NORMAL FALLS BEFORE MISSOURI TEACHERS' ATTACK 13-0

Aerial Attack of Cape Girardeau Defeats Home Squad In Closely Fought Game

The Maroon went down for another defeat Thursday last, when the Cape boys shot forward passes over their heads for five completions for big gains in different parts of the game. The Normal boys played, as a rule, steadily, but succumbed to the aerial offensive made by the home team.

However, the team, as a whole showed up brilliantly in the game. Each man seemed to be doing his very best, and it is none the less to his credit because we were defeated by a team which had been playing such teams as St. Louis University, Rolla Miners, and Springfield Teachers' College. Huffman played in Gardner's place in the pivot position, Gardner being out on account of a bad knee.

The most noticeable feature of the game, however, insofar as the team is concerned, was the remarkable showing of the new backfield material which Mac started in the game. Austin, playing his fourth game of football, his first at fullback, made a good showing. Austin is a hard hitter, and promises to develop into a splendid man for the job made vacant by Schwartz's broken instep. Goforth played his first game at halfback for the Normal and also promises to develop into a fast man for the job. Hamilton at the other half, and Clark at quarterback completed the lineup in the backfield. Lee replaced Goforth early in the second half, when Goforth sustained an injury to his wrist.

Juden, of the Cape, played brilliantly at left end, catching four of the many passes shot to him during the game, until taken out in the fourth quarter on account of an injury. Tibe, at the fullback position, aided by his weight, is a good plunger, and a hard hitter. Carbondale invariably lost on an exchange of punts.

The first quarter opened with Huffman of Carbondale kicking off. Cape failed to make 10 yards on their first four downs, and the ball went to Clark on a punt. Clark was unable to make first down, and punted on the fourth. This series of performances was kept up during the game to a great extent, the Missourians usually getting the better of it on the punts. More often, too, Cape made their allotment in the four downs. It was late in the first quarter when, after a series of successful rushes had carried the ball to within striking distance of the goal line, a pass from Quarterback Black to Juden netted the home team a touchdown, the first of the season for them. They failed on the kick, however, and the score was 6-0.

The second quarter went pretty much the way the first one did, with reference to the manner of the play. Neither team were able to score, and the ball kept moving from one end of the field to the other. The referee dealt out penalties freely to each side, and both Carbondale and Cape lost perhaps 40 yards on the aggregate from penalties during the game.

In the second half, Otis Huffman replaced Boos on end. The Cape's second touchdown came late in this quarter on very much the same style of play. Succeeding in advancing the ball down the field on plunges and a long pass, a wide end run by Grant took it over. Chambers kicked goal this time and ran the score up to 13.

An intercepted pass by Hamilton, and a long end run by Black of the Cape were the outstanding features of the last quarter. The game ended with the ball in the hands of Carbondale on the thirty-yard line.

It is to be expected that with a strengthened team, and some good workouts up to the time of the Armistice Day game, that the Carbondale boys will be in a position to do themselves and the team more credit. From the dope on the two teams, the home boys should be able to reverse the score on the return game.

THE NORMAL IN MARDI GRAS

The Normal was well represented in the Mardi Gras parade last night. Some few years ago the school took an active part in the parade, but in the past few years has not taken any part as a school. However, individuals from the school have participated.

There were ten floats in the line last night as follows: Agriculture, Anthony Hall, Zetetic Society, Christian Associations, Socratic Society, English, Domestic Art, Training School, Commerce, and Fine Arts. We shall give a more extended notice next week.

ATTENTION, PLEASE!

The work on the Obelisk is now well under way. Many of the staff members have their work before them, and are entering heartily into the task given them.

The business manager has let the contract for the photographic work to Mr. Stevenson, whose work on the Annual was very satisfactory last year, and who cooperated earnestly with the Student Management.

As a staff, we would like to impress upon the students the necessity of having their pictures made early, so that we may be in a position to take advantage of discounts. Mr. Stevenson will be in his studio each Thursday, Friday and Saturday to take the individual pictures, and we desire that all upper-classmen cooperate with us in having the work done immediately.

Group pictures of organizations and societies must be taken at the school, and we sincerely hope that every member of every organization will be present when the picture is taken.

