HEY! YE DELVERS IN TERRA FIRMA, LOOK WHAT IS COMING

What—Biggest Corn Show Ever.

When—Dec. 6 and 7.

Where—S. I. N. U., Carbondale.

Who May Make Entries—Anyone in Illinois, South of the Baltimore & Ohio.

We do not expect this show to rival the State Fair in magnitude of exhibits. But we do plan to make it a real success and absolutely the biggest thing, of its kind, the school has ever had.

Rules and regulations have not been worked out in details, as yet, so only generalities are given here. It is planned, however, that while any farmer's son, daughter, etc., may send in an exhibit, they must be here in person at least one of the days.

The show will be under the management of Mr. Muckelroy and the Agriculture Club, but the judging will be done by a corn expert to be chosen later.

The following prizes will be awarded:

Yellow Corn

First Prize.....One Purebred Duroc Jersey Pig (male.)
Second Prize.....	$10.00
Third Prize.....	7.50
Fourth Prize.....	5.00
Fifth Prize.....	2.00
Sixth Prize.....	1.00

White Corn

First Prize.....One Purebred Duroc Jersey Pig (male.)
Second Prize.....	$10.00
Third Prize.....	7.50
Fourth Prize.....	5.00
Fifth Prize.....	2.00
Sixth Prize.....	1.00

HE NOTICED A CHANGE AT S. I. N. U. DURING HOME-COMING LAST WEEK.

The old Grad class of '76, stood on the campus, and pondered at the change time had wrought in the appearance of Alma Mater. A group of girls passed him.

"I went out with a dumb kluck last night," one was saying, "and the poor goof got plastered. Isn't that the bee's knee?"

"It's a scream; it's wicked; in fact it's kinda flucky," replied another.

The old Grad did not ponder long. "They didn't teach that course when I was in college," he said.

ANNA ATHLETICS BEST MAROONS 6-0 Back of Punch in Pinches Roles Normal Squad of Victory.

The Maroons were again forced to drain the last bitter drags of defeat when they battled the Anna Athletics last Friday. Though fighting hard the Normal squad invariably came up short when she really had a chance to score, while Anna greatly benefited by the assistance of a fifteen yard penalty made a lone touchdown, with the consequent result that the Normal came out with the little end of a 6-0 score.

The battle was hard fought all the way through, and yet it was not such an even battle as the score indicates. With due regards to the prowess of the Athletics, it was the consensus of opinion that the Normal was the better of the two teams and should have won by at least two touchdowns. Beginning immediately after the first and only score by Anna, the ball was for the remainder of the game played either within Anna's territory or on neutral ground, mid-field. Time and again the Maroon's offense worked the ball under the very shadows of the goal post only to allow the Fruit Belters to hold them for downs or to recover a fumbled ball.

At one time the Maroons had the ball within two feet of the Anna goal and failed to push across. On sequent occasions the ball was in the ten yard zone, but failed to pass the coveted line. In mid-field the team seemed to have the best of their opponents, but they invariably failed in the pinches when failure meant the loss of a score.

Numerous penalties and considerable wrangling featured the game, more than did the football displayed by either of the contesting teams. Frequent time outs for injuries, rule book disputes, and such, delayed the game, and when it became evident that the Normal couldn't penetrate the Anna defense for the necessary score, the game became tedious to the spectators. As the teams essays against the enemy failed and failed so did the yelling from the rooters, with the exception of one loyal congregation on the far side, who, under the leadership of one John Brimm, lately of Creal Springs, and now a duly registered student in the S. I. N. U. made the field resound with their whoops, yells, shouts and songs. Everything from funeral dirges to wedding marches and from hippty kis to husky rah, rah, rahs feature their repertoire of noises.

