CURRICULUM CHANGES WILL GREATLY BENEFIT SOUTHERN

The curriculum changes which will be made here soon should greatly improve the standing of the college, for they will make it possible for students to do work toward degrees as registered nurses or as medical technologists here and at Washington University while they are also securing their bachelor of education degrees.

As Mr. Pulliam stated recently, "Our agriculture and rural schools departments have a joint responsibility to lead and instill the revival of rural life in this area."

Three Swing Bands Already Engaged For Mock Democratic Convention

According to Harry Tuttle, national chairman of the S. I. N. U. Democratic Convention, at least three swing bands have already been engaged to play at the convention.

Harry Thayer, head of the Pennsylvania delegation and Bob Smythe, chairman of the Illinois group have promised to have bands on the campus in the near future.

At the present time, state chairmen are busily choosing and instructing delegates. According to Fred Meyer, secretary to the national chairman, at least twelve hundred delegates will be needed to make the convention a smother success.

As a matter of fact, it is in the realm of possibility that Wisconsin's Progressive John LaFollette may perform the miraculous and get himself nominated for president by Democratic convention.

The Pedagogical Observer By BETH BRUCE. SINU Stock Soars—

Rapid ascent of Southern Illinois Normal University to a foremost position as a teacher-training institution is no longer a probability but a reality.

On the professional side, Southern attempts to provide a teacher-training curriculum based, as much as possible, on the actual needs manifest in the public schools.

Increased enrollment has necessitated expansion. Long-term planning to meet the needs of the school as to additional faculty personnel and building construction is in process.

It seems unnecessary to point out that increasing the professional prestige and recognition of Southern Illinois Normal University as an institution of higher education naturally reflects favorably on the individual status of her graduates.

Old Luck Ery had been very much occupied all by himself over in a corner near the fireplace. He was working industriously with a slab of pencil and a piece of paper.

"I don't know," replied Luck Ery, puzzled. "I ain't learned to read yet."

Sesame For Collegians

Organize Your Own Job Hunt. The National Youth Administration for Illinois has organized a bureau for hunting jobs.

First: Make a list of the things you can do. Don't leave anything out. The idea is to get to know yourself.

Second: Examine work possibilities around you. If you want to teach, use the placements agencies. Don't rely altogether on that.

Third: Let your friends know. Tell them every time you get a chance that you need a job. One of them might get interested and seek his eyes open for you.

Fifth: Apply at agencies. Be sure to keep in touch with the placement office of your school. Also keep in touch with state employment service offices, and as many other employment offices as you can visit.

Sixth: If you can't make the kind of job you want right away, take an odd job. Temporary, part-time, and seasonal jobs give you valuable experience, add to your self-confidence, and best of all often lead to permanent jobs.

Seventh: Always continue to perfect and develop your present abilities. Keep growing, keep studying, and keep learning new skills. You never know when a better job may come along.

JOHN A. LOGAN-EGYPT'S BRILLIANT SON

By FRANK HOLLOWAY.
Southern Illinois has influenced the nation in at least one respect. It contributed to the world of affairs John Alexander Logan, soldier-statesman of the highest order, who proclaimed the first Memorial Day.
Logan was born February 9, 1826, on the Logan farm east of Brownsville, old county seat of Jackson county. This location is now marked by a granite block on an intruded street in the present county seat, Murphysboro.
A leader from the first, his early life might sound like a Mark Twain yarn if it were written in all its adventurous details. Finishing a law degree at Louisville University, Logan later married, made a home and established a law office at Benton, Ill.
He enlisted in the Mexican war and, being promoted regularly by virtue of his leadership, reached the heights of gallantry and honor in 1858 when he was elected commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was twice re-elected to this position.
Logan was the "highest embodiment of the soldier who never forgot he was a citizen." He perhaps served his state and nation best as a representative, senator, and judicial committee member (then the highest representative body in the land).
One needs only to examine his life more in detail to learn that he is one of the now little known, but truly great, persons of American history, in that he was honest, courageous, and believed in democratic politics. His Carbondale speech of July 31, 1863, was eloquent in behalf

MacDOWELL CLUB RECEIVES ENTHUSIASTIC CRITICISM FROM ROSE BAMPTON AND IVOR NEWTON; HAS GAINED ENVIABLE REPUTATION UNDER DIRECTION OF DAVID MCINTOSH

David S. McIntosh

By WILLIAM GAETZ.
The work and accomplishments of the chorus, Mr. Ivor Newton, eminent American pianist, who accompanied her, exclaimed: "This is one of the few good a cappella choruses I have had the privilege of hearing."
Favorable criticism from such outstanding musicians is indeed something of which to be proud. To know that Southern's choruses can be rated among the nation's best is to know that our school is becoming more and more prominent throughout the musical circles of the country. Valuable advertising such as this will attract musical students of ability to S. I. N. U.
The growth of such an enviable reputation has been due in great part to its capable director, Mr. David S. McIntosh. During Mr. McIntosh's thirteen years in Carbondale, he has trained choruses that have been praised for their perfect blending, "without many directors dream of accomplishing in a lifetime is brought to reality each term under his supervision. At times, the MacDowell Club has been compared with the nationally famous Westminster choir.
Mr. McIntosh and the chorus have broadcast on three different occasions over a national hookup from station WGN, Nashville, Tennessee. Each time he received complimentary letters from all over the United States.
Last year was the first time the MacDowell Club was used for advertising purposes. At that time the club sang at Dr. Quinn, Benton, Christopher, and Herria.
The students of Southern can certainly be proud of their singular organization. Backed by the favorable comments of many outstanding musical leaders, the MacDowell Club can justly assist in upholding the honor of S. I. N. U.

