Burl Ives, Ballad Singer, To Climax Southern Music Festival Saturday

Burl Ives, acclaimed as "America's mightiest ballad singer," will climax the Southern Illinois Music festival scheduled for May 12 in McAndrew stadium.

Ives, a native of Newton, Jasper county, has wandered all over the country singing the songs of the plains, the sea, the mountains, and the mines. He had roles in several Broadway productions, in addition to a number of films, such as "Smokey," "Green Grass of Wyoming," Walt Disney's "So Dear to My Heart," and "Sierra."

IN THE FESTIVAL at Southern, Ives will give a 30-minute program of songs to climax the evening of "Music Under the Stars." Earlier in the program, an elementary choir of more than 1,000 voices, all-star grade and high school bands, and the Southern Illinois Symphony orchestra will all perform under guest directors chosen from the area on the basis of years of service to young Southern Illinois musicians.

Another feature will be the presentation of the honored musician and a group of selections by one of her pupils, and solo numbers by an honored soloist.

University and University School students will be admitted by presentation of their activity tickets.

Opportunities in nursing careers are unlimited. Miss Hester L. Johnson, director of nursing education here at Southern, said today in announcing that Southern will participate in Student Nurse Week May 6-13.

"This is one week which we can wholeheartedly endorse and in which we hope far-seeing parents of young women will take an active interest," Miss Johnson observed. Applications are being received now for Southern's first nursing class, scheduled to open in September.

The nursing director pointed out that the field of nursing is open to any high school graduate who can meet school entrance requirements.

Dorm Construction Necessitates Move For Student Center

Southern's Student Center has been established in a new building on Harwood Ave. according to Miss Leah Farr, acting dean of Women.

At present, the student center is operating on a day-light basis only, since the lighting facilities have not yet been installed. It is anticipated that the lights will be operating within the next few weeks. Until this time, the Student Center will be open during the following hours.

Wednesdays—8 a.m.-6 p.m.

Saturdays—1 p.m.-6 p.m.

Sundays—3 p.m.-6 p.m.

STUDENT OFFICES and the office of the personnel deans will be located in the Student Center building.

The new building is located near the corner of Harwood and Thompson Ave.

The moving of the Student Center was necessary due to the construction work that is being started at the site of the old Student Center, 910 S. University. This construction involves the building of a new women's dormitory.

The wrecking of the music house which was located next to the old Student Center building has already been accomplished. The old Student Center building will remain standing temporarily since it is to act as the construction office for the new dormitory.

The actual breaking of the ground and beginning of the work on the new Women's dormitory will begin sometime next week according to Willard C. Hart, construction supervisor. It will take approximately two years to complete the new dormitory.

Ledwidge was educated at King's College, Cambridge, and Princeton University (where he was a classmate of Dr. Benziger of the English department at Southern.) During the last war he was stationed for a time with the Frontier Forces of the Indian Army.

AFTER THE WAR he joined the India and Burma Office in London, and served as Private Secretary to the head of the India Office during the negotiations which led to the transfer of power to India in 1947. Ledwidge visited Burma in 1947 for negotiations connected with its independence. In 1948, he joined the British Foreign Office, and served as First Secretary in the Southeast Asian department until November, 1949, when he was appointed British Consul in St.

Carbondale Clean-up Scheduled For May 9

Southern's Health and Safety Committee is cooperating with the Carbondale Chamber of Commerce and the Jackson County Health Department in sponsoring a Clean-up Day tomorrow.

Residences and organized houses are requested to have all trash and debris collected on the parkways in front of the houses by 8 a. m.

Carbondale civic organizations have been assigned as co-chairmen of seven wards in Carbondale. The organizations will be responsible for providing trucks and workers to haul away trash.

Each block in Carbondale will be rated according to the degree of cleanliness. Criteria for grading will include: (1) whether the premises are without trash or debris, (2) whether the premises have metal covered garbage cans, (3) whether the premises have adequate screens. Grade ratings of A, B, C, and D, will be given to each block.

Honest Injun!!

