Over 2500 to 3000 teachers representing fourteen counties in Southern Illinois will be present. Professor W. A. Furr, superintendent of Alyn training school and chairman of the executive committee of the southern division of the I. S. T. A., has arranged the program.

Governor Paul V. McNutt of Indiana has been called to Washington, D. C., and will be unable to speak at the evening meeting on Friday, March 29.

Dr. Thompson has had unusual in the realm of educational finance and he is in very close touch with recent movements to save the school system. The assembly will also be entertained by selections sung by the Roland Hayes Club, directed by Wendell Margrave of the S. I. T. C. music department. The talent in this chorus is exceptionally high class this year.

Harl Douglas, Professor of Education at Minnesota State University, and B. H. Bode of Ohio State University will deliver lectures on Friday morning. In the afternoon, the teachers will attend the sectional meetings. Every section has a worth while program, carefully planned for the greatest good to the teachers in the rural and city schools from the first grade through the high school. Frank Trobaugh, West Frankfort, is the director of the chorus which has sung on several occasions in Southern Illinois. Officials at the Chicago World Fair presented the chorus with a pennant for their excellent concert given at the fair. The speaker for the evening will be Dr. Boyd Henry Bode, Professor of Principles and Practice of Teaching at Ohio State University. He is replacing Governor McNutt on the program. ## Invite H. S. Pupils From Six Counties To Press Meeting

Forty high schools from Jackson and contiguous counties have been invited to send journalistic representatives to the Second Annual Southern Illinois High School Press Conference to be held on this campus April 5. Last year more than eighty students attended the conference, which is sponsored by Mu Tau Pi, honorary journalistic fraternity at S. I. T. C.

Foster Eaton, United Press representative with the St. Louis Star-Times, will be the principal speaker at the opening session at 2:30. Students will be registered from 2:00 until 2:30. Ruth Merz, last year's editor of the Egyptian, will deliver a paper on "Franklin, the Journalist," at the opening session.

Special Sessions Arranged

Following the opening session, the students will divide into five groups for the purpose of discussing special problems peculiar to Southern Illinois journalism. These groups are editorial and feature, sports, general news, business, and advisory.

The conference is unusual in that it is sponsored for students by students rather than by advisory or faculty groups. Most of the discussion leaders are graduates of Southern Illinois high schools and have been active in both high school and college journalism.

A.A.U.W. SPONSOR 'RIP VAN WINKLE' WITH OTHER PLAY

The American Association of University Women will sponsor the presentation of "Rip Van Winkle" in Shryock auditorium on the afternoon of May 6 or 7, as a matinee attraction accompanying "Whistling in the Dark" which will be given the evening of the same day.

"Rip Van Winkle" is the play version of the ever-popular story by Washington Irving, the American writer. The play version was edited and slightly changed by Joseph Jefferson, noted American actor of the middle nineteenth century. "Rip Van Winkle" has enjoyed considerable popularity ever since its transformation into play form and will provide constant entertainment for all lovers of Irving or Jefferson works. Joseph Jefferson was one of the leading character actors of his time and his revision of the classic contains many individual Jeffersonian touches which add greatly to the interpretation of the role. The title role of "Rip Van Winkle," the dreamy Dutch brawler, will be played here by Laurence Ludwig.

Mr. Ludwig will also have the leading part in the other A. A. U. W. production, "Whistling in the Dark," a three-act comedy-drama centering about the "perfect crime." This play has been extremely successful both in play and movie form and should be an amusing and interesting presentation.

Both plays will be presented under the auspices of the Playgoers' League, Incorporated, of New York City.

Senior Class Alumni Committee Named

A committee consisting of Frances Noel, chairman; Elizabeth Ann West; and Harrison Eaton, has been appointed by Louis Bertoni, president of the Senior Class to investigate a former attempt made to organize an alumni association on this campus. Subsequently the committee will formulate plans for the new alumni organization and decide whether or not two year graduates shall be eligible to membership.

'WAR IN EUROPE NOT IMMINENT' SAYS ROOSEVELT

DISCUSSES BACKGROUND OF EUROPEAN CHAOS; LAST ENTERTAINMENT

That an European war is not imminent but that preparations are being made for one was the opinion of Nicholas Roosevelt, diplomat, author, and brilliant lecturer who spoke on "Where Europe's Wars are Bred" before an unusually receptive audience at Shryock Auditorium, Thursday night.

"The United States may not necessarily be drawn into such a war," she cannot escape the consequences it would bring," he commented. "Another war would mean the end of European civilization."

In speaking of conditions in Vienna in 1919 where he was commissioned to study relations between Austria and Hungary, Mr. Roosevelt said:

"Even those people with money subsisted on black bread and red cabbage. Ancient horse meat and potatoes were a rare treat. Milk, eggs, vegetables, and fruit were never seen. How people without money lived can be imagined."

Comparing Hitler with Mussolini, Mr. Roosevelt stated that Hitler's death would not bring political reorganization as he is really a fanatic for German dissatisfaction and has many lieutenants to take his place, while Italy would fall into a state of chaos if Mussolini were to die.

