Mayor, City Commissioners Will Meet Newsmen Today

SDX to Sponsor Face the Campus

"Face The Campus," the second of a series of press conferences with University and public officials, will be held at 4 p.m. today in Mullcketory Auditorium.

The conference is sponsored by the SIU chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalistic society.

A panel of SDX members will discuss local issues with Carbondale Mayor D. Blane Miller and three city commissioners, Frank Kitz, streets and public improvements; Joseph R. Baggs, public property; and Eugene Ramsey, public safety, at the conference today. William E. Eaton, commissioner of accounts and finances will not be able to attend.

John M. McKeehans, SDX faculty advisor, will serve as panel moderator. Panel members are Tim Ayers, Jules Savaege, Rick Birger and Bob Reiner, chairman of the conference committee.

The first "Face the Campus" program was held last April when President E. W. Morris was interviewed by an SDX panel moderated by Charles G. Clayon, professor of journalism, now on leave organizing a journalism school at the Chinese Univeristy in Hong Kong.

At the initial conference WSO-TV video-taped the session and broadcasting arrangements have been made for today's conference.

The conference is open to the public and will be followed by a discussion in which questions from the audience can be directed to the city officials for comment and discussion.

Editor to Speak at Convocations

Earl Ubell, science editor of the New York Herald Tribune, will speak today at the 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. Freshman Convocations in Shryock Auditorium.

Ubell, a physics major and Phi Beta Kappa in college, has covered almost every major science story of the decade, including John Glenn's historic flight, the first Sputnik, the Salk vaccine, the X-ray report and numerous others.

In addition to his work at the Herald Tribune, Ubell has contributed articles to the Readers Digest, Vogue, the American Scientist, Nation's Business and many others. In 1958, his tour of European laboratories resulted in a series of analytical articles on the future of science in Europe.

This is the first time people responsible for teaching religion and religious philosophy in the state universities have come together as a group to analyze where we stand and to try to arrive at a workable solution to this problem," said Milton D. McLean, consultant on religious studies, who is a visiting professor in sociology at SIU this fall.

Jews, Protestants, Catho­lites and educational organizations such as the Danforth Foundation and the Society for Religion in Higher Education are sending observers to the conference, McLean said.

Key speakers are Robert S. Michaelis, head of the department of religious studies at the University of California at Santa Barbara; and Wilber G. Katz, professor of law, University of Wisconsin.

Michaelis' new book, "The Study of Religion in American Universities," is being furnished to all the conference delegates as a major reference work for the discussions, keyed by McLean's opening address this evening, McLean said.

Katz, former professor and dean of the University of Chicago Law School, is also the author of a new work on religion, entitled "Religion and American Constitutions." He will speak Saturday morning on "The New Climate of Legal Opinion."

The conference is sponsored by the Extension Division, with the assistance of the Association for the Coordination of University Religious Affairs, the National Conference of Christians and Jews (Chicago area) and the Society for Religion in Higher Education.

Where ‘Freedom’ Is Prostitution

When the editors of a student publication become so deaf to the patriotic ‘hustle’ that they find it necessary to poke fun at jokes about the shipping from Viet Nam to the United States of bombs, missiles, and other Vietvets, we should ask ourselves whether such a publication has not outlived any usefulness it may at one time have had. We might also pause to ponder what sort of degenerate minds originated and approved such a publication in the calibcr of Wednesday’s “A Message, From Your Postmaster.”

Motorcyclists, Drivers Share Responsibility

As students and residents in Carbondale, we feel the editors of our local student newspaper are quite ungrateful over the motorcycle situation. A recent publication by a student association that all motorcycles be registered and shortly, all motorists required to pay a $3.50 tax to the city even though we are not actual residents of the area. It amazes me that people have not learned that there are not only 1,500 motorcycles here now but 1,800 motorists registered and shortly, all motorists will be required to pay a $3.50 tax to the city.

