Council Hears Human Relations Report

The Student Council heard a report from a state human relations commission official and held a discussion concerning the racial discrimination issue in a three-hour meeting Thursday.

Miss Almee M. Isgrig, executive director of the state Commission on Human Relations, described a program designed to uphold a law insuring equal rights in the use of public accommodations.

The law, adopted in 1955, is one of a number of civil rights and anti-discrimination laws in Illinois. The law provides for forfeiture of money to the person denied the privilege of public accommodations such as restaurants, hotels, and barber shops, and a fine, imprisonment or both for the owner.

"The law is an education within itself," Miss Isgrig said, she pointed out the need for a non-violent approach to solving the problem.

Miss Isgrig outlined a four-point plan to aid those seeking protection of the law. The plan included:

1. Clearly know the law, what it states and what it means.
2. Ask to see the manager or owner, if a direct refusal of accommodations is given.
3. If he refuses service, remind him of the law.

4. If this procedure fails, write a complete, fully-factual report of the incident and send it to the human relations commission, or contact a state's attorney.

The human relations commission is a mediator of the causes, she pointed out. When the commission receives the reports it will investigate the complaint and ask the business owner to comply with the law. If necessary, Miss Isgrig continued, the case will be turned over to the state's attorney or the attorney general for further action.

"If your end is well-handled, it is easier and more legal all the way around," Miss Isgrig told the Council and the approximately 25 visitors at the meeting. About 99 percent of the time the person who has discriminated will come around peacefully, she explained.

Miss Isgrig emphasized the fact that there are no laws governing the housing situation and other means must be employed.

The most effective way to combat the housing situation is by increasing the housing supply, she told the group. Most universities are concerned with building more and better housing for their students, which will aid this situation, she pointed out. Another method according to Miss Isgrig, is to get the householders to sit up

Summer Jobs Available Yet

Students interested in summer employment are reminded by the Placement Service that applications to prospective employers should be submitted now due to increasing numbers of college students seeking summer positions.

The majority of such jobs are centered around camps, resorts, hotels and dude ranches throughout the country. Sample positions available are children's counselor, life-guard, recreational director, secretary, waitress and waiter, busboy and dishwasher.

Places desiring student help are listed according to state in the Placement Service office. Letters to prospective employers should be typewritten in business style. First letters should contain a stamped, dated sheet, and a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Lovejoy Award Deadline Near

The 1960 Elijah P. Lovejoy award will be presented here July 17 at the International Conference by SIU's journalism department.

The award is bestowed annually to a weekly newspaper editor for outstanding service involving courageous performance of duty in the face of economic, political or social pressures brought against the editor by members of his community.

Nominations must be submitted in writing prior to March 31 for consideration. They may be submitted by anyone personally familiar with the circumstances of the editor's outstanding service.

April 15 Last Date For 60-61 Event Setting

Groups which plan to have major activities for the 1960-61 school year must have applications into the Activities Development Office no later than April 15.

In order to receive calendar preference, groups must apply in the office of Miss Elizabeth I. Mullins prior to next month's deadline.

Policies of the Egyptian are the responsibility of student editors appointed by the Campus Journalism Council.

Van Cleve, Berry, Hunt Get Service To Southern Awards

Marsha Van Cleve, Bill Berry and Bob Hunt were recipients of the Service to Southern awards at the Theta Xi Variety Show Friday night in Shryock Auditorium.

Berry and Hunt received duplicate awards, as they tied for the honor. Theta Xi grants the award to a junior or senior man and woman each year, with the winners based on their service to the University.

President Morris presented the awards — inscribed wrist watches — immediately after the Friday night show. Eleven candidates were vying for the honor, five women and six men.

Miss Van Cleve, who is currently vice president of the student body and chairman of the Student Council, is a member of Sigma Kappa sorority and of the Sphinx Club. She belongs to the "OY" Spirit Council and has several campus activities to her credit.

The Carbondale resident was co-chairman of the 1959 homecoming parade, co-chairman of fall leadership camp, discussion leader of spring leadership camp last year, a member of the Angeliars, a New Student Week leader, mistress of ceremonies for several campus shows and was a freshman representative for the Student Council.

