Homecoming activities at Southern are in full swing as thousands of alumni and other visitors filter into the city.

The weekend for SIU students has just started with house decorations finished and the parade ball game, stage show, concert, and dance still ahead.

The house decorations, carrying on the "I Love State" will be judged for prizes this afternoon, also with it, the best for wear in this evening.

Coronation ceremonies were held in Shrook Auditorium last night.

A two-hour parade, featuring 58 marching bands and 80 of more floats and stunts carrying out the "Musical Salute" idea, will move from 9 to 2 1/2 m. the annual Homecoming Breakfast will be held in the University Cafeteria, starting at 9:30 tomorrow morning.

The football game featuring Southern and Central Michigan will begin at 2 p. m. tomorrow afternoon.

Exceeds All Predictions Southern's Enrollment Climbs 32 Percent Above Last Year

Final enrollment tabulations revealed that Southern's one-year enrollment growth has outdistanced all predictions, climbing more than 32 percent above last year's figure.

Final registration figures released this week by Registrar Robert McGraw show record enrollment of 8,311 students in residence at Carbondale and the Alton State College area residence centers. The total is 2,659 above the all-time high established last year, the largest single year increase in SIU's post-war growth period.

Although the enrollment of 1,834 at the residence centers far surpassed original estimates, it had little effect on registration rolls at the Carbondale campus. McGraw reported 6,497 students in class at Carbondale, 393 more than last year.

"The expected reduction in Carlson enrollments as a result of the new Madison State campus is being well made up by the increase in the Madison State area."

The overall increase, more than 200 students beyond the registration figures which had been forecast for 1958, is even more surprising in view of increased tuition

2,300 Vote To Put 16 Into Office

Approximately one-third of the SIU student body went to the polls Tuesday to elect a corps of students to fill positions in Southern's student government.

Of the 51 names listed on the ballots for homecoming queen, her court and attendants, club officers and freshman Student Council members, 2,300 votes were cast to put 16 students into offices and to choose 5 oeds for the court, one of whom will be queen, and two attendants.

Proposed amendments to articles in the Student Council Constitution were all passed. Article II, Section V stating that "The Student Council shall have two faculty advisers, each serving for a period of two years with one to be appointed each year," received 1,310 votes for amendment opposed to 172 "no" votes.

Richard Hunsaker is the 1958 Young Festival Chairman, defeating Art Galtzke. Dick had 1,160 votes opposed to Art's 758.

Born in Stratford, Patterson is the Founder and Director of planning of the now world-famous Shakespearean Festival.

With no theatrical background and no money, Patterson attracted such people as Alex Guinness, Tyrone Guthrie, and Tanya Moise-witch to help pioneer the beginning of a professional theatre in Canada.

As well as the Festival, he founded in cooperation with Douglas Campbell, The Canadian Players, a touring company of which his wife, Robin, is now president. The Canadian Players appeared on campus during the Fine Arts Festival of 1957.

Crowned At Coronation Last Night

Miss Marilyn Eckert, senior from Herrin, reigns as 1957 Homecoming Queen of Southern Illinois University today.

She was crowned last night in Shrook Auditorium amid the pagantry and splendor of the Court of King Menes.

Her Majesty won the title in Tuesday's elections by defeating Angie DeWess, Marie Holfield, Joanne Norkus, Tackie Wolfe, members of her court. Her attendants are Mary Alice Carnaghi and Mary Ruth Newlin.

The program was opened by Master of Ceremonies Tom Still, who presented the mysterious King Menes to the crowd. The curtain opened to reveal pale yellow, lavender and white mums flanked with greenery. The Queen's throne flashed a sparkling white.

King Menes called for the 1956 queen, Jane Curry, who came forth to preside. Her robe-bearers were Russell Taylor and Gail Isbell.

Entertainment of the court followed by Judy Striles, Bob Green and the Angeliars.

Miss Striles danced for the court and crowd and Bob Green and the Angeliars sang.

King Menes then called for his 1957 court and the maidens came forth and took their places, each carrying a bouquet.

At this point, the lights dimmed in the auditorium. A high felled over the huge crowd. Suddenly a light began to glow in the bouquet of one of the maidens.

And Miss Eckert was crowned Queen of the 1957 Homecoming.

A reception was held in Woody Hall after the coronation ceremony.

The Royal Party will head the Homecoming Parade Saturday morning and attend the football game between Southern and Central Michigan Saturday afternoon.

Saturday, the queen will attend the stage show in Shrook Auditorium and will be escorted to the dance where she will reign over her subjects.

Parents' Day November 16

Mom and Dad will visit Johnny's "home away from home" at Parent's Day Nov. 16 at Southern.

Although all parents of SIU students have been invited, two couples will be honored as "Parents of the Day." They will be selected in a drawing of parents' names submitted by SIU students, names submitted by SIU students, according to James Connell, general chairman.

Registration beginning at 9 a. m. in the Student Union will be followed by campus tours and a style and talent show at Shrook Auditorium. Several departments are planning special exhibits.

Parents will eat lunch with their children at Thompson Point, Woody Hall, or the University Cafeteria. Main event of the day will be an SIU Northern Illinois University football game beginning at 1:30 p. m.

MORE THAN A HOME

The growth of Southern Illinois University is in many directions. Part of Southern's experimentation is carried on in the residence halls programs, as shown here in pictures at Thompson Point Residence Halls.

Community living and shared learnings are seen in these activities.

1. Residents sharing living and study areas.
2. Men and women dining together.
3. Residents assuming responsibility for their own governmental organizations.
4. Faculty living in the area, teaching and counseling with the residents.
5. Men and women learning how to spend their leisure time well.

Out of such experiences, the residents will have made fuller use of the resources of the University.

Homecoming Clash -- 2 p. m.

Chips Here For Big Game

Southern's Salukis face a number of obstacles tomorrow when they meet the Central Michigan Chippewas in the 36th annual Homecoming football game.

In addition to locking horns with the tough and tough Chips from Mt. Pleasant, Mich., the Kawlinians will be pitting their strength against the Homecoming that have seen five of the last six such contests go to the visiting eleven.

The last SIU Homecoming victory came in 1953, when the Salukis won over Eastern in a slug-fest game, 6-0.

A complete rundown of Southern's Homecoming football results can be found on page 14 of this issue.

Renette Lewis

The Chips enter McAndrew Stadium with a season record of 2-4 compared to the 3-3 record of the Salukis.

