INITIAL SPRING CARNIVAL PROVES HUGE SUCCESS

Southern Host For Science Field Day Here Tomorrow; Over 250 Students Expected

Some 250 to 300 high school science students are expected to attend a Science Field Day meet here tomorrow, April 19, Dr. Walter B. Welch, chairman of the botany department, announced.

This meet, which will begin at 8 a. m. and last until 1:30 p. m., is being sponsored jointly by Southern and the Illinois Junior Academy of Science.

Fourteen schools, including Alton, Carmi, Creal Springs, Collinsville, Chester Junior High, Chester elementary, Chester high, Anna, Golconda, Herrin, Du Quoin, 30wardsville, Mt. Vernon, and Carbondale University high, have sent word that they will have exhibits.

Brookport, Ava, Murphysboro, and Carbondale Community have stated that they will send representatives but will have no exhibits.

Some of the exhibits which are being entered are as follows: Fossils of the ages, military model, telephone systems, oil products, cell and static machine, conchology, herbaria of plants and trees, insects, model motor.

Those from here who are going are: leather demonstrations, topisms, mirrors as applied to the telescope, and a display of eyeglasses.

These exhibits will be judged on scientific worth, originality, accuracy of information, effective demonstration, workmanship, and efficiency. Certificates of first, second and third awards and for outstanding merit will be given.

University students are invited to attend the lecture in the auditorium at 2 p. m. which will be given by Dr. A. J. Carlson, professor emeritus of physiology, at the University of Chicago.

Dr. Carlson's lecture will be broadcast over WCIL at 2 p. m. on "The Man on the Street," a new program over WCIL will devote its program Saturday to interviewing the visiting students.

Gorin Concert Proves One of Season's Finest Performances

The final Community Concert, presented by Igor Gorin on April 27th, will be remembered as one of the most brilliant of many seasons. Mr. Gorin's bright, high aritone voice, full and vibrant, thrilled veteran and novice concert listeners alike. Had he been a poor singer, Gorin's stage personality, especially as displayed in a smile when two small girls seated themselves on the stage, would have won the audience.

The most brilliant group of the entire concert was the last, a group of Russian songs in which he vigorous, rollicking style of Gorin was best displayed. The amusing "To a Little Star" by Tchaikovsky was filled with suppressed emotion. In contrast, "The 'olga Legend'" by Alexandrov was all voiced and filled with vitality. Mr. Gorin played the clown in the cleverly done Ukrainian folksong, "Burlak" (The Clunker).

Igor Gorin is most spectacular works that require great interpretive powers and excellent breath control. Both qualities were admirably displayed in the aria "Vision fugitive" from Herodiade.

Announce Program For Supervisors Meeting Next Week

The thirty-first annual meeting of the Illinois Association of Supervisors and Directors of Instruction will be held on Southern's campus on April 25 and 26, according to Miss Mary Entsminger, Allyn fifth grade teacher, and state representative to the national association.

The program, centered around the general theme of "The Supervisor's Role in the State," includes: 9:30—Registration; 9:45—Welcome, Chester E. Lay; 10:00—Selections by the Allyn Sixth Grade Chorus, directed by Mrs. Helen Mattingly.

10:15—Report on Progress of the "Handbook on Curriculum Development," by Dr. B. L. Smith, Superintendent of Schools, Oak Park, Illinois.

10:45—Address: "Foundations of Good Adjustment," by Miss Ethel Kavin, Guidance Counselor, Glenwood, Illinois.

11:45—Announcements; 12:00—Luncheon, Roberts Hotel.

1:30—University Faculty Trio, Mrs. Helen Mattingly, piano; Dr. Eileen Barry, Cello; and Dr. Mauritz Kesar, Violin.

2:00—Address, "The Function of the Supervisor," by Dr. Eral L. Miner, Superintendent of Schools, Glenwood, Illinois.

3:00—"Ideas Exchange," includes recent significant professional books and articles, improvement of county institute, recruitment of teachers, and curriculum problems being attacked.

3:45—Visit to college museum and campus in general; 4:00—Dinner, Giant City Lodge; Mr. Orrin Thompson, presiding.

The Saturday morning session will be held at the Giant City Lodge, with the following program: 9:00—"The Place of the Supervisor's Association in Illinois," by Dr. Edwin Reeder, University of Illinois.

9:45—Report of the Committee on Long Term Future and Program of the Association, Dr. C. M. Chase; 10:15—Business.

