Cornie McGinnis Crowned AFROTC Queen
At Military Ball; Christian Raises Roof

By Joe Dill
Managing Editor

Cornie McGinnis, sophomore from Pittsburg, was crowned 1960 AFROTC queen amidst all the splendor of the Military Ball Saturday night.

Miss McGinnis, who was also crowned Miss Southern Acres last year, was crowned by retiring queen Barbara Larkin.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McGinnis, she was elected from a field of five contestants by the 2,000 members of the local AFROTC unit. The queen's court consisted of Rochelle Gerlach, Phyllis McGill, Bonnie Meirink and Barry Jo Wood.

Bobby Christian's Orchestra entertained a dancing mob that filled the Carbondale National Guard Armory with slick tuxedos, dress coats and uniforms and swishing formalists. President and Mrs. Delyte W. Morris, Dean and Mrs. I. J. Clark Davis and AFROTC Commander Col. and Mrs. George Blaise were among the honored guests.

The AFROTC weekend was initiated Friday night with the first "Revue in Blue," witnessed by a near capacity crowd.

The appreciative audience responded with gusto when the master of ceremonies, near the end of the show, asked if the show should be an annual affair.

The Angetles, Angelaire, Singing Squadron and cadet command made up the program, with individual numbers by Jane Crusius, Sandra Mathews, Thomas Page, Larry Jarvis and the AFROTC quartet supplementing production numbers by the ensemble contingent.

Autos, Paper Get Comments From Council

Two unexpected topics arose at the Student Council meeting Thursday night which received much attention and comment by Council members—policies of the Egyptian in publishing stories of coronation crime and the ban of cars for seniors.

In the latter case, senators agreed to nominate spokesmen to review the problem and to speak with President Johnson or Vice President John E. Grinnell.

Senators agreed that the ban on overclassmen's cars had its merits; however, they said it would be a mark of prestige for seniors to have autos.

Concerning Egyptian policies, Advisor Thomas Cassidy told the Council that he would like opinions concerning the use of stories concerning students who had committed and had been convicted of crimes.

Egyptian Managing Editor Joe Dill told Council members that when a person was convicted, the matter was of public record. He said in these cases, the persons were convicted by the people of Illinois, and thus the people should know the truth.

"The only way to spike rumors," Dill said, "is to print the facts . . . and only the facts . . . concerning the specific incident. Everyone knows that on a campus like Southern—with considerably more than 7,000 students—some misdemeanors, and even some serious acts, will occur."

"It is to my thinking a great credit to the University and to the administration that so little turmoil is in existence. "If stories of this type are not printed, the students will have little respect for the paper, or what it stands for."

Senators Bob Hunt, Bill Moran and George Bricker, and Coordinator of Student Activities Elizabeth I. Mullins concurred with Dill on the matter. Cassidy said that he was certainly not bringing the matter up as a matter of debate, but only to get the opinions of the Council members.

The facilities of the Campus Placement Service are free to local "a" tates seeking position, as well as to employers.

The Four Lads Here For Saturday Concert

MRS. SOUTHERN

Mrs. Emma Jean Baldwin was crowned 1960 Mrs. Southern at the annual Dames Club dance and coronation Saturday night in the Lyman Hotel Gold Room in Herrin. Coronation climaxed competition which began with 35 entrants, all wives of SIU students. Emma Jean is the wife of Dick Baldwin, a senior business major. She received a bouquet of long-stemmed red carnations and an engraved bracelet from the Dames Club. (Photo by Joel Cole)

Replace Mathis; Ticket Plans Announced For Two Concerts

The Four Lads, Columbia Recording artists, will be at Shryock Auditorium for two shows Saturday evening. The popular singing group will replace Johnny Mathis, who was scheduled to appear but had to cancel because of illness.

Tickets will be exchanged either for a refund or a ticket for the Four Lads' show. If the person wishes to exchange for a ticket, he will receive the same seats he had for the Mathis concert plus a 25-cent refund for each ticket. If he does not wish to attend the show Saturday night, he will be refunded the full price he paid.

Deadline for exchange of tickets or refund of money is 5 p. m. Friday. Any Mathis tickets not turned in will be invalid and the person will not be eligible to receive the refund. The exchange started yesterday morning at the Student Union Ticket Office, with the sponsoring agency, Alpha Phi Omega, in charge.

