Frank Leavell

assembly on Thursday of next week. Those students who were in summer school last summer will remember that Dr. Gillin Leavell, Dr. Frank Leavell's brother, conducted a reading course on the campus and was the affiliation of the entire student body who were privileged to know him.

Young people from points all over Illinois will be in attendance at the convention, together with representatives from other S. U.'s on college campuses in B. S. U.'s. The convention really begins Friday evening, November 8, with an "All Aboard" banquet at the First Methodist church at 8:15 o'clock, preceding the opening session at 7:30 at the Walnut Street church. President Pulliam will give the benediction address.

Dr. Ford Will Appear Dr. Morris Ford, eminent youth leader from Kansas City, will appear on the convention program several times.

Convening again on Saturday morning at 8:30, Evelyn Kelly, president of the Baptist Student Union here and sponsor of the event, will present Clyde Croslin, representative of the B. S. U. at Cape Girardeau Teachers' College. Clyde will deliver one of his artistic and appealing elocution talks.

President Nominated An interesting feature of the afternoon session on Saturday is the presentation of nomination for the B. S. U. president for the organization on our campus. Election will occur that afternoon.

Early Morning Watch A group of S. I. N. U. students will give the dramatic production "The Ball of the Dragon," by Elliot Field. This is a play illustrating the fact that decision determines destiny. The rest of the play is directed by Southern Secretary Webb Thurman Watson, and Alene Griffith.

All students of S. I. N. U. are cordially invited to attend any sessions of this annually well planned convention. It gives evidence of being one of the most practical and worthwhile ever sponsored by the Baptist Student Union here.

Schneider, Hall Represent SINU at Conference

Mr. William B. Schneider of the English department and Mr. Hal Hall, principal of University High, represented Southern at a conference of coordinators and administrators of the thirty-five institutions cooperating with the American Council on Teacher Education held at Mt. Summit, Pennsylvania, October 31-27. Approximately 100 representatives met in a resort hotel on a mountain top in the Alleghenies to obtain an idea of the progress being made in the cooperative study of the Council and to direct attention to one or two special objectives in the study. These objectives were: (a) the development by each cooperating school or group of an effective democratic process for carrying on the study of the improvement of teacher education. What each school was to accomplish in the way of improved teaching or administration is less important than the working out of the process by which these improvements are decided upon and carried out; and (b) the development of able democratic leadership and of understanding of the nature of good leadership in a democracy.

The four-day conference discussing these and other aims concluded that such terms as democratic, leadership, freedom, and discipline are capable of being much more clearly defined and analyzed, in terms of behavior and processes, than they have so far been analyzed and understood; and that education is concerned primarily with society. These matters, only second phase being to other matters, such as skills in subject matter and in the arts of how to make a living.

Field Trips Take Allyn Students to St. Louis, Shawneetown

In line with this new method of teaching young people what it's all about first hand on the various field trips being enjoyed by the pupils of the Allyn Training School, this month.

Monday, October 28, the fifth grade geography class under the supervision of Miss Mary Estabroger took a field trip to Lambert Field in St. Louis. Here the children saw both passenger and freight planes, saw air traffic directed from the tower of the airport and later visited a class at work in one of the hangars. On the way home the fifth graders were surprised on seeing the S. S. Admiral, which is not only a streamlined river boat but one of the largest of its kind in existence.

Other field trips are being planned for the near future by Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Pulliam. Mrs. Rogers plans to take her group to Shawneetown to see the work done in the vocational school there, while Mrs. Pulliam is taking her pottery club to Dexter, Mo., to visit the pottery work located there.

HEAD OF ISNU BELIEVES TAX MONEY SHOULD BE WITHDRAWN

Says S. I. N. U. Does Not Fulfill Purpose of Normal School

R. W. Fairchild, president of Illinois State Normal University at Normal, told an alumni audience at Belleville last Friday evening that Southern was not fulfilling its purpose as a teachers' training institution. Fairchild explained that many of the 1156 freshmen at S. I. N. U. "have no intention of becoming teachers," and added "it is time the Illinois taxpayers should be aware of this situation." "I have no quarrel to pick with these teachers' colleges that wish to become liberal arts colleges," Fairchild continued, "but they should not obtain financial support from state funds under the guise of educating teachers." The day after the S. I. N. U. head issued his remarks in Belleville, he was a Homecoming guest on the Southern campus.