The senior education major was affiliated with the now defunct Associated Women Student judicial and executive boards, the campus judicial board, was vice president of her sophomore class and sang with the Madrigals and University Choir.

Bill Berry, a Granite Cityan, was a president of the 1958-59 student body and was also one of the finalists for the award last year.

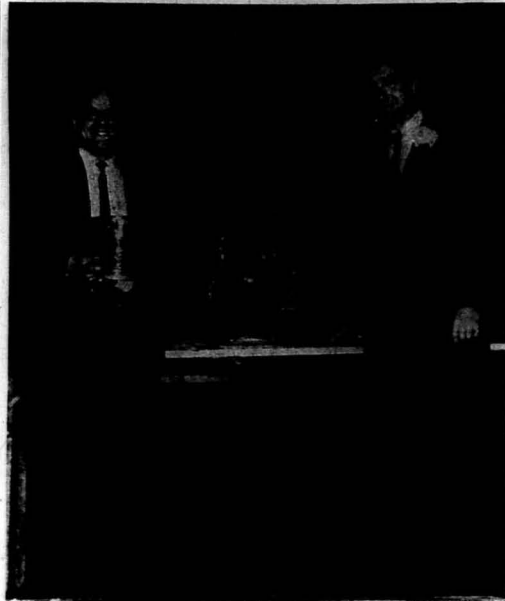

The pre-law major is a member of the Sphinx Club, was a variety track member his freshman year and was a member of the marching band, concert band and SIU Symphony Orchestra.

Berry, a junior, is a student representative of the SIU Foundation, a member of the proficiency exam committee and is a resident fellow at Dowdell No. 5.

Hunt, enrolled in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, is also president of the Sphinx Club and a resident fellow of Dowdell No. 5. He has been on New Student Week committees three years, was vice president of homecoming in 1958 and chairman of the Spring Festival in 1959.

He is a member of Sigma Pi Fraternity, Phi Kappa Phi and Phi Eta Sigma. He was recipient of the Sphinx Club sophomore award — one who each received pen and pencil sets — were Mary Alice Cornagli, Mary Lee Hake, Zelma Johnson, Jeanine North, John Baker, Bob Hardwick, Jim Haynes and Jerry Marchiondo.

President Morris is making the presentation. The dual awards inscribed wrist watches—were made when Berry and Hunt

TEKES WIN

Trio, Sig Kap, Delta Chi Also Place In Show

Tau Kappa Epsilon walked off with first place in group competition at the 13th annual Theta Xi Variety Show last weekend, and vocalist Wayne Stevers copped first in the individual field.

Delta Chi fraternally placed second in the groups, followed by Sigma Kappa sorority, and the Tom Harris trio placed second in the individual ratings.

The Tekes presented a satire of the Office of Student Affairs in the form of the Civil War. The Union Army (or the Office of Union Affairs) defeated the Old South, with General Morris in charge. The act centered around a dance which was in progress without the approval of the Office of Union Affairs, an unregistered bicycle, no liquor sticker and other takeoffs on local affairs.

Stevens received one of the largest ovations after his renditions of "Old Man River" and "My Heart Alone." The Mound City soprano is enrolled in the College of Fine Arts.

Two trophies

The Tekes received the first-place traveling trophy and a permanent inscribed silver bowl.

Delta Chi presented a satire of Dick Clark's "American Bandstand" — the TV dancing craze. "Eye" Clark was MO for "American Handstand," however, and included the invisible shield commercial, rock'n roll dancing and the choosing of teen of the week.

Sigma Kappa gave a sorority rendition of "Othello," the Greek story of a wife killing because of a misunderstanding. The Sig Kaps utilized well-known lyrics for the satirical drama.

The Tom Harris trio did two folk songs, "Don Bones Go on a Rise Again" and "Sinner Man." The songs brought appreciative applause from the well-packed auditorium.

Bob Anthony, KMOX newscaster and disc jockey, was master of ceremonies for the Friday and Saturday night shows. Shryock Auditorium was jammed for both shows.

