Christmas Week Dance Scheduled for Tonight

Les Jackson will bring his "Band of Attraction" to Southern tonight for a concert and dance, the highlight of Christmas Week activities sponsored by the Social Senate.

The concert will be held at Shryock auditorium from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. Admission to the concert will be 50 cents per couple.

Sponsored by students and faculty, the dance will begin at 9:15 p.m. and last three hours. Taking place at the men's gymnasium, the dance will have admission fee of one dollar per couple. Women have been granted a 1 a.m. late leave.

CHAIRMANSHIP of the various dance committees are shared by one student and one faculty member and are as follows: Finance—Wyona Smith and Mrs. William Winter; decoration—Bob Patton and Dr. William Winter; concessions—Guin Neely and Dr. Robert Harper.

One of the top bands in the music business, Jackson's band, which is popular in and around St. Louis, has been recently featured at the Collinsville Park ballroom and the Hilton Hotel in Houston, Texas.

The orchestra, which plays a smooth style of dance music appealing to all groups has numerous vocal arrangements featuring Maxine, and a vocal trio.

MAXINE, FEATURED girl vocalist, is a recent addition to the orchestra after several years spent in Hollywood singing at the world famous Mocambo and Ciro's.

The musical career of the leader was well under way with a band of his own on the East coast when the war interrupted his progress. After discharge from the Marines, Jackson resumed his musical career by working with the bands of Vincent Bragalle, "the Brazilian Ambassador" and Garwood Van.

Arrangements and rehearsals for his own "Band of Attraction" were well underway by January, 1948, and since that time Jackson's rise to popularity has been rapid.

STUDENT CENTER SENDS DELEGATES TO CONFERENCE

Representatives from the Student Center personnel attended a conference for Student Union staff members in Urbana, Dec. 7-8.

Students attending were Kenneth Holmes, East St. Louis; and Paul Norris, Venice.

Eleanor Taft, dean of student affairs, and Marilee Strang, assistant in the student center, also attended the conference.

munities, and the Southern Illinois Symphony orchestra.

Robert E. Mueller was the pianist.

The performance was repeated on Monday night in the Centralia high school auditorium.

Seniors Urged to Make Orders for Class Rings

George Gabor, senior class president, today urged all prospective 1952 graduates (including summer term graduates) to place their orders for class rings.

Orders must be taken before Saturday, Dec. 15, to insure delivery in March. A delivery period of 12 weeks is required.

Class rings are on display at the Higgins Jewelry Company, 114 N. Illinois Ave. Graduates will have a choice of four styles, with a price range from $13 to $23.50.

To Elect Council Members, Festival Chairman Monday

Results of the primary election held Tuesday for nominating Student Council members and the Spring Festival chairman have been released by the Student Council.

Three persons were nominated for Spring Festival chairman who is to be elected Monday. George Gabor received 38 votes, Dallas Talty received 14, and Lowell O'Daniell received 90 in the primaries Tuesday. It is necessary to receive 10 nominating votes to be placed on the election ballot Monday. Glen Bean and Al Trtanj received less than the required number of votes. Gabor was later disqualified because of failure to meet academic requirements.

Four freshman boys received enough votes to qualify them for Monday's ticket. Louis Wilson with 16, Gib Kurtz with 35, Tim Bowers with 28, and Charles Pisoni with 15 nominating votes will be vying for the two freshman boy positions now open on the Student Council.

FRESHMAN GIRLS nominated in the primaries held Tuesday for the Student Council were Ann Gilbert with 24 votes, Jo Rushing with 30, Carolyn Bernhard with 20, and Ita Lou Bozarth with 15. Catherine McClintock received a total of eight votes which were not enough to qualify her for nomination.

Sophomores nominated two girls to fill the vacancy created by Rose Owen, who did not return to school this term. Joan Davis and Mary Ann Nauris received 17 and 16 votes respectively, which qualifies them to be placed on Monday's ballot.

The freshmen running for office Monday are to replace those appointed earlier this fall by the personnel deans.

