To Employ New Judging System for Organized Houses at Homecoming

A new house decoration judging system will be in effect this year at Homecoming, according to Mimi Alceci, chairman of the house decoration committee.

This year women's organized houses will be competing with each other and men's houses will vie with other men's houses.

Boy and Girl scouts from all over Southern Illinois will attend annual Scout Day on the campus of Southern Illinois University tomorrow, Oct. 7.

They will be special guests of the University in attending the football game between the Southern Maroons and Indiana State. Among the councils represented will be the Egyptian, Ambro-Wabash, and Mississippi councils. For the first time in the history of the event, Southern Illinois girl scouts will be present.

PRECEDING the game, there will be a parade around McAndrew Stadium of all scout units with their sponsors and commitments. In the half-time period, special Indian dances will be performed by a group of scouts in full Indian regalia.

Alpha Phi Omega, service fraternity, will serve as hosts for the 600 scouts expected to attend the annual Scout Day is sponsored by several universities in the United States. It was started at Southern more than 20 years ago by the late William F. Schaefer.

Southern's Maroon band will perform only briefly during the half-time in tomorrow's football game, director Philip Olsson said this week.

Friday, Oct. 20, alumni registration in the foyer of Shryock auditorium heads the tentative schedule of Homecoming events. That night Little Theatre will present the musical play, "The Green Valley," at 8 p.m., with James Trigg and Wilma Dummer in the starring roles.

FRESHMEN will take the traditional "bush" out of their green button on a bonfire on the old football field immediately after the play.

A varsity-alumni hockey game Saturday morning will be followed by American student organizations and noon, which will be held downtown and end its march at McAndrew stadium.

At the football game, Southern will meet Illinois Normal with kickoff at 1:30 p.m. A new 100-man cheering section will be a new pep feature at the game.

At the fall, a special ceremony will give recognition to the winners of the float house decorations contest. The winners will be the senior class at the annual Homecoming tea.

SATURDAY NIGHT, music for the Homecoming concert and dance will be furnished by Jack Fina, noted pianist and composer, manager, and his band. Concert time is 8 p.m., and dance time will be 9:30 p.m. Fina was formerly pianist for Freddy Martin.

Climaxing Homecoming festivities will be the coronation of the Queen at 11 p.m., at the dance.

World Student Service Fund Worker Visits SIU

Tom Engelhardt, a traveling secretary for the World Student Service fund, was on the campus Wednesday and Thursday conferring with the men of Men and the Deans of Women and representatives of campus student organizations at the Southern WSSF drive in November.

Thursday afternoon, Engelhardt met with students from the Student Christian foundation, Baptist foundation, International Relations Club, Gamma Delta, Alpha Phi Omega, Girls Rally, and Kappa Phi to lay preliminary plans for the fund drive, which is scheduled for the two weeks preceding the Thanksgiving vacation.

Engelhardt was president of the Student Board at the University of Wisconsin in 1947, and held several student offices prior to his graduation. He is the last speaker at the last spring formal of the International Relations.

In the summers of 1949 and 1950, he traveled throughout Europe, studying student conditions and needs.

He states, with regard to WSSF: "My main motive in working with WSSF is that I believe WSSF is the only organization in the academic field today, that is in a position to bring American students and communities the vital exchange of ideas, assistance and contact with foreign students that is so necessary today. American students have been isolated too long. They must be awakened and made aware of their responsibilities for the creation of a peaceful world."

Through WSSF I feel that this message can be brought to American students and with the hope of accomplishing these ends, I have joined the staff."

DR. OVERTON TO LECTURE AT ATHLETIC BANQUET

Dr. Grace Sloan Overton, of Adams, N. Y., will be guest lecturer at Anthony Hall, Monday, Oct. 9, at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Overton, who is being sponsored by Southern Illinois at the city's YWCA, has been an instructor at Columbia University in the field of adolescent psychology and parent education.

She is the author of several books, the latest being "Marriage in War and Peace." All university women are invited to attend.

