High School Guest Day Scheduled for Tomorrow

Guest Day, which is held annually on Southern's campus to acquaint high school students with the university, is scheduled to take place tomorrow, according to Eleanor Taft, dean of student affairs and chairman of the program.

Guest Day program invitations are extended to all Southern Illinois high schools in the surrounding area and approximately 300 juniors and seniors from these schools are expected to attend.

Dolores Hamp and Wilma Beale, co-chairmen of the Guest Day committees, have announced the day's activities.

ACTIVITIES are scheduled as follows:

2:00-3:00 Registration and Tours by Alpha Phi Omega and Girls' Gally.

3:00-4:15 Assembly Program—Men's Gym.

4:15-5:15 Open House—Student Center.

5:15-7:30 Free Time.

8:00 Football Game.

During the half time of the game Saturday night, Dr. Delyte Morris will present the welcoming address to the high school students.

3SU State Convention To Be Held at Southern

Chester Durham, state student secretary of Kentucky; Dr. Glen Yarbrough, state student secretary of Missouri and former student here, and Billie Russel, associate in the department of student work at Nashville, Tenn., will be guest speakers at the State Baptist Student Union convention to be held here at the Baptist foundation Oct. 12-14.

Warren Littleford, senior from Vandalia and state B.S.U. president, will preside at the three-day meeting which will be highlighted by a banquet Saturday, Oct. 13.

Tickets for the banquet will go on sale this week. Mildred Dean is in charge of ticket sales and she can be contacted at Johnson Hall. Tickets can also be purchased at Prof. Harral A. Hall's office at the foundation.

To Crown King Corn At All-School Dance

King Corn and his favorite queen will be crowned at the annual all-school harvest dance to be held Saturday, Oct. 13, at 7:30 p.m., sponsored by the agriculture club.

Forrest Mathis and his band will provide music for both social and square dancing. The dance will be held in the men's gym.

Tickets are now on sale for one dollar per couple or 50 cents stag.

MATHEMATICS FRATERNITY TO HOLD MEETING MONDAY

Delta Rho, honorary mathematics fraternity, will hold its first meeting of the school year Monday, Oct. 8, at 4 p.m. in room Main 314.

Committee Presents Latest Rules For University Parking

During the past four months the university parking committee has given considerable time to a study of the automobile parking problem on the campus. Various proposals have been considered, and the plan herein presented is believed by the committee members to be the most satisfactory solution at the present time, according to committee spokesman, Dean of Men I. Clark Davis.

The following regulations supercede the previously issued announcements or statements:

1. A faculty member, non-academic employee, or student who has a 1951-52 parking permit (any color) may park on any of the University owned or operated areas which are approved for parking.

2. A parking permit fee of $1 will be payable to the Bursar, who will issue the permits beginning today. The fee will cover the period from now until Sept. 1, 1952. The color of the permit given will not be significant.

3. A PARKING PERMIT will allow the driver to park his automobile in the approved areas on Monday through Friday from 6 a.m. to 5 p.m. The areas will be patrolled by University police, and automobiles parking in the areas without a permit will be given traffic tickets. From 5 p.m. to 6 a.m. on weekdays and at all times on Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, the parking spaces will be open for public parking.

4. A parking permit does not guarantee a parking space. The Parking Committee reserves the right to stop issuing parking permits when the total number issued appears to be greater than the parking facilities of the University will accommodate. This number of permits will (continued on page 2)

Psychology Board Moves To Southern

National headquarters of the American Board of Examiners in Professional Psychology is now located here at Southern as a result of appointment of Dr. Noble H. Kelley to the SIU faculty.

Dr. Kelley is newly-elected secretary-treasurer of the board. He moved the executive offices to SIU when he recently became chairman of the Southern psychology department and director of psychological services.

The Board is made up of nine members with the authority to grant diplomate awards to professional psychologists who apply to the Board. Applicants must have doctorates in psychology, five years experience, and pass written and oral examinations.

Dr. Kelley will serve as secretary-treasurer of the Board for the next five years.