The spectators were treated to the pleasure of seeing a revised and re-organized team in action Friday. Due to injuries of four of the regulars Captain Mac was greatly handicapped and had to shift the team around to strengthen the weak spots left by the absence of the regulars. Henson played left end instead of right end, his regular position. Maxey at guard for Hendy. Hendy at tackle for Cox. Carter at right end for McBrath and Allan at center for Dunn. Hendy and Allan pulled some fine defensive work on the line, both men being credited with tackles behind the enemy's line of scrimmage. Henson played a great game at end, stopping a number of end runs, his frequent fouling, however, was the cause of a number of penalties for the Maroons. Bix was the star of the back field, his line-smashing plunges and his reception of a pass for 35 yards featured the Maroons play. Carter at end intercepted a pass and completed one for a neat gain, besides displaying a good defensive game.

Thompson, Winston, Meisenheimer and Davis, the Anna back field, sagged equally the brunt of the poor offense. Meisenheimer thrilled the spectators with several brilliant end runs. Thompson was responsible for Anna's lone score, which he netted by plunging the line for 1 yard and a touch down.

The Maroons again threatened to score in the third quarter, when after having completed a pass to Bixenstein for 35 the Normal was on Anna's

EGYPTIAN SUED FOR SLANDER

Waller Asks For $50,000 Damages.

Corem Waller, '23, has brought suit against the Egyptian Publishing Company of the S. I. N. U. for fifty thousand dollars damages. This is for slander. Mr. Waller strongly denies all statements which we made in last week's issue of the Egyptian. The paper is making no comments at present pending advice from our attorneys, Neely and Lentz.

8 yard line. Bix tore through for 4. Sequent plunges were thrown for a loss and a pass to Carter was incomplete. Anna scored the first and only score of the game in the first quarter. On Carter's interception of a pass, Ham punted out to mid-field and Anna began her march on the Normal goal. By means of plunges and a thrilling 35 yard run by Meisenheimer the Athletics pushed the oval across, only to be penalized 5 yards. Brilliant tackles by Ham and Willoughby secured the safety of the goal temporarily. However, the Maroons were penalized 15 yards for holding and Anna plunged over from the one yard line. Thompson failed to kick goal. Score 6-0. The remainder of the quarter was characterized by short gains and punting. Anna was penalized an additional 15 yards in this period.

The second quarter began with Anna in possession of the ball on Normal's 40 yard line. Anna was penalized 5 yards. The Normal gained possession of the ball on a forced punt. By a series of plunges and a pass from Hale to Hanson for 20 yards, and a 5 yard penalty on Anna the Maroons pushed up to Anna's 7 yard line. Essays on the line failed.

A triple pass, Lee to Goforth and Goforth to Hale, Hale to Carter, was intercepted on the goal line, the runner being tackled viciously, fumbled the oval and Normal recovered on Anna's one yard line. The Anna defense could not be budged and after four attempts the Normal lost the ball on downs. Anna punted out and following a few plays Hale attempted and on side kick but Anna recovered. Hendy recovered a fumble on the 18 yard line. Bix and Ham smashed the defense for 12 yards and the half ended with Normal on Anna's 6 yard

SEE THE MAROONS BATTLE THE BOYS FROM ST. LOUIS

Miss Elizabeth Templeton, a graduate of S. I. N. U. in the class of 1921, died at the home of her parents Tuesday afternoon, October 7. She had been suffering from tuberculosis for some time previous to her death. She taught school in DuQuoin until her health forced her to give up her place. The funeral was held at the First Methodist church at Pinckneyville, October 9. The students and friends of Elizabeth extend their sympathy to the parents and relations.

S. I. N. U. GRADUATES ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Homecoming was a happy time for everyone at S. I. N. U. However there was one little person who was the happiest one there. She had left her troubles of school teaching behind her in Centralia. She had come to join with her S. I. N. U. friends to celebrate Home-Coming, but instead of enjoying that alone she was enjoying that wonderful sensation of wearing a real honest to goodness diamond engagement ring on her left hand. Three guesses on who this person is. Just to give you a hint we will say that the man in the case is a prominent member of the Senior College—a member of the band and, yes, he led last year's basket ball squad through a very successful season. Both the girl and boy were popular members of last June's graduating class—but why go further, you probably without doubt have guessed that Faye Chambers was the proud possessor of that mighty pretty ring and Clyde (Brooksie) Brooks is the man in the case.

