Organization Will Work to Further Development of Southern Illinois

Some of the leading citizens of the state met in Herrin recently to make plans for the future work of Southern Illinois Incorporated, which has as its purpose the furtherance of business and social conditions in this region.

Symbols Recall Horrors of War

Last week, on the west side of the Main building, some very commendable individuals planted a miniature cemetery—ostensibly for the purpose of recalling to our minds the tragedy, horror, and futility of war.

Hamilton College's President Cowley urges higher education to promote the teaching of the nature of leadership, saying: "If America we talk much about democracy, but I am convinced that unless we give our students practice in democratic self-government through the management of their own affairs in college, they cannot be expected to practice democracy when they take their places in the community."

Sesame For Collegeians

Now that America has again 2200 dollar chasing in the war fields of Europe, we may expect to see the majority of our employment problems solved. Airplane factories, munitions factories, foundries, steel plants, textile industries, and other forms of industry have begun to call for men in large numbers.

Supposedly, in repelling the arms embargo and re-opening the cash and carry clause, Congress was acting in accordance with the desires of the majority of the American people. Then, we must have long since considered the results which are likely to accompany the changes in neutrality legislation, and Congress would have known pretty well what is likely to follow.

First of all, in the "advantages" column, we may list "reduction of unemployment." The present expenditures for emergency relief will undoubtedly dwindle, substantially, from the rising national debt will, at the same time, be curtailed. We may expect to see that inconvertible national budget balanced at last. These effects we may call good.

We may expect to see, also, our trade relations with South America become what we have hoped for. Although we can take little credit to ourselves about the better understanding, it is likely to come by virtue of the fact that Germany, who has almost crowded out other countries, will be too busy with her war in Europe to carry on commerce in the Western Hemisphere. Hence, the United States will have a very negligible amount of competing goods.

But from a broader point of view, what may we expect? A leading economist says we can only hope for it. Money will flow into America. We will gradually see out of Europe into our own country where 45 per cent of the wealth of the world is already concentrated. Another long war like the last World War (assuming that we shall not enter again), and we may well expect to receive another two per cent of the world's wealth.

The effect upon world economies of such an abnormal concentration of wealth in one country must be dire to the most naive economist.

Although Atlas in his grave may become restless with jealousy over Uncle Sam's mounting billions, there is no reason to believe the Aeneas proletarian will be any better off. For, even though men will again start receiving weekly pay checks, they will only catch the glimpses from the stream of wealth passing on to the other side of the population who now own nearly 90 per cent of the business wealth of our country.

The fifty per cent of the people who have incomes of less than three hundred dollars yearly are likely to receive on approximately the same scale.

These predictions, although fairly conservative, are, nevertheless, problematical. There can be little doubt, however, about the things we see likely happening as a result of our national policy.

Well over a million men are now contributing to the maintenance of our military establishment. The war department is engaged in a subtle campaign to get the middle class and the lower class to believe that these two million men may never be to war. We hope and believe they will not. But they will experience the disastrous effects of military life.

Those who have tasted life under military regulation find that it disrupts moral values, destroys the individual's simple machine which normally eventually to rely upon the state, animal urge.

A NON-COOPERATIVE HOUSE

Stearns Appointed Chairman of Commission Committee

A local committee to cooperate with the Commission on Teacher Education has been appointed as follows: Mr. Troy L. Stearns, coordinator, Mr. Bruce W. Mervin, Miss Helen E. Stonon, Mr. F. G. Warren, Mr. T. W. Neckers, Mr. William McAnaw, Mr. John Wright, Mr. Thomas F. Barton, Mr. Hal Hall, Mr. William Schneider, and President Roscoe Pulliam.

Each committee member represents one division of the curriculum offered by the college. The division heads will make reports during the faculty meetings for the months of December and January.

Insanitary Conditions Should Not Exist Near the Campus

Since S. I. N. U. is definitely expanding in enrollment and magnitude, business establishments serving the students are required to grow proportionally.