SENIORS SHOULD REGISTER

Any senior who graduates at the end of the fall quarter is urged to register with the Placement Service at its earliest convenience. Any graduating senior regardless of the college in which he is enrolled may call at the Placement office to register. The war situation is increasing the number of job opportunities for civilians in industry, business and government. It is to their advantage to register early in the term.

U. S. Marine Band To Present Two Concerts Oct. 15

America's oldest band—the U.S. Marine Band—will present two concerts in Shryock auditorium here Sunday, Oct. 15.

The band, which was organized in 1798, will present concerts at 2:30 and 8:15 p.m. The concerts are being sponsored by the Carbondale Kiwanis club.

Major William F. Santelmann, leader of the band since 1940, was reared in a musical atmosphere, his father having been director of the band for 29 years.

MAJOR SANTELMANN was born in Washington, D. C. and received his academic training there. When he was six, he began to study violin under his father.

He was graduated from the Washington College of Music in 1920. He then entered the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston.

Young Santelmann was accepted for membership in the Marine band in 1923. He advanced through the various ranks to become second leader in 1935. In 1940 he succeeded Taylor Branson, who retired.

For 10 years Major Santelmann was one of the Marine band's outstanding soloists. He was concertmaster of the Marine symphony orchestra for seven years, and was

Lincoln Historical Exhibit Car Opens Tour In Carbondale; Maroon Band Plays

Southern Illinois University's Maroon band opened a state-wide tour of the Lincoln Historical Exhibit car in Carbondale Wednesday, at 10 a.m.

Accompanied by an Illinois lawyer, the late Oliver R. Barrett, the exhibit is the most complete private store of Lincoln material in the world, and includes letters, manuscripts, speeches, pardons, proclamations, as well as medals, photographs, and relics of the Great Emancipator and his times.

The exhibit car, which displayed this collection at the Chicago Fair this past summer, will tour the state through the courtesy of the Illinois Central Railroad as part of a campaign to raise $220,000 to buy the collection from Barrett's estate. The material is then to be presented to the state historical library at Springfield.

JACKSON COUNTY campaign chairman for the exhibit was Dr. W. Morris, Southern's president.

The white-painted steel baggage car was stationed on the Illinois tracks at the Walnut street intersection from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Wednesday. Admission was free to school children, and 25 cents for adults.

The state committee to raise the purchase price for the collection hopes to have the $220,000 by Jan. 1, 1951. It wants to present the collection in the name of the people of Illinois to the state library on Lincoln's birthday, Feb. 12, 1951.

All individuals and groups contributing will receive official acknowledgment; those contributing $100 or more, will have their names included in a published list to accompany the collection; those contributing $1,000 or more will have their names inscribed on a bronze plaque, to be permanently associated with the collection.

Checks or cash should be sent to "Barrett Lincoln Collection Fund" care of Springfield Marine Dr., Springfield.

Announce Courses For Off-Campus

Southern Illinois University's Division of Extension and Adult Education has announced its schedule for the fall semester which includes a total of 31 classes in 25 Southern Illinois communities.

Along with the large number of off-campus courses, the division has announced a schedule of classes to be offered during the next two years. This schedule of classes will help persons taking extension work to plan their programs in advance. These classes are scheduled in Alton, Belleville, Centralia, Fairfield, Harrisburg, and Cairo.

IN ADDITION to the regularly scheduled courses for the fall semester, two classes will be offered at the Belleville residence center along with special workshops at Norris City and Murphysboro. The workshops are open, however, only to teachers in the Norris City and Murphysboro schools.

Raymond H. Day, director of the Division of Extension and Adult Education, has announced that all of the extension classes will offer four quarter hours of credit and will meet once a week for 16 weeks. Each class meeting will be two and one-half hours in length.

Courses being offered in extension, Mr. Day said, are of a general nature so that more persons of all ages can benefit from them. Specialized courses, he pointed out, may be acquired at the University during the annual summer sessions.

