank Bentley, Walter Miffitt, and Vaseel Lajer, student teachers who are majoring in industrial education, will also participate in the discussion.

Music on the broadcast will be conducted by Rose Price and Howard Goin, and the announcer will be Bob Curtis.

High School Opens Recreational Activities At Noon

A supervised daily recreation hour during the noon-period is an experiment being conducted by the University High school in an attempt to cope with the recreation problem that arises among students who eat their noon lunch at school.

The program is an outgrowth of the ideas held and proposed in a conference of University high school officials, John Mees, principal, Jess Pilgor, dean of boys, and Miss Ella Swadlow and Frank Blidges, supervisors of physical education for girls and boys.

Mr. Mees says that the program has been planned to provide something of interest to a large number, to present opportunities for physical exercise and the development of skills.

Games and activities include checkers, Chinese checkers, dominoes, card games, social dancing to phonograph music, pingpong, horseshoes, ball throwing, darts, shuffleboard, and several devised games based on basketball throwing.

Most popular of all, Mr. Mees says is basketball shooting, which attracts more participants than any other one activity. The activities are held in a gymnasium on campus, and one faculty member and one practice teacher in physical education can thus supervise the play and see that the interests of various groups are protected.

Another worthwhile adjunct to the noon hour has been the selling of milk and wholesome sandwiches by the high school Home Economics club under the direction of Miss Helen Starck.

Red Cross Drive Opens On Campus

Maroons Off To Kansas City For N. I. A. B. T. Tourney

..Sport Shots..

By BOB McDOWELL

You've heard of the absent-minded professor? Well, we have one here at Southern. It seems that Lynn Holder left town in such a hurry last week end he forgot to take his scorebook with him. However, since the Maroons took the game from the Northern Huskies 84-63, all, no doubt, will be forgiven.

KANSAS CITY, HERE WE COME Kansas City, with its large sports palace that has a wooden block floor for the basketball game... with its all-night movies that show ADULTS ONLY... with its State hotel which has some of the slowest elevators in the world... with its narrow, wind-swept streets crowded with traffic-cars and taxicabs... with its friendly, small-townish attitude... Kansas City, we thank you for your bid to the NIAB tourney, and we hope to bring home another crown.

RESERVES LOSE ONLY ONE GAME

By John S. Rendleman

Coach Lynn Holder's "B" squad completed their cage season with only one blemish on their record, a 25-2 defeat in the hands of the Marion Mules, which was later re-venued when Southern's Reserves trounced the Mules, 54-33.

"B" teams from Washington University, St. Louis University, Cape Girardeau, Chicago University, and Millikin, as well as several local independent teams, have met defeat at the hands of these neophyte Southern hoopers.

In 15 contests the local five compiled 808 points or an average of 54 points a game, while their opponents scored 547 points or an average of 36.5 points a game.

Although John Ruzich, Charles Coon, and Boyd Wilson played in several of the "B" games in their main support to Southern, they in the first team games.

John Coon, Don Riggs, Jim Cole, Jack Long, Leonard Tucker, Paul Beatty, Harry Grant, and Walter Clark carried the load for the "B" squad.

LONG HIGH MAN

Long carried away individual scoring honors with 148 points, an average of 9.9 markers a game. Diminutive Goss was second with 115; his brother, Charles, third with 85; and Don Riggs, fourth with 72.

Long also accounted for the most points in any one game, when he tallied 19 in the game with the Herring supply.

His game with the W.O.W. "B" squad scored their highest number of points this season in one game with a 70-29 win.

CAGERS DROP HUSKIES 84-63

By Fenton Harris

Finishing Illinois Intercollegiate conference play in brilliant fashion, the Maroons played one of their best games of the year in defeating Northern Illinois State Teacher's College, DeKalb, Saturday night by a score of 84-63.

Coach Lynn Holder was exceptionally pleased with the performance of his cagers in their last game before beginning tournament competition in Kansas City. SEBASTIAN SCORING

Again John Sebastian of Olin led in scoring with 27 points. Following Sebastian, was Quentin Stinson with 24 points, Oliver Shoaff of Mt. Carmel with 18 points, Gene Hall of Galatia scored 10 points, and Bob Colborn of Florida made eight points.