Sharps and Flats

Another hour has come to S. I. N. U. when some three hundred students taking part in the St. Louis and Mr. Emerson Van Cleve's musical appreciation classes are featuring "Troc and Flam" novelty numbers from duck calls to "do re mi's".

Ancient and Honorable Sphinx Will Appear at Game Tomorrow

I have a physical specimen, a tangible monument to which all loyal Southerners might pay due respect and homage. The thought became a movement, and the movement became an act in which over one hundred individual students took part.

Tomorrow the Sphinx will make one of its most important appearances of the year at the football game, where new Knights are to be created by Queen D. Lee Mitchell. Watch for its appearance, for it symbolizes the worthiest and the best that we Southerners have given to our school in the way of loyalty.

FAVORITE JOKES OF FACULTY MEMBERS

By LOIS RUTH SINGLETON. MR. SEGAL: "What is the difference between a college and an insane asylum? Well, you have to show some mental improvement to get out of an insane asylum."

MR. GEORGE WATSON: "What is the difference between a graduate student and a person who doesn't take graduate work? Answer: A graduate student specializes as he gets to know more and more about less and less until presently he knows everything about nothing. The person who doesn't take graduate work picks up general knowledge so he gets to know less and less about more and more until presently he knows nothing about everything."

DR. SHERMAN B. BARNES: "Once a Protestant congregation complained to its minister about his constant denunciations of the Pope. The next Sunday, the congregation listened to the minister open a sermon based on the opening verses of Genesis. Everyone felt that, this time there would be no anti-Papist invective. But the minister opened his sermon with the words: 'In the beginning there was no Pope.'"

MR. WILLIAM MARDERBY: "Fredrick said: 'Mr. Marderbey, do you give on curves?' Mr. Marderbey: 'No, I grade on just what you do in class.'"

MR. FLEMIN W. COX: "A college student failed in all five subjects. He wrote to his elder brother and said: 'I have failed in all five subjects. Prepare Papa.' He eventually received a letter from his older brother saying: 'Papa is prepared. Prepare yourself.'"

DR. W. G. SWARTZ: "A traveling man went into the depot early in the morning and asked for a berth in the Pullman. Right behind him came an elderly lady who also asked for a berth. The station agent told the old lady that he was sorry but he had given the last reservation to the preceding passenger. The old lady said: 'I don't care. I could afford to be generous since he was not taking all night, and I insisted that the old lady take his reservation. Feeling very good over his "good deed," the traveling man sent this wire to his wife: "Will be home at midnight. Just give berth to an old lady.""

Pi Delta Epsilon Pledges Seven New Members

Seven new members will be pledged to Pi Delta Epsilon, honor society, at a banquet to be held Monday, Nov. 27, in Hank's upstairs dining room. The new members are: Cletus Beard, Wayne Main, Patricia Mercer, Margery Reiter, William Rhea, Polly Street, and Mary Ellen Williams.

THESE INSANITARY BATTERIES

A deplorable and too prevalent a condition that students at the college and cities of Carbondale ought to be vitally concerned in clearing up these insanitary conditions and practices is several uncleanly national restaurants, cafe, and jelly joints.

THESE INSANITARY BATTERIES

It is remoted that the band will give an evening concert under the direction of Mr. Wendell Margrave. As I "tinkle off" those musical notes I must include the orchestra and the band. Let's remember that Jeanette Miller saw this list in the "Egyptian" at the St. Louis Symposium, with Vladimir Golshman conductor and Simon Harsh the pianist. She says the audience enjoyed the "Peter and the Wolf" by Prokofiev, which was being given its preview performance.

NATIONAL PRESIDENT OF DELTA SIGMAS VISITS CAMPUS

By LOIS RUTH SINGLETON.

Mrs. Morris Hill, National President of the Delta Sigma Epsilon Sorority, was a visitor on the campus of S. I. N. U. last week. She and Miss Hilda Stein, a member of our own faculty and also a national officer of the sorority, came here together from a meeting of the National Pan-Hellenic Congress at White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia. After a lunch and dinner in her honor at the Delta Sigma Epsilon house, Mrs. Hill continued to her home in Rapid City, South Dakota.