Classes this year are being offered at Alton, Anna, Cairo, Centralia, Chester, Collinsville, Du Quoin, Edwardsville, E. St. Louis, Fairfield, Golconda, Harrisburg, Herrin, Marion, McLeansboro.

Metropolis, Mt. Vernon, Newsham, Red Bud, Salem, Shawneetown, Vienna, Waterloo and Zeigler.

List Jackson County Chest X-Ray Totals

A total of 12,371 chest x-rays were taken during the first chest x-ray survey of Jackson county, Dr. R. F. Sondag, Jackson county health officer, stated today.

The death rate from tuberculosis has been reduced as the second leading cause of death down to the seventh leading cause of death as a result of the intensive chest x-ray survey in Jackson County just completed is the first step toward the elimination of tuberculosis.

During the survey in Jackson county, the x-ray unit located in downtown Murphysboro came up with the largest total—1,177 x-rays; the unit in town of Carbondale had a total of 3,972 x-rays; and the overall total for Carbondale, including 1,063 x-rays at the university, was 5,035.

Have Record Nominations Turnout; Queen Election Slated for Oct. 17

Queen of Southern's annual Homecoming will be elected along with other members of the court and class officers in a campus election Tuesday, Oct. 17. The election will be under the jurisdiction of the Student Council.

Nominations for queen and attendant candidates and class officers were held in the crosshairs of Old Main Tuesday, with what is believed to have been a record turnout for a nominations balloting.

More than 450 students passed through the polls Tuesday. Often in the past fewer than that have turned out for actual elections.

Six junior and senior girls were nominated for Homecoming queen. Candidates nominated for queen were Janice Robbins, Signa Signa Signa; Doris Wade, ISA; Marilyn Marrell, Delta Sigma Epsilon; Jane Hall, ISA; Mona Williams, Pi Kappa Sigma; Virginia Williford, ISA.

THREE freshmen and a sophomore were nominated for attendant: Jane Ross, Mary Jo Zumer, and Pat Drake, freshmen, and Pat Kell, sophomore.

Earl Cox and Gwyn Applegate are nominees for freshman class president with 135 first voting. Cox received 55 votes, Applegate, 40. For vice-president are Jean Fuller, 47 votes, and Chuck White, 43 votes. Audrey Mayer headed the secretary-treasurer nominations with 47 votes, while Bob Young garnered 39.

Paka Nordmyer and Art Menendez were nominated candidates for senior class president. Menendez received 33 nominating votes, Nordmyer, 28. For vice-president is Joe Budd, who received 27 votes, versus Mary Ellen Dillard, who received 33 votes. Don Sollars, 33 votes, and Bill Sackett, 33 votes, are the secretary-treasurer candidates.

IN THE junior class Roy Clark and Jan Parker were nominated for the presidency. Clark received 55 votes, Parker, 38. Other candidates were Doug Shabazz, 52; Ryan for secretary-treasurer are Barbara Ames, 52 votes, and Joe Seelentz, 47.

Approximately 150 students were mentioned in the Tuesday balloting. During the election mentioned 24 received the necessary 10 nominating votes.

University Plans To Offer Master's Degree in Botany

A master's degree in botany will be available at Southern Illinois University if a recommendation of the Graduate Council is approved by the board of trustees.

The council recommended last week to present the move to the board for its approval. If the board says okay, botany will then be one of five fields in the department of biological science for which graduate study would be offered.

S. I. U. now offers Master's degrees in 18 fields. The graduate faculty consists of 81 persons, including two recent additions.

Over 400 students are now registered in the graduate school, studying in residence at Southern as well as at a residence center in Belleville, and extension centers in Cairo, Harrisburg, Fairfield, Centralia, and Alton.

Only half of the graduate requirements can be obtained, however, at the Belleville center, and only one-third at the extension center.

A FIELD MAJOR in biological science is now recommended for a department major, according to Dr. Willis G. Swartz, dean of the graduate school.

"By offering graduate work in this area, much expense is saved Southern Illinois students who would otherwise have to go elsewhere for this work, and we are expanding our graduate program at least as many as 25 percent."