Tied For 3rd

Both teams hold 2-2 records in the IIAAC, and tomorrow's game will decide the third-place position behind Western III and Eastern Michigan.

The Salukis have had a week's layoff after dropping their last contest at Eastern Michigan 21-7, while the Chips are fresh from a tremendous 61-6 mauling of Eastern Illinois. The Salukis earlier defeated this Eastern III club 2-6.

The last time Central Michigan played in Carbondale, Southern gave them a rude show of hospitality, upsetting the highly favored Chips 14-13.

Coach Al Kaval has announced his starting lineup which will remain intact with the possible exception of the left halfback slot. Regular halfback Cecil Hart has an injured hand and may be replaced in the lineup by Renette Lewis.

A thumbnail sketch of the probable starting Salukis is as follows:

Running—LE

Marion Bushing, senior and Captain from Pinksneville will be starting his fourth Homecoming game in a Saluki uniform. Bush has won letters in basketball, football and track each season he has been in school. The 21-year-old man stands 6' 2" and weighs 190.

Antwine—LT

will be Southern's starting left tackle. The 18-year-old was All-Memphis in high school and was born in Louise, Mississippi. The 6' 1" freshman will be playing center from Central's Eugene Knobloch, 255 pound star.

Lynch—LG

Jim Lynch, 20-year-old junior from Benton, stands 6' and weighs 165. The fighting guard did not play football last year, after while the Chips are fresh from a lettering his freshman season. Jim has been hampered somewhat this season by a knee injury.

Abramovich—C

John Abramovich, a Havertall Mass. product, anchors the center of the Saluki line with his 207-lb. pound frame. The 6' 3" junior has been Southern's Lineman of the Week on two occasions this season. This is his third consecutive season in the Southern starting lineup.

Brown—RG

Willie "Strap" Brown, starting right guard, has been one of Southern's outstanding linemen all season, although being sidelined one game with a fractured rib. Willie is a sophomore, weighs 195 and stands 5' 10". From Memphis, Tenn., he was an all-star four-year letterman in high school, and Southern last year was named the ROTC Most Outstanding Freshman Cadet and was initiated into the Phi Eta Sigma honor society. He is men requiring a 4.5 grade average.

Carpenter—RT

Richard Carpenter, another

stranger to Saluki fans, is a freshman Marine veteran from Centralia, Ill. The 211-pound tackle played two years of service ball and played for Centralia in high school.

Nelson—RE

Nelson Nelson, a 190 pound freshman from Wheaton, has broken into the regular lineup in the past few games. The 18-year-old stands 6' 3" and was named All-Chicago Suburban in high school. He also throws the discus and shot put in track.

Norwood—QB

Bill Norwood, another Centralia product, leads the IIAAC in passing. The 21-year-old junior weighs 165 and lettered at Southern last year as quarterback. Bill was a high school track star, a member of Southern's student council last year, and is majoring in chemistry and mathematics at Southern.

Shannon—RH

Carver Shannon, Southern's sophomore flash last season, is in his third season as a starting halfback. He leads Southern in rushing and scoring this season. The Corinth, Miss., native weighs close to 200 pounds and runs the 100-yard dash in 10.8.

Lewis—LH

Renette Lewis, 24-year-old junior from E. St. Louis, will probably be tomorrow's starting left halfback. Lewis has already earned two varsity letters at SIU. Weighing 190, the pesky 5' 10" back has been hampered by a weak ankle for part of this season.

Hart—LT

Cecil Hart, last game's starting left half, may not start tomorrow because of a hand injury, but will see plenty of action. From Hillsboro, Ill., "Cec" is a 22-year-old junior that can run from either halfback or fullback position. He weighs 175 and is six feet tall.

Restivo—FB

Senior Paul Restivo, from Heron, will be playing his first fullback fullback has been plagued by injuries throughout his college career, but should be at top strength for tomorrow's contest. The 22-year-old stands 5' 10" and weighs 178. He received last week's Back at the Week award for his running against E. Michigan.

LIVE BROADCAST

At least four Southern Illinois radio stations will carry SIU's Homecoming rite against Central Michigan College tomorrow.

Carrying the game live (beginning at 1:45 p. m.) over the SIU radio network will be WHCO, Sparta; WFRW, West Frankfort; and WCEN, Mt. Pleasant. Mich. WEBQ will originate its own live broadcast, while WCIL will tape the game, playing it back beginning at 1:30 p. m. Sunday.

The Local Government Center organized in the SIU government department and supervised by Dr. William O. Winter, Dr. Orville Alexander, and Dr. James D. Kitch, provides assistance to local government officials. Its purposes are to prepare publications concerning local government, to help analyze and solve governmental problems, and to build a competent library and provide information to civic groups.

The Alumni Office creates and maintains a bond of interest between the University and former students through an Alumni Association.

Restivo And Carpenter Take Honors

Freshman tackle Richard Carpenter and senior fullback Paul Restivo earned the Egyptian's Lineman and Back of the Week awards for their performances against Eastern Michigan two weeks ago.

Carpenter, a 20-year-old freshman from Centralia, Ill., anchored the Saluki line that stopped the Huron attack completely during the second half, although SIU lost 21-7.

Restivo became Southern's sixth back in as many games to capture the running honors, as he provided the punch needed against the rugged Huron line. Restivo was forced, along with Carver Shannon, to carry the brunt of the ball carrying load into the center of the line because of the slippery turn and Huron end defense.

From Where We Sit...

By WARREN TALLEY
Sports Editor

The Fans Will Know... Win Or Lose

All that we say in the Egyptian, and all that coach Kaval says during his weekly practices... actually means very little when a game once gets underway.

After the opening kickoff... the SIU football team, sometimes a team and sometimes 11 players, is on its own. So far this season, the Salukis have taken three wins and three losses.

In any of the three losses, SIU could have won... just as they by the same token, they could have lost at least one of the games they won.

In brief, this merely means that although one team may have depth, experience and size... the outcome is never quite a certainty, especially if the other team has what coaches call desire... or a "winning attitude."

Desire is as good as word as any, we suppose... but it certainly is more than just a word.

By better explanation, we may argue you to closely watch Central Michigan's team when it comes into the field tomorrow. They'll have desire... as a team, and fans will be able to feel it.

Central has, without a doubt, a very rough ball club. Several of their players have been injured from games this season... for playing a little too rough.