Mrs. Hill and Miss Stein report that during the meeting of the Federation of National Pan-Hellenic Congress (University Sororities) and Association of Educational Sororities have entirely agreed on field and alumnae standing. In alumnae there will no longer be any discrimination among groups because all of the federation groups are eligible to establish city Pan-Hellenic organizations. These groups of the federation include the National Pan-Hellenic Congress, Association of Educational Sororities, women's professional sororities, and the Mortar Board, which is an honorary society.

Mrs. Hill lived in Africa.

Although she is living in America now, Mrs. Hill spent fifteen years in Africa just above the equator in Belgian Congo, where her husband was a mining engineer for the American Belgian Diamond fields in Africa. Before this position was offered him, he was field manager of the Bechua Diamond Company of Africa; because of good citizenship and engineering achievement he was placed in the kinship of King Leopold of Belgium.

In an interview, Mrs. Hill stated that she had never really been frightened, but that she had learned to

BARTON WILL SPEAK AT WILSON COLLEGE IN CHICAGO

Dr. Thomas Barton, head of the geography department, will give three lectures on Plant Life and Soil Conservation Wednesday, November 20, at the Wilson Junior College in Chicago. Each lecture will be given in a fifty-minute lecture period before an estimated audience of two thousand students. The audience will consist mainly of students in biological science, which is a survey course intended to orient the general college student in the scientific world in which he lives.

Dr. Barton will use lantern slides to illustrate his points.

love the "dark continent" with its many thrills and adventures. As for her big game hunting she stated, "My experiences were much the same as those of the average American woman, securing food for her family. They get chickens and I got antelope."

Mrs. Hill said that there was no social life in Africa, as she was the only woman for miles. She hunted to pass the time. The European women did not do this, but Mrs. Hill is of the opinion that they saved her potatoes will not grow in Africa.

In Africa, where Mr. and Mrs. Hill lived, because there were no potatoes, they used the root of the manioc, which corresponds to our potato. They could raise many fresh vegetables, but since there was no grain in the soil, potatoes were impossible.

Mrs. Hill gives us a lesson on diamond mining when she says, "Diamonds are placed mined near the surface. All the mining is done from the top. We use the same pans as a gold miner." The natives showed her interest in diamonds as they would, for although in America we buy our wives with diamonds, in

American Student Union Crusades For Peace

Several new courses will be offered in the health education department during the winter term. First a course in Home Nursing, P&H 210, meeting the seventh hour, three days a week, Monday, Wednesday and Friday, will be offered as a elective without prerequisites. Specific instructions for the simple nursing procedures, opportunity for practicing the procedures and for class discussion will be offered. The course is intended for any girl on whom may fall the necessity of caring for the sick.

Physiology 200 will meet four times a week, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. This course is intended to supply a general background in physiology for students of other departments as well as being an introduction to the more advanced courses 315, 316 and 317 described below. Its prerequisite is health education 202 or its equivalent.

Physiology and health education 203, a three hour course meeting Monday, Wednesday and Friday, will also be taught. Physical Handicaps to Learning was previously taught only during the summer term.

Physiology 315 is being offered for the first time as a beginning of a series of three courses which will go into the experimental background more than the introductory course. It will be accompanied by actual experiments performed on living animals. This course will be concerned chiefly with the physiology of muscle, blood, circulation and respiration.

Physiology 316 will be concerned with the gastro-intestinal tract and its associated structures, metabolism and the endocrine glands.

Physiology 317 will be nervous physiology and the physiology of the special senses.

Last week-end rain fell on the symbolic cemetery of the American Student Union which bore a cross for each of the students in the World War. The epitaph which was placed before the crosses is quoted above.

"Africa goats are used."

In answer to the question, "Are there any facilities for keeping up with the times in Africa," the national president said:

"No, we take things from America. When we come back here our clothes are in a rather bedraggled condition. Our friends sent us magazines. The more pictures in the magazines the greater their value for sale. For the Saturday Evening Post, I was able to get six eggs because of their lack of pictures."

