Southern Stinks!

Students at SIU fight the crowdness and inconvenience day after day with a bright outlook for the tomorrow. But another inconvenience has been added lately which could and should be easily done away with. Some unknown cause, perhaps the old barns used for housing cattle south of McAdams Stadium, has started a stench which smells up the entire southern part of the campus.

Whatever the cause of this discomfort, it seems that the University should take steps to remove it. Southern Illinois University is one of the best and fastest growing universities in the U. S., but right now Southern stinks! Action, huh?

President Morris Addresses Freshmen

"There is no person in the world that knows you better than yourself, and I hope we can develop a set of values for you to help your mental and spiritual security," stated President Delyle W. Morris.

Dr. Morris was the first speaker of the Freshman Assemblies that are held every Thursday in Shryock Auditorium. There was standing room only in the auditorium. The students gave President Morris their undivided attention and received his talk very well. He was introduced by Dean I. Clark Davis, Dean of Men.

"You are a score, a number. You have stood in front of machines that took your picture. We hope that you don't feel like a number," Dr. Morris said. "I hope that while you are here," declared Dr. Morris, "you will know new hungers of the mind and they will never leave you. You have here the potential of educational freedom. To be free you must have courage."

"For four years working for a degree you will share an extraordinary environment. The faculty is interested in you. Even though they are underpaid and overworked they are deeply rewarded."

Dr. Morris asked the students to ask themselves how they got to SIU. Was it because of their parents, high school principal, or boyfriend or girlfriend.

New Wesley Foundation Planned Here

From Effingham to Cairo, Methodist will be giving money for the new Wesley Foundation, Methodist Student Organization, to be built on Southern's campus.

The new building will be ready for full quarter of 1957, and the old building will be torn down sometime winter term as the new building will be in the same location that the present one is.

The building crusade is a $260,000 one, and the plans have already been drawn up by Gale Henderson, architect.

On the main floor, there will be a terrace, general office, coat room, another office and three classrooms.

In the right wing there will be a library, a chapel with 125 capacity, a prayer room and several closets.

The left wing will have a large multi-purpose room including a snack bar and an audio-visual section. There will also be a conference room and two bedrooms, each with a shower, in the left wing.

A recreation room, 65'x30', with a stage, projection room, kitchen with a serving room, a dark room and a workshop room will occupy the left section of the basement.

SIU Prof. To Speak At U of I Conference

William Neal Phelps, professor of guidance at SIU, will be the opening speaker Friday at a two-day annual conference of the Illinois Guidance and Personnel Association at the University of Illinois.

"Helping People Understand Themselves" is the theme of the meeting, which will attract teachers, counselors and administrators from throughout the state. Last year the association met at Southern.

Other SIU faculty members who will attend are Harvey F. Gardner, Archie Griffin, Jack W. Graham, Mrs. Jane Josse, William L.

Sheila Pflanz 6,000 Student to Register

Sheila Pflanz, junior, was welcomed to Southern by President D. W. Morris Friday at 10:53 as the 6,000th student to register for fall quarter.

Sheila is an English major in the college of Education. She is a third term junior.

President of Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority, Sheila lives at the Sorority house and was a student leader during New Student Week.

Sheila is also on the Homecoming steering committee working on the breakfast.

Are You a Veterans Child?

Dead Vets Leave Children Government Legacy

Are you the son or daughter of a deceased veteran? If so, you may be eligible for assistance in your education under the "War Act of 1956."

There are some conditions which must be met in order to secure this assistance. They are as follows: The veteran must have died of a disease or injury incurred or aggravated in the line of duty in active military service. If the death occurred after military service, the veteran must have been discharged under other-than-dishonorable conditions.

The child must be between the ages of 18 and 23. In some cases schooling may start before the age of 18 and continue after 23, but generally speaking, such will not be the case.

In order to be certified as eligible under Public Law 634 the parent or guardian of the child must file an application with the Veterans Administration. If the child is a legal age with no known legal disability, he can act for himself.

Upon provisional approval by the VA the child will be furnished a VA educational or vocational counseling.

During this time the educational plan to be followed by the child must be worked out by the parent, indicating the selected educational goal, the program of education, the school to be attended and an estimate of how much tuition and fees will be.

This plan, signed by the parent or guardian, becomes part of the application. Upon approval of the application, both the child and the school will receive notification of eligibility for entrance into training under this law.

According to the information on hand, the parent or guardian will receive subsistence at the rate of $110 a month if the child is attending school on a full-time basis, $80 a month if attending on a three-quarter basis and $50 a month if on a half-time basis.