Much of the success of the Obelisk of '22 will depend on the part played by the students, and we trust that every member will show the true loyalty and spirit of the Southern Illinois Normal University.

STUDENT'S COUNCIL

The student council held its first meeting of the year last Tuesday at chapel time. Most of the time was spent in discussing the matter of eliminating one or more chapel assemblies each week in order to provide more time for meetings of the different organizations in the school. It was pointed out that there was not sufficient time after chapel for the meetings; that students who walked a considerable distance at noon for luncheon could not get back in time for meetings then and that meetings after school could not be well attended because of the number of students who work and others who have to catch early trains or cars for their homes in nearby towns.

Counting the county organizations there are more than seventy organizations in the school and it has become a real problem to provide meeting places and meeting times for them.

The council voted to recommend that Tuesdays and Thursdays be used for these meetings and that chapel be dispensed with on those days. President Shryock accepted the recommendation so far as Tuesday was and a half holiday for October 31, but action was postponed on both matters.

NORMAL LOSES TO MCKENDREE, 20-0

TEAM, CRIPPLED, SUCGUMBS TO METHODIST ATTACK

For the first time in the history of S. I. N. U. Football, the Normal men were defeated by McKendree College, Saturday, October 22. With Schwartz out of the game probably all the season, Carter also out, the scarcity of backfield material is a problem of real significance to Coach McAndrews.

The Methodist attack was steady throughout, and especially noteworthy on the side of the Purple was the brilliant work of Sayre, Right Half Back. Early in the game, Willis, McKendree Quarterback, went out with a broken collar-bone. Off-tackle plays and long end runs were the principal feature of the Methodist offensive play.

In the first quarter of the game, Capt. Carson, winning the toss, chose to defend the North Goal, and McKendree kicked off to Hamilton, who was downed on the 40 yard line. Here the defensive work of the Purple was too much for the Maroons and they were unable to make first down, the ball going over to the Methodists. Advancing the ball down the field by off-tackle plays and end runs, Sayre carried the ball over from the 15 yard line around right end. Carvel let the ball touch the ground and they forfeited the goal. Score 6-0.

Hamilton kicked off for the Normal, and McKendree, after making six yards in two attempts, punted. The Maroons barely managed to hold their own on an exchange of punts, and were unable to make any great gains to put them in reach of a touchdown. The quarter ended with the ball in the hands of the enemy. Toward the end of the first period Huffman replaced Austin at guard, Austin going to tackle in Capt. Carson's place.

By concentrated play, although laboring under the disadvantage of much inferior weight, the Maroons managed to hold the Purple well in the center of the field during the second period, but were themselves unable to advance the ball near the goal line.

Early in the second half, McHenry, left end, carried the ball 50 yards around right end on a criss-cross play, being stopped by Gardner. From here it was easy for a McKendree husky to carry it on over the lime line, goal being kicked by Farris. Score 13-0. The Methodists' only other

THE FACULTY PAGES

Mr. Felts and Mr. Bryant of the Faculty were in Urbana, Saturday, Oct. 22, and saw the Wisconsin-Illinois foot-ball game. Mr. Bryant went over from Peoria where he had attended a state conference of institutional business agents. Mr. Felts went over from Winchester where he had been one of the instructors in the Scott County Teachers' Institute that week.

One of the most delightful features of the entire trip was a wiener roast at Chrystal Lake, given on Saturday evening by the Egyptian Club, an organization of S. I. N. U. graduates in attendance at the University. There are fifty-three members of this club and about thirty were present.

After a bountiful feed of wieners, apples, bananas and marshmallows, all sang the S. I. N. U. school song and Illinois Loyalty. After several blood-curdling ghost stories had been told nine "rabs" were given for each of the visiting Profs. as they left for the car to make their train.

Mr. Felts remained over until Sunday afternoon to visit with his daughter, Genevieve, who came down from Madison to see the game and visit over the week-end with Miss Virginia Myers, who is attending the U. of I. Miss Helen Wycoff of Alton, Miss Felts' room-mate, came down with her as Miss Myers' guest also.

Messrs. Felts and Bryant report that the Carbondale students at U. of I. are the finest looking students on the campus.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. Ralph Turner was a St. Louis visitor last Saturday.