Mrs. Hill learned the African tongue and once had an African cannibal for her enemy. She said of him, "I found him very trustworthy, and he said he had no desire to eat me."

LYNX LORE

News of Southern's University High School by KEN MEDLEY.

CARBAR'S BODY INSPECTED.

On Tuesday evening last week at 7 o'clock the fourth club of University High school held an initiation meeting for which all members of the first year Latin classes were initiated into the club. The affair was the first social meeting of the club this year.

The initiation was a solemn ceremony. All lights were turned out and the room was dimly lighted with candles. A story of Caesar's body was read by Mrs. Riecke, faculty sponsor of the club, and different parts of Caesar's body were passed around for the pledges to examine.

Caesar's spirit appeared and instructed each pledge to decline a Latin name. Hawkins gave the oath of allegiance to the new members. Bob Hill read the constitution.

Manufacturing Base For War Supplies May Be Established Here

WASHINGTON — Representative Keller (D-Ill.) disclosed recently that war supply officers were on route to Williamson county, Ill., to study the possibility of establishing a manufacturing base for war supplies and a proving grounds for guns and chemical weapons. Keller said the proposed site was in a range of hills south of Crab Orchard lake. The officers are Colonel L. D. South and Major John P. Harvis, both attached to the office of the chief of ordnance, Major General C. M. Wesson.

Keller said they agreed to inspect the location, had determined whether factories for war supplies and proving grounds for the several branches of ordnance could be located there. The effort of all regular army activities of the Sixth Corps Area, comprising the states of Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin, will be directed, until November 21st, toward cooperation of the recruiting task assigned by the war department, under the "limited emergency" proclamation of the president, Lieut. General Stanley H. Ford, commanding general of the 2nd Army and Sixth Corps Area, pointed out. A total of fifteen recruiting parties, consisting of ten companies each, office and nine men each, started on November 2nd, and will operate throughout the Sixth Corps Area, according to General Ford. The newly organized parties have for demonstration various types of the latest army equipment, including anti-aircraft searchlights, sound locators, 75-mm field guns, anti-aircraft machine guns, and other army equipment. Fort Sheridan has furnished eight recruiting parties; Selfridge Field, Michigan, and Fort Wayne, Michigan, two each; Champaign Field, Illinois, two each; Scott Field, Illinois, one. Each of the parties includes one commissioned officer and nine enlisted men.

"The recruiting parties are being sent out to explain to young men the possibilities of service in the army," Lieutenant Ford pointed out. "Recruiting officers are instructed to answer all questions in careful detail, so that the candidate can judge for himself, after having all the facts, as to his preference for an army career over one in civilian life."

MAROONS LOSE FINAL I. C. TILT TO CHARLESTON, 12-7

Carbondale Leads Game for Three Quarters Before Easterns Score in Final Period

After trading Southern for three quarters by one point, Eastern struck with lightning-like suddenness in the final stanza last Saturday and reeled off a movie combination of forward and lateral passes which left Carbondale on the short end of a 12-7 score.

Paul Henry's aerial utilized Southern's one-point margin that had loomed larger and larger as the game progressed. With the ball on his own 37 yard line, Henry whipped a pass to End Joe Ward. Just as Ward was about to be downed on the western sideline he lateraled to Lee Moore, who had been trailing for just such an eventuality. Moore trotted the remaining yardage for the winning score. All in all the yards netted 63 yards and Eastern's second conference game.

Southern Scores First.
Played on a soggy, muddy field, the earlier portion of the game was dominated by a continual exchange of punts with each team hoping to gain ground by such a bluff. After a barrage of 13 punts in the first period, the Carbondale eleven took command on their own 41 yard line and marched to the 59 yard line. Co-Captain George Holliday then replaced Townes at punting, fullback and after another Eastern penalty, Skiff crashed over. Charlie Frey dropped out of the line and converted the extra point as the first quarter ended.