Efforts of Dr. Thomas Barton Secure Weather Station For S. I. N. U.

By FRANK HOLLOWAY.
It all began when Dr. Thomas Barton, head of the geography department, had to call short several absent outings with Dr. Colyer, professor emeritus, former head of the geography department, S. I. N. U. Professor Colyer had for thirty years been a non-salaried cooperative weather reporter for the state, reporting maximum-minimum, temperature, rainfall, and general wind direction. But his self-imposed attendance each evening to his hobby, said Dr. Barton to thinking about his real need and value of a more adequate station.
Dr. Barton contacted Pulliam's approval. Dr. Barton contacted the chief of the U. S. Weather Bureau and received in answer a promise of a second class four period reputation station—employing the technical assistance of two young men.
"One of the problems concerning the setting up of the station was its location. Satisfying an obscurely possible well-located nearness to office, its selected site just south of Old Main.
The important function of the station besides sending six hour reports to terminal stations is the compilation of meteorological data for research. Interpretative data will then be available to the geography, botany, and zoology departments of the college, as well as Southern Illinois, serving Shawnee National Forest.

Aggies and Kappa Phi Kappa Teams Other Winners

In the inaugural of the Spring Intramural baseball season this week the NYA's and the Spirits of '75, last year's winner and runner-up, respectively, picked up where they left off last season by annexing their initial encounters of the year.

The Spirits, paced by the burbling of Veteran Gene Filiz, dropped the Appleknockers in a well played game, 4 to 1. The latter team's only organized effort was displayed by a fine brand of play in holding the Spirits' star-studded lineup to so low a score, and of the season progresses, this team should in all probability be among the top teams of the league.

In the other game on Monday afternoon the Aggies' record on the undefeated Sigma Beta Mu nine into submission, 7 to 1. Mel Paul and Harold Robertson paced the Sigma Beta club, each collecting two-out-of-three at bat for the afternoon, but as a whole, the team was unable to hit safely off the hands of Beslow, the Aggie twirler. The winners jumped on the offerings of Pitcher Joe Prychodzin early in the contest to build up the lead which they never showed signs of relinquishing.

The NYA's were led by a fine brand of play in holding the Spirit's star-studded lineup to so low a score, and of the season progresses, this team should in all probability be among the top teams of the league.

Missourians Who Boast Five M.I.A.A. Track Championships Here For Third Dual Meet

Alison, Veteran Dash Man, Leads Invasion; Cape Also Strong in Field Events

A sample of heavy competition is planned for Southern here tomorrow with the Cape Indians on the docket to take part in the Maroons' third dual track meet this season. Possessing a record of five consecutive Missouri Inter-Collegiate Athletic Association track championships, Coach E. R. Stuber will be able to entertain that early exhibition, indicative will be difficult to defeat. The meet starts at 1:00.

In turning in their annual work over Charleston last Saturday, Coach Evansville's team showed great improvement in most events. Particularly gratifying was the development of Freshman Alden Huson as a dependable middle distance runner.

Marion Ivanuck, a first year man from Royalties, sought to some degree the question of hurdles by winning the high and placing second to Bill Townes in the low. Other freshmen to show power were Herschel Miles and Norman Reams, 880 yard runners, and Norris Pecheumon, who is last conditioning into a dependable middle distance runner.

Against Cape tomorrow, Co. J. Anderson and Iolla Mitchell, the latter a newcomer, should gather a few points in the two mile event, where the Indians are usually weak, but to a far less degree this season. John Dinkov, of course, is expected to tally in the discus and javelin throws.

Headed by Clinton Allison, last year's star, the Indians have a well rounded roster. Allison, himself, as well as the other athletes, are well qualified to compete in 100 and 220 yard dashes as well as in the quarter mile. In the latter event he has already turned in 51.3 record in the discus and javelin throws.

Evansville Tennis Squad Falls Before Southerners, 5-2

Southern's tennis team won her second consecutive victory of the season last Friday afternoon as Evansville College courtmen fell before Coach Tenney's racket wielders, 5-2. The matches were played on the local courts and in the second straight week adverse weather conditions hindered play.

Bruce Church, Southern's number one man, was off to a good start and won the first set from Faith without losing a game. Faith took the second set 6-4, but Church won the match by winning the last set 6-1. Jack Cox ran into a bit of difficulty when he encountered Cape but with the assistance of a borrowed racket he won his match in three sets.

The best tennis of the afternoon was turned in by Verdie Cox, playing in the number three spot for Southern, and Chris Maglaris of the Evansville squad. Both men played topnotch tennis despite the weather and they were evenly matched. Verdie took the first set 6-3 and lost the second set by the same score. The final set was a battle all the way with each man holding his own half of the court for the first part of the match to lead 3-0. In the final game he ran the score to 40-40 but Cox rallied and took the next two points. Maglaris won the game and the match on his next service by rushing the net and killing one line out of Severus, 6-1.

In the number four and five singles matches, Southern was represented by two promising Freshmen, and one of them came through with a victory. Ralph Ligon, a Herring product, played steady and consistent tennis to defeat Evansville's Becker, 7-5. Ed Elmer, father of Elmer, physics was slow in getting his game going and lost his first set to Campbell 2-6. In the second set, Ziegler found his game but too late for victory and he lost the set 6-3.

Southern easily swept the two doubles matches without the loss of a set. The Cox brothers, Jack and Verdie, combined their ability to defeat Maglaris and Cope, 6-1. Four newcomers to Southern's tennis team, Walter "Little" Skiff, Holliday and Lee Johnson, playing surprisingly good tennis, to defeat Becker and Campbell, 6-2.

Judging from the way his men performed against Evansville, Coach Tenney will probably be able to present a formidable lineup for all matches again this year.
