April Fool: Time Runs Out

Authorities Hot on Trail of ‘Phantom’ Red-Decal

Someone is in trouble with the Parking Section. He (or she) is someone who doesn’t know that he can fool University authorities once in a while—but not all of the time.

The culprit owns a car — with a red “C” decal — and he parks it in University parking lots. But he is in trouble for possessing an unauthorized car.

As Edward P. McDevitt of the Parking Section explained it, the suspect registered his car with the University using a false name. He put down a record number belonging to a former student who has not attended the University since 1955. And the name under which the car is registered at Springfield does not belong to any student at SIU.

But, McDevitt said, “We’ll catch him.”

ROUGH DRAFT EXPECTED

14 Leaders From Two Campuses to Hold Retreat to Map New Student Government

A special committee of 14 student government leaders from the Carbondale and Edwardsville campuses will meet this weekend to formulate a working paper for a new structure of student government at SIU.

The committee will hold a series of meetings at Little Gymnasia, beginning at 7 o’clock tonight and continuing through Sunday if necessary.

William H. Murphy, chairman of the University Student Council, said he hopes the committee will have finalized its ideas and come up with a rough draft of the working paper by Sunday night.

Murphy said the final draft and forward it to the administration for final approval.

At the last meeting, Ralph W. Rahn, vice president for student and area services, assured the committee that the plan would be given immediate attention, so that elections could be held as planned, the third week in May.

Murphy said the retreat will open with a discussion of the underlying principles of student government. He then plans to present the findings of his research on the history of student government at SIU, structures of student government at other universities, and the present status of student government at SIU.

The committee will then begin a discussion of membership for the new student government. “We feel that once we determine how student government is to be made up, we can proceed to the other areas,” Murphy said.

To discuss these other areas, the committee will be divided into sub-committees.

Experimental Teaching

SIU Students Become "Substitute Mothers"

A program by an experimental teaching team has been carried out by eight SIU students and 75 Carbondale third graders during the winter term. The experiment was in conjunction with a "War on Poverty" program to extend the school day for economically deprived children.

The children gathered for the after-school program twice a week, with the permission of their parents. Ninety-five per cent of the third graders were chosen to attend.

The project had the cooperation of the Carbondale elementary school district, which made classroom and playground facilities available.

The experiment was successful and the children seemed eager to learn. Because of its success it is hoped to repeat the project during the winter of 1966, according to Rebecca E. Baker, associate professor of elementary education and director of the program.

University students who participated were Patricia A. Mulcahy of Chicago, Kathy M. Wolak of Ciccot, Doris A. Galecki of Chester, Mary Lynn Gosda of Manito, Sharon F. Eggemeyer of Sparta, Mary Ruth Heal of Herrin, Wanda B. Shuster of Pittsfield and Barbara A. Weber of Chicago.

SIU faculty supervisors were Marjorie H. Bond, women's physical education; Alice M. Schwartz, art education; Ernest E. Brud, elementary education; Geraldine B. Hoover, graduate assistant in education, and Miss Baker. "We encouraged the children in reading, art and physical skills and tried to provide experiences many children have little opportunity to acquire," Miss Baker said.

In addition to group activities, each University student worked closely with the same few children, week after week, so that they in effect became "substitute mothers" and were able to give the youngsters individual attention of a sort not possible in school or in large families, Miss Baker said. "This could be extremely valuable when lessons learned in the Carbondale experimental sessions are applied in areas of widespread economic deprivation."

Loyalty Oath

Compulsory ROTC is a ridiculous policy and ought to be castigated. It is productive of low standards of military training. It is an atrocious imposition of military jargon which does nothing for SIU as a place of higher learning. It has meaning for college students, who have more important things to do. Sometimes, there are attempts to hedge compulsory ROTC with the claim that it is not really compulsory. But the policy makers are aware of the repugnant flavor of a "compulsory not really compulsory" program, that the compulsion is not absolute, but only hypothetical: If you want to come to Southern, you must study ROTC. You see, if you don't want to have to take ROTC, you don't have to come to Southern. If you don't think aircraft identification is a college-level subject, you don't have to choose a university...which the university was established: It is definitely in favor of its policies before it. A constitution enough to impose a work program that is the largest in the country, that SIU wants to leave itself open as an opportunity for higher education, to whom the main choice is not the student's college. That involves whether you will come to college at SIU is concerned with the student's hypothetical read: If I want to go to college, I have to go to SIU for someplace as inexpensive, and there aren't many...of the programs, the work, and its goal. It aims for wide opportunities for higher education,) seems far more appropriate to the spirit of SIU than the compulsory ROTC program...1. check the students who do come here by forcing them to waste their time, and 2. depends for its defence on an appeal to your conscience which dictates the basic motives of University policy.