Miss Elizabeth Weir expects to visit home folks in Sparta over the week end.

Roy White, a senior college student, went to Willisville last week to visit his sister who is ill.

A daughter was born last Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. James Montague of Memphis, Tennessee. Mrs. Montague will be remembered as Miss Jennie Mitchell, former instructor in Dramatic Art in the Normal.

Mr. Felts of the Faculty addressed a joint meeting of the Williamson County teachers and farmers at Marion on Saturday afternoon.

Miss Helen Mohlenbrock visited her aunt in Murphysboro last week end.

Miss Mary Sturm spent a few days in Pittsburg.

Miss Leah Cockran spent Sunday in Murphysboro with her cousin, Miss Helen Smith.

Miss Ruth Keith, visited over the week end with home folks.

Miss Emma Snook went home Friday evening to spend until Monday with her parents.

Miss Erbyl Gram was a week end visitor at Stonefort.

The girls who were lucky enough to get in one the fried fish and dill pickles which Miss Ethel Keith brought back with her last Sunday evening wished she would go home every week end.

Miss Mary Peace and Faye Chambers returned Sunday night after spending a few days in Centralia.

Leone Smith, Ruth Walters, Ruth Jones and Myrtle Hill were among those who went with Mr. Colyer's physiography class to Makanda last Saturday.

Mrs. Burns from Mounds spent Saturday and Sunday with her cousin, Miss Catherine Wilson.

Why did Helen Mohlenbrock make such a hurried exit from Room 20 on last Tuesday morning? For information ask either Catherine Wilson, Ruth Hanna, Myrtle Hill, Gertrude Ewald or Winifred Kugler.

A group of girls, which consisted of Ruth Norris, Edith Reed, Zoe Fullerton, Viola Lurtz, and several others walked to Makanda last Saturday. They say they went on a picnic, but we all believe that they really went to join Mr. Colyer's Geography class.

Majorie Pyatt '20, visited the Zetic Society Friday evening.

MASSAC AND POPE COUNTY

On Thursday night, October 20, the students of Massac County joined forces with those of Pope County for the purpose of having a good time. They met at the north gate of the Normal at six o'clock and hiked down the railroad track for a mile or so. Here a fire was made and the wiener roast praper began. After the "eats" were disposed of the crowd engaged in games, yells, and singing.

Miss Gibbons, of the Mathematics Department, chaperoned the party.

SENIOR DANCE

On Friday, the 28th the Armory was the scene of many weird sights and strange noises. Spooks and witches vied with each other in making the place grotesque and uncanny. Gypsies read your hand and told your fortune. The magic fish pond yielded up fishes strange and new. They screamed like demons, snorted like horses, and caused terror to reign.

But at last the witches and ghosts proved to be only merry girls and boys, and the entertainment took the form of a dance. An excellent orchestra furnished music for the evening. A delicious luncheon was served, consisting of home made pumpkin pie and cider.

Prizes were given as follows:

1. The boy with the prettiest costume, Dewey Brush.
2. The girl with the prettiest costume, Glanche Green and Ruth Lambert.
3. The boy with the funniest costume, Edward Wilson.
4. The girl with the funniest costume, Blanche Greer.
5. The one who stayed masked the longest, Adam Reed.

LOCAL BOY ACTIVE

IN STADIUM DRIVE

CHAMPAIGN, Oct. 27—Mr. Arthur Browne, Carbondale, was one of the workers in the University of Illinois Memorial stadium campaign, which in the plus drive this fall, netted $300,600 among the University's 3,500 freshmen, swelling the student total to the million mark, as practically $700,000 was pledged in a similar drive on the campus last spring.

In addition to serving on one of the major committees, Mr. Browne worked practically night and day soliciting funds and was one of the honor solicitors of the drive.

Alumni will pledge to the Stadium fund in a nation wide campaign, opening November 1st, when it is hoped to reach the 2,500,000 goal, estimated cost of the new structure.

Note: Arthur Brown is the son of Prof. G. M. Brown. He finished the Normal in 1918, and was Editor-in-chief of the Egyptian (monthly) that year.

