Faculty Establishes Scholarship For SIU Mine Disaster Students

Southern students whose fathers were victims of the West Frankfort mine disaster will soon receive aid from a mine disaster scholarship fund which has been set up by members of the faculty.

"As soon as sufficient funds are available, the students who lost fathers will receive help from the fund according to their needs," said I. Clark Davis, acting director of student affairs and faculty chairman of the scholarship fund.

THERE ARE two students attending classes here at SIU who are eligible to receive benefits from the fund.

"If sufficient funds are collected,

Debaters Attend Bloomington Meet

Members of Southern's debate teams journeyed to Bloomington today to participate in a tournament at Illinois State Normal university which is to extend throughout today and tomorrow.

Approximately fifty other schools are to participate in the debates.

Students from SIU will be accompanied by Dr. Paul Hunsinger and Albert J. Croft, instructor, both of the speech department, and Tom Sloan, West Frankfort, graduate assistant.

Those students who are attending are: Sue Smith, Benton; Lloyd Bitzer, Carmi; Lester Barnes, Gene Penland, Carolyn Reed, Charles Tucker, Carbondale; W. Lee Kuhnert, Cutler; Carroll Boyles, Du Quoin; Sue Martin, Jonesboro; James Gibbons, Mason; Jo Ann Eblen, McLeansboro; Juanita Nowers, Steelville; and Hugh Pettus, Vicksburg.

it is hoped that we can make this scholarship fund a permanent thing available to other children of miners who need assistance in attending SIU," said Davis.

Although the scholarship was set up by the faculty, students may also contribute. Contributions should be sent to the Student Affairs office in care of I. Clark Davis.

Moulton, secretary of the Southern Illinois branch, will be the representative in charge; he is to interview those students who attend.

For professional employment in any local YMCA, a candidate must fulfill the following requirements: (1) be 21 years or older; (2) present evidence of graduation from an accredited college or meet a carefully defined equivalent; (3) be a member of a Christian church or sign an authorized personal statement of faith and purpose; (4) pass a standard health examination.

SIU To Participate In Blood Donation Program Jan. 28-29

A Red Cross blood donation program, sponsored by the Elks, is now getting underway. Although this blood program is for the entire community, Southern has a goal of its own which is about 250 pints, announced Miss Eleanor Taft, Student Affairs dean. Either sex, and all races are eligible to participate in this campaign, but anyone who donates should weigh at least 110 lbs.

Persons from the age of 21 to 59 inclusive, may sign up at the Student Center Jan. 16-18. Donations will then be made Jan. 28 from 12 noon until 7 p.m., and Jan. 29 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Elks club on Jackson St.

DONATIONS FROM students between the ages of 18 and 21 will be acceptable only if they have the written consent of their parent or guardian. Blanks for parental consent will be available in the Student Center, Office of Student Affairs, and AFROTC office. Would be donors must have these blanks signed before they can register the 16th, 17th and 18th.

A donor may give blood every eight or ten weeks, but cannot donate more than five times in a twelve month period. A thorough medical check-up by a physician or a registered staff nurse employed by the Red Cross is required before anyone will be allowed to donate.

THE BLOOD FROM this drive which is being backed by the AFROTC on the campus, will be used for military purposes only.

For the benefit of those unable to donate at this time, it will be possible for them to give blood later. Miss Taft said that "We hope to have a college-sponsored drive at a later date." Students may also make donations then.

'The Silver Cord' To Be Presented By Little Theatre

"The Silver Cord," a play by Sidney Howard, will be presented by the Little Theatre Jan. 24, 25, and 26, in Shryock auditorium at 8 p.m.

The cast of the play includes one faculty member, two faculty wives, and three graduate students. Dr. Georgia Winn of the English department; Mrs. William Harlan and Mrs. Charlotte McLeod, faculty wives; Tom Sloan, Bob Cagle, graduate students; and Mrs. Catherine Davis, alum, make up the cast.

THE PLAY features central staging or arena staging, similar to last year's performances of "Ladies in Retirement" and "Blithe Spirit." Dr. Archibald McLeod, director of the production, announced that the seating arrangements for the audience will be very much improved over the past year's arrangements.

Lawrence Voss will act as technical director of the play.

McLeod expressed the hope that a play using faculty, graduate students and alumnae can be presented each winter term. He hopes to make it a traditional affair.

"The Silver Cord," according to McLeod, "is one of the best contemporary, realistic, and outstanding American dramas."

Sidney Howard, the author, is also the author of such plays as "They Knew What They Wanted," "Lucky Sam McCarver," and "Ned McCobb's Daughter."