If the child is of age without legal disability and is making application on his own, apparently the check will be sent directly to him. By quarter hours, full time is program.

TAUGHT BY RADIO

"Everywhere you go there's radio," everyone will have an opportunity to know about Education 319.

Education 319, Critical Issues in Public Schools, is an extension course open to all SIU students. The students will receive two quarter hours credit.

The course consists of 16 panel discussions by the class members which will be tape recorded here and sent to radio station KMOX in St. Louis.

The programs, which will be heard Monday from 9-10 p. m., will begin Oct. 8. The last broadcast will be on Jan. 30.

"Are Schools Really Democratic?" will be the topic of the first discussion.

Moderator for the program will be Dr. Douglas Lawson, education leader. Dr. John Fligor, Assistant professor, will summarize the panel's discussion at the end of each program.

WESLEY FOUNDATION FILM THURSDAY NIGHT
"Reply to Reality", a film, will be shown at the next meeting of the Wesley Foundation, Thursday, at 4:45 p. m.

The place will be available at the Wesley Foundation during the week as it was undecided at deadline time.

An "Orientation Banquet" will be the foundation's first major event, held Sunday, Sept. 23, in the Carbondale Community High School.

Frank Mattes spoke on "Our Responsibility as Methodist Students."

The program was discussed by Donna Hartley, an "Our Fellowship" was the title of a speech given by Martin Lindell.

The fund-raising campaign was discussed by Willard Chitry, head of the new building campaign here at Southern.

Entertainment was furnished by Mary Alice Chrisman, soloist, John Berry and H. C. Hinkley, giving skits, and the Methodist Foundation's Men's Quartet, which sang several songs.

HAPPY-JOE-LUCKY presents STICKLERS!

What is a tired cat?
What is a patch on the seat of your pants?
What is a jobless horseman?

STUCK FOR MONEY? DO A Stuckler!

STICKLERS ARE TICKLERS and a mighty soft way to make money! Just write down a simple riddle and a two-word rhyming answer. For example: What's a ball player who gets a raise? (Answer: richer pitcher.) Note: both words must have the same number of syllables — bleak freak, jolly dolly, viney finery. Send your Stickers, with your name, address, college, and class, to Happy-Joe-Lucky, Box 67A, Mt. Vernon, N. Y. Don't do drawings! We'll pay $25 for every Sticker we use in our advertising—and for hundreds that never see print. And remember—you're bound to Stickle better when you're enjoying a Lucky, because Luckies taste better. Luckies' mild, good-tasting tobacco is TOASTED to taste even better. Fact is, you'll say Luckies are the best-tasting cigarette you ever smoked!

Kelley Elected Head of IPA

The Psychology department of SIU has on its staff this year the president-elect of the Illinois Psychological Association. Dr. Noble Kelley, chairman of the psychology department, was recently elevated to the presidency after serving three years on the Board of Directors. The Illinois Psychological Association is one of the larger organizations of this type in the U. S. with 550 members.

Council of 100 To Construct Camp At Little Grassy Lake

A 15-man committee of the Outdoor Education Committee of the Educational Council of 100 observed land under lease to the council at Little Grassy Lake last week for the purpose of making plans for a road. The road will extend from the southern tip of the lake to a point opposite the SIU camp, a distance of about three miles. A camp for elementary and high school students from the 31 southernmost counties in Illinois will be constructed opposite SIU's camp. The work will be done by volunteers from the council and other interested citizens. Chairman of the council is Clyde V. Winkler, Superintendent of Carbondale Elementary Schools. The date for beginning the construction of the road and camp will be announced later.

WAF Lieutenant Has Served In Other Armed Services

Texas' loss is SIU's gain. The director of SIU's new WAF program, Lt. Nina Morrison, is a native of Beaumont, Texas. She has long, varied military experience. Lt. Morrison attended schools in Texas. She is a graduate of Lamar Jr. College (now known as Lamar State College of Technology) in Beaumont. After graduation she started on her career by taking a civil service job as a link trainer instructor while she was learning to fly. SIU's only lady lieutenant entered the WAF and during her service flew T-6's. She remained with the WAF until December of 1944, when they were deactivated. After leaving the service, Lt. Morrison received her instructor's license.

Though the number of girls to be accepted this year for both the basic and advanced courses has not been determined, the number will be limited by the number of commissions allotted to SIU in the future. At present Lt. Morrison is working on a brochure about the new program. The material will be used to explain the program to interested girls and to parents. Any girl who may be interested in the program may contact Lt. Morrison in Room 109, Wheeler Hall. There is no obligation for information.