Evidently the actors in "The Indian Captive," an AAUW play presented for youngsters recently, were, as they say in the speech department, "convincing." Miss Tina Goodwin, assistant professor in the University school, reports that Michael Smith, a first grader, came up to her after the performance, saying, "Miss Tina, I went up and talked to the Indian grandmother after the show. She was real nice and spoke English."

Hall of Fame?

Rutgers university is going to build a $5,000,000 National Football Hall of Fame on its campus in New Brunswick, N. J. It's going to be a counterpart of the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N. Y., with Red Grange filling a niche equivalent to that of Walter Johnson.

Thousands of Rutgers graduates will be expected to swell with pride because of the national eminence thus achieved by their alma mater.

Pictures of the "shrine" will get a big play in all Rutgers propaganda, and they will be expected to attract freshmen in droves as large as General Hershey will permit. Oh, it's going to be wonderful altogether!

But isn't Rutgers supposed to be an educational institution? And what does this $5,000,000 football promotion have to do with education?—ST. LOUIS POST DISPATCH.

Southern Makes Study Of Mental Abilities

By Harry Reinert

There has been a lot of talk recently about Southern's beauties—students, that is. In spite of what some faculty members believe, some of the students have brains, too.

One day last winter a faculty member complained that he was sick and tired of hearing a few of the profs around here talking about the stupid student at Southern. This particular instructor said he had students in his classes that were as bright as they come. Undoubtedly most of the faculty feels much the same way—with the exception or a few.

Southern was one of a number of universities which recently completed a study of the correlation between grades on freshman entrance exams and course grades. This was an enormous task, as Bob Etheridge, who made the study at Southern, will be glad to tell you.

From this study came a number of interesting facts. On the whole, Southern has a smaller group of "brains" than the national average, and a few more at the opposite end of the scale. But the great bulk of Southern's students fall in the class between these two extremes—the type who can make a go of college if they want, and will flunk out if they don't. (Another interesting item is that in practically all fields of study, the girls average about 1.0 higher than the boys.)

Added up, these bits of knowledge mean this—although Southern may have fewer geniuses than the average, this does not mean that the university caters to dolts. The low entrance requirements—while probably causing a lower percentage of the brightest students—permits practically anyone to take a crack at getting a college education. And most of these students are in the middle ground. So, the critics are not justified in branding Southern's students as idiots. Whether the students try is another matter. But in the future, let's keep this distinction clear!

We erroneously reported a couple of weeks ago that reserve books couldn't be checked out from Saturday until Monday. These books may be checked out for this period of time—we made our report from an unfortunate misunderstanding.

About all that needs to be said about Spring Festival has been said in recent Egyptian editorials. We only add: let future committees think of these things.

Congratulations are definitely in order for the Obelisk staff for getting the books out so early this year. Who knows—if the distribution date is continually advanced, the Obelisks may come out during fall term within a few more years.

The university is buying a historic log cabin school house. If very many more temporary buildings are torn down, the house may have to be pressed into service.

Student Recital Schedule Listed

Schedules for student recitals to be presented this month were released last week by Dr. Maurits Kesnar, chairman of the university music department.

GRADUATING SENIORS will present a recital May 16. Performers include vocalists Virginia Nelson and Bill Hall, hornist Roger Hughes, violist Gene Howey, trumpeter Catherine Gilkerson, and pianist Ruth McClure.

Alma Dean Smith, vocalist, will present her senior recital May 21. She will also sing at the graduation ceremonies. Completing the month, a general student recital will be held May 28.

All recitals will be held in the Little Theatre and will be open to the public. No admission is charged.

Major E. B. Pickle to Interview Students.

Major K. B. Pickle, procurement officer, and his processing crew will be here on Southern's campus tomorrow and Thursday to interview and enroll students who are interested in either the Marine Corps Platoon Leaders Class or in an Officers Candidate Class.

Major Pickle will make his headquarters at the dean of men's office. While here, he will also swear in present applicants for the classes.

Application forms may now be obtained in the dean of men's office. Freshmen, sophomores, and juniors are eligible for either of these classes. No military training is required during the regular school year, for the classes are held in the summer.