Student Council Loses President to Service

Jerry Nordberg, president of the Student Council, has recently received his call to return to service. Nordberg has resigned from the Student Council.

His resignation will necessitate an election to fill the vacancy of a junior male representative to the council. Dates for the primary and final election will be set at the next meeting of the Council which will be held Tuesday.

After the vacancy has been filled, the Council members will then hold an election among themselves to determine the new Student Council president.

New members of the Student Council who were elected in a replacement election before the holidays are Joan Davis, sophomore; and Carolyn Bernhard, Jo Rushing, Tim Bowers, and Gib Kurtz, freshmen.

* Four Alpha Phi Omega members carried two blankets through the stands to gather up the contributions.

Les Barnes, APO March of Dimes chairman, said that similar collections will be taken at each game during the campaign.

Approximately 200 simulated iron lung coin boxes have been distributed throughout Carbondale according to James R. Zimmer, Carbondale March of Dimes chairman.

JOHN S. RENDLEMAN, SIU legal counsel and campus chairman of the drive, has appointed Mrs. Minnie Pitkin, assistant in personnel in the president's office, as his assistant in directing the March of Dimes campaign on campus.

Southern's annual Mile of Dimes campaign, sponsored by the APO, will be held Jan. 22-24 at the main entrance to the university.

Those who wish to contribute to the fund will lay their dimes in a line, starting at the entrance and going toward Old Maid.

Announcements of other fund raising projects by sororities, fraternities and independent student houses are expected soon.

To Make No Provisions For Student Enlistment

Major General Lewis B. Hershey, Director of Selective Service, has announced that Selective Service will not make any special provisions to give students 30 days after the end of their academic year to enlist in the service of their choice.

General Hershey explained that such arrangements are not necessary this year as the 1951 amendments to the Selective Service law provide that students are henceforth to be deferred instead of having their induction postponed. They will, therefore, have ample opportunity after the completion of their academic year to enlist in the service of their choice.

A Hint to the Draftables

"The Tulsa Collegian," student newspaper of the University of Tulsa, Oklahoma, has published an interesting summary of alternatives the draftable college man may follow. Many Southern students perhaps do not know about many of the areas of service open, and may end up in the service as a buck private when they might have received advanced ratings as a result of their schooling.

The Egyptian would like to pass this information along to SIU's draftables as it appeared in the Tulsa Collegian.

Here are the alternatives, by classes:

A FRESHMAN CAN—

1. Strive for Air Force ROTC. Officer training guarantees deferment to complete four years of study, brings a commission.
2. Enlist in Naval Reserve, apply for Reserve Officer Candidate program (if not 1-A). Marines offer Platoon Leaders class.
3. Join the National Guard if you can drill regularly.
4. Join the Reserves if you are not 1-A. Active duty call-up is certain, eventually.
5. Volunteer next June. Defense department promises students their choice of service. It's a calculated risk to rely on official promises.

A SOPHOMORE CAN—

1. Enlist in Naval Reserve. If not 1-A, apply for ROC. It requires two six-week training courses and drills. Marines' PLC is similar.
2. Switch to engineering or science courses. Deferments will be highest in these fields. Some service will be required, probably upon graduation.
3. Join the Guard or Reserves, if not 1-A.
4. Plan on the draft.

A JUNIOR CAN—

1. Enlist in Naval Reserve if not 1-A and apply for ROC. Marines' PLC is open to juniors, too.
2. Stay in college. Draft boards are under pressure to defer juniors, though no one can prejudice an individual case. The local board is supreme.
3. Volunteer now, or in June. This guarantees choice of service, but wastes investment in college study. Air Force has some Aviation cadet openings.

A SENIOR CAN—

1. Enlist in Naval Reserve, apply for a Reserve officer commission upon graduation if not 1-A.
2. Enlist in Marine Corps reserve for Officer Candidate school. Those who flunk can get discharges. Course begins after graduation.
3. Wait for draft. A call is virtually guaranteed next summer.
4. Try for deferment. About 1 out of 100 may qualify as an essential worker. Engineers and medical trainees seem to have a real chance.

French Grants Open To College Students

Opportunities to spend a year in France open to American college students were announced this week by the Institute of International Education. Approximately 80 grants in all are open for study or teaching in France next year.

Forty of the grants are for young Americans interested in teaching conversational English for one year in a French school. Given by the French government, the grants provide from 22,000 to 27,000 francs a month during the academic year. To be eligible for an assistantship, American applicants must be unmarried, have a good knowledge of French, and by this summer, have a bachelor's degree from an American college.

