FURTHER DEVELOPMENTS ON THE FOOTBALL FIELD

Sesser Here Friday.

At the present writing the men on the football squad are working hard in preparation for the first game of the season, to be played Friday. The opening game is with Sesser on our home field. Sesser has a strong team and the prospects are very favorable for a good game. The S. I. N. U. held Sesser to a 0-0 game last year and the boys are determined that the long end of the score shall be their's at the end of this game.

Coach McAndrew has secured the valued assistance of Mr. Chas. Gauthier, who formerly played on the varsity team of the Colorado College of Mines of Golden, Colorado. Mr. Gauthier has charge of the backfield and he is drilling them in a very efficient manner.

"Mac," our coach, is handling the line. The results of good hard training is beginning to show in the line-men also. There are quite a number of good men from other schools out for the line and with the well directed efforts of "Mac" the development of a stone wall line is well under way.

Preparations are being made to put the season tickets for the games to be played at home on sale and it is hoped that the members of the school will show the proper spirit and support the fellows in their efforts. This fund is used for athletics and it is very essential that the boys have support—anyway it will be worth one's time and money to see the boys go on the field for the Good Old S. I. N. U. Let's Have Your Support.

CHORUS

Great interest is being shown in the choruses, which are to be under the direction of Mrs. Hills. A Men's Glee Club, a Girl's Glee Club, and a mixed chorus are now being formed which will rehearse from 3:30 to 4:30 in Normal Hall on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, respectively. All young men and women with an enthusiasm for work in this line are urged to join, regardless of whether they have had any former training, or not. Mrs. Hills plans big things for the year, good times and fine music of which S. I. N. U. and the community can be proud.

THE ILLINAE.

For many years there have been organizations among the boys for the purpose of training in debating and parliamentary practice, and speaking. It seemed the girls had not felt the need of proficiency in this field as strongly as the boys. But since almost every kind of work has now been opened to women, it becomes very necessary that women shall be able to fulfill their new obligations even better than the men before them. Women of any success must be able to voice her opinions if her thoughts are to be of any benefit for how much more can be accomplished by a statement convincingly stated than one poorly or not at all brought to the attention of others.

In the spring of 1921, a number of girls desirous of some degree of skill at speaking, organized "The Illinae." It is the only club of its kind in the school. It was a decided success. Last year the Illinae girls won the Silver Loving Cup in a series of debates with the other debating organizations.

Our membership is limited, however, as is always the case at the beginning of the year, the roll is not full. There are many new girls in school, some who have had training in this line before and wish more, some who are just beginning. Any girl who is willing to help and be helped, who is an active, ambitious student would be welcome in our Club. The Club meets on every Monday evening in the Association Hall and visitors are quite welcome.

S. I. N. U. HAS A "THRILL"

How would you like to be looking out of your front window and see a fire department whiz up to your home ready for action,—or—on the other hand how would you like to be in a classroom and hear the fire department rattle outside the building? Don't you suppose you, too, would visit your wardrobe books, etc., in flames? This was the plight of many S. I. N. U. girls on October . . . The whole fire department stopped right in front of Anthony Hall—but—much to the relief of the large crowd that had gathered, the fire trucks moved on to the State Farm. We all agree, I know, that we hope that all fire alarms at S. I. N. U. will have to be False Alarms.

SOCIAL SERVICE RENDERED

Those students who were not in school last summer will undoubtedly be interested in the social service work done last spring by the student body, under the leadership of the two Christian Associations, together with the co-operation of the faculty.

Miss Laura Flowers (colored), who taught during the winter and attended school in the summer, was so deformed that she was forced to use crutches all the time. The students felt it their responsibility to raise funds sufficient for putting Miss Flowers under the care of expert surgeons, where everything possible might be done to straighten the diseased muscles.

Through their generosity, she was sent to St. John's Hospital, Springfield, Illinois, and is now walking without crutches. The following letter and statement were received recently from the hospital, showing how the money you contributed, has been used for Miss Flower's benefit: Dr. J. Ha. Caldwell.

Carbondale, Ill.

Dear Doctor Caldwell:

Laura Flowers will return to Carbondale this evening. She has benefited much by her stay and it has given us all a chance to secure her interests.

