Educators look at Chicago race; local candidates to vie for seats

When the poils open today in Chicago, the three candidates for mayor will end a campaign for mayor will end a campaign largely divided along the boundaries of race, John Jackson, political science professor, said. Jackson, also dean of the College of Liberal Arts, said the mudslinging used in this campaign was not as bad as it has been in the past but still was not a good exercise in democracy. Political issues should be decided by platform and not by race, he said.

Council okays $19.3 million budget

By Jackie Spinner

The City Council approved a $19.3 million budget for fiscal year 1990 Monday night at its council meeting despite prior objections by councilman John Yow, concerning travel and conference expenses for city employees.

"I still have some con-cerns," Yow said. "But I fully support the budget and I'll concerns some Councilman Keith Tuxhorn casting the only vote against approving the budget, said he was concerned with money allocated for a new fire engine and $143,000 budgeted Carbondale Industrial Corporation.

"I have concerns about money coming in for down-town plans," he said. "You have not provided for that in this budget.

Cause of fire is determined

Investigators of the fire that took the life of University student Steven Schaefer has determined the cause as smoking material. Everett Rushing, fire chief of the Carbondale Fire Department, said the investigation was not conclusive, but he believes a cigarette caused the fire.

The fire started in Schaefer's southeast, second-floor bedroom in a corner behind the bed, Rushing said.

Rushing said there was deep charring in the floor boards, which would indicate the fire had been burning for "some time" before Schaefer

Schaefer, 20, died Saturday

after alerting others in the house.

We still can't determine why he went back to the bedroom, but we know he probably saved a lot of lives," Rushing said.

Formal autopsy results on Schaefer probably will be released at the end of the week, Don Ragsdale, Jackson County coroner, said.

In a preliminary autopsy report, Ragsdale said Schaefer died of smoke inhalation.

Schaefer's funeral will be at St. Thecla in Chicago today and the burial will be in Mary Hill Cemetery in Niles.

Investigation of the fire was conducted by the state fire marshall, the Carbondale Fire Department and the Car-bondale police, Rushing said.

Regatta changes: Safety, no alcohol

SIU's School of Medicine tests city's earthquake alert

By Mark Barnett Staff Writer

Will Carbondale be prepared to meet the needs of the city's victims if an earthquake hits the area?

City, local and state agencies and SIU's School of Medicine in Springfield will test the city's preparedness Wednesday when the agencies conduct an earthquake drill. This is the second year the city has conducted the drill, which is a wart of the state is the has conducted the drill, which is a part of the state's Earthquake Awareness Week, April through April 7.

The plan for the city's preparedness is based on the assumption that an earthquake of 7.5 on the Richter scale hit the area and Carbondaie would be cut off from medical assistance from closeby hospitals.

medical assistance from close-by hospitals.

Earthquakes are measured on the Richter scale, which measures earthquakes in graded steps with each step being 10 times greater. The magnitude of an earthquake is a quantitative term applied to the level of vibration caused by the earthquake. Intensity is a qualitative term referring to the effects like the ground shaking, books falling off shaking, books fa shelves and so forth.

"Carbondale is the most populous Illinois city in the high-risk area of the New Medrid fault, so it would be particularly vulnerable to an earthquake," Richard Moy, dean and provost of the medical school, said. "We believe Springfield would be best able to quickly respond and provide medical sonnel, particuls ly surge in the first hours w m the first bours when seriously injured patients must be stabilized and evacuated hospitals."

Tom Harris, IESDA coordinator for Carbondale, said each of the groups participating in the drill will assume an earthquake will hit at 8 a.m. Wednesday with telephone communication cut.

An announcement over the emergency broadcast system will alert those participating in the drill that the earthquake has hit the area, Harris said.

"Various organizations in the area, such as the schools, will be alerted, and they will go into their individual drills," Harris said.

Harris said.