Most of the accidents in Carbondale where motorists and motorcycle are involved are caused by the drivers of the car either by making a left turn in front of a cyclist, by pulling out into their path, or by not observing the traffic laws. The motorcycle drivers need to be educated on the proper way to drive, and car drivers need to be taught the proper way to react to two-wheeled traffic.

We need more commentary from students, residents and others from Southeast Asia, and other students from overseas. In the recent publication, “A Message, From Your Postmaster,” one wonders whether there are not 60 students from Southeast Asia. One wonders whether there will be a need to pay a $3.50 tax to the city even though we are not actual residents of the area. It amazes me that people have not learned that there are not only 1,500 motorcycles here now but 1,800 motorists registered and shortly, all motorists will be required to pay a $3.50 tax to the city.

During the Vietnam War, the United States committed itself to the proposition that was unavailable while I was an undergraduate, and shortly, all motorists will be required to pay a $3.50 tax to the city.

15-County Library System Will Be Discussed Tonight

Formation of a central public library to serve 15 Southern Illinois counties will be discussed today at a meeting on the campus. Trustees and librarians of public libraries from the area will take part in the meeting which will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the University Center.

Legislation approved at the last session of the General Assembly provides $4,100,000 for public library development in Illinois. The measure includes equalization grants to individual libraries and funds to establish 21 library systems to which existing public libraries can turn to supplement their book collections. The regional centers can also provide centralized cataloging and increasing and advisory service.

Chemistry Grants To Aid Research

The Department of Chemistry has received a grant totaling $14,000 for undergraduate research. The National Science Foundation awarded $12,600 to the department for undergraduate research stipends. For jobs abroad

The company produces industrial chemicals, fibers, plastics, paints, petroleum products, and forestry products. They are seeking people for employment from Mexico, Columbia, Venezuela, Peru, Belgium, Holland, and Germany. A 20% or M.E. degree in chemical, mechanical or textile engineering is required. The persons hired will be sent to these countries immediately or will first receive one year's training in the United States. Interested students should contact the placement service.

Pace’s Academic Rank Is Associate Professor

Thomas J. Pace Jr., who joined the Department of Speech faculty this term, is an associate professor of speech.

Ralph E. McCoy, director of libraries, has called the meeting. Donald Wright, head of the Library Development and Services of the Illinois State Library, Springfield, and Harold Rath, formerly head of the southern regional branch of the State Library, will participate in discussions.

Invited to the conference are representatives from the 27 tax-supported public libraries in the 15 counties—Alexander, Franklin, Gallatin, Hamilton, Hardin, Jackson, Johnson, Massac, Perry, Pope, Pulaski, Saline, Union, White and Williamson.

"Membership in a system is voluntary and does not affect the autonomy of the local library or its tax support and there is no membership assessment," McCoy said.

"The system would be operated for the benefit of member libraries under a board of trustees elected by the library boards. State financial grants to a system are based on the number served and the population. The purpose is to improve existing public library facilities and extend service."

Democrats, Republicans Claim Off-Year Gains

By Walter R. Mears

WASHINGTON (AP) — New York's Republican Mayor-elect John V. Lindsay, first of his party to capture that title in 24 years, got congratulations and a promise of cooperation Wednesday from President Johnson.

Both Democrats and Republicans claimed comfort in the outcome of Tuesday's off-year elections, which saw Democratic campaigners capture the other two top prizes, the governorships of New Jersey and Virginia.

Lindsay, the lanky, 43-year-old congressman from Manhattan's "Silk Stocking" District, hit the New York sidewalks again, this time to thank the voters who turned him to victory over Democrat Abraham D. Beame.

Johnson told Lindsay he will make New York a "good place to live."

Lindsay's triumph, by a 136,144-vote margin in a heavily Democratic city, vaulted him to the vanguard of the GOP, though his campaign

Some Republicans talked of a potential presidential future for the handsome young New Yorker.