She uses her braces well and is apparently contented with progress made.

With best wishes,

Very sincerely yours,

C. W. EAST.

"SOCRATIC BLOWOUT"

The call had come to all Socrats and Socratic friends to gather at 8:00 p. m. in the Gym for a "Keen Time" and to bring with them the accustomed portion of pep and spunk. At 7:30 last Thursday the clan began to arrive. New, old, "to be" members and chaperone. The entertaining committee was right there to greet everyone and start the social activities. Two hundred people were paired to start off the first game. "Finding the Greens," after which everyone felt that they knew everybody else and the real fun began.

Ed Zeiler and Ralph Warren were chosen captains of teams and some lively contests followed. The spoon race proved to be very amusing to onlookers, but the participants strided forward to win for their side. The fan contest revealed hidden facts about the person who could fan the hardest. The girls showed talented skill here.

Everyone being tired after the strenuous efforts of boosting his team was glad to listen to the following program:

Selected Belle Foster.

Jokes—Chas. Goforth.

Reading—Glen Ayre.

The girls made good use of the old proverb, "The way to a man's heart is through his stomach" and prepared a dainty and also substantial luncheon. Here everybody fell to with a will.

Many of the visitors expressed their wishes of becoming members of this red-blooded pentomistic organization. We Socrats heartily welcome these into our ranks.

After a short talk "Socratic Victory" by President Zeiler the entire body adjourned with cheers and wishes of another such meeting. The Socratic Society wishes to thank Miss Baldwin for her faithfulness as a chaperone.

SHOWER FOR MISS BROWNE

Miss Rue was hostess last Tuesday night at a party given at Anthony Hall in honor of Miss Margaret Browne. The party was in the nature of a shower for Miss Browne, who is to be married shortly to Mr. Wallace Karkaker of Jonesboro. The guests were the lady members of the faculty who presented the bride-to-be with an electric iron and several pieces of pyrex.

MISS MERLE ROBERTSON DEAD

The members of the graduating class of 1921, as well as the other fellow students and faculty, were saddened to hear of the death of one of their number, Merle Robertson. Miss Robertson came to us in the fall of 1919 from Bancroft, Illinois, and was a loyal student, weaving close friendship with all who knew her and her cheerful smile. She was employed to teach in the Tamms High School this year and they have lost a splendid example for young womanhood as well as an efficient instructor.

She returned to Carbondale this spring to attend the Commencement exercises and only a few days after returning home she was taken seriously ill. On August 13 she departed from this life leaving her many friends, including those found at the S. I. N. U.

Mr. Pritchard, director of the orchestra and band, has moved his corner class from the Museum. When interviewed by our reporter he gave as a reason for the change that he feared the fossilizing influence of the environment.

Chapter I.

THE BREACHY FORD

You have probably all seen the little Ford Coupe sitting on the campus driveway with both rear wheels locked with an enormous log chain and padlock, since it had jumped so many fences and the like last summer. Its owner decided to keep it tied. Now, didn't you feel sorry for the poor little animal, anchored with such anchors as that lock?

An odd thing happened one night when the owner took his place to society. Things went fine there, he being secretary and his name being first on the roll. At the close of society a little spin was in order. There were four ladies besides the chauffeur and just think to ride in a Ford coupe.

The girls piled into the Ford like so many chickens in a coop. Cornell proceeds to remove the log chain and clumsy lock from the rear wheels; but lo and behold the lock is stuffed full of paper and gravel. He borrows a hair pin and endeavors to extirpate the refuse from the lock. Finally, he takes a hammer, drives the key into place and then takes a wrench to turn it. Soon they start and experience a very happy and comfortable tour. Cornell says: "For the nail's sake Myrtle!"

(Chapter Two will appear in the next issue.)

SOME USEFUL "DON'TS" FOR EARLY FALL AND NEW STUDENTS

Don't forget to write to mother every day and father oftener, if necessary.

Don't accept dates for both Monday and Tuesday night's picture show the same program for both nights.

Don't forget to look interested in both Professor and subject, be ye ever so bored.