Interested students may see Major Pickle tomorrow or Thursday in the dean of men's office.

New SIU Student Speakers Bureau Fills Requests for Programs

Probably the first school in the country to give academic credit for off-campus speaking engagements is Southern Illinois University, where a new Student Speakers Bureau has been organized.

Students of speech as well as others well-informed on particular subjects will work under direction of the agency in filling requests for programs.

Before becoming a member of the bureau, the student lecturer not only must be well informed on his subject, but also be trained in the most effective delivery of his material.

DR. PAUL HUNSINGER, assistant professor of speech, organized the bureau and handles program requests. Academic credit is determined by the number of engagements filled by the speakers.

The agency "stable" includes Tom Sloan, Student Council president from West Frankfort, who has won the Midwest After-Dinner Speaking Contest for the past two years. Bill Plater, Vienna, formerly with a Naval entertainment unit, does stage cartoons and on-the-spot caricatures.

A reading and interpretation of the current stage hit, "Peter Pan," is done by Jane Hall, student from Herrin. Scott Lamb, Pinckneyville senior who spent several years in the Navy, has a talk based on an enlisted man's observations and experiences on South Pacific islands. The title is "Some Disenchanted Evening."

In describing the purposes of the new bureau and the experience it provides Dr. Hunsinger says, "In a way, the bureau is an out-

DR. LANTZ TO RETURN TO SOUTHERN FOR SUMMER

Dr. Herman R. Lantz of the research staff of Norwich State Hospital, Norwich, Connecticut, will return to Southern for the summer session and will again offer his course on "Marriage and Parenthood," a course designed to acquaint students with the processes and problems of mate selection, marital adjustment, and parent child relationships.

To permit a wider enrollment, two sections of this course will be offered, one meeting in the morning and one in the afternoon. The course (numbered Sociology 303) will be open to any student of sophomore standing or higher who has completed a beginning course in sociology, and it will carry three quarter hours credit.

OTHER STUDENT speakers available through the bureau are: Roy Clark, Carbondale, state oratorical contest winner who has an oration, "Noblesse Oblige," on the economic aspects of prejudice; Dorothy Clutts, Carbondale, social and political subjects; Don Fearheiley, ministerial student from Centralia; lectures dealing with religious poetry and drama.

Edwin Lunde, Carbondale, and James Trigg, Tamaroa, collegiate comedians, have a repertoire of comedy skits. Others are Bill E. Spangler, Elkville, authority on outdoor life, "Dogs, Guns and The Morning Star," Jo Ann Eblen, McLeansboro, play readings of George Bernard Shaw's "Candida" and Maxwell Anderson's "Winter-set," and Carol Krusen, speech major from St. Louis, who does dramatic book reviews.

Reinert Receives Emory Fellowship

Harry Reinert, senior from Hot Springs, Ark., recently accepted a graduate fellowship in philosophy at Emory university, Atlanta, Ga., for the next year.

Since his enrollment at Southern in 1948, Reinert has been active on the Egyptian staff, in campus musical organizations, and on various student committees. He will appear on the Honors Day program this month, and is a candidate for the B. A. in August with a major in philosophy and minor in German.

THIS WEEK HE was notified that a paper he had written to submit with his fellowship application has been accepted for publication by the "International Journal of Ethics," published by the University of Chicago. The paper is an interpretation of the ethical philosophy of Charles Sanders Pierce, recent American philosopher. Date of publication of the paper has not yet been set.

He hopes to receive his M. A. in philosophy from Emory next year and continue studies toward a Ph.D. Eventually, Reinert plans to become a teacher of philosophy.

Baseball Team Trounces Michigan Normal Twice

By Don Duffy

Darrell Thompson's six hit 7-4 victory, in which he fanned eleven and walked two, and Art Menendez's tenth inning double which drove Joe Jones home from second for a 6-5 win in Saturday's contest, gave Southern a clean sweep of their two game series against the Michigan Normal Hurons. The Maroons are now two games above the .500 mark in conference play with a record of 5-3.

