'Miss Garbage Can' Part Of 'As You Like It' Spring Festival Theme

"Miss Garbage Can" will be the featured guest during the coming Spring Festival. "She" will be chosen from a group of smelly students chosen at a special assembly to be held Thursday morning, April 27 in Shryock auditorium.

Entrants in this novel and hard-fought campaign will ride apologetic mounts (backpacks or reasonable facsimiles) in the torchlight parade scheduled for the following night at 8:30. The SIU band will lead the weaving procession as it snakes dances its way through downtown Carbondale.

"The smelliest candidates of Them All" will prepare their wardrobe during the judging of the Miss Southern contest Friday afternoon at 1:30. The parade will come to a close Thursday during "As You Like It" the Festival.

"She" will rise early from "her dung-and-dirt cave" in order to view "her" friends at the livestock exhibit Saturday morning.

"She" will soon tire of this, and mount "her" trusty steed and venture into downtown Carbondale to participate in the parade at noon. At the end of the parade, "she" will discover that "she" has drifted back to the SIU Fairgrounds (old football field) and will there examine the galaxy of concessions on the midway, maybe even daring to ride on the merry-go-round.

"Miss Garbage Can" will then reign over the presentation of the top five selections for the Miss Southern crown.

Students To Choose University Holidays In Special Election

Students of Southern will be given an opportunity to select the holiday schedule for the coming year in an election to be held April 27. The schedule which the students choose will be into effect next year. At present Southern observes six of the twelve national holidays.

A ballot has been drawn up by Student Council which allows students to choose from four alternatives, the first of which allows for observance of all twelve holidays. The fourth alternative would give students their choice of six holidays. If the fourth alternative is chosen, students will be given a chance in a later election to choose which six holidays they wish Southern to observe.

Each student will be allowed to make three choices listing them 1-2-3 in order of his preference. In counting votes, choice 1 will receive three points, choice 2 two points, and choice 3 one point. The highest number of points will be considered the student's choice. This plan of voting will be further explained by Bud Loftus, president of Student Council, in an assembly April 27.

New Training School To Be Named Soon

Selecting a name for the new training school presently will be the first order of business. In the chief of business to be discussed at the April meeting of Southern's Board of Trustees at the board's office, 1301 S. Thompson.

Last week the faculty was asked to submit possible names for the new training school. Some of these names will be submitted to the board Monday.

The name is needed within a week for inclusion on a stone tablet inside the building. The structure is expected to be ready for occupancy by Sept. 15.

The faculty committee on the study of the Klein report (governance university procedures and policies) is expected to present a preliminary report to the board.

The board meeting will postpone most of the discussion of the report for a later meeting.

1950 Summer Bulletin Can Be Obtained From Registrar's Office

The 1950 summer bulletin is now out and is available at the registrar's office. The new 35-page bulletin contains general information concerning the university, a few pictures, requirements for graduation, and a list of courses.

Because there were several pages when it was printed, the bulletin does not contain a schedule of classes. A special class schedule will be out in about two weeks.

All proofs for the university catalog for 1950-51 have been set off, said Registrar Marjorie Shank, and the printed catalogs are expected to arrive within a few days.

U-School Senior Named All-Star

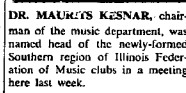

Bill Turner, a senior at University school, was placed on the state all-star cast listing Saturday for his performance in "The Tempest" at the state concert in Rock Island May 2 and 6.

All students who received first or outstanding ratings are eligible competing in the state contest in Rock Island May 2 and 6.

Those wanting to enter should fill out a short application blank at the local jeweler, and submit a picture. The contest closes May 1.

Illinois Music Federation Delegates Meet on Campus

Approximately 60 delegates attended the annual convention of the Illinois Federation of Music clubs on campus last weekend.

Most of the delegates were from northern Illinois, with Chicago, Champaign, and Elgin heavily represented.

The pre-convention program on Thursday included board meetings, and closed with a musical program arranged by the university music department. The convention opened Friday with a welcoming address by Dr. Charles D. Tenney.