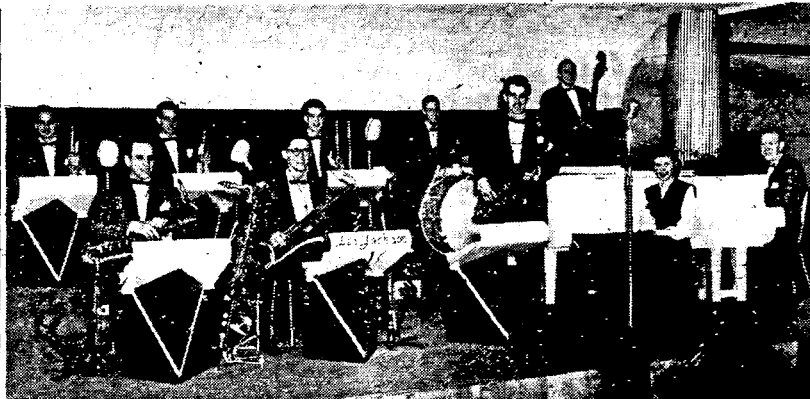

Polls will be open Monday from 8 a.m. until 4 p.m. The Spring Festival chairman and five members of the Student Council will be elected at that time. Polls will be located in the crosshalls of Old Main.

Miss Frances Bible Appears in Second Community Concert

In the second Community Concert presentation of the current season Wednesday night, Miss Frances Bible, mezzo-soprano, sang excerpts from the opera "Mignon" and selections by Schubert and Tschai-kowsky.

"Fagwell, my Forests," Tschai-kowsky; "When You're Near," Erich Wolff; Hugo Wolf's "Epi-phany;" "Men Are An Evil Lot," "Omnipotence," both by Schubert, and two arias from "Mignon," by Thomas.

Christmas Carols, Decorations, Dance Highlight Christmas Week Activities

"Deck the Halls," a party sponsored by the Student Center Steering committee, sparked the beginning of Southern's first annual Christmas Week. The party, held in the Student Center Monday night drew an estimated 100 persons. The Center was decked with holly, pine, and mistletoe.

After the decoration was complete hot spiced cider and gingerbread were served to the guests.

Impromptu music was furnished by Chuck White at the piano, and Boyd Davis on the drums.

A religious program, in keeping with the Christmas spirit, was presented Tuesday night at 7:30 in Shryock auditorium. "Dust of the Road," a play characterizing the Christmas spirit, was given. Dave Alverson, Sue Smith, and Don Fearheiley were the performers.

Verda Sill, Carbondale senior, gave a reading "The Other Wise Man." Musical selections were presented by Southern's Madrigal singers.

DONUTS, COFFEE, and milk were the main attractions at the Donut Hour held Wednesday morning at the Student Center. President and Mrs. Morris were the hosts.

In the evening, the Newman Club held a Christmas party in the Old Science Gym. Cecil Franklin, of the P. E. department, was in charge of the dancing.

Also on Wednesday evening, the second Community Concert of this season was presented as a part of Christmas Week in Shryock audiplayed three preludes by Rachmaninoff; "Stornellatrice" and "Nebbie" by Respighi; and "Après un Reve" and "Fleur jettée" by Faure.

Following intermission, Miss Bible sang "Mountains," Rashbach; "The Unforseen," Scott; "The Lemon-Colored Dodo," Mopper; "A Spirit Flower," Campbell-Tipton; and "Song of the Open," La Forge.

Arrangements by the SIU entertainment and lectures committee enabled students to be admitted free upon the presentation of activity tickets.

torium. Frances Bible was the featured performer.

THURSDAY WAS set aside for organizational parties and open houses. House decorations were judged at 5 p.m., the awards for which will be given at the Student Center on Monday night.

Faculty and students are sponsoring the dance and concert on Friday night. Les Jackson and his band are the featured artists. The concert, beginning at 7:30, will be held in Shryock auditorium.

Later a dance with Les Jackson's music will be held in the men's gym. The affair is informal, and girls may have late leave until 1 a.m.

DANCING, GAMES, music and refreshments will be the mainstays of the "Old Fashioned Christmas Party" to be held Saturday night in the Student Center from 8 to 11.

Groups of carolers will leave the Student Center at 7:30 p.m. Monday, to serenade on campus and in town. The caroling will last for two hours; then the singers are to return to the Center for hot chocolate. Women are to be granted late leave until 11:30 p.m. Presentation of the trophies for the best decorated houses will be made at this time.

The Christmas vacation recess begins Tuesday night, Dec. 18, at 10 p.m. Instruction will be resumed on Jan. 2.