All of Michigan's four runs in Friday's contest came via errors by the Southern infield. The Hurons put together a hit batsman, a single, and an error by second baseman Ed Coleman for two runs in the fifth. They scored twice in the eighth on three singles and an error by third baseman Chuck Valier.

However, Southern's infield had its better moments as well. In the fourth inning, after successive errors Valier and Menendez put two men on, "Chick" Valier grabbed a hot grounder, stepped on third, and threw to first to complete a double play. Ed Coleman came up with two great plays, one on a hard-hit liner, and one on a ground ball for to his right. Then in the ninth inning Menendez started a game ending double play, short to second to first.

SOUTHERN scored a pair of runs in the first inning on a walk to Schmulback. Coleman's sacrifice, Valier's double, and a single by Joe Jones. The Maroons picked up two more the next time around when the center fielder let Jones' second single go through him. Schmulback and Coleman, who had been waiting on first and second, both scored on the play. Thompson's single, a long triple by Coleman, and Valier's squeeze bunt counted for the fifth and sixth runs in the sixth inning. The Martinmen finished the day's scoring with a lone run in the eighth, coming as a gift when Coleman drew his third pass, this time with loaded bases. Campbell, Thompson and Jones each got two hits for the Maroons.

SECOND GAME

Southern had to work overtime to trounce the visitors in Saturday's game. The Martinmen jumped off to a two run lead in the first inning. Schmulback was safe on an error and was chased home when Valier clouted a home run. The Maroons scored another run in the second on Don Campbell's lead-off home run.

MICHIGAN got their first two hits off starter Reid Martin in the fourth inning, but couldn't drive them across. In the fifth it was a different story when they scored twice on two errors, a single, and the first of Dick Ortiz's two triples. Southern got one back in their half of the inning when Coleman singled home Schmulback, who had tripled.

The visitors came within one run of tying the score in the sixth. Jim Snider led off the inning with a double and scored on an error by Weisbecker and an infield grounder. The seventh saw the Hurons take the lead. A walk, a single, and Ortiz second triple counted for two runs.

Southern tied the score in their half on singles by Schmulback and Valier. Grandcolas came in in the eighth for the Maroons and had little trouble until the tenth. At that point he found runners on second and third with one out. He got Toczyk on a pop-up to Coleman and then struck out Hatch to retire the side.

The Maroons also found themselves with two runners on base. Jones opened the tenth inning with a double. Campbell walked with one out. Weisbecker went down for the second out. Menendez then took two, doubled to left on a 2-2 pitch to end the game.

Spring Grid Tilt Ends In Deadlock

Two sweating Southern football teams battled to a scoreless tie last Thursday afternoon in the year's first intra-squad game in McAndrew Stadium.

The hot weather, lack of play knowledge, and the fact that there aren't more than a handful of players participating in spring practice all combined to account for the fact that neither team was able to cross the opponent's goal.

Many new faces were present along with some old ones, and the fact that many top notch lettermen from this fall have graduated was very evident. There was no one that showed the fapey, tip-toe touchdown running of all conference halfback Harold Call, who is now in the service.

There were no Crosses or Littlefords in that line nor was there a Hoot Swoboda backing it up. But all in all the boys showed that they do have the willingness to learn and the will to win. Spirit was high throughout the game even though the adverse weather conditions were enough to stifle most of the chatter.

STANDING OUT, head and shoulders above any other back, was Bob Schweinberg. The pile driving Chicago lad really showed class with a fine defensive job backing up his offensive power. Also a new back, Bob Zabroski, Chicago, was a fixture in the ball carrying department as well as intercepting two passes and recovering a fumble.

In the quarterback department Joe Huske of Chicago and "Ping" Moore of Anna-Jonesboro were impressive throughout the game, although both showed lapses of memory at certain times.

Backing up the line was the smallest lineman on the field, Charles Parker, freshman from Salem, and he did a bang up job most of the way.

Despite the lack of offensive power in the game, Coach Waller and the men are looking forward to next fall when they will tangle with someone other than their buddies. Spirit will be high, but competition will be tough.

