2 Cards Needed To Get Books For Spring Term

Spring Term registrants should retain both the Student Program Card and Student's Fee Statement and Receipt Card. The first lists the courses taken and the second serves as a fee receipt card.

It is necessary to present both cards when obtaining books from the Bookstore and processing a program change at the Registration Center.

In the event a Fee Statement and Receipt Card is lost an application for a duplicate must be made at the Bursar's Office. Duplicate cards will be prepared at the Bursar's convenience and could cause delay if requested.

If a Student Program Card is lost another will be issued from the Registration Center, at its convenience.

According to Registrar Robert A. McGrath, loss of either card would incur a considerable burden on any student. Students are cautioned to make sure none of these cards are lost, according to McGrath.

SIU Debaters Place Second At Northern

SIU debaters won 14 of 18 debates at the ninth annual Intercollegiate Forensic Meet last weekend in Northern - the best record of the 21 schools entered in the tournament.

Two teams, Dorothy Beck and Sue Alice Martin in the championship division, and Leon Scroggins and Joe Selement in the experienced division, were undefeated in the three rounds of competition.

The other four teams, Richard Rieke and Gene Penland, Ted Foster and Dick Crawford, Bill Hull and Ralph Fred and Will Hull and Ann Hart, won two out of three.

Southern placed second with 80 points in competition for a sweepstakes trophy awarded to the school scoring the most points in all three divisions of the tourney - debate, discussion and oratory. Augustana won the trophy with 85 points. Although Southern won top honors in debate, Augustana gained points in discussion and oratory.

The Certificate gives Mayor Wright the key to the mythical and typical American Community, made famous by the late Lionel Barrymore on radio.

IRC Swings $265 Grant From Student Council

By Jack Thatcher

Faced with a constitutional prohibition against appropriating more than $75 to any organization except itself, the Student Council Thursday made itself co-sponsor of a 15-student delegation to the National International Relations Club conference in St. Louis April 1-4.

It then appropriated itself $265.50 for the purpose. The students who will make the trip are to be chosen by a committee composed of three councilmen and three members of the campus International Relations Club, which brought up the subject.

The delegates will hear speeches by Pres. Eisenhower, former Pres. Truman and Sen. Symington (D., Mo.), among others. The money will pay all expenses except meals.

Financial matters made up an important part of the Council's business, as $300 more was appropriated for the Hospitality Weekend April 15-16. This is also sponsored by the Council.

The Women's House Council will awarded $15 to pay its membership into the International Association for Women students.

The debate team siked $700 for trip to a debate on the west coast but decision was delayed pending further investigation.

In miscellaneous business, Epsilon Tau Sigma was recognized as a new social fraternity.

Lou Ann Hart and Tom Richardson were announced as co-chairmen for Hospitality Weekend and Ruth Hoffman and Carl Anderson as co-chairmen of the spring leadership camp.

Bob Stearns, freshman, was chosen as a replacement for George Whitley, who resigned his position on the Council.

The Council agreed to purchase Sphinx Club awards as it has in the past.

Some plans for buying Honors Day awards were made, but as yet have not been completed.

Jay Jedinak was the only council member absent.

The next meeting will be at 6:15 p. m. Thursday in the U School Little Theater.

ACE Has March Meeting Today

Due to final exams and spring vacation, ACE will have its March meeting today. There will be a discussion on "Games For A Rainy Day."

Student Union Lists New Rules

Rules limiting the use of public address systems, tape recordings or phonographs for advertising purposes in the Student Union to 10 a. m. periods before each event were enacted at the rate of $1.25 per hour for a one hour Student Union Board meeting as part of a new set of regulations governing use of the Union.

Minographed copies of the new regulations are available at the Student Union desk. It will be the responsibility of the officers of campus organizations and living groups to pick up a copy.

Don Merry, Student Union Board president, said today.

Routine group meetings will still be scheduled at the Student Union desk. Other scheduled meetings must be approved by the Student Union Board and Dr. Greenleaf, Supervisor of Student Activities. Approval forms, available at the Office of Student Affairs, must be filled out and submitted to the Board at least one week before the date of the event.