The board of trustees, at its last regular meeting, authorized the department of geography and geology to offer the master's degree.

Little Theatre Group To Produce Series Of Children's Plays

A series of plays, produced especially for the school children of Southern Illinois, will again be presented by the Little Theatre group of Southern Illinois University.

This is the fourth consecutive year that the Carbondale branch of the American Association of University Women has sponsored this series of three children's plays. It is the second year of their production by the Little Theatre group, composed of doctoral students of S.I.U. under the direction of Dr. Archibald McLeod, associate professor of speech.

The first two associate plays were presented by the Clare Tree Major Children's Theatre of New York. During those seasons such well-known tales as "Hicli," "Pentod," "Little Women," "Toby Tyler," and "Hansel and Gretel" were given.

LAST YEAR, instead of importing a commercial play company, the productions were undertaken by the Little Theatre group which presented "The Emperor's New Clothes" by Charlotte Chopenning, "The Last Days" by A. A. Milne, and "Mr. Dooley, Jr." by Rose M. Brown.

This regional theatrical enterprise was so successfully conducted last year, and the plays were so well attended by capacity crowds of school children that the AAUW considers it worthwhile to continue the plays as a cultural contribution for the children of Southern Illinois. The productions also provide an excellent opportunity for dramatic students to gain experience in professional children's plays, and to perform under a professional and experienced director.

Mrs. Abner Restor, chairman of the AAUW Children's Theatre committee, has announced the following plays to be presented at 2:00 p.m. in Shryock Auditorium: "Jack and the Beanstalk," February 15; and "The Indian Captain," April 19. The price of admission is $1.00 (tax included) for a season ticket. Any parent or teacher who accompanies a group of fifteen children will be admitted free.

Wesley Players Are Organized

A new chapter of the National Society of Wesley Players has been organized at Southern. Its purpose is to study the religion of Jesus, and to promote a program of dramatic studies that is sincere, intelligent, and artistic.

The National Society of Wesley Players has had twenty-two years of experience in the study and production of religious drama. Its thirty-six chapters are at colleges and universities in every section of the United States.

To become a National Chapter the local chapter must organize and produce drama for two years. The organization is open to any college student, who is interested in religious drama.

Ben Watkins is to sponsor the local group which met Oct. 4 to make plans for their first production.

Health Officer Tells Of Sanitation Check

During the past week the Jackson County Health Department has had numerous reports of trench mouth infections. Consequently, the Health Dept. is making special efforts to see that all food and drink establishments are exercising the proper precautions in keeping dishes and glassware clean.

Patrons in these areas or shall visit every food or drink establishment in the cities and counties during the next week and make a check on dish washing facilities and techniques, Jackson county health officer, Dr. R. F. Sondag, said.

Trench mouth is a disease of mouth resulting from poor oral hygiene and often occurs in epidemic form when contaminated food utensils are used. The health department shall do everything possible to prevent an epidemic of trench mouth and patrons of food and drink establishments should not complain if the glassware has an odor or taste of chlorine. Instead the patrons should thank the manager for exercising the necessary precautions to protect the health of the individual, Dr. Sondag stated.

Southern's rapidly-improving photographic department received national-wide publicity last week in an article in The Publishers' Auxiliary one of the nation's leading newspapers directed to publishers.

Bulletin Board

Anyone having any notice for the bulletin board should bring it to the Egyptian office by 4 p.m. Tuesday. Announcements should be kept brief and should be double-spaced.

Today and tomorrow will be the last days for students to have their pictures made for permanent activity cards. Bill Horrell, head of the photographic service, said today.

The photo lab will be open from 3 to 4 o'clock this afternoon and tomorrow morning from 8 to 12.