Fifteen acts graced the stage for the annual all-school show. Aside from the winning Tekes, Delta Chi's and Sigma Kappa's, group competitors were Phi Kappa Tau, Delta Zeta sorority, Bailey Hall, Southern Acres and Phi Sigma Kappa. Other individual acts were Diane Noehfel, the Bach Quintet, John Schlegler and Beverly Beisswinger, June Nightwine and John Wilkerson, and Sandra Mathews. Jim Conaway and Tom Stewart were co-chairmen for the 1960 show.

Mark Twain At Thursday Convocation

Hal Holbrook, whose "Mark Twain Tonight!" is one of the most successful one-man shows ever to appear in New York, will appear on the Shryock Auditorium stage Thursday as Freshman Convocation performer.

The 34-year-old Holbrook has won both public and critics' acclaim for his characterization of Mark Twain, the great American humorist.

Reciting from Twain's own works, Holbrook appears before his audiences as the old Missouri funny man himself. To do this, he goes through a three-hour period of make-up before going on the stage. When he comes on stage, he has a remarkable resemblance to pictures of the real Mark Twain.

Holbrook will appear in the Thursday Convocation, scheduled for 10 a. m. in Shryock Auditorium.

Icey Injuries

It was the best snow of the season—not too dry, not too moist. Just right for packing snowballs.

Out at small-group housing, a group of boys were whooping it up. You made snowballs, and you threw them. It was the thing to do. The boys at small-group housing, against the boys at Thompson Point. Fun.

If you wanted to make the snowballs extra-hard, you put a rock in the center. Then they packed more punch.

A freshman boy had gotten luck that night. He'd been giving as good as he got — until he caught one of the super snowballs smack in the eye.

The blow caused the eye to hemorrhage. When this happens, the bleeding may or may not be absorbed. Sometimes surgery is necessary to remove the clot.

'Snow Fun To Get Hurt

Sometimes the eye is saved. Sometimes not.

The student was discharged from Holden Hospital last Thursday after several days of treatment and observation. He can still see out of both eyes. But at first, "vitties" didn't know.

Since the snow came, two other students were hospitalized temporarily with eye injuries. A third was treated and released.

A snowball thrown through a window sent a shower of glass into a room, like shrapnel. One forehead was lacerated. The forehead was sewn up and the student released.

During a snowball fight a girl was kicked in the jaw. She was treated and released.

Especially on University and Grand Avenues, dozens of boys hitchhiked rides on cars, grabbing the rear bumper and hanging on for a fr. ride, using their feet as skis. Many falls were incurred. Sometimes the driver would apply the brakes, and then the trick was to stay away from the wheels.

Sanders Takes Second In Meet

Keith Sanders, SIU's leading debater, won the top speaker award at the annual Notre Dame University debate tournament Saturday, with Southern winning the second place trophy in the 23-team meet.

SIU debaters had a 5-1 preliminary record with wins over Northwestern, Wheaton College, University of Pittsburgh, Western Michigan and the University of Vermont. The single loss was to Norwich University.

In quarter-final competition, SIU won over Loyola University. The Saluki debaters then beat Bradley in the semi-finals before losing a 4-2 decision to Kentucky in the finals.

Sanders' teammate, Kent Brandon, was ranked as the No. Seven debater.

Two other debate teams competed in the St. Thomas College, Minn., debate tourney Friday and Saturday. Gaijverne Kopp and Sharon Lovelace compiled a 6-3 record, while Phil Wandler and a G. Glen Huisinga had a record of 5-3. Neither team advanced past the octafinals.