THE FRENCH government also is offering approximately 35 fellowships to Americans for graduate study in France. The fellowships, open to students in all fields of study, provide tuition and 20,000 francs a month. Eligibility requirements are the same as for the assistantships.

Four special scholarships for the study of art and music in Paris are also offered through the Institute by the Woolley Foundation. Eligibility requirements include graduation from an American college or professional school, good knowledge of French, and capacity for independent study in music or art.

Completed applications must be filed by Feb. 15, 1952. Inquiries should be made immediately to the U. S. Student Program, Institute of International Education, 2 West 45th Street, New York 19, N. Y.

A number of travel grants from the U. S. government, to cover transportation costs will be open under the Fulbright Act for recipients of these grants.

Mueller Talks On Music At Last Sunday Soiree

Music instructor Robert Mueller's talk, "It Ain't as Awful as you Think," a contrast on contemporary music, was heard by a group of approximately 35 at last week's Sunday Soiree program, the Student Center Steering Committee has announced.

Mueller, who discussed the techniques modern composers use in composing contemporary music, played such records as "Proko-

National Bulletin Recognizes SIU

Southern Illinois University was mentioned in this week's Intercollegiate Press Bulletin, a national weekly news-letter devoted to current college events, as having been in line with the proposals made by the Illinois Committee on Relations with Higher Institutions since 1936 when Southern discontinued the practice of requiring specific subjects for entrance and began accepting all students with a high school diploma.

The state committee has recommended that colleges cease to specify high school courses for entrance requirements. Under the new program, a student is not required to have major and minor subjects—the only requirements for a high school diploma are 16 units of high school credit and certain state required subjects.

Dr. John D. Mees, principal of University School, was cited as the source of information in the bulletin.

APPOINT KELLEY TO STATE HEALTH COMMITTEE

Dr. Noble H. Kelley, chairman of the psychology department, is one of eight persons appointed to the Advisory committee on the Training of Professional Personnel to the Illinois Mental Health Authority, Department of Public Welfare.

Beethoven's 5th Symphony" and "Stravinsky's Rite of Spring." Berg's violin concertos and Copland's "Appalachian Spring" were also played.

Refreshments were served prior to Mueller's talk.

Betty Wiggs Appointed Reporter For Magazine

Mrs. Betty Bowen Wiggs, Information Service, was recently appointed as the campus reporter for the Civil Service house organ, Illini Worker, University of Illinois.

Under the original plan of Civil Service directors only state employees of the University of Illinois were represented in this magazine. A recent amendment to the program has allowed for all state supported institutions to be represented.

The magazine contains news of all state employees of various institutions.

A contest is now under way to rename the magazine. Any civil service employee is free to submit a name to represent the entire area which it will cover.

Mrs. Wiggs is in the field of advertising and publicity. She attended school at Southern Illinois University and University of Illinois.

SIU Sends Seeds To Japan School

As a gift from Southern, packets of seed from sweet gum, red bud, persimmon, and sycamore trees have been sent to Hiroshima university, Japan, according to Walter B. Welch, botany department chairman.

The seed gift, gathered by Welch and his botany students, was sent in response to the Hiroshima university president's letter to President Delyte W. Morris of Southern, asking for friendship gifts of trees or shrubs, either as seeds or young plants, to beautify the Hiroshima campus with an "avenue of universities."

Representative trees from universities throughout the world are to be brought together at Hiroshima where 4,500 students are studying now in a university that is rising anew from the rubble of war.

Holder Looks For Millikin's Successor

Lynn Holder, SIU's basketball coach wore a slight frown as he turned from gazing through his office window. "Sure it will hurt us when Tom leaves," he said, referring to Tom Millikin, his all-conference forward who received his draft call for Jan. 17.

"It's the same as taking a guy like Musial or Schoendienst away from the St. Louis Cardinals. Tom was all-IAC forward and scored almost 500 points last season. When you lose a fellow who averaged close to 20 points a game you're bound to miss him. Not only that, but Millikin grabbed about 15-20 rebounds a game. That's playing real basketball."

The slight, balding mentor paused to unwrap a stick of gum before continuing. "I don't know for sure yet who we'll use to replace Tom. I'll be able to tell more after the game next Saturday. The thing is to get the best possible combination of rebounding and shooting that we can put on the floor. Right now all we want to do is take that game from Western tonight. That's the biggest thing on my mind, and I can't think too clearly about anything else."