They have experience, polish and a look at their line will bear out their size strength. Yet, they lose five games while winning only two.

This only makes them twice as tough to beat now... a task that Southern's Salukis have before them.

On paper, we'd have to take the Homecoming tilt as a toss-up. Southern has great potential... and on any given time, has a backfield that can literally explode with action and speed.

A neutral observer would probably predict a win for Southern, despite Central's strong desire to win. There will be a single performance their 14-13 loss here two years ago... and their tremendous Nov. 15 and 16.

performance over the past two games. The nod would probably go to Southern because of the Homecoming festivities... and the fact that over 10,000 alumni and area fans will be in the stands watching.

But we've seen Saluki teams in the past play on Homecoming Day also... And we've seen these same teams roll over and play dead.

And so, with only a little over 24 hours remaining before kickoff time, Southern's footballers have to decide, within themselves, just how much tomorrow's game means... not to each individual for himself... but how much it means for team, the coaches, and SIU.

With all this in mind, they may go out tomorrow and still get their ears pinned back, or they may rack up an impressive win.

The fans will know, regardless of whether the Salukis win or lose... just how bad they wanted to win... and how hard they were playing.

Southern Illinois University's Dec. 23 basketball tilt against Washburn University of Topeka, Kan., will be played at the Marion High School gym. SIU officials announced this week.

Sponsoring the game will be Marion's Link League organization.

In other area cage contests, SIU will play Colorado State at Flora, Mo., Dec. 20 and Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., at West Frankfort Jan. 18.

"Bon Voyage" will be the theme of the second annual Southern Illinois University Dolphin Club swimming show set for Nov. 14-15-16.

More than 30 SIU students will compete for Dolphin Queen, who will be crowned the final night. There will be a single performance their 14-13 loss here two years ago... and their tremendous Nov. 15 and 16.

'Abe' Martin Coached 1st SIU Champion

By Jim Wiggs

"I played on the first championship football team SIU ever had and then I coached their second championship football team," says Glenn "Abe" Martin, baseball coach at SIU.

Martin, who has been connected with SIU all but a few years since his school days here in the early 30's, recalled some of his work at Southern. Martin worked as head football coach from 1939 to 1950. During these years Martin coached a champion basketball team and assumed the duties of basketball and baseball coach at different times between '39 and '50. He coached the champion NAAI basketball team in 1946.

Net Below Second

"I haven't had a baseball team since 1950," Martin continued leaning back in his chair. "We were baseball champions in 1952, and last year we finished third."

In 1954, Martin was placed in charge of intramurals along with his jobs of baseball coach and class instructor. He was the first man to handle intramurals term after term, and began building intramurals into something worthwhile for the students.

Fairfield Graduates

Martin graduated from Fairfield High School, and later went back to coach at his home school. After graduation from high school, Martin came to Southern and then to a year of professional football with the Chicago Cardinals. He played halfback for the Cardinals.

Martin has coached at Fairfield, Pontiac, and Princeton, Illinois. He came to Southern as assistant football coach in 1938.

As the present time, Martin handles 11 classes, intramurals and Campus Co-recreation, and is head baseball coach.

Off The Cuff

By Gary S. Clark

Just the brightest guy on the SIU campus, that's all — he remembered to reserve a room for his girl for the big Homecoming weekend.

It didn't occur to him to wonder where she was going to sleep on Friday night. By that time there wasn't a room left in town. She ended up at a highway tourist home far from town. So he had his head handed to him with a few choice adjectives.

Maybe there's something in this "older and wiser" talk after all.

From what I hear, the grand stand is going to look like a grizzly's convention. The way my friend's better half puts it, "Everyone, absolutely everyone, has a racoon coat."

Do gone if she hasn't resurrected something but father wore in college. This I've got to see. What a specimen of many elegance!

Try A Wind Breaker

A few F. Scott Fitzgeralds around here seem to be sporting these "moth mountains," but I know of a better way of keeping warm. Personally I'd like to see more of the old coon coats worn to the games, but they are hard to find these days. If you can't believe it, just try to find a coon in this part of the country. So if you aren't one of the lucky ones to be long to the menagerie, look around at some of the new styles in windbreakers. You can pick a really warm one, lined with nylon fleece, or you can choose a true windbreaker, a windshield style, and wear a sweater underneath. Lighter way, or both — you can't lose.

It Looks like the Fashion plates around SIU are making every thing up in the new miniature madras designs. First the shirt, then the sweater with the wool pinking in the tones from the shirt, then the matching windshield jacket, and finally the ivy cap. There's even a knit skirt in miniature madras stripes — some colors, but end. There will be a special show on Friday Sunday evening for anyone who wishes to see the most of a d' Fapp and Carol Callison. Pan Hel Star convergence held Nov. 1-2 at Rockford, Ill. Attending the convention from SIU were Ian Johnson, Kay Burrus, Darlene Wenner, Betty Anglim, Maggie Flint-Smith and Dr. Tara Evans.

Car Coat Makes Splash

Car coats made quite a splash last year, usually in lozen cloth with toggle buttons. Now you can get the same style in corduroy. These little jewels look great with a matching corduroy shirt. The same short length is also seen in a storm-coat style with a detachable hood and a lining guaranteed to keep you warm no matter what the weather does.

There's another style that's brand new this year and catching on like wildfire. It's called a suburban coat. For those who don't know what this means, it's just a little longer than a car coat and usually rived.

No matter which style you like, I think you'll agree that the short length is tops for campus wear.

GOT COLD FEET

Incidentally, I stumbled across a great deal the other day. A girl you must have the "switched socks" problem. That's when your socks and your roommate's socks get mixed up. This can be pretty irritating when you wear different sizes and you're trying to make the first morning class. Now you can get white tennis socks in stretchable Orlon. They stretch from size 9 to 11, and they are great. For those of you who suffer from cold feet in the stadium, there's a solution. Just get an equal number of extra socks, pick up a pair of fextra-lined boots. Cold stadiums won't bother you. You'll be spared that feeling of "my feet dropped off at the knees" when the game is over.

President Welcomes Alums To Southern

Invites Alumni To Inspect Buildings, Outlines Progress

President Delyte W. Morris

Welcome to Southern's Homecoming! There is no better time than "homecoming" for this annual festival week end. I sincerely hope that all former students returning to the campus will have the feeling of coming back home again.