Friday evening, the group will be entertained by the Modern Dance Group, directed by Miss Jean Stehr, instructor in the Physical Education department; Concert Trio directed by Harold Hines; Hand Director of S.N.U.C.; and Games and Folk Dancing, led by David McIntosh, Music Department, S.N.U.C.

Richard Kinder, junior from Jonesboro, is the newly elected Royal Duke of Southern Knights. The election of officers took place at the regular weekly meeting of the organization last Monday evening.

Other officers elected are Dale Kittle, sophomore from Wayne City, who was elected Royal Earl; Fred Hager, sophomore from Fairfield, who was elected Royal Scribe; and Carlos Pleshe, freshman from Buckner, who was elected Keeper of the Purse.

Freshmen See Kansas City Tournament Pictures At Meeting

Pictures of the basketball tournament at Kansas City last year were shown while Coach Martin gave a speech at the freshmen class meeting held in the Student Auditorium last Thursday afternoon.

Roberta Wheeler of Collinsville opened the meeting by playing a few numbers on the piano.

After the pictures, the class held their business meeting and went on record as endorsing the 25-cent minimum appropriation proposal of the state legislature. The class officers, Eileen Waters, and Jack St. Louis, and Alvin Rex Brown of Carbondale, were present.

Elizabeth Deane of Carbondale, secretary, was elected to be the Governor. Given a kind approval of the bill.

E. E. Fries from Wayne County, Bert Bland of Chicago, and Ethel Sticks of Shawtohan were appointed to be the lay and the student organization, at Bond, with the Johnsons, The Normans, and The Maron when the students do so.

The subject of how to get on the campus was discussed.

The class asked the student council to have an all-school vote on the question of raising the student activity fee.

After deciding to give an all-school dance in the next future, the meeting was dismissed.

Sprankel Awarded Assistantship

Charlene Sprankel, senior from Waterloo, has accepted an assistantship in mathematics at the University of Illinois for next year. Under the assistantship Miss Sprankel will teach two classes and be able to do up to two-thirds time graduate work. The stipend is $1100. Three other graduates of Southern are now students in the mathematics department of Illinois one of whom is completing his doctor's degree this year.

Winner of the Gladys Neely Scholarship Award last year, Miss Sprankel has been named to the honor. She has been a member of the College Band and is secretary of Kappa Delta Psi.

She has served as secretary of the department of real estate, and as secretary of the student body. Other members of the club who have this post are: Gail M. W. A. Student Chapter, Foundation, and the Honorary Gamma Eta.

Dischoff Gets Graduate Fellowship at Syracuse

Leiford J. Dischoff, graduate student at Southern and former member of the faculty working as a vocational adviser at the veteran's guidance center, has just received notice of his appointment as graduate assistant at the psychological service center at Syracuse University.

Southern Knights Plan Dance For April 24

The Southern Knights are sponsoring an all school dance to be held in the Little Theatre, Thursday, April 24th, from 7:30 to 10:00. The dance will feature the music of Jimmy Hudson and his orchestra, the conversion of the Little Theatre to "Club Southern," and the "Pink Elephant" bar (formerly referred to as the student lounge).

He will leave for Syracuse in September where he will also work on his doctor's degree. Dischoff work and guidance will be his major and psychology his minor.

K.D.A.'s Win First In Midway Contest

Southern's spring carnival, held Saturday afternoon, April 12 in the Old Science building, and sponsored by the student council for the entertainment of the students of Southern was an even greater success than the publicity committee had anticipated.

A capacity crowd of students, alumni, and townspeople attended the carnival, which was a non-profit venture. The carnival was the first affair of its kind to be held at Southern, and it is the desire of the faculty, students, and student council that it be made an annual event.

The huge success of the carnival was due to the many organized houses and campus organizations that participated. Each house and organization was responsible for the construction, performance, and after the carnival was over, the demolishing of its particular expression. The organization were reimbursed for the expenses incurred for their act or attraction.

The K.D.A. Fraternity will be the prize for the best and most entertaining event present at the carnival. This organization presented hula shows as well as a vaudeville act during the course of the afternoon.

Princess Rudolph Reigns Over First Post-war Prom

Miss Amy Dee Rudolph of Anna was crowned Princess of Southern at the Spring Prom held Saturday night, April 12 in the new gymnasium.

Miss Rudolph is a home economics major with a minor in art, a member of Little Theatre, and a member of the Independent Student Union. During her sophomore year she attended the University of Illinois.