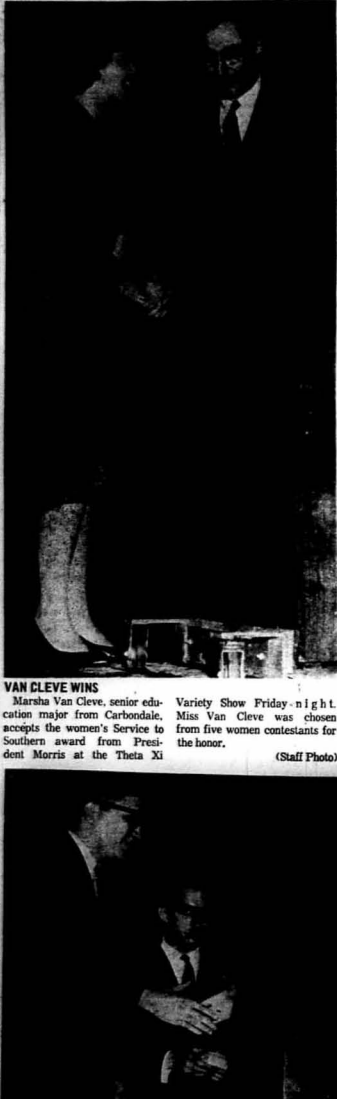

Students Back Protest In Nashville Issue

Southern will back a protest of segregation at lunch counters in Nashville, Tenn., along with the National Student Assn. Student Body President Bob Hardwick sent a telegram to Diana Nash of Fisk University in Nashville, who is currently in jail on a charge of disorderly conduct.

The NSA contacted Southern last week. Hardwick recommended the use of peaceful means as the only way to accomplish worthwhile results toward racial equality.

Students at other universities have been sending telegrams and staging demonstrations in response to the NSA request. A group of Fisk and Vanderbilt university students, both Negro and white, were involved in the Nashville issue which evolved when Negroes entered lunch counters and were refused service.

Editors' Opinions

A Thought For Home

Students will start packing bags and turning in textbooks next week, all set for a day of carefree leisure at home. Final exams — now an ominous future — will soon be another part of the past. But there is one thought which students might take home with them.

An election will be conducted in November which will affect our families... our families of the future. The election will not only affect Southern, but all six state-supported universities. The Nov. 8 election will decide whether or not the General Assembly will allocate $195,000,000 on the Universities Bond Issue.

Southern, as an example, is currently in the midst of a rebuilding campaign which will present a "new face" to the next generation. But this rebuilding cannot continue unless funds are made available. Such funds will be available if Illinois voters approve the bond issue.

The Egyptian does not ask that voters go to the polls and blindly vote "yes." We ask only that voters intelligently analyze the pro's and con's of the issue and then decide. Today an education has become more than a necessity — it is now a reality. An increasing population plus added emphasis on a college degree is not concurrent with university facilities.

As students, we know the vital need for more space, better equipment and facilities. Thus, we know that our children, even younger brothers and sisters, will be in even more dire need of improvements.

The building campaign of Illinois universities can be continued only with the cooperation of Illinois voters. Take this thought home with you — explain it to your parents. After all, it will affect their grandchildren.

SIU Names Hickman For Econ Chair

Charles A. Hickman, dean of the School of General Studies at North Carolina State College, has been appointed by the SIU Board of Trustees to fill the Vandevener Chair of Economics at Southern.

Hickman will assume the new position July 1. The position was endowed by W. W. Vandevener, SIU graduate and former head of Ashland-Oil and refining Co. Vandevener presented Southern with 5,000 shares of stock in the company, which now has a value of more than $200,000.

In making the gift to the University last September, Vandevener specified its use, to support A Vandevener chain of economics. The chair was to be filled by a scholar whose primary field was in the area of economics, particularly in the teaching and dissemination of knowledge with respect to the capitalist system.

Hickman holds three degrees from the State University of Iowa. He has served on the faculty of the University of Illinois, Southern University and the State University of Iowa, before going to North Carolina State.

A specialist in behavioral economics, he is executive director of the professional publication, "Current Economic Content" and editor of the "Southern Economic Journal." He is also consulting editor of the Dryden Series in Economics.

In case of emergencies to students, the University switchboard may be called and a referral will be made to an appropriate University official.

Gus Bode Says

Gus sez since the snows came when people park in the campus parking lots... they stay parked!

Gus wonders why there are some instructors who always demand that papers and reports be in on time, when they put off class exams until the last few days before finals.

Gus saw the movie, "Bus Stop" and now he is really enthused about getting a bus line in Carbondale.

Gus sez he's afraid some students who hang on the autos and slide on the ice will get

Gus thought he had a tough exam schedule, but the swimming team has a worse one.

Cadets Fly To SMU For Ball, Idea Exchange

Thirteen advanced AFROTC cadets and two basic cadets from Arnold Air Society left from Scott Air Force Base, Belleville, Friday for a trip to Southern Methodist University at Dallas.

The invitation to make the weekend trip was extended by SMU's chapter of the Arnold Air Society for the purpose of exchanging ideas and discussing problems that arise within individual chapters.