Democrats scoffed at Republican claims that the Lindsay victory would bolster the GOP, trounced across the nation in Johnson's Democratic landslide a year ago.

In the two big victories for Democrats, New Jersey Gov. Richard J. Hughes rolled up a record, 318,000-vote re-election margin, and Lt. Gov. Mills E. Godwin Jr. was chosen Virginia's 21st consecutive Democratic governor.

Lindsay, who refused in 1964 to endorse presidential nominee Barry Goldwater, won his fourth term in the House.

Goldwater was silent Wednesday on the New York City outcome.

Democratic National Chairman John M. Bailey said the Lindsay triumph could not be rated a victory for the Republican party.

"Congressman Lindsay carefully dissociated himself from the national party, program and leadership of the Republican party," Bailey said. "And in his campaign for mayor he stayed as far as possible from the Republican label."

GOP National Chairman Ray C. Bliss said Republican big-city gains will help his party. "The good candidates will look at this," he said, "realize that a Republican can win if things go right, and get out and file."

"We did make gains," Bliss added, "and thereby produced impetus to our efforts to strengthen the Republican position in metropolitan areas of the nation."

He pointed to Philadelphia, Louisville, and his home town of Akron, Ohio, as other examples of Republican victory in the cities. Philadelphia, Republicans won their first citywide office in a dozen years. They did it with Arlen Specter, a registered Democrat. He beat Democratic Dist. Atty. James C. Crumlish Jr. by 35,000 votes.

"The adage that Republicans cannot win in the big cities is now out the window," said Gov. William W. Scranton. But the GOP news wasn't so good in some of the smaller cities. A Democrat, James T. Walsh, topped the Republican mayor of Scranton, the governor's home town. Democrats outflanked 3 Republicans in Erie, Lancaster and Allentown, too.

In Louisville, Kenneth A. Schmitz, Jr. City Hall in Goshen, Kentucky Sen. Thurston Long, Democrat, the Republican candidates got 52 per cent of the Negro vote, compared with 3 per cent under Goldwater's 1964 leadership. Morton said other Southern Republicans should take that lesson to heart.

"We seem to have done better in the cities than we did in the country," Morton said.

John S. Ballard, a Republican, was elected mayor of Akron, ending 12 years of Democratic dominance.

Lindsay boarded a campaign truck and went out to thank the voters. His first stop: the heavily Negro district of Bedford-Southwestern, in Brooklyn, which beckoned him strongly.

Faith Led Morrison To Suicide

Baltimore, Md. (AP)— "The more I think about it, the more I think in the world is that our faith becomes living experience and deed of life," Normal R. Morrison wrote Tuesday, hours before he turned himself into a human torch.

The 31-year-old Quaker wrote the words to a Sunday school class. He died in Flames outside the Pentagon in Washington. Morrison's wife said he was an objector to the Viet Nam war. His widow said he gave his "life to war in the service of others as a Quaker who will not kill his fellow man."

While she was in seclusion and under mild sedation at home with her three young children, Mrs. Morrison asked a group of the Friends to meet the press.

The spokesman, Sam Legg, said "we don't know" to a question why Morrison imolated himself. "None of us know why he did it. It's Norman's wife Anne knows why."

It was aware that Norman had such an idea."

Princess Bringing Wardrobe to U.S.

LONDON (AP) — Princess Margaret will take a spectacular collection of clothes and hats with her Thursday on her first visit to the United States, a source close to the royal family said Wednesday.

"She's trying to keep them a big secret," said the informant, "it's a bit like a bride with her wedding dress. She doesn't want anyone to know all about it 'til the wedding."

Asked how many dresses and suits Queen Elizabeth II's younger sister is taking, the source said: "I'm not sure, but it's a lot. She's had Norman Hartnell and others busy for weeks. She'll also be taking some special hats. It should be a real eye-opener in America."

