Explosion Opens Red Cross Drive Here on Campus

A mock atomic bomb explosion opened the American Red Cross drive here on campus Tuesday. The "bomb" was made by Dr. James Neckers, chairman of the chemistry department, and Homer George, chemistry department storekeeper.

Officially opening the drive was a flag raising ceremony, during which Bill Cook, Jackson county Red Cross chairman, spoke. At that time a Red Cross flag with a scale on it was hung from a tree near the main gates. Tom Sloan, president of the Student Council, was master of ceremonies.

FIRST STUDENT contributor of the drive was Marilyn Brewster from Benton. Volunteer student workers collected for the drive throughout the day Tuesday. Approximately $50 was collected in that one day.

Student goal is $1,000, said Wayne Mann, director of the alumni services and head of the drive. Bob O'Daniell is chairman of the student committee which has planned the campaign. The student committee has requested that all student organizations sponsor fund raising projects during the next week.

A DANCE held yesterday in the Canteen was sponsored by the student committee. Music was provided by a combo made up of campus dance band musicians.

An assembly will end the campus drive next Thursday.

In cooperation with the Red Cross drive on campus, the Inter-fraternity council is sponsoring an "Ugliest Man" contest to raise money for the Red Cross organization. The contest will start April 9 and close April 11. The person elected the ugliest man will be presented a stein with an ugly face engraved upon it.

ALL NOMINATIONS must be accompanied by 10 cents in coin. After nominations, votes are accepted at 1 cent each, according to chairman Virgil Fuchs.

This is the first time on campus that an election has been held to determine the "Ugliest Man" at

Anson Smith Elected President of APO

Anson Smith, junior from Mt. Vernon, was installed as the new president of Alpha Phi Omega, Southern service organization. Smith was also recently elected president of his fraternity, Nu Epsilon Alpha.

Other officers of the Alpha Phi Omega are Bob Davis first vice-president; Jim Schmulbach, second vice-president; Perry Smith, corresponding secretary; Charles Wildy, recording secretary; Charles Summers, historian; Paul Craig, sergeant-at-arms; Arthur Sims, treasurer; and Darrell Thompson, alumni relations.

NEWLY APPOINTED committee chairmen are Bob Davis, projects; Paul Craig, extension; Norman Armstrong, social; Bob Chandler, program; and John Clark, publicity.

The Alpha Phi Omega serves Southern in many ways. A few of them being ushering at conventions and games, and conducting campaigns. A large project just recently completed by the organization was the sponsorship of the time capsule, which was buried containing articles and information about Southern and which is not to be opened until 1975.

Dorothy Thompson Will Give Lecture At SIU on April 9

Dorothy Thompson, noted columnist and author, will lecture on "Our Troubled World" at 8 p.m. Monday in Shryock auditorium, under sponsorship of the university

DOROTHY THOMPSON

Entertainments and Lectures committee.

Miss Thompson, whose column "On the Record" is syndicated in papers throughout the United States and many others in Europe, India, Asia, Australia, Canada and South America, has also written six books. Recently she was selected by a Woman's Home Companion reader poll as one of the ten most admired women in America. The readers admired her "pugnacious" approach to national and international affairs.

DURING HER college days at Syracuse university Miss Thompson spoke on the cause of women's rights. A few years later she took over the Berlin office of the New York Evening Post—the first woman to hold such a position for the American press. She is also the only woman who has ever addressed the National Association of Manufacturers, the United States Chamber of Commerce, the Union League, and the Harvard Club of New York.

She has been honored with degrees by Tufts, Columbia, Russell Sage, St. Lawrence, and Syracuse colleges. At a testimonial dinner given in her honor a few years ago, congratulatory messages were received from leading dignitaries all over the world.

Her lecture Monday night is open to the public and no admission will be charged.

'Miss Southern' Contest Requirements Announced

Mimi Alecci and Jean Niermann, co-chairmen of the Spring Festival "Miss Southern" committee, have announced rules for the "Miss Southern" contest.