After various meetings during the day, the university a cappella choir, directed by Floyd V. Wakeland, presented a concert that evening.

Election of officers and a business meeting were highlights of the Saturday program. The A.A.U.W. sponsored a tea at Anthony Hall in the afternoon, highlighted by performance of the university faculty trio, including Dr. Maurits Kesnar, Dr. Eileen Barry, and Gilbert Fischer.

Sunday, a post-convention meeting of new officers and board was held, followed by a junior counselor meeting.

This convention was sponsored by the university music department, under the chairmanship of Dr. Kesnar. Music workshops in three Southern Illinois towns were conducted this week by faculty members of the music department.

Faculty Recital Called Excellent

Excellent musicianship was displayed in the faculty recital on campus Monday, which featured soloist Robert E. Mueller and introduced the university chamber trio.

Mueller, instructor in piano at Southern, performed Schubert's "The Wanderer" with excellent interpretation. He also gave a good accounting of his composing as well as his performing abilities in his presentation of his own "Sonata No. 2 (1950)".

His composition exhibited Mueller's ability to blend somewhat modernistic chords and chord progressions into a work of beautiful technique in the intricate clarinet passages.

Cellist Eileen Barry, also a faculty member, showed her ability to draw from her instrument the full, rich tones which are so characteristic of the instrument.

Barbour, and Mrs. Julia Neely, all of the English department, and Dr. Helmut Harwig, associate professor of foreign language, and Dr. Douglas E. Lawson, dean of the College of Education.

Five Faculty Members Appear on Poetry Panel

Five Southern Illinois university faculty members appeared on a panel discussion before a poetry group at the YWCA in St. Louis Sunday afternoon.

"Convention and Revolt in Poetry" was the theme of the discussion. The panel was followed by a question session.

Serving on the panel were Dr. Robert D. Famer, Miss Frances Barbour, and Mrs. Julia Neely, all of the English department, and Dr. Helmut Harwig, associate professor of foreign language, and Dr. Douglas E. Lawson, dean of the College of Education.

WOMEN HAVE 2 O'CLOCK LEAVE FOR FESTIVAL

AAUW Scholarship To Be Given Senior Girl For Grad Work

The scholarship and loans committee of American Association of University Women has recommended establishment of an AAUW scholarship of $50 per year, the equivalent of $150 a year. This scholarship to be granted to a senior woman toward graduate work at Southern.

The award will be made on the basis of academic character, scholarship, excellence, and superior qualities of leadership.

Application for the scholarship should be made before May 1. It will be presented on Honors Day.

According to Miss Charlotte Zimmet, applications may be obtained at the office of the dean of women.

This is the first graduate scholarship to be offered to women at Southern.

Spring Play 'Mr. Dooley, Jr.' Here April 26-27

Spring play "Mr. Dooley, Jr." will be presented in Shryock auditorium April 26 at 8 p.m. and April 27 at 2 p.m. The admission will be 50 cents or the presentation of a season ticket.

The play is under sponsorship of the American Association of University Women, and is primarily for children.

The play is about two children who enter a pet shop just as a certain Miss Meany is returning.

Miss Meany insists that the owner of the shop return the money she paid for the dog. When the shop owner refuses to refund the money, she enlists the aid of a policeman, but has no success.

The owner of the pet shop allows the children to take the dog home with them. A short time later, Miss Meany goes to the home of the children and demands the return of her dog, but later agrees to sell the dog to the kids if they will pay her $30 by the next Saturday.

Increasingly Facts

The play consists mainly of the efforts of the boy and girl to raise the needed amount. When Saturday arrives the children don't have the money so Miss Meany demands her dog. All seems to be lost when the boy learns of a man who will force Miss Meany to leave the dog in the custody of the children.

The play is essentially for children, but is also of interest to adults. It is directed by Dr. Archibald McLeod, director, believes it would be equally amusing to adults.

Rolfen E. Buckman is secretary and John Douglas, the stage manager.