Christmas Greetings

Wishing you a Merry Christmas—

For the Christmas season, more than all others, is a time of good cheer and extra kindness, a time when family ties are closer, when the spirit of giving and happiness is shared generously. It is the season when men take time to remember that Christ taught the world to recognize the individuality of man.—And a Happy New Year

For man lives on hope, and the coming of the new year is a forward-looking time, a time for gaining new confidence and faith, and for raising sights toward new and more worthwhile objectives.

May the spirit of Christmas be yours, may your hopes for the New Year be achieved, and may you share in bringing peace on earth and good will toward all men.

Delyte W. Morris,

President.

'Messiah' Attracts Overflow Crowd

Standing room wasn't even available for latecomers Sunday night when the Southern Illinois Oratorio Society presented Handel's oratorio, "The Messiah," in Shryock auditorium under the direction of Dr. Maurits Kesnar, chairman of the music department.

Kesnar said that many people stood in the aisles, along the edges of the stage and in the hall outside the auditorium, while still others had to be turned away because there just wasn't any room left.

Soloists for the performance were Miss Dorothy Krieg, soprano from Chicago, who appeared last season with the Chicago Symphony orchestra; Miss Rosamond Hirschorn, contralto, who is an instructor in the music department at Emporia State College and former soloist at New York, Portland and Seattle churches.

MALE SOLO parts were sung by Harold Bailey, bass-baritone from Chicago, who is a graduate of SIU and has made appearances on all major radio stations in the Chicago area; and Russell Horton, tenor from St. Louis, who has sung in "The Messiah" with the Tabernacle Choir in Salt Lake City and has appeared in other performances of the oratorio in the Detroit area.

Others who had a part in presenting the annual production were a 218 voice chorus, consisting of SIU students and volunteers from surrounding Southern Illinois com-

Christmas at Southern

For the first time that we know of, Southern students have been invited to participate in a number of pre-Christmas activities planned for them by the Social Senate. And for the first time since Homecoming, students and organizations have been offered the opportunity to overcome their usual apathy and take an active part in the plans.

The Senate committees have done a lot of work to produce a variety of activities to comply with various student interests. To suggest the religious connotations of the season, a religious play was presented by the speech department Tuesday night, followed by music by the Madrigal singers.

LAST NIGHT was left open for house parties and open houses that different groups might wish to give. Tonight Christmas activities will be climaxed, but not terminated, by a concert and dance, featuring Les Jackson and his band from St. Louis, Mo. The Dean of Women's office has entered the spirit of the week by offering 1 o'clock special permission for women.

The Student Center is also living up to its name by staging an old-fashioned Christmas party tomorrow night, with dancing, games, and refreshments.

Organized caroling starting from the Student Center Monday night will give the vocal talent on campus plus those who think they sound great in the bath or shower a chance to raise their voices in song. Again there is special late permission till 11:30 p.m. for women students.

ANOTHER PHASE of activities was the decoration of organized houses in competition for awards. The response was not too great on this score, and we think, of all the events scheduled, this one could have been most easily excluded, because of the expense involved and the press of other activities.

Especially praiseworthy are decorations on the campus itself, including the Christmas tree in the lobby of the auditorium and the colored lights and evergreen at various other points. We think that Bill Marberry and the physical plant staff deserve recognition for their efforts.

We think that the Social Senate, and the various campus groups have done their portion of the work involved in Christmas Week. The success of the affair rests entirely with the students, and their willingness to participate. V. M.

Conduct Child Guidance Clinic in Carmi Today

A one-day clinic is being conducted at Carmi today by Southern's Bureau of Child Guidance under the direction of Dr. W. A. Thalman, clinic director. The clinic is being planned at the request of public school administrators.

Cases to be studied were referred to the clinic by school administrators, teachers, parents, social workers and physicians.

Child behavior maladjustments will be diagnosed and procedures will be outlined for correction and treatment. Plans will be submitted to parents and teachers regarding roles to be played in helping each

Museum Features Tree In Christmas Display

A fluorescent-lighted Christmas tree is now being featured in a special display by the university museum on third floor of the Parkinson building.

The revolving tree has ultra-violet lighting at the top which brings out the glowing colors of the fluorescent paint with which the tree ornaments and gifts are painted.

Miss Loraine Waters, a member of the museum staff, prepared the display.