Quarrels between all the European countries have been frequent as no country was wholly satisfied with the Versailles Treaty. Austria, Hungary, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, and Roumania constantly strain peaceful relations because of their unreasoning jealousies, widely differentiated religions, intense nationalism, and racial differences.

"Germany has never admitted defeat and claims she was tricked by Woodrow Wilson. This point she is emphatically instilling into her youth who believe another war is the only solution of the problem of re-arming and regaining the rich territory of Alsace-Lorraine. France is afraid and knows she must never let war with Germany happen again."

"To obtain raw materials which she lacks to subside Poland, Germany would possibly ally with Japan who would protect her on the

VERSATILE NICHOLAS ROOSEVELT INTERVIEWS HIS INTERVIEWER

By Elizabeth Anne West
Collect the consummate attributes of the Harvard graduate, an American attaché in Paris, a minister to Hungary, vice-governor of the Philippines, special correspondent abroad and New York editorial writer. Combine them with the acknowledge qualities of a recognized author. Persephone those attributes in the nephew of America's "Teddy" Roosevelt and you get a robust, vital personage recognizable as Nicholas Roosevelt.

Burdened with a grip and an overcoat, this journalist-author-diplomat emerged from the dust pall at Carbondale station last Thursday afternoon.

"Isn't this temperature rather unusual for March 21 in this part of the country?" Roosevelt inquired dejectedly at the overcoat on his arm. "That was winter in his ego yesterday's morning." "Proving it's 'diplomatic' to talk about the weather."

Letter Committee Considers Dropping Activities Awards

The faculty committee on honor letters, meeting at chapel hour today, will consider omitting awards for activities this year. This recommendation, to be presented by Captain William McAndrew, will include the suggestion that organizations work out some method of recognizing the excellent work of their own members.

Honor letters for scholarship will be awarded by the college as usual. Heretofore, the requirement has been a 4.5 average for the fall and winter terms of the college year.

Members of the faculty committee on letters include Captain McAndrew, chairman; F. G. Warren, Miss Frances Eberhardt, Mrs. Julia Scott, Dr. R. L. Beyer, Miss Mary Crawford, and Miss Julia Jonah.

REGISTRATION FOR SPRING TERM STANDS AT 1351

Utilizing for the first time the new system for the distribution of class cards introduced by Robert Dunn Fanner, registration for the spring term began last Monday. On Friday a check-up revealed a total enrollment of 1351 persons. With the opening of the mid-spring term, approximately 250 more students will enter college, Miss Marjorie Shank, registrar, stated.

Mr. Fanner's scheme for class card distribution accomplished its purpose by abolishing a large amount of the confusion which has previously accompanied the process of all class cards: at a central desk. Each department distributed its own cards for spring classes.

President H. W. Shryock was enthusiastic about the enrollment this term. At the chapel period Tuesday, he pointed out the significance in the increase in the number of students enrolled from 971 in 1930 to 1351 this term. President Shryock interpreted this increase as an indication of the college's ability to meet unfavorable conditions. "This increase," the president stated, "shows that we have held the school together during the black years following the market crash in the fall of 1929."

Although comparisons show a loss of 100 from the winter term, they also reveal a gain of 61 over the 1934 spring term.

LADDER TOURNAMENT PLAY INAUGURATED TO SELECT VARSITY SQUAD

Twenty-seven tennis players reported to Dr. Charles D. Tenney, S. I. T. C. tennis mentor, at an organization meeting last Friday. This turnout, which will doubtless be augmented by later arrivals, is the largest in the college tennis history. The candidates turned in their names and experience to Dr. Tenney, and from the list, the tennis prospects appear to be excellent.

Included among the men reporting were three squad men from last season, namely Charles Buell, Walter Syfert, and Eugene Renn. This group will probably form the nucleus of the eight man team which will represent Southern on the court this season. However, the final team places will be determined by a ladder tournament.

The list of newcomers is headed by Morrison England, who was the second ranking St. Louis negro player in 1933 and 1934. England was city negro junior champion in 1931 and 1932, and in the East St. Louis doubles in 1934. Other outstanding prospects are Tom Phillips, ex-Benton high racket star, Joe Cruise, Elville, Edison Hall, Carbondale racket wielder with experience in Chicago and sectional tournaments, and Max Parsons, varsity basketball player. These boys should make strong bids for squad berths.

Varsity Play in Three Weeks
The Maroon schedule has not yet been made up, but it is likely that the netmen will meet McKendree, Cape and one or two other colleges in dual meets, in addition to their entry in the conference sectional meet at Illinois College. The first varsity match will probably be played in about three weeks.

In the intrasquad ladder tournament, play is already underway, and will continue for about two weeks. Arbitrary rankings will be made by Dr. Tenney, and by a progressive match play, the eight berths will be determined. The play will be in two-set matches. In case of ties, the number of games won will count for victory. Most of the rest of those signed up listed high school, city, and club participation for their experience. The complete list now signed: Joe Cruise, Loyd Cox, Wayne Aiken, Morrison England, George Holliday, George Scherrer, Dallas Young, Glenn Fulkerson, Stanley Beckman, Tom Phillips, Max Parsons, Jasper Cross, Charles Buell, William Wyatt, Richmond Freeman, George E. Dudley, Lowell Wilson, William Spear, Judson Harris, Walter Syfert, Robert K. Kell, Max Heinman, Ernest Brashear, Eugene Renn, Edison Hall, Robert Finley, and Randolph Bateman.

east while she concentrated her guns to the west. However, there is little likelihood of this," the speaker concluded.

