THE SOCIAL-LITE

By JEAN HOLMES

Traveling-salesmen do not have a monopoly on humorous stories. Public speakers have learned that a certain amount of wholesome humor adds much to the effectiveness of an address. Rightly used, humor prepares the soil for good seed. Dryness in a speech, as well as in the plot, produces scant harvests. Nothing succeeds better to a certain extent, stimulate thought, arouse interest, and give the audience a chance to relax and enjoy the speaker's humor. A laugh is a good tonic; humor fights and laughs at the same time. Someone has said, "You can abuse people, if you will make them laugh." Bitter medicine goes down easier if it is sugared. Drive the truth home with a smile!

For instance, if you were going to make a speech before Miss Scott's class you could tell the joke about the biology professor. It seems that this professor was unwrapping a parcel and always felt the one about the plaintiff who pleaded to the judge that a certain man made love to her and

A STUDY IN CONTRASTS

The following article, which appeared in the autumn, 1945, issue of the International House Quarterly and reprinted in the News Bulletin for April, 1944, of the Institute of International Education, was written by Professor Augustus Descola, Director of the Cite Universitaire in Paris, to show the contrast he observed between the American and German soldier.

Professor Descola remained at his post during the occupation and had occasion to observe the behavior of many Nazi soldiers. After the liberation of the capital, many G. I.'s also studied at the Cite Universitaire. Professor Descola knows American education well, having visited and lectured extensively in American colleges and universities before the war. It is because of this knowledge that Professor Descola can appreciate the American soldier and the educational system that formed them.

He says this about the Germans: "The chief impression they have left is that of their inexistence. They were not persons, they were machines. . . They never chit up and remember this: Don't worry if your job is small. And your rewards are few; Remember that the mighty oak Was once a nut like you.

I.I.A.C. Track, Tennis Meets at Normal Tomorrow

Thinclads Listed As "The Team To Beat"

Coach Leland "Doc" Lingle and his Southern Illinois Normal University tracksters will invade Normal, Ill., on Saturday, May 19, to participate in the Illinois Intercollegiate Athletic Conference track meet, which is held every year at the end of the regular track season.

Southern has been picked to take the high honors in the affair by such an expert as Fred Young, sports editor of the Bloomington Pantagraph, but the Maroon mentor expects stiff competition, especially from Eastern and North.

In the books, it looks like Southern all the way, as the Lingle-men have chalked out five wins in the regular dual meets of the season and have placed fourth in the Elmhurst Invitational; but, as Lingle points out, records can be set aside when these five schools clash in any sport.

Southern has met and defeated the following opponents this season: Western Illinois State Teachers College; Illinois State Normal University; Southeastern Missouri State Teachers College; Washington University; and Eastern Illinois State Teachers College. All of the victories were by rather lopsided scores. However, it was proven in the Elmhurst affair that Southern will have a tough time in the multi-team meet.

Southern has been strongest in the weights, hurdles, and distances so far this season, and therein lies the Maroons' hopes for the conference championship. In a team studied with returned war veterans, the weights squad consists of Quentin Stinson of Eldorado, Earl Robert of Carlyle, and John Algee of Carbondale.

In the hurdles, the Maroons are represented by Charles Beatty of Benton, Jack Hays of Benton, Roy Ragsdale of DeSoto, and Dick Eggers of Chester.

In the distances, it is Louis Pechinico of Christopher, Dick Avis of Johnston City, Jim Galligan of Carlyle, Glen Hamilton of

Football Schedule

Southern's football schedule for next year has been announced by Coach Glenn "Abner" Martin. Of the eight games to be played, five are to take place on the Maroon's own gridiron. The football schedule for 1946 is as follows:

- September 28, Kirksville, (Mo.) Teachers College at Carbondale.
- October 5, Cape Girardeau (Mo.) Teachers College at Carbondale.
- October 12, Illinois State Normal University, at Normal.
- October 19, Arkansas State, at Carbondale.
- October 26, Western Illinois Teachers College at Macomb.
- November 2, Eastern Illinois Teachers College, at Carbondale.
- November 9, Evansville (Indiana) College, at Evansville.

iff at Indiana State. They were not represented fully at the Elmhurst Invitational, ending up with only 9 3-4 points.

The major threat of Eastern is LeRoy Lense, high point man, and he works with the shot put, discus and javelin. He has earned 46 1/2 points this season; his best shot put mark is 46 ft. 8 in.; he has beaten the conference shot put record in each meet except against Southern.