President D. W. Morris To Direct Heart Drive

Southern's president, Dr. Delyte W. Morris, has accepted the state chairmanship of the 1952 heart fund drive of the Illinois Heart association.

Anticipating the annual drive to be held in February, Dr. Morris said, "Three quarters of a million persons in the United States died in 1950 of diseases of the heart and blood vessels. Many of these persons were in the younger and middle age groups, and their deaths might have been prevented.

The 1952 heart fund drive will be held from February 1 through Feb. 29. The Illinois Heart Association has set a goal of $165,000.

Greek Organizations Initiate Fall Pledges

TAU KAPPA EPSILON fraternity held their formal initiation of the fall pledge class last Sunday afternoon, Dec. 9, at the First Presbyterian Church. Among the class who became active members are: Archie Carnell Raiborn, James Carl Crispen, Clyde Fife Jr., Robert Joseph Jachino, John Scott Lindner, and Paul Kenneth Mueth.

Rush parties were held last Wednesday and Thursday nights of the scheduled Rush Week and Monday, Dec. 10, Jim Aiken, Ralph Becker, Earl Heil, Charles Hines and Ronald Kolar were formally pledged as the pledge class for the winter term.

The Tekes are having their annual Christmas Banquet this Thursday night at the Jackson Country Club. The feast will begin at 7:30 and followed by such entertainment activities as speeches, Christmas carol singing and dancing. Awards to the most valuable pledge and the pledge with the highest scholastic record of the fall term will also be given.

The week-end of the 15th will be a closed week-end for the active body in preparation for open house to be held immediately following the Christmas holidays. On Monday, Dec. 18, there will be a small Christmas party in the chapter house which is under the leadership of frater Jerry Ankenbrandt. Fraters will exchange gifts and sing Christmas carols.

Active Charles Werner has been put in charge of the house decorations for the Christmas holidays which will be judged this Thursday afternoon.

PI KAPPA SIGMA will hold an open house at 806 S. University Monday night at 7 o'clock. Chairman Mary Ann Klingenberg announced the theme of the occasion will be "Candyland."

New actives initiated last week are Carline Bonds, Herrin; Anita Early, Dayton, Ohio; Carol Elam, St. Louis, Mo.; Betty Hall, Johnston City; Alice Simmons, Jeff.

Monday night Pat Markland and Alice Simmons were elected Panhellenic representative and treasurer respectively.

The Alumnae club presented the Chapter house with a radio-phonograph console to accompany the new carpet and lamps in the living room.

Pi-Kaps baby-sat for the faculty women while they attended a tea Nov. 28. The children were entertained at the Chapter house from 3 to 5.

The Pi Kap Mother's club will sponsor a rummage sale Saturday morning, Dec. 15, at the City Hall.

CHI DELTA CHI "Hell Week" ended Saturday night with the formal initiation of nine men into the fraternity. They were: Jim Davis of Altamont, Claude Horsley and Max Waurzyviak of West Frankfort, J. B. Williams, Don Seynhoven and Jim Scoggins of Wood River, Harken Seats of Harrisburg, Wayne Samuels of Benton, and Wilbur Miller of Belleville. A tenth man, Gib Kurtz of East St. Louis, was initiated Sunday night.

The annual Chi Delta Chi Christmas party for under-privileged children was held Thursday evening at the Chapter House. The schedule called for a turkey dinner, followed by singing and the opening of the fraternity's gifts to the children. Thirteen children were there and the Chi Deltas found that many merchants were willing to contribute to such an affair.

Wilbur Miller left school this term to start playing professional baseball.

Gordon Tate of Harrisburg was married Sunday to the former Sharon Lee Watkins of Marion. Gordon graduated at the end of the last term.

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON initiated twelve new girls into the sorority last week-end. They are: Beverly Stephens, Mona Garland, Beverly Fox, Sharon Allen, Sally Lewis, Mabel Louis Taylor, Sara Floyd, Martha Cralley, Roberta Phillips, Ann Gilbert, Lois Bryant, and Julia Geddes. Sunday all old and new actives attended church at the First Presbyterian church and then had dinner together at the University Drug store banquet room.

Reinhardt Show To Open Sunday At Art Gallery

Southern's Allyn Art Gallery will open Sunday, Dec. 16, with a one-man showing of paintings and drawings by Siegfried Reinhardt, chosen by Life magazine as one of the country's 19 outstanding artists under the age of 30. The exhibit will last through Jan. 18.