Ham radio operators will be dispatched out into the city to assess the damage and report to Harris at Carbondale's Emergency Operating Center, 607 E. College St.

Once the number and severity of the damage is estimated, a surgical team consisting of Dr. Don E. Ramsey, professor of surgery at SIU, and two emergency room nurses at St. John's Hospital in Springfield will depart by helicopter. The team is expected to be ready within 15 minutes.

Mark Raeber, spokesman for the School of Medicine, said for the School of Medicine, said the surgical team is expected to arrive at 11 a.m. Raeber said the logic of choosing a medical team from Springfield is based on the fact that if an Cape Girardeau, Mo., St. Louis and Evansville, Ind., would have to cope with their own

Victims of tragic fire supported by SIU-C

SATURDAY'S FIRE and the death of a University student were tragic. University officials and students have given excellent support to the survivors of the fire — meeting physical and emotional needs.

The Undergraduate Student Government, University officials and the Red Cross have provided clothes, housing, food and counseling to the five victims who survived.

The fire destroyed their home and possessions and took the life of a roommate and friend. The fire was determined to have been started by smoking materials in Schaefer's second-floor bedroom, the fire chief of the Carbondale Fire Department, said. The survivors are sure that some of them wouldn't be here if their roommate Steve, who lost his life in the fire, hadn't awakened them and told them to set out.

USC PRESIDENT Bill Hall's suggestion of forming a USC PRESIDENT Bill Hall's suggestion of forming a University group to provide relief in disaster situations such as this is a good one. It makes it easy to contact relief agencies and, like many concerned groups did after Saturday's fire, would aid the victims quickly. The immediate attention and support no doubt has been appreciated by the victims, but they will need support for a long time to come. A disaster support group would help provide long-term as well as short-term support. But this tragedy will be remembered by more than the victims: It touched the lives of many students, those who knew the victims and those who didn't. Perhaps it will cause them to think about the possibility that it could also cause them to think about the possibility that it could also happen to them.

ALTHOUGH TRAGEDIES like this fortunately are few and far between, students should be prepared in case of a fire by having a planned escape route and meeting spot.

But more importantly, they should be concerned with preventing a fire by using good judgment and keeping smoke detectors in working order. Remember, if your bouse or apartment catches fire there might not be a hero like Steve Schaefer who is willing to risk his life to save you.

Opinions from elsewhere

In a surprisingly strong and welcome move, the 12 nations of the European Community have agreed to end by the year 2000 production and use of chemicals that destroy the earth's protective layer of carne.

The EC action quickly caused President Bush to adopt the same goal.

The chemicals are used as

The EC agreement goes much further. Not only would it end CFC use by 2000, but it also calls for an 85 percent cut in production "as soon as possible."

I want to express my gratitude to all the Student Recreation Center users who filled out a questionnaire for my thesis.

Being in the position of having to ask people to help me out without any benefit on their part made me realize something. Most people are

Although answering a questionnaire or survey for a dissertation of thesis may be inconvenient or seem techous, it is extremely important and helpful to the researcher.

I encourage people to ake the time out to answer students' surveys. They may seem trivial, but they are essential to the researcher, seem trivial, but they are essential to the researcher, and greatly appreciated. Thanks again.

Botany chairman to retire, plans to continue hobbies

For John W. Voigt, it seems that the powers of creation have been the force behind a long and successful carees song and successful career.
From flowers to books, Voigt has learned to appreciate the complexities of development.
Voigt, who arrived at the University in 1950 as the first and only plant ecologist, is retiring next September.

After earning his bachelor's degree at Eastern Illinois University and completing his master's and doctorate degrees at the University of Nebraska, Voigt came to the area when Southern Illinois was virtually unexplored botanically, giving Voigt a lot to do.

Voigt is presently botany chairman, however, his 39 years of service to the University have given him the coportunity to earn various titles.