Those who comprising the Princess' court preside Miss Rudolph as the throne. The new court were Velma McCormick of Johnson City, first attendant, and Melba Carr of Carbondale and Lois Pierce of Royallton, second attendants.

Wearing a regal, red robe, Miss Rudolph was presented to a large crowd of students as First Princess at the Spring Prom, which was held on the campus April 25 and 26.

Parents of the children are especially urged to attend the feature to be given by Miss Ethel Kavin, Guidance Counselor for the Public Schools of Glenwood, Illinois, at Shryock Auditorium on Friday, April 25, at 2:00 p. m. The remainder of the Princess' procession was made up of Billy Chalk, crown bearer.

The Spring Prom Saturday night was the first post-war dance of its kind at Southern. The prom was sponsored by the junior class and of the graduating seniors, and it is hoped that the Spring dance will be an annual affair at Southern.

2047 STUDENTS ENROLLED IN ENGLISH CLASSES

Enrollment in the English department this term is 2047. Miss Emma Boyer, head of the department of English, announced today. As compared to that of the other college departments, it is remarkably high.

The next highest enrollment is in the Math department, with 770 students, and History, with 681 students.

Southern To Welcome High School Seniors Next Week

Southern will be host next week-end, April 25-26, to top-ranking high school seniors from Southern Illinois schools, who will be here for the University's first "Hospitality Week End."

This event is being planned to give these high school seniors—all of whom are planning to come to Southern for their college education—a "home away from home" experience. According to Raymond H. Dey, Miss Loren Drummond, and Dick Avis, executive committee in charge.

Members of Girls Rally and Southern Knights will serve as a special "hospitality committee" under the chairmanship of Art Barnhart.

It Says Here...

By Dodd

Some of the students have been griping this week because the N.E.A.'s won't refund the money on the chances that were bought and which didn't win the radio. Personally, we don't care too much, for we have purchased chances on a 1947 Oldsmobile that is to be given to the most successful of the radio in the averages, you know, and the car will have a radio in it.

We've been wondering if the University has contemplated changing some of the obsolete signs around the campus. Particularly on that part of the campus between the Allyn building and Anthony Hall should those signs be changed to read, "Keel off the onions."

Typical of the feelings that go with the usual Monday morning hangover, blues, etc., a student in botany lab, as he was peering through his microscope at those odd, face-like structures in a corn stalk, was overheard saying, "Migosh! I saw that same face in my shaving mirror this morning."

Don't know why the idea hasn't occurred to us before, but now that it has, we pass it on to you. Phone booths installed around those phones located in the corridors would be a big help. In the first place, those who must use the phones would be able to make their calls without so much outside noise. Also, the classrooms around the phones would not be disturbed by the shouting, necessary or unnecessary, by those making calls.

Now we come to the main topic of the week, Carter's. We had intended to assign one of our sub sisters* to do the story of the sale of Carter's, but it was such a sad tale that even she couldn't stand it. Exemplary of most feelings on the subject is the lament of our chief humorist, Kraatz, who sighed, "No more coke-in-a-dirty-glass-days."

Herein lies the irony of the situation. There are those who are rejoicing in our misery—and that, last clause comes close to being a definition of a sadist. This group is probably now saying, "Our prayers have been answered. Now there will be no more lewd dancing so close to the campus." This same group would probably find something uncharitable in a nude bottle of milk. To show what is meant, one of the leaders of this group recently published a book entitled Movie Morals, in which it was shown that even the titles of the movies were chosen so as to lead us astray. Some examples of the vulgar movie titles were "Froggy Ideas," "Live With Father," "Life With Father." In our opinion, it requires a lewd mind to unearth something lewd in every chance combination of words.

But back to Carter's, while we can still get in, "What are we going to do now?" seems to be the thought uppermost in the students' minds. Some think that the University would like for us to pull a Horace Greely and "Go west, young man," to the cafeteria. That would be merely a cheap imitation of "Life Plans" to spend out off hours in a bull session, etc. Now more acute than ever is the need for a student union building.

One student tried hard to find the brighter side with this note of resignation, "Stucks, the school probably would have never given credit for Cartology anyway."

All of a sudden last Wednesday evening, the recent Centralia mine disaster didn't seem quite so important anymore. It was then that we heard the news of the explosion in Texas which killed approximately 600.

Have you ever noticed the "ears" on the front page of the Egyptian? Can you imagine us trying to print four-page newspaper in such a small space? We haven't tried that yet, but every day we do try to do something just as foolish—that is to try to get an education in a physical plant that is not big enough for half our number. Did anyone say anything about a space shortage?