If you have been away from "home" for awhile, you will find the house somewhat enlarged, and the growing family has necessitated the addition of a few buildings, and several more are planned.

Yes, Southern's family is now bigger — far bigger — than ever before. Although it strains the budget and the faculty, this continuing enrollment surge is solid evidence that your University is offering to the area it serves a sound and attractive educational program.

This fall, all previous enrollment records were shattered. Attending classes at Carbondale, at the Vocational-Technical Institute, and at the Residence Centers at Belleville, East St. Louis, and Alton are 8,311 students. This means Southern has 2,056 more students than last year, an increase of nearly 33 per cent. If any other university in the nation has experienced a percentage enrollment increase equal to this, I have not heard about it.

Major buildings completed since Homecoming are the remaining four of six Residence Halls and the Student Services building, Thompson Point and the new Agriculture building. If you have not seen these new developments to the southwest of the campus, it will be worth your while to visit that area while you are here. Construction on our new Home Economics building and University Center will begin soon.

Although our enrollment figures and new buildings are impressive, quantity alone is not the story of Southern. Far more important — and lasting — is what is accomplished here. Thus, at the head of the list of University objectives is continuing development of the faculty, the student body, the curriculum, and services to the area.

Faculty members are encouraged to improve themselves. At the same time, we strive to bring in new educators who are the best in their fields. For our students, we are trying to create a better environment of scholarship and creativity that will be most beneficial to them. The curriculum as well as services to the area are being expanded in the directions that the times take us, which means we are keeping in close touch with the developing needs of Southern Illinois.

The objective then, is not to make Southern an overcrowded diploma factory where students are mere numbers, not individuals. Neither is it our goal to make Southern an academic ivory tower where "eggheads" simply hatch out new "eggheads."

Our program shall continue to be realistic and related to actual problems. From the area it serves, Southern will receive inspiration and guidance. In return, its students and faculty will help spark that area to new achievement. Most of all, we want Southern to remain an institution of the people as well as for the people.

So, former students and friends of Southern, even though the campus may look quite different for this Homecoming than it did five, ten, or twenty years ago, please rest assured that only the house is changing. It is our intention that the traditional warmth and friendliness of your S.I.U. home remain unchanged.

Have a good time, and come back often!

Delyte W. Morris

80 Years Ago RR Brought SIU Here

The arrival of SIU in Carbondale more than 80 years ago made this one-time simple community into a town bustling with activity the year round.

Why was SIU located in Carbondale?

The Illinois Central Railroad played the big role in gaining SIU for Carbondale as it did in 1856 in helping establish the city itself. The railroad furnishes transportation facilities that no other city in Carbondale also was represented by all the major churches with good buildings and high attendances. This was one of the things that the new college town had to have.

Because of the money that the railroads and other industries had brought into the town, Carbondale has always been well off financially. It has not suffered the ups and downs of other cities in this area. During the depression years, all of the Carbondale banks were able to remain open for business.

Carbondale was chosen by the Commission to serve as the site of Southern Illinois University formerly known as Southern Illinois Normal University.

Since the first class session was a summer institute, with eight eight faculty members and 53 students, Southern has grown to 8,311 students and now has over 600 faculty members.

Mr. Flu Bug Quits SIU For Greener Pasture

While reports were going around the nation that Mr. Flu Bug was casing the place, the "Big S" school got an enormous whiff of just what Mr. Pest meant by the word "epidemic."

Did SIU have an epidemic? Just ask one out of every three students. Yes, flu—blamed to be of the Asian variety—hit campus Freshman Week and remained on the increase until the fatal day that no student can forget—Friday, October 25.

That was the day that "Mr. Flu" was crowned King of the Campus. Dr. Richard Lee, director of the health service, recommended that due to an epidemic, school be closed. Classes were cancelled, and sweeping students by the thousands packed their suitcases. That day night and fled for home or less infested places for a three-day recuperating vacation.

Until that final day, the Health Service had been stretched and pressed to the breaking point, a new doctor had been hired, Asian flu inoculations had been given by the hundreds, instructors were reporting empty classrooms, 15 cases had necessitated hospitalization and an infirmary had been set up at Southern Acres.

This was SIU in those days when a cough was the sound for the day and the word for the day was "the flu yet?"

But time cures all and Mr. Flu is consistently losing his influence and changing his color for a pale gray in the history books of this campus.

Beck Ferris Chief Name

Beck Ferris came very close to winning all four entries as he submitted the alternate black and tan winners of "Dats Dido" and "Faking Tut" for the male and "Faking Tut" for the female.

Some people submitted as many as 10 entries each, and the names ranged from "Caledonia" to "Dammitt II."

The winning money was sent from the Student Welfare Fund to the fortunate winners.

The four Saluki pups are now being kept by Dr. Robert Scott, chemistry instructor at SIU. The other three were returned to Paddock Kennels in Ohio.

With 16 members attending the German Club elected officers for this year at their October meeting. The officers are Horst Marshall, president; Fritz Cubin, vice president; and Judy Mae, secretary.

At the last meeting a Christmas program was discussed. "This program will be mostly singing the old German Christmas songs," said Mrs. A. K. Neufeld, founder of the club.

The next meeting is scheduled for Nov. 21, at 8:30 p.m. in room 212 of Wheeler Hall.

Dames Club To Sponsor Mrs. Southern Contest

In a recent meeting the Dames Club voted on the proposal of having a beauty contest. Mrs. Conroy was tentatively called Miss Southern.

Qualifications: Must be married and a member of the Dames Club. The contest date has been set for February.

Who knows, maybe Mr. Southern will be crowned by his own little future Southern—it's a possibility anyway.

Former President Established Sphinx Club

Sphinx Club is an activities honorary which was established in 1939 by the former University President, Roscoe Pulliam, and the sponsors of the 1939 senior and junior classes.

Members are chosen on the basis of genuine, unselfish service to the school and effective leadership and cooperative participation in student activities of all kinds.

Each spring term fifteen outstanding students in the junior class are chosen or tipped into membership in a formal ceremony. The following year, five more members are selected from the senior class.

This year, Sphinx Club extends its membership to a faculty member who will be chosen on his or her outstanding participation in extra curricular activities and in service to the school.

Membership in the Sphinx Club is the highest non-scholastic honor a student may receive at Southern.