Don't knock on the town, as soon as you get used to the water you'll be crazy about it.

Don't "spite" your teachers too hard the first week. They're wise, even if they are faculty.

Don't forget that a little study now and then is relished by the best of men.

Don't condemn a girl with her short skirts too quickly, she just hasn't had the time to get out the look she put in last year—or was it two years ago?

Don't lie to the "girl you left behind" and say "But, shucks, there's not a single pretty girl in school."

Don't forget to make your date early with the pretty little blond for the first game of the season. Don't act Miles Standishly and let Johnny Alder walk off with her.

Don't turn on the weeps on the first rainy night or indulge in remorse. Jimmy took me out riding and boomed "Just think! A week ago tonight he'd give me a cue for the soft water to flow. Don't indulge, we repeat, in reminiscences."

And don't forget to subscribe for the best sch. of paper in the country.

ANNOUNCEMENT

We are sure that the old students have noted with joy our reopening of the candy counter. To you, we need only say that we appreciate your patronage, as in the past years. To the new students some information may be well. The candy counter is not a private concern but is kept by the Y. W. C. A. for the support of their organization. Because of this, it has become possible to do away with yearly dues at the regular meetings. The Association tries to keep the selling price of the candy as low as possible, clearing only a few cents on each piece. The money cleared goes for the local expenses of our Association. It helps an Industrial Worker in Japan, and quite a large part goes into the Student Friendship fund.

We are anxious to please you and will appreciate your patronage. The counter will be open before and after school, during the noon hour and after chapel.

CHANGES IN FOOTBALL RULES

The approach of the football season brings to mind the changes in the year. Football resolves itself into a mere physical struggle as viewed by many of the spectators, and they have little desire to follow the game from a scientific standpoint. However, we trust that some little explanation of the changes will prove of interest to some.

Formerly a place-kick only was allowed for goal after a touchdown. Now the side scoring is permitted to bring the ball out to any point not less than five yards from the goal line, or to any greater distance desired, and there a scrimmage is formed, with the scoring side in possession of the ball. They can make any play which is legal from an ordinary scrimmage. Should they by any of these carry the ball over or kick a field goal, they win one point. If the attempt is unsuccessful the ball is taken back for kick-off as under the old rule. As to fouls in the above play, a foul by the defenders gives their opponents the point without further play, and a foul by the offense vitiate the try for score.

In shift plays, when a man in motion has left the scrimmage line he must be at least five yards back when the ball is put in play. Also, the man who has moved from one place to another before the ball is put in play, must come to a full stop, so that when he starts again he starts from a standstill.

U. H. S. SENIOR OF '22 WINS SCHOLARSHIP

Maxwell McCormack, U. H. S. '22 and director on the Egyptian Board, is now in the Colorado College of Mines at Golden.

Each year the College gives a scholarship to a graduate of an Illinois High School. McCormack is not only the only one in Illinois to win the honor last year, but is the first University High School student to receive it.

The College of Mines at Golden is located in the heart of the mining region of that state and is considered to be the best mining school in America.

Miss Norma Keen was a visitor at Anthony Hall September 1. Miss Keen was a graduate in last year's class and is at present teaching sewing in the Herrin High School.

THE TIME ELEMENT

There never has been a man of genius who could be relied upon for sure and steady achievement who did not recognize the value of time. Napoleon once said, "Ask me for anything but time." It takes time to think, to search, to investigate, to compare, to contrast, to organize, or to invent. Time is the surest tool in the hands of genius.

There are some folks who are regular only in their irregularity. They regard it as a sign of genius to be careless as to their habits and forgetful concerning their promises. They have reduced the system of being unsystematic to a science. We should make a fight for a systematic life, because, like all good things, it is worth fighting for.

Our motto should be "a place for everything and everything in its place."

Our seconds pass like a lightning express train; their coming and going being in velvet slippers. Our hours also steal away silently, and days are gone. The golden glories of sunrise usher in the day and the crimson splendors of the sunset announce its departure. Our whole life is but one day repeated, thus we should make the best of it.