For an all-school event at which no admission is to be charged, any or all sections of the Union may be used. If an admission is to be charged or if the event is closed to the general student body, only the Oasis and the main lounge area may be used.

At no time can anyone be denied or charged admission to the game room, TV room or music room.

All scheduled events must end one half hour before the regular closing time of the Union, and the Union must be cleaned and returned to normal conditions. If the event runs overtime or the clerk at the desk must stay to clean up after an event, the group in charge of the event will be charged at the rate of $1.25 per hour for each hour consumed.

Decorations in the Union must be supervised by a Union staff member. Thumb tacks or Scotch tape cannot be used on any visible face, and decorations must be removed immediately after each event.

If the kitchen is to be used, it must be scheduled at least one week in advance. A $1.00 deposit must be left at the Union desk before the kitchen key is released. If the kitchen is left clean, seventy five cents will be refunded.

Sales made in the Union must be approved by both the Social Senate and the Student Union Board.

Posters and other printed advertising material must be approved in the Office of Student Affairs before it may be posted in the Union, where only one poster for each event may be placed on each bulletin board. Special permission must be obtained from the supervisor of the Student Union to place posters anywhere other than on a bulletin board.

General rules included in the new set of house rules prohibit gambling or drinking intoxicating beverages in the Union, restrict the use of the telephone from public use and require that books in the Student Union Library collection be checked out at the desk before they are taken from the building.

"Her system is to study books—I study the professors."

MAIL BOX

Dear Editor:
When you think of the Agricultural Department of Southern Illinois in comparison with other universities of comparable size you suddenly realize how far behind we are. The instruction is of good quality but insufficient in terms of number.
The class room facilities are a disgrace to a university of this size. They consist of two small rooms in one end of the audiovisual aids barracks. (Incidentally, the rooms if plastered with a few pin-ups would nearer resemble a backwoods saloon than college classrooms.)
The location of the Ag class rooms are out of focus with the rest of the university and the mud path leading to them resembles "the one to 'grandpa's outhouse."
A prospective Ag student visiting this university would discover that the opportunities here are very limited. This prospective Ag student would probably choose another institution on the basis of observation alone.
The possibility of SIU becoming one of the best Ag colleges is very good, providing something is done immediately. Many people will admit the importance of agriculture but few people are willing to support it. Surely the desperate situation of the Ag department will not go unnoticed or unaided much longer.
A Disgusted Ag Student

Professor Smiley Matroose described by some students as "dull." Here Smiley is saying "I teach not only English, but life itself."

Dear Editor:
I was very much interested in reading your stories on Negro student housing conditions — although "shocked" probably would be a better description of my reaction. You and your staff are to be congratulated on your enterprise and public service.
I suppose the next question is: "What can be done about it?" Will anything be done to alleviate such conditions? What's your next move?
I will be keenly interested in looking at future issues of THE EGYPTIAN.
Sincerely yours,
Arthur A. Sanderson

Daily Routine Of A Plebeian Professor

Some people think the life of a college professor is quite dull, but the reverse is true. Let's just take a peek at a typical day in the life of Dr. Smiley Matroose, professor of English:
7 a. m.—Out of the sack, a quick dry shave with lots of talcum powder. Select one of the more shoddy, conservative suits, so lecture on the evils of capitalism will be more convincing.
7:30—Breakfast for Smiley, an enter which he takes his wife's taste and coffee to her on a platter. (Professor's wives never get up early because they are the women behind the great men, and this requires a lot of sleep.)
7:45—Smiley jumps in his 1937 La Salle and roars off to campus. (He also has a 1954 Cadillac, but keeps it hidden on the other side of town and uses it only when traveling.)
8:00—Stalks into his freshman English class, throws a pop quiz over material he had promised to explain that day. The rest of the hour is spent talking about the imagined 95 per cent illiteracy rate in southern Illinois. After class a beautiful coed comes to his desk and asks why she flunked a theme she handed in last week. He explains that it reads like the work of a five-year-old. She sheds a few tears as she puts her on the shoulder with one hand and changes the grade to an "A" with the other.
9:40—Gets a terrible scolding from the chairman of the department for turning in flunking grades on only 70 per cent of his students at midterm.
10:00—Takes a coffee break at the cafeteria and discusses the minute love lives of early fourth century Roman poets with a history professor.
11:00—Gives a lecture to his class in modern literature and its relation to "the Golden Age" of such and such a period in a rather obscure place. The whole sum and substance of the lecture being that a writer should not prostitute his art, even if it isn't worth reading. Said Smiley, "the only thing that matters is expressing yourself in writing. If others can't understand it, they are obviously stupid or have no sense of appreciation for the only thing

Pennies From Heaven?