Wissan Heaton, nursing major from New Brunswick, leads fight to the leashes of the friends, long-nosed mascots. The white Saluki is Mamma—Burdow Dats and the other is Poppa Ornak Farouk. These are the proud parents of Southern's young mascots.

Gift Of Ohio Alumnus Four Pups Newest Additions To SIU's Mascots

As of last year's Homecoming, through dogdom as nameless wiffs and SIU was once again blessed with All SIU students were eligible to enter the contest for a $5 prize for each name chosen from entries submitted.

Name Our Pups

Many names appeared for these matched pairs of puppies. P. E. Morris had stated that the dogs could not be registered until they were named, so everyone was encouraged to pick a pooch, moniker or even slap a handle on a hambone to get this job done.

Two SIU students emerged as double winners in the "Dub as a Dog" contest. Beck Ferris, a junior, and the names ranged from "Caledonia" to "Dammitt II."

The winning money was sent from the Student Welfare Fund to the fortunate winners.

The four Saluki pups are now being kept by Dr. Robert Scott, chemistry instructor at SIU. The other three were returned to Paddock Kennels in Ohio.

For Construction Building Authority Bill Will Give Southern $41 Million

Ten thousand the size of the new Library is what Southern could do with $41 million dollars, says John Rendleman, SIU's legislative counsel.

The Building Authority Bill will be voted on next November in state elections to determine whether or not $48 million dollars will be issued to various universities and colleges throughout the state.

The bill provides for Southern to have 41 million dollars, the University of Illinois 86 million dollars, Department of Public Welfare 81 million dollars and 40 million dollars to four teachers colleges.

The bill was introduced by leaders of the legislature at the request of Governor Straton February 27, 1957. If the people of the state pass the bill, authority will be appointed to qualified personnel to issue bonds for the money.

"The passing of the bill will not increase taxes in any way," Rendleman said. "It is going to be necessary that some measure such as the Department of Guidance and Special Education offers special consultant services to schools and assists in the utilization of mental, achievement and vocational aptitude tests, the screening of hearing and vision, the initiation and utilization of pupil personnel records, child study programs, vocational counseling and special programs and services for handicapped children."

The Alumni office publishes the Southern Alumnus and organizes local alumni clubs throughout the nation.

Only The Shadow Knows... Who Is Gus Bode?

Only the Shadows know... The raccoon coat or even a University High School student or professor is unknown.

The only things we do know are: IS HE A "HE"? Is about Gus is that he can write, print and type his name... even his name? There is no student leader, registered under the name Gus shapes and colors. You can find Bode. No one—absolutely no one has his name on walls or signs anywhere. Whether Gus was of the where—almost—from Carbondale days of "23 Skidoo" to Tambuctoo.

The other thing is his great skill at every issue before deadline but no one has ever seen Gus. His jokes can be found on Tuesdays and Fridays anywhere from inside a drawer to being pinned on the ceiling.

Just why he started writing for the Egyptian is not known either. He started sometime in 1936. First he sent in only a few jokes and never regulars but all the staffers learned amazed at his ability to get around and see a situation through the eyes of a humorist.

But whoever he is or whatever he is, if he doesn't want to be recognized that is his business. The design and construction of UUI is only thing that is known and will never be forgotten is that Gus is just as much a part of Southern as Old Man.

Extending a welcome hand to sending more than 18,000 invitations, the SIU Alumni Association is expecting one of the biggest Homecoming attendances in its history.

"Last year we had an attendance of approximately 4,500," said John B. Oatwell, director of the association. "From all indications, there will be several more than that if the weather is good."

A program of events and invitations for reservations were mailed to all members of the association. The requests for reservations were to be returned to the Alumni Office with checks payable to Homecoming, SIU. Any reservations that were received after Nov. 5 will be held at the ticket office of the event requested.

Architectural Service is responsible for campus landscaping and the design and construction of UUI versus buildings. It serves also as an advisory capacity for students interested in architecture.

SOME-ONE individual added "Saluki" and the Greek letters signifying "Sigma Kappa" to the water tower this week to set off the work of Halloween pranksters who decorated the tower with the Skull and Crossbones. No one is quite sure what the significance of the writing is, but it fits in well with the general Merry-making of Homecoming festivities.

Past Events

Society In Review

For several years the only social events were held by the Zeta and Socratic library society. These groups took the place of the sororities and fraternities now on campus.

The clubs would discuss music, give essays and have debates. Slowly the social groups on campus began to grow and societies would appear in "The Egyptian" concerning their activities.

On September 19, 1925, the Epsilon Beta had rush parties for a number of prospective girls. A Japanese dinner was given in their honor.

On February 15, 1926, the Sigma Alpha Pi invited some of the prominent boys of the school to a dinner at the fraternity house.

On September 5, 1931, Tri Sigma held its first rush parties. The number of members at this time was twenty-two.

Eight girls pledged Delta Sigma Epsilon on September 16, 1931. These girls brought the total number of pledges to ten.

The Alpha Upsilon chapter of the Kappa Phi Kappa education fraternity was officially installed on the campus on May 14, 1932.

Mu Tau Pi, honorary journalists' fraternity, sponsored a series of journalism programs for "The Egyptian" on May 3, 1933.

In 1934, there were twenty-one members living in the Kappa Delta Alpha house.

In 1941, there was a move to form a professional inter-fraternity council on campus. The move was initiated by the Pi Delta Epsilon, national honorary journalism fraternity.

In 1942, Southern students were amused to see several students going about the campus with test tubes strung about their necks. Inquiry into the matter revealed that these men were pledged to Chemeka, honorary chemistry fraternity.

Pi Kappa Sigma held formal initiation ceremonies for Virginia Congreve and Katherine Pittser on Sunday 17, 1943.

During February 1943, the W. A. A. held a basketball tournament.

On December 9, 1945, Alpha Phi Omega held their first meeting.

On November 1, 1948, Southern Acres celebrated the opening of their recreation hall with a Halloween party.

On February 13, 1949, Delta Delta Chi was presented with the charter of membership in Tau Kappa Epsilon, national fraternity.

Delta Sigma Epsilon, Pi Kappa Sigma and Tri Sigma were voted into full membership in the National Pan-Hellenic council at its conference on Nov. 21, 1951.

Report Of The Past

Southern's Homecoming History

Homecoming has again arrived and the entire campus is whirling with all the plans to really make this year's festivities a time to always remember.