An amazingly weak this season is Northern, with Ronald Rieken, a quarter-miler, their only hope.

Western's strength appears to be concentrated in the dashes and the hurdles.

For Southern, Stinson has thrown the discus 134 ft., Robert has put the shot 143 ft. 9 in., Davidson has hurled the javelin 162 ft. On the cinder path, Algee has run the 100-yard dash in 10.2, Pechinico the mile in 4:44.8, Galligan the one-half mile in 2:05.9, Burden the two mile distance in 10:49.1. These figures denote their best recorded performances during the current season.

THINCLADS FOURTH IN ELMHURST MEET SATURDAY, MAY 11

Southern's strong track and field squad journeyed to Elmhurst Saturday, May 11, and were able to amass a total of 23 points, good enough for fourth place in a 23 team field with 336 athletes taking part.

The large college field was led by Western Michigan with 55 3-4 points, while Wheaton was second, scoring 42 points. Bradley Tech placed third with 23 3-4 points. Two meet records fell before the onslaught of track men. Ed Taylor of Western Michigan had a hand in breaking both of them. Taylor high-jumped 6 ft. 4 1-4 in. to the old mark of 6 ft. 3 7-8 in. Taylor and Ray Ramsey of Bradley Tech lowered the old record of 115.3 in the high hurdles to a fast 114.8.

Coach Leland Lingle's squad was paced by Earl Robert's six points and Quentin Stinson and John Algee's five each. Robert had a third in the discus and a third in the shot put. All five of Stinson's points came with a winning discus throw of 133 ft. 6 3-4 in. Algee placed fifth in the shot, third in the 220 yard dash, and fifth in the 100. Winning time in the 100 yard sprint was :10.2, a mark which Algee equaled in the preliminaries.

'Doc' Lingle To Serve As Honorary Referee At Meet Saturday

R. J. Hancock, athletic director at Illinois State Normal University, announced the selection of Leland P. (Doc) Lingle, track coach at Southern, to serve as honorary referee for the 27th annual of the Illinois Intercollegiate Athletic Conference meet to be held at Normal Saturday.

This honor comes to Lingle, dean of I.I.A.C. track coaches, in recognition of his 20 years of uninterrupted coaching of track at Southern.

Freeburg's Tennis Squad Sparked By Veterans

By Sam Hancock

Coach Bill Freeburg's tennis team will be attempting to bring the third I.I.A.C. championship to Southern in the meet which began this morning at 9 o'clock on the Normal courts. The semi-finals will get under way this afternoon, and tomorrow morning should see the finals completed.

The I.I.A.C. meet winds up a successful season for Southern's netmen; they have won four meets, lost one, and tied one. Their last victory came at the expense of Cape Girardeau here Tuesday afternoon to the tune of 9-0, with Freeburg's men making a clean sweep of the six singles and three doubles matches. It was the second win in as many tries against the Missourians.

The singles competition at Normal has four-singles divisions and two doubles divisions. The competitors in all divisions will be weeded out by a single elimination tournament.

The team championship will be determined by the total number of points scored by the players of the college represented. To quote Coach Hill of Normal on the point-scoring of the meet, "Each match won by a singles or doubles team shall count one point except: If there are less than eight players or teams in any division, the player or team drawing a bye will receive two points for the first match won."

The individual singles champion and the doubles team winner in the first division each will be awarded an additional point. The victors in the second division will receive a half point. No supplementary points are apportioned the winners in the third and fourth divisions.

A team trophy will be presented to the school amassing the highest score. The winner and runner-up of the first division singles and doubles will be rewarded for their efforts by gold and silver medals respectively. Winners of the other divisions are wearing gold and bronze medals. The individual division winners are as follows: Singles—Bruce Church, Joe Pulley, Roy Leilich, and John Maguire. Church and Pulley make up the first doubles team, and Harry Meng and Leilich comprise Freeburg's team in the second division doubles.

Southern's '42 team won out by a two point margin over Normal, and made a clean sweep of the matches the following year. In

Instrumental in Southern's '42, '43 victories at the I.I.A.C. meets were such men as Verdie Cox, Jim Norman, Scotty Gill, and Roy Leilich. In '42, Cox and Norman won the first division doubles, and Gill and Leilich repeated in the second division doubles. Bruce Church, Southern's ace singles man, and half of the first doubles duo, is no newcomer to the I.I.A.C. tennis either.
