Invitation

We are pleased to announce that our annual Thanksgiving Day celebration will be held on November 27th. The event will feature a special assembly and a traditional feast.

Special Assembly

The special assembly will take place at 10:00 AM in the school auditorium. Students and faculty will gather to recite the national anthem and to hear from our guest speaker, Dr. John Smith. After the assembly, students will be dismissed early for the Thanksgiving holiday.

Traditional Feast

The traditional feast will be served in the school cafeteria from 11:00 AM to 1:00 PM. The menu will include a variety of dishes, including turkey, stuffing, mashed potatoes, and all the traditional sides. Students are encouraged to bring their own table settings and to contribute to the feast.

We hope that all students and faculty will be able to attend this special event. It promises to be a memorable occasion that brings us together to celebrate our gratitude and our community.
Will Griffith, president of the [Grear ElrYJlt ASSol"iation has announced that a special show of a colored film portraying the beauties of Southern Illinois will be given for the faculty and student body on November 21.

The film, titled "Night in Paradise," is the story of a young woman who, after a series of unfortunate events, is forced to fly to an island in the South Sea. However, once there, she discovers the beauty of nature and the kindness of the locals, leading to a change in her perspective on life.

A challenge to our school spirit is new when Southern's teams march out on that Loganfield field, a stadium crowded with thousands of students and a series of thousands more will be judging us. Before we have to have a University, we had the opportunity to display to so many what we made of us.

Southern's Maroons may be the first to be affected, and still, our school spirit is not going to be a minor detail. We must not forget that the community, faculty, and students are going to be affected by this achievement.

There is only one way to free us from this possibility of adverse criticism on our school spirit, and the answer lies in our presentations.

Three hundred tickets have been made available to us — to be possible that less than one-tenth of our total enrollment will be present. Our future is closer than we think. After a day's vacation, to be entertained, see a good football game, and to represent Southern under the best circumstances. If we cannot, the event can feel over than school has ever experienced.

Our behalf, you are going — ARE YOU GOING?

Nature Study

My ten year old son, looking at a star, said, "Look, mom, there are stars all over, I'm getting discouraged."

I can't imagine how good it would be if we could have some sort of a group of people who were interested in the same things. It would be wonderful to have a group of people who were interested in the same things.

To Speaker Speech Festival

For the second consecutive year, Southern Illinois University at Carbondale will be held on November 21. The event will be held at the College of Business Administration Building.

The festival will be sponsored by the College of Business Administration and will feature a panel of speakers, a track on management and finance, and a panel on ethics.

The speakers and panelists include:

- Dr. John Smith, professor of management at SIU
- Dr. Mary Johnson, professor of finance at SIU
- Dr. Peter Brown, professor of ethics at SIU

The festival will feature three sessions: a keynote speech, a panel discussion, and a workshop.

To Speaker Speech Festival

The music is just so sad that when a walker dropped a tray full of dishes, everyone got up and started dancing.

Then there was the amenity that didn't remember what it did with its siblings.

Bowl Bound Maroons Win

Southern's 1947 football season, enriched by the participation of star players such as Bob York, would have come to an end if not for the students' continued support throughout the season. The Maroons lost to the Missouri State University sideline. However, their spirits remained high as they continued to compete against teams from across the country. The students' fervent support helped the Maroons clinch a victory in the Southern Most Cup, securing their place in the Bowl Bound Maroons' victory parade.