When I observe how some people spend their time I can only think what a universal slaughter. Just think of the slaughtered Sundays.

ordered Mondays, torn Tuesdays, wasted Wednesdays, tattered Thursdays, frittered Fridays, and slain Saturdays. Oh! that we as students of the S. I. N. U. could realize the value of time. Let us then apportion our time as we should and make our school life what it should be.

I am sure you realize, dear reader, that your school life cannot be complete unless you affiliate yourself with one or more of the organizations of this school. Perhaps you are in doubt as to what is best to do. If so, join the Y. M. C. A. and you cannot go wrong. Perhaps we can help you in choosing other organizations. We realize that a student's time is precious, thus we have planned our year's work with this in view. Again we urge that you will meet with us each Tuesday evening at 6:30 in Association Hall where we can solve our problems together.

THE AGORA

It is a foregone conclusion that those students who have attended this school and finished the course without having affiliated themselves with one or more of the student organizations connected with the school failed to take advantage of vast opportunities. The Agora Debating Club is one of these organizations.

No Normal student wishes to bear his life work without having some degree of skill as a debater, without a thorough training in public speaking, and without a knowledge of parliamentary practice. Such students enter the professional world under serious handicap. Begin now and get this training. The work of the Agora is divided into three parts. First, the study of a good text book in debating. Second, the actual practice in debate. Third the social side. Neither one of these three is neglected.

Those who are contemplating joining a debating club may get additional information concerning the Agora by seeing a member or by attending the regular meetings each Monday evening in the Socratic Hall.

GETTING BACK

The best part of a vacation is just the getting back. To know that it is over And you're on the homeward track.

Then to buckle down to duty With eagerness and zest. Of course, vacation has its place But your own school is the best.

There at your post of duty You grasp your own again. A student amid the students, A man among strong men.

The dragons may have their riches. There's one thing that they lack. The happiness, the rapture The joy of getting back.

Back with the old, old problems. Back with the old, old bunch. Back with the old, old vigor. Back with the old, old punch.

Back to the working and winning. Back with the old, old knock. And always this song you are singing "Gee, ain't it good to be back!"

The fire alarm sounded on Wednesday, whereupon some students rushed pellmell through a corridor to the scene. An algebra teacher rushed to the door and stopped the column by tackling a young man. Fishel thought he was on the football field.

FIRST YEAR SENIOR COLLEGE ORGANIZES

At the chapel period of Tuesday of this week the entire Senior College group gathered in their session of the balcony for organization.

We were hoping to be organized with the Seniors of the group but the sheep were separated from the goats and we were sent for separate organization.

Dilla Hall, a member of the graduating class of '22, was elected president, with John Wright, a member of the same class, as secretary and treasurer. With these officers in charge, we feel certain that our organization will be a leading one for the coming year.

When called upon to elect a member of the Egyptian staff, the class was reminded of the importance of that position and a student was elected that we know will do much to forward our school paper. Mrs. Vest Burlison was chosen for that office.

The next officer elected was a class reporter to the Egyptian.

In discussing the character of the person needed for that position some one suggested that the one who could talk the most might be a good writer. At the mere mention of that qualification Gladys Price was unanimously elected.

Ralph Warren and Helen Wilhelm were chosen as members of the student council. This body has been doing a great work up to the present time and we sent our best members for this term.

We found that our class consisted of nineteen members, two of which are members of the football squad, Hamilton Hale and Aubrey Hendy, and the rest, real live students.

CARBONDALE AT MT. CARMEL

On Saturday, September 17th, a group of former S. I. N. U. students, now teaching in Wabash county, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion C. Lappin. Those present were Catheryn Mathis, Mary Roberts and Herbert Jay of Keensburg High School, Guy Davies, of Belmont, and Mr. and Mrs. Lappin of Mt. Carmel.

The feature of this week-end gathering was a wicker roast on Saturday evening. A can of corn-beef was added to the menu for the benefit of Herbert Jay, who is an ex-marine. Marion Lappin took the prize for having the largest appetite. It surprised no one for he and Coren Waller were the champion eaters of the S. I. N. U. in '22.

After many reminiscences of Carbondale the party retired to the Lappin home where a pleasant evening was spent. Frequent week-end meetings of this kind are in prospect.

