The Southern

By DAVID KESSEY

Almost everything that makes college life is built on sports. So when you think of a campus, the first thing that comes to mind is likely a sports team. And when you think of a college team, the first thing that probably comes to mind is a football team. Well, that's not exactly true. In reality, it's the Southern University football team that has won the most games in the history of Southern University. But let's not get ahead of ourselves.

The Southern is a university located in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and it is the oldest historically black university in the United States. The university was founded in 1861, and it is the oldest institution of higher education in the state of Louisiana. The university has a long and proud history, and it has produced many notable alumni, including Martin Luther King Jr., who graduated from the university in 1948.

The Southern football team is one of the most successful college football teams in the country. The team has won over 500 games in its history, and it has appeared in the Football World Championship twice. The team has also produced many All-Americans and NFL players, including former New York Giants star Lawrence Taylor.

But let's not forget about the Southern University track and field team. The team is also one of the most successful in the country, and it has produced many Olympic champions and world record holders. The team has won numerous national championships, and it has produced many Olympians, including former Olympic gold medalist, American swimmer Janet Evans.

The Southern University football team is not the only successful team at the university. The university also has successful basketball, volleyball, and soccer teams. The university is proud of its athletic programs, and it provides its students with the opportunity to participate in a wide range of sports.

The Southern University football team is not just about winning games. It is also about providing its students with a sense of community and identity. The team is an integral part of the Southern University community, and it is a source of pride for its students, alumni, and fans.

The Southern University football team is a testament to the university's commitment to providing its students with a comprehensive education. The university is proud of its athletic programs, and it is committed to providing its students with the opportunity to participate in a wide range of sports. The university is committed to ensuring that its students have the opportunity to develop their skills and abilities on and off the field. The university is proud of its football team, and it is proud of its students.

Starting with this issue of the Egyptian and continuing one issue a week, each Wednesday a new world record will be made to bring you a person in the University of Missouri's physical education department over whom you may be interested. This column is known as "WAXY."

The first one to be introduced will be Mrs. Cornelia E. Forney, who has served the University of Missouri as a woman's basketball player for 33 years. She has coached and graduated from Johnson's State Normal School, and has played basketball for 12 years. She is a member of the Alpha Delta Pi Fraternity and is currently in her 33rd year of basketball.

The women's basketball team is one of the oldest college teams in the country and is considered one of the top teams in the country.

The second article will be the life of a women's basketball player, who has been a member of the team for 33 years. She has been a member of the team since she was a child and has been involved in basketball since then. She has been a member of the team for more than 30 years and has been a member of the team since she was a child. She has been a member of the team for most of her life and has been a member of the team since she was a child.

RECAP OF GRID ACTIVITIES OF '45

GLEN BROWN

For the benefit of those who have not kept up with the activities of the Missouri high school football season, we present a summary of the activities of the Missouri high school football season.

The Missouri high school football season ended on November 17, 1945, with the Missouri state championship game played in St. Louis. The championship game was played between the St. Louis High School Tigers and the Kansas City North High School Chiefs. The Tigers won the game 28-14, and were declared the Missouri state champions.

The Tigers' season was marked by a strong defense and a balanced offense. They had scored 174 points in their eight games, while allowing only 90 points. The Chiefs, on the other hand, had scored 164 points in their six games, while allowing 98 points.

FOOTBALL TOGS 1945 STYLE

LESLIE O'BRIEN

For those who may not recall the style of football uniforms worn in 1945, we present a summary of the style of football uniforms worn in 1945.

The uniforms of 1945 were characterized by their simplicity and their functionality. The jerseys were made of single-layer wool, and were combined with white or gray pants. The helmets were made of metal and were color-coded by team. The most distinctive feature of the uniforms was the striped socks, which were worn with the pants and could be seen from a distance.

MAROONS FACE EXPERIENCED TEAM IN FIRST POSTWAR TILT

BOB CURTIS

Maroons face experienced team in first postwar tilt.

The Maroons are looking for their first win of the season in their first game against the Tigers of Kansas City. The Tigers are the defending champions of the Missouri state championship game and are expected to put up a tough fight.

The Maroons have been practicing hard and are looking to make a strong showing against the Tigers. They have been working on their offense and defense, and are looking to improve their overall performance.

The game is scheduled for November 17, 1945, and will be played in St. Louis. It will be a crucial game for both teams, as it will determine who will be declared the Missouri state champions.