Book Al Trace To Play For Homecoming Dance

Al Trace has been named as the band for the Homecoming dance, according to Jim Throgmorton, dance committee chairman.

Another feature act to be used with the band is under consideration by the committee, but no definite arrangement has been made.

Queen Nominations for Homecoming Total Ten

Ten junior and senior girls were nominated for the Homecoming Queen's Court in nominations conducted by the Student Council Tuesday. In order to be officially nominated a candidate must receive at least ten nominating votes.

Kesnar Announces First Rehearsal of Handel's 'Messiah'

Choral rehearsal begins Monday, Oct. 8, for this year's performance of Handel's "Messiah," according to Dr. Maurits Kesnar, chairman of the music department and "Messiah" director.

The practice will be held at 7:30 p.m. in Little Theatre. All interested students and faculty members who wish to sing in this event are urged to attend, said Dr. Kesnar.

THE "MESSIAH" will be presented on Sunday evening, Dec. 9, in Shryock auditorium. This year's performance will mark the sixth year it has been presented under Kesnar's direction at Southern. Leading stars of this year's event are yet to be announced.

In addition to the performance at Southern last year, the company also performed at Centralia and Harrisburg.

Critics Recommend Goodbye My Fancy

"Goodbye, My Fancy," a comedy in three acts, to be presented in Shryock auditorium Oct. 26 as the Homecoming play, has received commendable remarks from critics in the New York area.

The New York Journal-American in describing it said "There is a hit, an ardent, adult play with laughter on the surface and underneath, a fierce almost frightening cry for common sense."

"It has the sparkle and sing of a comedy hit" according to the Daily Mirror.

The New York Post added with "It is amusing, it is likeable, and it is certainly on the side of the angels."

THE PLAY, written by Fay Kamin, is the story of a liberal congresswoman who returns to her old school to be awarded an honorary degree. Since her wartime experiences in Europe, she has devoted herself to the task of acquainting people with the actual horrors of war.

She took a documentary movie with her to her old school to be shown to the fresh young graduates. The movie was considered harsh and improper by the trustees, however, so Miss Reed was left a fight on her hands.

The conflict exposes the president as a spineless and irresolute figure, instead of the upstanding and outspoken professor with whom Miss Reed thought she had been in love for so many years.

The disenchantment drives her into the arms of a wartime acquaintance who, as a Life photographer, has come to the school.

Madeline Carroll starred in the Broadway production of the play, and four Crawford played in the Girls who were nominated for Queen's Court and the number of nominating votes they received are as follows: Pat Marlow, 258; Pat Taylor, 243; Gwen Neely, 237; Jane Barco, 211; Jackie Bittner, 191; LaVerne Williams, 168; Beverly Beirne, 33; Jane Hall, 30; Dot LaBash, 23, and JoAnn Eblen, 15.

Also at the nominations, four freshmen and sophomore girls were nominated for Queen's attendants. They are Nancy Rains, 232; Rosemarie Gendron, 207; Jo Rushing, 203; and Anna Mac Hayes, 184.

TWO REPLACEMENTS for the Student Council were also elected Tuesday. They were Doug Shepherd, junior replacing Bob Coover,

According to a later announcement, several of the candidates named in this story are disqualified by the Student Council because of insufficient grade averages.

with 90 votes; and Glen Bean, senior replacing Jim Parker, with 49 votes. They defeated Mike Stein, who received 58 votes; and Mimi Alecci, who received 40 votes, respectively.

Along with the Queen's Court nominations and the Student Council election, class officers for the four classes were nominated Tuesday.

Nominated for freshman class officers and the number of nominating votes they received are: President—Gib Kurtz, 68, and Harry Evers, 88. Vice-president—Carolyn Bernhard, 86; Barney Ross, 25; and J. B. Williams, 46. Secretary-treasurer—Pat Madden, 82; and Ron Kohler, 46.

SOPHOMORE CANDIDATES nominated are: President—Dallas Talley, 54; and Jerry Engel, 42. Vice-president—Jane Ross, 39; and Kenneth Braddock, 54. Secretary-treasurer—Elaine Allen, 41; and Betty Hannegan, 51.