It seems to us that the Student Council makes some rather strange decisions on what to do with surplus money. Recently it snapped tight the purse strings on a student-published magazine, the now defunct "Impulse", but comes immediately back and does out $25.50 to the IRC for an expense paid trip to St. Louis.
Now, we don't claim that "Impulse" business was handled as well as it might have been. In fact, an editorial in the Egyptian has already indicated this. Nor do we claim

Man Over Machine

By Bob Poo
We were faced with the annual traumatic experience Saturday, that of changing last year's license plates and adding the 1955 tags and the "Blue Goose."
With the new, blue and orange edition of $17.50 worth of tin clutched in our hand we approached the automobile with mixed feelings of fear and a firm conviction that man is master over machine.
Armed with screwdriver, pliers, hammer, hacksaw and grim determination we eyed the solidly rusted screws holding on last year's tags. They presented a near insurmountable exercise in mechanics. We knelt on the ground to look at them more closely. A mistake. The ground was wet. Right trouser knot soaked. Curses.
Close perception shows that a vice-like grip on the nut with the pliers and a twist to the left with a screwdriver will free at least half of the plate from the bumper. With a mighty twist of shoulder muscle this is done. A mistake. The pliers are slip off the nut. Knuckles are scraped on the bumper. —82/.

To Crib Or Not To Crib

Final Exams will be upon us next week.
There will be the usual dilemma on how or what to study or whether to study at all.
Some students, who have attended their classes regularly, studying regularly and take a good class notes will be prepared. Others too will be prepared, but in a different manner.
These students may bring small little white cards tucked under their shirtsleeves. The cards contain all the pertinent information of the course. These cards can be purchased from overclassmen, but some ambitious "scholars" draw up their own crib notes all by themselves.
The shirtsleeves itself comes in handy. Notes can be written directly on the sleeve, and if it is a white shirt, so much the better. Socks too are handy for crib notes and the person with large hands is especially fortunate. He can hide a whole

Fire Burns Prof's Exam Notes

(ACE) Destruction of a biology final examination was given as a motive for a $2,000 loss in a fire at New York University. In addition to the exam papers, nearly all of the professor's research and graduate notes were completely burned.
These notes, including his lecture notes, represented an accumulation of many years' work, the Heights Daily News reported.
The plant department superintendent said, while the arsonists have not been found, it is generally believed they were students. "This view is further substantiated," the Daily News said, "by the fact nothing was stolen, since a typewriter and many other valuable items weren't taken."
The professor said most of the students in his Comparative Anatomy course will receive a grade of "P" certifying simply they have passed. However, he added a few students will get "F."

'55 Job Picture Bright

Evanston (AP) — A good year for business and industry apparently is anticipated by the nation's employers, who plan to hire more college and university graduates than they did in 1954 and to pay them higher salaries than before, according to a nation-wide employment survey released here last week by the National Personnel Director, director of placement at Northwestern University.

The survey bore out last year's prediction by Endicott of continued bright prospects for college seniors. A group of 152 large and medium-sized companies reported that they will hire 19 per cent more engineers and other technical graduates and 2 per cent more non-technical graduates than last year. Average starting salary in all fields, including sales and general business training, will be $341 a month, $6 higher than last year. Beginning engineers will be offered an average of $361 a month and graduating accountants $332 a month.