Mr. Roosevelt conducted an open forum after his address. Mr. Roosevelt's lecture saw the biggest turnout of students in the entire entertainment series, 240 student tickets being sold.

There were three numbers scheduled on this year's Entertainment Series, the numbers appearing in the order named: Ted Shawn's Dancers; C. Ray Smith's Theatre of Little People, the Olvera Street Puppeteers; and the Nicholas Roosevelt address. All three numbers were well received. Credit for the success of the new undertaking is largely due to cull undertaking in itself, when the School Council which handled one considers the varied interests the entire business of selecting of the students represented in this and financing this course; a diffi- college.

Of Recent Visit to Artist's Studio

By Eileen McNeill
Max Deena has his studio in a rather surprising structure just off Michigan avenue. Surprising because its two stories and small expense are so out of keeping with the tall buildings which surround it on every side.

Dr. Kellogg, Mr. Cooley and I drove up to the studio, got out of the car and walked through the doorway into a bare, wood constructed hallway. (Mr. Cooley sells year-book covers for the S. K. Smith Company.) From there we went straight on through another door and descended some three or four steps to alight upon the ground floor. The place looked more like a barn than anything else, and not a particularly glorified barn, except that it did have a cement floor. I didn't see any chairs other than one occupied by a young man working at a drawing board in another corner of the room.

Max had on black trousers, white shirt, a black jacket, and white shoes. He explained the latter in terms of comfort. Cooley told him that I had ideas about a cover for the 1935 Obelisk—and to see what he could do in the way of giving them visible form.

Esquire Cartoonist at Work
The young man over in the corner turned out to be John Groth, who draws for Esquire, and who is perhaps the most permanent member of the Chicago Lithograph Society. Just as his sketches are momentary glimpses, the best momentary glimpse I can give you is that he is tall, slender, and sandy. Last year his magazine sent him around the world on a sketching tour. And the remarkable thing is that he never studied art outside of high school.

After we had looked at some of John Groth's sketches, Max took us upstairs, where we entered upon a room overflowing with people and objects d'Art. "Cluttered" might be a more adequate description. Besides the man who ran the studio, there were four people painting away at still life. The walls were covered with paintings and metal work, and the mantelpiece lined with wood carvings, and the stairway leading down enhanced with more paintings, as if the contents of the room had overflowed through the door and down the stairway.

As we were leaving, John Groth handed me a roll of brown paper, and when I started to open it, he said, "No, not here." Outside the studio I unrolled it to find one of his drawings. Down at the bottom he had written "John Groth—To the Editor." I noticed when we went out a sign on the door which read "Stay out. Too busy to talk."

In an hour Max had the sketch prepared from which this year's Obelisk covers will be made.

Robert Bell, Marion, Pat Poe, Zeigler, and Marvin Lawson, Beta-tos, were pledged last Monday night. Robert Gallegly, Marion, and Daniel Brown, West Frankfort, were pledged before vacation.

KAPPA DELTA ALPHA

Dale Hill, Fairfield; George Land, Sparta; and Blake and Charles Broadway, Cobden, have been formally pledged.

Louis Bertoni will captain the KDA baseball team.

Robert Boyle, who is enrolled at the University of Iowa, has pledged Sigma Pi. Mr. Boyle, a prominent actor on this campus, was a member of the stage crew for the recent production of Glaspell's "Alison's House." He is playing in the university orchestra.

TRI SIGMA

Ruth Nast, Freeburg; Deborah Bowman, Grayville; and Helen Davis, Sparta, were formally pledged last Thursday.

The Mothers' Club met for pot-luck lunch last Friday noon at the home of Mrs. W. A. Furr.

Berdena and Elsie Paner and Jane Federer visited the Tri Sigma chapter at Kent Teachers College, Kent, Ohio one day during the spring vacation. They comment that Kent Teachers' College, with an enrollment of approximately 2200, supports eight sororities and five fraternities. Tri Sigma is the oldest Greek letter organization on the campus.

Miss Federer spent part of her vacation with the Paners, and the remainder of the time in Washington, D. C.

ILL I NOISIN' AROUND

At Illinois Normal last week, John W. Roberts, editor of the school paper, resigned, saying, "I feel that in the light of recent happenings at the school some one with a more puritan attitude should have the editorship of the Vidette. Censorship is hard to take."

One report is that the "recent happenings" was the punishment of a number of students for drinking. Commenting, President Franklin declared that Roberts proposed to run "scarce heads" which were not thought to be the kind of things to put in a student paper. In addition, Roberts proposed to leave a blank space in the paper as expressive of what he would like to have written about the action on drinking.

In the March 15 issue of the Vidette appeared an editorial called "Dictatorship, Espionage, and Censorship Do Not Better Conditions" which ended with "It is a blessing that we aren't bothered with such triviumatics."

