Council Members Hold Nominations Today

Students To Nominate Candidates for Spring Festival Chairman, Freshmen Council Members

Today is the day for nominations for Spring Festival chairman and for four freshmen positions on the Student Council, according to plans made by the council members. The polls opened at 8 o'clock this morning in the cross halls of Old Main and will close at 4 o'clock this evening.

Any student nominated for Spring Festival chairman must have a minimum of 72 hours credit and an overall average of three point or above. The chairman who is chosen in the final election on Jan. 20 will direct the activities of the annual Spring Festival this May.

Two boys and two girls may be nominated from the freshman class to replace the four freshmen named to the Council by the personnel deans this fall. The Student Council constitution provides that the freshman class may elect their own representatives to replace the appointees during the winter term.

Students nominated for the Council positions can have a maximum of 32 hours credit and an average of three points or above. They will serve on the Council until regular elections for next year.

All students, regardless of their classification, are eligible to nominate a person for Spring Festival chairman.

Only freshmen may nominate candidates for the Council positions. Ten nominating votes are required for a person's name to be placed on the election ballot. The freshmen members of the Council who are appointed by the deans and who served on the Council during the fall quarter are: Jim Evans, Carlinville; Linda McCreary, Anna; Carl Anderson, St. Louis; and Earl Walker, Carbondale.

SIU Winter Play To Have Audience Participation

You may be one of the stars of the winter play, Not as an actor, but as part of the audience. The real star of "Skin of Our Teeth," Thornton Wilder's Pulitzer prize winning play of 1935 is the audience. This play differs from most in that it has active audience participation. The actors do not only speak to one another, they move through the crowd, addressing members of it, integrating the audience directly into the play.

Dr. Archibald McLeod, director, says, "As far as I know this is the first time such a thing has been attempted at SIU."

One of the highlights is the extraordinary lighting used. As this is an antislav play, weird lighting effects and changes to it, admirably, Lawrence Voss, technical director, states that the abstract color and beautiful changing patterns make this play one of the most spectacular ever seen here.

Another of the firsts in "Skin of Our Teeth" are the two Linnebach projectors. They were built on campus under the supervision of Voss. These projectors, along with the recently completed switchboard will handle the lighting problems.

There has been one change and one new addition to the cast. Bill Spangler, ranked grad student from Ruetski in the Kad. Ruetski recently withdrew from school. Dick Gregory is the only new member of the cast to date. About four minor parts are still open. Anyone desiring them may try out by contacting Dr. McLeod.

BOTH VOSS and Dr. McLeod say that this play is well worth seeing. They cite William Saroyan, famous American author, who says "Skin of Our Teeth" is one of the two best plays ever produced in this country.

"Skin of Our Teeth" will be on the stage in Shrovet auditorium, Jan. 29, 30 and 31.

An epistemological play, "The Skin of Our Teeth," pictures the evolution of mankind and his battle for existence. Tallulah Bankhead starred in the original Broadway version.

SIU Directories Now Available In Affairs Office

Student directories for the 1952-53 school year are now available for distribution in the Office of Student Affairs. The directories contain information compiled by the Statistical Service from student IBM cards for fall term.

Information contained in the books includes local addresses, home addresses, and telephone numbers of students; address and telephone numbers of members of the faculty and of the administration, and telephone numbers of all campus offices and departments.

The Duplicating Service printed the 3500 copies of the directories which are now available for distribution. Sandy Knass, director of the Art Service, designed the cover which is the same design as has been used for the past two years. It is his hopes that this cover will become a tradition for all future directories. The new directory's cover is done in the school colors, maroon and white.

Previous to 1950-51 the directory was compiled and published by Mu Yau Pi, honorary journalism fraternity, to be sold as a money-making project. It has since been taken over by Delta Epsilon, the present journalism honorary fraternity on campus.

ABOVE is the cover of the new Student Directories which are now available at the Office of Student Affairs. The cover design is the same as has been used in the two previous years, but it appears this year in maroon and white, the school colors.