GILLESPIE MINERS TAKE INTRA-MURAL TOURNAMENT CROWN

The Gillespie Miners, seeded the lower bracket of intra-mural play, carried the title on the expense-laden night by dropping the Chi Delta Chi five 39-26 to take the crown.

In a playoff tournament, which saw the two favorites, the K.B.A.'s and the Sigma Beta Eta's, upset, the Miners did it the hard way.

On the opening night, the Aces dropped the Sigma Beta Eta's, and the Chi Delta Beta beat the K.D.A.'s 31-27. In the season's biggest upsets, while the Archangels were winning by forfeit from the Prohibitionists, and the unseeded Miners were whipping the Rebels 45-23.

In the second round of play, the Miners served notice that they should be watched by trouncing the Aces 44-21, while the Chi Deltas were slipping by the Archangels 38-36.

In the final game, due to some fine work by Freddie Denzil and Russ Sexton, the Miners subdued the fraternity men for the crown. Despite the Chi Deltas' defeat, they were kept alive in the game by Gus Parrish and Roger Spear.

After winding up the basketball season, the intra-mural department is turning to volleyball, and league play will be set up after the spring term concludes.

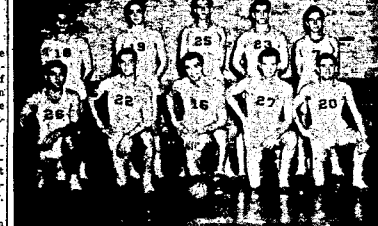

Coach Bill Freeburg has announced. Anyone interested in the volleyball set up should watch the next issue of The Egyptian for additional information.

'Abe' Martin To Be Guest Speaker

Glenn "Abe" Martin, Southern athletic director, will be guest speaker at two banquets in the near future.

On Tuesday, March 18, he will be entertained at a basketball banquet at Kimmunity. Ken Maguire, captain of Southern's football team in 1938, is the present coach at Kimmunity, high school and will act as host.

Kansas City Bound

In quest of their second straight NIAB title, the Southern squad will leave on Sunday morning for Kansas City, where they will begin tournament play on Monday. In the front row (l. to r.) are Johnny Sebastian, Bob Colborn, Quentin Stinson, Gene Hall, and Oliver Shoaff. In the back row are John Ruzich, Charles Coon, Boyd Wilson, Sam Milosevich, and Ledio Cabutti.

LEADING SCORERS IN IIA LOOP

By Bob Curtis

Along side this article are pictures of three Southern athletes who have brought fame to both their school and themselves by their prowess in basketball scoring. They are John Sebastian, Quentin Stinson, and Oliver Shoaff.

These men captured three of the top four positions in the Illinois Intercollegiate Athletic Conference; their combined scoring efforts averaged over 40 points per game for Maroon champions of the I.I.A.C.

The great John Sebastian ran away with loop scoring honors by scoring 88 points more than his nearest competitor, Quentin Stinson, and averaging 16.15 points per game. This was nothing new for "Mr. Two Hands" who also won the conference title in scoring in 1940-1941 and 1941-1942 in addition to finishing high in the race during his freshman year of 1939-1940.

Maroon center Stinson finished in the runner-up position behind Sebastian with 47.04 and 40.11 points for a 12.63, barely missing out Bob Olson of Eastern who averaged 12.18 per game.

Shoaff, forward, playing his first year for the Maroons, finished behind Olson in fourth place with 36.25 Southern points, domination of the leading scorers' race Shoaff scored 92 points to average 11.50 per game.

Anthony Hall, Pi Kapp Tie For First Place In House Tournament

Anthony Hall, Pi Kapp played to a 31-31 tie last night to end the house basketball tournament in a knot for first place.

The final week of the tournament began Monday when Anthony Hall defeated Anthony Hall III by a score of 32-14.

Northrup won the second game of the week by defeating Anthony Hall II by the score of 32-25. Tuesday the Anthony Hall III's overpowered the Delta Sigma 20-13. In the second game Tuesday, Bob Anthony Hall II defeated the Tamarack 45-36. Evelyn Parker counted 25 points in this game, though she fouled out in the last quarter.