Charleston Retaliates.
Charleston retaliated five plays later in the second stanza. After the Maroon kickoff, Lee Moore booted to Southern's 39. Carbondale tied one play later by Earl Mize. Co-Captain Paul Henry led Eastern fullback, who scored 95 yards for his first score. Moore's kick was no good and Southern led by one point, 7-0. With Charleston's final punts ended that slim lead.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR McANDREW PROPOSES NEW ELIGIBILITY RULE

Suggestion Will Be Introduced at I. C. Committee Meeting

In an endeavor to place variety athletics in the I. C. schools on an even basis with other extracurricular college activities, Coach William McAndrew will introduce a resolution at the annual fall conference committee meeting in Chicago, December 8, asking that existing scholastic requirements for athletic participation be eliminated and all omnibus students be allowed to compete.

The rule was submitted to the athletic committee several weeks ago. After receiving the committee's approval, it was presented to the faculty for discussion and voted in favor of 48 to 32. Dr. Richard L. Beyer, chairman of the committee, pointed out that the rule would affect the college unless it was passed by a three-fourths vote of the state committee and put into effect in all the Little Nineteen schools.

Coach McAndrew based his plea on the argument that students should be allowed to compete in athletics on the same conditions as other school activities, such as debate club, journalism, music, dramatics, etc. He added that the proposed system would help boys benefit from athletics despite the hours of work they carried.

The attitude of the state committee on the proposal cannot be determined, said McAndrew. "However, if they study out the theory behind such a change, I believe they will see it in the same light we do here in Carbondale."

President Pulliam stated his opinion on the proposition by saying that he could see little difference between athletic and other school activities and that the change could be made without lowering the academic standards of the college.

From 1934 through 1938, Texas Christian University's football team was penalized 223 times while its opponents were penalized 222 times.

Welfare at Guard.
Gen. Welborn, air conference center last year, will probably be shifted to a guard position this year to command the 21st Air Corps Center man, Captain Bill Wolfenbarger. Col. Hunter, Roy Steinbrink, Charles Heffington, Monte Williams, Raymond Smith, Harry Post appear to be the strongest contenders for consideration in case "Wolf" or Welborn should not get the job. It is not officially known whether a sprained ankle which may keep him out of the opening game.

Football Men Still Out.
The above group will be augmented within a couple of weeks by men who have been awaiting their time to furnish their fair share of conference football. Gray and Veggie Cox are still donning their neckties and so are George Holliday, Raymond Ellis, and Bill Townes, all of whom made the traveling squad just last year. In addition to these men there are some freshmen playing football who are reported to be quite adept at tossing the rubber sphere through the iron rings.

When the next issue of this paper is published we may be able to give you at least a tentative starting lineup for the opening game, but until then the scramble for reconsecration and consideration will continue.

Normal started the ball rolling in the initial quarter as Hammond left on a loose ball in the end zone after Morgan had kicked a Northern punt. A 16-yard pass gave Normal his final tally in the fourth period, DeKalb scored his lone touchdown on a 55-yard pass, Jarvi to Young.

Burgum scored his twelve points on a 56-yard rickback of a Southern punt and a 27-yard punt-kick. Southern's only score in the second, as Co-Captain G. Holliday, punned over from the 29-yard line.

WESTERN LAYS CLAIM TO CONFERENCE TITLE WITH THREE WINS

Regardless of any possible outcome of Saturday's games, Western Teachers of Macomb has the strongest claim to the I. C. title following their 14 to 7 victory over Carthage last week-end.

The victory gave Macomb a record of three wins and one tie in league competition as they closed their season. Macomb's championship drive has been spurred on by Paul Stewart, passing, kicking, and punting sensation of the year.

State Normal with three victories and two ties, closed their season in second place by defeating Northern Teachers of DeKalb 13 to 7. This win, the first of conference days, left DeKalb with had since 1937, during which time no conference team had scored upon them. DeKalb can move up into third place, ahead of Carthage, by defeating Eastern Teachers of Charleston in the only remaining conference game on Saturday. In such an event Carthage would merely drop into fourth place by virtue of having played all its conference games.

