HOME COMING QUEEN RACE STILL CLOSE Six Candidates Are Well Bunched, Says Miss Dill

According to Miss Elizabeth Dill, the race for Homecoming Queen has shown no favorites. The votes which have been turned in so far reveal an even start and promise a close finish. One vote for one queen nominee is allowed with the purchase of each single ticket for one dollar. Two votes are admitted with the purchase of each double ticket for one dollar and fifty cents. The queen contest is over Thursday afternoon at four o'clock. Tickets may be purchased at the gate for one dollar and fifty cents, and two dollars for stage and couples respectively. These prices do not include a 10% federal tax. The winner of the contest will be crowned Homecoming Queen by Herbie Kay, leader of the famous Herbie Kay orchestra, during intermission. The maids of honor will be selected from the remaining candidates according to their ranking in the contest. The beautiful girls who have been nominated need no introduction. Their past records speak for themselves.

Mary Katherine Barry, the Anthony Hall nominee, is a sophomore from East St. Louis. Miss Barry attended the Saint Teresa Academy in East St. Louis where she held several student offices and was active in athletics. Her freshman year was spent in Fontbonne College in St. Louis, Missouri. She was secretary of Alpha Theta sorority, Delta Mu music sorority, at S. I. N. U. She lives in Anthony Hall and is a lodge to Tri Sigma social sorority. Elizabeth Graves, sophomore from Kankakee, is the nominee of the sophomore class. Miss Graves was selected president of the Student Council and most popular girl in the Kankakee High School. She was presented with the Kewanee Beauty cup. Other nominees for the summer months president are, two and ten cent store princess in the Kankakee Woolworth store, and her winter peddle in the F. S. U. office and classes of S. I. N. U.

The Sigma Sigma Sigma nominee, Mary Lawrence, is a senior at S. I. N. U. She was one of the most popular girls in Caden High School. Senior class president, valedictorian, and queen of the Mardi Gras. She has been vice-president and pledge chairman of her sorority for the past two years, and representative to the Pan Hellenic council for the three years. Miss Lawrence is active in women athletics and is a member of the W. A. A. board. Ruth Stefanoff has been nominated by both the W. A. W. and Phi Beta Kappa. Miss Stefanoff, junior from Belleville, is a physical education major, and has appeared on the S. I. N. U. stage in tap dancing routines. She was maid of honor to last year's Homecoming court and was one of the candidates in the Oberlin beauty queen contest. Betty Vick, the Delta Sigma Epsilon and Zetetic society nominee, is a senior. Miss Vick was selected maid of honor in the 1935 Homecoming election and was one of the five beauty queens in the Oberlin contest. She is vice-president and pledge chairman of her sorority. Betty is president of Zetetic society and member of the Student Council. She had an acting part in the Zetetic spring play, and has for four years been a member of Y. W. C. A.

CEMENT WORK ON STADIUM TO BEGIN THIS WEEK

Begins Actual Work Planned For Year And Half

It is coincidental but somewhat poetic that the actual work on the new football stadium should have begun this week of homecoming. The first plans for a football stadium were considered by the late president Henry Shroyck and plans were drawn up a year ago last spring. The plans called for a $40,000 structure, somewhat smaller and decidedly inferior in construction and appearance to the stadium now being erected. The death of Mr. Shroyck prevented development of the plans beyond the blueprint stage. With Mr. Pullman's inauguration things began to develop. He and Eleanor Wright of Murphysboro, Miss Wright is a member of Delta Sigma Epsilon and representative to the Pan Hellenic Council. She has for three years maintained a high scholastic average. She is secretary to Mr. Warren of the University High School.

JOE DILLINGER TO HEAD JUNIOR CLASS THIS YEAR

Dudenbostel, Simpson And McGinnis Are Officers

Joe Dillinger of Carbondale was elected president of the junior class at its meeting Tuesday morning. Dillinger, who was president of his class last year, won over Warren Gladders, Earl Thompson, and Ernest Brashear. Kathleen Dudenbostel of Campbell Hill was elected vice-president, Ruth Ellen Simpson of West Frankfort will be secretary, and William McGinnis of Carbondale will serve as treasurer. Representatives of the class on the student council will be elected later. Dr. R. L. Beyer will again be student advisor. Dillinger, as well as serving as class president last year, is a member of the band and of the Mac-Towell club. He is an outstanding student and was a member at graduation exercises last spring.