The recent legislation concerning colleges' military training program has been, or will be, revised on the basis of University policy, I hope so. Compulsory ROTC, if it has not been so already, ought soon to be abandoned,

Libraries at SIU Rank 14th

In Book Acquisition in Nation

SIU libraries last year ranked 14th among the nation’s college and university libraries in the number of volumes added to their collections, according to a report from the Office of Institutional Research, National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges.

SIU received 28,950 books in 1965, according to Harold J. Rath, special services librarian.

These acquisitions brought the size of the Carbondale Library to 625,883 and that of Edwardsville to 136,231 by the end of December 1965.

In addition, the Carbondale Library received 4,916 periodicals, and the Edwardsville campus 2,773.

The figures cover the period July 1, 1964, to June 30, 1964.

Rath reported that requests from other libraries to borrow books and materials from SIU libraries have come from 31 states, Canada and Pretoria, South Africa, during the last nine months.

In addition to supplying books to other libraries on interlibrary loans, the SIU library also furnished to other libraries 1,209 photocopies of periodicals and noncirculating materials.

Requests came from such institutions as Harvard, Columbia, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Yale, University of California, University of Texas, University of Minnesota and University of Michigan.

Materials were also loaned to research agencies of business and industries such as United Carbide, IBM, and Credit Union National Association, and to federal agencies such as the U.S. Air Force Academy, the Army Chemical Research and Development Laboratories, and others.

In return, SIU received 943 items on interlibrary loans from other institutions last year, Rath said. These were requested to provide research materials for faculty and graduate students, and included 528 books, 48 microfilms and 367 photocopies.

Keep Youngsters In High School, Kerner Advises

CHICAGO (AP) — High school students should be required to remain in school until they either graduate or reach the age of 18, Gov. Otto Kerner said Thursday. The greatest proportion of unemployables are in the 18 to 24 age group," he said, "Their numbers could be cut one-third in 5 years by making these youngsters continue their education.

Kerner spoke to some 5,000 persons attending the 34th annual Governor's Conference on Youth, sponsored by the Illinois Youth Commission, Division of Community Services.

He urged the development of school programs to interest youngsters "not interested in Ovid or Schopenhauer but in developing their hand talent."

"If we do not take aggressive action," he said, "they will be the ones who will swell our public aid rolls.

Kerner said there are fewer than 6,000 youths who have needed the services of the Illinois Youth Commission. Kerner said greater cooperation is needed among city, state and federal youth groups.

"We have the tools to insure the dignity of each individual youngster," he said, "but it cannot be done by the professionals alone. We must have the help of every adult."

Could'nt Speed If He Had To, 85-Year-Old Man Tells Police

LIBERTYVILLE, Ill. (AP) — Two Lake County deputy sheriffs halted Frank Hoyer, 85, Wednesday as he was driving along Buckley Road north of Libertyville and asked: "What are you doing out here on the highway?"

"I'm just minding my own business," replied Hoyer, who lives in a one-room cottage in a field off Buckley Road. When the deputies asked Hoyer if he had a driver's license, he replied: "I haven't had one for 10 years or so."

"You haven't got license plates, either," the deputies observed.

"I haven't bothered with them since 1946 or so," Hoyer replied. " Didn't you know you're a danger to other drivers on this road?"

"Don't you know you're a danger to other drivers on this road?"

"Can't see why I can't get up to more than 20 miles an hour," Hoyer said as he patted his car, a 1914 Model T Ford. The deputies charged Hoyer with having no driver's license, impounded his car and drove Hoyer home. He went into his cottage but returned with a slip of paper he showed the deputies.