Y. W. C. A.

On Tuesday evening, November 21, 1922, the Young Women's Christian Association will hold their annual recognition service in the Association Hall. This meeting is for the purpose of inducting all new members of the Association and the program which will be given portrays the purpose of the organization by a beautiful little play written especially for the occasion, and entitled, "The Candle-Light Ceremony."

Engagement Announced

A number of Anthony Hall girls were having a spread in Room 15 Saturday evening, November 11, in honor of some of their former S. I. N. U. friends, who had returned for Home-Coming. During the happy moments of the reunion the engagement of Miss Ethel Wooley and Mr. Orval McLain was announced. Miss Wooley was a student of S. I. N. U. last year and is now teaching in Chester. Mr. McLain is attending school at present.

GRID IRON GOSSIP

(The editor will gladly receive any contributions to this column. If you have some interesting piece of news or some comment to make concerning athletics this is the place to put it.)

G. G.

Misfortune so far this season has seemed to walk hand in hand with our mole skin clad heroes. The Maroons suffered their third consecutive defeat Saturday when the Shurtleff bunch lucked out on them in the last two minutes of play. A blocked punt that was recovered behind Normal's line is the story. The same story resulted from the Cape Girardeau game, a blocked punt recovered behind the Normal's goal line. We can't complain or give an alibi for the Char game. Charleston's blue clad warriors merely outplayed us, though in respect to the team it might be said that the Charleston squad had the advantage of longer practice and more actual experience than did the Maroons. As things stand the S. I. N. U. is lagging along with three defeats and old man jinx seemed to have appointed himself mascot of the team.

The Maroons are playing good ball and are fighting but so far the breaks of the games have been against them. But watch the fellows when they clash with Cape tomorrow on the Normal athletic field. The game is going to be the big feature of the Home Coming program and the team is going in to win. Old man jinx had better come decked out in head gears and shoulder pads because he is due to get knocked for a couple of thousand loops.

G. G.

The real ability of the Maroon's defense was clearly demonstrated last Saturday when they held the Shurtleff gang for downs within the Normal ten yard line. The Maroons broke through and stopped the charging backs on the line of scrimmage and even back of the line of battle. On the fourth down Shurtleff tossed an easy pass over the Normal line that advanced her to the Normal's 2 yard line and there she lost possession of the pig skin. Old man jinx made his appearance here and the S. I. N. U. eleven came home burdened with the small end of a 7-0 score.

G. G.

Huss, a recruit in the back field, did the punting for the Normal Saturday and right well did Henry boot the old oval through the upper atmosphere.

G. G.

McIlrath was robbed of a beautiful chance to complete a forward pass and possibly a touchdown in the Shurtleff game. Mac was racing down the field and on the Shurtleff ten yard line stretched out his hands to cup in the speeding ball. At the same time a defensive back jumped through the air to stop the ball and missing he unintentionally fell tripping Mac. The ball dribbled off Mac's fingers and the chance to score dribbled off with it. Had McIlrath been permitted to have taken one more step he would have been able to pull the ball into him and the consequent result might have changed the final story of the game.

G. G.

Fishel: Hey Cresote, have you taken a shower?

Willoughby: No, why? Is there one missing?

THE RADIATOR

We shall endeavor in the Radiator Column to radiate the wit and wisdom of our faculty members and the students in general. It is hoped that the Egyptian readers will experience real enjoyment in all that finds a place here.

(By Prof. Boomer)

On the 28th of October in Peoria there was held a conference of faculty members to consider the work of Bible discussion groups in the colleges. This study is under the direction of the Y. M. C. A. and is of course, entirely voluntary. It is the plan to organize as many discussion groups as there may be called for and place in charge of each a student leader. The groups will meet once a week and the leaders will meet as a group with the delegate to the conference once a week. It is hoped that this plan will be more effective than former plans in helping students to work out vital problems of school life on the campus.