However, the ex-Southern athlete who lettered in both football and basketball disclosed several alternatives he had in mind. "We may use Bob Nickolaus", sophomore kiss-shot artist from Centralia. "Nick's got speed and his hitting's good. If his ankle proves ready, he'll probably go." (Nickolaus suffered an ankle injury earlier in the season, and has seen little action since.) Holder expressed hesitance at moving either Kurtz or Horst to a forward position because of the good performances they have been turning in of late at the guard spots.

Another possibility, according to Holder, would be Jerry Hallopetter, big New Madrid, Mo. junior. But Hallopetter injured his knee in the first game of the season, and has been a question mark ever since.

"At any rate," said the Saluki coach, "the fellow we decide to use will be the one who displays the greatest desire to win. After all, that's our major and only purpose."

Western Adopts Name From-U. S. Marines

Western Illinois State College's colorful team nickname, the "Leathernecks," was adopted in 1926 when Ray Hanson came to the school as director of athletics and head coach in the major sports. Prior to then, athletic teams from Western were known as "Pedagogues," or "fighting Teachers," which is the Greek translation of the word.

Through the influence of Hanson who had served with distinction in the U. S. Marine Corps during World War I, the name was adopted and has now become synonymous with the name of Western State.

Hanson received special permission from the Navy Department to use the name of "Leathernecks" and also the official Marine Corps seal which Western lettermen wear on their letter sweaters and jackets.

Ted Williams Receives Call From Marines

Ted Williams, slugging outfielder for the Boston Red Sox and only active major leaguer who has hit .400, was called back into active service with the U. S. Marine Air Corps.

Williams served as a pilot in the last war, and has held a reserve commission. The star player, said by some to be the greatest natural hitter today, is scheduled to report next May. Williams is now on a fishing trip somewhere in the Florida Keys.

Millikin to Receive Award Tomorrow In Last Home Game

When the Southern Salukis take to the hardwood against Illinois Wesleyan tomorrow night it will mark the last home game for Tom Millikin before entering into military service Jan. 17. He will be honored in a special half-time ceremony. At this time the Sigma Pi fraternity will present him with a specially engraved identification bracelet for "outstanding sportsmanship" as a Southern athlete. Making the presentation will be Virgil Fuchs, president of the fraternity.

Millikin began playing basketball in his senior year at Pinckneyville high school. The team needed more height, and Tom proved to be their answer, as Pinckneyville went on to win the '47-'48 state tournament. "Big T," as he is sometimes called, lettered his first year at Southern, but saw little front line action.

Tom worked hard at the start of practices for the 1949-50 season, his sophomore year. His efforts earned him a starting berth in the first game of the year. He led the team in scoring and to a victory over Kirksville by dropping in 22 points. The 6'2" athlete went on to start every game that season, and lead the Maroons in scoring for the year. Millikin came from virtually nowhere to be named "Most Valuable Player" in the Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

Yet, even bigger things were expected of him in his junior year. And Tom proved to be the great competitor he is. This cage wizard, who also earned an "I" as a standout on Abe Martin's pitching staff, became the first Southern basketball player to score 400 points in a single season. His 225 points in conference games gave him the IAC individual scoring

Inside the INTRAMURALS

What with most of the 49 teams having now played at least one-third of their schedules the races in the seven Southern intramural basketball leagues are beginning to take shape. Including games of last Monday night, statistics released by Charlie Mathieu, head of the leagues, show that all but 20 of the original 49 undefeated quintets have now tasted defeat.

To date the present leaders in their individual circuits are: Chi Deltis, Maroon Manor, Stanford League; Mountaineers, Men's Residence Halls (1), Ohio League; Yanks, TKEs, Illinois League; Commerce Club, TKEs B, Kentucky League; Flora, Theta Xi B, and Sigma Pi, Texas League; Gamma Delta, Kaps, Michigan League; Theta Xi, Crows, Faculty, Tennessee League.

The only team to thus far capture three consecutive wins is the Gamma Delta five which leads the Michigan League. Ten teams have compiled 2-0 records, while nine others have won one and lost none. The tightest race may be shaping up in the Texas League where four teams have yet to be beaten.

No games are on tap for tonight, Friday, but play in the Texas and Tennessee Leagues will resume Monday with contests in the other circuits to begin again on championship, and a berth as an all-conference forward. He reached the climax of his junior season by scoring 35 points in the game against Michigan Normal. 29 of them coming in the second half. All this despite the fact that "Big T" was slowed down in the last few games of the season with a case of tonsillitis!

Thus, when Southern's all-time cage star leaves, he will leave behind him a list of almost unsurpassable records, and a spot in the Saluki line-up that will be hard to fill.