ORIGINALITY WILL BE THEME OF THREE PLAYS

Three One-Acters Will Be Presented For Homecoming REPLACE USUAL MUSICAL COMEDY Satire To Be Mystery With Cast A Secret

Instead of following the plan of the past several years of presenting original musical comedy, those on college life for the Homecoming production, the Little Theatre will offer tonight in the Shroyck Auditorium three short plays, an innovation directed by Miss Dorothy Mazana, dramatic director. The first curtain will be at eight o'clock when the initial play, "One Egg," will be enacted. Written by Robert Hughes, the plot of the farce concerns the coincidental meeting of two former college flames in a New York restaurant. The action of the play revolves around their tribulations with a dull-witted waiter, Jean Chandler and Frank Thomas, juniors, take the parts of the class-mates, while John Mayor, a freshman from DuQuoin, portrays the waiter. Plays by Robert Hughes have been submitted to five of the series of plays written by contemporary American English and Continental writers compiled by Samuel French. The second play, will be a dramatic novelty, entitled "A Marriage Proposal," this play will be an entirely stylized production, describing the play, Miss Maccus emphasized. "The stylized farce is tragic, but in no sense is it melodramatic or burlesque. Action as well as costuming, scenery, and makeup, form a definite pattern of stylization." The setting of "A Marriage Proposal" is the Russian country home of a farmer, Stepan Stepanovich Tschubukov, portrayed by Eddie Mitchell, senior and president of Little Theatre. Stepan lives his daughter, Natalya Stepanovna, married by Kate Burkholder, junior who was adjudged last year one of the two outstanding Little Theatre actresses. The other cast member is Natalya's neighbor and suitor, Ivan Vassilitch Lovov, played by Jim McDevitt, freshman from Harrisburg. "A Marriage Proposal" was written by Anton Tschekov, one of the masters of contemporary Russian literature. Of his full-length plays "The Sea-Gull" and "The Cherry Orchard" are perhaps the best known. "A Marriage Proposal" is one of his several short farces which show the lighter side of Russian peasant life. These plays reflect his keen insight into the peasant life and mind. A satire, "I'm Not Pleased" by the same author, written by George Kaufman, will conclude the program. The names of the cast will not be revealed before the performance. The setting for the play, which ridicules women's bridge-play, is the drawing-room of a modern penthouse. (Turns to page three, please)

HERBIE KAY and His ORCHESTRA COMING IN PERSON JUST AS YOU HEARD THEM ON THE AIR... SHIRLEY LLOYD S. I. N. U. HOME COMING TOMORROW NIGHT, 9-1

UNIQUE STYLE PART OF HERBIE KAY'S APPEAL

Efforts to Please Are Characteristic of Kay's Band RAPID RISE IN MUSIC WORLD Famous Career Began By Fraternity Dance A constant and interesting effort to introduce new melodies and arrangements with which to attract his listeners is characteristic of Herbie Kay's band. Kay, who brings his luscious orchestra which has been heard from coast to coast over both NBC and CBS, in the S. I. N. U. Homecoming Dance, which will be held in the gymnasium Saturday night from nine until one, made his debut before the most critical audience to be found by any entertainer. His first engagement consisted of supplying the music for a dance at his own fraternity house on the Northwestern University campus where he was a student in the school of business administration. That was had enough in itself, but when it is taken into account that his own fraternity brothers and girls, that is, the entire student body, so that they would not have to listen to his constant plunking on the band, it can readily be seen that Herbie had a rough evening on his hands. However, after obtaining the job he devoted most of his waking hours to perfecting arrangements that were secure to land favor with his companions and make them admit that they were wrong in ridiculing his musical intentions. Besides, to his attitude was changed completely when Herbie introduced many novelties. And when he woke up the next morning he was amazed to find that he was the talk of the university. After that he has in constant demand by other fraternities and societies to play for their dances and Herbie did his best to supply them with his unique dance rhythms. He met with favor at such dance and then decided that he better give up his schooling and devote all his time to music. His entire orchestra composed of classmates followed in his wake and when Herbie obtained his first professional engagement at the famous Aragon Ballroom in Chicago, their success was assured. His original touch, utilizing to the best advantage every instrument in the orchestra, met with unusual favor and the band became the talk of Chicago. Shortly afterward Herbie and his boys moved downtown to the Black. (Continued on page seven)

WELCOME, ALUMNI The Egyptian, as the official student publication, at this time extends its hearty welcome to the alumni and friends of this college who return today and tomorrow for the annual S. I. N. U. Homecoming.

In order that you may know more fully of the events scheduled for your enjoyment, the Egyptian has delayed publication until today. For the main treat of Homecoming week-end—the dance tomorrow night—the Homecoming committee has selected one of the best bands available in this section of the country.

Under the direction of Miss Dorothy Magnus, newly appointed to the English department, the Little Theatre will present three one-act plays tonight. Although different from the usual type of Homecoming dramatic productions, the experience shows promise of being a success.

Last but not least of the usual "big events" of Homecoming week is the McKendree-Southern football game Saturday afternoon. For once, the college seems likely to have a cheering section not wholly composed of alumni.

As a last word, then, we give you Homecoming. That you may enjoy yourselves as never before is the wish of the EGYPTIAN.

BIGGER AND BETTER THAN EVER Returning alumni may be proud of their college for the improvements in many fields during the time since last Homecoming. Both in the realms of faculty and in physical equipment has the college been elevated.

In the former of these two connections, the college may well "point with pride" to the increase in doctor's degrees among its faculty members, to the advanced work being done by the older members of the faculty, to the research work and publications of the teaching force, to the attempts to improve instruction here and the greater interest and better morale of the faculty in general.

In the latter field—that of improvement of the physical features of the college—we cite the modernization and enlargement of Wheeler Library, the unification of the sciences in the Chemical building, the improvement of the facilities for classroom and laboratory work, the redecorating in the Main building.