DO IT WELL

"Anything worth doing at all is worth doing well."

Small tasks well done is the foundation for the great opportunities of life. Each lesson well learned is a firm step upon the road to success. Most of you may become teachers. They of all people, need to have learned each lesson well. Many of you will take up some other occupation, but whatever it happens to be, there will be one fundamental requirement to perform your work successfully, and that is A GOOD EDUCATION. True, some of our great men had not the opportunity to go to even the public schools, but in all cases you will find they achieved their success by acquiring an education through experience and hard, earnest study whenever they could seize the time: As a business woman, and one who has had experience in placing stenographers, bookkeepers, salesmen, managers, etc., through an employment bureau of a large city, I would like to say to all young people, those of you who are going to be able to fill life's biggest places are those who have learned to do each day's task to the best of your ability, for when the golden opportunity of each life comes, no amount of "cramming" will avail. The daily task well done is what counts.

CLARA PRATT, Class '02

Lyndon Hancock, Howard Walker and Alice Barrow have been named a committee to arrange for the Friday programs in chapel which is to be a student's program.

The committee will appreciate very much your cooperation in this movement.

Please tell the committee of any one who can and is willing to take their part in these exercises.

COMMITTEE,

JUNIOR HIGH

The Junior High school under the present organization was established in 1917. At that time the University High was absorbed by the Normal and the entire upper floor of the Ailyn building given over to the work of the Junior High. This added space, made it possible to organize the department more fully. The Junior High is composed of the upper three grades of the Training school, which plan is in accord with the six-three-three method of organization now followed by many of the best school systems of the country.

The classes are taught by the seniors of the Normal under conditions similar to those found in the public schools where departmental work is carried on. This affords a splendid opportunity for training for those students who wish to prepare for teaching in the Junior or Senior High school.

Because of the necessity of adapting the program to normal schedule and the dependence upon student teachers, it is almost impossible to provide all the features of special training characteristic of typical Junior High organizations. However, by taking advantage of the opportunities offered by the physical, biological and domestic science laboratories, the manual training shops, the music department, the state farm, and the gymnasium of the normal departments, pupils are given some choice in subject matter and school activities.

The Junior High has its own chapel. Here the pupils engage in chorus singing, render special selections of music, give readings, deliver compositions of especial merit and have debates. At this time they also plan socials and games, and talk over matters of general interest to the school. It is a standing rule that no money shall be spent from the Junior High fund until the matter is decided by vote at the chapel hour. The pupils make their own money and have a voice as to the manner in which it shall be spent.

Teams are organized in all the various forms of athletics, such as baseball, volley ball, captain ball, basket ball and track. The girls come in for their share having teams in volley ball and captain ball, besides engaging in an athletic point system which runs the entire year. At the close of the year, sweaters are presented to the seven boys who make the basket ball team and letters, to the girls who reach a certain standard in the point system.

Two literary societies have been organized and each pupil must be a member of one or the other. Programs are given on special days and occasionally on Friday afternoons. The two societies take turns in preparing these programs and much interest is created by this friendly rivalry.

Taking everything into consideration the pupils of the upper three grades of the Training school have sufficient opportunity for developing special tastes and talents to enable them to rightfully call their organization a Junior High School.

SOCRATIC NOTES

The musical program last Friday evening arranged by Norma Keen was very successful. Every number was enthusiastically enjoyed.

The reading given by Evelyn Davis added much attraction to the program and showed unusual talent.

The numbers selected by the orchestra were very appropriate for the occasion, in as much as the program was musical.

Our faith in the team is unshaken. The boys are game losers and will yet win victories for us. Just wait 'till the Cape meets on our own field. The game on Armistice day will be the best game you ever saw. Have you invited the home folks to see this game?

We welcome suggestions from our subscribers. We invite helpful criticism at all times, particularly from the faculty. Of course we reserve the right to use our own best judgment with regard to the making of the paper. We are responsible, you know.

BETTER SPEECH WEEK

The week of Nov. 6 to 12 will be an important one for the English speaking people of the United States. It is a week that will be observed in every school in the nation—a week in which everybody is to watch his speech so carefully that bad English will be put to rout, never to return.