Nominated for junior class officers are: President—Doug Shepherd, 67; and Freda Gower, 49. Vice-president—Jane Barco, 58; and Loretta Bolen, 42. Secretary-treasurer—Joanna Beggs, 52; and Ruth Henderson, 42.

Senior officer candidates are: President—George Gabor, 36; and Art Menendez, 33. Vice-president—Jane Hall, 35; and Dolores Hamp, 31. Secretary-treasurer—Wilma Dummeier, 36; and Virginia Miller, 31.

Elections for Queen's Court and attendants and for class officers will be conducted by the Student Council Thursday, Oct. 18.

An Annual Event

It happens every year. At the last minute, Southern is always trying to find a band for Homecoming when most of the big name bands have already been booked for weeks and even months in advance. And this year, as usual, with about 27 more days till Homecoming, negotiations for a band are just being completed.

IT'S NOT THAT ONE of the less well-known bands wouldn't be just as good, as far as brand and style of music is concerned. But, we think that Homecoming, as the biggest drawing card for alumni, and the one event of the year that almost all students attend, deserves special consideration. For instance, Eastern is having Harry James for Homecoming. Surely for this one occasion, we could begin plans for the dance early enough to assure booking a top band for it.

We don't know where the fault lies—whether with the Homecoming chairman for not appointing his dance committee early enough, or with the dance committee chairman for not getting organized sooner.

We understand that since Al Trace's band has been booked for less money than usual, the hiring of an additional act is being considered. Why couldn't there have been more money and more time spent for just one good band?

IT MIGHT HELP if the Homecoming chairman elections were held the first or second week of spring term instead of the eleventh week. This would allow more time for selection of the band and committee chairmen. Besides, having the election the eleventh week is almost as bad as having it fall term, as it was formerly, unless the chairman does a lot of work in the summer.

Another suggestion would be to find out early in spring term several bands' open dates for the general period in which Homecoming is usually scheduled. Then the Student Council could decide on a date, with the open dates of the various bands as a guide.—V. M.

Co-Operation

Center Asks For Student Workers

"I believe the students should play an important role in directing and running their Student Center." These were the words of Miss Marilee Strang, graduate assistant in charge of the Center.

According to Miss Strang, a four-person staff is now directing the activities, and many more people are needed to help with various jobs and on various committees. She stated that positions on art, refreshment, poster, mixer, and other committees are open and urged students to sign up for them at the main desk in the Student Center.

"IF THE POSITIONS on the committees are filled," she said, "such things as parties after football and basketball games can be easily arranged." She added that all Student Center workers will be co-ordinated under a central steering committee.

In other Student Center announcements all SIU guys and gals are reminded that the rooms in the Center can be used at any time for club meetings or parties. Already the Homecoming committee, the chess club, and the Social Senate hold regular meetings there. Reservations should be made in advance.

Students from Southern Illinois high schools and SIU attended an all-school dance last Friday night in the men's gym. The dance, held in honor of Southern Illinois High School Press association delegates, had decorations in keeping with the press conference. Tommy Lawson and his band furnished music for the occasion.

University Library To Begin Loaning From New Record Collection Monday

On Monday morning, Oct. 8, a new service to the students and the faculty of Southern Illinois University will be initiated at the University Library. Record collections, from which records may be borrowed in the same manner as books, have been established in many libraries. Last year it was decided to add such a collection to the SIU library. Now records are available for loan at the circulation desk of the university library.

When funds for the purchase of a record collection are limited, it is especially important that the records selected be the best. Dr. Maurits Kesnar, chairman of the music department, contributed his knowledge and time to help make the collection the best the funds permitted. Not only did he indicate the composers and titles, but also carefully selected the outstanding recordings from the viewpoint of quality of recording as well as the best artists as performers.

THE COLLECTION comprises records, including the three "B's"—Bach, Beethoven, and Brahms, as well as many of the other masters. Handel, Mozart, Mendelssohn, Liszt, Haydn, Greig, and Tchaikowsky are among the older composers included. Hindemith, Bartok, Debussy, Richard Strauss, Ravel, Prokofieff, Vaughn Williams, and Kurt Weill bring the list of composers to our own time.