It was a safe driver certificate issued to him in 1946 by an insurance company.
GO P Looks ‘Blissful’

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans changed the guard Thursday, and their new national chairman told them to build a party of broad national appeal, free of “mud-slinging” and negative campaigning.

As he took command of the Republican National Commit- tee, Ray C. Bilas declared that all Americans have a stake in the outcome of the election. Bilas said a sound two-party system is the “flesh and blood” of American govern- ment.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon told more than 2,000 Republican women that they were “Republican Consuelas.”

“The men who shall lead the nation,” he said, “will not lead us if you all don’t stand behind them.”

And Barry Goldwater, who lost to Johnson in a November landslide, said that even in defeat Republican foreign policy principles have proved victorious.

But Goldwater said the GOP has taken “weak-kneed and short-sighted” in facing the issue of what he termed mounting federal power.

“This party will either stand for a preserva- tion of state and local govern- ments, or it will serve by default the growth of an over­ mounting federal power.”

Former Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, who was defeated by Johnson in November, said it was essential to put party interests above personal ambitions.

“Those who seek honors and power,” he said, “must be prepared to serve the nation’s needs.”

Two House members offered their congratulations to the new national chairman.

“Now is the time for us to begin to rebuild the party,” said John J. Mitchell, chairman of the House Republican Committee.

“We have to start working to rework the measure in Congress,” said Richard B. Russell, chairman of the Senate Republican Committee.

Ballots Explodes, Others Found

In Birmingham Negro Area

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — A powerful dynamite bomb exploded in a Negro neighbor- hood Thursday and shortly afterward time bomb were found at the homes of two city officials. In what police theorized was a dacoit plot to kill or terrorize.

The dynamite blast damaged several Negro homes and one youth suffered a cut hand from flying glass, witnesses said. Police said theblast was triggered before they went off at the home of Mayor Albert Bussewalt and the home of a member of the City Council.

Police said the first bomb might have been a decoy to draw them to the Negro area across the city from the lo- cations of the other two bombs.

The Negroes were offered $1,000 for information leading to the apprehension of the suspects.

Voting Bill Hearings Ended;
It’s Vindictive, Southerners Say

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House Judiciary subcommit- tee concluded Thursday its hearings on the administra- tion’s voting-rights bill. It is starting reworking the measure in the House and Senate.

As originally submitted by Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzen- baker, it would apply principally to Southern states—all of Georgia, Mississippi, Louisiana, South Carolina and Virginia, plus 34 counties in North Carolina.

It would apply to those be- cause they use literacy or other voter qualification tests and in the 1960 elections less than 50 per cent of the eligible voting population voted. The pro- posed remedy is to use of fed- eral registrars to qualify Ne- gros to vote.

Mississippi is an area cov- ered has been the principal target of the efforts of the group, and the Senate Judiciary Committee which has been conducting simultan- eous hearings.

“Southerners have described the — as constitutional and vindictive and have urged its rejection. But many of them have called the limited application discriminatory and insisted that if it is passed it should apply more broadly. Advocates of the bill also have focused a broad- and the House subcom- mittee heard Saturday a group of amendments to bring parts of Texas, Arkansas, Florida and Tennessee under the bill.

Boy Wilkins, executive di- rector of the National Asso- ciation for the Advancement of Colored People, presented proposed changes in behalf of the leadership Conference on Civil Rights.

As drawn by the conference attorney, Joseph Rusk, the amendment would send fed- eral registrars into any county where less than 25 per cent of the adult Negro population was registered last Novem- ber.

Another provision would au- thorize the attorney general to appoint a hearing officer if 20 or more residents of a county complained they had been denied the vote because of race. If the hearing of- ficer decided there was dis- crimination and a three-judge federal court in the District of Columbia concurred, fed- eral registrars would take over the bill.

The conference, represent- ing 70 civil rights organiza- tions, asked also that the bill be attached to abolish poll tax in state primaries and to impose more severe penalties against intimidation of voters.