Frat Announces Plans For SIU Service Awards

With the initial tryout still a week off, the steering committee for the Theta Xi Sixth Annual All-School Variety Show is concentrating on plans for the Service to Southern awards. According to Jim Kahnmann, chairman of the show, the display table along with the Service to Southern entry blanks will be set up in the crosshalls of Old Main by the end of the week.

At the display table, where the organizational trophy and gold service watches will be shown, students may place up their entry blanks for the service awards. All appreciations who wish to compete for the gold watch awards may do so by filling out an application blank.

THE FRATERNITY plans to follow a set pattern in regard to the awards. First, the blank is to be filled out by the student and turned in to the fraternity, either at the display table or by mail to the chapter house.

Second, a faculty committee composed of five members will go over the applications and select a ten finalist, five men and five women, who will then compete for the award.

THE FACULTY committee will then select the man and woman to receive the awards from the 10 finalists. At the second meeting of the faculty committee, the ten finalists are to provide a speaker in their own behalf. The speaker can be a fellow student or personal friend of the finalist.

Placing the winners' names in sealed envelope, the chairman of the committee will then hold the announcement until the night of the Show, Feb. 5.

The winners of last year's Service awards were Dolores Hamp, Harrisburg, and Al Tranter, Madison. Winners of the 1951 awards were Doris Schivart, Du Quoin, and Charles Elliott, Granite City.

IN REGARD to the theatrical aspect of the show, tryouts will take place in the auditorium Jan. 21, 22, and 28, and Feb. 2, 3, and 4. All tryouts will begin at 6:30 p. m. All tryouts will be held at 4:30 p. m.

Anyone possessing musical or theatrical talent is urged by the fraternity to try out for the show. The twenty best acts trying out will then be chosen as members of the cast. The Variety Show lends to musical talent, but sings, pantomimes, and impersonations are also welcomed.

LETTERS TO organizations have been sent out, and reply cards are to be returned to Theta Xi no later than Friday, Jan. 16. Organizations will be given a scheduled time for receiving the awards from the 10 finalists. All proceeds of the Variety show will be donated to Southern, to be used in some phase of improvement behalf. The speaker can be a fellow student or personal friend of the finalist.

Placing the winners' names in sealed envelope, the chairman of the committee will then hold the announcement until the night of the Show, Feb. 5.

There's $50 Waiting

It won't be long—that is, if everyone cooperates. And with $50 as an incentive, it will most likely be those who don't cooperate who will be on the losing side and not the school.

Holiday for Flames

Once long ago, Old Main burned. What would happen if it were razed the building again? English you are in an o'clock English class on the middle of Old Main's third floor. A fire breaks out in the attic. How do you know the place was burning? Would a special signal be sounded? Would a brave instructor run up the hall shouting "fire"? Or would you simply smell smoke?

Lost

Progress is often accompanied by a sense of loss. As Southern students we will lose several things that we have had here. We lost Lake Ridgeway and we lost the tennis courts.

THE ROTC Bill-team came... second best in their first dual match held December 19 with North Dakota University. The results of the match showed Southern's team with a score of 1675 points from a possible 2000. North Dakota posted an eye-opening 1800 score.

Bill Kann paced the ROTC team with a very good 354 out of 400 score. P. Hartley fired a 347 score to take second place. In his test standings and his showing was very encouraging, since it was his first attempt at firing for score. Jerry Holloper, B. E. Gill, and L. C. Jeffrey rounded out Southern's team with scores of 333, 328, and 323, respectively.

The results were very gratifying, according to Captain Oakes, technical adviser, "but they are capable of producing higher scores as has been proven more than once in previous matches."

A High man for N. Dakota was Richard Brown who fired a torrid 382. One interesting sidelight of the match was the fact of every perfect score at any firing position. The team will face Grinnell College next and in the week of the end of January, they will fire against the Irish of Notre Dame.

SIU Cagers Stall Past Leathernecks 65-63

By Sherm Doelen
Southern stalled out most of the fourth quarter Saturday to beat Western Illinois 65-63 and kept alive some hope for an IAC championship.