The shows will begin at the same times, 7:30 and 9 p. m. Any tickets not sold prior to show time will be on sale at the door.

The Four Lads will appear for more than an hour for each show. They will feature an orchestra and comedian, in addition to their own talents. The group has made popular such songs as "Enchanted Island," "No, Not Much," "The Things We Did Last Summer," "Standing On the Corner," "Moments to Remember" and "The Bus Stop Song."

They will come to Southern from Ohio State University, where they will appear Friday night. For those who buy refunded tickets, prices are $1.75, $1.50 and $1.25, depending on the location desired.

Council Backs "Grading" For Local Off-Campus Housing

The Student Council favored the "grading" of different standards of off-campus housing at the Thursday night meeting. A representative of the off-campus housing office gave the Council a detailed report of the housing situation and future plans of the University.

Mrs. Margaret Fischer, assistant supervisor of student housing, said that 60 per cent of students living off campus reside in six Main-Oakland street areas. She said that most of the work accomplished between University housing and homeowners has been done on a "good-will" basis. Cooperation with the Carbondale City Council, studies in housing and recommendations for approved houses were included in Mrs. Fischer's outline.

Mrs. Fischer told the Council that much unsatisfactory housing is used by students because of heavy enrollment. She added that many houses have not been inspected for several years, but that an inspection program is being processed now.

A campaign which is due to go into operation next quarter would give a background of the responsibilities for both householder and students.

The responsibilities include cleanliness, conduct, use of alcoholic beverages, sanitation, facilities, use of contracts and cooperation.

Off-campus housing does not put out a list of approved houses at this time, because many have not been inspected recently. A list of approved and disapproved houses will be issued next quarter.

Mrs. Fischer noted that the housing center does not handle apartments and houses.

She also told the Council that the largest discrepancies found in off-campus housing were lack of sanitation and fire hazards.

Contracts Advised "We cannot force the householder to use contracts," she said, "but we advise them to."

She noted that basements have not been inspected in the past because of the low standards, but inspection is being initiated.

Miss Elizabeth I. Mullins, Council advisor, suggested that a rating system and requirements for reaching a specific rate be instituted by the housing center. She formally proposed that a list of approved houses be prepared by Out-In-Town Senator Alpha Phi fraternity.

KAP Man Injured In Gym Accident Lindsey Williams, an unclassified student from East St. Louis who was injured in a physical education class accident last week, has been removed to a St. Louis hospital in serious condition. Williams fell in the Men's Gym and received a serious neck injury. He was taken immediately to Doctors Hospital in Carbondale, but was removed to the St. Louis Hospital Saturday.

Williams is a member of Kappa Alpha Phi fraternity.

MILITARY QUEEN

Cornie McGinnis, a sophomore marketing major, was crowned 1960 Military Ball Queen Saturday night at the Carbondale Armory. Miss McGinnis was elected by the AFROTC Wing at SIU two weeks ago, but results of the balloting was kept secret until the coronation Saturday night. Miss McGinnis was crowned by Barbara Larkin, 1959 Queen. The queen and her court were presented by Col. George H. Blaise, commanding officer of the AFROTC unit. (Photo by Val Biggers)

Annual Show

Deadline For Theta Xi Show Set Friday; Tryouts Feb. 22

Deadline for applications for the Theta Xi Variety Show and for Service to Southern candidates is Feb. 11.

Plans for the 19th annual show are almost complete by Theta Xi. Tryouts Friday and Saturday nights, March 4-5, the show will encompass about 15 group and individual acts, all staged, produced and directed by student talent.

About 25 organizations and individuals have applied for tryouts thus far. Tryouts will be held in Shryock Auditorium Feb. 22 and 24, and five judges will pick the acts for the show.

The Service to Southern Award is presented annually to a junior or senior man and woman for "outstanding service to Southern in the extracurricular field." The award will be presented prior to intermission of the March 4 show.

Co-chairmen Jim Conway and Tom Stewart suggested that all acts wear any costumes and use any equipment that is possible for the tryouts. Judges will be Stewart, Conway, Miss Elizabeth Mullins, Robert Uray and Robert Thomas.

A member of the KMOX, St. Louis, radio staff will be master of ceremonies for the two nights. Joe Jaragola, St. Louis, is Cardinal sports-caster and former major league catcher, or Jack Buck, are on tap for the job.