The cadets were flown in a C-47 transport accompanied by Detachment Officers Lt. Col. Paul McDonald and Capt. Curtis Smith. A tour of Carswell Air Force Base where a B-50 bomber testing project is located, were included in the visit.

While at SMU, the cadets stayed in University housing and attended the Military Ball. Cadets making the trip were: Donald Spahl, John Cassey, Ralph Long, Fred Sloan, Gary K. Smith.

Shirley Lee "Miss SIU"?

If there is anything in a name, a young coed from Hong Kong, China, certainly deserves the title of "Miss Southern Illinois University" or "Miss SIU".
 Her name is Siu Siu Lee - pronounced "shoo shoo" in Chinese. Miss Lee, who is studying physics at SIU, explains that the first "Siu" in her name means "tiny"; the second "Siu" means "bamboo". Her parents called her Siu Siu partly because she was the youngest child.
 The unusual name causes SIU instructors, looking over their class rolls, to wonder if it is a typographical error. But it's not. She was so named when she was born in Canton, China.
 Nor did her name have anything to do with her coming to SIU. After attending Hong Kong Baptist College for two years, she won a Foreign Students Scholarship to study here. Later, Siu Siu plans to do graduate work and then return to Hong Kong to teach science.

NAME'S THE SAME
 This SIU coed from Hong Kong, China, has one of the most unique names in the files of Southern students. Her name is Siu Siu Lee (pronounced "shoo shoo"). To avoid the tricky pronunciation, friends call her Shirley. In the student directory, however, she is listed as Lee, SIU SIU. (SIU Photo Service)

Honorary Econ Group Meets

Honor students in home economics will converge on SIU Friday for the annual regional conference of Kappa Omicron Phi honorary home economics fraternity.
 Alpha Kappa chapter at Southern will be host for the delegates and sponsors. The conference will open Friday evening with a get acquainted party and coffee in the Family Living Center of the Home Economics Building, where all business sessions are scheduled.
 Saturday morning, the group will be welcomed by Dr. Eileen Quigley, dean of the School of Home Economics, and Mrs. Sue Bradley Dillard of Ridgway, SIU chapter president. Miss Hazel Crain, lecturer in home economics will be speaker at the Saturday luncheon in Woody Hall. She will describe her experiences in Turkey, while Dr. Douglas Lawson, professor of education, will address the delegates following the Saturday evening banquet.
 Schools represented at the conference will include Mount Mary College, Milwaukee; St. Mary of the Woods, St. Mary, Ind.; Middle Tennessee State College, Murfreesboro, Tenn., and four Illinois schools: Carthage College, Illinois State Normal University, Eastern Illinois University and SIU.
 Other officers of the host chapter besides Mrs. Dillard are: Rosalee Cyriler, first vice president; Betty Galecki Pinsky, second vice president; Pat Chester Helm, corresponding secretary; Oleta Hall, recording secretary; Erma Rothe, treasurer; Karen Wernsing, keeper of the archives; Bernice Rypor, guard and Barbara Lynch, reporter.
 The Carbondale alumnae chapter will assist the active chapter at the Saturday morning coffee break.
 The Department of Guidance in the College of Education was authorized by the SIU Board of Trustees Jan. 23 to accept candidates for the doctor's degree.

Thomson Point Social Council Plans Dance

Plans are being made for the annual Miss Thomson Point contest and dance set for April 8-9. Archie Griffin and his band will play for the dance. The theme will be "Medieval Knights".
 A new queen will be chosen by popular vote of the T.P. residents to replace the retiring Miss Thomson Point, Sharon Zalders, sophomore from Collinsville. The new queen will receive an engraved silver tray. Her court of four will be given silver bracelets. Previous queens were Helen Smith, 1957; Judy Sipes, 1958 and Miss Zalders, 1959.
 Linda Taylor and Dave Green are co-chairmen for the formal dance to be held soon at the Thomson Point. Miss Zalders and Jeff Schwartz are in charge of the contest.