In addition to teaching, Voigt has worked extensively in administration. His positions have ranged from associate dean for the College of Science to acting dean for the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. He has also worked as the fiscal officer for the botony and physiology departments and directed the Biological nces Program.

Voigt was also the first to hold the University's dean of general studies position, which he claims was the most challenging.

Voigt said that although his work in administration sometimes took him away from research, he never from research, he never abandoned his role as teacher.

"I guess if I should connect any importance to my career it would be related to teaching," Voigt said.

But Voigt's talents do not end at the University and be said his hobbies of painting, writing and woodworking will not end with his retirement.

Voigt has published a total of 131 articles, books, and poems about nature, proving himself a writer.

"I try to make my writing have the feeling that you're on a field trip with me, seeing what I am seeing. I use words that describe, that are colorful, romantic," Voigt

He has also completed more than 100 wildlife paintings, which blend to give a pictorial life history of Voigt.

The bluehead shiner is a small but distinctive minnow with a shiny blue head and is about the size of a pinkie

It has been on the state's endangered species list since the mid-1970s, Brooks Burr, researcher in the University's zoology department, said.

The minnow was first discovered in Illinois in 1955 when an SIU-C graduate student found three in Wolf Lake in Union County.

Students should watch risks | 75 associated with cholesterol

It seems like everywhere you turn these days your are hearing something new about cholesterol and heart disease. In the last year alone, four national health organizations have issued recommendations how to lower levels of cholesterol in the blood.

But what does this mean to But what does this mean to college students? Most believe heart disease is a middle-age problem. But this is wrong. While it is true that most heart attacks occur between the ages of 35 and 65, the artery clogging process begins much early, especially in the presence of certain risk factors.

If you fit into any of the following groups, then you are at high risk of developing heart disease: If you smoke; if you are male; if you have a history of heart disease in your family; if you are 30 above your healthy weight; if you are a couch potato; if you your neastry weight; if you are a couch potato; if you regularly eat lots of red meats, whole dairy products, and packaged snack and con-venience foods; and if you drink lots of alcohol.

Recause of the implications these risk factors in your of the National Institute of Health has recommended that everyone over 20 have a blood cholesterol test every five years. If the results indicate a total cholesterol score of 230-240, then you have a borderline high level. Anything above 240 is con-sidered high risk. Further your physician, and sometimes drug therapy are indicated in these cases.

In a recent cholesterol screening done at the Student Center, 42 of the 91 people we tested has cholesterol levels tested has cholesterol levels above 200. Of the people bet-ween 20 and 29, 13 were above 200 and 6 had levels above 240.

According to the experts, you can reduce your risk of becoming one of the 1.5 million Americans who have heart attacks each year if you lower the amount of fat in your diet (especially animal fats), begin a regular serobic exercise program, quit smoking and maintain a healthy weight.

Hartzog pleased with effort in bad tournament weather

By David Galllanetti

Neither rain nor snow will stop SIU-C's men's golf team. In fact, it may even help.
Dealing with cold, rainy and windy conditions for most of the weekend, the Salukis pulled out a fourth-place finish at the Purdue Boilermaker Classic in West Lafayette, Ind. The Salukis shot 307 as a team the first day, and combined Salurday and Sunday's rounds for a 313 score to wind up with a 620 total.

Purdue won the tournament with a 595 score. Iowa was Michigan third at 611.

Coach Lew Hartzog said the bad weather didn't seem to hamper the team's performance.

"It was a tough tournament with the weather like that," Hartzog said. "Saturday was horrible cold, and it was anowing Friday when we got up there. We played all day in the rain (Sunday)."

Billsd as a 54-hole tour-nament, competition was c. short after 36 holes because of the wet weather, Hartzog said.

70 and 80 to wind up eightt at 150.
"He was doing fine, but then shot a 42 round which really tore him up," Hartzog said. "The kids were playing well. I waz really pleased with our performance."