Sponsored by the art department, this will be the first one-man showing of the artist's paintings outside of St. Louis. Twenty-four drawings and 24 paintings will be exhibited.

They will include "Resurrection," a dark and somber painting exemplifying typically Renaissance innovations which Life magazine re-produced.

THE PAINTING, "Deposition," probably best illustrates Reinhardt's brilliant use of color and change-over of style. Chosen by New York's Metropolitan for its 1950 contemporary show, this canvas is flatly painted and the picture plane unbroken by background elements. Reinhardt attributes his developing sense of color as an architectural element to his work as a designer for a stained glass firm.

Other paintings to be shown are "Screaming Eagles" with its mosaic

Jane Ross are co-chairmen of Christmas house decorations.

The annual Christmas party will be held at the sorority house Dec. 17. Margie Toler will be in charge.

Filling offices left vacant this term will be Beverly Fox, sorority study chairman, replacing Glenna Gutzler, and Sharon Allen, alumnae representative, replacing Pat Hunt.

Ann Gilbert is a nominee for freshman candidate for Student Council.

Approximately 40 girls and their dates attended the ANTHONY HALL dinner dance last Saturday night. The decorations for the dance were built around "Frosty, the Snowman." General chairmen for the dance were Joan Still and Pat Marlow.

A huge and beautiful Christmas tree, which was decorated by the girls at the Hall, decks the living room. The girls have been bringing packages all week to distribute among the needy families of Carbondale.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA'S Virginia Stringer and Pat Randolph will work together as co-chairmen of the Spaghetti supper to be given by the Tri Sigmas Jan. 9.

The Tri Sigmas are selling "All occasion" cards as one of their money-making projects.

We are sorry to say that our president, Wilma Beadle, is in the hospital with pneumonia. She was taken to the Doctor's hospital with an acute case of influenza Monday morning.

This week-end Tri Sigmas will have as their special guest a national officer, Mrs. R. C. Kissinger, Milwaukee, Wisc., who holds the office of Director of Ceremoneffect and vibrant painting of reflected light; "Magic" with a piece of string quite evident; a recurrent image whose significance changes from picture to picture; "Sleep"; and a self-portrait, a one-man show in itself.

During the course of the showing, Reinhardt will serve as guest lecturer for one week on the art faculty.

A reception in honor of Reinhardt will open the exhibit Sunday. Mrs. Kissinger, an alumna of Alpha Xi chapter of Tri Sigma, will conduct national inspection at the sorority, which will have closed week-end.

The following SIGMA TAU GAMMA pledges were initiated as actives into the fraternity in the initiation ceremony last Saturday: Tim Bowers, Ed Durling, Ed Sammons, Milt Pana, Gene Krowlak, Jim Dowell, Rich Erickson, Don Miller, Len Zubrowski, and Earl Edwards.

A smoker was held for prospective pledges last Monday night, and formal initiation was held last Wednesday.

Hostesses for the reception were selected by the Community Art committee, a committee just recently created. The reception will be open to the public.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

POOR PAUL was egg-sperated because every chick on campus gave him the bird. They told him: "We're all cooped up!" Then one day his roommate said: "The hens avoid you beak-cause your hair's messy, you dumb cluck! I don't know feather you've heard of Wildroot Cream-Oil or not, but you better fry it—er, try it! Contains soothing Lanolin. Relieves dryness. Removes loose, ugly dandruff. Helps you pass the Finger-Nail Test." Paul got Wildroot Cream-Oil—and now the gals think he's a good egg! Salukis Put Bite on Greyhounds 59-44

Tight defensive play and a hard driving offense gave coach Lynn Holder's Salukis their third straight victory last night when they trounced Eastern New Mexico's Greyhounds 59-44 before a near capacity crowd.

Southern took a 14-6 lead at the end of the first quarter, and were never paced as they kept at least 10 points ahead of the Greyhounds for the remainder of the game.

The Southern squad, outplaying the Greyhounds from the Southwest defense and controlling the ball more often on offense, limited the visitors to 25 field goal attempts in each half. The Southern offense, with Chuck Thate again showing good play on the rebounds, attempted 42 shots in the first half and 32 in the second. Of the total 74 attempts, the Salukis dropped in 21 field goals for a percentage of .284. The Greyhounds made good on 14 tries for an average of .280.