PULLIAM GIVES ANSWER TO AP; IS INTERESTED BY REMARKS

Quotes Figures to Show College Does Perform Duty

President Roscoe Pulliam retorted to the Associated Press wire last Monday an answer to K. W. Fairchild, president of Illinois State Normal University, who said in a speech to an alumni audience at Belleville last Friday evening that Southern was not fulfilling its purpose as a teachers' training institution. Pulliam, in his answer to Fairchild, says he finds it interesting that the S. I. N. U. head should call attention to a very urgent problem faced by the college here. Pulliam points out that Southern ought to be doing a general education job for Southern Illinois.

Pulliam goes on to refute Fairchild's statement that the college has not done its duty as a teachers' college. Figures furnished by the Placement Bureau of S. I. N. U. show that the college places about as many students in teaching positions as could be expected.

Pulliam's answer in full is as follows: "The press report of Mr. Fairchild's speech in Belleville has been interesting to me very much, since he called attention to a situation in Illinois which certainly ought to be remedied. It is true that Southern Illinois Normal University, since it is the only fully accredited institution of higher education in the south third of the state, ought to be doing a general education job for Southern Illinois.

"The other state colleges in Illinois operate in an area in which their work is supplemented by that of the other state colleges. There are no similar institutions within a hundred miles of Carbondale.

"The people of Southern Illinois are for the most part not very wealthy at best, and the depression has hit them hard. They are a very thrifty and industrious people in Southern Illinois cannot afford a chance at a college education at all unless they can get it at small cost near their homes. These people ought to be provided the opportunity to obtain a liberal education at Carbondale, whether they plan to teach or not. So far the college has not been able to save these students adequately because it has not been able to get the necessary appropriations from the state.

"The same reasons Mr. Fairchild is quite right in his suggestion that the taxpayers' attention should be called to the fact, with this tremendous extra responsibility, Southern ought certainly to be granted a much larger appropriation than what is given to any of the other schools.

"The facts in the case are that, instead of getting a larger appropriation because of its increasingly larger responsibility and enrollment, Southern has been getting smaller and smaller appropriations. This enrollment than the other state supported colleges in Illinois have been receiving. For example, during the current year Normal will spend $502,575 of state funds on 1825 students, while Carbondale will spend $106,500 to spend on 2175 students. Thus, Carbondale will spend $52.15 less for 525 more students. This makes a difference in cost per student enrolled per year of merely $100 (190 to be exact). As president of the college at Carbondale, I appreciate Mr. Fairchild's efforts to call the attention of the public (Continued on page 3)

UNIVERSITY HIGH SCHOOL AIMS TO PROVIDE SUPERIOR EDUCATION FOR BOYS AND GIRLS ENROLLED

By SYRON BRUNTY.
The University High School, the laboratory high school of the Southern Illinois Normal University, has accepted as its work the following important function: To provide a superior educational opportunity for boys and girls enrolled.

To realize more fully this function, the University High School has been reorganized to include grades seven to twelve.

Three years ago U. High adopted the Student Government Plan which has proved very successful. The plan is in the high school under the supervision and careful planning of Mr. Hal Hall.

Today the high school has a complete Student Council, a constitution written by the students, a student body in their assemblies, student chairmen of the home rooms, and in the classes led by the students and even a student bookkeeper for the entire school.

The purpose or the advantage of these student activities is the expansion which is gained through actual participation.

By actual participation the student learns how to speak before a group. He gains poise and self confidence, thereby enabling himself to develop his personality by mingling with others.

Mr. Hall believes that through self governing the ideas and the principles of democracy are learned and appreciated in a better extent.

