Fall Enrollment High; Exceeds Expectation

Despite the huge toll the war has taken of its prospective students, S. I. N. I. had 745 registrants on Tuesday, September 21, with the possibility that 775 will have enrolled before the end of the week when registrations will be closed. This figure does not include the Air Corps Cadet Candidates on the campus.

In the current faculty bulletin President Pulliam stated that the fact that the college is holding its own so well against the terrific pressure of the war effort which has led to the loss of many young people in war time, and to promote the interests of Southern Illinois Normal University in the future.

In 1940 the men outnumbered the women by about 6 to 5, in 1941 by a "London sampling," the ratio was 5 to 4. In 1942 the women total 450, while there are only 159 men. This does not include the Army Air Cadets.

The fall enrollment summary shows that students who are preparing to teach number 577, of which 292 are freshmen, and although the women preponderate in the enrollment, the men thus far have a monopoly of the vocational department. At this time there are 315 freshmen, 114 sophomores, 56 juniors, 17 seniors, 4 graduates, and 13 unclassified students.

Review of Fight To Enable S. I. N. U. To Grant Liberal Arts Degree

When students registered for the fall term on September 14, 1943, they were told in the general assembly that the Senate of Southern Illinois Normal University. The college had been in liberal arts and sciences, as well as in education. This was eliminated the work of several years, carried on by the business men and other prominent citizens of not only Southern Illinois but the entire state who were interested in the advancement of higher education.

Two years ago the idea was conceived, but action was too late to be effective. Later in the general assembly the bill providing for the establishment of S. I. N. U. to grant liberal arts degrees was introduced into the Senate, but it was not until the Senate meeting of June 1942 that the bill was passed.

Early in the fall of last year, a committee of students was appointed to help with the existing campaign and Dr. William Schneider of the English department was selected to head the work. The bill was introduced into the Senate, but it was not until the Senate meeting of June 1942 that the bill was passed.

THE VALUE OF EDUCATION

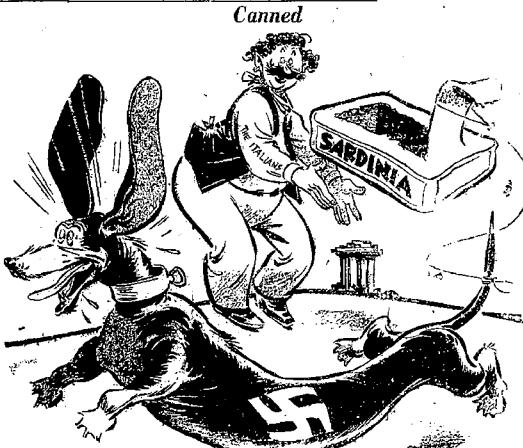

Repeatedly it has been emphasized that a young person of high school or college age will insure a better future for himself if he stays in school during the war years until he is called for military service, resisting the lure of high wages and subsequent independence offered by the war industries. President Pulliam has made this the subject of many of his chapel addresses, pleading with those wavering on the borderline to remain in school in order to get the benefits of a more advanced education.

Representatives of education, city administration, home, labor, and business to give their views. All these representatives said that the service of the teen-age group in helping out this summer in the acute labor shortage was instantaneous and subsequent independence offered by the war industries. President Pulliam has made this the subject of many of his chapel addresses, pleading with those wavering on the borderline to remain in school in order to get the benefits of a more advanced education.

WHAT DOES THE FUTURE HOLD?

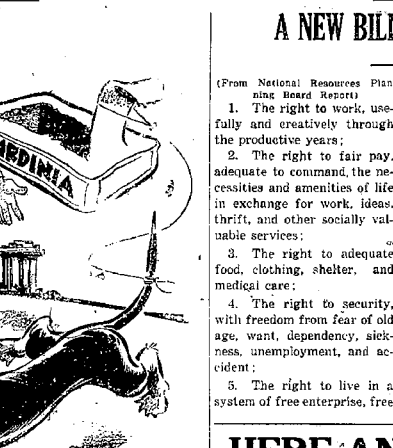

Training for war is necessary. From necessity the untrained soldier is precluded from warfare. What is even worse, he is seriously jeopardizing his life. Modern warfare, more than formerly, requires a long and intensive training. Along with the manual of arms and close order drill, judo has become the order of the day in nearly every training camp; and fighting by rules not strictly Marquis of Queensberry is everywhere.

will be his reaction to those rules? Impudence, animosity, or complete disregard? Will the poison of hatred, instilled in him in his training and fighting, have corrupted his thinking so completely that he will look to no rules but his own? Or will he be rehabilitated easily and once drill jingo has become a peaceful citizen?

AMERICA-A LEADING NATION

In the United States we are regarded as a nation leader who has great responsibilities. After the war is over, it is up to the United States to show the world that our power will be used to uplift and to exploit. We must help the other nations to help themselves. America has a chance to demonstrate herself as a Christian nation in the work of relief and rehabilitation which is sure to follow this war. It is up to us to show Christianity at its best and before the other nations will want our religion. It is our duty to show that we are not a nation of conquerors but a nation of peace-lovers.