Mik . Cowen finished up with and 85 for a 165.

the team will easily eclipse that mark. In a 60-game that mark. In a 60-game season, the Salukis are projected to have 62 double plays by the end of the season.

Night and Day

After a 4-9 start, the Salukis have turned things around. They have won five of the last seven. The team has a 4-2 record at home, 1-5 record on the road and 4-4 mark on neutral fields.

The Panthers are ranked third in the Gateway by preseason coaches poll, and the Salukis follow in fourth.

The Salukis' pitching is strong with their four pitcher staff earned run average at 1.36, but still, they have to start pushing more runs across the plate. They are swinging the bat and connecting, while four batters are singging over .300. But the problem is "timing."

After 17 games the Salukis are not hurting in the runs column on the stat sheet. They have scored 52 runs while there.

Auld's tennis team picks up first losses of spring season

Salukis lose two on Memphis trip; now stand at 9-2

By Paul Pabst

The combination of Michele Toye and the doubles duo of Maria Coch and Julie Burgess helped the women's tennis squad this weekend as it traveled to Memphis, Tenn. to face Louisiana Tech, Southern Mississippi, and host Memphis

The Salukis lost to both Memphis State and Southern Mississippi by the scores of 6-3 and 5-4, respectively. The team picked up a win in an 8-1 rout of Louisiana Tech.

Toye won all three of her matches this weekend at the No. 5 singles spot. Toye breezed past her three opponents winning twice 6-3, 6-3 and beat the No. 5 singles from Southern Mississippi 7-6, 6-0. Coach Judy Aud said Toye's success is because of her strong work ethic. "Michele was injured a lot last year and has really come back strong this year by working hard and practicing. She has been very ransistent for us this year." Toye won all three of her Coch and Burgess equaied Toye's three victories from the No. 3 doubles spot. The combination dominated bott Southern Mississippi and Memphis State winning by a margin of 6-1, 6-2 and 6-3, 6-3, respectively.

"Maria and Julie are playing really well together," Auld said. "They have a solid shot for the conference title at No. 3 doubles.

The Wolverines fought off a gallant Seton Hall attack, as John Morton scored 35 points and rallied the Pirates from a 12-point deficit in the second half.

After Robinson's free throws, the Pirates threw a long inbounds pass to Darryl Walker, who missed from 3point range.

The Wolverines surged on the court, having won their first basketball championship and making Fisher the only rookie coach to lead his team to the title.

F.sher, an assistant coach, took over the team two days before the tournament, following the departure of Bill Frieder to Arizona State. He was given the title of interim coach, and Michigan Athletic Director Bo Schembechler said he will decide on Fisher's status after the tournament.

But with this latest victory in the Kingdome, Fisher made an altogether compelling case for the permanent coaching job In winning their size sixth In winning their sixth straight tournament game under Fisher, the Wolverines stayed composed when the game seemed to be slipping away and put to rest the notion they lacked fortitude in the postseason.

Rice, whose 3-point shooting bedeviled the Pirates, also grabbed 11 rebounds and became both the leading source in an NCAA Tourscorer in an NCAA Tour-nament and the all-time Big Ten scoring leader.

Saluki pitcher Bergman searching for consistency

Salukis scheduled to face Evansville at Abe Martin Field

Bergman has made appearances this season, three of which were starts. The decision Saturday was his second complete game. He has thrown 30 innings, walking 20 and fanning 15. Of his 14 runs allowed, nine were earned.

Purple Aces

Monday evening's thunder showers notwithstanding, the Salukis were still scheduled at press time to play the Evan-sville Purple Aces in a 1:30 p.m. doubleheader today at Abe Martin Field.

Turning Two

The Salukis have a solid double-play combination with shortstop Kurt Endebrock, second baseman Tim Davis and either Mike Kirkpatrick or Shaun Lewis at first base. The Salukis have turned 21 double plays in 20 games this season, compared to the 51 turned last season. At their current pace.