Southern Society S. B. M. Redecorates; Delta Sigs To Have Tea

by Don Latham

Sigma Beta Beta fraternity enjoyed a square dance with Pi Kappa Sigma society last Friday. The party was initiated into the fraternity as active: Jack Stovall, Jack Riggs, Charles Thaste, Charles Grueser, Al Charlie, Fred Mueller, and Phil Goffner. A smoker was held Friday for new pledges last Thursday and among those present were: Jerry Engle, Bill Kubler, Ted Beardsley, Wilmer Kusk, Michael Seathin, Eugene Leitner, and Jack Reardon. Dave Davis was recently married to Pat Elton from Muncyphosco. Ernie Borzath has received his notice to report for a physical. Roy Siville has been placed in charge of the Homecoming decorations and float. The former House of Seven Gables is undergoing rapid changes, as the fraternity is now redecorating the downstairs rooms.

The Speller Web has made plans for a party given to their party for this term was a hayride, scheduled last Wednesday. Newly elected officers for the year are: Willetta Smith, president; Paula Rogers, vice-president; Hefda for new secretary; and Helga Cecilia Crawford, reporter; and Hefda, Gover. ISA representative.

Ne Epsilon Alpha fraternity has appointed Gene Graves and Les Barnes as co-chairmen of the Homecoming party. The decorations committee consists of Gene Spitzer, chairman; Tom Smith, Howard Allen, Ed Boaz, August Schwartz, Ken Meyer, Don Seiber, Roy Foley, Bill Madden, Lowell O'Kane, Bob Atkinson, and Dave Stahlberg. Charles Landreth was elected chaplain to replace Stan Douglas who has joined the Air Force. Active Frank Bird and Ray Holman have also joined the Air Force.

Chi Delta Chi pledge class has elected its officers. Bill Nickola, president; Earl Cox, vice-president; Roy Diechliemer, secretary-treasurer. Chi Delta's had an exchange party with Delta Sig Sorority last night. Anthony Hall girls will be served coffee and doughnuts after the game Saturday.

Pi Kap pledges are showing their usefulness by redecorating the basement of the sorority house as their term project. Pledge officers are: Mary Jo Zumer, E. St. Louis, president; Bert Lands, Harrisburg, vice-president; Jean Fuller, Carmel, secretary; and Carolyn Reed, Carbondale, treasurer. Pi Kappa Alpha club will meet Friday night, 7:30, at Miss Mary Entsminger.

Kappa Delta Alpha fraternity had a picnic with Tri Sig last Wednesday at Crab Orchard. Pledge classes from both groups did the entertaining. Bill Zacharias, former active from Cliftondale, is now a disc jockey in Parsons, Kansas, his new home, while awaiting his call to service. Nickola's home will be for the marching chorus. A hay-ride is on the agenda for Saturday night.

Delta Sigma Epsilon is holding a fall tea Sunday, Oct. 8, from 3-5 p.m. at the chapter house, 800 S. University. The tea is being held in honor of the new acting Dean of Women, Miss Leah Farr, and in honor of the Delta Sig's new housemother, Mrs. Eve Dulmage. Ann Erwood leads the committee for invitations to the tea and Pat Hicks is chairman of the refreshment committee. Joan Foley is in charge of a bake sale to be held Saturday, Oct. 14, at Murray's Furniture store.

Southern places which have pictures of Old Main on them are being sold by the sorority. The plates were sold at the game Saturday and will also be sold during Homecoming. They may be obtained from any member. Monday, the Delta Sig will honor their Founders' day with a ceremony. As part of Homecoming celebration, the sorority will hold a brunch Saturday noon, Oct. 21 for alumnae.

Tekla Randall Ashley, has been chosen junior-senior representative to the inter-fraternity council. Ashley replaces the deceased Beulah who is not in school this term. Bob Foel and Jim Campbell are co-chairmen of the social committee for the coming year. Fledge class officers are: Bud Harder, president; Ken Black and Carl Stanford, secretary-treasurers.

The girls at La Casa Manana and their dates enjoyed a winner round at Great City Park Sunday afternoon. Miss Hamilton and Mrs. C. S. Johnson were the champions.

At a housewarming Tuesday night, plans were discussed for Southern's Homecoming.

Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority will have a Spanish theme, "Sigma Sixty-six," for open house, Oct. 10, which will be in honor of Mrs. Mary Coffey, new Sigma housemother. Last Sunday afternoon, more than 150 guests attended Sigma's tea honoring the new Dean of Women, Miss Leah Farr, and the sorority's new sponsor, Miss Lura Brown. Wednesday night the Tri Sig had an exchange party at Crab Orchard with Kappa Delta Alpha fraternity, Phyllis Wolfe and Gene Johns, social chairmen, were in charge.

Maroons Shut Out By Cape's Indians, 10-0

The sun was shining, the stadium was loaded, and the uniforms were clean when the SIU Maroons squared off with the Cape Girardeau Indians last Saturday. But the atmosphere was quite different 60 minutes later, after these same Maroons had dropped a hard-fought, shut-out battle to the Indians, 10-0, to dampen the spirits of the week end guests, the "T" men and the parents.

After getting off to a fair start when they stopped the Indians on their own five-yard line in an infant goal-line stand, the Maroons fell apart offensively speaking, and were able to gain only 107 yards all day.

Cape, on the other hand, controlled the pigskins for a total of 214 yards. In addition, the passing-minded Braves gained 108 yards in the air by virtue of nine completions in 20 attempts. Southern completed one of 11 attempted passes.

Pro Berry, Cape left halfback, had a terrific day, scoring a touchdown, and doing most of the ball-carrying for the Indians. Berry skirted right end almost at will, and made long yardage consistently. Berry averaged almost seven yards per try in 20 carries. The fleet-footed, hard-driving Capester scored on the first play of the second quarter, after a penalty had moved the ball out to the Southern four-yard line.

In addition, the Cape men counted on two safeties for their additional four points.

Southern's only offensive threats were Bob Ems, Porky VanderPluym, and Bob Schweinberg. Ems however, was lost to the squad for perhaps another week, as he sprained his ankle after gaining 23 yards over right guard. VanderPluym made several nice gains in the last quarter, after he had been inserted at fullback. Schweinberg almost broke away on numerous occasions during the first part of the ball game.

VanderPluym and Schweinberg appear to be the broken field runners while Ems is a head-for-the-hill runner. He has been plagued by injuries, and the few minutes he played in the Cape contest in the only action he has seen from this year.

Defensive play of the entire squad, namely "Red Man" Swoboda and Herb Cummins, was good, on the whole. However, pass defense was poor and the Maroons looked weak on end runs. The offense, however, lacked the punch which it was thought capable of.

FRED BRENZEL, No. 29, gives Cape's Richard Young a little assistance in spilling Southern halfback Harold Call, in last Saturday's game against Cape Girardeau. Southern lost a yard on the play and the game, 10-0. In the background, Neil Brook has just been blocked by an unidentified Southern player.

New Foe Uncle Sam Tough SIU Grid Obstacle

Coach Bill Waller may lose three men from his football varsity, at least if Uncle Sam has his way. Bill Goodman, Bob Brown, and Earl Wangelin will all have to return to active duty this month if they do not obtain deferments.

Goodman is to report for active duty October 20, while Wangelin is attempting at the present time to be deferred. Brown has not as yet heard from the Army considering his physical, which he took last week in St. Louis.

In addition to the above three, almost every member of the football team is subject to call, some time within the next few weeks.

Robert East Receives State Appointment

Robert East, a graduate of Southern Illinois University, was recently appointed to the Department of State intern program. The purpose of the program is to select outstanding college graduates who show promise in qualifying for promotion to key jobs in the State department. East's appointment followed nomination by a committee of Southern Illinois University faculty members. East, 28, is a resident of Carbondale. He attended Southern, then served for five years as a liaison pilot, after which he returned to the university.

In 1947, he studied in Sweden, returning to receive his degree at Southern the next year. He majored in government and minored in history. During the past year, he served as a faculty assistant in the government department.

Upon successful completion of a nine months intern period, he is to receive a state department appointment.