A prominent member of the faculty assisting in the president's office remarked the other day, "I am giving out grades to the degraded."

The best of good wishes for your future, Newlyweds!

The members of the student body are very sorry to hear of the illness of Othel Eaton, '22. Mr. Eaton was operated on for appendicitis last week. He is getting along very well and soon will be up again. Last year he was on the leading members of the Senior class. Mr. Eaton had to leave his school at Thompsonville where he was teaching history in the High School.

THE ART APPRECIATION CLUB

This club was organized last twenty-eight members. Judging from a union with an enrollment of the interest shown in the club, it will be much enlarged this year. The club extends a special invitation to you to join. Prospective members need only have a desire to cultivate an appreciation of great works of art.

The S. I. N. U. is one of the first Teachers' College to organize a club the object of which being the pursuit of American Architecture, Sculpture and Painting.

Miss Williams, the faculty adviser of the club, chaperoned a number of the members to the St. Louis Art Museum where they spent several hours. The Curator received them cordially, and allowed Miss Williams to explain the exhibits in the different galleries. The club hopes to repeat the trip this year.

Last year the meetings were held every other Tuesday evening at 7 p. m. at which interesting work while programs were given. An announcement will be made giving specific information as to the evening, place and time of meeting.

Friends of Ruth Hanna will be sorry to hear that she has been seriously ill. Ruth was a member of last year's Junior class and was until recently teaching at Alma. We are hoping she will have a very early recovery.

S. I. N. U. AGGIES HOLD ANNUAL FESTIVAL

Wednesday evening the gavel clashed upon the desk as Pres. John Hunsaker called the house to order. After devotional exercises Mr. Hunsaker arose, cleared his throat, cast his eyes ceilingward and said, "Members of the Agricultural Club, I have a bit of information to divulge." He looked as important as a second Looney about to issue a half dozen sacks of Bull Durham to a company of 300. (The thought just comes to me that Hunsaker is an ex-Heut.) At once 95 faces were turned in his direction and 95 persons were wondering what was to come next. They had come expecting a program which might be anything from one of Wanda Sizemore's classical piano solos to an extended discussion of Allelomorphic Pelation-ships ni Mendolism, by one of Mrs. Muckelroy's Sr. Col. Genetic students, but they were not expecting the president, as he solemnly rubbed his hands, to announce "I have a bit of information to divulge." However, the information must not have been of a very sad nature for there was a thundering applause, then the doors burst open and boys and girls literally poured from Zetetic Hall onto the Campus.

About ten minutes later a big, jolly moon smiled down upon the green between the barn and milk-house on the school farm. And what a sight! No wonder he smiled, for there on two rudely constructed but capacious tables lay some sixty-odd large, fine juicy melons cut in quarters. And at no great distance from these tables stood Mr. and Mrs. Muckelroy and something over 100 Agg. students. (All watermelon lovers.) Then Mr. Muckelroy raised his hands as he gave the command: "Ladies first, fall in." Then yum! yum! (Time out. It's too good to talk about.)

Some half or three-quarters of an hour later (can be sure of the short time.) Mr. Muckelroy tugged at his vest, adjusted his belt and turned his Studebaker-Six homeward. He complained of acute indigestion. John Hunsaker clambered slowly into the seat of his flivver and between gasps assured all that the Agg. Club would give another one next year, "If we lived and the melons do well."

Over by the milk house Ralph Warren slowly arose to his feet and with the sweet juice still running from his chin to his already soaked shirt front, he smiled at the nice, friendly moon and said, "Old Chap, next year we'll wear our bathing suit, won't we?"

G. A. A.

All right, girls, let's go!

Have you joined the Girls' Athletic Association yet? If not, then get into line and do so. Just see any of the old members as soon as possible, sign an application blank and get in with the first gang to be initiated and to ride the goat.

The purpose of the Association is to improve the health, promote interest in outdoor activities, to develop sportsmanship, to stimulate interest and to sponsor all school athletics.

A letter "N" is given to the member who is on the championship basket ball team or who earns one hundred and twenty-five points. An honor pin is given by the Association to a member who has earned two hundred and fifty points.

Will you be among the first new members this year?

PEARL WHITE.