To people even casually acquainted with the works of such composers as these, the representativeness of the collection is apparent not only chronologically, but also for the variation in types of music. Such combinations as Toscanini conducting the N.B.C. Symphony, Koussevitzky with the Boston Symphony, Jochum with the Amsterdam Orchestra, and Ormandy with the Philadelphia Orchestra are indicative of the quality of performance.

Only the new 33 1/3 RPM, long-playing records have been purchased for this collection. While this choice limits the loans to people who have record players of recent date capable of playing 33 1/3 RPM, there are obvious advantages in the long-playing records. Three records are sufficient to record all of Puccini's opera, "Madame Butterfly." The discs are light in weight and practically unbreakable.

AT PRESENT, due to lack of personnel and funds, circulation of the records is possible only under certain restrictions. No access to the record collection itself can be granted. A printed pamphlet-type catalog in which the titles included in the collection are underlined, is available for faculty and student use in the Card Catalog area near the Circulation Division.

The manufacturer's number, such as ML-4317, constitutes the "call number." A regular call card using this number must be prepared for each recording. Assistants at the desk will bring the records to the circulation desk in response to requests from borrowers.

Since the collection is small, a limit of 4 records per person must be imposed to insure more adequate service to everyone. Only when the four records are returned may additional records be borrowed. Loans are limited to one week with a fine of ten cents per day for each record.

Anthony Hall Claims Two Foreign Students

by Marie Ranchino

Hands from halfway across the world met in friendship this fall as Israel's Hava Bonne greeted her new Anthony Hall roommate, Francoise Hugonneau-Beaufet of France. "Eve" and "Frances," as they are known at the Hall, are scholarship students from abroad, both here on Southern's campus for a one-year study period.

Before coming to Southern Illinois University, Hava was a student at the University of Jerusalem where she received an M. A. degree. Upon completion of her Master's degree in clinical psychology here, she plans to return to her homeland for work in a child guidance center.

HAVA, a vivacious girl with twinkling blue eyes and a merry laugh, is much interested in our American customs and way of life. She is particularly fascinated by our slang expressions. "This," she said, in amused exasperation, "I cannot understand."

Attending Southern on a scholarship granted through the Institute of International Education, Hava was one of 15 students chosen from a field of 1500 applicants.

"Last year," she smiled, "I spent most of my time filling out applications and various forms in order to get here. When I finally arrived, I thought this was all over—"

FRANCOISE Hugonneau-Beaufet transferred to Southern from the University of Lille, France. Before that, she spent several years in England, attending the University of Bristol and later, teaching in a grammar school in Southampton.

Frances, an attractive dark haired girl, is working on a major in English while also serving as an instructor in French conversation.

Coming from a large industrial city, Frances finds the quiet town of Carbondale very pleasant.

Laughingly, she compared our American drug stores to the side walk cafes of France. "These coffee-cup conversation meetings I find most enjoyable," she said.

Cross Country Crew Faces Eastern Today

Coach Lelapd (Doc) Lingle's cross country team will open its season today when they travel to Charleston for a dual meet against Eastern Illinois.

After today's meet, six more remain on the schedule for this season. The Normal Redbirds will be guests of the Salukis Oct. 13. After traveling to Western Oct. 20, the Southern team will return home for a duel against Eastern; the last competition before the I.I. A. C. meet Nov. 10. The season

Salukis Face Huskies In Third IAC Scrap

by Sherman Doolen

Coach Bill Waller plans to reshuffle his starting lineup when Southern Illinois University meets a tough Northern Illinois State team here tomorrow night. Game time is 8 p.m.

will end with the State Meet at Eastern Nov. 17.

In addition to the above schedule, Lingle also has tentative plans to participate in the Loyola Invitational to be held Nov. 3.