While congratulations are in order for the performances of the Southern Players in the "Impostance of Being Earnest," given last week, Mrs. Lina Murrish, director, should be taking many of the curtain calls. # Salukis Trip Huskies In Season Finale

By Jim Heron

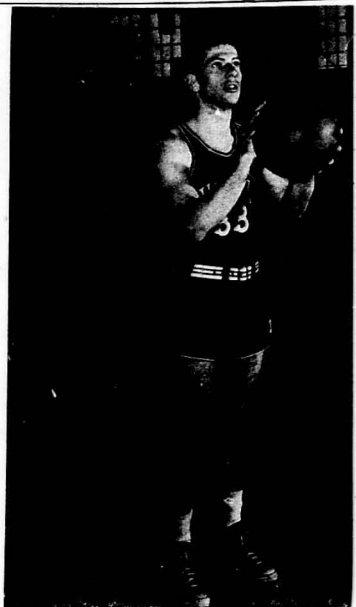

The Salukis avenged an early Nov. 14 defeat by taking the last game of the season, 78-69, Friday night at DeKalb. Capt. Gib Kurtz led the Saluki scoring with 22 points and Jerry DeWane racked up 26 for the Huskies.

Northern took an early lead, and held a 23-13 advantage at 10 minutes. A spirited comeback in the closing minutes of the half however, gave the Salukis a 31-30 lead.

Southern hit at a 444 clip in the second half compared to 371 for the Huskies. Southern was hampered slightly in the closing minutes as Kurtz and Doss fouled out but the SIU cagers held their lead.

Coach Lynn Holder called the game "hard fought and well played." For an unknown reason, Jack Morgan, 6-5 junior forward, did not make the trip.

Inside the . . . INTRAMURALS

By Jerry Rombach
The University Drugs won the Intramural Basketball championship Thursday night in a thrilling overtime victory over the Bootleggers, 63-60. The victory gave University Drugs an undefeated season.

The game started with a flourish of hot shooting by both sides. Ron Riegel for the Bootleggers made four straight baskets in the first quarter, three of them were long jumpshots. Alex Johnson's shot from the side and Roger Wells' long jumpshots for University Drugs matched Riegel's hot shooting, but in the second quarter the Bootleggers fell off in making field goals and trailed 31-27, at half-time.

A third quarter was the highest scoring effort for the whole game by each team. Sweeney, Wells and Paul Spielman sparked U.D.'s efforts. The Bootleggers matched them however, with a well-balanced attack.

The first half of the fourth quarter started with University Drug threatening to run away with the game. With four minutes to go U.D.'s had a 54-44 lead and started to stall. The Bootleggers started fouling, and University Drug began to miss their free throws. The Bootleggers then rallied and tied the score at 56-56 with a minute to go. During the course of the rally, Alex Johnson and Wayland Johnson of U.D.'s and Ron Riegel of the Bootleggers fouled out.

At Goldstein won the game for U. D. with four free throws in the overtime period and U. D.'s won, 63-66.

Roger Wells led U. D. through the tournament. In the semi-finals he made six baskets out of seven shots during the third quarter and ended up with 25 points for the game. In the final game, Wells scored 20, Sweeney, A. Johnson, Goldstein and Spielman all played stand-out games in the finals.

For the Bootleggers, Gates and Riegel led the attack as both got 15 points in the final game. University Drugs shot a very hot 46-60 showing percentage with 24 field goals out of 52 shots. The Bootleggers shot a good 33-60 percentage, making 18 field goals out of 55 shots.

He scored 237 points during the season, 62 in the NAAIA finals, to help him toward all IIA honors. A former Pinkneyville high school star, Stotlar was named as halfback on the all-conference grid squad the two seasons he played.

IIAC Scoring Lead Changes Hands

Leaders in the Interstate Inter-Collegiate Athletic Conference scoring race are about as changeable as the weather.

Fred Marberry of Illinois Normal has moved to the top, displacing Andy Shepherd, Michigan Normal, who formerly had defeated Western's Charles Schramm. Marberry, a Peoria product, boasts 193 points for a 19.3 mark in 10 games. In the last IIAC accounting, he was in fourth place.

A brace of Central Michigan players, Glenn Stuart of Grand Rapids and Dick Kackmeister from Saginaw, remained in second and third place, respectively, while Eastern's Ken Ludwig from Effingham, went into fourth.

Western's injured center, Schramm, who prepped at Highland Park, continues to set the rebounding pace he has maintained all season with 144 nabs in ten games. Eastern's Jack Kenny of Covington, Ind., remains second with 13.5 over an 11 tilt total.