The rules are as follows: (1) Contestant must be fully enrolled in SIU this term. (2) Contestant must be unmarried.

Future Student Teachers To Meet

Special meetings have been arranged next week for all students who plan to do student teaching during the 1951-52 school year.

Dr. Charles D. Neal, director of teacher training, said that all students who plan to do student teaching should make preliminary applications at the meetings next week. Failure to do so may prevent a student from completing requirements for a degree.

STUDENTS ARE TO meet at times scheduled according to surnames. The schedule is as follows:

A-F Monday, April 9.
G-O Tuesday, April 10.
P-Z Wednesday, April 11.

All meetings will be held in Parkinson Laboratory 203 at 4:00 p.m. Students who cannot attend on the scheduled day should attend on one of the other dates.

Library Open Sundays During Spring Term

In response to student and faculty requests, the university library will be open on Sundays beginning April 8. The hours will be 2 until 6 p.m. and 7 until 10 p.m.

The opening on Sundays will be on an experimental basis for the remainder of spring term. If the use of the library justifies keeping it open, the plan will be continued next year.

STUDENTS MAY COMPETE IN FICTION CONTEST

Women students may compete in a college fiction contest which offers two $500 prizes. The contest is being sponsored by the Mademoiselle magazine. Entries in the contest must be postmarked by midnight, April 15, and should be sent to the Mademoiselle at 122 East 42nd Street, New York.

Rules for the contest state that the fiction must be from 3,000 to 5,000 words, and must be typewritten and double spaced.

(3) Contestant must have a three point overall average. (4) Contestants must attend all rehearsals and the tour through Southern Illinois cities on Saturday, April 21.

(5) Contestants must have a photograph. (6) Contestants will be judged on personality, poise, posture, appearance, and natural beauty. (7) Contestants will be judged by three judges picked by the committee. (8) Contestants will make two appearances during the contest—first, in formals, and secondly, in bathing suits.

(9) Entries may be made by contacting Jean Niermann, 800 South University, phone 822. (10) Entry fee for each contestant is two dollars. (11) Deadline for entries will be Friday, April 20 at 4 p.m.

FIVE FINALISTS will be announced at the Vodville show Friday, April 20. The contest itself will be held in Shryock auditorium at 3 p.m. Friday, April 20. The judges will be photographers from Southern Illinois. Coronation of Miss Southern will be held at the Spring Festival dance.

Members of the "Miss Southern" committee are co-chairmen Alecci and Niermann; George Fogel, Bill McClure, Andy Skidis, Primo Angelo, Bob Swoboda, Pat Welsh, Carol McClelland, Helen Huckleberry, and Marguerite Williams. Leah Farr, dean of women, is the faculty sponsor.

2,446 Register For Spring Term

Registration for the spring term totals 2,446 according to the registrar's office. During the spring term of last year enrollment reached 2,752. The slight decrease is due to men leaving school for the service.

Veterans still make up a large part of the students here at Southern. The registration totals show that almost a fourth of the students are veterans. The 537 veterans are fairly well scattered among the freshmen, sophomore, junior, and senior classes.

A BREAK DOWN of the registration totals according to classes shows that 746 of Southern's students are freshmen. There are 516 sophomores and 451 juniors. The senior class runs a close second to the juniors with an enrollment of 435.

Also in school this term are 29 post-graduates and non-classified students, and ten foreign students.

Variety Show rehearsal will be held Monday night, April 9 at 7:30 in the Little Theater. All participants are asked to be present.

Let's Help

About 1,000,000 college students give some type of service through the American Red Cross each year. The record made by students in the blood program as donors, as well as in the fields of recruitment and public information, has been outstanding according to national Red Cross reports.

As you probably know by now, a Red Cross drive is now being conducted on Southern's campus. We are not being asked to donate our life blood to the cause, but we are being asked to give money. (To some of us the two may seem almost synonymous.) A goal of $1,000 has been set for the student drive, which ends April 14, and a scale has been erected near the entrance gate to record progress of contributions. The first day alone a mark of $52.75 was reached.