The better speech movement was started in February, 1915, by the National Council of Teachers of English" for the purpose of interesting Americans in "conserving our melodious English tongue and improving our national speech manners." This National Council has had associated with it a list of a hundred seventy persons representing prominent teachers, school superintendents, heads of business colleges, actors, teachers of dramatics, singers, physicians, lecturers, editors and writers. Speech week is a concentrated effort toward rousing public sentiment to the need and the possibility of improving the speaking voice and raising the standard of speech usage in daily life. This Better-Speech Movement affords us an opportunity to bring into the daily routine of school life the freshness of vision which comes to him who knows the joy, however brief it may be, of adequate self expression.

Elaborate plans are now being made by the English department in the Normal to observe Better-Speech Week in all the English classes. Minute Men will be chosen from the Rhetoric classes to give talks in chapel each day of the week. A play, "Bad English is Court Martialed" will be presented Thursday morning in chapel. The cast for the play will be made up of the pupils from Miss Bowyer's and Miss Trovillio's Grammar and English I. classes.

The English students have taken great interest and shown much enthusiasm in the Better-Speech drive, each pledging himself a committee of one to see that the eleventh commandment, "Thou Shalt Not Murder Thy Mother Tongue" is not broken.

NORMAL LOSES

er touchdown was made in this quarter, also, when after another long end run, this time around left end, Sayre, Miller and Laundenburg went over for another six points, made seven by Farris. Score 20-0.

In the fourth quarter the Normal defensive tightened down and in one case, held the Purple for four downs when only three yards away from the goal line. Early in the fourth quarter the Maroons, carrying the ball, came close to making a touchdown. Entsminger caught a thirty-yard pass from Hamilton, and added ten to it before being stopped. However, close to the goal line, Ham fumbled, and lost the ball, and with it the hopes for a touchdown.

The work of Gardner at center and Entsminger at end, was commendable. Lennard Lee, playing his first game at the half-back position, played a steady game, but was considerably handicapped by his lack of weight, as compared with the heavy McKendree line. In the second period Myers, right end, broke through for a beautiful tackle, spilling Sayers for a five-yard loss. Fischel, at tackle, played a steady game. Merritt Allen replaced Myers in the third period, Myers suffering from a fractured wrist.

Hard luck is still right on our trail. Gardner, center, is suffering from a swollen knee, and is probably out of the game for two weeks or so. Myers, injured also in the McKendree game, is carrying his left hand in a sling, and may be out for all season. Carson is still troubled with a painful ankle.

This will throw probably four first-string men out for the Cape Girardeau game October 27th. However S. I. N. U. spirit is not easily discouraged, and although we are in a run of hard luck, things cannot remain that way for very long. The Cape has a strong team this year, playing St. Louis U. near the first of the season for the small end of a 6-0 score.

The council this year is composed of fourteen members, two more than last year. This is the first year that there have been enough senior college students in school to warrant giving them representation on the council.

The members of the council are:—1st year, Berthal Middleton, Imo Roberts; 2nd year, Melvin Lockard, Velma Turner; 3rd year, Guy Featherly, Zella Bryant; 4th year, Paul Travelstead, Emma Snook; 5th year, Corem Waller, Mary Hardy; 6th year, Deneen Watson, Audrey Ross; Senior College, Charles Sattgast, Theresa Bunting.

The officers are:—President, Deneen Watson; Vice-president, Audrey Ross; Secretary, Corem Waller; Assistant Secretary, Mary Hardy.

The faculty committee in charge of student government is:—Chairman, Mr. Warren; Members, Misses Trovillion, Bowyer and Baldwin and Mr. McAndrew.

HOME COMING ARMISTICE DAY

Plans are going forward for the first Home Coming to be held by the Egyptian Normal. It is intended to come now on to make these celebrations an annual affair. For years other schools have held them and it has been found to be one of the best means of reviving interest of former students in the well-being of their Alma Mater. Particularly in a Normal school the students come in for short time and then go on to some other institution to get higher work and forget all about the school that gave them their start on the roadward.