Indee Bowling League Tightens

Plenty of action occurred in the roll down of the SIU Independent Students bowling league, which tightened up the battle for the second round championship. The league leading La Coterie Club assembled to Anthony Hall in 2 1/2 games which cut their lead to two percentage points.

The Stag team moved into a share of the runnerup berth with the Bloopers by sweeping over Ed HOHN through Ed Stueber's 521 potent efforts with assistance from Don Seitzinger and Archie Stroup who rolled 496 and 469, respectively.

The Bloopers came from behind, losing the opener by nine pins, to defeat the Five Aces mainly on the efforts of Charles Petters' 502 set. The victims had the assistance of Bob Montague's 193 and Ron Danko's 188 for their lone win.

Chauntauqua closed the agenda with a 2411 three-ply licking of Doyle Dormitory. Ed Langen set the fireworks for the winners with 565, helped along by Rip Stokes' 513 and Darrell Thompson's 475 series.

Teke Bowling Hopes Set Back

The titular aims of the Tau Kappa Epsilon crew in the SIU Helene bowling league were set back a good deal by Delta Zeta who victimized the runnerups three times. The Teke's are now 2 1/2 games out of first with just four left on the schedule.

Delta Zeta collected a 512 series, which ranks as the best for the season in the girls division. She received valuable aid from Beverly Conway and Mary Tavon who pitched 455 and 441, respectively. Don Cross' 519 promoted most of the scoring threat for the victims.

Pi Kappa Sigma posted the high score of 2560 which included games of 804, 880 and 876. These were too high for Delta Sigma Epsilon to overcome and they were easily captured by Pi Kapp's Juanita Peradotto notched 470, followed by Helen Oganski's 442 and Shirley Bellini's 420.

Sigma Tau Gamma moved to within a game of second place by setting down Sigma Pi for a three-to-one count principally because of Tom Holobowski's 470 series.

Theta Xi quintet also was a three-time winner over Sigma Sigma Sigma. On the winning side was John Almaro with 493.

For the victims it was Jane Riley with 442.

Wrestlers Win, Lose, Streak Broken

SIU's wrestlers extended their winning streak to six when they walked over Eastern Illinois 26-7 last Saturday. This was the first loss of the season for the Salukis.

The first five matches were very close and might have gone in Southern's favor except for stage fright on the part of some of the boys, according to Coach Wilkinson. "We talked it over after the meet and decided that we had the better team."

Buzz Bergfield of SIU turned in a good performance as he pinned Pikasis in the second period of their 123-pound match.

Bob Burns of Indiana defeated Bob Whelan at 130 pounds.

Ray Fowler of Southern added the loser's last two points as he wrestled Young to a draw at 137 pounds.

In the 147-pound match, Indiana's Fisher topped Loyer for the decision.

At 157 pounds, Baddell outpointed Orlando of SIU to take the match.

Bose of Indiana topped Dunksel for the decision at 167 pounds.

Dick Anthony defeated Southern's Paul Stingbery at 177 pounds.

Indiana's Krick pinned Ed Hayes in the third period of their heavyweight match.

Square Dancers Keep It Up For Over 45 Years

By Ruth Carolyn Garner

Do you ever get too old to square dance?
"H. A. Weese smiled. "I am 27, backwards," he said. "My wife and I have square danced every Saturday night since 45 years ago."
"I started square dancing in 1916," Red Steele chuckled. "Us country folks would have square dances every week in those days."
They were among three groups, or "squares," who performed at the Folk Festival last week, side by side with members of the Southern Sing and Swing Club.
The women wore long skirts of red, blue, yellow and plaid with multiple-colored blouses. The men wore western shirts and trousers.
"Madred Benz, of the Extension service of the University of Illinois, taught us a lot of these steps," Steele said. "She's from Murphysboro."
Then he demonstrated an extra routine. Where had he learned that one?
"Just picked it up," he said. "I get a lot of kick out of it."
After their act, Mrs. Weese said, "Come out and see us. We just have a new barbecue pit. We have been married 50 years June 7."
"We're expecting a big crowd," her husband said.