A group for the show is five or more persons, and an individual act is considered four or less.

During tryouts, groups will be allowed seven minutes and individuals five minutes.

First, second and third place trophies will be awarded in group competition, and first and second place in individual acts. The first-place group trophy is a traveling trophy, which must be won three consecutive years in order to be kept permanently.

An inscribed silver bowl will be presented along with the traveling trophy, which will be the permanent possession of the winning group.

Proceeds from the shows go to an agency fund to be used as gifts for University and student welfare.

Tickets Ready For Feb. 18 Symphony

Tickets are now available at the Student Union for the Feb. 18 Carbondale Community Concert presentation of the New Orleans Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Alexander Hillsberg.

Only 650 student tickets are available for the 8 p. m. performance in Shryock Auditorium. However, another series of tickets—of a different color—will be issued after the 6:30 show. These tickets do not guarantee admittance to the concert, but will be honored for any empty seats which exist 10 minutes before curtain time. Activity cards are necessary to get tickets, which are free.

At 6:30 p. m. the same day, approximately 1,000 area high school students will meet in the auditorium to hear the orchestra's Youth Concert, "Magic in Music." SIU students will be admitted without tickets to the remainder of the auditorium seats.

Sculptor Geist Heads Week Of Fine Arts Programming

A lecture on American Sculpture by Victor Geist at 3 p. m. today in Studio 209. Also scheduled will be the first in a variety of Fine Arts Festival programs scheduled this week.

Geist, visiting professor this term, works in wood, stone, plaster and terra cotta. His afternoon lectures at 6:30 p. m. at both students and the general public without charge, as are the other Festival programs.

A lecture and film showing by Francis Thompson, experimental film maker, will be held tomorrow at 8 p. m. in Morris Library Auditorium.

John Beaufort, New York drama critic, will present Thursday's Freshman Convocation lecture in Shryock Auditorium. Beaufort's 10 a. m. lecture is titled "On Broadway Tonight."

A concert of contemporary American chamber music, presenting works by Ingolf Dahl and Franz Schreker by the Oxford String Quartet of Miami (Ohio) University will be held Friday in Shryock Auditorium at 8 p. m.

Saturday's activities will feature morning, afternoon and evening performances by a symposium of Illinois composers. Program one will be held at 9:30 a. m. in Shryock Auditorium and will feature chamber music, voice and band.

Program two will be held at 1:30 p. m. in the First Methodist Church of Carbondale and will feature organ, a woodwind quintet and a string quartet.

Program three will be a lecture by Dahl titled "Quality Judgments in Contemporary Music." The lecture will be at 3:30 p. m. in Morris Library Auditorium. Program four, which will be a presentation of chamber music, will be held at 8 p. m., also in Morris Library Auditorium, and will conclude Saturday's activities.

SIU composer Robert E. Mueller's "Concert Piece for Piano and Orchestra" will be presented at 4 p. m. Sunday in Shryock Auditorium. The concert will be performed by the Southern Illinois Symphony, conducted by Carmine Fiocelli, and the SIU Core Band, conducted by Phillip Olson.

Emma Jean Baldwin Gets Mrs. Southern Throne Here

The long-term red coronations and the Mrs. Southern crown Saturday night went to Emma Jean Baldwin. Mrs. Baldwin was crowned at the stroke of midnight, climaxing the annual Dames Club contest which began with 35 candidates.

First runner-up was Iris Martin, and second runner-up was Martha Mathes. The new Mrs. Southern was crowned by Fern Bee, last year's first runner-up. The 1959 Mrs. Southern, Mrs. Dorothy Burgess, was unable to attend the coronation.

Approximately 100 couples danced to the music of Tommy Lawton orchestra at the 9 p. m. dance in the Lyman Hotel Gold Room in Herrin. Judgment of the finalists for the Mrs. Southern title began at 10 p. m., with the entrants modeling bathquet of long-stem red coronations and an engraved bracelet. First and second runners-up also received gifts from the Dames Club.

Mrs. Baldwin is the wife of Dick Baldwin, a senior business major. Her home is Pinckneyville. Mrs. Martin's husband is Sanford Martin, a sophomore journalism major. Her home is Collinsville. Mrs. Mathes is married to Bob Mathes, a freshman agriculture major. A sophomore home economics major, her home is Olney.