U.S., Viennese Begin Joint
Mission to Clear Chu Lai Area

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—U.S. Marines and Viennese government troops joined Wednesday, nearly 2,000 strong, to clear Viet Cong from the area of Chu Lai, whose air strip was the target of a guerrilla raid a week ago.

The operation, 340 miles northeast of Saigon, was dubbed Black Ferret. Briefing officers said the Marines drew sporadic sniper fire and suffered light casualties, but captured six Viet Cong and seized an enemy battle flag in the opening phase.

About 30 miles down the South China Sea coast, a break in the Communist detachment pulled back as the Marines moved in, with some Marines strafing and bombing by U.S. jets after an unsuccessful attempt to overrun a government outpost near the port of Quang Ngai.

U.S. sources estimated from 500 to 600 Viet Cong hit the outpost before dawn. The garrison held, with casualties described as a mild drubbing. There was no report on Viet Cong losses.

Routine Marine operations around Da Nang, a major air base 55 miles north of Chu Lai, led to the death of two guerrillas and capture of three.

In mid-night attacks last Wednesday, guerrilla infiltrators destroyed two bombers at Chu Lai and 19 helicopters at the Marble Mountain air strip, east of the main Da Nang base. Thirty-seven Viet Cong were killed.

On a firing range at Da Nang, picked men of the 3rd Marine Division began training with longer range rifles for sniper duty to induce Viet Cong marksmen to keep their distance.

A total of 92 are being armed with Model 70 .30-caliber Winchesters, each fitted with a telescopic sight.

Germans’ Trust of U.S. Rises

TUEBINGEN, Germany (AP) — West Germans have more confidence in the U.S. government than they had a year ago, but considerably less confidence in the French, according to a survey by the Wirtschafts Institute of Tuebingen published Wednesday.

The respondents were asked: “Which of the three following governments do you personally trust the most?” The institution did not say how many people were polled. The results of the poll appeared in the West German newspaper "TUE BINGEN, Germany."

Western Heights Christian Church has started a program of Bible study and mission field visits.

The study program includes classes held Sundays at 9:30 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. Regular assignments and tests are included in the program. Two units of study are offered each quarter. The topic for this term is “Jesus, the Son of God.”

Another part of the program includes in mission field visits. Last spring, 16 SIU students visited Eastern Christian College near Baltimore where they discussed the need for mission work in the eastern United States.

The group also spent a day in New York where the students visited the World’s Fair. Tentative plans for this year include a trip to Mexico.

The study program is open to all students at no cost.

Visiting Educator Studies SIU Fraternity
Gerald O'Grady, professor of English from Rice University and a Vision 68 guest, recently visited Theta Xi for a first-hand look at fraternity life.

O'Grady, who was educated at Boston College, University of Wisconsin and Oxford, led an informal, after-dinner discussion on education. He said he was very surprised that SIU students took so much for granted from their instructors and the administration. He emphasized the fact that students should take better advantage of their rights as students because they are paying for their education.

Education in England was also debated. O'Grady pointed out many advantages for taking only one course for three years with no exams. He felt students should read and learn about their other interests without getting college credits. Most of the students were in disagreement with this idea.

O'Grady said he was very impressed with Theta Xi and fraternity life.

TIME TO STUDY — Carlos Medrano (right), one of the most promising young pitchers in the Washington Senators professional baseball organization, tunes in his ball and glove to Ron Hatkin, instructor in the School of Technology, and checks out tools for his industrial education shop class.

For Carlos Medrano —

Fall, Winter Bring Books and Classes, But Spring, Summer Is Always a Ball

After spending the cold winter months at SIU, Carlos Medrano looks forward to spring in sunny Florida. That’s the way it’s been for Medrano since he first entered Southern in the fall of 1961. Medrano, one of the most winning pitchers in the Washington Senators baseball organization, works on his bachelor’s degree in industrial education during the fall and winter quarters and in the spring reports to the Senators baseball camp.

Medrano signed a professional baseball contract in 1961, when the new Senators organization was being formed, following the former Washington team’s move to Minnesota.