A lot of hard work and time is being spent by each student and faculty member to welcome the alumni back and entertain them as they have never been entertained before.

Homecoming to the SIU student is a regular affair as it has become a part of his college life. But Homecoming has not always been so important on the campus.

Not Always Important
In the "Egyptian" of Oct. 31, 1921, the first mention was made of having a regular Homecoming at Southern. Before this time, they had annual football celebrations, but no special appeal was made to the alumni to return and help celebrate the occasion.

This first article concerned the idea of having the first annual Homecoming on Armistice Day. The main objective was to get all the alumni back and renew their old acquaintances.

Hon. Walter W. Williams, of Benton, one of the best speakers in Illinois, came back to address the alumni group.

In the afternoon a football game was played against Cape Girardeau.

The Homecoming play, which is an expected part of our Homecoming now, began at this first real Homecoming. The title of the first play was "The Obstinate Family."

Homecoming of Oct. 30, 1925, was highlighted by the play "Six Hours Late," produced by Strain and Free.

1925—Mardi Gras
Society returns, the parade, a football game and the dance "Mardi Gras" were a part of this Homecoming. The price of the dance was 70 cents per couple.

In 1926 with "Glorifying the SIU Girl" as the theme, Miss Lydia Davis was crowned football queen which was comparable to our present Homecoming Queen.

Miss Davis was attended by two hand maids representing knowledge and sportsmanship.

Homecoming 1931, was indeed a glorious affair. The play for that year was "The Depression of 1931," which despite its gloomy title was a hilarious affair. Skits were planned especially for the occasion to endeavor to prove that even a depression may have its silver lining. The feature of the show was a special orchestra which accompanied the play throughout the evening.

U. of A. Plans For SIU
The Homecoming dance featured Dick Casne and his University of Illinois Band. The dance, held at the shoe factory, cost 75 cents per person.

By 1932, Homecoming had become a routine on the campus. The parade was a basic requirement to complete the gay agenda for the celebrations. The starting point for the parade that year was in front of the Roberts Hotel.

That year marked the 20th year for President H. W. Shryock at Southern. A reception in honor of the president was held at Anthony Hall. Although a regular Homecoming Queen was not selected, a football queen was crowned during the weekend of 1932 Homecoming.

Vincent Lopez and his 17-piece band played for the Homecoming dance of 1939.

Al Donahue and his orchestra played at the Homecoming dance in 1940.

The celebration began with a flag-raising ceremony. "High Tor" was the Homecoming play for that year.

Oralee Hubbard was crowned Homecoming Queen.

"The Man Who Came to Dinner" was the play for the 1941 Homecoming festivities.

Pat Mercer was the Homecoming Queen for that year.

Clayton Westwood was the winner of the Homecoming football which was raffled off by the "11" Club.

The annual pep parade and a downtown rally started the celebrations in 1943.

"The Twelve Pound Look" was presented by the Little Theatre.

A variety show was given by the Cadets stationed at SIU.

Highlighting the events of the weekend was the dance with Jay McShann and his orchestra finishing the music.

All-Girl Band Play
Paul Harms and his all-girl band furnished the music for the 1944 Homecoming dance.

That year the Little Theatre gave several skits as their program. Jack Hedges was chosen student head of the post-war Homecoming of 1945.

ed in Shryock Auditorium with Doug Matthews as master of ceremonies.

Richard Coleman was the Homecoming Chairman.

Jo Rushing was elected queen. "Bell, Book and Candle," a three-act comedy was the Homecoming play in 1954.

Marilu Martin was the featured vocalist with Tex Benke's orchestra which played for the dance.

Thirty high school bands marched in the parade.

Ann Travelstead was crowned Homecoming queen.

In 1955, Pi Kappa Sigma society won first place in the house decorations contest.

Ralph Flanagan and his band played for the dance in the armory. Marilyn Liebig was chosen queen.

The Southern Players presented "My Three Angels" for their Homecoming play.

Forty-seven bands marched in the 1956 Homecoming parade.

"Magic Memories" was the theme for this Homecoming.

Jare P. Morgan, The Hilltoppers and Buddy Moreno and his band were the entertainers for the stage show.

In a few days, another Homecoming will be history and the students will settle down until next year.

Dr Delve Morris held an open house in its office where the students could meet the college president.

On Friday evening the Little Theatre presented "Kiss and Tell" under the direction of Dr. Archibald McLeod.

The parade started downtown and came to McAndrew Stadium. Oran Tucker and his "danciest band in the land" entertained at the dance held in the gym.

Emma Douglas was crowned Homecoming Queen.

Tri Sigma won first place in the parade, which included four southern high school bands.

Southern celebrated its 75th Jubilee Anniversary in 1949, with reunions, dinners and the dance. Homecoming Queen was Delores Sharp.

The traditional bonfire was held when the Freshmen throw away their green banners.

"The Male Animal" was the theme of the play for that year.

In 1951, Homecoming was highlighted by the big parade which featured more than 40 floats.

The Homecoming play was a "Goodbye, Mr. Fancy."

Seventeen houses were decorated for the festivities.

Glen Bear was the Homecoming chairman for 1951.

"First Lady" was the play for the 1952 Homecoming. A parade, football game, bunches, dinners, smokers and the dance were features of this year.

Halloween Was The Theme
A Halloween theme was chosen for the 1953 Homecoming parade.

The Homecoming play for that year was "The Curious Savage."

The Sauer-Finegan Orchestra played for the dance and concert. A radio broadcast was recorded.

been granted a special time for examining all sections. As some students attending at night may not be able to attend the special examination period scheduled for the daytime, each department involved will have to arrange special examination periods for such students. This problem involves those night students who are fully employed during the day and who are taking night courses because it is the only time they are able to do so.