Name Tutthill Director Of Area Choral Clinic

Burnet Tutthill, presently director of music at Southwestern university in Memphis, has been selected as guest director for the annual Southern Illinois choral clinic to be held on campus this fall.

Floyd W. Westland, Southern choral director, said this week. Tutthill, who received his A.B. and M. A. degrees from Columbia university in New York, has been active both as director and composer. He has composed several pieces for orchestra, band, chorus, and chamber music groups. He founded the Society for the Publication of American Music, and collaborated with Charles N. Boyd, Pittsburg, in establishing the National Association of Schools of Music in 1924. He has been secretary of that organization ever since its founding.

Quarterbacks, Reid Martin, and Joe Moore Halliburton. East Moore, Joe Pantano, Hank Miller, Dan Shaffer, Fred Hampton, and Jim Erickson. Fullbacks, Richard Dixon and Gene Hale.

The "B" squad boys have been scrimmaging almost constantly since the season began. Nevertheless, since they do not always have the same combinations together, Coach Corn feels that the men still could use some work on running plays. They were scheduled to scrimmage the varsity sometime this week.

"B" squad schedule: Oct. 16—Cape, here, 3 p.m. Oct. 23—Cape, there, 7 p.m. Oct. 28—Wash. U., there, 2 p.m.

BACK IN THE FIRE

A quick transition took place in regard to the SIU Maroon football team in the amazing short period of a week. For last Saturday, instead of pulling the game out of the fire, the Maroons were IN THE FIRE, all day. The whole trouble, to make it look small, was inconsistency. Inconsistency on the part of practically everyone involved. There wasn't a man on the Maroon eleven who didn't look good at one time or another last Saturday. But the Maroons just couldn't seem to click at the same time, eleven.

Everyone has decided by this time that the two main problems involved were on the part of the offensive linemen and the defensive ends. However, in defense of the ends, on a five-man line they end up to padome an end, and the task of stopping end runs is then in the hands of members of the secondary. But at any rate, Cape seemed to gain around right end at will, and a fellow by the name of Jerry ranked up enough yardage to win the game by himself.

HE RAISED HIS GRADE

Being somewhat partial to "B" squad members, we thought it best to note that former member of Southern's "B" team played a pretty fair game on defense, blocking a pass, making a few tackles, and recovering a fumble last Saturday. Elsworth Chiles, a former Southern student, spent most of his time on the bench and in "B" squad games while a student here. Transferring to Cape, Elsworth seems to be doing a bit better, since he plays first-string defensive tackle, and does an adept job of it at that. Of course, if Chiles were here now, he might be playing some ball. But apparently he didn't want to wait that long. He raised his grade from "B" to "A."

DOTS AND DASHES

It is the sincere hope of everyone concerned with SIU football that Bob Ems' ankle will be in good shape by tomorrow. While Ems was recovering from his injury last Saturday, the offense took on a life. The big fullback, plagued incessantly by injuries this fall, is just what Dr. Waller needs in that backfield.

A hard plunger, Ems could easily be the difference between winning and losing in a closely-contested grid. Johnny (Porky) VanderPluym also looked good against Cape, as did his Harrisburg teammate, Herb Cummins. Both had a stand-out on defense, and personally averted a Cape touchdown when he pulled Jerry down from behind late in the fourth quarter.

'B' Squad Inaugurates Grid Season Today

Southern's "B" squad will get a chance to show what they can do Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when they meet the Junior Varsity of Washington university of St. Louis in Mc Andrew Stadium. While the varsity has taken a number of the promising "B" squad members, coaches John Corn and Buzz Bradley hope to salvage enough material to give Washington trouble.

A four game schedule has been announced at this writing. However, a few more games may be scheduled later on in the season, with Murray State of Kentucky, and Arkansas State probable opponents.

Last year, Southern whipped Washington, 33-13 at Francis Field in St. Louis. Thus the city boys may be pepped up accordingly for this contest. Washington reportedly has a better J. V. squad than last year.