Class Ring Orders Being Taken Now At U. Store
The last date for ordering class rings for pre-Christmas delivery will be Wednesday, Oct. 10. The shorter period for ordering the class rings is due to school's opening so late and the bookstore's transferring location, a spokesman for the University store said. Rings may be ordered after Oct. 10, but pre-Christmas delivery will not be assured.

Faculty Wives Hired to Ease Teaching Load

More than 15 wives of SIU faculty members have been pressed into classroom service to ease an emergency teaching load brought on by a new record enrollment. Five of the distaff appointees are lecturing in mathematics and three others in English. Only three of the group are in the same academic fields as their husbands. Mrs. James Benziger, former editorial researcher for "Time" magazine, will share an English department office with her husband Mrs. Leslie Malpass will relieve her husband of a heavy class burden in psychology, and Mrs. Charles Footg will assist her husband with zoology research.

Sister Week' Being Held At Johnson Hall

"Big and Little Sister Week" is being held all this week at Johnson Hall. A series of meetings at 10 p. m. will highlight the week. Last night Dean Mildred Schorber was the guest speaker, and discussed campus rules and regulations. Tonight's program will include a discussion of Johnson Hall rules. Devotions will be held Wednesday, and a party is planned for Thursday night. The "Big Sisters" are to do a favor a day all week for their "little sisters." Diane Hutchison is acting as chairman of the week, and is assisted by Carol Smith, Johnson Hall's freshman adviser.

Try Outs For Homecoming Play Tonight At Playhouse

Tryouts for the 1956 Homecoming Play, "Night Must Fall," a mystery thriller by Emlyn Williams, will be held at 7:30 tonight in the Southern Playhouse. All SIU students are eligible to participate in these tryouts for the homecoming play, which will be directed by Dr. Archibald MacLennan. The Southern Playhouse will be serving a dual purpose tonight, as the tryouts for the first children's play, "Hansel and Gretel," will also be held. C. V. Bennett, graduate assistant in the SIU speech department, will direct this play, which will be presented to children from the area schools.

Cent. Michigan Outpaces SIU For 32-13 Victory

The SIU Salukis, down at half-time one touchdown, came back the third quarter to go ahead 13-6 Saturday against Central Michigan at Mt. Pleasant, but could not stop the Chippewas' powerful rushing attack and breakaway running, suffering a 32-13 defeat in their IIAAC opener.

The Salukis, suffering injuries and "fumbleitis" in the second half, just didn't have the bench power to compete with the Chippewas.

SIU started the scoring with a four-yard plunge by Carver Shannon through right guard early in the second quarter. Shannon had raced 39 yards through tackle near the end of the first quarter to set up the touchdown. His placement went wide to the right.

Central could get nowhere after the kickoff, and punted to the Southern 44. Southern picked up two first downs, but had to punt. John Abramovitch punted to the Central two-yard line. After a 10-yard run for a gain of seven yards, Jim Podoley, Central's speedy back, took a pitchout and outraced the Salukis for a 91-yard touchdown run. Central's placement was not good, leaving the score at 6-6.

After the kickoff, Southern could not make 10 yards and punted. After three plays, Fullback Bob McNamara slammed over tackle for 33 yards to score standing up. Herb Kiple's placement was not good, and Central led, 12-6.

Immediately after the start of the second half, Shannon went 74 yards on a punt return to tie the game at 12-12. His extra point kick put Southern ahead for the last time and ended Saluki scoring for the day.

On the next series of plays, Podoley again took a pitchout to race 35 yards to score, and send Central ahead 18-13. The placement was good.

After Southern fumbled on the next series, Central recovered, and with 50 seconds left in the third quarter, Don Weichert plunged for on yard and another touchdown. The placement was low.

Then, after Southern and Central exchanged punts, Central's Bob Case went over guard, reversed, and scored on a 65-yard run. Kowach converted to make the score 32-13 and end the scoring for the day.

Central's powerful rushing attack netted them 384 yards from scrimmage, while Southern was a gaining 110. The Chippewas completed eight of 14 passes for 85 yards, while the Salukis completed three of eight for 14 yards.

One of the brightest spots for Southern was the punting. John Abramovitch, Dave Wheeler and Charles Hamilton punted for a total of 10 times for Southern.

with only two being returned, one for seven yards and one for three. Their combined average was 35.2 yards per punt.