MISSING: Two more eggs, petrified, of the 25-yolk size. Disappeared early this week from the northeast corner of the Allyn building, immediately below the inscription, "Laid by the Alumni Association, June 3, 1908." The first of what was originally a trio was reported missing several weeks ago, and nothing has been heard of it since. There has been much speculation through the year as to where the eggs came from. Now we're wondering what happened to them. We're sure that they didn't hatch on the spot one night; but if they were to hatch, the character who made off with them will certainly get the bird.

While speaking of the bird (and not the MOM this time, either), there are a number of umpires on the National League who won't be getting so much of the same this year. Leo "The Lip" Durocher is in exile—banished from his first love (excluding, of course, his companion gun-chewing, his wife, Lorraine Day), the Brooklyn Dodgers and ORGANIZED baseball, too. Right along with him went much of the hopes that the Dodgers might have had for the pennant this year.

Bill Price - Carnival Barker

Barbour Criticizes Dropping of Foreign Language Requirement in College of Ed.

REGRESSION IS TRANSGRESSION
To the editor,
Last week the Curriculum Committee made a decision so important to the prestige of the University that I feel that students should know more about the details of the language requirement in the College of Education.

Some students, on doubt, are pleased with the decision. They think that they do not like language study or that they do not need to know a language. They answer the question, "Why do you study that?" by saying, "I don't know, it's just a requirement." This is a very common answer, but it is not a satisfactory one. It is a sign that the student is not interested in the subject and that he is only studying because he has to.

A STUDENT UNION—NOW!
Dear Editor,
After reading the article in last week's Egyptian dealing with the proposed sale of the building at the corner of which is Carter's, I have been wondering how the school will utilize the additional space that this building will provide. I am sure that the school will use it for the benefit of the students. I hope that the school will use it for the benefit of the students. I hope that the school will use it for the benefit of the students.

In a recent letter to the University of Chicago, Milton S. Eisenhower, National Policy, congratulating us on our increased emphasis on Latin-American studies, he makes the pertinent statement that the United States has become the leading nation of the world. This will need in the future even more than in the past a vast number of people experienced in foreign languages. The curriculum which is now studying in universities and colleges will have to assume the burden of cultural relations, instead of all relations, between the United States and the rest of the world. This has been shown us that we have already experienced the need pointed out by Gabriela Mistral. We need more rather than fewer people trained in foreign languages. So S.I.N.'s goes backward.

When you add to this fact that our faculty needs to become...

So the Story Goes...

CURTIS HISE and CLETIS HISE

"AND THE VOTES FLOWED LIKE WINE"—After a very spirited fight the "wets" have managed to stay in Carbondale. Throughout the campaign both sides displayed much spirit and in a battle of this type the more spirits there are, the more votes there are.

Local saloon keepers are predicting a sell-out this weekend. They think some of the "drys" intend to drown their sorrows. (This is merely a business prediction and does not necessarily reflect the views of the writers of this column.)

In an election of this type there is likely to be found some mud-slinging as well as the tossing around of beer bottles. Over at Harrisburg, which has been dry for three years, we saw evidence of this.

Potential saloon keepers banded together behind such groups as the Harrisburg Veterans Organization to oppose the dryness of "Hoze." They brought in all of the city's shortcomings and attributed them to the lack of saloons.

According to their newspaper advertisements, various Harrisburg groups now have 27 federal licenses in operation. Harrisburg is now witnessing an unprecedented crime wave, juvenile delinquency is flourishing, and the city is bankrupt.

Such misrepresentation of facts might be all right if they remained in Harrisburg, but when such groups as the Carbondale Citizens' Committee are so largely to write the news and resort to copying from the Harrisburg papers verbatim, then the publicity for Harrisburg is not too good.

We are not saying that liquor should or should not be sold; but one should not be taken in by the views of any group, which will sell their city short—all for a bottle of beer.

FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT: Last week end the people of our great nation paid a solemn but impressive tribute to the late President Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

Men and women from all walks of life, from all parts of the world, and from all races strolled by his grave at Hyde Park, New York giving to his honored remains the words of a thoughtful world.

To do this act of homage was thinking as they passed by that if only we could again obtain the leadership of Franklin Roosevelt our nation's position in world diplomacy might take a turn for the better.

Yet, some of us continue to look backward with some of the W.C.P.W.A., U.C.C.W.A., the Putnam conference, and the Atlantic Charter. But the dry is coming when the progressive and liberal leadership of Franklin Roosevelt will again be the want of the American people.