Ironically, it was his work as an infielder which won him a place in baseball until he was beaten out by a better-hitting infielder.

“I had to do something else to keep my uniform so I tried pitching,” said Medrano. Beginning his professional career with Middlesboro, Ky., Medrano played for Pensacola, Fla., Raleigh, N.C., Hampton, Va., and York, Pa., before making a brief appearance in the big leagues.

Northern Michigan Is First of Triple Trouble
As Southern Heads Into the Shootout

Three small college teams with a combined record of 19 wins and only two losses and up to trouble for Southern as they try to bear the horn-struck of a troubled season.

The Wildcats’ opponents in the next three weeks are Northern Michigan (6-1), Ball State (7-9) and Southwest Missouri (6-1). Northern Michigan will provide the first hurdle when the two teams clash Saturday in the Annual Parent’s Day game.

The Wildcats’ only loss came three weeks ago when they were shut out 13-0 by Central Michigan. The Wildcats rebounded the next week, however, to stop Northwest Missouri, 27-6, and last week edged Findlay 21-19. Prior to its loss, Findlay was unbeaten and ranked No. 1 in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics.

Northern Michigan’s offense is built around a strong running game which has netted 583 yards on the ground. Joining Fleet in the backfield are fullback Terry White and quarterback Bill Sauter.

The defense, led by Dave Fleet, a 165-pound halfback, and Terry Gallagher, is built around a strong running game which has netted an average of 156 yards an outing. The Wildcats’ leading rusher so far has been little Dan Shaughnessy, who ran two miles for 138 yards against Findlay.

The defense, led by Dave Fleet, a 165-pound halfback, and Terry Gallagher, is set to meet the Gales.

Health Service Offices Move To New Quarters This Week

The Health Service administrative offices are moving this week to new quarters at 113 Small Group Housing.

Out-patient facilities and pharmacy are scheduled to make the move from houses at the corner of Washington and Park streets during the Christmas holidays, and the X-ray laboratory will follow about April 1 to complete the transition.

The new location will be temporary pending construction of a planned 50-bed temporary X-ray laboratory will follow. Small Service, only out-patient care has been provided at the Health Service.

The offices of Waldron and Dr. Richard V. Lee, Health Service administrator, will be located on the second floor. The Health Service director, will be located on the second floor.

The building has been remodeled to provide expanded service to students, according to Robert Waldron, Health Service administrator.

The offices of Waldron and Dr. Richard V. Lee, Health Service director, will be located on the second floor. Expanded services at 113 Small Group Housing will include an emergency room and 12-bed infirmary. In the past, the only out-patient care has been provided at the Health Service, Waldron said, but increasing enrollment requires the University to take some of the emergency treatment and infirmary load from community hospitals. The Health Service will soon have an emergency vehicle, he said.

The emergency room and infirmary will be operated 24 hours a day.

Laboratory and X-ray facilities will be doubled in the new building. Two new X-ray machines and an automatic film processor to be installed at a cost of $55,000 will provide physicians with completed film in seven minutes. X-ray use has increased 53 per cent in the past year, according to Waldron.

Also included in the building will be 10 clinic rooms, two for each physician on the staff, permitting them to see a greater number of patients by alternating between the rooms. Need for the expanded facilities is illustrated by the growth from a daily average of 40 out-patients in September, 1960, to 139 this September.

Auto Club Rally Set for Sunday

The Grand Touring Auto Club, Inc., will stage a gimmick rally Sunday afternoon.

The event, called the "Drivers' Dilemma," will begin at Epps Motors, on Illinois Route 13, east of Carbondale. Registration will open at 11:30 a.m., and will close at 12:30 p.m.; a meeting for drivers and navigators will follow.

Rallymaster John Jennings said a picnic is planned at Epps Motors, on Illinois 13. He was in the there less than a year ago. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waldron, Health Service administrator.
