STUDENTS GET LONG WEEKEND
Political Machine Defeated In Homecoming Election

Homecoming, 1946, has come and gone. Part of the glamour of the annual festivity was clouded somewhat as usual, which means most of the events took place during the day while the football game was being played. As a result, there were fewer participants and the campus was quiet by night. However, the events were still enjoyed by those who attended them.

Letters to the Editor

Through this column we invite students, faculty, and friends of Eastern to express their ideas. We must know the source of any letter appearing here.

Dear Editor:

At the Homecoming football game, the week's activities came to a climax. Did you enjoy them? I certainly did. I had a great time watching the game and the parade. I hope we can have more events like this in the future. Sincerely yours,

Sincerely,

Armistice Day--1946

By Paulie L. Page

Last year's Armistice Day, 1945, was the first to allow the students to celebrate the event on campus. This year, however, the celebration was cut short due to the war. Although the students were not able to participate in the usual festivities, they still enjoyed the day.

The first day of Armistice Day was celebrated with a parade and a football game. The parade was lead by the Campus Band, and the students were dressed in their best attire. The football game was a huge success, and the students were thrilled with the outcome.

Byrd on the Road

By Joe Byrd

Byrd on the Road was a popular radio show during the war. The show was hosted by Byrd, and it featured stories and music from the war. The show was a favorite of the students, and it was a great way to stay connected to home.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

I want to tell you about the great fire that happened last night. It was a terrible experience, and I want to let you know how we managed to survive. I hope you can help us in any way possible.

Sincerely yours,

SOUTHERN HOST TO IIAC-STATE RUN

BY ROY McDOUGALL

Two huge goals showed Evansville's tide-turning performance as they defeated the Panthers 20-7 last Saturday in the Missouri Valley.

By ROY McDOUGALL

Perhaps the most significant aspect of the game was the defensive effort displayed by both teams. The Evansville defense held Eastern to just 6 points, while the Panthers scored 20 of their own.