Mr. Roberts plans to enter the University of Missouri, an institution which seems to be the haven for other expatriates. Sam Montague of Louisiana State, who opposed the Long regime having entered this semester.

Article one, section one, of a code of ethics for teachers prepared by the National Educational Association follows:

The school room is not the proper theatre for religious, political, or personal propaganda. The teacher should exercise his full rights as a citizen but should avoid controversies which may tend to decrease his value as a teacher.

That is all very well, BUT, when a teacher seeking a position tells his politics, his religion, and personal animosities to an inquiring school board, and is found to be of the same belief as Samuel Chattersmith, president of the board, doesn't the worthy Mr. Chattersmith expect him to install a few of those formidable ideas into little Sophia Chattersmith's head? Is it not the teacher's duty to set forth ideas he truthfully believes are right? Or must he sell his birthright for a mess of delayed orders which may eventually depreciate to nothing?

Of course, as the Western Courier observes, "Many ears are plugged with the cotton of prejudice."

Peace Demonstration Planned (Quoted from the Teachers College News of Charleston.)

Quite a lot of fuss is being kicked up in the sophisticated college circles of the far West and far East over the proposed student strike against war and fascism at 11 a. m. on April 12. A counter movement, comprising the Hearstian followers, set in on the west coast and a sizeable conflict ensued between the two factions. The pacifist campaign is against the U. S. Supreme Court ruling which upheld compulsory military drill, Hearst's campaign against liberal and radical students and professors, and the numerous loyalty bills which have been introduced into the various state legislatures.

The only comment this column makes is a quotation from Robert Quillen: "Let the hitch-hiker who complains of the springs get out and walk."

The Northern Illinois student newspaper, set in on the west coast, devoted an entire sheet in its last issue to creative writing contributed by freshmen and sophomores. This precedent might be wisely followed by many of its contemporaries. Access to publication is desired by many students whose talents are more forceful than prosaic news-writing.

Societies' Programs 'Too Long for Comfort' In Early Days of the College

The first organizations on the S. I. T. C. campus were the literary societies. When the first session opened in the fall of 1874, a Men's Debating club was organized. Later girls were admitted to the club and it became the Sociocratic Literary Society.

President Allyn wanted two literary societies formed, one for men and one for women. However, students protested that with only one woman on the faculty, and with boys and girls meeting together regularly in their class rooms, the social and literary life of the school should not be divided. Hence the Zetetic Literary Society was formed.

An account of the early history of the Zetets relates how their first meetings were held in a bare room with only one bench and a borrowed kerosene lamp. Later other benches and kerosene lamps were purchased by the society.

Students Brought Lanterns
It was customary for the students to bring their lanterns to these early meetings in order to see their way through the dark halls and stairways. This with the members early began "climbing toward the light." The societies met on Friday evenings for a number of years.

It is also worth noting that the societies made the first attempts at building up a library. This fact is mentioned in the Second Annual Catalogue of S. I. T. C. The cat-

Play Committees To Meet This Week

The play committees of the Sociocratic and Zetetic literary societies are reading a series of plays from which they will choose the spring productions to be given in the Shryock auditorium during commencement week.

The Sociocratic committee is considering "Mr. Pim Passes By," "Return of Peter Grim," and "The Detour." Among those being considered by the Zetetic committee are "Death Takes a Holiday," "Another Language," and "The Late Christopher Bean."

The Zetetic committee consists of Everett Mitchell, Elizabeth Ann West, Kate Burkhardt, Marjorie Brown, and Ted Finley. Members of the Sociocratic committee are Ruth Nast, Geraldine Morgan, Veda Taylor, LaVerne Adams, Hoyt Lemons, and Ernest Brashear.

Both committees will meet within the week and hope to make their selection soon.

logue states that "They afford one of the best means of culture, discipline and instruction in the practical conduct of business."

The Illinois School Journal for 1887-88 gives a bit of advice to the societies. It states "The Societies' programs were good, but rather long for the comfort of their large audiences. Shorter programs would be a great improvement." Apparently the advice was heeded, for the enrollment of members was larger the next year and large groups of townspeople also attended.

Advance registration for the forty-fifth annual meeting of the Southern Illinois State Teachers' Association shows an enrollment of 2500.

The "Pirates of Penance," a two-act comic opera, was presented by the music department.

The Zetetic literary society is to broadcast over WEBZ at Harrisburg, April 7. President Shryock will participate in the program.

Plays selected for the Sociocratic and Zetetic spring productions are "Ill Bound" by Owen Davis and "The Intimate Strangers" by Booth Tarkington.

Radio Club Joins National, Synton

The Radio club was formally installed in the National fraternity, Synton, as the Epsilon chapter on March 18.

After a banquet at the Roberts Hotel, the initiation ceremonies were conducted by members of the University of Illinois chapter. The members from the University of Illinois were William Katy, Mark Jones, F. K. Fugate, Arthur L. Peters, H. J. Sprenged, and Lloyd J. Waldron.