Franklin Roosevelt's principles and ideals as administered over his twelve years as President of the United States stand today as the goal of a depressed nation. This second anniversary of Mr. Roosevelt's death brings back to us the memory of his liberal administration.

POLITICAL FORECAST:—Spring has come to Egypt, but things will not be GREEN for a long time.

PASSING OF AN ERA.—When the University Administration takes over Carter's Cafe early this summer there will come to an end an era on the Southern campus. An era in which Carter's cafe has become a part of campus life. It is unfortunate that beginning the summer the students will be deprived of their only "near-campus" gathering place.

If some evidence that when "cartology" is stricken from the curriculum this summer a substitute must be found.

If Carter's Is Closed

By Rod Kraatz

The smoke, the pleasant confusion, the friendliness that is Carter's is destined to be converted to office space. Built in 1935, Carter's has become a very definite part of life at Southern. Carter's is the only place near the campus where students meet as normal, happy human beings instead of as students seated in alphabetical order, trying to convince someone that they know something about what that someone is talking about.

If Carter's is closed our lack of a Student Union building will be brought home to the students of Southern. With Carter's closed, the closest place to dance will be the Spinning Wheel which is approximately five miles away.

If Carter's is closed what assurance do we have that a similar place will be provided for the students?

If Carter's is closed the cafeteria will serve as the points of substitutes. The cafeteria has no fountain, no place to dance, and is lacking in atmosphere and location.

Does the school need office space so desperately that it is justified in closing the only social gathering spot provided exclusively for students?

Why can't some of the other property recently acquired by the school be converted to office space, leaving Carter's for that rather essential element of Southern—the students.

It Happens to the Best of People

Teas are still being shed over the announcement that Carter's will be converted into offices. Sad, indeed, students coveting their last cups of coffee, their last cokes, and their last dances at their only recreational center.

One deeply hurt freshman was heard to remark "Coming into Carter's to see Dean Hixie to get off probation won't be like getting a coke." Never before in Southern's history has one transaction affected the student body so. A certain alumni who was visiting the campus last week made this statement upon getting the word as to what was happening to the "Campus Social Center."

As if I graduated from Carter's. It is like losing my old Alma enjoys reading modern novels and listening to sports broadcasts, especially baseball. The Chicago Cubs is his favorite team and he thinks they will finish first or second in the national league in 1947.

When asked to compare the HAC champs of 1946 with the 1947 team, "Jeep" replied, "The 1946 team was a better balanced club, but the 1947 team had more showmanship. All in all the '46 team was a better ball club."

Many of us grippe about how our party aren't pressed, how our shows, and many other world shaking handicaps on our success, while "Jeep" lives by the above motto. The reader can blush at the time.

Material. He hasn't been seen since. We can say with truth that it has happened to the best of people.

The friends of Gordon Hendricks are deeply concerned about his ability to play baseball. Gordon, who is commonly known as "G. G.," seems to underestimate himself and his friends are trying to bring him out of it. They thought a little publicity would do him good.

Tuesday avert at Murphersboro, G. G.'s friend turned out by the dozens to see him win the old ball game. Well, if you think the people in Mudville were sad when Casey struck out, you should have seen some people when "G. G." in three trips to the plate, walked and knocked two to the pitcher.

Maroons-Eastern Contest Halted By Rain In Fifth Southern Trailed 7-6

Rain forced the calling of the Maroons' baseball game against Eastern at Murphysboro Tuesday before five innings had been completed. However, Athletic Director Glenn "Abe" Martin stated that efforts are being made to schedule a game for this weekend because otherwise the baseball team will remain idle until Saturday.

Fred Brenzel opened on the mound for the Maroons, but gave way to Harry "Bud" Grater at the start of the fourth inning. In his three inning chore, Brenzel allowed five hits and seven runs.

Two hits and two walks gave Eastern three runs in the second inning. In the third inning, two long doubles, a walk, and an inside the park home run by P. Land, Eastern's third baseman, brought the Eastern total to seven.

Grater shut out Eastern in the one and two-thirds innings that he worked, allowing only one single.

Until the fourth inning Southern was helpless at the hands of the Eastern hurler. Novasin, who allowed only one hit and faced only 10 men. But in the last of the fourth the Maroons bunched three hits, three hits, and two men hit by pitched balls to score runs.

Charles "Dall" Durham, Southern shortstop from West Frankfort, delivered the telling blow against Novasin, a scorching double down the left field line with the bases loaded. At that point Helgeson relieved Novasin, walked O'Brien, but fanned Smith to leave the Maroons one run short of a tie.