Tennis Team Romps To Successive Wins Over Cape, St. Louis

The Maroon tennis team surged to two successive victories last week, with wins over Cape Girardeau and highly-touted St. Louis university. The racket welders romped to a 7-0 shut-out win over the Cape boys Wednesday, and then came back to avenge an earlier loss by whipping St. Louis U., 4-3, last Saturday.

Bob Barnhart, Stan Cooper, and Jim Soliday scored consecutive triumphs in both matches, and Jack Norman and Omar Winter each got one victory.

In the Cape match, Cooper, playing No. 1, defeated Davis, 6-1, 6-1. Winters won, 2-6, 10-8, and 6-3 in a hard fought contest. Jack Norman then routed his opponent 3-6, 7-5, and 8-6. Barnhart and Soliday posted victories with 6-3, 6-0; 6-4, 6-0 wins respectively.

ST. LOUIS U. had dropped the Maroons in St. Louis two weeks ago by the identical score they lost Saturday, 4-3. Southern's men played good tennis Saturday, however, to whip a really good club. With a tennis team composed of strong servers like Jack Weber and John Stewart, St. Louis U. has a rough team to beat. However, Southern was able to win the third, fourth and fifth singles, and capped the day's efforts by winning the No. 2 doubles to counter four points against St. Louis' three.

Against St. Louis, Norman dropped the No. 1 singles to Jack Weber, 6-1, 6-4. And Winter lost to his No. 2 man, 6-4, 6-3. But Barnhart, Cooper, and Soliday all bounced back to route the next three opponents. Cooper won over Stewart, 6-3, 7-9, and 6-3. Barnhart won easily, 6-1, 6-0. And newcomer Soliday routed the No. 5 man, 6-4 and 8-6.

NORMAN and Barnhart lost the No. 1 doubles to Weber and Moore, but Cooper and Winter won the meet match in their doubles, 6-2 and 6-1.

SECOND CAPE MATCH

The SIU nesters won their second straight match from Cape yesterday on the local courts. All the members of the regular squad triumphed over their Missouri foes, but two inexperienced doubles' teams lost out, to give the Maroons a 5-2 victory in the match.

Phil Coleman Breaks Records Consistently

By Jim Turpin

Lack of competitive running may cause track men to go stale, especially if they are distance runners. But this is not the case of the finest distance runner in the history of Southern Illinois University, Phil Coleman.

The long striding Carbondale junior opened the season with a new school record in the two mile run against Cape Girardeau on April 10, touring the eight laps in 9:59. Then Coleman was forced to wait almost three weeks before he could compete again, this time he had to buck a stiff wind and wound up the two mile jaunt in a "slow" 10:24.

Then with four days of practice and rest, the Carbondale Comet surprised everyone with a blistering new record in the one mile run, which up to this time was merely a sideline for him. He eclipsed the old record of 4:30 set by Joe McLafferty last year by almost seven seconds. The new record is 4:23-4.

You can bet that many eyes will rest on this boy as the season progresses. One thing to remember is, don't expect him to set a fantastic record everytime he runs. The conditions must be good, the setting must be adequate and Phil must be ready, all these must blend together again as they did last Wednesday night when he set the record. Coleman won't be trying for a new mark everytime, that's for sure. Last week, following the win in the mile, Phil said he felt fine and someone asked if he was going to try for a record in the two mile.

"No," he answered, "I might break the record, but I might ruin myself for the year. We have a lot of meets left." That's the kind of guy Phil Coleman is.

As we watch Phil stride to a new cross country record of 20:00 flat in the early fall, we knew that he was in for a good year. He countered with a win in the I. I. A. C. meet and then turned on the power with a remarkable victory in the Wheaton Invitational Meet ousting the top winners of the state.

Then came the new two mile record, then the one mile record. What next for Southern's remarkable Phil Coleman?

PHIL COLEMAN, SIU track star, is shown as he broke the one mile record in a meet against Eastern Illinois State. Coleman is captain of the track team this year. He is a Junior, son of Dr. E. C. Coleman, associate professor of English.