NO FOOTBALL GAMES BUT BASKETBALL THIS YEAR

Due to the war, S.I.U. will have no football this year, according to Mr. P. L. King, director of athletics. For some time there have been rumors to the contrary and that it was inevitable. However, there will be basketball and other sports.

Eight games are now listed on the basketball schedule, with others to be added to make a good variety of home games. Coach Glenn Martin will begin work with the squad in the near future.

B.S.U. OFF TO GOOD START

The social year of the Baptist Student Union got off to a good start last night at the annual fall party which this year was a "School Daze Party". The girls were dressed as little made school girls, while the boys were in white on Friday there was a change of exercise.

The Baptist Student Union has a number of interesting social events on the calendar in its activities on registration day by directing all of them to the Baptist Foundation immediately after their registration for refreshments and a slight seeing tour over the building. There are 150 boys and girls on the campus this year, or four in one. For the college as a whole there are five girls to one boy, while in the Baptist ranks there are only three girls to one boy.

The major activity of the B.S.U. is the monthly prayer meeting, which is held at 12:25 in the Little Theatre. The average attendance last week was 67.

The church home of the B.S.U. is the Walnut Street Baptist church, and the college home of the B.S.U. is the Baptist Foundation, located just east of the college campus. The offices of the B.S.U. are located here along with classrooms, a library, prayer room, and the reception room. Dr. George L. Johnson, Dean of the Baptist Foundation, is teaching two classes as this term. One course is in Korea in the New Testament, one in the Old Testament, one in Kofe Greek, and a night class on the Christian home. Regular college credit is offered for these courses to those of sophomore level.

It is understood that the activities of the B.S.U. will be very active in the coming year.

Like two ripe plums hanging in the Mediterranean are the islands of Corsica and Sardinia—and both the Nazis and the Allies are making their grabs for control of the pair following the surrender of Italy. Corsica, originally French, was occupied by Italians and Nazis after Allies landed North Africa. Sardinia, in Italian possession since 1886, probably has its share of Germans on guard. Early action is expected here as the Allies seek to seize these islands that lie on the attack routes into southern France.

URBANA-CHAMPAIGN, ILL. — The University of Illinois has plans formulated to meet squarely and immediately the individual educational needs of returning veterans. The term "veterans" is used to include demobilized men and women from both the armed services and the war industries. Under the proposed plans, a special committee would handle problems of admission and curricula and extensive use would be made of the University Personnel Bureau and its testing activities to place and guide veterans in their university work.

Many of the servicemen stationed on the campus lent helping hands harvesting beans for farmers around the campus who were pinched by the horsepower shortage. On one Sunday more than 50 servicemen pitched in to harvest more than 50,000 pounds of beans.

COLLEGE PARK, MD.—"Apple pie is what I need" cried the service men over seas. So the government decided to do its best to give them their morale-boosting apple pie and carrots and sweet potatoes to cut down night blindness. The task finally wound up in the hands of the University of Maryland horticultural and agricultural engineering departments, who have worked in cooperation with the government and food processors to develop an efficient system of food preservation. They finally solved the problem of shipping pie to both hot and cold climates by working out an approved seal.

Just ask the Emile Hegys what The American Spirit means

They know how precious is this thing that ONLY AMERICANS HAVE... for they fled a land where it never existed.

Emile and Marie Hegy were born and grew up in Alsace-Lorraine when their country was under the heel of conqueror. In May 1914, they freed themselves from the political and economic uncertainty that governed their daily lives and came to America.

Emile started work as a common laborer in the L & N car shop at Birmingham, Alabama. Soon there came a proud day when he and Marie became full-fledged citizens in a land where individual rights and freedoms were guaranteed.

On December 7, 1941, war came to America... their America now. That day found the one-time "common laborer," Emile Hegy, a valued L & N veteran in a good paying job, earned on merit... a thing that would have been impossible in a land where men's lives are lived under government decree and a common laborer must remain a common laborer until he dies.

Hardly before war was declared next day, Emile and Marie Hegy bought a $1,000 Deleson Bond, the first $1,000 bond sold that day in Birmingham. Then, as fast as they could convert investments into cash, the Hegys bought more Bonds. Today, a substantial part of every L & N pay check to Emile Hegy goes for the purchase of still more War Bonds.

Emile and Marie would tell you that they are buying all the War Bonds they can afford for TWO reasons. One is to help beat Hitler and Hirohito. The other is to help make sure that America will keep the priceless American Spirit alive.

That is the Spirit that laid the railroads, dug the mines, built the factories that make possible our level of freedom today. It is the Spirit that will never die, so long as we remain free to arrive in our own individual ways, for our own individual betterment.

J. H. Hill PRESIDENT LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE RAILROAD

The L & N like other railroads that sleep in the wartime record of transportation, is a product of the American Spirit. Active only to the Spirit, our nation has grown strong because it has been able to harness the savings in production to improve its own progress under the right to bargain. Individually or collectively, every person has been free to contribute toward energy, ability and intellect. It has built, not only the nation's backbone, but holds the hope of a better world. It will continue to contribute to the nation's development to the South.