The idea this year is to get all the students who have been here before to come back and renew the old acquaintances where they were left off last year or where they were left off years ago. One can never forget the associations formed while in school—the friendships formed and the good times had. When we forget those things we have passed beyond the time when life means anything to us. It is all right to make plans, to succeed in business or a profession—but the things that must be green in one's mind are the early joys and happiness—all indelibly written on our minds before the real cares and troubles of the work-a-day world have crowded in upon us. It is to renew the old handclasp and to enjoy the smiles and reminiscences of terms past that we are inviting all the alumni to come back and spend Nov. 11 with us.

The program has not been entirely completed yet but enough has been done to assure all that it will be an enjoyable and profitable one. Hon. Walter W. Williams, of Benton, one of the best public speakers in Illinois, has promised to come back as an alumnus and give the address of the day. In the afternoon at 2:30 a football game with Cape Girardeau will be staged—where all the old grads will have a chance to come out and tart rooting where they left off in times past.

Write to someone who has been in school here and invite him back—or to someone who is interested in the school and tell everyone to whom you write to bring somebody along to enjoy the day.

When you write to any service man tell him to bring his uniform along and wear it. There are forty three service men registered in school and these will all be put in the uniform of the day—together with the four faculty members who are ex's. A cordial invitation is extended to all men who are in service to come out in uniform whether or not they have ever been in school. A special invitation will be sent to the local post of the American Legion.

Prologue—Tennyson's Princess (Condensed)

A large crowd had gathered on Sir Walter Vivian's lawn, one summer day for a festival. I was there from college visiting Sir Walter's son. That morning Walter had showed me the house, rich in trinkets, vases and busts, from nearly every country on the globe.

I was especially interested in the chronicle of their deceased ancestor, Sir Ralph. The book dealt with deeds of knights and also of a fair lady who dared to stand forth, with an army of her own sex, and defy an opposing king. While I was still rapt in the story of this famous woman, Walter suggested that we go to the abbey where Aunt Elizabeth, Lilia, and the rest were. We passed through a park of startling beauty, which was surrounded by gorgeous flowers; in the center bubbled a sparkling fountain.

Finally we reached the abbey, where groups were enjoying the view and sports. When I noticed the bust of Sir Ralph above their heads, I gain thought of the story of that noble woman and read a few extracts from the book. Lilia declared that many such ladies lived to-day, and that if she were a princess she would establish a female institution, in order that the nobility of women might shine forth. We decided to tell a seven-fold story—each telling his part in his turn. Lilia was to be the princess and I the rescuing prince. I started the tale.

Williams and join at once.

SUBSCRIBER'S COLUMN

DEAR EDITOR:

Mr. Bryant in teaching penmanship demands that all write at the same rate. (1, 2, 3, 4,—1, 2, 3, 4). You know what I mean. I wish you would advocate through your paper that the members of the faculty, who teach reading would use the same plan. They should drill, drill, drill, until all read with the same rate of speed.

Wednesday A. M. when I received my copy of "The Egyptian," half of the students who hung on my shoulders read slower than I. So when I had finished a page and was ready to turn they would grab at my paper and say, "Just a minute, please. I have not finished. Oh, thank you, so much." The other half read too fast, so would say, "Oh, come on, come on. You read so slow." Now can't you see the result? Some were offended because I turned too fast; some because I did not turn fast enough. I was forced to wait until I reached my room to read with any satisfaction. Had we all been taught to read at the same rate how nice and harmonious our little group would have been. Oh! such inefficiency in our English department.—A Subscriber.

I will speak to Mr. Shryock concerning the above mentioned matter. But as some time is required for the handling of such weighty matters permit me to offer a suggestion by means of which you may be able to cope with the situation for the present. You will receive your copy each Tuesday at 12:45 P. M. Lend it to your friends who are not subscribers, until the end of the eighth hour, or next morning. You have the remainder of the week to acquire the news.—Editor.

PEP! WE'VE GOT IT!

Every one that has had "Hark! from the tomb a doleful sound" for a class song, drop it! Wake up! The days of Rip Van Winkle are over and the S. I. N. U. is undergoing a marvelous resurrection. The Student Council decided that something must be done to revive the spirit of the school, and Friday morning a real pep meeting was held in the gym.