Those initiated were Dr. O. B. Young, Miss Charlotte Zimmer-schied, Lowell Davis, Goodwin Petersen, Roscoe Peithman, Robert Kell, Ralph Chaddard, Harry Tichenor, Robert Chammes, David Woodworth, Victor Goines, Frank Green, Allison Douglas.

The Radio club is the second on the campus to go into a professional fraternity. The Education club became Kappa Phi Kappa a few years ago.

A SUCCESSFUL VENTURE

The interesting, informative address by Nicholas Roosevelt last Thursday night in Shroyck auditorium brought to a close the 1934-35 S. I. T. C. entertainment program. This year marks the first time in the modern history of the college, such a program has been arranged. The series just concluded presented, in addition to Mr. Roosevelt's lecture, performances of the Ted Shawn dance troupe and a marionette exhibition by the Olvera Street Marionette Company.

By all standards, the innovation was a success. It brought to the campus entertainment of the highest type, educational as well as amusing. Financially, the enterprise showed a slight profit. The surplus fund will be held over until next year and applied on the 1935-36 entertainment budget, if the project is renewed.

Certainly there should be another entertainment series next year. The success of this year's program surely warrants a repetition. Furthermore, the entertainment series might be somewhat expanded. In arranging the 1935-36 program, some significance should be attached to the fact that the address Thursday night drew the largest student attendance of the series, corroborating in part the original campaign of the Egyptian in favor of the lecture series only. It is a commendable fact that S. I. T. C. students, who are interested at all in worthwhile entertainment, prefer the educational address presentation. Those preparing an entertainment program for next season would find it advisable to consider this student reception of the lecture offering. We believe that an expanded entertainment series, including at least two prominent lecturers, should be scheduled for next year. Then, too, there is the possibility of lower admission rates. It seems that a uniform top price of not more than twenty-five cents would increase attendance sufficiently to cover the necessary expenses.

The success of this year's series is largely due to the two School Council committees, selectional and financial. These committees are to be praised for their laudable choice of features and for their efficient management of the whole business. No little work was entailed in the duties of the committee members, especially the chairmen.

THE NEW SYSTEM WAS MUCH BETTER

The new system of distributing class cards, introduced last registration day by Robert Dunn Faner at the editor's suggestion of the Egyptian, proved on the whole more satisfactory than the old method. Students, relieved of the necessity of battling four compact lines squeezed into a small cubbyhole, could proceed with registration in more leisurely fashion. Instructors could determine at any moment just how many students were enrolled in each class. In some cases students had the opportunity to discuss with their teachers the advisability of taking certain courses in working out majors or minors.

Altogether, registration procedure was facilitated. However, several students have suggested one amendment to the experimental plan. They would like to have all the class card rooms located in one building, such as the Main. They add that altogether in the Main building there are enough rooms to take care of each department separately, and congestion would still be avoided without having the other inconvenience of trotting all over the campus.

FIVE MINUTES MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Maybe the clocks are beyond repair, but it would be convenient if they weren't all slow by various time margins.

GREEKS ON F.E.R.A. PAYROLL

Examination of the F.E.R.A. payroll will surprisingly enlighten the competent observer as to the extent of the genuine aid given to needy students. A disproportionately large number of members of Greek social organizations are listed. It is obvious, besides drawing other lines of a social nature, that such membership must necessitate a financial support from some other source. If these students are able to remain as active members of sororities and fraternities, if they are able to join after they are receiving such aid, should they be allowed to remain on the student relief payroll?

We wish to point out several cases of F.E.R.A. student workers actually pledging these organizations after they supposedly have signified their inability to remain in school unless given some help. Other cases exist where pledges have been able to pay the fairly high initiatory fee to the sorority or fraternity after they have been given relief. More excusable it seems to us are those cases where already active members of these organizations have received aid. It is apparent that one's financial status is subject to change. However, it is possible that even the necessity for relief in these circumstances is far fetched.

We maintain that there are a large number of more worthy students who really need government assistance to procure an education. Slough off those undeserving students and divide the favors more equally. The faculty committee has signified its willingness to examine any specific charges brought before it.

Wallen to Speak At Socratic Society Meeting Tonight

The program to be presented at the Socratic society meeting tonight will consist of a talk on journalism by Jack Wallen, a visit solo by Theresa Boyd, and an oration by Norrid Montgomery.

The officers elected for this term are president, LaVern Adams; vice president, Hoy Lemons; secretary-treasurer, Oreta Good; recording secretary, Ruth Nast; corresponding secretary, LeRoy Babcock; business manager, Ralph Goddard.

Mr. Faner gave a review of the play, "The Petrified Forest" by Robert Sherwood, which he termed a recent literary achievement, at the last meeting. Sherwood, Mr. Faner pointed out, attempts something quite different from the usual modern play. Recently plays have all been consistently one thing or another, either very brittle, sophisticated and amusing, melodramatic, philosophical, or sentimental. Sherwood combines all of these in the same play.

JUNIORS TO OFFER CHAPEL PROGRAM

For the student chapel program Friday, April 5, the junior class has arranged a play, "The Mouse Trap," as the entire entertainment. This play portrays phases of the anti-suffrage movement in the form of a burlesque. It is being directed by Lois Boyle, and its chief characters are Marjorie Brown and Wesley Bovinet.