Our devoted State Secretary, Mr. O. E. Pence, was in charge of the conference at Peoria. He had planned the work very carefully and every minute was used. There were representatives from fifteen colleges all over the state. The addresses of Mr. Caldwell of the Y at Illinois, and Professor Don of Northwestern College were especially helpful. The writer regards it a real privilege to attend as the representative of the local Y.

A wholesome philosophy: To make the most of dull hours, to make the best of dull people, to like a poor jest better than none, to wear the threadbare coat like a gentleman, to be outvoted with a smile, to hitch your wagon to the old horse if no star is ready—that is wholesome philosophy.

The inner side of every cloud is bright and shining.

I therefore turn my clouds about and always wear them inside out to show the lining.

PROF. R. E. MUCKELROY

(Taken from the Mt. Vernon Register-News.)

Practically every Jefferson county farmer knows Prof. R. E. Muckelroy. He will be with us at our Farmers' Institute on November 15th, both afternoon and evening.

Professor Muckelroy is head of the Agriculture Department at the Southern Illinois State Normal University at Carbondale, and is one of the best known agricultural leaders in "Egypt." He is an enthusiastic livestock man and has developed some notable herds, and flocks on the Normal University farm. Professor Muckelroy's work both at the University and in connection with the State Farmers' Institute is exceedingly practical and popular. He is an excellent speaker, and never fails to interest his hearers. His ability to present both livestock and crop subjects, and also speak upon general educational, community and organization topics has won him a wide following throughout the southern Illinois counties. Prof. Muckelroy is one of the leaders in agricultural development in "Egypt" and is thoroughly conversant in the great opportunities and possibilities which the southern part of the state holds for anyone who will but practice right methods on the farm. He has a message for everyone and no one should miss hearing him at the coming Farmers' Institute. You will like him, and also like what he has to say.

DIGEST OF COLLEGIATE THOT

"A student's record on the campus is a fair criterion of what he will do after he is graduated. If he waits too long to start that record he will find it difficult to make it presentable. Procrastination leads to nothing but disappointment and regret."—Daily Illini.

"Purpose and success have always been inseparable. No man has ever enjoyed a successful existence, in fact, nothing under the sun has ever lasted permanently and satisfactorily without having a certain purpose to be achieved, a definite mission to fulfill."—The Northern Illinois.

"There are three types of people—those who think not at all, those whose thinking is superficial, and those who are fundamentally thinkers in this world."—The Decaturian.

"For every victory a defeat is a fundamental of the game that must be recognized. In school or out we sooner or later come face to face with it. We cannot all win, some must lose, and the sooner we recognize the fact the better for ourselves and our inter-school spirit."—The Manitou Messenger.

"Do you take an active interest in your school? Have you tried to get acquainted with the fellows around school? This is no formal party."—The Racquet.

We are glad there is such a group of students known as freshmen. What would we do without them? Whom would we blame for breaking the rules?

We welcome you, freshmen, and while you are struggling to become dignified seniors, remember that we were in your state at one time. Support the school in all it does and be an asset, not a drawback.—The Student.

AND THEY LEFT WITHOUT DESERT

Last Wednesday evening the Acacia Club met and had a luncheon to be served by Miss Rue and her bevy of pretty girls. The boys (also including faculty members who are Masonic Brothers) came to the Hall with the great ambition of "Eating."

The luncheon, of course, being an elaborate affair, was served in courses. It is rumored that really some of the fellows have been accustomed to such proceedings, but since coming to the great city of Carbondale, and having been initiated into the mysteries of Boarding House Etiquette, such knowledge has vanished away!

At any rate the boys assembled for the "eats." The pretty waiters did their duty in seeing that they were promptly served. The first and second courses were served in the usual manner. The third course of salad was brought forth and readily disposed of by the guests. The fourth and last course of dessert was somewhat delayed and when the waiters again returned to the dining hall there was no trace of anyone to serve. They had disappeared. An alarm was sent about and the guests were quickly assembled again.