It's Up To You

Next Thursday Southern students will be given the privilege of selecting the all-school holidays they wish to observe in the future. In this special election, sponsored by the Student Council, the student body may decide to observe all 12 national holidays or only six as is the custom now.

If you, the voter, choose to observe 12 holidays, the extra days will have to be made up in some other way in order that Southern maintain the necessary 180 class days to be accredited. This could be done by starting a week earlier in the fall (alternate one) or by prolonging school a week in June (alternate two).

If you choose to observe only six holidays (alternate four), you will be allowed to choose which six in a later election. But whatever your choice, it will be the one that will rule the university in the future in regard to what days school will be dismissed.

Letters to Editor

Black Face Issue Brought To Close

Following are excerpts from two more letters on the subject of blackface. We believe the subject has been sufficiently presented by both sides to give everyone something to think about.

To the Editor: My name, along with others, was used to say freely in the last article of this paper. I feel I have the right to print one more article on this subject.

Other students have told many similar stories—all of them adding up to the same thing: (1) flagrant misuse of their privileges by faculty members, or (2) oversights on the part of the library staff.

So—we ask each and every faculty member to go to his bookcase now and see how many library books are there which he is not using right now. Then, please take all these extra books back to the library—they'll still be there when you need them again.

SAMPLE BALLOT VOTE FOR THREE IN ORDER OF PREFERENCE. Start school one week earlier in September and thereby obtain the 12 state holidays. End school one week later in June and thereby obtain the 12 state holidays. Cut-days from Christmas vacation to insure all legal holidays. Maintain present schedule and let student body choose the holidays desired.

Southern Exposure

Library Code Needs Changes

To comment on the need of a new library building at Southern would be superfluous. To comment on the drastic need of the library—as everywhere else on campus—for more student help would be trite.

There is a case in point of a student who saw a volume on the new book shelf several months ago, and put his name on the list for the book, as soon as it would be released.

However, somewhere along the line a faculty member—and the library won't divulge his name—decided he wanted the book, and got it. That was on February 28. At this writing, the book is still checked out to the faculty member.

There has been other instances like this, which happened a year or two ago—in one advanced literature course, a novel was assigned to a class of over 20 students. There were only four copies in the library and none in the bookstore.

Other students have told many similar stories—all of them adding up to the same thing: (1) flagrant misuse of their privileges by faculty members, or (2) oversights on the part of the library staff.

We can appreciate the occasional need of some faculty members to check books out of the library and keep them for a while. But it seems that with the book situation so acute at Southern, every effort should be made to bring students, faculty, and library into a close cooperation with one another.

So—we ask each and every faculty member to go to his bookcase now and see how many library books are there which he is not using right now.

An old clergyman owned a parrot of which he was very fond, but the bird picked up a vocabulary of cuss words from a previous owner and after a series of embarrassing episodes, decided to get rid of the bird.

A lady of his parish suggested a last-ditch remedy. "I have a female parrot," she said, "who is an absolute saint. She sits on her perch all day and does nothing but pray from morning to night. Why don't you bring your parrot over and see if her influence doesn't reform him?"

The clergyman said it was worth a trial and next night arrived with his pet under his arm. The bird took one look at the lady parrot and chirped, "Hiya, toots. How about a little love?"

"Oh, baby! Come to mamma," cried the lady parrot gleefully. "What do you think I've been praying for all these years?"

Tennis Masters Make Short Work of Aces

Coach James J. Wilkinson's tennis boys really hung on on the visiting net crew from Evansville Tuesday, when the Maroon batters slashed out a 9-0 victory over the Purple Aces in a fine display of offensive tennis. The Southerners continued their fine play from Capt. Mawdsley down the line to twin-killings in the doubles.

Mawdsley again started the ball rolling in his usual victorious manner by soundly whipping Dick Simmond, 6-0, 6-1. While Mawdsley himself was not at his best, he was good enough to finish the sets off in approximately 15 minutes. Dick Vorwald looked terrific in defeating Jim Hornuth, 6-3, 6-0, as his offensive game was at its best. Vorwald had Hornuth all over the court during the second set, and there was little doubt as to who would emerge the winner.