The Salukis now have only two days of rest before leaving Wednesday for Peoria, where they will meet the Bradley Braves in a Thursday night game.

Intramurals

By Joe Melosi

The intramural sport, while not a game of glory or letters, plays a very vital part in the everyday lives of the college student.

It has a direct bearing upon developing the social relations and attitudes of the participating individual by upholding high standards of sportsmanship. It also has influence in the "fair dealing with all individuals and groups, and providing multitudes of opportunities for leadership and co-operation," according to the principles described in the Intramural Handbook.

The Intramural Department will provide maximum service so that all students may have an opportunity to engage in wholesome, physical, competitive activity.

Five sports will inaugurate the fall intramural program next week, with tennis being the first to start in its motion on Oct. 9. Touch football follows on Oct. 10, swimming on Oct. 11, badminton on Oct. 17, and hole-in-one golf which starts on Oct. 15 and ends Oct. 17.

Last year's tennis champion in intramural play was Jerry Green, independent. Touch football laurels went to Sigma Tau Gamma Fraternity. William Fisher, independent, took first place in badminton competition. William Miesowski, also independent, was top swimmer in the hole-in-one golf meet, with Bill Rupp taking second and Dean Hopkins taking third place.

One intramural swimming record toppled, but all others remained unmoored.

Winners in the various events are as follows:

Fifty yard freestyle, Vaughn Hathaway, 28.5. Fifty yard backstroke, Jack Rorobach, 36.8. Fifty yard breaststroke, Roy Fowley, 55.6. One hundred yard freestyle, Vaughn Hathaway 1:06.9.

The Marlins topped the 220-yard relay freestyle relay record with 1:59. The previous record was held by Anthony Malby-2:07. Roy Fowley collected 86.4 points, best in diving competition.

Preliminary manager's meetings are announced for Tuesday Oct. 2 at 10 a. m. and 5 p. m. in the Men's Gymnasium. New rules and regulations will be discussed in the Intramural Handbook.

On Oct. 8, representatives from all four leagues — Fraternity, Men's Residence Halls, Independents, and Organized Houses — will be expected to attend this

Merrick On Committee To Pick NAIA Teams For National Game

Football will have something comparable to its Bowl games this year. It's a national football game. The two competing teams will be selected by a committee appointed by the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics. Roswell D Merrick, Assistant Dean of the College of Education, was appointed to the selecting committee.

The game will be played at Little Rock, Arkansas' Municipal Stadium within a week after the regular season's games.

Proceeds from the game will go to the NAIA to help sponsor other sports with less spectator interest. The players will receive travel expenses only.

meeting at the Men's Gym?

Also, anyone interested in officiating touch football should secure rules at the intramural office anytime between 8 a. m. and 5 p. m. Oct. 3. The officials will be paid $15.00 per game.

Sports In Spurts

By Bill Epperheimer

A record-breaking number of 51 candidates turned out for the opening of Junior varsity grid practice at SIU this week.

Junior Varsity Coach Jim Wilkinson said he was well-pleased with the big turnout, but was worried about how he could get a team into shape for its opening game against Eastern Illinois here next Thursday afternoon.

Other scheduled games: Oct. 8—Washington Univ., there; Oct. 18—Eastern Illinois, there; Oct. 22—Washington Univ., here.

One of the star pitchers in the All-Army baseball tournament at Ft. Dix, N. J., last week was a former SIU athlete, Ray Ripplemeyer of Valeymer.

Ripplemeyer pitched his Ft. Carson, Colo., Mountaineers to a win over the Army's entry from Europe, going all the way and striking out nine.

The 23-year-old soldier played college baseball for two years at Southern before turning professional, playing for two years in the Milwaukee Braves' farm clubs at Toledo, Evansville, and Atlanta.

Rep Underwood, Granite City prep tennis star, has enrolled at Southern. Underwood won the Southern Illinois Open Junior Singles tournament held in August.

Ray Tabacchi, second baseman on last year's Saluki baseball team, and regular for four years, has returned to SIU after playing Class D baseball with the Seminole, Okla. club this summer.

When Tabacchi joined the club, it was in eighth place, but the team moved into third place by the end of the season and went on to capture the league playoffs.

He batted .241 and turned in one of the best fielding averages in the circuit.

Bernard Kabat, SIU cross-country and track star, has decided not to attend school this fall.

Kabat, who coach Doc Lingle called the "best distance runner prospect I've had in a long time," has taken a job in Colorado.