The University High School has a staff of teachers of good experience and fine professional preparation. The group is regularly at work considering the problems of secondary education. Certain areas of the curriculum are being gradually adjusted, and revised in terms of the preparation of adolescents for effective participation in our democratic society.

In addition to a fairly large number of subject matter offerings, the high school has a well equipped library, a radio club, hand, chess, dramatics, athletics, inter-scholastic and intramural, debating, a Girls' Athletic Association, a bi-weekly assembly, a student council, a weekly newspaper, a yearbook, a library council, a variety club, a home room organization, and a home room organization of the entire school. The home room provides personal, educational, and vocational guidance to all students.

The educational curriculum of University High School has been revised in the last few years with the addition of the following subjects:

1. Safety Education.
2. Conservation.
3. Vocational Instruction.
4. Consumers' Problems.
5. Problems of American Democracy.
6. Journalism.
7. Personal Typing.
8. General Physical Science.

Students have access to the Coliseum, and the athletic events of the college. Teachers at the college have the same privileges as the college teachers.

In the University High School the students live in a democracy in the classroom as well as out of them and the extra-curricular activities. The teachers of University High School recognize the need of democratic education. The teachers have weekly discussion meetings in which they discuss the problems of the school among themselves so that they might proceed in teaching in a democratic manner.

Last year under the direction of Miss Madge Trout, the High School Library was started. At the present time there are over six hundred books and five sets of encyclopedias. The administration has set the goal at six thousand volumes.

The High School has access to Child Guidance Clinic facilities as well as the assistance of the education department of the college. University High School also has the facilities of the Education Commission whose headquarters are in Washington, D. C. The commission is carrying on an experiment with 34 schools involved, University High being one of them. The commission has a clearing house which is for the sole purpose of gathering information concerning the different things which the thirty-four schools are doing. The commission has highly paid officials which will be on the campus here throughout the coming year. The commission has funds available for sending people to study other various methods of teaching.

Mr. Hall believes "that democratization is the distinguishing point of a superior education from a poor education. He thinks the people are ready for the democratization of education because the parents are doing away with their old belief that the teacher should have an autocratic control which does not exist at all in the superior type of education."

to Alpha Inexhaustible discrimination again Southern Illinois.

"I am a little surprised, however, at the suggestion that we are no longer doing our job as a teachers' college in Southern Illinois. The facts in the case simply do not substantiate this statement. It is true that Carbondale has recently surpassed Old Normal in enrollment, but this does not imply that this college is no longer a teachers' college. All but thirty-seven of our eleven hundred teachers this year signed an agreement to teach in the schools of Illinois. We have every reason to believe that these agreements were signed in good faith.

"The number of people whom the college has actually placed in teaching positions in Southern Illinois is a record. It is a record which this college is still most decidedly doing a big job in teaching. Mr. Mervin's office has a list of the names and addresses of 1344 students of Southern Illinois Normal University who were placed in teaching positions in the last four years. Since four years ago the enrollment of the college was only 1400 students, our figures would indicate that we are placing about as many people in teaching positions as we could be expected to place. Our percentage of placement this year is approximately the same as that of the other colleges, including Normal, as official reports to the Normal school board will show.

"There is further evidence that this college is still generally rated as an outstanding teachers' college in the country as a whole in the fact that Southern was recently chosen by the Commission on Teachers' Education of the American Council on Education as one of six typical state teachers' colleges in the United States to participate in a nationwide program for improving teacher education. It was the only school in the Illinois-Missouri-Iowa area to be selected.

"Southern Illinois Normal University needs to have its appropriations brought up at least to parity with the other state supported colleges in Illinois, and it needs to have its doors opened wide to all of the young people of Southern Illinois who have the ability and the ambition to work for a college education. Mr. Fairchild does Southern Illinois Normal University a disservice in his article in the Royalian of Chicago and calls the attention of the public to a problem of the most serious importance to all of the people of Southern Illinois."