The game was called with two out in the first half of the fifth

CINDER-PATHERS FACE EVANSVILLE TOMORROW?

Another defeat has been handed Southern's tracksters this week by the weatherman. This same underhanded character that forced the postponement of a meet originally planned for April 8 with Cape Girardeau has again forced the meet to be put off. It was rescheduled for last Wednesday. As yet no definite date has been set, but according to the Athletic Department it will be sometime in May.

There is a meet scheduled for tomorrow with Evansville and it to be here at Southern, providing California sunshine doesn't dominate the weather.

There has been no time set for the meet with Arkansas State which was to be last Saturday and has also postponed.

Coach Leland P. "Doc" Lingle had planned to take a squad of about 25 men to Cape Wednesday and to use the contest as a means of judgment of his candidates.

Only eight lettermen have returned from last year's squad, which leaves a lot of room for newcomers.

However, the bad weather has not only forced the postponement of the meets so far this year, but has also prevented ongoing workouts to enable Coach Lingle to select his squad.

In the few times the weather has permitted outdoor workouts, good progress has been shown, but until the cindermen enter competition nothing definite can be said about the ability of the squad.

MAROON GOLFERS FACE EVANSVILLE ACES SATURDAY

By shooting a 36 par for nine holes last Monday, Oliver Shoaff of Mt. Carmel became the leading contender for the top golfer of Southern, with Ward Armstrong second with a 40.

After two weeks of practice there is still no competition from the scheduled matches with Cape Girardeau and Arkansas State at Joneboro.

Evansville Aces will be Southern's guests on Tuesday and Wednesday at the Southern State Teachers of Macon on Thursday.

Like the rest of the variety sports on the campus, baseball, tennis, and track golf is still in the hoping stage. It is not really able to tell what the men will be able to do under pressure with other teams. With Shoaff's amazing 36 par turned in for one session at the greens, Armstrong's 40, James John's 41, and John Deadyman's 43, the chances look good indeed.

If the Evansville and Western matches come off, and the Arkansas State team is taken care of, that will leave only two other teams to contend with before the all-important conference meet held at DeKalb on May 17. On April 22 at Cape Girardeau, the Maroons match, and Shurtleff College of Alton will be here the 29th of May.

12 STUDENTS TAKE PRE-ENGINEERING EXAMS

Twelve students of Southern took the pre-engineering examination given here last week, the dean of men's office announced this week.

This examination is sent out to selected schools in the United States by the graduate record office in New York. Many colleges require the scores from this test for admission and guidance purposes.

Dean Marshall S. Hickey and his assistant, Mrs. Alice Rector, were authorized to give this examination which consisted of six major divisions and took four and one-half hours.

The following students took the test: Joe J. Adams, Criverville; Harry A. Grater, Jr., Carbondale; Norman Curtis Jones, Christopher; Thomas Kerr, Johnston City; Robert Tanier, Anna; Haleigh Miller, Colip; Howard Peepie, Sumner; J. B. Flater, Murphysboro; Harry D. Sparks, Marion; Jack Tolliver, Floris; George Webb, Mt. Vernon; and Robert A. Wesselin, Pimkinville. Most of these students intend to apply for admission to engineering schools next fall.

COAL SUPPLY DWINDLES TO THREE-WEEK SUPPLY

There is a serious shortage of coal here at the University. Charles Williams of the physical plant said today. It is requested that members of the faculty and students help in the conservation of the present coal supply.

The shortage is said to be due to the mine shutdown because of the disaster of the mine at Centrolia. The coal supply has dwindled to a three weeks supply. If this shortage there has been a tremendous weather lasts. Because of tremendous reduction of steam, and Mr. Williams is asking that the diators off instead of opening the faculty help by cutting their windows of the classroom in the event that they are overheat, and the students are asked to use only the amount of hot water that is absolutely necessary in order to preserve the fuel on hand.

CARBONDALE STUDENTS RATE HIGH IN SECTIONAL LATIN CONTEST HELD HERE

Four schools were represented in the Sectional Latin Tournament on the campus Saturday, April 12. They were high schools of Harrisburg, Murphysboro, Alton, and University High.

Mrs. Evelyn Rieke, chairman of the tournament, and Assistant Professor of Foreign Language at University High, reports the following results:

There were two from Murphysboro, four from Harrisburg, three from University High, and two students from Alton who received superior ratings and are eligible to enter the state tournament at Northwestern University on May 3.