Wouldn't you think, my gentle friends and critics, that with this outburst of spring lately, the warbling of the birds, the deepening green of the grass, the blooming of the jonquils, and one thing and another, that scandal would be as plentiful as could be desired? That's what I thought, but I've been wracking what I've always carried in my mind all day and I'm darned if I can think of any.

Mrs. Marberry Reviews 'L'Aiglon' For Zetetic Society

Mrs. Edna Cowling Marberry reviewed Ross Stand's "L'Aiglon" (The Eaglet) for the Zetetic society on February 27. Following brief biographical sketches of Napoleon and his son, she read five cuttings from dramatic scenes of the play.

"L'Aiglon," deals with the story of Napoleon's son who never became Napoleon II, partly because of ill health, but mostly because the French hated Napoleon.

This play is of current interest since it is being revived by Eva Le Gallienne, who is touring the country with it. Stand wrote the play originally for Sarah Bernhardt. Besides Le Gallienne, Adams is the only American actress who ever appeared in this play.

FIFTEEN TEAMS IN INTRAMURAL BASEBALL LEAGUE

PLAY OPENS THIS WEEK; STRONGEST 1934 TEAMS RETURN TO COMPETITION

The College Baseball League, S. I. T. C.'s intramural diamond organization, opens its schedule this week, with six games, two of which were carded or yesterday afternoon. Fifteen teams are entered and twelve begin their title campaign during the week. Three nines drew a first round bye. The fifteen entries, which will play through a fourteen game single round robin schedule, form the largest baseball league ever to function in Southern intramural play. The entries: Meddlers, West City, University High, Kappa Delta Alpha, Alpha Phi Alpha, Purple Raiders, Fly Swatters, Ramblers, Chi Delta Chi, Eltherton Tigers, Faculty, Hunky Dories, Y. M. C. A., Monkeys, and Jappa Keg.

The completion of the league organization and the drawing up of the schedule was announced by Dr. Richard L. Byer, commissioner of the league. Two games will be played each Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday afternoons at 4:15. The games will be played on the old athletic field diamond and on the diamond on the new field.

A First Place Play-off
At the completion of the regular schedule, the two leading teams will meet in a play-off championship. This will avoid a contest in the event of a one-team runaway race, and it will provide a World Series touch to the season. It will also avert any championship arguments over half game margins, due to rained out or otherwise postponed games.

Interest in the national game is running high at S. I. T. C. and this league is expected to be the most successful baseball loop ever established here. They will probably be faster and the all-around competition will certainly be keener than in the past. Dr. Byer, their organization and execution of the spring and summer leagues last year, is very optimistic concerning the 1935 season.

"It seems that the teams will be more evenly matched this year than last, and we look for a tight race right down to the play-off game," he said. "It is to be hoped that the fine record of the league, that of never having a forfeit, will be continued this spring."

The College Baseball league is getting off to nearly a three weeks earlier start than last year's league. Then too, the entries are more representative in ability. High is in for the first time, and there is a third fraternity group in the field this year—Alpha Phi Alpha, the colored fraternity.

Last Year's Stars Return
A glance at the entry list and the rosters reveals many names prominent in last year's baseball play. In fact, several teams are back nearly intact. Heading the hoivder list are Hunky Dories, last year's champions, and the Faculty nine, which finished second. The 1934 pennant winners lost Ralph Davison and Ervin, mound stars Vernon Tomlinson, second high hitter in the team, and Louis Bertoni, ace infielder, but have lined up some flashy new men. Lynn Holder, who ranked second in league batting last

Gymnasium Team To be Given Minor Sports Awards

Athletic letters will be awarded this spring for gym team activities for the first time since the organization of the team. Regulation I letters will be awarded as for football and other major sports, except that the gym letters will be left respectively of the I. Tennis is the only other minor sport to receive awards, and these are only given to winners of Little Nineteen titles.

Three exhibitions of the gym team have been scheduled for the next two weeks. A performance will be given before the coaches and physical education instructors division of the Teachers Meeting here Friday. Demonstrations are also scheduled at Metropolitan and Vienna high schools. For the following week, exhibitions in the boxing and wrestling tournament will be filled in by the gym team. All of the exhibitions will demonstrate tumbling, parallel bar work, tiger leaps, and pyramids.

LYNN HOLDER

spring with a .667 mark and Robert Calfee, lanky first sacker, will lead the Hunky Dories in their title quest.

Dr. Clarence Cramer, 1934 batting champion, and Dr. Kenneth Van Lente are back again to insure a strong Faculty offense. Cramer hit a .739 clip in six games, while Van Lente tied Holder at .667. Captain McAndrew, one of the league leading twirlers last year, is still doubtful about appearing on the mound for the pedagogues. If he decides to pitch, the Faculty will loom up as one of the most dangerous threats, with a hurling staff composed of McAndrew and Davison, Hunky Dories twirler of 1934.