Col. (ret.) and Mrs. Alexander MacMillan were host and hostess at the dance, and joined the dancers for about an hour before leaving for the Military Ball.

Drama Critic Convo Speaker

John Beaufort, New York drama critic for the Christian Science Monitor, will give the Freshman Convocation lecture at 4 a. m. Thursday in Shryock Auditorium. A Fine Arts Festival speaker, Beaufort will give a lecture titled "On Broadway Tonight."

Beaufort has served as city reporter, feature writer and drama critic for the Monitor.

AT THE BALL

Dancers swept across the floor to the music of the Bobby Christian Orchestra at the Military Ball in the Carbondale National Guard Armory Saturday night. In Southern's only formal dance of the year, men wore either dress uniforms or tuxedos, and women wore formal gowns. Dancers seemed to be lost in a dream world, and the crowded floor was unoccupied. Approximately 900 people attended the dance. (Egyptian Staff Photo)

Minus One

The last mile for most seniors has just begun, and the sheepskin day is just around the corner... but when that day comes there will inevitably be a few who will not be graduated because of that one requirement for graduation which has not been taken.

TRI SIGS HONOR HIGH GRADES

Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority members Dede Lingle, Donna Schuchard, Toni Gould, Marge Flynn, Jan Wilson and Carol Cardman were recognized at a special meeting held at the house recently. All these girls made a 5.0 academic average for fall term.

Steak dinners were awarded to the roommates with the highest overall average. This was given to Donna Schuchard and Mary Alice Carneghi for a 4.8. Mary Alice and her sorority daughter, Jody Moore also received another dinner for a 4.3 for mother-daughter grades.

Judy Shackelford, Barbara Gill, Donna Schuchard and Stanley Strusz also received this mother-daughter honor.

Topsy-turvy day was held for the active members by both pledge classes. "Pledges" for the day were rousted from their beds at 5:30 a. m., which began a day of little duties and fun, including serenading fraternities at Group Housing and entertaining with a song-and-dance routine at the Student Union. The day was climaxed with a line-up, complete with entertainment.

KAPPAS' WIN AGAIN IN BASKETBALL
Kappa Alpha Psi's "A" team bettered their cage record to 6-0 by defeating the Sigma Pi "A" team, 47-42. Dale Gleghorn and Richard Wilson were high scorers, respectively. This leaves the Kappas as the only undefeated team in the league with two more games left to play.

The team meets with Alpha Phi Alpha "A" team tonight in the Men's Gym.

MOVIE SEEN BY NEWMAN CLUB
"Noble Heritage", a half hour movie, will be featured at the Newman Club meeting tomorrow night at Lincoln Jr. High Auditorium. Evening mass for this week will be held tonight at 5:15 and confessions will precede it at 4:30. The Executive Board will meet at Lincoln Jr. High Wednesday at 6:30 p. m.

John Grodzicki, chairman of the finance committee, announced that the Newman Foundation plans to sell artificial flowers in the old Delta Zeta house for about two weeks prior to Memorial Day.

The Newmanites won their basketball game with Five-Fifths because of a forfeit. The forfeit, due to a lack of Five-Fifths players, was followed by a game between Newman Club team versus fellow Newmanites and Five-Fifths.

The Newman Club bowling team won two out of four games against Doyle Dorm last week.

Robert Allyn was president of Southern in 1874-1882. John Hull was president in the years of 1892-1893.

DELTA ZETA- PHI TAU PARTY

Sunday evening Daisey Mee and all members were gathered at the Delta Zeta sorority house. There were even some Sadie Hawkins' there.

The event was a Dogpatch exchange party between the DZ's and Phi Kappa Tau. Appropriate costumes were worn, and decorations were put up by the two pledge classes.

Social Chairmen Brenda Collins and Bob Steinman were in charge.

Phyllis McGill was a member of the quince court at the Military Ball last weekend.

Several alums visited the house last weekend. They were Jan Bauma, Doris Steinmarch, Carolyn Bradley and Doty Braunsdorf.

Jan Bailey Crowned Miss Vet's Club

Janis Bailey was crowned Miss Vet's Club Saturday evening at the annual Vet's Club dance held at the Eagles. The dance which lasted from 8 to 12 was provided music by the Dan Donnelly Trio.