Schedule for Saturday is as follows:
Western vs. Eastern (conference game)
Normal vs. Illinois Wesleyan, Elmhurst vs. Wheaton, Carthage vs. Augustana, Southern vs. Austin Peay of Clarksville, Tenn.

Charleston-DeKalb Third Place Fight Only League Game

Western Teachers pushed their way to the top berth of the I. C. football race this past week-end with a 13-7 triumph over the previous undefeated leader, Carthage College. The victory enabled the Macomb boys to win their first title in 38 years. Also falling by the wayside was the once impregnable DeKalb eleven. State Normal humbled the Northern Teachers, 13-7, after the Profs had defeated Macomb in their last conference win. Normal's victory moved them into second place as two previous losses prevent them from being in first place. Other results of conference squads found Elmhurst cracking the ice column for the first time with its 24-0 win over Eureka. Prior to afternoon, Charleston Teachers defeated the Southern Maroons farther into the I. C. cellar by winning 22-7.

Carthage Loece. Carthage scored first in its game with Macomb as W. Clark trotted 76 yards to the pay-off station in the first period but the last yard short held as the Westerners knotted the count in the same quarter on a pass, Paul Stewart. Western's backfield ace won the game for the Leathernecks with a fourth quar-

CAGE SCHEDULE GETS UNDERWAY IN TWO WEEKS

Several Vets and Freshmen Prospects Going Through Paces

With the opening game of the 1939-40 basketball season only two weeks distant, Southern's basketball squad is beginning slow practice for the season. This is fortunate because the first hardwood foe for this year, Arkansas State, always presents a scrappy and hard-fighting quintet. However, last year, after a closely contested first half, Southern pulled away in the final minutes of the game to win the first round.

Wolfenbarger and Coach William McAndrew are anxious to open the forthcoming season in much the same manner.

Competition is especially keen this year and it is going to be quite a difficult task to select five men to fill the roster of the first team.

Checks on the present material—football men have not reported as yet—reveals that there are plenty of likely candidates for all positions.

Lettermen at Forwards.
Vying for starting forward positions are lettermen Bruce Church, Harold Robertson, and Pete Gardner. These men are finding all the competition they desire from some fighting freshmen who answer by the names of John Sebastian, Wayne Kallenbach, Charles Brackett, Paul Sanders and Eugene Buttry. Seibach, Brackett, Sanders and Seibach are unusually fast and spry and has a sense for the basket that must be respected.

Ed Haskins, Martha McEvana, Bob Correll, and letterman Jack Schaffer have been receiving most of the attention at the center post. All four of these men top the 6'7" mark and make them especially conspicuous around the basket.

Haskins is a freshman but the other three men have had considerable basketball experience and should be heard from often during the season.

Rankings Listed Also.
Rankings in the members of the state football club were also posted this week. These rankings are based upon the numbers of games played and games won and lost. These rankings may change quite noticeably within the next week for at present several of the members have played sufficient games upon which to base an equal ranking with other players. At present Morgan is in number one position with eighteen games won and only two lost. Steve Phillips is in second place and Hagee in third. Jennings and Pulley are tied for the fourth spot in the rankings.

CAPTAINS OF GIRLS' SOCCER TEAMS CHOSEN

The team standings thus far are:
First hour: November 6—Widows defeated Weaver 4-0.
November 10—Weaver defeated Widows 4-0.
Sixth hour: November 6—Parsons defeated Thompson; November 10—Thompson defeated Parsons; 20 November 13—Thompson defeated Klein 4-0.

TOURNAMENT PLAY IN TABLE TENNIS ENTERS THIRD WEEK

Elmer Furlow and Charles Morgan First to Gam Semi-finals

Swings into the third week of play in the table tennis tourney, the race has now narrowed to a field of six players. Of the thirty-two who began the tourney some two weeks ago, only Elmer Furlow, Charles Morgan, both of whom have qualified for the semi-finals, and Eric Bailey, Pulley, Monte Hagee, and Hoggins remain. Two of the last four named will vie with Furlow and Morgan in the semi-final round.