Roosevelt Can Point With Pride To National Youth Administration; Favored By Eighty-Two Per Cent

By MARGIE JACKOBS.
One thing that President Franklin D. Roosevelt can point to with pride in his campaign for re-election to the presidency is the National Youth Administration.

The American Institute of Public Opinion made a nationwide study of the N. Y. A. in a recent survey. The study indicated that the youth administration has the approval of 82 per cent of the people who are familiar with it. A majority of the people who are not familiar with the N. Y. A. are for a similar program which provides jobs for boys and girls and young men and women.

Conversely, this year, extended the life of the N. Y. A. until July, 1941.

They also appropriated $25,000,000 for its support.

Last year, in one month, 214,730 young persons received aid in high schools; 126,600 in colleges and universities; and 312,000 out-of-school youths. Altogether in a single 1939 month, last year, 746,210 young persons were aided by the N. Y. A.

Here at Southern last year, 236 students were able to stay in school with the help of this youth administration. Of these 236 twenty were colored students. Of the 396 others 192 were young men, and 114 were young women.

The general opinion of Southern students is for the continuation of this National Youth Administration which makes it possible for so many young Americans to further their education where otherwise it would be impossible to continue their education or to find a job.

PI DELTA EPSILON WILL GIVE PLEDGE DINNER

PI Delta Epsilon, at its meeting Wednesday afternoon, made plans for a pledge banquet to be given November 14 at Hank's Cafe. A formal initiation and banquet in honor of the new members will be held four weeks following the pledge dinner.

PI Delta Epsilon is the youngest journalistic fraternity on the campus. It was founded in 1928. Membership is limited by the group, and all prospective members must complete a year of work on a campus publication and be acceptable to all members. Waverly Mason is president of the group this year.

The next meeting of PI Delta Epsilon will be held in the Osheloff off-Thursday, November 14, at 7 p. m.

NORMAL TAKES OVER UNDISPUTED FIRST RANKING IN LEAGUE

Red Birds Have Routed Eastern and Southern; Carthage in Second

State Normal's victory over Southern here Saturday highlighted conference play in that it boosted the Red Birds to undisputed top ranking. Champions of the 1939-40 season, Coach Howard Hancock's men added strength to early reports that they would return to league dominance.

Having downed Eastern Normal with the preceding week, Normal with two consecutive wins moved away from conference play. The latter team now Carthage who was "involved in non-parity as the only other undefeated squad in the conference.

Eastern, meanwhile, administered a 20-7 licking to the Western Leather neck, who shared the championship last year. Charleston's highly touted aerial offense worked to great advantage as they boosted their record to two wins and one loss.

GYM MEN CLAIM LONGEST TRIPS FOR HOMECOMING

Frank Green of Honolulu and Heine Stumpf From New York City Return

Former Southern gymnasts returned from all parts of the Western Hemisphere last Saturday night to attend the annual Homecoming Homecoming.

Following the list of all gymnasts who journeyed from afar to attend Homecoming festivities was Frank Green, who came from Honolulu to be with his former team mates. Frank gained considerable recognition while a member of the gym team with his flying over the high bar.

Running second in the motor of distance traveled was Heine Stumpf of New York. Stumpf was one of the few all-around men on Coach Joe DiGirolamo's 1939 squad.

Benjie Paul, captain of Southern's gymnasts in 1937, has had an excellent season in the state of Tennessee. Paul was offered a university fellowship at the University of Virginia this year to work with the gym team. Although Benjie failed to accept the fellowship this year, the offer is open for him again this fall to graduate in the coming year.

Kenneth McGuire, another S. S. U. gymnast, was also present at the dinner. McGuire is co-captain of the football squad during his senior year. Kenneth undertook coaching duties of the gym squad during his captivity while Coach DiGirolamo was away doing graduate work in the area.

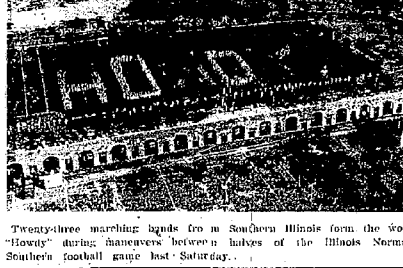

Clyde Maddox now teaching in the Marion High School was among the first members to receive the coveted "I" award for varsity competition in gym. Previous to 1935 awards were given in recognition of work done by Southern's gymnasts. Maddox received the first of the down on the team.