It is said that Mr. Warren blames Ray Hamilton with leading them astray from the dessert, while Hamilton asserts that the Messrs. F. G. Warren and T. L. Bryant are entirely responsible. The real culprit has not been discovered up to date.

Speaking of handy things, could anything be any more handy than a tub of water at the bottom of the new spiral fire-escape to splash into and put out the fire your rapid and hot descent down?

R. E. Muckelroy attended the Farmers' Institute at Mt. Vernon last week.

KING EDWARD AND QUEEN MARY HEAD HOBO-PARADE

One of the best features of the parade to the football field Nov. 11 was the Hobo Parade. Here the Seniors were seen as probably never before, as hoboes. The boys had gathered clothes from the raggedy man surely, and had rapidly grown heavy beards as their hobo brothers wear. But the shining lights of the parade was its king and queen. These noted personages, Edward Zeller and Mary VanSickle, were the talk of the town. Their dignity surpassed most kings and queens as their raiment surpassed their humble subject, the hoboes. They rode in state through our streets behind a noble horse and in a royal carriage.

If you didn't meet an old friend here Home-Coming, something was wrong—he was here.

The feeling over burying Cape at the game was all right when we actually won.

Did you ever see such class spirit as was displayed in the rooster fight and at the tug of war?

We all feel school spirit when our loyalty song is played, but did you ever see such spirit as when the vote was taken and decided in favor of keeping our old name, S. I. N. U.?

The Seniors surely like to see the pep breaking out all over the Freshman class as it did during the class contests. They're a peppy bunch all right, but please, Freshmen, we'll like you a lot better if you spell us SENIORS and not SEINORS as you did.

RURAL CLUB MEETS

The Rural Club had its first meeting of the year in Zetetic Hall last Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. The members of the club were composed largely of those who have had, or are taking Rural Practice under Mr. W. O. Brown.

The aim of the club is to furnish opportunity for its members to appear on literary programs, quite frequently. Because of the small size of the club, we feel that more benefit can be derived by each individual than he could obtain from a large organization of the same type.

Any one desiring to join this club is urged to attend some regular Tuesday meeting.

At the first meeting Clarence Sanford acted as president and Edith Morgan as secretary. Permanent officers will be elected tonight.

W. O. Brown attended a teachers' meeting at Shawneetown, Nov. 15.

PET PEEVES

Our faculty makes fine talks about school spirit and loyalty, but we often wonder whether they really mean it. At our pep meeting in the gym seven faculty members out of forty-six were present. Are the other thirty-nine interested in us?

At the game we noticed one faculty member, the head of a department, keeping his hat on while the school song was being played. We wonder if he recognized the tune or not? "Come on, faculty, let's go."

G. A. A.

The usual monthly business meeting of the G. A. A. was held last night in the Gym. In connection with the business meeting a large number of new members were initiated into the Association. A short program was given and then the evening was spent in dancing. Tuesday at chapel period is the usual G. A. A. meeting. All members are urged to be present.

PRESBYTERIAN STUDENTS

Presbyterian students, are you thankful? If you are don't forget our interesting Thanksgiving meeting at Christian Endeavor this week. Leader, Nov. 26—Belle Carson.

Dear Editor:

Boy it gives me great pleasure to tell you that I am receiving the Egyptian regularly and that I look forward each week to its arrival.

I see you are planning a big Home-Coming. Let me tell you right here that I wish the old school all the luck in the world in this event and I wish you would tell my friends back here so. I am sorry that I cannot be there to do my part in helping to put it across, but know that it will go big.

Yours very truly,
 Midshipman Geo. C. Wilson,

Editor-in-Chief.....Buzzing Bings
Contributing Editor.....Bitts de BunkJoe: Won't you tell me how I can prove my great love?

Tiny: Oh—buy and Buy!

S. H.

How was the dance?

Rotten! I came out with the same girl I took in.

S. H.

I told her I was the bright guy,

I lied,

That my per cent at school was high,

I lied.