General Information
 (1) The final examination period has been extended to five full days plus Saturday as a result of adoption of a new Final Examination Scheduling Policy by the University Council.
 (2) Examinations for three, four, and five-credit hour classes will begin at the hours scheduled and will run for two hours. Examinations for one and two-credit hour classes will begin two hours and ten minutes later and will run for one hour. For example, a 9 o'clock class carrying four hours of credit will have its examination from 7:50 to 9:50 a. m. on Wednesday, December 11. A 9 o'clock class carrying two hours of credit will have its examinations from 10:00 to 11:00 a. m.
 (3) A student who finds he has more than three examinations on one day may petition, and a student who has two examinations scheduled at one time should petition, his academic dean for approval to take an examination during the make-up examination period provided on the last day. Provision for such a make-up examination period does not mean that a student may decide to miss his scheduled examination time and expect to make it up during this make-up period. This period is to be used only for a student whose petition has been approved by his dean.
 (4) A student who must miss a final examination may not take an examination before the time scheduled for the class examination. In the event a student misses a final examination and is not involved in a situation covered in (3) above, a "W," followed by the tentative grade with a "12" indicating the number of weeks attended should be recorded on the grade report by the instructor. A "W" grade must be completed within one year of the end of the quarter involved; otherwise, it must remain as an incomplete grade.

Foreign Policy To Be Discussed

"The American as an International Traveler and Host" will be the topic of discussion for the fall meetings of a group of area citizens.

"SIU has been chosen as one of 20 midwestern schools to organize this series of talks and discussions by local citizens," said Dr. Frank Klingberg, chairman of area consultations for SIU.

According to Klingberg, these discussions of government foreign policy are taking place in several communities in this area of the state. The groups will meet five times and then the results of their discussions will be sent to the U. S. Department of State. This program is being sponsored by the state department and the National Commission for UNESCO.

"The state department hopes to gain important information concerning public opinion on U. S. policy and world affairs," said Klingberg.

Leading the discussion will be Dr. William O. Winter, professor in the SIU government department. Winter recently returned from Vienna, Austria where he was a Fulbright lecturer.

Center In Your Future!

Here's What You Can Do!

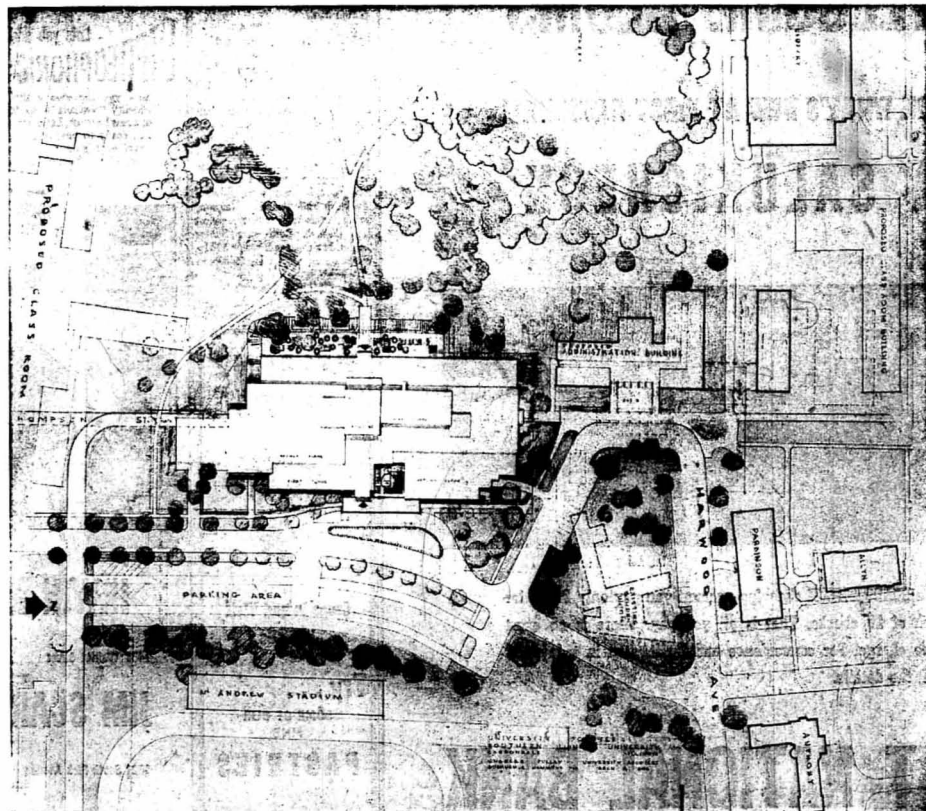

The University Center or Student Union has been designed to serve students, faculty, alumni and residents of the entire area. Students are already paying part of the cost of the proposed building with their quarterly Student Union fee. Alumni, faculty and residents of the area must join with the students in paying for the building and its furnishings if our dream of a University Center is to be realized.

The final total structure of the proposed Student Union will be made possible only through the contributions of students, faculty, alumni and friends of the University. The fee students pay will not come near covering the cost of the building. But it is of definite help, being the largest stipulated amount going into the fund.

Application is to be made to the Housing and Home Finance Agency. Every method of financing is being investigated. A campaign for funds from alumni, faculty and area residents will be conducted.

This building is to be YOUR University Center. Your ideas and suggestions on facilities for the building will be appreciated. Write today to the Student Union Board, c/o Student Union, SIU, Carbondale.

Your assistance and cooperation will hasten the day when Homecoming will be centered in the University Center.

Homecoming Sports Flashbacks--1921 To 1957

By Warren Talley
Egyptian Sports Editor

As Southern Illinois University enters its football game on the 36th annual football game... Homecoming days of other years come into mind.

What is Southern's overall Homecoming record? Who were our greatest stars on Homecoming day? These questions and maybe some others, may be found in the brief rundown of SIU Homecomings that follow:

Overall Record — 17 Wins, 15 Losses, 2 Ties

1921—SIU 0, Cape 0
Southern entered a team that had not been defeated in the past seven years in their conference and who had not been defeated on their home field in five years, in the opening Homecoming game in 1921. They could not whip Cape, however, and Captain Ted Carson and crew battled to a 0-0 as they dropped the 7-0 Homecoming contest. According to dopesters, the visitors were favored by three touchdowns, so SIU fans felt they were in for a moral victory. Two weeks later the Southern team traveled to Marble Hill, Mo. for a game with Wily Mayfield college, but a few hours hence, this most invidious face that has befallen us is conducive of hypochondria. This melancholy-producing calamity is truly the product and handiwork of a moron who is a foe to joy.

1923—SIU 23, Charleston 0
Spectacular runs of 40, 35 and 85 yards, plus a 45-yard scoring drop kick, led Southern to this Homecoming victory. Captain of the squad was James Hook, 5' 8" sophomore 158 pound fullback from Vienna, Ill.