Coach Corn expects to field a 27 man squad to oppose Washington. Included in this list are: Ends, Ed Arrondelli, Jim Veatch, J. D. Savino, and Nick Veremus. Tackles, Tom Newport, Earl Justice, Ray Siville, and John Moore. Guards, Jim Ventrance, Stanley Elam, Charles Parker, and Charlie Pritchett. Center, Gene Propps. Bob Steele, and Bill Adams.

Quarterbacks, Reid Martin, and Joe Moore Halliburton. East Moore, Joe Pantano, Hank Miller, Dan Shaffer, Fred Hampton, and Jim Erickson. Fullbacks, Richard Dixon and Gene Hale.

WAA Plans Sports, Has Play Night

Play Night, consisting of sport activities, will be held every Wednesday night under the supervision of the Women's Athletic Association. Alberta Smith, chairman, is planning many and varied sports activities including badminton, shuffle-board, dancing, and square dancing. This is to be co-rectored, and is open to all students of the university.

Nov. 8, the girls hockey team will play host to the team from Principia College. A return match has been scheduled for Nov. 18 when the team will make the journey there.

Dates have been set for several of the tennis meets. On Oct. 4, Fred Brenzel, senior from Staunton, Brenzel kicked four times for an average of 44.4 yards per kick. Coach Walter hopes that he won't have to rely on the fine kicking of Brenzel to keep the Maroons out of trouble again this week. Brenzel kicked from deep in his own territory each time against Cape Girardeau and the long spiraling punts kept the score from adding up even higher against Southern. Last year he ranked as one of the nation's leading punters.

Bob Ems, rugged fullback from Sireator, got into the game last week for only a few plays before again injuring his leg which has kept him on the bench most of the time. When Ems was in the game he showed great possibilities, as he ripped through the Cape line with vicious drives. Indications were that the game would have been much more even if he had been able to do full time at the fullback post.

Last year, the Sycamores edged the Maroons in the first game between the two schools, 9-7, but the Southern men poured it in on the second meeting, 41-14 in the annual Shrine Football classic in Carbondale.

Southern and Indiana State played for the first time in 1944 with State taking a 55-6 win. State won again in 1947, but the Maroons

Indiana State Will Be Tough Opponent

Southern Illinois University's Maroons will bear down this week in preparation for Saturday's game with the Indiana State Sycamores, and Coach William H. Waller will lengthen practice sessions in an effort to better the one and one record his team now holds after Saturday's 10-0 loss to Cape Girardeau. Southern will have to work on their offense if they are to get by the Sycamores. In the first game of the season they picked up only 98 yards rushing and had 143 yards against Cape Girardeau.

One of the bright spots of the game Saturday was the punting of Fred Brenzel, senior from Staunton. Brenzel kicked four times for an average of 44.4 yards per kick. Coach Walter hopes that he won't have to rely on the fine kicking of Brenzel to keep the Maroons out of trouble again this week. Brenzel kicked from deep in his own territory each time against Cape Girardeau and the long spiraling punts kept the score from adding up even higher against Southern. Southern and Indiana State played for the first time in 1944 with State taking a 55-6 win. State won again in 1947, but the Maroons took the 1948 contest and with the split last year the Sycamores hold a 2-3 edge in the infant series. Neither lineup will be certain until near game time, but Indiana State lists their probable starters as follows: Ends—Lou Scott and Bill Griffith; tackles—Charles Moore and John Eiting; guards—Malcolm Huff and George Gainers; center—Paul Meyer; quarterback—John Frey; halfbacks—Clarence Brown and Robert Roe; and Alvin Workman at fullback.

Coach Waller will undoubtedly make a few switches in the Southern starting eleven, but nearly the same men will see action as did in the Cape Girardeau contest last week.

Southern will be host to all Boy Scouts in the Egyptian Council at this game. The day's activities include the scout group parade, a flag-raising ceremony, band music and Indian dances by the scouts.

Following the game presentations will be made to the scout troops for the best showing made while marching into the stadium. Awards will be made on the basis of appearance, marching ability and actions.