WHETHER OR NOT THE CONTRIBUTIONS are large or small, dimes or dollars—or even pennies, they all help to keep the mark moving upward.

"Ole Miss." the University of Mississippi, with approximately the same enrollment as Southern, netted a total of $915 in a recent Red Cross drive. Can we top this?

A few of the tasks confronting the National Red Cross today are:

1. Procuring vast quantities of blood and stockpiling blood plasma for instant use.
2. Training 20,000,000 first aiders, instructing 100,000 additional nurse's aides.
3. Expanding Red Cross disaster facilities across the nation to assist in civil defense.
4. Serving members of greatly expanded armed forces and their families.

There are many former SIU students now in military service in Korea, and other parts of the world. Many in school now have brothers or other relatives in service. Helping the Red Cross does not seem merely an impersonal project to us when we realize that it is going to aid people we know, as well as countless others.—V. M.

Veep

The word "Veep," which first began to appear more than a year ago, has been an interesting word to follow, not only because of its origin but because it has taken on new facets of meaning during the past year.

Originally, the word "Veep" was meant to apply only to the Vice-President of the United States and was based upon the abbreviation VP and modeled upon the word jeep. During the past year, the word has been used when capitalized to apply to Mr. Barkley alone, but without capitals it has been used in referring to any vice-president.

Recently, one New York newspaper extended the word "Veep" to cover the wife of the Vice-President by referring to both Mr. and Mrs. Barkley as "the Veeps."

Presumably this clipping of titles may continue. Possibly Mr. President will become Peep; the secretary of State, Steep; and the Secretary of Labor, Sleep. INSIDE THE ACD.

Hang On!

Don't throw away your "Maroon" banners yet, students. The new name that was chosen for Southern's athletic teams still has to have the approval of the Board of Trustees. Southern hasn't gone to the dogs and become Salukis yet.

Draft Deferment Tests To Be Given At Southern: Davis

An executive order of March 21 authorized draft boards to provide deferments for many college students, according to Clark Davis, dean of men.

This order will defer college students whose grades are satisfactory or who pass special aptitude tests which will be given throughout the country.

THE EXAMINATIONS will be held Saturday, May 26, in the men's gymnasium. The gymnasium can accommodate approximately 790 students. If more students are to take the tests, arrangements will be made to acquire one or two classrooms in the main building.

Examinations will be sent to the Educational Testing Service at Princeton, New Jersey to be graded, and students will be notified through their local draft board as to whether or not they have passed.

Students must apply to their local draft boards in order to take the aptitude tests. It is anticipated that draft boards will be able to furnish students with instructions and necessary application blanks by April 12 or shortly thereafter. Students may also acquire additional information after this date from Bob Etheridge, military service information officer at Southern.

These tests will be administered only to students already enrolled in college, and are being given to find out the students' ability to learn.

Church Workers to Have Conference

A special conference for church workers of every denomination from Southern Illinois communities of 5,000 population and less will be held in Little Theatre at Southern Monday, April 9.

Division of Extension and Adult Education of the university, in cooperation with the departments of sociology and agriculture, is in charge of the conference.

For the first year, the conference will be open to only ministers and priests or the actual spiritual heads of the various churches in the area. Although future meetings will be expanded, officials agreed that this first conference should consist of only a limited number of people and should last only one day.

Jim Cannon, who is in charge of the conference for the Extension division, stated that response to the proposed conference plan has been enthusiastic.

PLENTY SHOE CUSTOMERS

Up to now, most of the articles written concerning our baseball team have pictured the crew as a shoe-in for the conference crown. And although a team of the caliber of the 1951 aggregation should have that goal as its destination, there's a lot of baseball to be played between here and there.

All the teams of the conference are going to tough this year. Western has lost only one stringer from last season, when they finished behind the Maroons in conference standings. Normal, though they've lost a couple of front-line hurlers, seem destined for another top-notch season. Only recently, Normal tromped Washington university of St. Louis to the tune of 15-6.