Unemployment

Rate Dips to 4.7%

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation’s unemployment rate dropped to 4.4 per cent in March, the lowest level in the measure more than 7 years. Employ- ment climbed in a record-high of 70,000, the Labor Department said today.

Nearly 300,000 persons got off the jobless rolls during the month, about double the ex- pected decline for March. This dropped the seasonally ad- justed unemployment rate from 5 per cent in February.

Top Security Advisers Hear Taylor Proposals

WASHINGTON (AP) President Johnson summoned his top national security ad- visers Thursday to consider Ambassador Maxwell D. Tay- lor’s new proposals for bol- loring U.S. efforts in the Viet- Nam war.

If past experience is any guide, the administration will not disclose details of the so-called “definitive proposals” which Taylor said in advance he would recommend to the President.

On the diplomatic front, Johnson got a plot from eyes of the policy- makers nations to begin Viet Nam peace negotiations. The U.S. government is hoping to bring peace talks to the United Nations.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk delivered two letters represent- ing the neutrals—but told them that the way to peace in Southeast Asia lies in an end to Communist aggression.

A State Department spokes- man said there was no sign that Red North Viet Nam in- tends to end its attacks on the South. Thus, in the U.S. view, negotiations now would be worthless.

Besides Johnson and Tay- lor, were summoned to the session at the White House were Rusk, Secretary of De- fence Robert S. McNamara, Director John A. McCone of the Central Intelligence Agency, Gen. Earle Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and McGeorge Bundy, presidential assistant on na- tional security affairs. Taylor has been in Washing- ton for consultations since March.

There were these develop- ments.

Police said the first bomb might have been a decoy to draw them to the Negro area across the city from the lo- cations of the other two bombs. A pledge to a reward fund soared to $60,000 within hours after the bombing, said M.F. Johns, a City Council presi- dent. He predicted the fund would top $100,000.

Gov. George C. Wallace, interrupting a fight in Wash- ington, D.C. doubled back here: visited the bombed neighborhood and posted a re- ward for the criminal.

Patriotic Pastime — Arthur Lowe, 70, retired farmer from Bervice, Ill., near Kaskaskia, Ill., was registered last November. The large flag in background, left, contains more than 3,000 shells and Lowe spent 26 hours in its construction. (AP Wirephoto)

Gym Meet Officials Busy Planning Things From Hot Dogs to Towels

Supplies and services ranging from towels to hot dogs are in the background of the NCAA Gymnastics Finals at SIU today and Saturday. Special lighting and television equipment, ushers, and the needs of 166 competing athletes are all involved in the arrangements. A coordinated planning effort was required of all the SIU faculty and staff members preparing for the national meet.

Today's attendance is expected to be between 5,000 and 6,000. About 8,000 are expected Saturday. To handle the expected crowd, the intercollegiate athletics office has made provision for 50 to 60 ushers at the SIU Arena.

The office staff has also prepared to meet the needs of the competing gymnasts, and these requirements will include towels, liniment, medical care, and provision for locker space. Trainer John R. Girmske estimates that 500 to 600 towels will be used.

The gymnastics equipment for the event has been provided by manufacturers and was set up under the supervision of Coach Bill Meade, who is also director of the meet.

The plans for taped coverage for national television also have called for special arrangements.

The CBS network staff of the "Sports Spectacular" show will record the finals Saturday on video tape. A special mobile-boom camera was flown to Carbondale for that purpose.

Another camera will be fixed over the area where the competition is under way, and a third camera will be used from the Arena floor.

Special lighting will illuminate the gymnasts during their performances and during the awards ceremony Saturday evening.

The University seal, with a maroon and blue velvet background, will provide a background for the event.

Karl Snepp, food service manager for Slater Food Service, estimates that at least 7,000 hot dogs and 3,000 soft drinks will be consumed during the event.

8 Judges to Score Finalists:

2 Events Set Side by Side

Gymnasts fans attending the NCAA Gymnastics Finals here this weekend may be a little confused when they see two events going on at the same time, but they shouldn't be confused by the scoring.

Judging will be the same as in dual meets. Since two events will be going on at the same time there will be eight judges.

All eight have been selected by the NCAA. Four judges will score each event. The highest and lowest scores will be thrown out and the middle two will be averaged.

