Second Model UN Stated; To Duplicate Real Meet

If enough student delegates participate, the Model United Nations General Assembly will be able to take place in the early spring. The meeting is expected to be one of the major campus events of the quarter, said Dr. Frank Kingsley, dean of the School of Foreign Languages and Tuesday.

The Political session will duplicate to 1 in-4 in actual UN procedures.

Classes and individual groups of students will represent all the major countries of the world, and several of the less known, such as Soltli Illin, "The" and Iran.

"The groups will take a similar position at the sessions," the United Nations, an assemblage of its branches, in maintenance of its system and security.

The primary objective of the United Nations, as embodied in its branches, is maintenance of its system and security. In this manner, it assembles representatives of different countries to consider the issues they face.

Elmhurst Speares

Noted national affair between the University of Southern Illinois and the United Nations, was scheduled to be held at 10 a.m. on the first Friday of the month. The Force is an organization which has been active in world peace organizations for many years. The organization was founded in 1945 and has been involved in many international peace and security efforts.

As soon as enough applications come in, plans will be made to form a section of the organization on the University campus. The section will be organized in accordance with the regulations of the national organization.

If there are enough students who are interested in participating in the organization, a section will be organized on the University campus.

"SUGAR BENILAI"

Girls Win Athletic Letter

Margarette "Suga" Benzilai, a senior basketball player and new scholarship student at Southern Illinois University, has been invited to become a member of the University's national athletic letter society.

"I was very surprised when I received the letter," said Suga, who played basketball for the women's team. "I never thought I would be invited to join the society."

"It is a great honor to be included in the society," Suga said. "It is a recognition of the hard work I have put in and the leadership I have shown on the court."

"I am thrilled to be a part of the University's national athletic letter society," Suga said. "I am proud to be a part of this organization and will continue to work hard to maintain my status as a member."

Wrestlers Risk 23-Meet Win Streak Against Defending National Mat Champs

An up-and-coming Saluki wrestling team faces a major challenge this weekend when they attempt to continue their unbeaten streak against the defending national mat champions from Illinois, all within the same tournament.

The Salukis, led by five strong wrestlers who have dominated the Midwest, have been swarmed by opponents, making their path to the NCAA championships more challenging than ever.

However, Southern Illinois has shown remarkable resilience throughout the season, earning the victory against the powerful Salukis.

But don't count the Salukis out just yet. With a strong team and an intense training regimen, they are determined to make a statement this weekend.