Bad Grader gave promise of future success with a decisive, 6-2, 6-4, defeat of Ed Thompson. Bud Barnhart too, had little trouble with Don Briscoe, as he dropped the Evansville lad, 6-4, 6-0. Jack Norman made child's play of his 6-3, 6-0 trouncing of Dick Salsbery. Norman was never in danger, and was in command throughout. Bill Whiteburn then trounced Phil Gerst, 6-2, 6-0 and the Maroons' domination in the singles division. Mawdsley and Norman easily defeated Simmond and Sakel in the doubles, and newcomers Jim Parker and Bob Wiseman also dropped their opponents, Briskow and Hornuth.

However, Evansville was not considered too tough of a foe, when compared with Normal, who will arrive here Saturday to play the second conference match of the season. The Reddies are the team to beat in the loop, and should the Maroons get by this one, they would appear as a clear path to IAC tennis domination.

Trackmen Entertain Evansville Aces Here This Afternoon

Tomorrow the cindermen of Coach Leland (Doc) Lingle will play hosts to the Purple Aces of Evansville college in McAndrew stadium.

Last year the Aces were a South crew for the local squad as both went on away with the meet by way of a 110:9-20:20 point total. Incidentally, the Southern squad captured first in every one of the events in that meet.

Not much is known of the ability of the Evansville boys this year, but if one takes the fact that Southern will have many of the veterans back for another shot at the Aces, it could mean a repeat of last year's performance. But then, sports will happen.

After their convincing win over Cape Girardeau, the track squad is in hopes of starting another dual meet dominance which was stopped at number 26 by Western.

Wilkie's Netsters Trounce Eastern

In the opening game of conference play, the Maroon tennis squad captured all but one match from their hosts, the Eastern State college Panthers last Saturday at Charleston.

Jack Mawdsley, Dick Vorwald, Bud Grater, and Bob Barnhart each chalked up singles wins in this contest. Two double matches were also won by the Maroons, as Mawdsley teamed up with Jack Norman and Vorwald was paired with Barnhart.

Results in the singles were as follows: Mawdsley romped over Morgan of Eastern, 6-2, 6-1; Vorwald won out Stuckey of Eastern, 6-1, 6-3; Norman lost to Brandt, 6-3, 6-4; Grater won in three sets from Russell, Eastern, 5-7, 6-3, 6-4; Barnhart nipped Brackets, Eastern, 6-2, 6-4.

KAHMANN With Jim Kahmann

HATS OFF!
A bunch of two-fisted, rip-roaring leather-tagers were what we saw take the field against Washington university's baseball team last Saturday. And when these same SIU athletes stroked off the field after nine innings of hard play, the Washington boys had been beaten for the first time this year, 5-0 in short, we were really impressed by the spirit and fight exhibited by the Southern boys last week-end. This important factor, coupled with the boys' apparent baseball savvy and ability, AND the fine playing of Darrell Thompson, made the Southern lads loom head and shoulders above the hilltopper. Our hat is off to them!

A NATURAL CAN'T MISS
Talking to Hank Warfield the other day, we were surely sorry to hear the likeable boy won't be able to perform for Doc Lingle's track crew this season. Since affable Hank is reputed to be a terrific middle distance man, no doubt Mr. Lingle shares our sympathy. And knowing Hank as we do, we can't help but think that he shares it too. That is to say, no one wants to succeed more than this fellow. He's got that old college try if anyone has. But it seems he has had more than his share of rotten luck this year.

A transfer from Indiana U., and thus ineligible to compete in football here this year, Hank was undoubtedly one of the best defensive ends seen here at Southern. At least he gave impressions leaning toward that decision. This must have been tough stunting on the bench, knowing sincerely that he could never get a good account of himself, were he able to play varsity ball, but he didn't give it up. He stayed out, playing on the B squad, gaining valuable experience. His coach, Jim Wilkinson will grin out a big, "Hank," were you to ask him who was one of his most valuable players this year. He looks like a natural. And we don't see how he can miss come next fall . . . and, next spring.