It seems that the former captain made a particular effort to be present since two other past captains, Wilbur Reigand and Harold Black, made their appearance also. Reigand, captain of the 1932-33 team, and Black, captain of the 1934-35 team, were members of S. S. U. while Harold Black, who captained the 1935 team, is coaching and coach-keeper at Ann-Joseph's Junior High School.

Other alumni included Kenneth Fink, outstanding parallel bar man of the 1936-37 season; Virgil Wheatley of the '37 squad; and Alvin Zeman of last years' team. Those attending Southern now and who were present at the banquet, include: Bill Groves, Alvin Washington, Govell McHugh, Wilbur Wright, Roy Anderson, Clifford Blackwell, captain Ralph Bishop and Coach Vincent DiGirolamo.

Had a nice time in an otherwise dull Southern performance.

The game was scoreless till the fifth when the Spirits broke out with a splash of three runs on C. H. Crane's triple.

COVILL AND EDDY OF NORMAL TOP LOOP'S SCORERS

Floyd Covill, veteran all-state full-back from Normal, maintained his position at the top of the Illinois intercollegiate conference scorers this week with a total of 30 points. Team captain Tom Eddy and Paul Henry, a seasoned Eastern back, moved into the tie for second with 18 each.

In two games to date Covill has crossed the goal line five times to amass his points. Against Charleston he scored three touchdowns, and against Southern here last Saturday he called two, thereby giving warning of his bid for state recognition again this year.

Eastern Teachers has an edge numerically at least, in the "big five" scorers. Besides placing Henry as a runner-up, the Charleston squad has veterans Bill Glenn and Ray Suddath in fourth and fifth positions, respectively. Glenn, with two touchdowns and two extra points, has 14 tallies and Suddath, with one touchdown and one point after, goal, seven.

Thirteen men are tied at the bottom of the scoring list with one touchdown each. Among these are Bill Townes, Southern halfback, and J. T. English, Moreau co-captain and left end.

Southern Furnishes Northern Huskies With First League Competition Tomorrow Afternoon

Coach Abe Martin's Southern Maroons journey to DeKalb this week-end where they will furnish the Northern Huskies with the latter's first conference competition of the year. To date, the Maroons are in fourth place in the I. T. C., having a conference record of one loss and one tie game as against no wins; while the Huskies from DeKalb are as yet unranked in the conference since they have played only non-league competition up to now.

The Maroons will be trying for revenge against a team which last season defeated the Southerners on the local gridiron, 13 to 0. The Huskies team is much the same as that which the Southern squad faced last year with the exception of Prentice, fast-stopping Northern freshman quarterback, and D. Zachman, left guard.

INFORMAL CAGE PRACTICE DRILLS IN PROGRESS

Seven Vets and Numerous Newcomers Get in Shape For Coming Season

Members of last season's Southern varsity basketball team and other aspirants to a position on this year's cage squad have begun daily practice drills in preparation for this winter's cage schedule. These drills are at present being conducted on an informal basis since the head basketball coach, William McAndrew, will not take over for official practice until the beginning of the winter term. At present the drills are being conducted by Pop Hunter, assisted by Bill Gray.

Over Thirty Men Out.

To date some thirty or forty candidates have been engaged in the daily work in order to get into shape for the hard drills ahead when the official practice sessions begin. As the term progresses, this list will be supplemented by other newcomers as well as those who will report the winter term with the class of football season.

Seven Vets Return.

As a nucleus for this year's team, Coach McAndrew has all except three of his past season's squad returning. Of these three: Bill Wolfenbarger has completed his fourth season of eligibility; George Webb, who was lost by graduation; and this year's captain-coach, Pete Garst (Continued on page 6)

The Sixth Column

J. ALAN GARDNER
Good morning, friends. Pardon this greeting because I have just awakened from a pleasant slumber and a most revealing dream. (You can't stop me from dreaming.)