Here are some of the moves on which the judges will base their grades.

Events:
- A compulsory and one optional exercise is required for the high bar, free exercise, horse, side horses, parallel bars and rings.

Rules:
- One compulsory and one optional exercise is required for the high bar, free exercise, horse, side horses, parallel bars and rings.

Scoring:
- There will also be a head judge whose decision will be final and there will be a refuge against too great a difference in the scoring.

Hostess for 116 Athletes

Gym Coach’s Wife Planning Warm Welcome for Visitors

Hospitability - Southern style - is the role of the wife of SIU’s gymnastics coach in the NCAA Gymnastics Finals. Joan Meade, who will be hosts to 116 gymnasts from many parts of the United States, has been working on the event since the first of the year.

Her husband, Coach Bill Meade, is director of the meet. The social events in conjunction with it are in the hands of his wife.

She is being assisted by Mrs. Edward Kinney, athletics ticket manager, other women employed in the athletic office, and the women's gymnastics team at SIU.

The cheerleaders of SIU will assist as hostesses for a party this evening for the visiting gymnasts.

"We will do the best we can to show Southern hospitality,“ Mrs. Meade said. This is not her first experience with an NCAA gymnastics meet. She was introduced to the procedures during the Meades' eight years at the University of North Carolina.

"It is probably a good idea, sometimes or another, for every woman to have an opportunity to be personally involved with her husband's profession," Mrs. Meade explained. "I say occasionally, because more than that might be too much."

The meet is "99 per cent male," as Mrs. Meade pointed out. This calls for the hostesses to "think like a man and appeal like a woman," she added.

Her role has included checking printed materials, contacting high schools, sending out ticket information, and many other duties. The visiting gymnasts and coaches will be staying in hotels and motels in the area. Mrs. Meade said their management have been most courteous in accommodating the visitors.

Mrs. Bill Meade, wife of SIU's gymnastics coach, said that the motel managers have been very helpful in arranging accommodations. Some of the other visitors to Carbondale who are here in conjunction with the NCAA meet are members of the National Association of Gymnastic Coaches, members of The CBS television staff, as well as representatives of wire services and newspaper and magazine reporters.

As Huskies Go Into NCAA Finals

The Huskies of the University of Washington will meet Penn State in the Arena Saturday night to determine which team will succeed SIU as NCAA gymnastics champions. Washington finished in fourth-place tie with Penn State last year. A team which has more rapid strides in recent years, the Huskies under Coach Eric Hughes' leadership qualified for finals by winning over Iowa State, 64-58, at Boulder, Colo., Saturday. Washington entered the NCAA Finals last year undefeated and finished the season with titles of Northwest College Champions and Athletic Association of Western University Champions. Washington's standout performer is Bob Hall, the senior from Seattle accounted for 31 points, almost half of the team's total, against Iowa State. The 5-foot 11-inch, 160-pound gymnast performs in the trampoline and tumbling events and will be in the running for all-around honors. Other top men on the 12-member team will include seniors Jim David and Mickey Vergillo. David, a 5-foot 9-inch, 155-pounder, will be in the floor exercise, trampoline and tumbling competition, while 5-foot 9-inch, 123-pound Vergillo performs on the side horse, rings and parallel bars. Mike Flansaas, Terry Hovey, Mike Lovell and Ron Wallace also are in the forefront of the Huskies lineup.

Coach Here Since 1956

SIU's Bill Meade to Head NCAA Meet; Led Saluki Gymnasts Up to Semifinals

Today, when all the hubbub and activity begins at the NCAA Gymnastics finals, there will one man that can be credited to the success of the team. He is the director of the No. 1 meet this year, and is largely responsible for the event being held on the SIU campus.