Miss Bailey the first winner of this title is a graduate student at SIU and is teaching at Winkler Elementary School in Carbondale.

Bob Janecak a member of the club was master of ceremonies for the evening. Other honors were also given when Gene Krowlak received the door prize.

The Vet's Club is not a campus group but is made up of mostly SIU students who are veterans.

Organization of the group took place during Spring term last year and the group has been steadily climbing in membership.

FRESHMEN TAKE OVER AT BAPTIST UNION

"God's Plan and You" is the theme of Freshman Week, now in progress at the Baptist Student Union. During the week, freshmen members of BSU take over the offices of the organization and perform their duties.

Cagers Top IAC With Win, But Lose Again To 'King'

Beat Eastern, 76-69; Lose 89-87 Chiller

By Ron Jackson Sports Editor

The "stall" paid off and back-fired last weekend as the Saluki basketball squad split two important games.

Friday night, Harry Gallatin's quiet injected another victory into its IAC title quest as they played "keep-away" for the last eight minutes and turned back a stubborn Eastern Illinois squad, 76-69.

Saturday night at Owensboro, Ky., guards "King" Kelly Coleman and Gary Auten each stole the ball in the last three minutes, during an attempted stall by Southern, to lead the way to an 89-87 win over the Salukis. Coleman and his Kentucky Wesleyan Panthers turned the trick for the third time this season.

Against peppy Eastern Illinois, Charlie Vaughn paced the way with 34 points, 24 of them coming off to a fast start as they posted an 18-7 lead with seven minutes gone in the half. Eastern got hot on the fine shooting of Ludwig and closed the gap to 23-22 with about eight minutes remaining in the initial period. With five straight points by Vaughn and Don Hepler, the Salukis pushed the lead to 49-35 at intermission.

Randy McClary, held scoresless in the first half, Tom McGreal and Vaughn led the way early in the first half as the Dogs pulled their lead to 11 points (61-60) with 12 minutes remaining in the game. Eastern began closing the gap and the Salukis went into a

"keep-away" offense, drawing fouls from the Panther defense.

Ludwig led Eastern with 24 points. Barendsen was the only other Panther in double figures as he tallied 13. McClary, McGreal and Hepler all hit the double figures besides Vaughn. They hit 12, 14 and 10 respectively.

In other IAC action, Northern was sprung from the conference lead as they dropped two games over the weekend. The Huskies were defeated by Illinois Normal, 91-83, Friday night, and by Western Illinois, 86-72, on Saturday night. Eastern Illinois turned around and belted Normal, 96-83, Saturday.

Coleman potted two free throws with eight seconds remaining in the game Saturday night as he led the Kentucky Wesleyan Panthers to its third win of the season over Southern, 89-87.

Matmen Twirl Eastern, 23-8

The Saluki matmen racked up seven wins and a draw in 10 matches at Charleston Saturday to top Eastern's Panthers, 23-8, in an IAC Conference meet.

Southern had more success in bouts in the lighter weights, as the team did not lose until the 167-pound match, when Eastern's Jim Gardner slipped by Larry Meyer 3-1. The only other SIU defeat immediately followed the first, as Vern Vierk edged Ken Fontikes, 2-1. Neither team scored a fall in the meet.

An unusual bout took place in the 137 pound class, when the Salukis' Dick Frankenberger made a tremendous point - producing surge and romped over Don Novak, 29-12.

The results:

115—Ray Ramos (S) beat Jim Rohler, 9-4
123—Frank Coniglio (S) beat Floyd Bee, 6-1
136—Jim Bledsoe (S) vs. Werner Semetic, 3-3, draw
137—Dick Frankenberger (S)

Gymnasts Lose To Michigan

Michigan State University pushed its victory string to seven in a row Friday night as they defeated Bill Meade's Salukis, 6-32.

MSU took four of seven first places. Ed Foster won the stilling performance. Bob Kies turned a great routine to win the side horse event with 92 points. Fred Tijerina grabbed Southern's only other first with a very good performance on the parallel bars.

beat Don Novak, 29-12
147—Jack Crider (S) beat Bill Neal, 6-2
157—Ed Lewis (S) beat Dennis Taylor, 4-1
167—Jim Gardner (E) beat Larry Meyer, 3-1
177—Vern Vierk (E) Beat Ken Fontikes, 2-1
181—Ken Houston (S) beat Don Browning, 5-0
Hwt.—Houston Antwine (S) beat Bob Fulk, 3-2

The SIU grapplers' next opponents will be Illinois State Normal Saturday in an IAC battle at Carbondale.