Furlow and Morgan Advance.
To gain entrance to the round Furlow overcame Johnson in a close match. However, he suffered a very narrow escape in the quarter-finals when he was barely able to eke out a victory over Steve Phillips in a heated contest which was without doubt the best of the tourney thus far. Morgan was victorious over Coffman to clinch his semi-final position. To date he has had little trouble in disposing of his opponents. Incidentally, none of his opponents have been able to answer more than fourteen points in any game in this division. Furlow's most blistering performance was a 21-8 victory over Coffman to clinch his semi-final position. In date he has had little trouble in disposing of his opponents. Incidentally, none of his opponents have been able to answer more than fourteen points in any game in this division. Furlow's most blistering performance was a 21-8 victory over Coffman to clinch his semi-final position.

State Normal Ace Tallies 49 Points For Scoring Lead

State Normal's hard hitting fullback, Floyd O'Neil, tops the I. C. scorers this year. Covill tops the list of individual scorers with 35 points to his credit. Paul Stewart, the Bashy and quick tenplay, boy from Macomb, dropped from first ranking to second place with 32 points to his credit. Roseback of Elmhurst holds down third place homesteaded with 12 points, while Smith of DeKalb and Vuchich of Normal tie for the fourth spot with 7 points.

Four Southern Scorers.
Darham, Gujney, Holliday and Frey make up Carbondale's leading scorers with a total of 21 points. Individual scoring statistics up to Saturday's games follow:

	T.D.	Pt.
Covill, Normal	3	39
Stewart, Macomb	2	33
Roseback, Elmhurst	2	32
Smith, DeKalb	1	7
Vuchich, Normal	1	7

Thirteen men, of whom Durham, Gujney and Holliday are a part, are tied for sixth place with a total of 6 points.

Southern Meets Austin Peay, Tennessee, Saturday

Governors League Men's Backfield Men; Maroon Line Has Weight Advantage

With two games remaining on Southern's current grid schedule, the Maroon player will take on Austin Peay Normal of Clarksville, Tenn. Gov. Martin's men will be looking for revenge, having been soundly out in the final minutes of last year's encounter with the Tennessee delegation.

A talented backfield with considerable weight has been heralded as the outstanding factor in the Gov. men's favor. Austin, however, has only one consistently dependable forward wall, reserved for these front position being rather weak.

According to the Gov. men's probable starting lineup, Roy Baggett, 225 pound fullback, will get the call for duty at his regular post, the edges, adding power to the Austin line. Baggett is a valuable asset in backing up the line in defensive play.

In recent games the timely punting of Alton Harvey and J. B. Hagg, fullbacks, has kept the Tennessee eleven out of hot water on several occasions; Harvey, a 187 pound er and Morris Collins, who checks in at 165 pounds, however, have been named as probable starting fullbacks. The latter, besides tumbling in some creditable blocking performances, looms as a pass receiver to watch.

At quarter the Governors will have either Ed Rutledge or Homer Rodeheaver.

With Rutledge in the starting lineup Austin Peay will have a badly developed combination outweighing Southern's probable quartet, by approximately twenty-five pounds per man. In the event that Bill Townes and George Holliday should replace any member of the Verdie Cox-Harris-McGuire-Bill Presburg-Bob Newton grouping the Maroon average slightly will be higher, however.

Coach Martin will find his men with a weight advantage in the line, the Southern wall having a few pounds margin in that respect.

"Most likely the changes made last week in shifting Guards Henry Stump and Morton Traband to ends for greater defensive strength will hold true again tomorrow. Howard Ruffant and Bob Smythe, tackles, and Charlie Frey and Herman Albus, guards, opened last week's tilt with Charleston and will probably receive the nod tomorrow. Sam Hill and Ray Bjorklund will share center duties.