Since he took over as coach of SIU gymnastics in 1956, the University has grown to be a giant in gymnastics, although for the first time in his career, either as a performer or as a coach, Meade had a losing year, with a 1-8 record. As an undergraduate at Penn State University, he won the Eastern Intercollegiate gymnastics championship in 1948-49. His performance on the Penn State team helped the school to win the Eastern Collegiate teams championship three times, the National AAU Championship twice and the NCAA Championship once. Beginning in 1961-62, the Saluki gymnastic teams have worked through three undefeated seasons. This year, Meade pulled his boys to a second-place finish in the NCAA and received a disappointing setback when the team was beaten in the final regular season by Iona Mator, Pennsylvania State. Meade's boys won him the NCAA Championship three years ago.
Penn State’s Victory Over SIU

Penn State’s victory over the defending national champion Salukis last weekend definitely puts them in the role as favorites to snap this year’s NCAA Team Championship. If they are successful, it will be the fourth time in the last seven years that the school located in Nittany Valley has done so.

The Nittany Lions coach, Gene Wettstone, has been coaching gymnastics at that school for 37 years, during that time his teams have won 115 dual meets against just 35 defeats. His teams won three straight region titles from 1959-61, his post season records show that his teams have finished in the top five of the nation and seven national collegiate championships.

National Newsman,
CBS-TV to Coer

The two major American news services and a national television network will be among the press representatives at the NCAA Gymnastics Finals at SIU this weekend.

Fred A. Huff, SIU sports information director, said approximately 15 press passes had been issued by this week.

Most of them went to CBS-TV technicians and cameramen who will be at SIU to tape the meet for future television use, CBS purchased the television rights from the NCAA.

The Associated Press, and United Press International, will both be represented at the national meet. Pete Segaller, AP man at the ACC, and Sam Hancock for UPI. Huff also expects reporters from Pennsylvania, who will be present to cover the Penn State story at the meet.

5 Saluki Gymnasts Compete

In 11 Events at NCAA Meet

Today is a big day for the 11 gymnasts who are here competing for NCAA team and individual titles, but it will be an even bigger day for five Salukis.

The five gymnasts, Frank Schmitz, Brent Williams, Tom Deak, Larry Lindauer and Bill Wolf have been waiting anxiously for the chance to compete in the finals before the home crowd.

They have qualified in 11 events. Wolf and Schmitz will be the busiest Salukis as each will compete in three events. Williams will compete in high bar, parallel bars and the trampoline and Lindauer will both compete in two events. Williams will work freestyle and the side horse and Lindauer will work free exercise, trampoline and long horse.

Cook will work one event, the rings. The event which will not be minus Salukis is the side horse.

Wolf is the only member of the five who will not be competing next year. Cook still has one year of eligibility. Schmitz, Williams and Lindauer each have two.

Wolf Sets a High Standard
For Gymnast Teammates

When Bill Wolf steps up to the bar on Friday evening or the floor on Saturday, the senior from Pico Rivera, Calif., will be setting a record for the last time and when his ring routine has ended, Wolf will close out his career as a Saluki gymnast.

Wolf, a transfer student from Pasadena City College, has competed for the Salukis for the last two years. In that short time he has accumulated 264 points.

This year Wolf scored 139 points and was the team's third highest scorer. He probably could have added many more points if a knee injury he suffered last spring hadn't prevented him from competing in free exercise this year.

Wolf was once again in his customary second-place spot last week when Rusty Mitchell, Chuck Erlich and Tom Geocaris graduated and Dennis Wolf dropped out of school.

The second spot was handed out to Cook and he wasted little time proving to Meade that he deserved it.

In his first meet this year against the University of Denver, Cook was anything but successful. A bad dismount cost him a higher spot as he finished fifth with an 8.5. Since then Cook has corrected this weakness, tied for first-place finish and won the first-place tie helped him to accumulate 43 points to the Saluki cause this year.

Cook will be trying this weekend to place in national competition for the first time. If he does his routine flawlessly, he should be one of the finalists returning for further action Saturday night.

A Performer to Count On

Wolf was the big factor in the success of the Salukis this season. Since he was the only member returning from last year's champion team, his teammates looked to him for leadership and were impressed by his coolness in competition.

The coolness was catching and all Salukis were at Facilities to Open
At Lake Saturday

Students will be able to begin making use of Lake-on-the-Campus this weekend when the University opens the boathouse facilities Saturday. Boathouse hours will be from 1 to 5 p.m. daily, Rowboats and bicycles will be rented to students at the boathouse, and students may check out ball and fishing equipment free.