SHARP RETURNS FROM CALIFORNIA TRIP

Dr. Lloyd B. Sharp, visiting professor in the recreation and outdoor education department at Southern, is finishing a two-week speaking tour in California. While there, he participated in the American Camping Assn. Convention in San Francisco. He also conducted workshops in a number of California cities, including Los Angeles and San Diego. Sharp is national president of the Outdoor Education Assn. and director of the Association's annual summer camp.

Swimmers, Wrestlers Defend IAC Crowns

Tankmen Pile Up 187 Points

Southern's powerful swimming team turned in a carbon copy of last year's brilliant title winning effort last weekend, as they swam away with their second consecutive IAC tank title.

Southern piled up a record 187 points in their winning effort. Central Michigan was second with 85 points. Last season the Salukis piled up "only" 156 points.

Illinois State Normal finished third with 51 points. Western was fourth with 42 and Eastern Illinois was last with 23. Northern Illinois and Eastern Michigan did not compete.

Southern won every event except the diving, where the Salukis finished fifth and sixth, and the 200-yard backstroke. Actually, the score could have been much higher had Coach Ralph Casey entered the limit of three men in each event. Instead, he entered only two.

Blake Marks, the Salukis broke every existing conference swimming mark. This season they set four new records.

Paul Wachendorfer set a new 200-yard butterfly pool record with a 2:14.5 performance. Wall Rodgers rewrote the 200-yard freestyle mark as he chopped almost six seconds off Jim Fountain's mark set last season with a time of 2:13.2.

Roogers continued the assault on the record book with a 2:13.7 job in the 200-yard individual medley. His old record set last year.

Freshman Ray Padovan broke the 100-yard freestyle with a 1:32.1 performance. Epperson's mark was 1:33.5.

SIU captain Norbert Rumpel did not make the trip to Macomb. Rumpel, reportedly has been out with a cold for a couple of weeks.

The state General Assembly appropriates financial support to the University on a two-year basis. Most of the money comes from state tax revenues.

"SPRING" PRACTICE

"Snow wonder Southern's baseball team is still indoors with all that white stuff covering the ground. While Saluki baseballers Tom Gerken of Arlington Heights and Bob Hardcastle of St. Louis practice bundling snow balls, their teammates inside prepare for the opening of Southern's spring tour of the South March 21 at Southeast Louisiana. The Salukis, defending IAC champs, open their regular season (that is if it suits snowing) April 2 at Southeast Missouri.

Win Six Mat Titles

The SIU wrestling team climaxed another excellent season Saturday as they walked off with their second consecutive IAC mat title at Macomb.

Coach Jim Wilkinson's matmen captured titles in six of the nine weight divisions.

Southern scored 102 points. Other team totals were Northern 55, Normal 48, Central Michigan 38, Eastern Michigan 22 and Western 4.

Ray Conrad of Northern, who moved up from 177-pound class to heavyweight, was named outstanding wrestler after winning the heavy title. Conrad defeated Houston Antwine of Southern in the semi-final round. Antwine won third place.

Manuel Holcomb of Central Michigan won the 115-pound title. He defeated Isadore Ramos of Southern in a close, exciting dual.

Then came Southern's power. The Salukis repeated last year's feat and won the 123, 130, 137, 147 and 157 pound classes.

Jim Bledsoe, SIU captian, scored three straight falls on the way to winning his third consecutive IAC title. No one scored a point on the SIU grappler.

"Deke" Edwards repeated as 130-pound titlist as he turned back

Bill Kontos of Northern in the finals. Dick Frankenberg turned a similar trick in the 137-pound class as he defeated Rollins of Central Michigan. Rollins is defending NAAIA champ.

Jack Crider defended his 147-pound crown against Weaver of Illinois Normal. Ed Lewis replaced the great Saluki wrestler, Lee Grubbs, in the 157-pound this year and successfully defended SIU's title in that weight class as he defeated Wayne Lighthart of Central Michigan in the finals.

Ray Guzak of Northern decided to drop Roger Plapp of Southern in one of the finest matches of the day in the semi-final round and went on to win the 167-pound title against Spicer of Illinois Normal. Plapp finished third.

Bob Riek of Normal defeated Tom Seaman in the finals of the 177-pound class to capture the blue ribbon. Ken Pontikes of Southern was third.

Ken Houston rounded off Southern's runaway with the 191-pound title. Ken pinned Ray Browning of Eastern Illinois to grab the title.