Fresh Win Farmington Tourney

Southern's freshman basketball team came into its own last week as they won three straight games to win the Farmington (Mo.) Junior College basketball tournament.

After their opening round victory Wednesday, Coach George Lubell's freshman defeated Hannibal-LaGrange Junior College, 72-58 Friday night and Beebe (Ark.) Junior College in the title game Saturday night, 81-70.

Frank Lentfer, 6-8 center, led the way for Southern in the semifinal round Friday night as he tallied 22 points in the last half and totaled 32 for the game. Dave Hensen, who poured in 35 points in the opening round, added 16.

The Salukis were down by a 41-27 count at halftime. Coach Lubell's cagers put on a press in the second half and held Hannibal to 27 points while they poured in 45.

The Salukis were down by five points at halftime in the championship game but came back again to win going away.

Dave Hensen led the Dogs with 41 points. Barty came through with 20 points. Lentfer, racking up four fouls in the first half, scored only eight.

The freshman cagers met McKendree College tonight away and then meet them this weekend at home.

Swimmers Take 4th In Row While Breaking Six Records

Southern's swimming team crushed more opponents last weekend as they ran their victory string to four in a row. The Saluki tankmen turned back Loyola Friday and Eastern Illinois Saturday.

The Saluki tankmen, running their season's record to 4-1 broke six records in the two meets.

Their first record was set Friday afternoon against Loyola in the first event when Ron Ballatore, Norbert Rumpel, Paul Achenfelder and Ray Padovan set a new school and pool record in 400-yard medley relay with a brilliant time of 3:55.6. Ballatore set a new 200-yard backstroke record with a 2:16.1 performance. Padovan rewrote the 100-yard freestyle mark with a time of 1:50.4.

Clyde Epperson broke the pool record in the 50-yard freestyle with a :23.4 performance. Rodgers, swimming in the 200-yard individual medley, broke both the school and the pool record with a time of 2:11.1 flat. Southern's 400-yard relay team, of Epperson, Padovan, Fishbeck and Vern Wilhelm, set a new mark in the 400-yard relay with a time of 3:31.1 flat.

Other winners for Southern was Jim Fountain in the 220-yard freestyle; Tom Hass, diving; Ellis in the 200-yard butterfly; Bruce Roman in the 100-yard freestyle; Ballatore in the 200-yard backstroke; Larry Amussen in the 200-yard breaststroke.

Eastern's only first place came in the 440-yard freestyle when Roger Metzger defeated Southern's Mike Ainsley with a slow time of 5:50.2.

Coleman picked up right where he left off in Carbondale a month ago when he poured 49 points through the hoop. Vaughn led Southern with 27.

The Salukis held an 83-78 lead with 3:55 left to play in the game and went into their usual stalling tactics. Gary Auten and Coleman stole the ball from Southern's "Fancy-Dan" dribbler, Vaughn, and converted them into lay-up baskets to get into a position to win the game.

Auten hit another short jumper to give Wesleyan an 85-83 lead. Vaughn was fouled in the act of shooting and converted two charity tosses to knot the count at 85-85. After Coleman hit another one of his patented jump shots, McClary hooked one in to tie the score at 87-87. Wesleyan then attempted the keep away tactics and it paid off. McGreal fouled Coleman with eight seconds remaining in the game when he attempted to steal the ball. The official ruled an intentional foul and Coleman converted two free throws.

Vaughn then brought the ball down the floor and shot a 15-foot jumper that rolled off the front rim as the horn sounded, ending the game.

Even Euclid had to admit...

It's what's up front that counts

Euclid proved that a line is the shortest distance between two points. And if you'll walk a straight line to the nearest pack of Winstons, you'll find it the shortest distance to a really enjoyable smoke. It's the tobacco up front that makes the difference and that's where Winston packs its own exclusive, Filter-Blend—a special selection of light, mild tobacco, specially processed for filter smoking. You'll find Filter-Blend gives Winston a flavor without parallel. In fact, it's axiomatic that...