OFFICERS OF AMERICAN STUDENT UNION GO INTO VOLUNTARY EXILE

Requisition Cell in Murphysboro Jail for the Week-End

The comparatively new American Student Union, during the process of experiencing so-called necessary growing pains, suffered its first embarrassment Monday night. According to announcements concerning "400 Million," the picture was supposed to be shown at 7:45 Monday at Shryock auditorium. But a person behind the scenes would have been aware of this; the film, which should have been sent to S. I. N. U., was sent by the University of Wisconsin chapter of the Student Union to Chicago, instead.

Early Monday afternoon, Miss Minnette Barber, received a phone call from a frantic young man in the A. S. U. Chicago district office who in sorrowful tones reported that the "Wrong Way Corrigan 400 Million" film was in Chicago rather than here in Carbondale. Most more, last minute arrangements were made to have the film flown to St. Louis, Mo., where it was to be picked up by Carlton Busenbart, president of the local chapter. The indubitable young man, who on occasion had been a contributor to its luncheon, was forthwith dispatched for the airport at St. Louis.

Flashback—Shryock auditorium. The clock ticked on its monotonous round and 7:45 approached with seeming acceleration. No film was there, but the show must go on. The old "disappearing term" once more became the slogan of the hour.

We find, at 8:00, Evelyn McCross, pianist, entertaining the audience.

Then several readings by Bill Gebres, Bill Holder, Eva Jane Milligan, Carl McIntyre, and Roy and Martha Stallings were presented. They read scenes from "Wake Up and Sing," "The Women," "Barbets of Wyoming Street," and "The Silver Cord."

This was not to be halted. Still reciting on the microphone, Miss Florence O'Neill gallantly took up the duties of the entertainer to make the time pass more pleasantly. She sang "Roses of Picayune," and "Shoes," accompanied by Eugene Dickey's organ.

At 8:25 Miss Barber, the faculty sponsor, who bore most of the responsibility, not only materially, because it was her advance check which paid for the film, but also spiritually, because it was her "angel" which had in part caused the planning for the showing of the picture, took the floor to deliver an impromptu lecture on her favorite subject—China. Miss Barber taught in China a good many years. She spoke of many incidental experiences of her in China, and told something of the language, the food, and the customs there. She kept the attentive, well-behaved audience interested for an hour.

8:25, and still no picture. After a hasty deliberation of the officers, it was decided to return the tickets to the office for a refund.

9:30: The last few stragglers leaving the auditorium were startled by seeing a well-maneuvered but rapidly driven car come to a sudden stop with a squeak of brakes before the auditorium. The door was hurriedly opened, and Busenbart's voice, cracklingly said, "We made it. Are they still here?"—Alas, they had gone. The pictures were in time to be safe.

Moral: "The best-laid schemes of mice and men gang aft a-gley."

Frigoles: The officers of the Student Union, filled with grave misgivings for their safety during the next few days, are planning to reserve the most secure cell in the Murphysboro jail where they will be safe from all harm.

There's No Great Mystery about Cigarette Tobaccos

THERE ARE FOUR TYPES of tobaccos found in the more popular cigarettes, namely... Bright, Maryland, Burley and Turkish.

ALL THESE TOBACCOS except Turkish (which is bought direct from the planters in Turkey and Greece) and Maryland (which is bought through sealed bids under government supervision) are bought at public auction, just like any other auction where you might have bought in a table or a chair.

AT THE AUCTION SALE the tobacco is piled in baskets weighing from about 100 to 500 pounds and each purchaser buys all of his tobaccos by competitive bidding for the particular piles he wants.

THE CHESTERFIELD BUYERS buy the best of these mild ripe tobaccos for the Chesterfield blend. And it is Chesterfield's Combination... the right amounts of Burley and Bright... just enough Maryland... and just enough Turkish—that makes the big difference between Chesterfield and other cigarettes.

IT IS BECAUSE of this combination that Chesterfields are COOLER, have a BETTER TASTE and are DEFINITELY MILDER. They are made of the world's best cigarette tobaccos. You can't buy a better cigarette.