It seems that I'm in some fairy-land, some sort of celebration. Just heard somebody say "Homecoming celebration." All the same is here—old friends, new friends, enemies. This is an ideal celebration with no flagpole climbing. . . Carl hasn't come yet. Here's Joe with Naomi; I don't see Wallace. Yes, there he is with Thekla. But I don't see Dickworth. Here comes the Duck with the Kyle lassie, "chaperoned" of course by the Supreme Dictator.

After the grand entrance of the Dictator, the rest of the Dead End gang is permitted to enter. Ho! That isn't Vivian, swinging on the Dictator's arm. And those aren't "Dile's" eyes Vivian is staring into. What is this anyway? I wish I could stop this dream.

There's the redtinge queen and Scott but I don't see Rockett. Here comes Earlene—want to speak to Wardell when he comes in. He doesn't come in—with Earlene. Something must be done about this hometown invasion. Oh! There is Wardell with the queen.

That's funny—I don't see Lawrence. There's Lawrence over there with a hometown girl. Other's with his hometown girl. This is too much. Jack Davis is recovering in a corner. They say that visitor talking together to Apollo by I can't distinguish them even in my sleep is from Marjorie's hometown. Rockett is unusually gay tonight.

The band plays "Marie" and the show is on. Hometown boys break up the Dead End Kids' picnic. This couldn't be real! It's a nightmare! "AND THEN I WOKED UP" (or The End).

I'll see you next week when I recover from this nightmare.

BRUCE CHURCH HEADS TENNIS RANKING

Schroeder second
Meryl Schroeder was ranked in second spot while Scott Spear, new comer to the net crew, received third place billing. In fourth spot was Ralph Ligon, sophomore, who defeated last year. Ligon was followed by Harry Meng, sophomore in fifth position and Joe Palley in sixth. Seventh spot was held by Max Sokarst, letterman for the past two years. Ray Johnson, Paul Dallmann, and Bill Beck rounded out the first ten in Coach Tenney's rankings.

Ralph Goddard, Lee Johnson, Harold Mills, and Francis Whitney were the only other men seeded by Tenney. When the tournament began some seven weeks ago, more than fifty participants registered for play. Rankings Began Two Years Ago

The method of fall rankings was inaugurated two years ago as that coach Tenney could get a line on his own prior to the spring matches. The spring training is too short for Tenney to rank fifty or more novitiates between. As it result the fall ranking system determines eligibility of players for spring varsity competition.

Following are the official standings:
1. Bruce Church.
2. Meryl Schroeder.
3. Scott Spear.
4. Ralph Ligon.
5. Harry Meng.
6. Joe Palley.
7. Max Sekard.
8. Ray Johnson.
9. Paul Dallmann.
10. Bill Beck.
11. Ralph Goddard.
12. Lee Johnson.

14. Francis Whitney.

"B" NATURAL

By "Bethoven"

One of the finest women symphonies in the United States is the Chicago Women's Symphony under the direction of Isador Solomon, the former conductor of the Illinois Symphony band here last week. The symphony band plays every Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock over the CBS network and features prominent women musicians as soloists. The orchestra has been in existence for fifteen years and is the only professional organization of its kind.

According to Mr. Solomon, we must learn to understand and play the classics much better than men. While he would hesitate in attempting too long a Wagnerian program, he certainly would not stop for a moment in considering any of Haydn or Mozart.

Agreeing with Mr. Solomon, I too believe that women are just as "musical" as men and have a definite place in the music life of a nation. At least they are here to stay in Musical America.

Hot Off the Platter:
Eddie South is called the "black angel of the violin" which shouldn't offend anyone against him. If you listen to the album devoted to him and his orchestra, (Columbia, four ten-inch records, $2.50) you'll begin to think he plays too well for his band. South's ability makes him come close to summing in a long-lost artist, but he is strictly a live artist.