The New Mexico squad held the edge on free throws, dropping in 16 out of a total of 26 attempts. The Salukis were slightly weaker in this total, sinking 17 gift shots in 33 attempts.

Southern's starting line-up of Tom Millikin, Harvey Welch, Chuck Thate, "Pony" Horst, and Gib Kurtz accounted for 43 of the Salukis' total points. Chuck Thate, who fouled out early in the fourth quarter, was high scorer on the Southern squad with 13 points. Joe Griggs, starting forward for the Greyhounds, was the game's high point man with a total of 14 points.

Millikin to Compete Until Draft Call

Tom Millikin will play as much of the 1951-52 basketball season as he can before entering service, Coach Lynn Holder reported today.

Millikin's Perry county draft board announced recently that Millikin would be subject to the county's next draft call after Dec. 1, the date when Millikin's present student deferment expires.

Holder explained that, according to eligibility rules affecting players called into service, Millikin would not lose his fourth year of eligibility provided he does not play the entire season.

Heimerdinger of Northern Finishes First in Offense

Bob Heimerdinger, quarterback of Northern Illinois' unbeaten Huskies, claimed the total offense championship of the nation's small colleges for the second straight year, according to the final official statistics released by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau.

The Huskies' star all-conference quarterback compiled 1,775 yards in nine games, 120 yards ahead of his nearest competitor, White of Western New Mexico, who also played nine games.

Central Michigan's Andy MacDonald, the only passer to post more completions than Heimerdinger, was third in total offense with 1,505 yards. Andy retained his passing title by setting a record of 114 completions in 183 attempts for a percentage of 65.3. For the second straight time, Heimerdinger finished second to MacDonald in the passing department. Heimerdinger completed 103 in 225 attempts for a 45.8 percentage.

Heimerdinger and MacDonald are two of the four small college passers in history to throw over 100 completions, and both have done so for two seasons running.

Northern's all-conference senior end Frank Cahill ascended to fourth spot nationally in the pass receiving department by snaring nine in his final game against Omaha. For the season's total, Cahill caught 40 passes for 876 yards and 11 touchdowns. Both his yardage total and his scoring passes caught were high figures for the country. Cahill tied the all-time record of 11 touchdowns passes caught in a single season.

Central Michigan replaced Northern, the 1950 champions in the team passing offense department, averaging 213.8 yards per game. The Huskies finished second with 207.6 yards for a nine game average. Western Illinois State was fourth with an average of 203.8 yards for nine games. The Western Leathernecks led in the touchdown passing department with 22 tallies.

INTRAMURALS

The Southern Illinois University intramural cagers tore off the lid on the 1951-52 season last Monday night in the school gym when twelve teams in two of the six organized leagues took to the hardwood in the first session of a two and one-half month program.

When the events of the evening were all over results in the Tennessee League showed the Faculty beating the Manor House, 37-30; the Oilers downing the Nile House, 72-38; and the Theta Xi's thumping the Western Aces, 61-37.

Scores in the Michigan League: Gamma Delta, 34, Buzzards 26; Kaps 36, University Drugs 13; Commerce Club 48, Peasants 45.

At present there are six organized leagues with seven teams each and a seventh league having four team members. Charlie Mathieu, in charge of the program, says that there are still openings for three more teams to round out this league. Any group, organized house, or fraternity may enter play.

During the season each league will feature a round robin tourney with the top three teams in each league all squaring off in a big championship title tournament in mid-February. Games will be played every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday nights in the men's gymnasium.

IIAC Rules Against Financing Athletes

An Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference ruling against financial aid to athletes was reaffirmed at a meeting of athletic directors in Chicago Thursday and Friday, Dec. 6-7.

Southern's athletic director Glenn (Abe) Martin reported that conference officials agreed that the seven schools in the IIAC would not give free room or board to athletes. The only way an athlete can get financial aid, Martin said, is to win a scholarship open to all students.

Officials voted to let each school decide whether it would hold spring football, agreeing that since there is no over-emphasis on football, it would be all right to have spring practice. However, a decision was made prohibiting coaching in any sport during the summer vacation.

Paul Harrison, faculty athletic chairman of Northern Illinois State Teachers' College, was elected conference president, succeeding Charles Eantz, athletic director of Eastern Illinois State. Illinois Normal athletic director Howard Hancock was named as vice-president.