Jacque Theriot took the ball out to mid court and began bouncing it as Southern opened the last period with a five-point lead. Ordinarily the stalling team can expect to pick up a lot of points on free throws. But it was Western who made all 11 of its 11 points on free shots and nearly scored a victory that would have put the Salukis out of the running for the conference title.

The victory gave SIU a 4-2 record in IAC play, good enough for second place. Declaring Champion Western rebounded and Welch missed a free Friday night, remains on top with four wins and no losses.

EXCEPT FOR THE FIRST few minutes of the first quarter when the Salukis were hitting on practically every other Southern showed little superiority over the Leathernecks, a team that has won only one of four IAC games and three of seven for the season.

The Salukis hit six of their first eight shots at the basket and rolled up a 13-4 lead early in the first quarter. When the period was over Welch, who was back at guard, were on top 23-19. Bob Nichols, who led the way with two baskets and five free throws for nine points, and He was scoreless from then until wound up high scorer for the Salukis with 16 points.

Western rebounded the egg to 43-44 at halftime. The Salukis shot 40-40 in the first half with 16 baskets in 41 shots and hit all 10 of their 10 free throw chances.

Western began nibbling away at Southern's lead as the second half opened. The Leathernecks crept to within one point, 43-42 before John Engel, Cherry gave the Salukis their first point of the quarter after three and a half minutes of play.

When the quarter ended the Salukis led 57-52.

Then Southern went into a stall that was broken only when good shots were available.

THE SALUKIS, who missed only one free throw in 14 chances during the first three quarters, hit just only six of 16 in the final period. This, together with some missed shots from the field, gave Western plenty of chances to break up the game. But the Leathernecks missed

Cagers Lose to Normal, Fold in Fourth Period

By Sherm Doelen
Fifteen (count 'em), 15 points they had in the fourth quarter but the Salukis blew their lead and lost an IAC contest to Illinois Normal here Friday night, 81-80.

Bill Sarver, an All-Conference guard last year, made only one basket the first half. But he scored 10 points in each of the last two quarters to pass the Redbird record.

The Salukis managed a one-point lead in the first period and increased their margin the second quarter to lead 36-29 at halftime.

Normal's center, Don Richard, kept the Redbirds in the game during the first half with five baskets and as many free throws.

Cluck Thate, whose starting position at center was taken by Harvey Welch until it became clear that 6'2" Welch was not holding 6'6" Richard, scored three baskets in the third quarter and the Salukis ran their lead to 61-49.

Going into the fourth quarter Southern ran its lead to 15 points before the roof caved in.

Normal put on a press defense. It was a gamble that could have resulted in two things (2) the Salukis might have set up good shots under the basket and thus fanned their lead, or (3) the Salukis might have got rattled and blew their lead, which is what happened.

By the time three and a half minutes had passed Normal had whittled the score to 67-65.

Both teams exchanged free throws until a basket by LeRoy Eicken tied the score at 69-69 at the end of the quarter. Another one by Sarver put the Redbirds ahead.

Normal was in front the rest of the game. The Redbirds would run their lead to four points and Southern would cut it to two.

With one minute left Bob Witt pointed two free throws that made the score 79-75. Thate countered with a basket but Richard got loose for a layup to make it 81-77 with 30 seconds remaining.

Then John Cherry revived Southern's hopes with a basket that made the score 81-79 with 15 seconds to go. Witt fouled Reggie Gene Baccus with only five seconds left. But Baccus missed his first free throw and his second one didn't make any difference.

Bar Ripplmeyer would up high scorer for the game with 27 points, his highest total since he threw in 30 against Northern Illinois. Sarver paced the winners with 26 points and Richard had 23.

The Salukis next set action to night when they traveled to Washington University in St. Louis to face the Washington Bears.

Eastern is Team To Beat As IAC Race is Half Over

Southern started the season with strong hope for an IAC championship. Now, halfway through the league schedule, that hope is still alive but feeble.

After playing each of their conference opponents once, the Salukis have a league record of four wins and two losses. One more loss might put them out of the race. And judging from their performance during the first half of the campaign, there are some rough games ahead.