So we've got only this to say to Hank Warfield, "Tough luck, Hank—but stick it out. There's no substitute for the ability which is yours."

AN ADDED ATTRACTION
Those connected with Spring Festival have been acclaiming it as the biggest hit of the year, and we're glad to see the athletic department is adding a little something, too.

For on the afternoons of Friday, April 28, Coach Bill O'Brien has selected a spring football contest between the Cummins and the Garretts—alas the two squads of his spring football roster. This tilt will bring out the jabs of some 60 men who will have been practicing for over a month with the pigskin.

Looks to us like it will blend in pretty well with the surroundings. After all, not even the most elaborate of State fairs can boast of a football game as being one of the affairs in the twilight. And also for a change, it SHOULD attract a big crowd. The spring socialies should enjoy a football game being played just beyond the Midway.

Then, too, they'll be football, baseball, golf, tennis, and track all appearing in the same season—just can't beat it, brother.

Rivalry Sets In On Football Squad Big Game In View

A sense of rivalry seems to have enveloped the spring footballers since the squad was divided into two teams a week ago. Winding up each practice session, the two squads—the Garretts' and the Cummins—engage in scrimmages each evening.

The duel won't really be settled, however, until April 28 rolls around. It is on this date that a full-scale, intra-squad contest is scheduled in McAndrew Stadium. Until then, the men will be slugging it out on the practice field.

The Garretts' lineup consists of backs Bill Garrett, Bob Ems, Harold Call, and Don Cebutski; and linemen Frank Kraus, Bob Williams, Roy Swille, Reece Hoskins Homer Malone, Phil Bruno, and Nick Vercurus.

On the Cummins' roster are backs Herb Cummins, John VanderPluym, John Organ, Don Simpson, Chuck Hubbard, and Nick Camera. Linemen are: Bill Travelest, Bill Bryden, Jim Veatch, Will Malone, Lou Bobka, Art Hargus, and possibly two or three others.

The spring sessions will end with the final scrimmage in McAndrew Stadium April 28.

Full Sports Schedule Due This Weekend In Baseball, Tennis

Four Southern spring sports squads will swing into action this weekend with the baseball team taking the spotlight.

The diamond crew will travel to DeKalb on Saturday for a doubleheader with the Northern Illinois Huskies in two league contests. Other attractions on the agenda include a track meet with Evansville and the Southern team on Thursday; a golf match in St. Louis against Washington university on Saturday; and a tennis match with Illinois Normal in Carbondale on Saturday.

In their lone league start to date, the Maroon team edged last year's champ, Eastern Illinois, 7 to 6 by scoring three tallies in the last half of the ninth frame. Hence, Southern looms as a potential title threat and Saturday's double encounter will be a long one, in determining the strength of Coach Glenn (Abie) Martin's baseballers. To date, the Maroons have advanced seven wins in 10 starts.

On the cinder path, the thinculds will be after victory number two following a win over Cape Girardeau, and a loss to Western Illinois in dual meets.

Southern's tennis team owns a triumph over Eastern Illinois to go along with a defeat at the hands of Grinnell College.

On the tennis court, Coach Lynn Holder's first are still looking for their first win after losses to Illinois Normal and Western Illinois.

Girls' Volleyball In Full Swing

Monday of this week the volleyball tournament got under way—Anthony Hall I team played the Pi Kaps. Tri Sig played the Pi Kaps. Anthony Hall 2 came out victor over the scrappy Pi Kaps, and the Tri Sig easily overran Anthony Hall 2's.

There is a new team that is going to cause the Tri Sig, Pi Kaps, and Anthony Hall a lot of trouble—an independent team composed of people who do not live in an organized house. They have aggressiveness, but lack height. However, it will be interesting to see how it comes out.