I told her things that made her sigh,
And gaze in rapture at the sky.It was wrong of course, but you know why

I lied.

She said she thought that I was swell.

She lied.

She said sweet things, but I could tell

She lied.

She went home and told her sister, wellHow she had vamped and how I fell,
Now that was bunk, she lied like—
well,

Anyway, She lied.

S. H.

Miss Jones: "Here is my money for my subscription to the Egyptian.""I'm looking for the guy who said, "Ignorance is Bliss."Cecil Davis: "Let's see; what year are you in?"

S. H.

Tears there were in the potatoes'
eyes,

The cabbage hung its head.

Sadness reigned in the cellar that night,For the mother of vinegar was dead.

S. H.

Sunday School Superintendent: "I am happy to see all these shining faces before me this morning."(Sudden application of thirty-seven powder-puffs.)

S. H.

Mr. Warren: "What do you do
on the team?"Everett Hart: "Oh, I hold Ham's sweater while he's playing."

S. H.

Margeret Stout, in Spanish: "Mr.
Pearce, why do you use—?"Mr. Pearce: "I have no time for questions now."Margeret: "Can't I ask something if I don't know anything?"

S. H.

Blessing on thee, little dame
Bareback girl with knees the same,
With thy rolled down silken hose
And thy short transparent clothes;
With thy red lips reddened more,
Smear'd with lipstick from the store;
With thy make-up on thy face
And thy bobbed hairs jaunty grace;
From my heart I give thee joy—
Glad that I was born a boy.

S. H.

Customer: "Do you take anything off for cash?"

Saleslady: "Sir."

S. H.

Mr. Smith: "Where was the Declaration of Independence signed?"Harry Keen: (Thinking) "At the bottom."

S. H.

Gerald: "Hello, Clow, where are you going so early this morning?"Frank: "I'm not going anywhere, I'm just coming back from where I was."

line. Score 6-0.
Being in the 10 yard zone behind the goal, Anna was given possession of the ball on her own 20 yard line. An exchange of plays and punts and the Maroons again began a march on Anna's goal. A pass for 20 yards to Carter, plunges and a pass to Hendy for 4 yards and the Maroons were threatening the Anna goal from the 4 yard line. The stone wall defense of the visitors repulsed the onslaughts of the Normal plungers and Ham's drop kick failed. The quarter ended with the Normal in possession of the ball. Score 6-0.

A pass of 10 yards to Ham, a 20 yard return of a punt and an 8 yard pass to Hodges featured the last quarter. Anna was penalized for a total of 30 yards in the final period. Exchanges of plays and punts featured the play and the final whistle blew with the Normal in possession of the ball on Anna's 55 yard line. Final score 6-0.

Senior: "At the vaudeville Friday night my eyes felt like little birds."

Junior: "How come."

Senior: "Flitting from limb to limb, m' deah boy."

STUDENTS

ST. LOUIS, MO., Nov. 20.—The usual school room attitudes of students in the extension division at Washington University are somewhat opposite that of the ordinary student. More than 2,000 men and women of mature ages are enrolled in the department.

The extension students are always willing to receive advice while the usual college youth thinks he is above that, says the director. Although the department was started with the idea of giving practical courses, most of the enrolled take cultural courses. When an instructor fails to reach class promptly, the students protest to the director.

Silk, Wool or Cotton—It Fits!

Whether dainty silk knit or soft warm wool, Athena Underwear is trim and shapely. Whatever the style, it has the extra width through bust and hips, the graceful neckline sloping to the front, the fitted seat that always stays closed. Unlike ordinary underwear, Athena follows every curve of the figure closely, yet naturally. It assures, at the same time, perfectly fitting gowns and an unusually delightful feeling of easy freedom. Yet it costs no more!

ATHENA UNDERWEAR

For Women and Children

Note this Difference

Ask the saleswoman to lay out for you a suit of Athena as shown in the diagram. Note the seven distinctive Athena features that give the whole garment such unusual shapeliness. Then you will understand why it really fits. Athena may be had in all styles and weights, in knit fabrics.