Kappa Delta Alpha Looks Strong

Another strong aggregation is the K. D. A. nine augmented by the addition of Louie Bertoni and several promising newcomers. These latter include Kelt on George, track star; Fuzz Hill, ace grinder; and George Dohanich, usually baseball man. Dohanich, a southpaw, will probably be seen on first, while George and Hill are prospective outer-gardners. Gene Hall will pitch for the Kappa Deltas, who lost the services of George Harrison, co-leader of the league pitchers last spring.

Laverne Best, a ranking hitter last spring, heads the Fly Swatter squad, which includes Gerald Shaver, Loren Taylor, Red Orr, and the Masse brothers all experienced ball players.

All the other teams are prospective contenders. Nearly all have a combination of S. I. T. C. veterans and rookies, with the success of the team depending upon the play of the latter.

For the present, the old field diamond will be situated at the north end of the football field. A new infield is being built at the south end of the field, and will probably be ready for play in a couple of weeks.

MAROON CINDER OUTLOOK BRIGHT AS 87 TURN OUT

COACH LINGLE COUNTING ON NEW MEN TO UPHOLD MAROON TRACK RECORD

With the opening of the spring term eighty-four track aspirants reported to Coach Doc Lingle, and the outlook for a successful track season at Southern this year seems bright.

Southern for the past six years has lost only one dual and state teachers meet. This was last year when Cape defeated the Linglemen early in the season. Cape was later trimmed by an overwhelming score. At the Teachers meet, Southern being weak in the runs was nosed out, by Old Normal.

Among the outstanding candidates this year are Eugene Peyton and Kellen George, two very promising dash men. Last week Peyton and George ran the 60 yards in 6.4 with a slight wind at their backs. The world's record is 6.1.

Coach Lingle's worries over broad jumpers is over, as Fuzz Hill, diminutive football halfback, jumped over 22 feet against a strong wind, his first night out. John Crisp, last year's broad jumper, can also do better than 22 feet.

To date Southern's weakest event is the javelin. Hippo Brown, Bud Smith, and Paul Pegley, last year's spear throwers, completed their four terms of competition and will not be available. Mac Aiken, George Dohanich, and Troy Edwards seem to be the most outstanding candidates. Last year this event was always good for five points or better.

In the hurdles the Maroon and White aggregation will be as strong as in the previous seasons. Crisp and Parednis will run the highs while Percy Crain and Crisp will garner Southern's share of the points in the lows.

Outstanding in the new comers to the distance run ranks are Fred Franklin and Arnold Casey. Casey runs the mile while Franklin will run the half. Lingle still has Newton and Grisko, returning lettermen, in the mile and half mile respectively.

Kenneth Cole, Southern's record holder in the high jump, did not return to school, so most of the burden in this event will be with Robert Reeves. Big Charles Broadway, freshman basketball player, is also out for this event. If height means anything in this event Broadway should go places.

S. I. T. C. will be weaker in the weights this year than last season. Knash and Duckworth did not return to school, so all that Lingle can depend on will be Harry Bauder, as there are no newcomers of importance in the class. Lester Dean, Carbondale high school discus thrower last year, will be available and might hurl the platter far enough to place in some of the meets.

With this number of returning lettermen and the promising prospects all that Coach Lingle has to do now is to polish up the candidates' weak points and wait for the first meet with Cape, which is one week off.

Holder Placed On Conference Second Team

Lynn Holder, Maroon court star, was placed at forward on the Illinois College Conference all-star second team, selected by conference coaches and sports writers.

Jim Gray and Russ Emery, that great pair of guards, each received honorable mention for further S. I. T. C. recognition. Last year Holder was named All Little Nineteen forward, and in 1933 he won all conference listing as a result of his brilliant play in the teachers' college tournament. Emery was a second team choice in 1933.

ENTRY LIST SHORT FOR WRESTLING-BOXING TOURNEY

CHALLENGERS SEEK VACANT TITLES IN ANNUAL MEET; FINALS WILL BE APRIL 4

Twenty-eight entries have now been received since the Seventh Annual renewal of the S. I. T. C. Boxing and Wrestling Tournament. Of these, sixteen are entered in the wrestling and twelve in the boxing divisions. This is an unusually small number of competitors and it is hoped that more entries will be received. Tournament finals will be April 4, with elimination bouts slated for either April 1 or 3. In order to add interest to the tournament, medals are given to winners of each class, unless unchallenged.

The lack of returning champions leaves most divisions completely "wide open." All six of the wrestling thrones are vacant and three of the boxing titles are unoccupied. Returning title holders in the boxing section are Arlie Wolfnabarger, 160 pounds; Jim O'Malley of Fairfield, 175 pounds; and Bob Moore of Cache, 135 pounds. Bob "Shadow" Courtney, 1933 wrestling champ in the 115 pound class will attempt to regain his laurels and is thus far unopposed. Max Rea, 125 pound grappling titlist last year, will compete for the 135 pound title vacated by A. C. Davison, who is not in college this year.

Competition will probably be the most keen in the 160 pound wrestling section with six entries already filed. Last year's crown was won by Russell Deason, who was graduated last spring. A good battle should develop in the 145 pound division with four entries received. James Odum, track star, last year's runner-up; Gerald Shaver, brother of last year's champion; and two able freshmen, Lowell Reid and Delton Rea, make up the quartet of contenders.