1927—SIU 0, Cape 0
Captain Robert Allen led Southern to a mediocre season that year, along with teammate's Ralph Brim, Boris Lov Willard Allison, Freely Wohl, Eugene Bricker, Clarence Harris, Andrew McArthur, Thomas Newton, William Bundy, John Veach, Ernie Sorgen, Francis Loudon, Ray Sotlar, Harry Lutz, Frank Bridges, Louis Foley, James Hook, Frank Eovaldi, Ray Floyd, Ray Spiller and Stewart Williams.

1928—SIU 24, Cape 0
(No Records Available)

1925—Shurtleff 7, SIU 0
McAndrew's Maroons fell their to a coat of whitewash in 1925. Carson and crew battled to a 0-0 as they dropped the 7-0 Homecoming Harris and Glenn Martin. 1931—SIU 7, De Kalb 6

An Egyptian journalist wrote down, so SIU fans felt they were in for a moral victory. Two weeks later the Southern team traveled to Marble Hill, Mo. for a game with Wily Mayfield college, but a few hours hence, this most invidious face that has befallen us is conducive of hypochondria. This melancholy-producing calamity is truly the product and handiwork of a moron who is a foe to joy.

An Egyptian journalist wrote down, so SIU fans felt they were in for a moral victory. Two weeks later the Southern team traveled to Marble Hill, Mo. for a game with Wily Mayfield college, but a few hours hence, this most invidious face that has befallen us is conducive of hypochondria. More Sports Flashbacks the game... receiving their fifth straight loss.

1950—SIU 14, Normal 14
Harold Call was outstanding for Bill Waller's team, as Chuch Ouler's place kick tied the game with four minutes remaining.
1951—Eastern 47, SIU 19
Bill Waller's squad remained without a win all season in 1951, and only the running of Bob Em's brightened Homecoming day. Phil Coleman was the lone winner for SIU that day as he won the three-mile cross-country run in 18:35.
1952—Wash. U. 19, SIU 14
A blocked punt and a kickoff fumble were pin-pointed by coach O'Brien as the main reason Southern lost this one. Em's played his last game before entering the Army. Southern had a 2-6 season's mark that year.
1953—SIU 6, Eastern 0
In a dull game, SIU finally broke their losing string as Jack Schneider scored the only TD on a 41-yard gallop. Smith, Kalla, Krolack, Parker, Bowers, Siville, Williams, Huske, Ernest, Schneider and Warfield started for SIU.

1954—Mich. Normal 20, SIU 0
This one needs little explanation, although Southern played creditable ball. Normal had a great club... and SIU later lost a 19-17 game to Western and ended in the IAC cellar.
1955—Wash. U. 32, SIU 13
Played before 9,400 fans, Don Polkinghorn and Mel Siegel phoned SIU's Homecoming. Bill Spratt, Jack Schneider and Wayne Williams were outstanding for SIU. Al Rodgers scored one of Southern's TD's and Schneider grabbed the other.
1956—Western 21, SIU 7
Last year's Homecoming is still fresh in fans' minds, as the Western Leathernecks proved the spoilers in handing Southern a 21-7 loss.
 10,000 fans saw the disappointing game... and will see many of Southern's team back in action tomorrow that played in last year's game.

 A Dave Wheeler to Bob Barura was one of Southern's high offensive points during the game, and Cecil Hart scored Southern's only TD in the second quarter.
 Willie Brown was the defensive standout, along with Marion Rushing and Bob Swanson.
 The five backs leading SIU at that point in the season were Lewis, Shannon, Hart, Restivo, and Hamilton. All five are expected to see plenty of action again tomorrow.

M. S. Sundaram Flying To SIU To Talk To IRC
 M. S. Sundaram from the Indian Embassy in Washington is flying to SIU on a special trip to speak on "American Ideals and Asian Aspirations," according to Dr. Frank L. Klingberg, sponsor of the International Relations Club.
 "The international organization of UNESCO and the U. S. National Commission for UNESCO are both working this year on a major project for increasing understanding between Asia and the West," Klingberg said. He pointed out that the National Commission for UNESCO is holding conference this week in San Francisco on the topic of "Asia and the United States" to help promote this program. Klingberg will represent SIU at this conference.

 "Sundaram is a very distinguished man and an expert in the field," said Klingberg. "All students, faculty and general public are cordially invited to come and hear this speaker," he said.
 Sundaram is Educational and Cultural Counsellor at the Embassy of India in Washington. He has taught at three universities in India and Professor and Head of the Department of English studies. He is the Assistant Education Advisor to the Ministry of Education in India. In 1945 Sundaram was the Educational Liaison Officer of the Indian Government in the United States. He has made round-the-world tours studying education-

"Student First -- Then Athlete"

Athletic Director Boydston Gives Views

"My own personal belief concerning intercollegiate athletics is that the welfare and development of the individual student is the most important responsibility of any educational endeavor.
 It is my further belief that physical education and athletics are educational as they can provide the individual with certain qualities and abilities important to successful living that he will not be able to develop in any other activity or endeavor. I feel that the athlete must be a student first, but I do not accept the thesis that good students are poor athletes or vice versa.
 I sincerely feel that if we can get a fair share of the better athletes in Southern Illinois who are also of college caliber academically, we can have a successful athletic program.
 If the Athletic Department at Southern Illinois University and the individual coaches think of the boy and his welfare first and if the coaches, by example, teach honesty, integrity, and a sincere respect for the learning process, then Southern Illinois University will have representative teams in all ten varsity sports.
 I realize that many athletic programs are evaluated on the basis of how many football games are won during the season. We intend to win our share of football games, but we are just as interested in the gymnasium, the swimmer, the golfer, and all other student athletes as we are the football player.
 There are no minor sports at Southern.
 I say this because the primary objective of any university athletic program should be to provide the student with experiences which will help to prepare him for life rather than to accept the thesis that the only successful athletic program is one in which you win all of your games or contests no matter what the cost to the institution or to the individual.
Need Alumni:
 We need the active interest and cooperation of our alumni. If you are an alumnus we hope that your philosophy of athletics is the same as ours. We would appreciate your aid in informing prospective student athletes about the fine institution we have here at Southern, and it would be appreciated if you would keep in mind the type of boy that we want. He must have good character, he must be able to do work of college caliber, and he must be a good competitor in the varsity sport of his choice.
 I know of no well-balanced or strong athletic program in this country that does not have the backing and the interest of the alumni of that institution. We must have the same cooperation here if we are to succeed."