"Slats" Valentine from Marion, and Herbert Davis from Murphysboro, showed the real enthusiasm in leading yells. And say—Don't forget the band was there. Coach McAndrews made a talk which was received with applause and cheers. Ted Carson, foot-ball captain, also told us that the boys were doing their best for S. I. N. U.

Deneen Watson, President of the Student Council, was introduced, and he told us we were going to see a big change in the spirit of old S. I. N. U. Come on! Gang! Leave off those colors of black and drab, and with all the spizzzerinctum of the old rah-rah EGYPTIAN—FIVE days, come out and root at the S. I. N. U.—McKendree game.

Are we weak?
No!
Are we down-hearted?
No!
Will we win?
Yes!
Give 'em the lion's roar!
Gr-r-r-r-r!

JEFFERSON AND MARION COUNTY

The S. I. N. U. students from Jefferson and Marion Counties met at 3:00 P. M. Saturday in front of the Main building. There were twenty-nine in all. Then began the two mile hike with Warren at the head (alone?) No) and Mr. Hunt the chaperone, bringing up the rear.

When we reached the hill the girls rested while the boys scouted the woods for persimmons and returned covered with beggar-lice. A fire was built and soon the wieners were sizzling some from a thirteen-foot pole. The toasted marshmallows between wafers were delicious but—how dry we were!

Before leaving all joined in a circle and told stories. The first was interrupted by a straggler, just arriving, who was duly fed. "The Adventures of a Toad," was fatal for it broke up the party. All started for home and hung together about as well as the parts of the toad.

WIENER ROAST

The student young men's class of the Baptist church entertained the young ladies' class Saturday October 22, with a wiener roast. The young people met at the church corner at 5:30, and hiked to an old camping place for the spread. A roaring fire was soon built, and there was a scramble for sticks upon which to roast the wieners.

As the moon came up over the hill the group around the fire told graveyard stories and jokes. Mr. Lentz was awarded the cast-iron shoe-strings for telling the best (true?) story, and Ransom Sherretz the aluminum pin cushion for telling the best jokes.

SURPRISE DINNER PARTY

A surprise dinner party was given at the home Emilie Kerstine, October 27, in honor of her birthday. The dining room was tastefully decorated in orange and black, and each guest received a Hallowe'en greeting as a favor. The table was heaped with good things to eat, and the girls all wished Emilie many more happy birthdays. Those present were: Grace Eagleston, Agnes Lentz, Aline Neftzger, Bonnie Batson, Ana Huffman, Alice Barrow, Halene Street, Mary Van Sickle, Norma Keen and Emilie Kerstine.

Miss Kerstine has been a member of the S. I. N. U. orchestra for four years.

The Logan Society has had its first meeting this year. The officers elected were Abraham Brandon, President; Elizabeth Krysher, Vice-President, and Bessie Smith, Secretary. The Athenai Society has also had its first meeting and the following officers were elected: President, Hal Hall; Vice-President, Blanche Lentz; Secretary, Roberta MacCracken; Critic, Elliott Pearce; and Usher, Marvin Muckelroy. Both societies have started with a zip and hope to do fine work this year. You are all cordially invited to our programs.

THE J. H. S. GOSSIP

Junior High and the Sophies clash in the first game of the season. Refereed by Warrich Boos.

Junior High lost the first foot-ball game of the season to the Sophs after a twenty-minute conflict.

Although the "Black Cat All Stars" were no match for the big boys a tight game was played. The scoring was started by Charles Renfro All-Star forward who dropped in a goal immediately after the ball was tipped. Then Joe, Lynn and Charles opened their range guns up and although J. H. S. with fast plays and clean passing tried to stop the firing the Sophs were continually plunking the basket. The passing of Rolland B., Charles Goodall and Elliott was a feature and the guarding of Clyde and "Hank" was extremely good in comparison to their weight.

The second quarter Marvin, Bill,

"Pud" and Hal were run in to take the places of Clyde, "Hank" Rolland and Elliott. The boys put up a stiff fight in the second half and held the Sophies down to a no-score half. The line-up is as follows:

Sophs, 16	G	F	T	P
Lynn McCormack, c	1	0	0	0
Charles Renfro, f	4	0	1	2
Joe Hickey, f	3	0	0	1