Max Rea to Try for 135 Pound Title

A trio of grapplers will seek honors in the 135 pound section with Max Rea, ex-125 pound titlist attempting to annex a different crown. Glen Fattor, of West Frankfort, and Merritt Elliott of Benton complete the entries. Norman Massie, 125 and Nelson Church, 200 pound or heavyweight, are both unopposed in their divisions. Both are freshmen.

MAX REA

Entries are still more scattering in the boxing competition than in wrestling. This probably partly due to the returning champions, two of whom are unopposed. Arlie Wolfnabarger, 160 pounds, and Jim O'Malley, 175 pounds, have both been unchallenged thus far and were also unchallenged in last year's tournament.

The third of the returning champs, Bob Moore of Cache, 135 pounds, has as his rivals, Claude Hart of Murphysboro and Phil Heckel of Cartersville. Moore, however, will be an overwhelming favorite, due to his recent successes in the Golden Gloves eliminations.

The 145 pound division, won last year by John Laney, has three entries. John Reeves, runner-up two years ago, Russ Shaver, last year's welterweight wrestling titlist, and Carl Perry comprise the list.

Three 125 pound scrappers will vie for the vacated throne of Leland Koch of Harrisburg. James Owen, Galatia; Heywood Cooper, Murphysboro; and George Arnold,

University Cafe Honors Cage Team With Banquet

Chris Masters, general proprietor of the University Cafe, entertained twenty-six basketball players, coaches, and guests at the annual basketball banquet held at the Cafe last Wednesday night.

Bill Morawek, football captain, presided as toastmaster over the informal after dinner speaking. Coach McAndrew was the principal address of the evening, in which he summarized the season, stressed especially the unfortunate losses away from home.

Others who spoke included Dr. Fred Eltherton, Dr. R. E. Byer, R. M. Nolan, Coaches Lantz and DIGiovanna, and team members and sports writers. The skill and spirit of the squad members was generally praised, and new year's prospects, seemingly very bright with only three men lost, were discussed. Players present were Jim Gray, Mike Lenich, Russ Emery, Gene Hall, Charles Broadway, Troy Edwards, James Lucas, and Charles Pulley.

Chris, responding to the urging of the team members, gave a short talk in which he advocated the use of shoulder pads and the employment of football tactics for next year's encounters with some of S. I. T. C.'s upstate adversaries.

VERSATILE NICHOLAS
HIS INTERVIEWER

Ray Smith's marionettes."
"Good gosh. I hope the marionette ghosts will give me fortu-tude. I'm no entertainer. I can't pull any Will Roger's stuff."
"Did you forget your lasso?"
Roosevelt enjoyed laughing, and seemingly liked to toy with the idea of how many people might prefer the home talent show and "Roberta" to his private exhibition.

Competed With Amelia Earhart
"Last night," he related, "I had to compete with Amelia Earhart."

"Who won?"
"Amelia got the boys and girls, the lively element; I drew the faculty and old fogies."

On the lecture platform Mr.
Roosevelt remained suave, extremely self-assured. A modest blue tie replaced the violent red one of the afternoon. His easy, dignified informality was evident in the many restrained gestures he employed and the even tenor of his voice which did not attain a single dramatic height.

Intensely Interested in Political Problems

Later in the evening however, while attacking viciously a ham
omelet imbedded in fried potatoes, Roosevelt became intensely interested, almost heated, in a discussion which did not veer for more than a few minutes at a time from American and Foreign affairs.

Mr. Roosevelt has brown eyes.
They stare through you as you speak, or through the wall (according to the significance of your remark), then snap suddenly in accompaniment with a terse, frank reply from their owner. This man seems to be continually turning thoughts over in his mind.

Always the skilled diplomat and journalist, Roosevelt has two outstanding social graces. He fills in gaps in conversation eloquently, and he manages skillfully to make his converser contribute a sizable proportion of what is said. You can't talk unintelligently with Mr.
Roosevelt. Even in desultory conversation his wit is pointed and refreshing.

When Nicholas Roosevelt boarded the 11:35 train for Chicago last Thursday night each of a group of campus journalists felt that he had enjoyed a brief personal friendship with a gracious, self-possessed man, a vigorous personality, a Roosevelt.

KONGS WIN LEAGUE COURT
TITLE IN 37-35 OVERTIME
WIN OVER BENTONIANS

In the deciding game for intramural basketball supremacy, played Tuesday, March 6, the Sons of Kong nosed out the Bentonians by a twopoint margin, 37-35. At the end of the regular game, the score was tied 30-30, requiring an overtime period to gain a final decision. Calfee, star scorer and captain of the Kongs, was absent from the game due to an injured ankle. Farsdnis with ten points and Brimm with eight were the high point scorers for the Kongs, while Morgan and Aiken netting eleven and eight points, respectively, received the honors for the Bentonian aggregation.

As has been the custom the last two years, gold basketballs will be awarded the members of the winning team. The players are Calfee, Lawson, Pareid, Dshney, Moore, Staley, Davidson, Chenoweth, and Howells.
