Morrow's background contains many positions; he has held with various big name bands. He started his musical career with the Julliard School of Music in New York city. Since then, he has played with Paul Whiteman, Eddie Duchin, Arrie Shaw, Vincent Lopez, Tommy Dorsey, and with the Columbia Broadcasting System.

HE SIGNED an RCA Victor recording contract in 1950, and he changed his style to a strictly accented ensemble dance beat as a background for his trombone. One of his more famous recordings of this style is "Rio Rita."

Another famous hit is "Solo," a fox-trot bolero adaption of Chopin's Waltz in C Minor. Following these two hits was "Rose, Rose I Love You" which is familiar to all followers of the hit parade.

When Morrow's road band was only four months old, in January 1952, it was featured on two TV shows during the course of two weeks—the Kate Smith show and the Perry Como show.

Morrow was admitted into the limited membership of The American Society of Composers, Auth-

A Red Letter Day

Tuesday of this coming week is another red-letter day in student activities here at Southern, for that is when every student has the opportunity to vote for representatives on the Student Council and for next year's Homecoming chairman.

Also on this day, students will vote on the revised Student Council constitution. Since the constitution is too long to permit printing on ballots, the Egyptian is printing the revised form for consideration by the students.

We don't think the importance of this document can be stressed too much, and it should not be necessary for us to say more than that every student should read and study the constitution before it is voted on. Part of the preamble is omitted since it has not been changed. The revised constitution is as follows:

Governor Bradford Is Direct Ancestor Of SIU Students

by Teresa White

Mimi and Ann Foley, SIU students from Carbondale, are daughters of the Mayflower in every sense of the word.

Delving through a long line of probable Plymouth "Rockers," their ancestry can be traced candidly and without a doubt back to William Bradford, the first governor of the colonies appointed by the English crown during the early 18th Century.

Perhaps many would like to claim that their ancestors purchased a one-way ticket on the Mayflower—for Mimi and Ann such a claim is not just wishful thinking.

Joseph Adams, grandfather of John Adams, married Sara Bradford, daughter of Gov. Bradford. Nellie Adams, great-granddaughter of Sara and Joseph Adams, married George W. Smith, the great-grandfather of Mimi and Ann Foley.

To make a long story short, Mimi and Ann are related on their mother's side to Governor Bradford. In short, they are his grand children six generations removed.

Mimi is majoring in business administration in the College of Education. Ana is also enrolled in the College of Education, majoring in French. They are the daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Dan Foley of Carbondale and are members of the Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority. Their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde L. Smith, live in one of the first houses of Carbondale, built during the Civil War.

Salute the Salukis

by Jim Glenn

Today at 3 p.m. and tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. the Salukis nine, winners of four consecutive conference games, will battle the Indians of Arkansas State.

Starting behind the plate for Coach "Abe" Martin's charges will be Jack Chor, freshman from Lebanon, who is one of the outstanding defensive catchers in the conference. "Jack," says Coach Martin, "has a very fine arm and handles his pitchers well."

BUCK BURNS will get the nod at first base. He is a junior and came to Southern from Madison. Besides rapping the ball at a near .300 clip, he plays a sparkling defensive game.

Teaming up at the "keystone" will be Ed Coleman and Jerry West. Coleman, who for the last three years has started every game at second, will be back at his familiar position. Eddie is a reliable man on defense, and is invaluable as the pivot man on a double play.

West is hitting at a pace of .350, and although this is his first season as the varsity shortstop, he has performed as a veteran.

HOLDING DOWN the "hot corner" for Southern against the Indians will be Chuck Valier, now in his second season as a varsity member. "Chuck is just now starting to hit like he is capable of," states Coach Martin. Last year Chuck wound up with an enviable .335 mark.

In center field will be fleet-footed Jim Schmulbach, this year's captain. In the last seven ball games he has hit for an even .500 percentage. Last Saturday, against Michigan Normal, Schmulbach blasted a home run that traveled over 330 feet.

BOB EMS is back in right field for the second straight year. Ems is leading the Salukis in the runs-batted-in column, and has pasted three home runs this season. His slugging has kept his batting average over the .300 notch.

In left field will be either Ed Theis, a senior from Sparta, or Phil Coleman, for whose presence Lingle is humbly grateful, has turned in the only outstanding mark so far. Coleman paced off the mile run against Rolla in 4:25.2. The school record, which he set last year, is 4:23.

Verlan Zapotocky of Belleville. Theis has started most of the games, however "small but mighty" Zapotocky has turned up with some timely fitting of late.

WAYNE GRANDCOLAS, a Belleville sophomore, will start on the mound for Southern. Wayne, a southpaw, is a curve ball artist and has been credited with four wins. Should he run into trouble, Coach Martin will call on Ron Hagler, a right handed "fireballer" from Murphysboro. Hagler won the second game of a doubleheader with Michigan Normal last Saturday, allowing only four hits and fanning six.

At the present, the Salukis are riding the crest of the IAC conference with a 4-0 record. They are a full game ahead of Eastern, who has a 3-1 conference showing. Grandcolas and Hagler have split the wins with two apiece. The Salukis will have a chance to extend their conference win streak when they meet Normal May 9, on Normal's diamond.

Bears Out Slug Salukis In Eleven Innings, 13-12

Southern and Washington U. baseball players had themselves an old fashioned slugfest at St. Louis Tuesday with the Bears finally winning out in the 11th inning, 13-12.

The Bears, who lost an earlier game here 5-4, broke Southern's victory string after the Salukis had won nine straight. Southern's record is now nine wins and three losses.

The teams banged out a total of 26 hits, including five home runs. Bob Ems and Jack Chor clouted four-baggers for Southern. The Bears committed six errors and the Salukis bumbled three times, one of their errors being responsible for the Bears' winning run.

Reid Martin started on the mound for Southern. Washington got to him in the first inning when two errors and three hits, including a home run, produced six runs. Martin lasted till the fourth when the Bears got a single and a homer. Ray Ripplemeyer came in to finish the inning but found the atmosphere just as unfriendly. Another Washington homer produced three more runs that inning.

Chor's homer gave the Salukis two runs in the second and Ems' four-bagger was the big blow in a five-run fifth. SIU scored four more in the seventh but Washington went out in front again with another run in its end of the seventh. The Salukis tied the score in the eighth on a single by Jerry West and a double by Chor.

The Bears scored the winning run in the 11th on Ripplemeyer's error and a hit.

Ems Leads Southern Club with .352 Average

Rightfielder Bob Ems is the top slugger on Southern's baseball club with a .352 batting average. As a team the Salukis are hitting at a .291 clip through their 12 games played so far.

Ems has hit safely 19 times in 54 times at bat. His total includes five doubles, a triple and three homers. He leads the club in runs batted in with 17 and in runs scored with 12.

Next in line is Shortstop Jerry West with a .350 batting average. West has 16 hits in 45 trips to the plate. Other batting averages: Ed Coleman, .313; Jim Schmulbach .312, Ed Theis .296, Charles Valier .279; Larry Burns, .256, Verlan Zapotocky .280 and Jack Chor .217.