Tri Sig has found strong defenses in Mary Margaret, Thaler and Phyllis Graham. We also predict that Lil (Albers) Winning, Norma Parker, and Marian Johnson of the Pi Kaps and Pepper Baldridge, Anthony Hall will bear more than a little weight on the outcome of the tournament.

Schedule for the tournament is as follows:
Monday, April 17
Anthony Hall 1 vs. Pi Kaps
Anthony Hall 2 vs. Tri Sig
Tuesday
Independents vs. Anthony Hall 2

Maroon Baseballers Down Evansville, 10-8

The SIU baseball Maroons continued their winning ways Tuesday on the Chautauqua diamond with a loose but convincing 10-8 victory over the Purple Aces of Evansville. Fred Brenzel and Ed Hargis did the pitching for the Southern men, while Art Menendez and Chuck Valier were the hitting stars.

The Maroons hopped off to an early one-run lead in the initial inning, after the Aces added two in their half of the first frame. An error, a wild pitch, a stolen base and a clean single were instrumental in the Aces' runs. Evansville added another run in the second on two hits, another wild pitch and a balk. The Maroons came back with another run in the second, and held the lead throughout the ball game.

Valier drove in three runs with a double with the bases loaded, and Art Menendez was a real ball of fire with a double and a triple in four official appearances at the bat. Valier also had a triple in his first at third base, playing his first full game there this season. The Pincinville lad pulled the Eastern game out of the fire last week-end when he struck out with two runs in the last of the ninth.

Play progressed rather slowly until the fifth inning, when the Maroons ran across six runs on five hits, two bases on balls, and an error by Henning, the Evansville third baseman. Bauer, Joe Jones, and Brenzel slapped out base hits in this stanza, and Valier, Brenzel, and Henning were tripped to left.

Brenzel needed help in the eighth from Hargis, but the latter put out the fire without further damage being done. The Evansville lads bunched seven hits in the seventh and

Valier, Thompson Star In Two Baseball Wins

Southern baseball fans saw some real clutch hitting and superb pitching over the weekend, as the Maroons downed Eastern 7-6 and Washington university 5-0. Ninth inning heroics beat the Panthers Friday, and lanky Darrell Thompson showed the St. Louis team his strikeout ball Saturday afternoon, allowing them but three hits.

Southern drew first blood in its conference game with Eastern State in the second inning by give starter Marion Moake a one-run lead. Moake held the Panthers scoreless until the fourth, when he took the lead by a two-run score. They picked up three more in the fifth, while the Maroonians could do nothing. Score at the end of five innings, 5-1, Eastern.

Two Southern runs in the sixth cut the margin down. Mill Weisbecker reached second on an error, moved to third on Moake's out, and stayed there while Campbell was being tossed out at first. Coleman walked and stole, and Whitson then obliged by throwing the ball into the weeds back of first on Bauer's dribbler.

Eastern scored a single score in the seventh to make the contest 6-4. It stayed that way until the last of the ninth when Deubock blew up.

Bauer was safe on Whitson's second strike. Elliot, pinch-hit for Schulbach and also safe. Bill Jones ran for Elliot. Then, with the bases loaded, Bud Burns walked forcing in Bauer. On the next pick, Charlie Valier, in his first appearance of the season, smacked a line drive single, and that was the game.

Washington U. Falls
Saturday's game with Washington university saw the Maroons score three runs in the first inning and hold the lead while Thompson fooled the St. Louisans at every turn.

Shmulbach and Coleman worked walks out of Pierce to open the first, and then Captain Bauer's line drive tripe to left. Bauer scored on a wild pitch.

Southern picked up single runs in the second and fourth and that constituted the scoring for the day. Three straight walks by Miller, the Washington nine could get off the lanky freshman, Darrell Thompson. He was in trouble in but on a single, the seventh and eighth frames, he managed to retire the side. Thompson struck out 12 in posting the first Maroon shutout of the year.

The Maroons travel to DeKalb this weekend to face on Northern's Huskies in a double-header. Both