EASTERN ILLINOIS, conference champion for the past two years, is still the team to beat. The Panthers have played only four games so far but have won them all. Their victories were, besides Southern, Central Michigan, Michigan Normal and Western Illinois.

Eastern's victories over the Michigan schools were lopsided but Western held out for a 57-51 decision. Southern fell to the Panthers, 73-66.

Best prospects for upsetting the leaders appear to be in two games with Illinois Normal, the number one team, and the return match with Southern.

While Eastern is in a strong position to win its third straight crown, the Salukis can expect plenty of obstacles in their attempt to improve on last year's third place finish.

None of Southern's four IAC victories have been easy. So far as the Salukis are concerned there isn't a "sure" victory in sight.

Moreover, the majority of the remaining league contests will be played away from home. Southern plays its last home game against a conference rival next Saturday with Northern.

Halfway through the race, Ray Ripplmeyer continues to pace Salukis scoring.

Ripplmeyer is averaging 17 points in six conference games with a total of 103 points. Behind him are Harvey Welch with 67, Chuck Thate with 58, Bob Nickolaus and John Cherry with 50 each. Gib Kurtz with 44 and Jacque Theriot with 29.

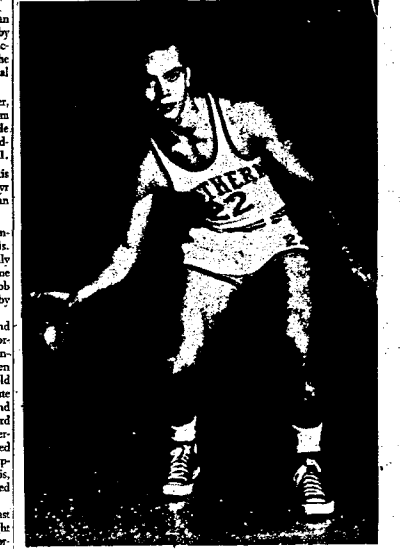

Kurtz made his 44 points in five games. He missed Southern's because of a sprained ankle suffered in the Illinois Normal contest.

To give an idea of how close the first half of the league season has been, the Salukis have averaged 68.1 points per game compared with their opponents' 65.5.

Salute Salukis

Illinois Normal made it a clean sweep over the Southern Salukis by following up Friday night's cage victory with a 27-3 triumph over the Salukis wrestling squad at Normal Saturday night.

Bob Whelan, little 123 pounder, was the only winner in Coach Jim Wilkinson's eight men lineup. He defeated Jack Chener of the Redbirds in a full distance match 6-1.

Only other victory for the Salukis was posted by 147 pound Bill Mayr when he out-pointed Carolik in an exhibition bout, 4-2.

Normal matmen won the remaining seven matches, three by falls. Captain Jack Stoudt was the only other Southern grappler to come close to a victory. He lost to Bob Bruno in the 137 pound class by one point, 5-4.

Marshall Higgins, 130 pound freshman, was outpointed by Normal's July 6-3. Joe Fedler, returning letterman, lost by a fall when Jim Graeff applied a pinning hold in 2:45 of the first three minute period. Bob Zednek, 157 pound newcomer, was pinned by Redbird freshman in 1:30 of the second period. The Normal matmen continued their dominating ways in the upper weight brackets. Nick Veremis, senior letterman, was outpointed by Luss, 6-1.

Dick Erickson, veteran from last season, lost in the 177 pound weight class when Normal's Stock outscored him 6-3.

Earl Coens, freshman heavyweight, lost on a fall to Hoffman in 30 seconds of the third period.

Wilkinson and Assistant Coach Russ Bush will have four practice sessions in which to prepare their charges for the next opponents. The Salukis have a heavy week end to prepare for a visit to the face Arkansas State at Jonesboro Friday night, and then travel to Memphis to grapple Memphis Naval Air Training Center Saturday.

The following week end, they will remain at home to open the 1937-38 season. The grapplers entertain Eastern Illinois Jan. 23 and Western Jan. 30 in the men's gym. Admission to the meets is free. Starting time is 7:30 p. m.