Waller announced he probably will start Lloyd Dunn, freshman from Jerseyville, at right tackle and Phil Bruno, junior from Chicago, at right guard. They will replace Jim Buckler, Wood River, and Junior Funderburk, Pana.

Southern will be seeking its first win of the season after suffering two defeats. The Salukis lost 34-13 to Central Michigan and 20-0 to Illinois State Normal. Both were IAC games.

Northern has won both of its games. The Huskies beat Whitewater (Wisc.) Teachers, 20-7 and last week thumped Eastern Illinois State 21-7.

Chief threat to Southern will be Northern's quarterback, Bob Heimerdinger, the nation's number one ground gainer last season, who is expected to keep Southern's pass defenders hopping. In the second quarter of Northern's game against Eastern, Heimerdinger directed 24 plays, 23 of which were passes.

Starting offensive lineup for Southern probably will be LE—Leo Wilson, Blue Island; LT—Don Ryan, Pana; LG—Lou Bobka, Harrisburg; C—Tim Bowers, Murphysboro; RG—Phil Bruno, Chicago; RT—Lloyd Dunn, Jerseyville; RE—Bill Wangelin, E. St. Louis; QB—Herb Cummins, Harrisburg; LH—John Vanderpluyum, Harrisburg; RH—Reid Martin, Hoopeston; FB—Bob Ems, Fisher.

Probable defensive lineup: LE—Don Ledbetter, Murphysboro; LT—Dunn; LG—Cliff Johnson, Cairo; C—Cummins; RG—Alden Ray, Centralia; RT—Bobka; RE—Bruno; QB—Gene Ernest, Johnston City; LH—Joe Dulaney, Flora; RH—Wilson; FB—Bob Kendrick, Johnston City.

Northern Huskies Look For Victory Tomorrow and 1st Place

To the innocent bystander, it may seem that football has gone to the dogs when the Northern Huskies and Southern Salukis come face to face (or tail to tail, depending upon which end is employed). But one quick run-down of the Northern Huskies will assure anyone that the Huskies are not to be sneezed (or barked) at.

The statistics from the two games played, a 20-7 victory over Whitewater and a 21-7 triumph from Eastern, show that the Northern offense is everything a good offense should be.

In the rushing department, a freshman halfback name of Billy Graham has averaged 9.6 yards per try. Jack Phelan, senior fullback, is second with 6.4 yards per carry. Phelan was out of practice all this week because of a leg injury, though, and may be out of action tomorrow. If he is, the fullback duties will be shared by Ed Bauer, a sophomore who averaged 7.8 yards against Eastern, and Buzz Petski, who averaged 6.3 yards every time he toted the ball in his first action in college. With guys like that, who stays out to keep the bench warm?

Then there's the passing statistics. Even though Heimerdinger spelled backwards is Regnidremieh, he was still tops in passing among the nation's small schools last year. Not only that, but he kicks, too. Why, he even averages 40.2 yards per punt while doing it!

As a team, the Huskies average for rushing is 5.29 yards per play. They've completed 21 passes out of 56 for 386 yards, and have out-totaled their opponents in total offense 725 to 465.

But let's not get discouraged yet. Northern is confident of a victory and undisputed possession of first place in the I.I.A.C. Aesop once told a fable of a dog (maybe it was a Huskie) who was carrying a bone in his mouth. As he was passing over a bridge, he looked down into the water and saw his own reflection. The bone in the watery reflection enticed him, and he opened his choppers wide to scoop it up. When he clamped his snout shut, all he got was a mouth-full of water. Anyway, it makes good copy, as they say in the editor's office.

Picture of last year's champion cross country team. This season's team, captained by Carbondale Senior Phil Coleman, opens its schedule with a meet against Eastern Illinois at Charleston today.

Dr. Bradshaw To Speak At County Health Meet

Dr. R. W. Bradshaw, director of the Southern Illinois University health service, will give the keynote address at a meeting of Southern Illinois county health departments, Oct. 13. Discussing the benefits accruing from county health departments, Dr. Bradshaw expects to enhance the purpose of the meeting—stimulating interest in establishing county health services in the Southern Illinois counties now without such facilities.