The Saluki grapplers will journey to the NAAIA Championships in Lock Haven, Pa., March 18 and 19 to attempt to top the national small college title. Southern finished second in the national tournament last year. Following the NAAIA meet, the SIU matmen will travel to College Park, Md., for the NCAA wrestling finals.

Cagers Hang 108-87 Insult On Cardinals To Gain Berth In NAAIA National Finals

The Saluki basketball team advanced to the NAAIA (National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics) this week on the strength of their rousing 108-87 conquest of North Central College Thursday night.

The Salukis opened up in the 32-team tournament last night against Oklahoma Baptist University of Shawnee, Okla. Gallatin's squad won last night. They will play tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 against the winner of the New Mexico Highlands - Nebraska Wesleyan game.

Vaughn Hits 39

Charlie Vaughn, given an All-American honorable mention last year, lived up to the honor by dumping in 39 points Thursday in leading the Salukis over the Cardinals of North Central.

Southern trailed early in the game. With 9:40 remaining in the first half, North Central led by a 25-22 count. Then the Salukis got hot and moved out to a big 50-36 lead at intermission.

The Dogs came out in the second half with their last break in high gear. Vaughn, leading the attack, outscored North Central by himself in the first eight minutes of the half as he dumped in 15 points to the Cardinals. 14. The Salukis' running offense built up a big 94-52 cushion and Gallatin put in the reserves. Vaughn left the game with 4:30 remaining and only four points from his own single game record of 43 points set in the Quincy tourney.

Big Charlie wasn't the whole show however, Tom McGreal, continuing his excellent play, turned in a very fine night with 25 points. Don Hepler, the third "ace" of Southern's "Big Three" added 18 to the winning cause.

All 10 players scored as they did the previous night against McKendree College. The total of 108 points was a season mark for the Salukis.

Going into last night, Southern stood at 20-8 for the season. Oklahoma Baptist, Southern's foe last night, is relatively unknown to SIU. They won the Oklahoma Collegiate Conference last season, they finished second in the conference and had an overall record of 19-8.

The tournament is being held in Municipal Auditorium in Kansas City. All Southern's games will be carried over WSIU with B111 Moore at the mike. Other area stations will probably carry detailed accounts of the game or games.

Defending Champs

Tennessee A&I, beaten twice this season by Southern, is three-time defending champion of the NAAIA tourney. The two defeats at the hands of Southern this season was the first time in more than 10 years that any team turned the trick twice in the same season against tall A&I.

Eight games — four daily beginning at 10:30 a. m. and four nightly starting at 8:30 — were played yesterday and will be played today and tomorrow. The four quarter finals are scheduled for Thursday night, semi-finals Friday and the consolation day night.

Among the highly regarded teams in the tourney represent every section in the country. Arkansas (20-8), Hamlin University of St. Paul, Minn. (22-2), Southwest Texas State of San Marcos (23-3), Granbrier College (24-4) and about a half dozen other schools.

The Southern contingent left at 5 a. m. Sunday by train for Kansas City.

Saluki Grid Schedule Approved

An attractive 10-game football schedule for 1960 has been approved by the University Council on Intercollegiate Athletics.

The only apparent flaw in the Saluki schedule is the home opener against Missouri Mines, almost one week before the opening of school.

Newsomers to the lineup are Ohio University of Athens, Ohio and Ohio Wesleyan of Delaware, Ohio, replacing Evansville College and West Virginia State. The Salukis last met Missouri School of Mines in 1954.

The grid slate features five home and five road contests:

Sept. 17, Missouri Mines, Home, 8 p. m.

Sept. 24, Ohio Wesleyan, Home, 8 p. m. (Slightly Game)

Oct. 1, Northern Illinois, Away-x

Oct. 8, Western Illinois, Home, 8 p. m.

Oct. 15, Eastern Illinois, Away-x

Oct. 22, Illinois State Normal, Homecoming, 1:30 p. m.-x

Oct. 29, Eastern Michigan, Home, 8 p. m. (Parents Day)-x

Nov. 5, Bowling Green, Away

Nov. 12, Central Michigan, Away-x

Nov. 19, Ohio University, Away-x

-x Indicates IAC conference games.