And, if Washington U. comparative scores mean anything, Central Michigan will be tough too. The Michigan boys recently dropped the St. Louis nine twice in a double-header. And, as the saying goes in basketball around the loop, "Eastern is always tough."

Thus our boys will have pretty rough sledding before falling clear to any conference trophy. Sure, we're good, but so is everyone else.

GET THAT SALUKI

Well, maybe it won't be too long before we're referring to Southern Salukis instead of SIU Maroons. The Salukis got an overwhelming majority in a recent student election, but our friends the alums gotta' vote yet. There's just one kick, since Salukis aren't as easy to pick up as a 57 Variety Heinz dog. By the time the Alum O. K. comes through, we may not be able to obtain one of the speedy canines.

We like this Saluki nickname, nevertheless. There are all kinds of possibilities for publicity. If the name catches on, it can't be beat.

TOUGH LUCK, SCOTTY

Too bad about Scotty Steagall with his leg injury. The Millikin ace, who undoubtedly received countless invitations to appear on all-star teams in the post season circuit, injured the veins in his leg at Kansas City, and will have to lay off basketball for a period. After four terrific years in collegiate basketball, Scott had to turn down the all-star monetary offers. However, his name should be well enough established so he'll be able to cash in on his basketball prowess after his stint in the army.

Twenty-Six Men Taking Active Part In Spring Football

Twenty-six men have answered Coach Bill Waller's call to Spring football practice. Among the twenty-six returning are lettermen Lou Bobka, Jim Buckler, Herb Cummins, "Moose" Kraus, Johnny Vanderpluy, Bill Wangelin, and Bob Schweinberg. Also back from last season are Willie and Homer Malone, Leo Wilson, Joe Huske, Lou Fugate, and Charlie Parker. Center Don Leobetter, letterman on the 1949 squad, also has returned after a year's absence from school.

Coach Waller is running his boys through long sessions of practice, already having had them engage in several full equipment, body contact scrimmages.

Government Instructors Co-Authors of Article

Dr. William O. Winter and Dr. Robert A. McGrath, assistant professors of government at Southern Illinois University, are co-authors of an article titled "Illinois Votes the Blue Ballot," which appears in the February issue of the National Municipal Review. It tells the story of how, upon the sixth try, the Gateway Amendment was voted in by the people of Illinois.

The writers tell how officials and voters joined hands to secure adoption of the proposal to provide easier amendment of the Illinois constitution which had not been amended since 1908.

Harris Teachers Play Here This Afternoon

A schedule change resulted in Harris Teachers' College replacing Hillsdale in the baseball game slated for 3 p.m. this afternoon, Southern's first home game of the 1951 season. The Maroons will be seeking their sixth win in eight starts against a team which beat Parks Air College three times in as many starts and split a two game series with St. Louis University during the course of the 1950 season.

Southern's probable starting lineup will be:

- Don Campbell, c. f.
- Ed Coleman, 2b.
- Joe Jones, 1b.
- Larry Burns, r. f.
- Jim Schmulbach, l. f.
- Chuck Valier, 3b.
- Art Menendez, s. s.
- Milt Weisbecker, c.

Darrell Thompson will probably start the game, with Reid Martin, who won his own game with timely hitting against Arkansas State, following him on the bill.

Southern will play their first league game of the season against Central Michigan on April 13, followed by another game on April 14.

Campus life has certainly changed these past 100 years. Back in 1851 there were only 160 colleges in the entire country. Today, there are 1,849. No Rose Bowl game at the end of the football season in those days. No football season as a matter of fact. Open surreys were standard equipment of college Romeos—there wasn't a cream-colored convertible on the landscape. It was then, a century ago, that Arrow started manufacturing their famous collars . . . and in a few years they were setting campus styles. That's one thing that hasn't changed. Arrow is still style leader on America's campuses. College men everywhere know that the Arrow label always stands for smart styles, fine fabrics, meticulous tailoring . . . the superior quality that reflects good taste.