In the next game Anthony Hall III defeated Anthony Hall II by a score of 20-8.

Since the tournament ended in a tie, the championship game will be played during the spring term. A definite date for the contest has not been decided as yet.

Play ended in the Illinois Intercollegiate Athletic Conference last week as the champion Carbondale Maroons socked it to DeKalb 84 to 68 while the champion's champion, Johnny Sebastian, was racking up 27 points. At the same time the amazing Normal five was bouncing back from the beating it had taken here at Carbondale earlier in the week to win out over Macomb. Since neither Macomb nor DeKalb won, each finished the loop season with three and five records, tied for third place in the final standings.

Illinois is going to have two representatives at the NIAB tournament at Kansas City this year. Since neither Macomb nor DeKalb won, each finished the loop season with three and five records, tied for third place in the final standings.

Charleson met Eureka last night in the first tilt of a two game playoff to see which of the three will make the Kansas City tourney. The winner of last night's contest is scheduled to meet Millikin tomorrow night in Decatur for the pay-off battle.

Both Charleson and Millikin have beaten the Holdovers this season, and the latter has done it twice. Millikin has been a special thorn in Carbondale's side, since she was the only team to beat the Maroons twice this year and handed them the only beating they endured in the house. There's probably no team the Maroons would take more delight in beating at Kansas City than Millikin. Perhaps they will get the opportunity.

The Maroons seem to be peaking up into top form for their tournament bid. They've averaged 86 points a game for their last two contests against Normal and DeKalb, while earlier in the season against the same teams they averaged only 55. If fight and drive can do it they should go right on through to the final.

Defending Champs Expect Tough Tilts

On Saturday the Maroons hit the road for Kansas City to defend their titles as champions of the National Intercollegiate Tournament of 1946.

Although Ledio Cabutti and Sam Milosevich are making the trip to the National Tournament for the third time, and Quentin Stinson for the second time, the team which will defend Southern's title is vastly different from the one which won it.

From last year's starting five of Don Sheffer, Milosevich, Stinson, Cabutti and Gene Stolar, only Stinson is playing regular this season, since Sheffer has graduated, Stolar is not playing due to a heavy scholastic load, and Milosevich and Cabutti have been eliminated with injuries all season. Calvin Collins, who served as a dependable sixth man replaced last year, is not in school this year.

SEBASTIAN RETURNS

However, the return of John Sebastian, one of Southern's greatest basketball players, and the arrival of Oliver Shoaff, a letterman transfer from the University of Illinois, has given the 1947 edition of the Maroons the scoring power they lost in Sheffer and Stolar.

To complete the team, Coach Holder has used Gene Hall, a veteran star from the early 30's, and freshman Bob Colborn, who is playing his first year in college competition, at the guard positions.

The Maroons depart for Kansas City with an 18-9 win record, compared with last year's record of 15 wins and five losses. However, in the last three games, Southern's scoring power has been greater than at any time last year, but similarly their opponents have been scoring at a faster pace.

PER GAME

In the three games preceding the tournament last year, the Maroons averaged 64 points per game, while holding their opponents to an average of 27 points. This year they have averaged 79 points in the last three outings but have allowed their opponents 53, for average win of 26 points. On this basis, this year's team seems on about a par with last year's.

Heavy publicity on the Maroons has already started in the Kansas City press, making it impossible for Southern to play their first games outside of their home state. Last year, when they were virtually unnoticed for the first three games. Until they had successfully defeated Warrensburg, Mo. Teachers College, Loras College of Dubuque, Iowa, and the University of Nevada from Reno, Southern was unwatched.

After defeating Nevada, Southern assumed an underdog role for the championship play and became the sentimental favorite for the Kansas City spectators.

LOYOLA GAME

In the next game, Loyola University of the South was favored by the press, although Southern had previously defeated them in Carbondale, 67 to 58. Form held as the Maroons won 83 to 36.

Meanwhile, Indiana State Teachers College of Terre Haute, Ind., has been without consistency by top heavy scores in the other bracket of the 32 team tournament. In the semi-finals, Indiana
